In Corporations the conſent of the greater number is as effectuall as if it were done by the whole company.

In Corporations none ſhall haue a negatiue voice.

An oath ſhall not be obſerued which is taken contrary to this ſtatute the Kings Courts of Record, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, wherein the defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his law, nor any protection nor eſſoine, or any other delatory plea admitted or allowed.

Cap. XXVIII.

The Chancellor of Lancaſter and other Noble men may retaine Chaplaines.

21.H.8.13. WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the one and twentieth yéere of your moſt Gracious reigne, it was amongſt other things ordeined, and prouided, that certaine honourable perſons, and other of your Highneſſe Councellors and Officers, as well ſpirituall as temporall, ſhould and mought haue Chaplaines beneficed with cure, to ſerue and attend vpon them in their houſes, which Chaplaines ſhall not incurre the danger of any penalty or forfeiture made or declared in the ſame Parliament, for none reſidence vpon their ſaid benefices, or for obtaining licences or diſpenſations of pluralities, in which act is no prouiſion made for any the head Officers of your Graces ſeuerall Courts of your Duchy of Lancaſter, the Courts of augmentations of the reuenues of your Highneſſe Crowne, the Firſt fruits and Tenths, the Maſter of your Maieſties Wards and Liueries, the generall Surueyors of your Graces lands, and other your Graces Courts.

Certaine perſons which may retaine one Chaplaine hauing a benefice with cure of ſoules, that may be abſent from his benefice.

In conſideration whereof it may pleaſe your Maieſty, that it may be enacted by your Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the Chancellor of the ſaid Court of the Duchy of Lancaſter, the Chancellor of your Highneſſe Court of Augmentations, the Chancellor of your Graces Court of Firſt fruits and Tenths, the Maſter of your Highneſſe Wards and Liueries, and euery of your Graces generall Surueyors of your Highneſſe lands, the Treaſurer of your Graces Chamber, the Treaſurer of your Highneſſe Court of Augmentations, and the Grome of your Graces Stoole, and euery of them for the time being, ſhall, and may retaine ſingularly to euery of them in his houſe, or attendant vnto his perſon, one Chaplaine hauing one benefice with cure of ſoules, which may be abſent from his ſaid benefice, and not reſident vpon the ſame, the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid one and twentieth yéere of your moſt Gracious reigne, or any other eſtatute, act, or ordinance made to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Theſe Chaplaines muſt ſometimes reſort to their cure.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that euery of the ſaid Chaplaines, ſo being beneficed as is aforeſaid, and dwelling with any the Officers afore named, ſhall perſonally repaire two times in euery yéere at the leaſt to his ſaid Benefice and Cure, and there to tarry and abide by the ſpace of eight dayes at euery ſuch time at the leaſt, to viſit and inſtruct his ſaid Cure, vpon the paine to forfeit for euery time ſo failing fourty ſhillings, the one moity thereof to the King our Soueraigne Lord, the other to ſuch as will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any of the Kings Courts of Record, in which ſuit no eſſoine, protection, or wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Cap. XXIX.

Religious perſons enabled to ſue and be ſued.

A rehearſall of the Statute of 31.H.8.6. enabling religious perſons to purchaſe, to ſue, to be ſued, and inherit.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the eight and twentieth day of Aprill, in the one and thirty yeere of the reigne of our Soueraigne Lord, Henry the eight by the grace of God King of England, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, and of the Church of England, and alſo of Ireland in the earth the ſupreme head: It was and is ordeined, and enacted by the authority of the ſaid Parliament, that all and ſingular ſuch religious perſons, as wéll men as women profeſſed, of what order, rule, or habit ſoeuer they were, which then were, or after that time ſhould be put at their liberties, from the danger, ſeruitude, and condition of their Religion and Profeſſion, whereunto they were profeſſed, by reaſon of ſuppreſſion, diſſoluing, forfeiture, by attainder, rendring or otherwiſe giuing to the hands of the Kings Maieſty, their houſes, Monaſteries, and poſſeſſions: ſhould, by authoritie of the ſaid Parliament, from and after the firſt day of the ſame Parliament, and from and after the time that they were, or ſhould be put at ſuch liberty, haue frée liberty to purchaſe to them and to their heires in fée ſimple, fée taile, for terme of life, for yeeres, or at will, manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, and other hereditaments and things whatſoeuer they were, in like manner and forme as though they, or any of them had neuer béene profeſſed, nor entred into any ſuch Religion: and that the ſame religious perſons, and euery of them, by authority of the ſaid Act of Parliament, ſhould bée able to ſue, and to bée ſued in all manner of actions, plaints, and ſuits, whatſoeuer they were, of and for any matter or cauſe growen ſithens, and after the time of their ſeuerall derainements or departing out of their religion, in all Courts, places, and iuriſdictions within this Realme of England, as other the Kings Subiects were, and that they and euery of them ſhould, and might from that time vſe, and exerciſe, receiue, take, haue and enioy all and euery lawfull thing and things from thenceforth to be growen, fallen, or happened vnto them or any of them, after the ſaid deraignement, or departing out of their religion, in as large and ample manner, forme and condition, as if they had neuer beene profeſſed, nor entred into religion, this ſame profeſſion or religion, or any law, cuſtome, or vſe, within the ſaid Realme of England to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding, as by the ſaid act among other articles, clauſes, and prouiſions more plainly appeareth.

And forasmuch as diuers ambiguities and doubts daily doe ariſe, whether the ſaid act extend vnto ſuch late religious perſons, as were in diuers late religious houſes, and Monaſteries, which by the Kings Highneſſe were immediatly tranſported and tranſlated from their religion and old corporation into a new corporation, and neuer came and remained in his gracious hands, neither by ſuppreſſion, diſſoluing, forfeiture by attaindor, ne ſuch like, according to the words of the ſaid former act. In auoiding of which ſaid ambiguities and doubts: Be it now ordeined and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords Spirituall, and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, and that the ſaid act of Parliament aboue remembred, made in the ſaid one and thirtieth yeere, ſhall extend as well to all ſuch perſons which be liuing, that were religious perſons in any of the ſaid houſes, which were ſo tranſlated and [a] tranſported from one Corporation into another, which at any time was profeſſed, or were religious perſons, in any of the ſaid houſes within this Realme of England, and that they, and euery of them from the time of their ſaid ſeuerall deraignment and diſcharge of their ſaid profeſſions, and religions, ſhall be in like quality, eſtate, condition, and degree, and alſo ſhall take, haue, and enioy like benefit, commodity, profit, and aduantage, and with like prouiſo only, and not otherwiſe, to euery intent, and in euery thing, as any other religious perſon or perſons may and ſhall haue, take, and enioy by vertue of the ſaid former act aboue remembred, the ſame profeſſion or religion, or any cuſtome or vſe to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Religious perſons which were remoued from one corporation to another, enabled to inherit, purchaſe, ſue, and to be ſued.

Cap. XXXVI.

Prouiſion for repaire of deſolate and void grounds which had beene builded in Canterbury, Buckingham, &c.

Foraſmuch as in times paſt diuers and many beautifull houſes of habitation haue béene within the walls and liberties of the City of Canterbury, the City of Rocheſter, the Boroughes and Townes of Stampford, and great Grimeſby in the County of Lincolne, the Towne of Cambridge in the County of Cambridge, the Borough or Towne of Derby, in the County of Derby, the Borough or Towne of Gilford in the County of Surrey, the Towne of Dunwich in the County of Suffolke, the Boroughes or Townes of the Cinque Ports, with their members, the Towne of Lewes in the County of Suſſex, and the Towne of Buckingham in the County of Buckingham, which now are fallen downe, decayed, and at this time remaine vnreedified, lying as deſolate, and void grounds, and many of them adioyning nigh vnto the high ſtréets repleniſhed with much ordure, filth, and vncleanneſſe, with pitts, cellars, and vaults lying open and vncouered, to the great perill and danger of all the inhabitants, and other the Kings Subiects paſſing by the ſame: and ſome houſes be very weake and féeble, ready to fall downe, and be very dangerous to paſſe by, to the great decay and hinderance of the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, townes, and Cinque Ports. It may therefore be enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons or bodies politike, being owners and poſſeſſioners of any ſuch deſolate or void grounds, that at any time within fiue and forty yéeres next before the making of this act, haue béene builded for houſes of habitation, or for any houſe or houſes of habitation now or hereafter being in decay and not fully fallen downe, within the liberties and precincts of any of the ſaid Boroughes, Townes, and places, doe not ſufficiently reedifie, build, and repaire, or cauſe to be reedified, builded, & repaired the ſaid deſolate void grounds and decayed houſes conuenient for habitation and dwelling, within two yéeres next after proclamation to be made in or vpon the ſame void ground or grounds, decayed houſe or houſes, by the Mayors, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, or other head Officers within the precinct of their owne authorities, that then it ſhall be lawfull for the chiefe Lord or Lords immediat, of whom ſuch deſolat and void grounds, decayed, and ruinous houſes be holden after the ſaid two yéeres be expired, to enter into the ſame, and to haue the ſame grounds or houſes, with the curtilage, backſide, and garden adioyning to the ſame, if they be of the inheritance of the owner or owners of the ſaid decayed houſe or ground, and excéed not one acre of ground, to them and to their heires or ſucceſſors, or to their owne proper vſe for euer: So that the ſaid Lord or Lords immediat entring by the authority of this act, doe ſufficiently reedifie, build, or repaire the ſame void ground or decayed houſes, within two yéeres and a halfe, next and immediatly following the determination of the foreſaid firſt two yéeres.

If the owner of a decayed houſe doe not reedifie it within two yeeres after proclamation, the Lord of the fee may enter and retaine it to him and his heires.

And in caſe ſuch Lord or Lords, as may enter by this act, do not enter and well and ſufficiently reedifie, build, or repaire the ſame void grounds or decayed houſes, within the ſaid two yéeres and an halfe to them limited by this act: or if ſuch Lord or Lords immediat, as may enter by this Act, doe ſufficiently reedifie, build, and repaire the ſame void grounds or decayed houſes, within the ſaid two yéeres and an halfe to them limited, and after they, their heires, or ſucceſſors ſuffer the ſame houſes or void grounds to fall in ruine and decay, and doe not build, or reedifie the ſame ſufficiently within two yéeres and an halfe of ſuch ruine or decay: that then it ſhall be lawfull to all perſon or perſons, or bodies politike, as ſhall then haue any rent charge ioyntly or ſeuerally going out of the ſaid void ground or grounds, or decayed houſe or houſes, in any of the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, Townes or places immediatly after the ſaid two yéeres and an halfe expired, to enter into the ſame, and to haue to ſuch of them their heires and ſucceſſors, to their owne proper vſe, as ſhall ſo build the ſaid void grounds or decayed houſes, by authority of this Act, the ſame void grounds or houſes, with the curtilage, backſide, and garden adioyning to the ſame if they be of the inheritance of the owner or owners of the ſaid decayed houſe or ground, and exceed not in quantity one acre of ground, diſcharged of all rents going out of the ſame grounds or houſes, as well againſt the ſaid Lord and Lords immediat, as all other perſon or perſons or bodies politike, hauing any rent or rents charges, or rent ſecke out of the ſame, other than the fee ferme of the ſaid City, Borough, Towne, or place, or ſome parcell thereof: So that the ſaid perſon or perſons or bodies politike, hauing the ſaid rent charge, entring by the authority of this act, doe ſufficiently reedifie, build and repaire the ſame deſolat and void ground or grounds, or decayed houſe or houſes, within one yeere and three quarters next and immediatly following the determination of the ſaid two yeeres and a halfe, to the ſaid Lord or Lords immediat appointed by this Act.

And in caſe ſuch perſon or perſons or bodies politike, hauing any of the ſaid rents charges, as may enter by this act, doe not enter, and well and ſufficiently reedifie, build, or repaire the ſame void grounds or decayed houſes, within one yeere and three quarters to them appointed by vertue of this act: or if they or any of them hauing ſuch rent charge, and that may enter by this Act, doe ſufficiently build and repaire the ſame void ground or grounds, or decayed houſe or houſes, within the ſaid one yeere and three quarters to them limited, and after they, their heires, or ſucceſſors, ſuffer the ſame void ground or grounds, houſe or houſes to fall in ruine and decay, and do not build or reedifie the ſame ſufficiently within one yeere and three quarters after ſuch ruine or decay: that then it ſhall be lawfull to the Mayors, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and other the head Officers of the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, Townes, and places, by what name, or names ſoeuer they be incorporated, and their ſucceſſors, and euery of them, within the limits of their authorities immediatly after the ſaid yeere and three quarters expired, into euery ſuch deſolat and void grounds decayed, or ruinous houſes, to enter, and to haue, hold, and enioy to them and their ſucceſſors for euer, to their owne vſes, the ſame grounds or houſes and euery of them with the curtelages, gardens, and backſides to the ſame, if they be of the inheritance of the owner or owners of the ſaid decayed houſe or ground, and exceed not in quantity one acre of ground cleerely diſcharged of all rents going out of the ſame grounds or houſes, as well againſt the ſaid Lord or Lords immediat, as all other perſon or perſons or bodies politike, hauing ſuch rent charge or rent ſecke, as before is ſaid, other then the fee ferme of the ſaid City, Borough, Towne, or place, or parcell thereof, ſo that the ſame Mayors, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, or other head Officer as is aforeſaid, or their ſucceſſors for the time being, doe reedifie, build, or repaire, or cauſe to be reedified, builded, or repaired, the ſame ground, or grounds, houſe, or houſes within three yeeres next, and immediatly following the determination of the ſaid yeere and three quarters, limited or appointed to ſuch perſon or perſons or bodies politike, that haue or ſhall haue any rent as is aforeſaid.

The entry of the chiefe Officers of the ſame corporat Townes in default of them which haue the rent charge.

And in caſe the ſaid Mayors, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, or other head Officers, as is aforeſaid, or their ſucceſſors, do not enter, and reedifie, build, and repaire the ſame void ground or grounds, decayed houſe or houſes in forme aforeſaid, within the ſaid terme of three yeeres after their ſaid entry: or if they ſufficiently reedifie, build, and repaire the ſame void ground or grounds, or decayed houſe or houſes, within the ſaid three yeeres to them limited by this act, and after they or their ſucceſſors, ſuffer the ſame houſe or houſes, void ground or grounds to fall in ruine and decay, and do not build and reedifie the ſame ſufficiently within three yeeres after ſuch ruine or decay, that then it ſhall be lawfull to the firſt owner or owners, poſſeſſor or poſſeſſors of ſuch void ground or grounds, decayed houſe or houſes, their heires or ſucceſſors, immediatly after the ſaid three yeeres, to the ſaid Mayors, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and other head Officers as is afore limited, expired, into the ſame houſes, ground, or grounds, curtilages, gardens, and backſides to enter, and the ſame to retaine to them, their heires, and ſucceſſors, as in their firſt eſtate, any thing conteined in this preſent act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The entry of the firſt owners in default of the chiefe Officers.

Prouided alway, that this act, or any thing therein conteined, be not in any wiſe hurtfull, or preiudiciall, to any perſon or perſons, being at the time of the ſaid Proclamation made, vnder the age of one and twenty yeeres, or being feme couert, or in priſon, or beyond the Sea in the Kings warres, or in his other lawfull affaires, or to any perſon or perſons, not being then of whole and perfect memory, during the time that ſuch perſon or perſons ſhal be within age, married, in priſon, or of no perfect memory, or beyond the Sea, ſo that the ſame perſon or perſons, their heires or ſucceſſors, after that he or they come to their full age of one and twenty yeeres, or be vnmarried, out of priſon, or come againe within this Realme, or be of whole and perfect memory, within three yeeres then next enſuing, doe reedifie the ſame deſolat or void grounds, or repaire the ſaid decayed houſes.

THe Court of the generall Surueyors of the Kings lands ſhall be a Court of Record, and ſhall haue a priuy Scale,of which Court ſhal be officers the Kings generall Surueyors,a Treaſurer, viz.the Treaſurer of the Kings chamber for the time being,an Atturney,the Maſter of the woods, Auditors,Receiuors,a Clerke of the Court,an Vſher,a Meſſenger,their ſeuerall oaths, duties, and authorities. All lands onely mentioned in a Shedule ſigned, or to be ſigned with the Kings ſigne manuall ſhall be in the order and gouernance of the ſaid Court. AL.1. M.10.

And where diuers and ſundry Obligations, and ſpecialties heretofore haue béene made to diuers perſons,part of them to the vſe of King Henry the ſeuenth,father of our now moſt gratious Soueraigne Lord, and part of them to the vſe and behoofe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord: Be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord,with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that all obligations, and ſpecialties, which after the firſt day of May next comming, ſhall be made for any cauſe or cauſes, touching or in any wiſe concerning the Kings moſt royall Maieſty or his heires, or to his or their vſe, commodity, or behoofe, ſhall be made to his Highneſſe and to his heires Kings,in his or their name or names by theſe words,Domino regi,and to none other perſon or perſons to his vſe, and to be payed to his Highneſſe by theſe words, Soluend' eidem Domino regi, hæred' vel executoribus ſuis, with other words vſed and accuſtomed in common obligations. And that all ſuch obligations and ſpecialties ſo to be made ſhall be good and effectuall in the law to all purpoſes and intents,and ſhall be in the ſame nature,kind,quality,force,and effect to all intents and purpoſes, as the writings obligatory taken and knowledged according to the Statute of the ſtaple at Weſtminſter hath at any time before the making of this preſent Act, béene taken, vſed, exerciſed, and executed againſt any lay perſon or perſons,any law,vſage,or cuſtome to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Obligations made to the King, ſhalbe in the nature of a Statute Staple,and ſhalbe made Domino Regi.

Who ſhall haue the Kings ſpecialties after his death.

And that all ſuch obligations and ſpecialties, the debt whereof being not payed nor contented in the life of the King,ſhall come, remaine, and be to the heires, or executors of the King, at the frée liberty,diſpoſition, aſſignment, and appointment of the ſame King, to whom ſuch obligations or ſpecialties ſhall be made as is aforeſaid. And if any perſon or perſons in his or their owne proper perſon,or perſons after the ſaid firſt day of May,make or take any obligation or obligations to the vſe of the Kings Maieſty,or of his heires Kings, otherwiſe than is before expreſſed, that then ſuch perſon or perſons only that ſhall ſo offend, contrary to this preſent Act, for his or theirs ſo doing, ſhall haue and ſuffer ſuch impriſonment as ſhall be aſſeſſed and adiudged by the King or his honourable Councell, daily attendant vpon his Highneſſe moſt royall perſon.

And

All ſuits for the Kings debts to be in his owne name.

And that all ſuits to be made after the firſt day of Aprill next comming for the recouery of, or for any the Kings debts, in any the Kings Courts mentioned in this act, of or vpon any Obligation or ſpecialty dated or deliuered before the making of this preſent act, or which ſhall be dated and deliuered to the King, or to his vſe, afore the ſecond day of May next comming, ſhall be taken, ſued, and purſued in the name of the King, and in the name of none other perſon or perſons, to whatſoeuer perſon or perſons the ſaid obligations or ſpecialties, or any of them, be, haue beene, or ſhall be made to the Kings vſe.

Proces, iudgement, execution for the King to be in the nature of the ſtatute Staple.

And that all ſuits, proceſſe, iudgements, decrees, and executions hereafter to be taken, purſued, or giuen for the King in any the Kings courts, mentioned in this act, of, for, or vpon any the ſame obligations laſt afore mentioned, ſhall be of the ſame or like ſtrength, force, effect and intent in the law to all purpoſes onely againſt all and all manner ſuch perſon and perſons as beene bounden in ſuch obligations or ſpecialties, as well ſpirituall as temporall, as againſt their heires, ſucceſſors, executors, and adminiſtrators, and euery of them, and againſt none other, as writings obligatories taken and knowledged according to the Statute of the ſtaple at Weſtminſter at any time before the making of this preſent act, haue beene vſed to be taken, exerciſed, and executed againſt any lay perſon or perſons.

The King in all ſuits for debt ſhall recouer his coſts and damages.

And that the King in all ſuits hereafter to be taken in or vpon any obligation or ſpecialties, made or hereafter to be made to the King, or any to his vſe, ſhall haue and recouer his iuſt debts, coſts, and damages, as other common perſons vſe to doe in ſuits and purſuits for their debts. And that all ſuch ſuits as now be depending in the name of any common perſon to his Graces vſe, whereof no verdict is, or before the feaſt of Eaſter next comming ſhall be giuen or paſſed, or no exigent awarded, ſhall abate, be void, and of none effect. And neuertheleſſe the King by the authority aforeſaid, ſhall haue his ſuit and remedy for the ſaid debt ſo being in action and proces, in forme as is aforeſaid, in any of the Courts in this act mentioned, any thing in this act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Suits for the Kings debts ſhall be in the Courts where they ſhalbe due.

And it is further enacted by the authority aboueſaid, That all and euery ſuit and ſuits, which hereafter ſhall be had, made, or taken, of, for, or vpon any debt or duties, which heretofore hath growen or beene due, or that hereafter ſhall grow or be due to the King, in the ſeuerall offices and Courts of his Eſchequer, Duchy of Lancaſter, Augmentations of the reuenues of his Crowne, Surueyors generall of his manors, lands, and tenements, Maſter of the Wards and Liueries, and Court of the firſt fruits and tenthes, or in any of them, or by reaſon, or authority of any of them, ſhall be ſeuerally ſued in ſuch one of the ſaid Courts and offices, in the which Court and office, or by reaſon of the which Court and office, the ſame debt or duety did firſt grow, or become to be due, or hereafter ſhall grow or become due, or in the which office or Court the Recogniſance, obligation, or ſpecialty is, or ſhall be, or remaine. And euery ſuch ſeuerall ſuit and ſuits ſhall be made in euery of the ſaid ſeuerall offices and Courts vnder the ſeuerall ſeales of the ſaid ſeuerall Courts by Capias, Extendi facias, Sub pœna, Attachments, and Proclamations of allegeance, if need ſhall require, or any of them, or otherwiſe, as vnto the ſaid ſeuerall Courts ſhall be thought by their diſcretions expedient for the ſpeedy recouery of the Kings debts.

Proces that ſhalbe awarded in the ſaid ſeuerall Courts for the recouery of the K. debts.

And that the ſaid Court of Eſchequer, and all and euery of the ſaid Courts, ſhall haue whole, and full authority, and power, to heare and determine all and euery ſuch ſuit and ſuits, as hereafter ſhalbe taken, commenced, and purſued for the intent aboue ſpecified, and thereupon to award, make, and doe execution by and vpon the body, lands, and goods of the party or parties that ſo ſhall be condemned accordingly.

The authority of the Courts of Eſchequer, Wards, and Duchy.

And alſo ſhall haue full power and authority, to heare and determine all, and all manner of debts, detinues, treſpaſſes, accompts, reckonings, waſts, deceits, negligences, defaults, contempts, complaints, ryots, quarrels, ſuits, ſtrifes, controuerſies, forfeitures, offences, and other things whatſoeuer they ſhall be, which hereafter ſhall grow, be moued, ſtirred, procured, purſued, or ariſe in, for, or vpon any matter, cauſe, or other thing aſſigned, committed, or appointed, or hereafter to be aſſigned, committed, or appointed to the ſeuerall directions, orders, and gouernances of the ſame Courts, or any of them, or for or vpon any manner of thing or things, which may or ſhall touch or in any wiſe concerne the ſame, wherein the King ſhall be only party. And alſo all manner of ſtates for terme of yeares betweene party and party concerning the premiſſes, and to correct and puniſh by their diſcretions all and euery perſon and perſons, which before them ſhall be conuicted of any of the premiſſes, according to the nature, quality, and quantity of his or their offence, or offences, cauſe, or cauſes, matter or matters, (all and all manner of treaſons, murders, felonies, eſtates, rights, titles, and intereſts, as well of inheritance as of freehold, other than ioynters for terme of life only excepted, and alwayes reſerued.)

Title pretended to lands ſold or exchanged by the King.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall make, or pretend any claime, right, title, intereſt, or poſſeſſion, in or to any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, bargained, ſold, or exchanged, or hereafter to be bargained, ſold, or exchanged by the King our Soueraigne Lord, to any perſon or perſons in fee ſimple, or fee taile, by his Highneſſe Letters Patents made or to be made thereof vnder his great Seale of England, vpon which Let. Pat. there is or ſhall be reſerued any annuall rents or fermes payable to the Kings

Highneſſe,

Demanding any rents or profits out of ſuch lands.

The King pretending title to any lands by him ſold or exchanged.

The King demanding rents or profits out of ſuch lands.

In what cauſes the Court of augmentations without other warrant, may make recompence to any perſon that is wronged.

A loſſe extending by a decree to the Kings Patentee for life or yeeres.

Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors in his ſaid Court of Augmentations: or demand or aſke any rents, annuities, offices, fees, or other profits, in, out, or of any ſuch manors, lands, tenements,, or hereditaments, conteined or to be compriſed in any ſuch Letters Patents, made or hereafter to be made as is aforeſaid: Or if our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, his heires, or ſucceſſors, ſhall make or pretend any claime, right, title, intereſt, or poſſeſſion, in, or to any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, bargained, ſold, or exchanged, or to be bargained, ſold, or exchanged, by the King his heires or ſucceſſors, to any perſon or perſons in fee ſimple, or fee taile, by his or their Letters Patents thereof made, or hereafter to be made vnder his or their great Seale of England, vpon which Letters Patents is or ſhall be reſerued any annuall rents, or fermes payable, or which ſhall be payable to the King his heires or ſucceſſors, in his ſaid Court of Augmentations: Or if the King his heires or ſucceſſors, demand or aſke any rents, annuities, or other profits, or hereditaments of any eſtate of inheritance, in, of, or out of any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments conteined, or compriſed, or to be conteined or compriſed, appointed, or to be appointed, or aſſigned, to the ſaid Court of Augmentations, in any Letters Patents made, or hereafter to be made, as is aforeſaid: That then the Chancellor of the ſaid Court of Augmentation, by the aſſent of the Councell of the ſaid Court, or the more part of them, ſhall haue power and authority by authority of this act, to examine all ſuch demands, rights, titles, intereſts and poſſeſſions, rents, annuities, offices, fees, and other profits, and hereditaments, whatſoeuer they ſhalbe, and euery of them ſo to be demanded, pretended, claimed, or aſked, as is aforeſaid, and by witneſſe, proofes, and other wayes and meanes, by their diſcretions, to heare and determine the ſame: And in caſe the Kings Patentees in any ſuch Letters Patents, as is aforeſaid, or any of them, their heires, ſucceſſors or aſſignes, ſhall be compelled by the authority of the ſaid Court of Augmentations, by decree or iudgement of the ſame Court, to render and yeeld to any perſon or perſons in fee ſimple, or fee taile, the lands, tenements, or hereditaments compriſed, or ſpecified in any ſuch Letters Patents, or any parcell of them, or to ſuffer any perſon or perſons to haue and enioy any offices, rents, annuities, or other profits, or hereditaments in fee ſimple, or in fee taile, out, or of the ſame, or out of any parcell thereof: And that it ſhall appeare in the ſaid Letters Patents, that the King his heires or ſucceſſors, is or ſhall be bounden, or of right and equity ought to recompence, and ſatiſfie the ſaid Patentees, their heires, ſucceſſors, executors, or aſſignes, or any of them, of, and for ſuch manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, annuities, rents, offices, fees, or other profits recouered in fee ſimple, or fee taile, by decree or iudgement of the ſaid Court, as is aforeſaid, or elſe to diſcharge and acquit the ſaid Patentees, their heires, ſucceſſors, executors and aſſignes, of or for any rents, annuities, offices, fees, or other profits aforeſaid recouered by decree, or iudgement in fee ſimple, or fee taile, as is aboueſaid. Or if it ſhall appeare vnto the ſaid Court of Augmentations, or vnto the more part of them, that the King, his heires, or ſucceſſors, of right and equity ought to haue, recouer, or enioy, in fee ſimple, or fee taile, any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in any ſuch Letters Patents compriſed, or rents, annuities, offices, fees, or other profits in, out or of the ſame: that then in all and euery ſuch caſe and caſes, the ſaid Chancellor of the Augmentations for the time being, with the aſſent of three, or more ſuch perſons, as hereafter ſhall be named by the King his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall haue full power, and authority without any Bill, or Warrant to be ſigned, or ſued from the King, his heires, or ſucceſſors for the ſame, as well to recompence and ſatiſfie the partie or parties greeued, ſo much in mony of the Kings treaſure remaining in the ſaid Court of Augmentations, as the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, offices, fees, or other profits or hereditaments, loſt or recouered by decree or iudgement of the ſaid Court of Augmentations, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be worth to be ſold, or otherwiſe diſcharge and acquit ſuch perſon, or perſons thereof, according to his or their Letters Patents: as alſo to make, and take order, direction, decree and iudgement for the King, his heires, and ſucceſſors, for the recouery, attaining, and hauing of all and ſingular ſuch manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, offices, fees, profits, and hereditaments, and all and euery other thing and things, which the King his heires and ſucceſſors, by, and vpon ſuch examination and examinations, ought, ſhould, and ſhall be iuſtly intitled to haue, recouer, poſſede, or enioy in fee ſimple or fee taile: And the ſame decree, direction, order, and iudgement to be good and effectuall in the law, to binde all parties and priuies to the ſame to all intents and purpoſes. And where any decree or iudgement which ſhall be giuen in the ſaid Court of Augmentation for any the premiſſes, extend to the loſſe of the Kings Patentee or Patentees, their heires, ſucceſſors, executors, or adminiſtrators, but for terme of life or liues of the demandant or demandants, plaintife or plantifes, or for terme of yeeres, the loſſe whereof the King is bounden and ought to recompence, diſcharge, or acquit by his Letters Patents: then the ſaid Chancellor of the Augmentations ſhall haue full power, and authority to recompence, or diſcharge the ſame in mony, as is aforeſaid, or elſe to recompence the ſame of the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and poſſeſſions limited to the ſuruey and gouernance of the ſaid Court of Augmentations, to be granted vnder the ſeale of the ſame Court by the diſcretion of the ſaid Chancellor, as ſhall ſeeme to him beſt for the Kings profit, without any Bill, or Warrant to be ſued, or ſigned by, or from the King for the ſame. And that euery ſuch recompence, ſatiſfaction, tisfaction, and diſcharge to be made by authoꝛity of this Act, to any perſon oꝛ perſons by the ſaid Chancelloꝛ as is afoꝛeſaid, ſhal be good, and effectuall againſt the King, his heires, and ſucceſſoꝛs, any law, vſage, oꝛ cuſtome to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And it is further enacted by the authoꝛity abouesaid, that euery of the ſaid Courts ſhall haue full power, and authoꝛity, by foꝛce of this act, to ſet ſuch fines, penalties, and amerciaments, vpon parties, Sheriffes, Officers, and other perſons, foꝛ his, and their defaults, contempts, negligences, oꝛ miſdemeanours, as vnto the ſaid Courts, oꝛ vnto any of them ſhall be reaſonably conſidered, and thought expedient. And that all and euery triall and trialls, of all and all manner of ſuits, bills, plaints, infoꝛmations, declarations, complaints, anſwers, replications, allegations, cauſes, matters, and iſſues oꝛ any of them, to be purſued, made, oꝛ tried in the ſaid ſeueral courts, oꝛ any of them, ſhall be made and tried by due examination of witneſſe, wꝛitings, pꝛoofes, oꝛ by ſuch other wayes, oꝛ meanes, as by the ſaid ſeuerall Courts, oꝛ by any of them ſhall be thought expedient. And that all and euery ſuch iudgement, and iudgements, decree, oꝛ decrees, examination and examinations ſhall be good, perfect, and in full ſtrength, foꝛce and effect in the law to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes.

The authoꝛity of the foꝛeſaid Courts to ſet fines and amerciaments vpon offendoꝛs.

Trialls in the ſaid Courts.

And where diuers and ſundꝛy perſons ſtand bounden to the Kings Highneſſe in diuers great and notable ſummes of money, by Recogniſance oꝛ other bonds, in the ſaid ſeuerall Courts, foꝛ debts due to the Kings Highneſſe, as wel foꝛ the purchaſe of lands and woods, and perfoꝛmance of conditions, as alſo foꝛ diuerſe and ſundꝛy other cauſes: and albeit the ſame perſons haue well and truly ſatiſfied, contented and payed the ſame debts, oꝛ perfoꝛmed the conditions of the ſame Recogniſance, oꝛ other bonds, yet the ſame Recogniſances oꝛ other bonds cannot be made void without the Kings eſpeciall warrant, which ſhould be much vnquietneſſe to the Kings Maieſty, and alſo very chargeable to his Graces Subiects, to ſue to his Highneſſe from time to time foꝛ the ſame. In conſideration whereof, and foꝛaſmuch as the ſaid perſons being ſo bounden by Recogniſance, oꝛ in other bonds, may by diuers caſualties loſe their acquitances, whereby great danger and perill may grow to them, their heires, executoꝛs, and ſucceſſoꝛs: Be it therefoꝛe enacted by the King our Soueraigne Loꝛd, with the aſſent of the Loꝛds Spirituall and Tempoꝛall, and the Commons in this pꝛeſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authoꝛity of the ſame, That vpon the ſight of the acquitances, made oꝛ to be made foꝛ the payment of the ſaid debt oꝛ debts, oꝛ ſum oꝛ ſummes of mony, growen oꝛ to be growen, oꝛ due, and ſufficient pꝛoofe made oꝛ hereafter to be made befoꝛe the ſaid ſeuerall head Officers foꝛ the time being of the ſaid ſeuerall Courts, as the caſe ſhall riſe oꝛ grow, oꝛ if the condition of the ſame Recogniſance oꝛ bond be perfoꝛmed oꝛ kept: That then euery ſuch ſeuerall head Officer, foꝛ that Recogniſance taken oꝛ to be taken, by him oꝛ any of his pꝛedeceſſoꝛs, oꝛ of any other bond foꝛ that time being within his charge and cure, ſhall haue full power and authoꝛity to cancell and make void the ſaid Recogniſance oꝛ other bond, calling to him ſuch of the ſame Court as to him oꝛ them ſhall ſeeme moſt conuenient foꝛ the cancellation of the ſame Recogniſance oꝛ bond.

The chiefe officers of the foꝛeſaid Courts may diſcharge Recogniſances taken there.

And be it enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that the ſame cancellation ſo made, ſhall be a ſure and ſufficient diſcharge of the ſame recogniſance oꝛ other bond, to all and euery ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons, as doe oꝛ ſhall ſtand bounden in the ſame recogniſance oꝛ bond ſo cancelled againſt the Kings Highneſſe, his heires, executoꝛs and ſucceſſoꝛs foꝛ euer.

And be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that the ſame ſeuerall head Officers foꝛ the time being, in euery of their ſaid ſeuerall Courts, ſhall haue full power and authoꝛity to diſcharge, cancell, oꝛ make void by his oꝛ their diſcretion, all and ſingular recogniſances now made oꝛ hereafter to be made in the ſaid Court, foꝛ any apparance oꝛ other contempt: and that the ſame head Officer oꝛ Officers, and the parties ſo bounden and to be bounden, to be diſcharged againſt the King our Soueraigne Loꝛd his heires, executoꝛs, and ſucceſſoꝛs foꝛ the cancellation of the ſame recogniſance.

Diſcharging of Recogniſances taken foꝛ apparance oꝛ contempt.

And where the Kings Maieſty ſithen the making of the ſame Statute in the ſaid xxvij. yeere of his Noble reigne, of his owne meere motion, liberality, and benignity, hath freely giuen and granted by his ſundꝛy Letters Patents vnder his great ſeale of England, vnto diuers and ſundꝛy of the Nobles and Loꝛds, aſwell ſpirituall as tempoꝛall of this his Realme, and alſo vnto diuers and many other perſons and bodies politike, to their heires oꝛ ſucceſſoꝛs, and to the heires of their bodies, oꝛ foꝛ terme of life, oꝛ liues, diuers and many ſundꝛy honours, caſtles, manoꝛs, lands, tenements, rectoꝛies, penſions, poꝛtions, and other hereditaments, which then were in the oꝛder, gouernance, and ſuruey of the ſame Court of the Augmentations of the reuenues of his Graces crowne, oꝛ out of any other of the ſaid ſeuerall Courts, reſeruing vnto his Maieſty his heires and ſucceſſoꝛs by the ſame Letters Patents, one yeerely rent in the name of one tenth, oꝛ the tenth part of the yeerely value of the ſame pꝛemiſſes, oꝛ any other tenth payable, and to be payed in the ſame Courts, oꝛ to the Officers of the ſame Courts deputed and aſſigned foꝛ the ſame, at one certaine feaſt oꝛ day in the ſame Letters Patents mentioned and declared, which ſaid perſons ſo aduanced, notwithſtanding they haue ſithen and after the making of the ſame Letters Patents peaceably enioyed the ſame manoꝛs, lands, tenements, and hereditaments ſo giuen, and thereof haue quietly perceiued and taken the iſſues, reuenues, and pꝛofits thereof: yet neuertheleſſe diuers of the ſame perſons haue not at the dayes and feaſts aſſigned and limited vnto them in the ſame Letters Patents, not long time after the ſame dayes and feaſts of payment thereof, contented and payed in the ſame Courts, or to the Officers of the ſame Courts aſſigned and deputed for the ſame, the ſaid yeerely rent or rents ſo reſerued to the Kings Highneſſe, contrary to their duties, and againſt all reaſon and good Conſcience. In conſideration whereof, be it therefore now ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, by the aſſent of the Kings Maieſty, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that if any perſon of what eſtate, degree, or condition ſoeuer he be, or body politike, to whom the Kings Maieſty hath by his Letters Patents vnder his great ſeale of England, or vnder the great ſeale of the ſame Court of Augmentation, giuen or granted, or hereafter ſhall giue or grant, with like reſeruation of rent or rents, any manors, lands, tenements, rectories, or other hereditaments, whatſoeuer, which were, or hereafter ſhall be in the order, gouernance, and ſuruey of the ſame Courts, or any of them, to be had to them, and their heires or ſucceſſors, or for any other eſtate of inheritance, or for terme of life or liues, yeelding and reſeruing to the ſame our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, or ſucceſſors, one yeerely rent at one certaine day or Feaſt in the ſame Letters Patents, expreſſed, mentioned, and declared, and to be payd into the ſame Courts: that if the ſame perſons, bodies politike, their heires, or ſucceſſors, or aſſignes, or any of them, do not truly content or pay, or cauſe to be contented, or paid vnto the Treaſurer of the ſaid ſeuerall Courts, or to the generall or particular Receiuor of the ſame ſeuerall Courts, deputed and aſſigned for the ſame for the time being, to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, at the day or Feaſt limited by the ſame letters Patents, or within three moneths next and immediatly after the ſame day or feaſt of payment thereof, all ſuch ſummes of mony, which beene or hereafter ſhalbe due, reſerued to the Kings Maieſty, his heires, and ſucceſſors, by the ſame Letters Patents, or by any of them, or make ſufficient tender thereof to the ſaid Treaſurer, or generall or particular Receiuor: that then euery of the ſame perſons, bodies politike, their heires, ſucceſſors, or aſſignes, for lacke and default of payment of the ſame rent, to forfeit and loſe to the Kings Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſors as much money as the fourth part of the ſame rent ſo reſerued, or hereafter to be reſerued for one yeere, doth or ſhall amount vnto, for and in the name of one paine, ouer and aboue the ſame rent reſerued or hereafter to be reſerued. And if it happen the ſame perſons, or bodies politike, their heires, ſucceſſors, or aſſignes, or any of them, doe not within one halfe yeere next after the day or feaſt expreſſed in the ſame Letters Patents, content or pay, or lawfully tender vnto the ſame Treaſurer, or generall or particular Receiuor, to the vſe of the Kings Maieſty, his heires or ſucceſſors, aſwell the ſaid yeerely rent, ſo reſerued, or hereafter to be reſerued, as alſo the ſaid ſum of mony forfeited for & in the name of a paine: that then the ſame perſons, bodies politike, their heires, ſucceſſors or aſſignes, ſo offending, ſhall forfeit and loſe to the Kings Maieſty, his heires, & ſucceſſors ſo much mony as the moity or half deale of the ſame rent reſerued or to be reſerued for one yeere, doth or ſhall amount vnto, ouer & aboue the ſaid rent reſerued or to be reſerued, & ſo to forfeit and loſe for euery halfe yeere after, ſo much mony as the whole rent reſerued, or to be reſerued, for one whole yeere, doth or ſhall amount vnto, vntill the ſame rent reſerued or to be reſerued, and the arrerages of the ſame, and alſo the ſaid ſummes of money ſo forfeited and loſt for a peine, beene vnto the ſame Treaſurer, or generall or particular Receiuor truly ſatisfied, contented, and paid, to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſors.

A remedy for Tithes not payed iſſuing forth of Abbey lands giuen by the King to others.

The penalty for default of payment at the day aſſigned or within three moneths after.

The penalty for default of payment within a yeere.

A further remedy for the tenth and money forfeited in the name of a penalty.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to the ſame Treaſurer and generall or particular Receiuer, to diſtraine as well for the ſame rent ſo reſerued, or to be reſerued, and for the arrerages of the ſame, as alſo for the ſaid ſummes of mony ſo forfeited, or to be forfeited and loſt, for and in the name of the paine aforeſaid. And alſo the head Officer or Officers of either of the ſame Courts for the time being, vpon certificat to him made, or to be made of the ſame default, and contempt, ſhall and may award ſuch proceſſe out of the ſame courts againſt the ſame offender for not paying of the ſaid rent ſo reſerued, and alſo for the ſame ſums of mony forfeited and to be forfeited by this act, as by his or their diſcretion ſhall ſeeme conuenient.

Acquitance for the tenth.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons hereafter make lawfull payment to any of the ſaid Treaſures, or generall or particular Receiuers of any of the ſame Courts, deputed and aſſigned for the ſame, of any ſumme or ſummes of money due to the Kings Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors for any yeerely rent or tenth, and vpon or after ſuch payment offer vnto the ſame Treaſurer or generall or particular Receiuer, one lawfull and ſufficient acquitance ready made to be aſſigned by the ſame Treaſurer or generall or particular Receiuer, witneſſing the receit of the ſaid ſumme or ſummes of mony ſo paid: that then the ſaid Treaſurer, generall or particular Receiuer, ſhall with his owne hand aſſigne the ſame acquitance, without taking any fee or reward for making of the ſame acquitance, vpon paine to forfeit and loſe for euery time offending contrary to this act xl. ſhillings, one moity whereof to be to the Kings Highneſſe, and the other moity to the party that will purſue for the ſame. And if the parties, which hereafter ſhall happen to pay to the ſame Treaſurer, or generall, or particular Receiuor, any ſuch ſumme or ſummes of money, and doe not bring an acquitance with him to bee ſigned, as is beforeſaid: that then if the ſame Treaſurer, or generall or particular Receiuor, vpon requeſt to him made, ſhall make and deliuer vnto the ſame party one ſufficient acquitance, teſtifying the ſame receipt, that then the ſame Treaſurer, or generall or particular Receiuor, or any of his clerkes, ſhall receiue, or take of the ſame party for the making of the ſaid acquitance, not aboue foure pence, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch acquitance xx.s. for which he or they ſhall happen to take aboue the ſaid ſumme of iiij.d. to be recouered as is before ſaid, that is to ſay, the one moity thereof to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, of his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity thereof to the party that will purſue for the ſame.

And be it alſo enacted, that the ſame acquitance ſhall be a ſufficient diſcharge according to the tenor and effect of the ſame.

And be it alſo further enacted, and ordeined by the authority aforeſaid, that if any of the ſame generall or particular Receiuors, which now be, or hereafter ſhall be within any of the ſaid Courts, happen to pay to any perſon or perſons, any annuity, penſion or other rent, that then if the ſame perſon or perſons vpon the receipt thereof deliuer vnto the ſame generall or particular Receiuor, one ſufficient and lawfull acquitance ſealed and ſigned, teſtifying the ſame receipt, that then the ſame generall or particular Receiuor, ſhall receiue the ſame acquitance, without taking or receiuing any fee or reward for the making of the ſame. And if the ſame party, to whom the ſaid generall or particular Receiuor hath ſo contented and paid any ſuch annuity, penſion or rent, doe not bring with him one ſufficient acquitance ſigned and ſealed, teſtifying the receipt of the ſame mony, by reaſon whereof the ſame general or particular Receiuor by himſelfe or his Clerke, maketh one acquitance for the receit of the ſame annuity, penſion, or rent, that then the ſame Receiuor or his Clerke, ſhall not receiue or take for the making of ſuch acquitance, which he ſhal ſo happen to make, aboue foure pence, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch acquitance, which hee ſhall happen to refuſe, being ready made and offered to be deliuered to him as is aboueſaid, xx.s. and for euery acquitance which he ſhall hereafter happen to make for any the payments aforeſaid, and to receiue for the making of the ſame acquitance aboue the ſumme of foure pence, to forfeit xx.s. the one moity to the King, and the other to the party that will ſue for the ſame. And alſo that the ſame generall or particular Receiuors, or their deputies, which hereafter ſhall happen to pay any ſuch annuity, penſion or rent, ſhall not retaine or take of the party, to whom he ſhall happen to pay the ſame, in the way of reward or otherwiſe, not aboue the ſumme of foure pence for euery pound, which the ſame generall or particular Receiuor ſhall ſo happen to pay, vpon paine to forfeit vj.s.viij.d. for euery peny, which he or they ſhall happen to receiue aboue the ſaid ſum of foure pence for euery pound, which he or they ſhall ſo happen to pay: the one moity of the ſame forfeiture to be to the King, and the other moity to the party that will ſue for the ſame. And that all the ſaid ſuits concerning the ſaid forfeitures, may be commenced, and purſued by bill, information or action, in which ſuit none eſſoine, protection or wager of law to be admitted.

How much he ſhall pay for an acquitance which doth receiue any annuitie.

The Receiuor ſhall take but foure pence a pound.

And be it further enacted, that if any perſon or perſons hereafter happen to tender or offer vnto any of the Auditors of the ſame ſeuerall Courts, for the time being, any of the Kings Letters Patents, Decrees, of any of the ſame ſeuerall Courts, grants, Indentures of leaſes, aſwell for terme of yeeres, as for terme of life or liues, to be enrolled before the ſame Auditor, according to his office: that then the ſame Auditor, vpon the ſame tender or offer, ſhall enroll the ſame, or as much of the ſame Letters Patents, decrees, grants, or indentures, as ſhall appertaine to his ſaid office. And if any of the ſame Auditors or any of their Clerkes, or any other to their vſe, or to the vſe of any of them, receiue and take for the inrolment of any of the ſame Letters Patents, decrees, grants, or indentures, or for the allowance of the ſame aboue the ſumme of three ſhillings foure pence, that then the ſame Auditor or his Clerke ſo offending ſhall forfeit ſix ſhillings eight pence for euery peny which the ſame Auditor, or any of them, ſhall happen at any time hereafter to receiue contrary to the forme aforeſaid, the one moity of the ſame forfeiture to be to the Kings Highneſſe, and the other moity to him that will ſue for the ſame by ſuch manner and forme as is aforeſaid.

The Auditors fees for enrolments.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery Auditor of euery of the ſaid ſeuerall Courts, yeerely in euery County within their ſaid ſeuerall limits, by the ſpace of twenty dayes, or more before their audit, ſhall proclaime, and declare in foure ſeueral markets, or other places, the place and dayes, where and when they will keepe their ſeuerall audits in the ſame Shire, vpon paine to forfeit for euery time doing the contrary, fiue pounds, the one moity whereof to be to the Kings Highneſſe, and the other moity to the party that will ſue for the ſame in forme aforeſaid.

Auditors ſhall cauſe Proclamation to bee made in foure market townes twenty dayes before their comming.

And that alſo euery of the Auditors of the ſaid ſeuerall Courts being ſeuerally aſſigned to their ſeuerall limits, and euery of the particular Receiuors of the ſame ſeuerall Courts, being alſo ſeuerally aſſigned and ioyned with the ſame ſeuerall Auditors in their ſaid ſeuerall limits, after and betweene euery of the feaſts of Saint Michael the Archangell and Chriſtmas, ſhall direct and award their ſeuerall warrants and precepts vnder their ſeales, to euery of the Receiuors, Bailifes, Reues, and other Officers whatſoeuer accomptable before the ſame Auditors, and by the ſame warrant or precept to charge and command in the name of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, euery of the ſaid Receiuors, Bailifes, Reues, and other Officers, to appeare before them at one certaine day and place in the ſame warrant or precept to them preſcribed, there to declare and make a iuſt and true accompt of all ſuch receipts, whereof they be accuſtomable, and owe to accompt.

Auditors and Receiuors ſhall make their precepts to Bailifes, &c.

A remedy againſt accomptants which make default of apparance or payment.

And after if the ſame Auditors and particular Receiuors doe repaire vnto the ſame place, and there kéepe their audit, according to the ſame Proclamations, precept, and warrant: that then if any Receiuor, Baylife, Reue, or other Officer being accomptable of or for any of the Manors, Lands, Tenements, or other whatſoeuer hereditaments, now remaining, or which hereafter ſhall be and remaine in the order, gouernance, or ſuruey of any of the ſame ſeuerall Courts, bée lawfully warned, as well by the ſame Proclamation, or by precept, or warrant in writing ſealed, and in the name of any of the Auditors, of the ſaid ſeuerall Courts, perſonally to appeare by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient and lawfull deputy before the ſame Auditor and Receiuor, at one certaine day or place, in the ſaid warrant or precept preſcribed, there to make and declare a iuſt and a true accompt of all receipts of his ſaid office, and if the ſame Receiuor, Reue, Bailife, and other Officer, ſo being lawfully warned, do not appeare before the ſame Auditor and Receiuor at the ſame day and place in the ſaid warrant expreſſed: Or the ſame Receiuor, Bailife, Reue, or Officer, do at the ſame day and place to them preſcribed, appeare, and will not account before the ſame Auditor, according to the tenour and effect of the ſame precept and warrant, or if the ſame Receiuor, Bailife, Reue, or other Officer accomptable, doe by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient and lawfull deputy appeare before the ſame Auditor and Receiuor, and then, and there enter into his or their accompt before the ſaid Auditor, and after the ſame accompt finiſhed and ended, if the ſame Receiuor, Bailife, Reue, or other Officer, do not content and pay vnto the Treaſurer of the ſame ſeuerall Courts, or to the generall or particular Receiuor of the ſame County for the time being, as the caſe ſhal require, within thrée wéekes next and immediatly after the ſame accompt fully finiſhed and ended, all ſuch ſummes of money which vpon the determination of his ſaid accompt, he ſhall happen to be found in arrerages, and the ſame default and contempt being duly proued before the head Officer and Officers of the ſaid ſeuerall Courts for the time being: that then euery ſuch Receiuor, Bailife, Reue, or Officer, ſo offending, to forfeit and loſe his ſaid office, and alſo his fée, which he or they had and perceiued for the exerciſing of the ſame office.

The penalty if an accomptant doe withdrawe any rent.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any of the ſaid Receiuers, Bailifes, Reues, or other Officers, vpon the declaration of their ſaid accompts, doe willingly conceale, and withdraw any rent, reuenue, fine, heriot, or other caſualty whatſoeuer it be, of the which he ought to haue made accompt, and the ſame duly proued before the ſaid head officer or officers for the time being: that then euery ſuch Receiuor, Bailife, Reue, or other officer ſo offending, to forfeit and loſe his ſaid office and fée, which he had for the exerciſing of the ſame, and alſo thrée times as much as he hath ſo concealed & withdrawne. And that the ſaid head officer or officers of the ſame ſeuerall Courts for the time being, immediatly vpon certificat to him of the ſame default, contempt, or offence, ſhal award proceſſe in nature of attachment againſt the ſame Receiuor, Bailife, Reue, or other officer, as well for the ſame arrerages remaining in the hands of the ſame Receiuor, Bailife, Reue, or officer, as alſo for the penalty of their recogniſance, or bond, in which the ſame Receiuor, Bailife, Reue, or officer, ſtandeth bounden to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, as alſo for the contempt and paine limited and appointed by this act.

A remedy for debts which growe to the King by Atteinder, outlawry, forfeiture, gift, &c.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that in all actions and ſuits to be taken or purſued in any the Courts aforeſaid, for the recouery of any debt or debts, which now be or that hereafter ſhall happen to appertaine, accrue, remaine, or be to the King, by reaſon of any atteindour, outlawry, forfeiture, gift of the party, or by any other Collaterall way or meanes, it ſhall be ſufficient in the law to ſhew and alleage in the ſaid ſuit generally, that the party to whom the ſaid debt or debts was or did belong, ſuch yéere and day did giue the ſame debt or debts vnto the King, or was attainted, outlawed, or other offence, forfeiture, déed, act, or thing committed, or did, by reaſon whereof the ſaid debt or debts did accrue and ought to remaine, come, and be to the King. And that the ſame matter, ſo to be ſhewed, alleaged or declared in a generality, without ſhewing and declaring the circumſtance thereof, ſhall be of as good force, and effect in the law to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if the whole matter thereof had béene, or were alleaged, and declared at large in euery point, according to the due order of the common Lawes of this Realme.

The King ſhall be preferred in ſuit, and execution. 9.H. 3.18.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any ſuit be commenced or taken, or any proces be hereafter awarded for the King, for the recouery of any of the Kings debts: that then the ſame ſuit, and proces ſhall be preferred before ſuit of any perſon or perſons. And that our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall haue firſt execution againſt any defendant or defendants, of and for his ſaid debts, before any other perſon or perſons, ſo alwayes that the Kings ſaid ſuit be taken and commenced or proces awarded for the ſaid debt, at the ſuit of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, before iudgement giuen for the ſaid other perſon or perſons.

And be it enacted alſo by authority aforeſaid, that all manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, the which now be, or that hereafter ſhall come, or be, in, or to the hands, poſſeſſion, occupation, or ſeiſon of any perſon or perſons, to whom the ſame manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, haue heretofore, or hereafter ſhal deſcend, reuert or remaine in fee ſimple, or in fee [a] taile, generall or ſpeciall, by, from, or after the death of any her or their anceſtor or anceſtors, as heire, or by gift of his anceſtors, whoſe heire he is, which ſaid anceſtor or anceſtors, was, is, or ſhall be indebted to the King, or to any perſon or perſons to his vſe, by iudgement, recogniſance, obligation, or other ſpecialty, the debt whereof is or ſhall not be contented and paied: that then in euery ſuch caſe the ſame manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, ſhall be, and ſtand by authority of this act, from henceforth, charged and chargeable to and for the payment of the ſame debt, and of euery part thereof.

Tenant in fee ſimple or taile, chargeable to pay the King his anceſtors debts.

And that our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, his heires, and ſucceſſors, at any time hereafter ſhall not be barred, delayed, forecloſed, or excluded, to demand, haue, and receiue his, or their iuſt, due, and lawfull debts and duties, againſt any of his Subiects, as heire or heires to any perſon or perſons indebted to his Highneſſe, or to other perſons to his vſe, or which ſhall be endebted to his Highneſſe, his heires, or ſucceſſors, albeit this word Heire, be not, or ſhall not be compriſed in ſuch recogniſance, obligation, or ſpecialty, or that any ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall ſay, or alleage that he, or they haue not any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to them deſcended, but only ſuch manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, as be, or ſhall be entailed, or giuen to them by any their anceſtors, to whom they be heires, any lawes, vſes, or cuſtomes, before this time vſed, or had to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Kings debt payable by the heire, though in the bond hee be not named.

Lands entailed chargeable.

Prouided alwayes that the Kings Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſors, may at his or their liberty and pleaſure, demand, haue, and recouer his, or their ſaid debt or debts, of and againſt any executor, or executors, adminiſtrator or adminiſtrators of any ſuch perſon or perſons, which is, hath beene, or ſhall be indebted in manner and forme aboueſaid, if the ſame executor or executors, adminiſtrator or adminiſtrators, ſhall haue aſſets in his or their hands in deed, or in law, any thing before mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The King may charge the executors or Adminiſtrators.

Prouided alſo that if the ſaid manors, lands and hereditaments, or any of them, ſhall hereafter be recouered, or euicted out of, or from the poſſeſſion of any ſuch perſon or perſons, by any iuſt or former title, without fraud or couine, whoſe manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, beene or ſhall be charged or chargeable as is aboueſaid: that then all and euery ſuch manors, lands, and hereditaments, ſhall be clearely acquited and diſcharged of and for the payment of the ſame debts, and of euery part thereof, any thing before mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Lands chargeable to the King recouered.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, of whom any ſuch debt or duty is, or at any time hereafter ſhall be demanded, or required, alleage, plead, declare, or ſhew in any of the ſaid Courts, good, perfect, and ſufficient cauſe and matter in law, reaſon, or good conſcience, in barre, or diſcharge of the ſaid debt or duty, or why ſuch perſon or perſons ought not to be charged [b] or chargeable to or with the ſame, and the ſame cauſe or matter ſo alleaged, pleaded, declared or ſhewed, ſufficiently proued in ſuch one of the ſaid Courts as he or they ſhall be impleaded, ſued, vexed or troubled for the ſame: that then the ſaid Courts and euery of them, ſhall haue full power and authority to accept, adiudge, and allow the ſame proofe, and wholly and cleerely to acquit and diſcharge all and euery perſon and perſons, that ſhall be ſo impleaded, ſued, vexed or troubled for the ſame, any thing in this preſent Act before mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Sufficient matter pleaded in diſcharge of the debt.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which be, or at any time hereafter ſhall be charged, or chargeable to, or with the debt of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, and be at any time hereafter or ſhall be in the ſeiſon and poſſeſſion of diuers and ſundry perſons, other than the obligor or obligors, that then all and ſingular the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and euery parcell of them, ſhall be wholly and [c] entirely, and in no wiſe ſeuerally, liable and chargeable, to and with the payment and payments of the ſaid debts, of the ſaid debt and duety, any thing before rehearſed to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Lands chargeable to the King in ſeuerall mens tenures.

Prouided alſo that this act nor any thing therein conteined, ſhall in any wiſe extend to miniſh, abrogate, or take away any realties, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, preeminences iuriſdictions, fines, iſſues or amerciaments, appertaining or belonging to the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter and County Palatine of Lancaſter or any of them, but that the ſame liberties, realties, priuileges, franchiſes, preeminences, iuriſdictions, fines, iſſues, and amerciaments and euery of them, ſhall ſtill continue, remaine, and be to the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter and County Palatine and euery of them, as fully, wholly, and plenarly, as they were before the making of this preſent act, any thing in the ſame conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The liberties of the Duchy of Lancaſter ſaued.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all maner of proces, proceſſes, and executions for debts, only comming or growing in the Court of the Eſchequer, ſhall be made in the ſame Court of the Eſchequer by ſuch officer and officers, Clerke or Miniſter of the Proces and executions for debts growing in the Eſchequer.

ſame Court, as hath beene afoꝛe this time vſed to be made, after and with ſuch kinde of pꝛoces, pꝛoceſſes, and executions, as by this Act is limited and declared, any thing in this Act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding. St. 7. Ed. 6. 2.

Cap. V.

The explanation of the Statute of Willes, &c.

31.H.8.1.

WHere in the laſt Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the eight and twentieth day of April, in the one and thirtieth yéere of the Kings moſt Gracious raigne, and there by diuers prorogations holden and continued vnto the foure and twentieth day of July, in the two and thirtieth yéere of his ſaid raigne: It was by the Kings moſt Gracious and liberall diſpoſition ſhewed toward his moſt humble and obedient Subiects, ordeined and enacted, how and in what manner lands, tenements and hereditaments, might by will or teſtament in writing, or otherwiſe by any act or acts lawfully executed in the life of euery perſon, be giuen, diſpoſed, willed or deniſed, for the aduancement of the wife, preferment of children, payment of debts of euery ſuch perſon, or otherwiſe at his will or pleaſure, as in the ſame act more plainly is declared. Sithen the making of which eſtatute, diuers doubts, queſtions and ambiguities haue riſen, béene moued and growen, by diuerſity of opinions taking in and vpon the expoſition of the letter of the ſame eſtatute.

For a plaine declaration and explanation whereof, and to the intent and purpoſe, that the Kings obedient and louing Subiects ſhall and may take the commodity and aduantage of the Kings ſaid gracious and liberall diſpoſition, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, moſt humbly beſéechen the Kings Maieſty, that the meaning of the letter of the ſame eſtatute, concerning ſuch matters hereafter rehearſed, may be by the authority of this preſent Parliament enacted, taken, expounded, iudged, declared and explained in manner and forme following.

Lands wherein one hath eſtate of inheritance, viz fee ſimple only may be deuiſed.

Firſt, where it is conteined in the ſame former ſtatute, within diuers articles and branches of the ſame, that all and ſingular perſon and perſons, hauing any manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, of the eſtate of inheritance, ſhould haue full and frée liberty, power and authority, to giue, will, diſpoſe or aſſigne, as well by his laſt will and teſtament in writing, or otherwiſe by any act or acts lawfully executed in his life, his manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any of them, in ſuch manner and forme, as in the ſame former act more at large it doth appeare. Which words of eſtate of inheritance, by the authority of this preſent Parliament, is and ſhall be declared, expounded, taken and iudged, of eſtates in fée [a] ſimple only.

Fee ſimple in copercenery or in common, in poſſeſſion, reuerſion, remainder.

And alſo that all and ſingular perſon and perſons, hauing a ſole eſtate or intereſt in fée ſimple, or ſeiſed in fée ſimple, in copercenery, or in common in fée ſimple, of and in any manors, lands, tenements, [b] rents or other hereditaments in poſſeſſion, reuerſion or remainder, or of rents or ſeruices incident to any reuerſion or remainder, and hauing no manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments holden of the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, or of any other perſon or perſons, by Knights ſeruice, ſhall haue full and frée liberty, power and authority, to giue, diſpoſe, will or deuiſe to any perſon or perſons (except bodies politike and corporate) by his laſt will and teſtament in writing, or [c] otherwiſe by any act or acts lawfully executed in his life, by himſelfe ſoly, or by himſelfe and other ioyntly, ſeuerally or particularly, or by all thoſe wayes or any of them, as much as in him of right is or ſhall be, all his ſaid manors, lands, tenements, [d] rents and hereditaments, or any of them, or any rents, commons or other profits or commodities out of, or to be perceiued of the ſame, or out of any parcell thereof, at his owne frée will and pleaſure: any clauſe in the ſaid former act notwithſtanding.

Deuiſing of rent or common out of land.

And further be it declared and enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular perſon and perſons, hauing a ſole eſtate or intereſt in fée ſimple, or ſeiſed in fée ſimple in copercenery, or in common in fée ſimple, of or in any manors, lands, tenements, rents, or other hereditaments, in poſſeſſion, reuerſion, or remainder, or of and in any rents, or ſeruices incident to any reuerſion or remainder, houlden of the King by Knights ſeruice in chiefe, or of the nature of Knights ſeruice in chiefe, hath, and by the authority of this preſent Parliament, ſhall haue full and frée liberty, power and authority, to giue, diſpoſe, will or aſſigne to any perſon or perſons (except bodies politike and corporate) by his laſt will and teſtament in writing, or otherwiſe by any act or acts lawfully executed in his life by himſelfe ſoly, or by himſelfe and other ioyntly, ſeuerally or particularly, or by all thoſe wayes or any of them, as much as in him of right is or ſhall be, [c] two parts as well of all the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, rents and hereditaments, as of all and ſingular his other rents and hereditaments, or of any of them, or any rents, commons or other profits or commodities, out of, or to be perceiued of the ſame two parts, or out of any parcell thereof, in thrée parts to be diuided, or as much thereof, as ſhall amount to the full and cléere yéerely value of two parts thereof, in thrée parts to be diuided, of what perſon or perſons ſoeuer they be holden, at his frée will and pleaſure.

Lands holden of the King by Knights ſeruice in chiefe.

And that by the authority aforeſaid, the ſaid will ſo declared, ſhalbe good and effectuall for two parts of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, although the will ſo declared bée made of the whole, or more than of two parts of the ſame. The ſame diuiſion to be made and ſet forth by the diuiſor or owner of the ſame manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, by his laſt will in writing, or otherwiſe in writing. And in default thereof by a Commiſſion to bée granted out of the Kings Court of the Wards and Liueries, vpon the inquiry of the true value thereof, by the oaths of twelue men, and returne or certificat thereof had in the ſame Court, of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, diuiſion to be made by the Maſter of the Wards and Liueries, if the Maſter of the Wards and Liueries for the time being, and the parties thereunto cannot otherwiſe agree vpon the ſame diuiſion. And that the iſſues and profits of the two parts of the ſame manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments vpon euery ſuch diuiſion, to be reſtored to them, that ſhall haue right or title to the ſame from the death of the owner or deuiſour thereof.

And further be it enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular perſon and perſons, hauing a ſole eſtate or intereſt in fee ſimple, or ſeiſed in fee ſimple, in copercenery, or in common in fee ſimple, of and in any manors, lands, tenements, rents or other hereditaments in poſſeſſion, reuerſion or remainder, or of and in any rents or ſeruices, incident to any [a] reuerſion or remainder holden of the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, by Knights ſeruice, and not in chiefe, or holden of any other perſon or perſons by Knights ſeruice, ſhall haue full and free liberty, power and authority, to giue, diſpoſe, will or deuiſe to any perſon or perſons (except bodies politike and corporat) by his laſt will and teſtament in writing, or otherwiſe by any act or acts lawfully executed in his life by himſelfe ſoly, or by himſelfe and other ioyntly, ſeuerally or particularly, or by all thoſe wayes, or any of them, as much as in him of right is or ſhall be, two parts of all the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, or any of them ſo holden by Knights ſeruice, or any rents, common, or other profits or commodities, out of, or to be perceiued of the ſame two parts, or out of any parcell thereof, in three parts to be diuided, or as much thereof, as ſhall amount to the full and cleere yeerely value of two parts thereof, in three parts to be diuided at his free will and pleaſure.

Lands holden of the King or others by Knights ſeruice and lands holden in ſocage.

And that the ſaid will ſo declared by authority aforeſaid, ſhall bee good and effectuall for two parts of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, although the will ſo declared be or ſhall be made of the [b] whole lands and tenements, ſo holden by Knights ſeruice, or of more than of two parts of the ſame. And alſo for the whole of all other ſuch manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, or any of them, not holden of the King by Knights ſeruice in chiefe, or otherwiſe by Knights ſeruice, nor of any other perſon by Knights ſeruice, and of any rents, commons, or other profits or commodities, out of or to be perceiued of the ſame, or out of any parcell thereof, at his free will and pleaſure. The ſame diuiſion to be made and ſet forth by the owner of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments by his laſt will and teſtament in writing, or otherwiſe in writing. And in default thereof, for as much of the ſame manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, as ſhall concerne the Kings intereſt, by Commiſſion to be directed out of the Kings Court of the Wards and Liueries, in manner and forme as is aforeſaid, if the Maſter of the Wards and Liueries for the time being, and the parties thereunto cannot otherwiſe agree vpon the ſame diuiſion: And that reſtitution of the iſſues and profits of the two parts thereof, ſhall be had and made in manner and forme abouesaid. And for ſuch of the ſame manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, as ſhall concerne the intereſt of any other Lord or Lords, by Commiſſion to bee granted out of the Kings Court of the Chancery, to enquire thereof by the oaths of twelue men, if the ſame Lord or Lords, and the parties thereunto cannot otherwiſe agree vpon the ſame diuiſion.

fol. 28.
10. fol.

Deuiſe of all the fee ſimple lands leauing the third part entailed lands to the King or other chiefe Lord.

And in caſe the ſame manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, which after the death of any ſuch owner or deuiſour, which ſhall make any ſuch gift, diſpoſition, or deuice by his laſt will in writing, or otherwiſe by any act or acts lawfully executed in his life, to his wife, children, or otherwiſe, as is aforeſaid, which ſhall immediatly after his death deſcend, reuert, remaine or come to his heire or heires, as well of eſtate of inheritance in fée taile, as of eſtate in fée ſimple, or fée taile only, be not or ſhall not amount or extend to the full cléere yéerely value of the full third part with the full profits thereof, of all the ſaid manors, lands, tenements or other hereditaments of the ſaid deuiſour or owner, according to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid former act, and of this preſent act: that then the King ſhall and may haue and take into his hands and poſſeſſion to make vp his full third part, with the full profits thereof according to his intereſt therein, as much of the other manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, willed, giuen, diſpoſed, or aſſigned by any ſuch perſon, to his wife, children or otherwiſe, as is aforeſaid, as with ſuch of the ſame manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments deſcended, or by any meanes come vnto the heire, as heire of any ſuch deuiſour or owner, ſhall make vp the cléere yéerely value of the ſaid full third part, with the full profits thereof, of all the ſaid manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, of euery ſuch owner or deuiſour, ſo to be had to the King, in title of wardſhip or primer ſeiſon, as the caſe ſhall require. And the deuiſion thereof to be had and made, and with the reſtitution of the profits of the two parts of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, in ſuch manner and forme as is aboue rehearſed. And like benefit and aduantage to be giuen, had and taken by the ſaid authoritie, to euery Lord and Lords, of whom any ſuch manors, lands, tenements, or hereditamens béene or ſhalbe holden by Knights ſeruice, in manner and forme as is aboueſaid, concerning only his or their third parts thereof, according to their ſaid intereſt therein.

A remedy where a full third part is not left for the King or other Lords.

A remedy for the King or other Lords, if the third part be entailed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if it happen the ſame third part, or any part thereof, left, willed or aſſigned, to the King or other Lord, at any time during their intereſts therein, to be lawfully euicted or determined: that then the King and the other Lord, ſhal haue as much of the two parts reſidue, as ſhall accompliſh and make vp a full third part in cléere yéerely value, after the rate and portion of ſuch manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, as ſhall then happen to remaine of the ſame third part, not euicted nor determined; and of the other two parts of ſuch manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, as the King or other Lord ſhould or ought to haue had, by vertue of the ſaid former act, and this preſent act: and the ſame to bée diuided in manner and forme aboue rehearſed, any clauſe in the ſaid former act notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſauing and reſeruing for fines for alienation by any ſuch laſt will and teſtament of ſuch manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, holden of the King by Knights ſeruice in chiefe, or of the nature of Knights ſeruice in chiefe, or by ſocage in chiefe, or of the nature of ſocage tenure in chiefe, or for fines for alienation, of ſuch manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, whereof there ſhall be any alteration of fréehold or of inheritance, made by any ſuch laſt will, compriſed in diuers and ſundry articles mentioned in the ſaid former act, be and ſhall be intended, expounded, taken, déemed and iudged by the authority aforeſaid: That all ſuch perſon or perſons, to whom the ſaid manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any of them, be or ſhall be giuen, diſpoſed, willed or deuiſed by any ſuch laſt will, ſhall be exonerated, acquited, and diſcharged for euer againſt the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, for all ſuch fines for alienations, by any ſuch laſt will or teſtament without licence, by ſuing forth of the Kings pardon for alienation out of the Kings Court of Chancery, paying to the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, for the fine of euery ſuch alienation, the third part of the yéerely value of the ſame manors, lands, tenements or other hereditaments, to him or them willed or deuiſed: and this act, from time to time ſhall be a ſufficient warrant to the Lord Chancellor of England, or Kéeper of the great Seale for the time being, for the granting out of the ſaid pardon or pardons vnder the Kings great Seale, as heretofore hath béene vſed for pardons for alienations, without any further ſuit to be made to the King for the ſame.

A pardon of alienation muſt be ſued by thoſe to whom lands be deuiſed, paying the third part of the yéerly value of the lands holden in chiefe.

Women couert, perſons within age, idiots, mad men cannot deuiſe their lands.

And it is further declared and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that wils or teſtaments made of any manors, lands, tenements or other hereditaments, by any [a] woman couert, or perſon within the age of one and twenty yéeres, idiot, or by any perſon de non ſane memory, ſhall not be taken to be good or effectuall in the law.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, hauing eſtate of inheritance, of, or in manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, holden of the King by Knights ſeruice in chiefe, or otherwiſe of the King by Knights ſeruice, or of any other perſon or perſons by Knights ſeruice, hath giuen at any time ſithen the twentieth day of the ſaid moneth of Iuly, or hereafter ſhall giue, will, deuiſe or aſſigne, by will or other act executed in his life, his manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any of them, by fraud or couin, to any other perſon or perſons for terme of yéeres, life or liues, with one remainder ouer in fée, or with diuers remainders ouer for terme of yéeres, life, or in taile, with a remainder ouer in fée ſimple, to any perſon or perſons, or to his or their right heires: or at any time ſithen the ſaid twentieth day of Iuly, hath conueyed or made, or hereafter ſhall conuey or make by fraud or couin, contrary to the true intent of this act, any eſtates, conditions, menalties, tenures or conueyances, to the intent tent to defraud or deceiue the King of his prerogatiue, primer ſeiſon, liuery, reliefe, wardſhip, marriages or rights: or any other Lord of their wardſhips, reliefes, herriots or other profits, which ſhould or ought to accrue, grow or come vnto them or any of them, by or after the death of his or their tenant, by force, and according to the former eſtatute and of this preſent act and declaration: and the ſame eſtates and other conueyances, being found by office to be ſo made or contriued by [b] couin, fraud or deceit, as is aboueſaid contrary to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid former act, and of this act: That then the King ſhall haue as well the wardſhip of the body, and cuſtody of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, as liuery, primer ſeiſon, reliefe and other profits, which ſhould or ought to appertaine to the King, according to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid former act, and of this preſent act, as though no ſuch eſtates or conueyances by couin had neuer beene had or made, vntill the ſaid office be lawfully vndone by trauers or otherwiſe.

Any perſon being no common Surgeon, may miniſter outward medicines.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yeere of the Kings moſt gracious reigne, amongſt other things for the auoiding of ſorceries, witchcrafts, and other inconueniences, it was enacted, That no perſon within the City of London, nor within ſeuen miles of the ſame, ſhould take vpon them to exerciſe and occupy as Phyſitian, or Surgeon, except he be firſt examined, approued, & admitted by the Biſhop of London and other, vnder and vpon

By what means the Surgeons of London haue abuſed the Statute of 3.H 8. 11. for their owne gaine.

vpon certaine peines and penalties in the ſame act mentioned. Sithens the making of which ſaid Act, the company and fellowſhip of Surgeons of London, minding only their owne lucres, and nothing the profit or eaſe of the diſeaſed or patient, haue ſued, troubled and vexed diuers honeſt perſons, as well men as women, whom God hath endued with the knowledge of the nature, kind and operation of certaine herbes, roots and waters, and the vſing and miniſtring of them, to ſuch as beene pained with cuſtomable diſeaſes: as womens breſts being ſore, a pin and the web in the eye, vncomes of hands, ſcaldings, burnings, ſore mouths, the ſtone, ſtrangury, ſaucelim, and morfew, and ſuch other like diſeaſes. And yet the ſaid perſons haue not taken any thing for their peines or cunning, but haue miniſtred the ſame to poore people only for neighbourhood and Gods ſake, and of pity and charity. And it is now well knowne, that the Surgeons admitted will doe no cure to any perſon, but where they ſhall know to be rewarded with a greater ſumme or reward than the cure extendeth vnto, for in caſe they would miniſter their cunning vnto ſore people vnrewarded, there ſhould not ſo many rot and periſh to death for lacke of helpe of ſurgery as daily doe: but the great part of Surgeons admitted, beene much more to be blamed, than thoſe perſons that they trouble.

For although the moſt part of the perſons of the ſaid craft of Surgeons haue ſmall cunning, yet they will take great ſummes of money, and doe little therefore, and by reaſon thereof they doe oftentimes impaire and hurt their patients, rather than doe them good.

In conſideration whereof, and for the eaſe, comfort, ſuccour, helpe, reliefe and health of the Kings poore Subiects, inhabitants of this his Realme, now pained or diſeaſed, or that hereafter ſhall be pained or diſeaſed.

It ſhall be lawfull for any perſon to cure outward ſores notwithſtanding the Statute of 3.H. 8.11.

Be it ordained, eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all time from henceforth it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon being the Kings Subiect, hauing knowledge and experience of the nature of herbes, roots and waters, or of the operation of the ſame, by ſpeculation or practiſe within any part of the Realme of England, or within any other the Kings Dominions, to practiſe, vſe and miniſter in and to any outward ſore, vncom, wound, appoſtemations, outward ſwelling or diſeaſe, any herbe or herbes, oyntments, bathes, pultes, and emplaſters, according to their cunning, experience and knowledge in any of the diſeaſes, ſores and maladies beforeſaid, and all other like to the ſame; or drinkes for the ſtone, and ſtrangury, or agues, without ſuit, vexation, trouble, penalty or loſſe of their goods, the foreſaid ſtatute in the foreſaid third yeere of the Kings moſt Gracious reigne, or any other act, ordinance or ſtatute to the contrary hereof, heretofore made, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. IX.

Meanes to preſerue the Riuer of Seuerne from rubbiſh or balaſt to be caſt thereinto.

WHere diuers perſons, as well inhabitants, fermers and dwellers next vnto the ſtreame of Seuerne, and vnto the creekes and pilles of the ſame from Kingrod vpward toward the City and Towne of Glouceſter, conuey and carry graine and corne out of the Realme of England, vnto the parts beyond the ſea, where graines are very deere, and now of late time haue made picards and other great boats, with fore maſtes, of the burden of fifteene tun, and ſo to ſix and thirty tun, and by reaſon thereof, Wheat, Rye, Beanes, Barley, Mault, and other kinde of graines by ſtealth are conueyed into the vtter parts beyond the ſea, ſo that thereby the Kings Maieſty is not only deceiued of his ſubſidy and cuſtome for the ſame, but it cauſeth at ſuch times, Wheat graine and other kind of corne, as is aforeſaid, to be at high prices. And by the ſame meanes the inhabitants within the City or Towne of Briſtoll, are often and ſundry times deſtitute, and ſcant may haue graine or corne to ſerue the Kings obedient Subiects there dwelling and inhabiting. And alſo by reaſon of hauing of the ſaid great boats and veſſels, oftentimes diuers ſhips, as well of the parts beyond the ſea, as other of Engliſh ſhips lying in Kingrod and Hungerod (being Ports or Hauens of the City or Towne of Briſtoll aforeſaid, diſtant fiue miles or thereabout from the ſaid Towne of Briſtoll) awaiting and tarrying there the comming of the ſaid great boats with corne and graine downe Seuerne, who there diſcharge the graine and corne abord the ſaid ſhips at Kingrod. By reaſon whereof the ſaid ſhips and other veſſels, there tarrying for the receit of the ſaid graine and corne, doe then caſt out their balaſt of ſtones, and other robull of balaſt of their ſaid ſhips and veſſels, into the ſaid rodes and Hauens of Hungrod and Kingrod, and there load the ſaid graine or corne in the ſhips and veſſels to the great deſtruction, and in continuance to the vtter vndoing of the ſaid rodes and hauens. So that the mouth and whole channell of the ſaid hauen is ſo heaped and quarred with ſtones and robull of balaſts of the ſhips and boats there arriuing, that great ſhips, which vſeth the courſe of merchandize to the ſaid Towne of Briſtoll from the parts beyond the ſea, and from the ſaid Towne laden with merchandize vnto the vtter parts, may ſcantly or ſafely come vnto the Kings ſaid Port and Towne of Briſtoll, and the Riuer of the ſame, and ſo from the ſaid Port and Towne of Briſtoll vnto the ſaid Seuerne, without great danger and perill. And by that meanes ſhips of great burden are like to be deſtroyed, and vtterly be caſt away, and if redreſſe be not the ſooner had therein, it will be to the vtter deſtruction of the Hauen and Port of the ſaid Towne of Briſtoll, which ſaid Towne of Briſtoll is chiefely maintained by courſe of merchandize.

Wherefore it may pleaſe the Kings Maieſty, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, to enact, make and ordeine, that after the laſt day of July next comming, no maſter or maſters, owner or owners of ſhip or ſhips, or of any other boat or veſſell, or any other perſon or perſons, do caſt or vnlode their balaſt or robull, at or in the ſaid rode called Kingrod and Hungrod, nor in any of them, ne in other place from the rode of Kingrod vnto the Towne of Briſtoll, nor in no part of the Hauen thereof, but on the land only aboue the full ſea marke, vpon peine that euery ſuch owner, maſter of ſhip, or of other boat or veſſell, and of euery other perſon or perſons, caſting and laying their balaſt or robull in the ſtreme, at the place or in the Riuer aforeſaid, to forfeit for euery time ſo offending, foure pound, the one halfe thereof to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other halfe thereof to the party that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of record, as well within Courts of record, within Cities and Townes corporate, before the Maior, Aldermen, Sheriffes and Bailifes, according to their Corporation, as elſewhere in any of the Kings Courts of record, by bill, plaint, action of debt, information or otherwiſe, in the which action the defendant ſhall not wage his law, neither yet no protection or eſſoine to be allowed.

The penalty for caſting of balaſt or robull in Kingrod, or in any part of the Hauen vnto Briſtoll.

And further that it may be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons from henceforth ſhall enbote or lade, or cauſe to be enboted or laden, any Wheate, Maulte, Beanes or any other kinde of graine or corne, whatſoeuer it ſhall be, in any picard, boat or other veſſell, at the creke, pill, banke or elſewhere vpon Seuerne ſtreme, betweene the key of the City of Gloceſter and the ſaid City or Towne of Briſtoll by the water of Seuerne, to the intent to be tranſported into vtter parts beyond the ſea out of the Kings Dominion, before that the ſaid owner or lader of the ſaid piccard, boat, or other veſſell, hath beene with the Kings Cuſtomers of the ſaid Towne of Briſtoll, and there by himſelfe, and one ſufficient ſuerty with him, bounden vnto the Kings Cuſtomers of the ſaid Port and Towne of Briſtoll aforeſaid, in ſuch reaſonable ſummes of money to the vſe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, as ſhall amount to the double value of the ſaid graine, or corne there to be laden, or to be enboated, vpon condition that the ſaid owner or maſter of the ſaid picard, or boat, or other veſſell ſhall not repaire, nor tranſport the ſaid corne or graine, nor no part thereof into any vtter parts beyond the Sea out of the Kings Dominion, before the ſaid Maſter or owner thereof ſhall come and bring the ſaid graine and corne vnto the key of the ſaid Towne of Briſtoll, and there to be viewed or ſeene the contents thereof, and the contents thereof to be declared vnto the Kings Cuſtomers, and to the Mayor of the ſaid Towne for the time being, if there be any ſuch licence or lawfull cauſe for to conuey or tranſport graine or corne into the parts beyond the ſea, out of the ſaid Kings Dominion, there to be meaſured and mett by the common meaſure of the ſaid Towne.

None ſhall load corne in any veſſell by the water of Seuerne to tranſport, before he be bound to the Cuſtomer of Briſtoll to bring it thither.

And after the ſaid obligation with condition ſo made, ſealed and deliuered vnto the ſaid Cuſtomer: Then the ſaid Cuſtomer ſhall deliuer a ſufficient cocket vnto the party, owner or owners, or maſter ſo bounden to conuey the ſaid graine or corne vnto the key of Briſtoll, vpon peine that euery picard, boat or other veſſell ſo laden with graine or other kinde of corne, to be carried or tranſported into the vtter parts beyond the ſea, out of the Kings Dominion, to be forfeited as well the ſaid corne and graine ſo laded, as the ſaid boat ſo laden contrary vnto this preſent Act whereof the King our Soueraigne Lord to haue the three parts thereof, and the party that will ſue for the ſame the fourth part before the Kings moſt honourable Counſell according to the Kings proclamation in that behalfe made, and prouided.

And further be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that if it ſhall appeare vpon the meaſuring thereof, vnto the Maior of the ſaid Towne of Briſtoll, and to the Kings Cuſtomers there for the time being, that there is more corne or graine loded to be tranſported into the parts beyond the ſea, within any of the ſaid veſſels, boats, picards or trowes, ouer and aboue foure quarters, more than is conteined in the ſaid cocket or licence: that then it ſhall be lawfull vnto the ſaid Maior, and Cuſtomers there for the time being, to cauſe the owner and conueyer thereof vnto the ſaid Towne of Briſtoll, to make ſale of ſuch corne and graine, as ſhall be brought ouer, and aboue the contents of the ſaid cocket or licence, and ouer and aboue foure quarters, beſide the cocket or licence, according as the prices of ſuch graine and corne are commonly worth and ſold in the open market of the ſaid towne of Briſtoll. The ſaid common meater to haue for the meaſuring of euery way of corne two pence, on peine of euery perſon, being owner of the ſaid graine or corne, or hauing the charge of the ſame, denying the meaſuring of the ſaid graine at the key of Briſtoll, to loſe and forfeit for euery time ſo denying fiue pound, the one halfe thereof to be to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other halfe thereof to be to the party that will ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, by action of debt, information or otherwiſe: In the which action the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor protection nor eſſoine allowed.

The penalty where one bringeth more corne to Briſtoll to be meaſured, and thence to bee tranſported, than is contained in his licence.

The penalty for denying the meaſuring of corne at Briſtoll.

And be it alſo enacted by authority aforeſaid, Tat no perſon or perſons after the firſt day of Auguſt next comming, doe caſt or vnlade out of any manner of ſhip, crayer, or any other veſſell, being within any hauen, rode, chanell or riuer, flowing or running to any port Towne, or to any City, Borough or Towne within this Realme, or any other the Kings Dominions, any manner of balaſt, rubbiſh, grauell, or any other wracke or filth, but only vpon the land aboue the full Sea marke, vpon paine that euery perſon and perſons offending this act, to loſe and forfeit for euery time ſo offending fiue pounds, the one halfe to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe thereof, to ſuch perſon and perſons as will ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, originall writ or information in any the Kings Courts of Record, in which action or ſuit no wager of Law ſhall be admitted, nor any eſſoine or protection allowed.

CAP. X.

The aſſiſe of conerlets made in Yorke, and where they ſhall be ſold.

VVHere as the City of Yorke, being one of the ancient and greateſt Cities within the Realme of England, afore this time hath béene maintained and vpholden by diuers and ſundry handycrafts there vſed, and moſt principally by making and weauing of Couerlets and couerings for beds, and thereby a great number of the inhabitants and poore people of the ſaid City, Suburbes thereof, and other places within the County of Yorke, haue béene daily ſet on worke in ſpinning, carding, dying, weauing, and otherwiſe concerning the making of them, to the great commodity of the inhabitants and poore people of the ſaid City, hauing thereby honeſt liuings, and not made elſe where in any part of the ſame County. For the true, ſubſtantiall, and perfect making whereof many good and beneficiall ordinances and orders haue béene deuiſed and made, aſwel for the good ſtuffe, concerning the ſaid couerlets and couerings, as alſo for the length and breadth of them and otherwiſe: of the which couerlets and couerings the beſt ſort ſhould and ought by the ſame ordinances, to conteine in length thrée yards, and in breadth two yards, and a quarter at the leaſt. The ſecond ſort to conteine in length thrée yards, and in breadth two yards. And the loweſt or third ſort ſhould conteine two yards and a halfe in length, and in breadth one yard and thrée quarters, vnder paine of forfeiture of the ſame, the one halfe and moity of the ſaid ſaid forfeiture to be to the Maior and Comminalty of the ſaid City, and the other moity to be to the Wardens and Company of the ſaid handycraft of Couerlet makers.

The length and breadth which couerlets made in Yorke ſhould conteine.

And forasmuch as the ſame Couerlets and Couerings, were well and ſubſtantially made and wrought, the Kings Subiects of diuers parts of the Realme, and alſo Strangers of other forreine Realmes, knowing the goodneſſe of them, were very deſirous to haue and buy the ſaid Couerlets and couerings. And now of late diuers and ſundry euill diſpoſed perſons Apprentizes not expert in the ſame occupation, withdrawing themſelues out of the ſaid City of Yorke into the County of Yorke, and other places there abouts, and alſo diuers other perſons, inhabiting in villages and Townes within the ſaid County, and nigh to the ſame City, entermedling with the ſame craft or occupation, hauing little experience therein, not being bound to the ſaid rules and ordinances, do daily make couerlets and couerings, neither of good ſtuffe nor of good aſſiſe, length, or breadth, and for the vtterance of the ſame, vſe daily the craft and ſubtilty of hauking abroad in the Country, to Villages and to mens houſes, putting the ſame naughty ware to ſale ſecretly, not only to the great diſceit of the Kings true and faithfull Subiects, buying the ſaid couerlets, and to the great defaming and ſlander of the ſaid handycraft, but alſo to the impoueriſhing of the inhabitants of the ſaid City, and vtter decay of the ſame, if remedy the ſooner herein be not prouided. It may therefore pleaſe our Soueraigne Lord the King, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that it may be enacted by the authority of the ſame, That no manner of perſon or perſons, dwelling and inhabiting within the ſaid County of Yorke, or nigh vnto the ſame, ſhall after the Feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell next comming, make any Couerlets or Couerings, to be put to ſale, vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons, after the ſaid feaſt, be inhabiting or dwelling within the City of Yorke, or within the Suburbes of the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of euery ſuch couerlet or couering, made, wrought, and put to ſale, contrary to the tenour of this eſtatute, or the value thereof.

None in Yorkſhire ſhall make couerlets but they which dwell in Yorke.

And be it further enacted, by the ſaid authority, That no manner of perſon or perſons, of the occupation of handycrafts men of Couerings or Couerlet makers dwelling within the ſaid City of Yorke, or the Suburbes of the ſame, or elſe where within the ſaid County, ſhall from and after the ſaid Feaſt, vſe the ſaid craft of hauking, or goe as haukers, or put to ſale any Couerlets in any other place or places, out of the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, but onely in the open Markets and Faires, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame Couerlets and Couerings, or the value thereof: The one halfe of the ſaid forfeitures, if it be in any City, Borough, or Towne Corporate, to be to the Maior and Comminalty, Bailiffe, Gouernor, or other Ruler, and Comminalty of euery ſuch City, Borough, or Towne Corporate, authoriſed to haue the ſame by grant or preſcription, or otherwiſe lawfully: and the other halfe thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhal ſeaſe or ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, action, information or otherwiſe in any Court of Record, wherein no wager of law, dilatory plea, or protection ſhall be allowed or admitted.

In what places onely couerlets made in Yorke ſhall be put to ſale.

And if the ſaid forfeiture happen to be taken or found out of any the ſaid Cities, Townes or Boroughes, hauing no ſuch authority: then the one moity of the ſaid forfeiture to be to our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors: and the other moitie to ſuch perſon and perſons, as will ſue for the ſame, in any of the Kings Courts in forme aforeſaid.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Wardens and Searchers of the ſaid occupation and handicraft of Couerlets and Couering makers, within the ſaid City of Yorke, for the time being, and their ſucceſſors ſhall after the feaſt of S. Michael haue full power and authority, by vertue of this Act, to make ſearch in all Faires and Markets, from Trent Northward, within this Realme of England, for all ſuch Couerlets and Couerings, as ſhall be put to ſale, not being well and ſufficiently wrought, and made of ſufficient ſtuffe, or not conteining the aſſiſes before limited and expreſſed, according to the tenor of this act, and to ſeiſe and take the ſame as forfeited. The one moity and halfe of ſuch forfeiture, if any ſuch ſhall be out of the ſaid Cities, Boroughes, or Townes corporate, to be to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other moity thereof to be to the ſaid Searchers and Wardens, that ſhall ſeiſe and take the ſame: to be had and recouered in like manner and forme, as is afore rehearſed.

Searching for couerlets not wel wrought or wanting aſſiſe.

Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, dwelling within the County of Yorke, at their free will and pleaſure at all times hereafter, to make Couerlets, of what aſſiſe, or of whatſoeuer ſtuffe they will for their owne vſe, or ſtore for their houſholds, or for their Lords, to whom they be tenants: So alwayes that the ſame Couerlets ſo made ſhall not be put to ſale.

Couerlets made for themſelues or their Lords.

And alſo that when and as often as the ſaid Searchers or Wardens of the occupation of Couerlet makers of the ſaid Citie of Yorke ſhall make ſearch in any liberties franchiſes within the ſaid Countie, for any the cauſes in the ſaid Act mentioned: That then and ſo oft they ſhall require the head officer of the ſame liberties and franchiſes, or his deputy to be ayding and aſſiſting, and alſo to goe with them to make the ſaid ſearch. And if the ſame officer or his deputie, vpon requeſt ſo made refuſe or will not ſo doe, That then vpon ſuch deniall and refuſall, the ſame ſearchers or Wardens to make ſearch themſelues: any thing in this Act conteined to the contrarie notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, that the Lords of the ſaid liberties and franchiſes, where any ſuch ſearches ſhall be made by authority of this Act, ſhall haue ſuch fines and forfeitures, as of right they ought to haue, by reaſon of any ſuch ſearches, in as large and ample manner, as they ought to haue had the ſame before the making of this Act, and as if this Act had neuer beene had nor made.

Where Lords of franchiſes ſhall haue the benefit of forfeitures.

Cap. XII.

The pauing of certaine ſtreets in London.

Foraſmuch as the ſtreet called White-croſſe-ſtreet, and the ſtreet called Cheſwell-ſtreet, leading from White-croſſe-ſtreet, vnto the high way leading to Moregate: the lane called Colding lane, and the ſtreet called Grub-ſtreet, in the Pariſh of S. Giles without Crepulgate: the ſtreet called Goſwell ſtreet, in the Pariſh of S. Botulphes without Alderſgate: the lane called Long lane, being in the Pariſh of S. Botulph without Alderſgate, and S. Sepulchres without Newgate: the ſtreet called S. Johns ſtreet, leading from the barres of Smithfield vp to the pound at the corner of the wall, extending along the high-way leading to Iſlington: And alſo the ſtreet from the ſaid barres to Cow-croſſe: The lane called Water lane in Fleete ſtreet, in the Pariſh of S. Bride and S. Dunſtane, leading down to Thames: the way leading without Temple barres weſtward, by and vnto Clements Inne gates, and new Inne gates, to Drewry place in the County of Middleſex. And alſo one little lane ſtretching from the ſaid way, to the ſigne of the bell at Drewry lane ende: and the common high way leading through a certaine place called petit France, from the barres of the weſt end of Tothill ſtreet of Weſtminſter in the County of Middleſex vnto the vttermoſt part of the weſt end of the ſaid place, called petit France: the ſtreet or high-way leading from Biſhops gate, to and aboue Shorditch Church: and the bridge called Strond bridge, and the way leading from the ſame bridge towards Temple barre: and the lane called Foſkue lane, from the garden and tenement of the Biſhop of Lichfield, and the gardens and tenements called the bell and proctours, downe to Strond bridge, be very foule, and full of pits and ſloughs very perillous and noyous, aſwell for all the Kings Subiects, through and by them repairing and paſſing, aſwell on horſebake as on foot, as alſo with carriage, and very neceſſary to be kept cleane, for the auoiding of corrupt ſauours, & an occaſion of peſtilence. For the amendment & reformation whereof, it may pleaſe the K. Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of his commons in his high Court of Parliament aſſembled, and by authority

They which haue a certaine eſtate in lands adioyning to thoſe ſtreets and lanes, ſhall paue the ſame to the middeſt of the cawſey.

authority of the ſame, that it may be ordained, eſtabliſhed and enacted, That all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, which now haue, or any time hereafter ſhal haue any lands, tenements or hereditaments in fee ſimple, fee taile, for terme of life, for terme of yeeres, or by reaſon of the Wardſhip of any heire during the nonage of the ſame heire, or by execution by writ of Elegit, or of any eſtatute eſtaple, lying and being adioyning to the foreſaid ſtreets, lanes and wayes, or any of them, ſhall on this ſide the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God M.D.xliiij. well and ſufficiently paue, or cauſe to be paued with good pauing ſtones, all and euery part of the ſaid ſtreets, lanes and other the premiſſes before expreſſed, euery man ſuch part and quantity of the ſame lanes, ſtreets and wayes, vnto the middeſt of them and euery of them, in length and breadth, as his or their lands or tenements do lie or extend in like manner and forme, as the ſtreets and lanes within the City of London be paued, with cawſeyes or chanels in the middeſt of the ſame ſtreets, lanes and wayes, as ſhall be thought moſt neceſſary and conuenient, vpon paine euery perſon in his owne default to forfeit for euery yard ſquare of the ſame ſtreets, lanes and wayes and euery of them, not ſufficiently paued, before the Feaſt of S. Michael, twelue pence.

They which ſhall haue a certaine eſtate in lands adioyning to the high way in the foreſaid ſtreets or lanes, ſhall continue the ſame paued.

And that all and euery ſuch perſons hauing, or which hereafter ſhall haue lands or tenements in fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life or otherwiſe, as is aforeſaid, adioyning or lying to and next either ſide of the ſame ſtreets, lanes and wayes, or any of them, their heires, aſſignes or ſucceſſors, after and from the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael, ſhall yeerely maintaine and repaire the ſame pauements, and euery of them, ouer againſt his ſaid lands and tenements, well and ſufficiently from time to time, as often and when neede ſhal require at all times hereafter with pauing ſtone, vpon paine to forfeit for euery yard ſquare, not ſufficiently paued, twelue pence, as often as any ſuch default of any perſon ſhall be preſented before the Iuſtices of Peace within the ſaid County of Middleſex, for that part of the ſaid ſtreets, lanes and wayes being within the ſaid County of Middleſex. And before the Maior and the Aldermen or Iuſtices of the Peace, within the City of London, for that which is within the liberties of the ſaid City.

The Iuſtices of Peace of Middleſex ſhal enquire of them that omit their duty there.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, within the ſaid County of Mid. for the time being, ſhall haue full power and authority to enquire in euery their quarter Seſſions, to be kept after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael, by the oaths of twelue men of the ſaid County, aſwell of them that haue not paued ſuch part or portion of the ſaid ſtreets, lanes, wayes, and euery of them, being within the ſaid County, ouer againſt and along vnto the middeſt of the ſame ſtreets, lanes and wayes, as their lands and tenements do lie or extend, as alſo of ſuch perſons as haue beene remiſſe and negligent in amending and repairing the ſame ſtreets, lanes and wayes, from time to time as neede ſhall require according to the meaning of this act.

Amercing and ſetting of fines vpon offendors.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, within the ſaid County of Middleſex for the time being, within their iuriſdiction, ſhall haue full power and authority by their diſcretions to amerce and ſet fine vpon ſuch perſons as ſhall be remiſſe, negligent, or make default in the obſeruing of the tenour of this act.

The penalties of the Iuſtice of Peace of Middleſex, and of the Maior and Aldermen of London for omitting their duties of inquiry of offendors.

And if the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace within the ſaid County of Middleſex, or the Maior and Aldermen, and Iuſtices of Peace of the ſaid City of London, at any their quarter Seſſions, after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael, to be holden and kept within the ſaid County of Middleſex by the Iuſtices of Peace of the ſaid County, or the Maior, Aldermen, and Iuſtices of peace of the ſaid City of London, at any their quarter Seſſions, or enqueſts of wardencie, kept within the ſaid City of London, be negligent and remiſſe on their parties, to charge by oath of xij. men ſuch perſons, to find and preſent the ſaid defaults and negligences of all perſons offending contrary to the meaning of this act: then the ſaid Iuſtices of peace within the ſaid County of Middleſex, being preſent at the ſame quarter Seſſions, to loſe & forfeit for euery time ſo neglecting the ſame charge. C.s. And in likewiſe the Maior, Aldermen, and Iuſtices of Peace of London, to loſe and forfeit for euery like default and neglecting C.s.

Certificat of the fines into the Eſchequer, and proces againſt the offendors.

And be it further enacted by the ſaid authority, that the Clerke of Peace of the ſaid County of Middleſex for the time being, ſhall from time to time, certifie into the Kings Eſchequer, aſwell all ſuch fines and forfeitures, ſo aſſeſſed within the ſaid County, loſt and forfeited before the ſaid Iuſtices of Middleſex to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe and his heires. And the Barons of the ſaid Eſchequer to make out proces by diſtreſſe to be taken and leuied vpon the ſaid lands and tenements, or otherwiſe by their diſcretions, aſwell for the ſaid fines aſſeſſed, as alſo for the ſaid forfeitures and penalties before limited: and if the Clerke of the Peace within the ſaid County of Middleſex, be remiſſe and negligent in making ſuch certificate, or doing his duty according to this Act: then the ſame Clerke to loſe and forfeit for euery ſuch default, v. li. the one halfe thereof to be to the vſe of the Kings Highneſſe, and the other halfe to any of the Kings Subiects, that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts, by bill, action, information, or otherwiſe, wherin no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection, ſhall lie for the ſame defendant.

Fines & amerciaments ſhall be ſet vpon offendors in London by the Maior, &c.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Maior, Aldermen and Iuſtice of Peace within the ſaid City of London and Suburbes of the ſame, or foure of them, whereof the Maior to be one, by vertue of this Act, ſhall haue full power and authority from time to time, to ſet fines and amerciaments of all and ſingular perſon and perſons, for not pauing and repairing of any of the ſaid ſtreets, lanes, or high wayes, within the ſaid Cities and Liberties of the ſame, which now be paued, or hereafter ſhalbe by force of this Act paued: and the ſame fines and amerciaments to be leuied by diſtreſſe, plaint, or action within the ſaid City, by the Chamberlaine of the ſaid City for the time being, to the vſe of the Maior and Comminalty of the ſaid City and their ſucceſſors, as other fines and amercements for any other matter or cauſe within the ſaid city haue beene vſed and accuſtomed.

Prouided alwaies, ẏ if any the inhabitants of ſuch lands or tenements do ſufficiently repaire and paue before their manſions & dwelling places, the ſaid ſtreets, lanes, and high waies that then euery ſuch inhabitant, by force of this act, ſhall defaulke, abate, and retaine in his hands as much of rent due to his leſſor, as he can proue to haue expended in and about the ſame pauing and repairing, and the leſſor for ſo much money as ſuch ſum doth amount vnto, to haue no action, reentre, nor other remedy for non paiment of the ſame, vnleſſe it ſhalbe otherwiſe agreed betweene them.

An inhabitant pauing the ſtreet may defaulk ſo much of his rent from his leſſor.

Cap. XIII.

Knights and Burgeſſes ſhall haue places in Parliament for Cheſter.

IN moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your excellent maieſty the inhabitants of your graces county Palatine of Cheſter, that where the ſaid county Palatine of Cheſter is, and hath beene alwaies hitherto exempt, excluded, and ſeparated out and from your high Court of Parliament, to haue any Knights and Burgeſſes within the ſaid Court: By reaſon whereof the ſaid inhabitants haue hitherto ſuſtained manifold diſheriſons, loſſes, & damages, as well in their lands, goods, and bodies, as in the good, ciuill and politicke gouernance, and maintenance of the common-wealth of their ſaid Countrey. And foraſmuch as the ſaid inhabitants haue alwaies hitherto beene bound by the Acts and Statutes made and ordained by your ſaid highneſſe, and your moſt noble progenitors, and authority of the ſaid Court, as far forth as other counties, cities, and boroughes haue bin, that haue had their Knights & Burgeſſes, within your ſaid Court of Parliament, & yet haue had neither Knight ne Burgeſſe there for the ſaid county Palatine, the ſaid inhabitants for lack thereof, haue beene oftentimes touched and greeued with Acts and ſtatutes made within the ſaid Court, as well derogatiue vnto the moſt ancient iuriſdictions, liberties and priuileges of your ſaid County Palatine, as preiudicial vnto the common wealth, quietneſſe, reſt and peace of your graces moſt bounden Subiects, inhabiting within the ſame. For remedy whereof it may pleaſe your ſaid highneſſe that it bee enacted, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from the end of this preſent Seſſion, the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter ſhall haue two Knights for the ſaid County Palatine, & likewiſe two Citizens to be burgeſſes for the City of Cheſter, to be elect and choſen by proceſſe, to be awarded by the Chancellor of England, vnto the Chamberlain of Cheſter, his lieutenant or deputy for the time being. And ſo like proceſſe to bee made by the Chamberleine, his lieutenant or deputy to the Sheriffe of the ſaid County of Cheſter: And the ſame election to be made vnder like manner and forme, to all intents, conſtruction and purpoſes, as is vſed within the County Palatine of Lancaſter, or any other County and City within this realme of England: which ſaid Knights and Burgeſſes, and euery of them ſo elected and choſen, ſhall be returned by the ſaid Sheriffe into the Chancery of England in due forme, and vpon like paines as it is ordeined, that the Sheriffe or Sheriffes of any other County within this realme, ſhould make their returne in caſe like. And which ſaid Knights and Burgeſſes, and euery of them ſo elected and returned, ſhall bee Knights and burgeſſes of the Court of Parliament, and haue like voice and authority, to all intents and purpoſes, as any other the Knights and Burgeſſes of the ſaid Court of Parliament, haue, vſe and enioy. And in likewiſe ſhall and may take all and euery ſuch like liberties, aduantages, dignities, priuileges, wages, fees, and commodities concerning this ſaid court of Parliament, to all intents conſtructions and purpoſes, as any other the Knights and Burgeſſes of the ſaid Court, ſhall, may or ought to haue, take, or enioy.

The reaſons why the county & city of Cheſter ſhould haue Knights and Burgeſſes for the Parliament.

The county of Cheſter ſhall haue ii. Knights for the ſhire, and the city of Cheſter ii. burgeſſes for the Parliament.

And alſo where it is, and hath beene vſed within the ſaid county Palatine, that vpon the ſuggeſtion of any perſon, that is, or hath beene indebted to any other perſon or perſons, comming to the Eſchequer within the ſaid County Palatine, and there taking a Corporall oath, that hee or they ſhall pay his or their creditors at ſuch time as he or they ſhall be able thereto, the officers of the ſaid Eſchequer haue vſed without warrant, to grant out of the ſame Eſchequer a writ in nature of a protection, whereby the ſaid creditors haue beene, and be greatly delayed, and in manner defrauded of their ſaid debts to the great impoueriſhment and vndoing of the ſaid creditors. For reformation whereof, it may alſo pleaſe your ſaid highneſſe that it be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no ſuch writ of courſe, without a ſpeciall warrant from your ſaid highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, containing any ſuch protection, be from the firſt day of October, which ſhall be in the yeere of our Lord God. MD. XLIII. granted. But that all, and euery ſuch writs of courſe after the ſaid day to be granted, to be void and of none effect: any cuſtome, vſe or priuilege to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

No writ of courſe in the nature of a protection ſhall be granted in the county palatine of Cheſter.

Cap. XIIII.

The names of all perſons outlawed, attainted, and conuicted of felony, ſhall be certified into the Kings Bench.

WHere before this time diuers perſons haue beene endited, arraigned and attainted, and ſome of them Clerks conuict, and ſome of them Clerks attainted, and ſome of them outlawed for murder, burglary, robbery, and other felonies before Iuſtices of the peace, Iuſtices of gaole deliuery, and Iuſtices of Oyer and Determiner, within diuers cities, counties, franchiſes, and liberties within this realme. The records of which attainders, vtlawries, & conuictions often and many times by negligence of the Clerke of the Crowne, Clerkes of peace, Clerkes of aſſiſe and ſuch other, as haue had the order, rule, keeping and gouernance of the ſame records, haue been imbeſiled, and not ready to be obiected againſt ſuch perſons as haue been newly arraigned before our ſoueraigne Lord the King in his bench, or before other the Kings Iuſtices for like, and ſuch other offences by them committed or done. And for that it hath not beene knowne certainly whither to reſort for the ſame records, becauſe they were not certified into any place certaine. By reaſon whereof ſometime ſuch perſons and like offenders which haue been newly arraigned, as is beforeſaid, haue had the benefit of his or their Clergy where they ought not, ne ſhould haue had the ſame, if the ſaid records had then been preſent in the ſame place, where ſuch perſon or perſons were ſo newly arraigned, or elſe certified, into ſome other place certain, where the ſame records might haue been ſeene, ſent for or written for, to haue been obiected againſt ſuch perſon or perſons ſo newly arraigned. Whereby as well the King our Soueraigne Lord, as alſo all other perſons, haue many times loſt their Eſchetes, and other aduantages and forfeitures, that they ſhould haue had by meane of the ſaid attainders, to the great loſſes, both of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the King and other perſons, and alſo the ſame offenders haue had their Clergy, where they ought not ſo to haue had to the great boldneſſe and encouraging of like offenders.

The certificate of the Clerke of Aſſiſe into the Kings bench of ſuch as be outlawed, attainted, or conuicted of felony.

In conſideration whereof, be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that the Clerke of the crowne, Clerks of the peace, and Clerks of aſſiſe for the time being where any ſuch attainder, outlawry or conuiction ſhal ſo be had, ſhall from the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, not only certifie a tranſcript briefly, and in few words, conteining the tenor and effect of euery ſuch inditement, outlawry or conuiction and Clerke atteinted before them ſo to be had, made, or pronounced, that is to ſay, the name, ſurname and addition of euery ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhalbe ſo endited, and thereupon outlawed, conuicted, or Clerke attainted, and the certainty of the ſaid felony, or other offence whereupon he or they ſhalbe ſo outlawed, conuicted, or Clerke attainted, and the day and place of his outlawry, conuiction, and attainder, and the day and place, where and when the ſaid felony or other offence, whereupon the ſaid perſon or perſons ſhall bee ſo endited, outlawed, conuicted, or Clerke attainted, ſhalbe made and done before the King our Soueraigne Lord in his bench at Weſtminſter in the county of Middleſex, there to remaine of record for euer, among other the Kings Records there within forty dayes next after any ſuch attainder, conuiction, or outlawry ſhal be had, made, or pronounced, if the tearme be then, and if not, then within twenty dayes next after the beginning of the tearme next following the ſaid forty dayes.

A tranſcript of an inditement deliuered to the Ordinary.

But alſo ſhall deliuer a tranſcript of euery ſuch enditement, whereupon the ſaid perſon and perſons ſhal fortune hereafter ſo to be conuicted, or Clerks attainted, to the ordinary, to whom the body of the ſaid perſon or perſons ſhall be committed. The ſaid ordinary paying to euery ſuch Clerke, as ſhall write the ſaid tranſcript, for euery copy of ſuch enditement twelue pence for his paines: vpon paine that euery Clerke of the Crowne, Clerke of the Peace, and Clerke of Aſſiſe for the time being, before whom ſuch enditement, attainder, outlawry or conuiction ſhall be ſo had, made, pronounced, or remaine for the non certifying of euery ſuch record, and deliuering of the Copy of ſuch inditements to the ſaid Ordinaries according to this eſtatute, to loſe and forfeit forty ſhillings, the one moity thereof to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moity to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, information or otherwiſe in any of the Kings Courts of record, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed.

The Clerke of the Crowne ſhall receiue the certificates.

And the Clerke of the Crowne, in the Kings bench ſhall receiue the ſaid certificates and tranſcripts at ſuch time as they ſhall be tendred and profered vnto them by the ſaid Clerkes of the Crowne, Clerkes of the Peace, and Clerks of Aſſiſe, or by their deputy or deputies without taking any thing for the ſame, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſumme of xl. s. for euery ſuch certificate by him refuſed.

No more names certified than are attainted, conuict, &c.

Prouided alwayes and bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if there bee any more perſons contained, and named in any ſuch enditement other than ſuch perſon ſo attainted conuicted or outlawed, that then ſuch clerke of the crowne, Clerke of aſſiſe, clerke of peace, with whom the record of ſuch attainder, outlawry, or conuiction ſhall remaine, ſhall within the time before in this act limited certifie the tranſcription of ſuch inditement, outlawry, or conuiction the Kings bench at Weſtminſter as is aforeſaid, which tranſcript ſo certified ſhall be had and taken as good, effectuall, and auaileable in the Law, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes againſt ſuch perſon and perſons, againſt whom it ſhall be ſo obiected, alleaged, or pleaded, as if the very record thereof, whereupon he or they ſo were indited were there preſent.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Clerke of the Crowne in the Kings bench for the time being, ſhall at all ſuch times as the Iuſtices of the gaole deliuery, or Iuſtices of peace in euery County, within this realme of England doe write vnto him for the names of ſuch perſons, which be ſo attainted by outlawry, or Clerks attainted, or conuict and certified in the ſaid bench of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the King, ſhall incontinently without delay certifie the ſaid names and ſurnames of the ſaid perſons, with the cauſes why and wherefore they were conuict or attainted, vnto the Iuſtices of gaole deliuery, or Iuſtices of peace, vpon the paine and penalty to forfeit for euery name of ſuch perſons, which ſhall be ſo written for, and not certified by the ſaid Clerke of the Crowne in the Kings bench to the ſaid Iuſtices xl.s.

Biſhops new erected ſhall pay their tenths into the Courts of the firſt fruits.

Where in the Parliament begun and holden at London the third day of Nouember in the xxi. yeere of the reigne of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by diuers prerogations vntill the diſſolution thereof: it was among other things eſtabliſhed and enacted, that the Kings Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſors, for the augmentation and maintenance of the royall eſtate of his Imperiall crowne and dignity, of ſupreme head of the Church of England, ſhould yeerly haue take, enioy, and receiue vnited and knit vnto his Imperiall Crowne for euer, one yeerly rent or penſion, amounting to the value of the tenth part of all the reuenues, rents, fermes, tithes, offerings, emoluments, and of all other profits, as well called ſpirituall as temporall, then appertaining or belonging, or that afterward from thenceforth ſhould belong to any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, Abbacy, Monaſtery, Priory, Archdeaconry, Deanry, Hoſpitall, College, houſe Collegiate, Prebend, Cathedral church, Collegiat Church, Conuentuall church, Parſonage Vicarage, Chauntry, free Chappel or other Benefice or promotion ſpiritual, of what name, nature or quality ſoeuer they were, within any dioceſſe of this Realme, or in Wales, the ſaid penſion or annuall rent, to be yeerely paid for euer to our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord, to his heires and ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme, at the feaſt of the Natiuity of our Lord God, as by the ſame Act among diuers other things therein contained, more plainly is ſhewed and may appeare.

26. H. 8. 3. It was enacted that the King ſhould haue a yeerely tenth of all ſpirituall promotions.

And where alſo at the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter, the xxviij. day of April, in the xxxi. yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the Kings moſt gracious raigne: and afterward continued by diuers & ſundry prorogations, vntill the diſſolution therof, there was by authority of the ſaid parliament erected, and eſtabliſhed a certaine Court, called the Court of the firſt fruits and tenths.

32. H. 8. 45. The Kings Court of firſt fruits was erected.

And it was further enacted, by the authority of the ſaid Parliament, ẏ the ſaid firſt fruits and tenths, and all the reuenues and profits thereof, which then were, or hereafter from henceforth ſhould grow or be, by any manner of meanes, ſhould be from henceforth in the order, ſuruey, and gouernance of the ſaid court of the firſt fruits & tenth, and miniſters of the ſame, as by the ſame Act among diuers other things therin contained, plainly appeareth. Sithen the making of which ſaid Act, our Soueraigne Lord, of his moſt gracious and bleſſed diſpoſition, by his moſt gracious ſeuerall Letters Patents, hath made, erected, incorporat, and eſtabliſhed, within this his realme diuers and ſundry Biſhops & Sees of Biſhops, that is to ſay, Iohn now Biſhop of Cheſter, Iohn now Biſhop of Glouceſter, Iohn now Biſhop of Peterborough, Paul now Biſhop of Briſtoll, and Robert now Biſhop of Oxenford: and by the ſame his ſeuerall & ſundry letters patents, hath ſunderly and ſeuerally giuen and granted vnto the ſaid Biſhops diuers and ſundry manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments. In which ſaid ſeuerall letters patents there beene reſerued vnto his highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſors, certaine yeerly rents and penſions amounting to the tenth of the ſame manors lands, tenements, and hereditaments, ſo ſeuerally giuen to the ſaid ſeuerall Biſhops, to be paid and paiable yeerly in our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the Kings Court of Augmentations of the reuenues of his Crowne, as in the ſaid Letters patents more plainely appeareth. And foraſmuch as by the ſaid former Eſtatutes, the ſaid Biſhops beene compellable euery one of them to pay the tenths of his or their poſſeſſions, annexed to their ſeuerall Biſhopricks, in our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the Kings Court of firſt fruits and tenth, the ſaid Biſhops be and ſhall bee double charged and chargeable, with the paiments of the ſaid rents and penſions, reſerued and to be paid, as is aboueſaid, for that, that the paiments thereof in one of the ſaid Courts, is no diſcharge in the other, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the Kings highneſſe, and to the great hurt and decay of the ſaid Biſhops, and their ſucceſſors, if ſpeedy remedy bee not therefore prouided. For reformation whereof, be it enacted and ordained by authority of this preſent Parliament, that all ẏ yeerly rents, tenths, & penſions, as is or be aboue rehearſed, reſerued in and by all and ſingular the Kings highneſſe ſaid ſeuerall Letters Patents, made of any manors, lands, tenements, Parſonages appropriat, or other hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, ſithen the eight and twentith day of April, in the ſaid one and thirtith yeere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne Lord, to any the ſaid ſeuerall Biſhops, ſhall from the firſt day of May next comming, be in the rule, gouernance, and ſuruey of the ſaid Court of firſt fruits and tenth. And that all ſuch and the ſame rents, penſions, and tenths, ſhalbe from the ſaid firſt day of May, payable and alwaies paid in the ſaid Court of firſt fruits and tenth, and not elſewhere, nor in any other Court or place, any thing rehearſed in the ſaid ſeuerall letters patents, or in any of them, or any Act, ſtatute, or law, had, made, or vſed to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Fiue new Biſhopricks erected by the Kings Letters Pat.

The Biſhops of Cheſter, Glouceſter, Peterborough, and Oxford ſhal pay their tenths in the court of firſt fruits. Alt. 1. M. 10.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Biſhops nor their ſucceſſors, ne any of them, ſhall at any time hereafter be impeached or ſued in the ſaid Court of firſt fruits and tenth, of, or for any tenth, yeerely rent, or penſion, reſerued in or by any of the ſaid ſeuerall Letters patents, which now is, or before the ſaid firſt day of May next comming ſhall be due vnto the Kings highneſſe. And that all and ſingular proceſſe and ſuits now had and purſued, or hereafter on this ſide the ſaid firſt day of May to be had or ſued out of the ſaid court of firſt fruits and tenth, againſt any of the ſaid Biſhops newly erected and made, as is aforeſaid, of, for, or concerning only any yeerely rent, penſion, or tenths, reſerued vpon or by any of the ſaid Letters patents, ſhall ceaſe and bee cleerly void to all intents and purpoſes. 1. A rehearſall of the ſauing in the ſaid ſtat. of 31.H.8. ſpecified.

And yet notwithſtanding the ſaid generall ſauing, conteined in the ſaid Act, the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, and other Eccleſiaſticall perſons, of both the ſaid Prouinces, of Canterbury and Yorke, be, and ſithen the making of the ſaid Act haue beene diſturbed and denied of the hauing, receiuing and gathering of the ſaid penſions, portions, corrodies, indemnities ſinodes, and prories, with other profits belonging vnto them by diuers of the fermors, and occupiers of great part and parcell of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments of the ſaid late Monaſteries, and other Eccleſiaſticall houſes and places, or being parcell of the poſſeſſions of them, and haue no direct meane to obtaine, recouer, or come to the ſame, not onely to their great hurt and damage, but alſo like to grow and be to the great loſſe and diſheriſon of the Kings maieſty concerning his firſt fruits and tenth.

For reformation whereof, bee it ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the Kings Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons, being fermer or occupier of any manors, lands, tenements, parſonages, benefices, or other hereditaments, of any of the ſaid late Monaſteries, or Eccleſiaſticall houſes, or places, or belonging to them, or any of them, by the Kings Highneſſe gift, graunt, ſale, exchange, or otherwiſe, out of which premiſſes any ſuch portions, penſions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, prories, or any other profits, haue beene heretofore lawfully going out, anſwered or paid to any of the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, and other Eccleſiaſticall perſons aboue ſaid, doe at any time after the firſt day of Aprill next comming, wilfully deny the paiment thereof, at the dayes of paiment heretofore accuſtomed, of any of the ſaid penſions, portions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, prories, or any other profits, whereof the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, or other Eccleſiaſticall perſons were in poſſeſſion, at or within ten yeeres next before the time of the diſſolution of any ſuch Monaſteries, or other Eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, that then it ſhall be lawfull for the ſame Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, or other Eccleſiaſticall perſons aforeſaid, being ſo denied to bee ſatiſfied and paied therof, and hauing right to the ſame thing in demand, to make ſuch Proceſſe, aſwell againſt euery ſuch perſon & perſons, as ſhall ſo deny paiment of the ſame penſions, portions, corrodies, proxies, indemnities, ſinodies, or any other profits, which of right ought to be paied, as is aforeſaid, as againſt the Church or Churches, charged with yͤ ſame, as heretofore they haue lawfully done, and as by & according to the lawes & ſtatutes of this realme they may now lawfully do, for the true paiment & recouery thereof. And if the party defendant be lawfully conuict in any ſuch ſuit, cauſe, or matter, according to the Eccleſiaſticall lawes: then the party plaintife ſhall haue & recouer againſt the party defendant the thing in demaund, and the value thereof in damages with his coſts for his ſuit.

Penſions, &c. due out of religious lands diſſolued ſhalbe paid to Biſhops, Archdeacons &c. by the occupiers of the ſame lands.

The remedy if the matter be determinable at the Common Law.

And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if it fortune the cauſe or matter of variance betwéene any of the ſaid parties be determinable at the cõmon law, that then the party gréeued to ſue for his recouery and remedy therein at the common law. And if the party defendant fortune to be by the courſe of the Common Law lawfully condemned to the party plaintife, then the ſaid party plaintife ſhal likewiſe haue and recouer againſt the party defendant the thing in demand, and the value thereof in damages, with his coſts for his ſuit.

The remedy where the King hath demiſed any land with couenant of diſcharge thereof.

Prouided alway and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular ſuch of the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, and other Eccleſiaſticall perſons, which haue right, or title to claime, demand, or enioy any of the ſaid penſions, portions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, or proxies, againſt any perſon or perſons, to whom the King hath made or hereafter ſhall make in writing vnder ſeale, any ſale, gift, grant, or leaſe, for terme of life or liues, or yeeres, of any of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, parſonages, benefices, or hereditaments, charged, or chargeable to or with any of yͤ ſaid penſions, portions corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies or proxies, and alſo hath couenanted, granted, promiſed, or agréed, or hereafter ſhall couenant, grant, promiſe, or agrée, by the ſaid writing to acquite, diſcharge or ſaue harmeleſſe the ſame perſon or perſons of all penſions, portions, corrodies, indemnities, ſinodies, and proxies, going out of the premiſſes or any parcell thereof, as bee or ſhall bee mentioned in the ſame writings or any of them, ſhall ſue for their remedy and recouery thereof in the Court of the Augmentations of the reuenues of the Kings Crowne, and not elſewhere: And that the party defendant hauing any ſuch diſcharge, being conuented, called, or ſued in any other Court or place, or before any other Iudge, for any the cauſes abouefaid, ſhal be diſcharged and diſmiſſed out of the ſaid Court or place without any thing paying for the ſame, by the only ſhewing forth any of the ſaid writings, ſealed vnder any of the Kings ſeales, prouing or declaring the King to haue couenanted, promiſed, or agréed to acquite, diſcharge, or ſaue harmleſſe the ſaid party defendant therof, as is aforeſaid. Any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A confirmation of Letters Patents, notwithſtanding any miſnaming.

Where the Kings moſt excellent highneſſe, ſithen the fourth day of February, in the xxvii. yeere of his Maieſties raigne hath obtained and purchaſed, as well by exchanges, as by gifts, bargaines, fines, feoffements, recoueries, deeds enrolled and otherwiſe, of diuers and ſundry perſōs, many, ſundry & diuers honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, medowes, paſtures woods, rents reuerſions, ſeruices and other hereditaments, and hath not onely paied diuers and ſundry great ſums of money for the ſame, but alſo hath giuen & granted for and in conſideration thereof vnto diuers perſons late owners thereof, diuers and ſundry manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and other recompences, in and for full ſatiſfaction of all ſuch honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices and other his hereditaments, by his highneſſe obtained, purchaſed or had as is aboueſaid. Be it therefore enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors ſhall haue, hold, poſſede, and enioy all and ſingular the ſame honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements,, and other hereditaments, which his highneſſe ſith the ſaid fourth day of February, in the xxvii. yeere aboueſaid, hath obtained and had, or at any time during the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres next enſuing the making of this preſent Act, ſhall obtaine, purchaſe, or haue, by way of exchange, bargaine, purchaſe, or other whatſoeuer meane or meanes, according to the true meaning and intent of his highneſſe bargaine, exchange, or purchaſe therein: miſrecitall, or nonrecitall, or not naming of any of the ſaid honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of the true names, or certainties of them or any of them compriſed or mentioned in the bargaines, or writings made betweene the Kings highneſſe, or any other party or parties, or of any part or parcel therof, or of any townes or counties, where the ſaid honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, lie and been, or any other matter or cauſe whatſoeuer it be in any wiſe notwithſtanding: Sauing to all and euery perſon and perſons, and to their heires, bodies politike, and corporate, and to their ſucceſſors and to euery of them (other than ſuch perſon and perſons and their heires, and their wiues, and the wiues of euery of them, bodies politike and corporate, and their ſucceſſors and euery of them, of whom the Kings highneſſe hath obtained by exchange, gift, bargaine, fine, feoffement, recouery, deed enrolled or otherwiſe, or at any time hereafter during the ſaid ſeuen yeeres next comming, ſhall obtaine, purchaſe, or haue any ſuch honors, caſtles, manors, lands tenements, or other hereditaments, as is aforeſaid) all ſuch right, title, vſe, intereſt, poſſeſſions, rents, charges, annuities, commodities, fee, and other profits, (rents, ſeruices and rents ſecks only except) which they or any of them haue, might, or ought to haue had, in or to the premiſſes ſo obtained and had or into any parcel therof, in as ample and large manner, forme, and condition, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if this Act had neuer beene had, ne made: This preſent Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A confirmation of all aſſurances heretofore made, or at any time within 7. yeares to bee made by any perſon to the K. of any lands &c.

A ſauing of the right of others.

And where alſo our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the King, ſithen the ſaid iiii. day of February, in the ſaid xxvii. yeere of his Maieſties reigne, as well vpon diuers and ſundry good conſiderations, his Maieſty ſpecially mouing, as alſo otherwiſe, hath bargained, ſold, exchanged, giuen, and granted by his Graces ſeuerall Letters Patents, Indentures, or other writings ſealed vnder his Highneſſe great Seale of England, and the Seale of his Duchy of Lancaſter, and the Seale of office of the Court of Augmentations of the reuenues of his Crowne, or any of them, as well to bodies politike and corporate, as to diuers and ſundry other of his louing and obedient ſubiects, diuers and ſundry Honours, Caſtles, Manors, Monaſteries, Abbathies, Priories, Lands, Tenements, Rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, Parſonages appropriated, Aduouſons, tithes, Oblations, penſions, portions, franchiſes, Priuileges, Liberties, offices, and other hereditaments, commodities and profits, in fee ſimple, fee taile, for terme of life or liues, or for terme of yeeres, as in the ſame ſeuerall Letters Patents, Indentures, and other Writings is mentioned and declared. And where alſo the Kings Maieſty heretofore ſithen the ſaid fourth day of February, by his ſeuerall Letters patents, ſealed vnder the ſaid great ſeale of England or otherwiſe, of his accuſtomable goodneſſe, hath newly erected, ordained, & made diuers Biſhops, Deanes, and Chapiters, Colleges, and other bodies politike and corporate, and hath by his ſeuerall Letters Patents, ſealed vnder the great Seale of England, giuen and granted as well vnto them, as to diuers other bodies politike and corporate, and to their ſucceſſors, by ſuch name or names as they then were, be, or now ſtand corporate, diuers manors, lands, tenements, parſonages, tithes, penſions, portions, aduouſons, nominations, preſentations, and other hereditaments, and ſuch or like liberties and iuriſdictions in the ſame manors, lands and tenements mentioned in any of the ſame letters patents, as he to whom any ſuch letters patents were or bee made or granted, or his predeceſſors before had or inioyed in the manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, departed or appointed to the King, or ſuch as any the late Abbot or Prior of any the late Monaſteries or Priories, or other perſon or perſons whatſoeuer or any of them mentioned in any of the ſaid letters patents, lawfully had, exerciſed, vſed or enioyed within the ſaid caſtles, manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, mentioned in any of the ſaid letters patents: In auoiding, diſturbing, hurting or hindering of diuers of the ſaid ſeuerall letters patents, indentures & other writings of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, & other things in them contained, ſundry and many ambiguities, doubts and queſtions haue, or might hereafter happen to be moued, obiected, alleaged, inuented, procured or ſtirred, as well for miſnaming, miſrecitall, or non-recitall of any of the ſame honors, caſtles, manors, Monaſteries, Abbathies, Priories, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any parcell thereof, or for lack of finding of offices or inquiſitions of and in the premiſſes, whereby the title of the Kings highneſſe therein ought to haue beene found, before the making of the ſame letters patẽts or other writings: or for miſrecital, or nonrecital of leaſes thereof before made, aſwel of record as not of record, or for lack of the certainty, miſcaſting, rating, or ſetting forth of the yeerly values and rates of the premiſſes, or of the yeerly rents reſerued of and for the premiſſes, or any parcell therof, mentioned or contained in any the ſaid letters Patents or other writings: or for that the premiſſes be, or any part thereof is valued to a more or leſſe value in the ſaid Letters patents or writings, than the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes then were or ſhall be in yeerely value: or for miſnaming of the townes, hamlets, pariſhes, or counties, where the ſame honours, caſtles, manors, Monaſteries, Abbathies, priories, lands, tenements, rents, hereditaments, and other the premiſſes, and euery parcel thereof, or any parcell thereof, lien or been: or for lacke of the true naming of the natures, kinds, ſorts or quantities of the ſaid poſſeſſions or hereditaments, or any parcell thereof: or for lacke of the true naming of the corporation of the ſame, or for lacke of atturnement, liuery of ſeiſon, or for miſnaming of any the late tenants, or fermors of the ſame ſo ſold, giuen, or exchanged.

Defects at the Common law in the Kings letters patents, and meanes to make them void.

A confirmation of all Let. Pat. &c. made by the King, or to be made within 7. yeares after, notwithſtanding any the defects aforeſaid. St. 35. El. 3.

For remedy and reformation whereof bee it ordeined and enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that as well all and euery the ſaid Letters Patents, Indentures, and other writings, and euery of them, ſealed with, or vnder the ſeale or ſeales aboueſaid, or any of them, made or granted by the Kings highneſſe ſithen the ſaid fourth day of February in the ſaid xxvii. yeere of his moſt noble reigne, as alſo all and ſingular his graces Letters Patents, Indentures, and other writings hereafter during the ſpace[a] of ſeuen yeeres, next enſuing the making of this preſent Act, to be had, made, or granted with or vnder any of the ſeales aboueſaid, to any body politike or corporate, or to any other perſon or perſons, of any honors, caſtles, manors, monaſteries, Abbathies, Priories, Nunneries, Colleges, hoſpitals, houſes of Friers, or of other religious or Eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, ſites, circuits, precincts, lands, tenements, parſonages, tithes, penſions, portions, aduouſons, nominations, preſentations, franchiſes, liberties, and other hereditaments, commodities, poſſeſſions, and profits, of what kinde, nature, or quality ſoeuer they or any of them bee, is or ſhall bee, or by whatſoeuer name or names they or any of them be, is or ſhall be named, knowne, or reputed, ſhall ſtand, and be good, effectuall, and auaileable in the law to all intents, reſpects, conſtructions, and purpoſes againſt his Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſors, without any confirmation, licence, diſpenſation, or or toleration of the Kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, or of any other perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, any the cauſes or matter aboue mentioned, contained, or hereafter during the ſaid ſeuen yeeres, to bee contained in any ſuch Letters Patents, Indentures or other writings to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cap. XXIIII.

The Manors of Burlewas lying in Maddingley in the County of Cambridge, aſſured to Iohn Hinde, &c. paying ten pound yearely, &c.

WHere certaine perſons were infeoffed of and in the Manor of Burlewas, otherwiſe called the Shire Manor of the County of Cambridge, lying and being in Maddingley in the ſaid County, and of and in two hundred acres of land, one hundred acres of medow, one hundred acres of paſture, with the appurtenances in Maddingley aforeſaid in the ſame County, being in the whole of the yéerely value of ten pounds, and ſo letten to ferme at this day, to the vſe and intent, that the profits thereof ſhould yéerely be receiued and taken for and towards the paiment of the fées and wages of the Knights of the ſame County of Cambridge, being choſen for the Parliament within the ſame Countie, at ſuch time and times, as it ſhould pleaſe the Kings moſt roiall maieſty, his heires or ſucceſſors, to call his or their high Court of Parliament, wherby the ſaid Inhabitants within the ſaid County of Cambridge heretofore haue béene cléerly diſcharged for and concerning the paiment of the Knights wages for the Parliament. And for the ſure and more perfect continuance therof, and that the yéerly value of the ſame manor and other the premiſſes, may be from henceforth conuerted to the ſame vſe and purpoſe, and alſo to the intent that it may be perfectly knowne, what perſon hereafter ſhall be tenant of the premiſſes, and charged to anſwer and pay the ſaid yéerely ferme or rent of ten pounds yéerely for the ſame, and what perſons ſhall likewiſe receiue the ſaid rent to the vſes and intents aforeſaid, all the gentlemen of the ſaid county of Cambridge, as well for themſelues, as for the whole inhabitants of the ſame County, moſt humbly deſire the Kings moſt excellent highneſſe, that it may bee enacted by his moſt royall Maieſty, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That Iohn Hinde, one of the Kings Sergeants at law and his heires, ſhall from henceforth haue, hold, and enioy to him, his heires and aſſignes for euer, to the only and proper vſe of the ſaid Iohn Hinde, and his heires, the ſaid Manor, lands, tenements, and all other the premiſſes before rehearſed, and euery parcell of the ſame, vnder the conditions following: that is to ſay, that the ſaid Iohn Hinde his heires and aſſignes for euer, ſhall yéeld and pay yéerly for the ſame premiſſes at the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, ten pounds ſterling, to ſuch perſons and their ſucceſſors as ſhalbe by this preſent Act incorporated and enabled to receiue the ſame.

Iohn Hinde ſhall haue to him his heires the Shire Manor, paying ten pounds yéerly.

The Sheriffe & two Knights of the Parliament for the County of Cambridge incorporated by the name of the wardens of the wages, &c.

And alſo that it may bee further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That Edward North Knight, Sheriffe of the ſaid Shire, and Thomas Rudſtone, Eſquire, Knights of the ſaid Shire of Cambridge for this preſent Parliament ſhall be one body incorporate, and that they and their ſucceſſors, Knights of the ſaid County of Cambridge for the time being, and the Sheriffe of the ſaid County alſo for the time being, ſhall by this preſent Act bee incorporated by the name of Wardens of the Fées and Wages of the Knights of the Shire of Cambridge, choſen for the Parliament, and ſhall haue perpetuall ſucceſſion for euer in the ſame, and ſhall implead, and bee impleaded by the ſaid name. Which Knights of the Shire for the time being, and after the Parliament diſſolued, as long as they ſhall be liuing, vntill other Knights of the ſaid Shire ſhall be choſen for the Parliament next enſuing, ſhall haue and perceiue the ſaid yéerely rent of ten pound, and conuert the ſame to their owne proper vſes by equall portions, towards the maintenance of their charges. And when any of the ſaid Knights of and for the ſaid Shire choſen ſhall dye: that the ſuruiuor immediately from time to time ſhall haue and perceiue the ſaid yéerely rent of ten pound to his owne ſole and proper vſe, vntill the time that the new Knights of the ſaid Shire ſhall bee elected for the Parliament, who immediately after their election ſhall haue and perceiue the ſaid yeerely rent of ten pound. And if both the ſaid Knights of the ſaid ſhire ſhall happen to die, then the Sheriffe of the ſaid Shire yeerely for the time being, ſhall haue and perceiue the ſaid yeerely rent of ten pound to his owne vſe, and ſo to continue vnto the time that other knights of the ſaid ſhire ſhalbe choſen for the Parliament then next following, as is aforeſaid, and ſo to continue after the ſaid rate for euer.

And alſo bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if it ſhall fortune the ſaid yeerely rent of ten pound, or any part thereof to be behinde vnpaid, if any of the Wardens aforeſaid, or any of their ſeruants or aſſignes demaund the ſame, in the name or names of any of the ſaid Wardens, at any time after the ſaid day of payment expired as is aforeſaid. Then it ſhall be lawfull to and for the ſaid Wardens to recouer the ſaid rent by action of debt at the common law againſt the owners, fermors, tenants, and occupiers of the ſame, or any of them, or elſe at their pleaſure to diſtreine for the ſaid yeerely rent of ten pound, and the arrerages of the ſame, in the ſaid manor, and all other manors, meaſes, lands, tenements and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, of the ſaid Iohn Hinde, his heires and aſſignes in Maddingly aforeſaid, which ſaid Manors, Lands, and tenements ſhall bee alwayes chargeable to the diſtreſſe of the ſaid Wardens for the time being, for non paiment of the ſaid yeerely rent, and the arrerages of the ſame. And that it ſhall be lawfull for them the ſame diſtreſſes with them to retaine, vnto the time that the ſaid yeerely rent of ten pound, together with the arrerages and coſts of the ſame, vnto the ſaid Wardens for the time being, as their turne ſhall come to haue the profits of the ſame, ſhall bee well and truly contented and payed. And if it ſhall fortune the ſaid yeerely rent of ten pound, or any part thereof to be vnpaid by the ſpace of three moneths next after the day of paiment therof, as aforeſaid: then it ſhalbe lawfull to and for the ſaid Wardens for the time being, their ſeruants and aſſignes, or any of them into the ſaid manor, lands, & tenements in Maddingley aforeſaid, by whatſoeuer name or names the ſame bee knowne or called, to enter and the ſame & the profits thereof continually to retaine to their owne ſole proper vſes, vnto the time that the ſaid yeerely rent, together with the arrerages thereof (if any ſhall bee) vnto the ſaid Wardens, ſhall be well and truly contented and paied, by the ſaid Iohn Hinde his heires and aſſignes, or one of them as is aforeſaid: and ſo from time to time when any ſuch chance ſhall happen, without any vexation, ſuit or trouble of the tenants, fermors, owners, or occupiers of the ſame, the ſaid Wardens ſhall enter, and haue, and enioy the ſaid manor of Burlewas lands and tenements aforeſaid, as is afore declared. Any thing in this preſent act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The remedy to recouer the rent of x li. it it be behind.

And further that it may bee enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if it ſhall happen that the ſaid manors, lands and tenements or any part thereof to come to the Kings hands, his heires and ſucceſſors, by Wardſhip, Primer ſeiſin, Eſchete, or otherwiſe, that notwithſtanding the ſaid rent ſhal be yeerely paid vnto the ſaid Wardens for the time being, to the vſes aforeſaid, and by the authority of this preſent Act all Receiuors, Bailiffes, and other miniſters to the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, and euery of them ſhall haue ſufficient warrant to pay the ſaid rent as is aforeſaid, and to bee allowed of the paiment of the ſame by vertue of this preſent Act, without any other warrant from the Kings highneſſe to be made for the ſame.

A remedy for the rent if the land come to the K. hands.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if hereafter it ſhall happen, that the ſaid manor of Burlewas, and the lands and tenements aforeſaid, with the appurtenances, or any part thereof to be recouered by faint pleader, reddition, or other fraud or couin: then it ſhall be lawfull to and for the ſaid Wardens and euery of them all times hereafter into the ſaid manor, lands, and tenements ſo recouered by couin, to reenter, and the ſame to haue and enioy to them and their ſucceſſors for euer: any thing in this preſent act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Sauing to euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them, (other than the ſaid perſons and their heires that now be, and hereafter ſhall be ſeiſed or in poſſeſſion of the ſaid manor of Burlewas lands, and tenements, and other the premiſſes with the appurtenances, to the vſes and intents aforeſaid, towards the paiment of the Fees, Wages, and other charges of the ſaid Knights of the ſaid ſhire of Cambridge, and Sherifes of the ſaid County for the time being, as afore is rehearſed) all ſuch title, poſſeſſion, right, intereſt, action, and condition, as they or any of them hath in and to the ſame, or in or to any part thereof, as fully and wholly as if this preſent Act had neuer beene had or made: any thing contained in this preſent act to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A remedy for the Wardens of the land recouered by couin.

A ſauing of the right of others.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that in conſideration of the premiſſes, the County of Cambridge, and the inhabitants of the ſame, ſhall hereafter for euer bee diſcharged of all ſuch ſummes of money, as heretofore hath beene accuſtomed to bee leuied and paid for the fees of the Knights of the Parliament of the ſaid County.

The inhabitants of the County of Cambridge diſcharged of the Knights wages.

Cap. XXV.

It ſhall be lawfull to the Maior, Burgeſſes, and inhabitants of Poole, in the County of Dorſet, and to their ſucceſſors, to erect a Windmill in the Kings waſte ground and common in the towne of Baiter: and a Conduit head in a place called Totnam, and to haue ſixteene foot ſquare for the conduit head :and to dig and draw in, by, thorow, and vpon all places meet and conuenient into and from the ſame, &c. yeelding yearely to the King, his heires, &c. one Pepper Corne. Cap. XXVI.

Lawes ſpecially ſhall be made in Wales by the officers there.

OUr Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maieſty of his tender zeale and affection, that he beareth towards his louing and obedient Subiects of his Dominion, Principality, and Countrey of Wales, for good rule and order to be from henceforth kept and maintained within the ſame, whereby his ſaid Subiects may grow and ariſe to more wealth and proſperity, hath deuiſed and made diuers ſundry, good, and neceſſary ordinances, which his Maieſty, of his moſt abundant goodneſſe, at the humble ſuit and petition of his ſaid Subiects of Wales, is pleaſed and contented to bee enacted by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, in manner and forme, as hereafter enſueth.

Wales diuided into xii. ſhires.

Firſt that his graces ſaid dominion, principality and countrey of Wales, be from henceforth diuided into xii. ſhires, of the which viii. haue beene ſhires of long and auncient time, that is to ſay: the Shires of Glamorgan, Caermarthen, Pembroke, Cardigan, Flint, Caernaruan, Angleſey, and Merioneth. And foure of the ſaid twelue ſhires, bee newly made and ordained to bee ſhires, by an Act made at the Parliament, holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxvii. yeere of our ſaid Soueraigne Lords moſt noble raigne: that is to ſay, the ſhires of Radnor, Breknoke Mountgomery and Denbigh, ouer and beſides, the ſhire of Monmouth, and diuers other dominions, Lordſhips and manors, in the Marches of Wales, vnited and annexed to the Shires of Salop, Hereford, and Glouceſter, as by the ſaid late Act more plainly appeareth.

27.H.8.26.

Limitation of hundreds by Commiſſion.

Item that the limitations of the hundreds of late made within the ſaid ſhires, by vertue of his graces Commiſſions, directed out of his high Court of Chancery, and againe returned into the ſame, ſhall ſtand in full ſtrength, force and effect, according to the ſaid limitation: Except ſuch of the ſame, as ſith that time haue beene altered or changed, by vertue of any Act, or Acts of Parliament already made, or that ſhall be altered or changed, by any Act or Acts in this preſent Seſſion to be made.

Preſident and Councell.

Item that there ſhalbe and remaine a Preſident and Councell in the ſaid dominion and principality of Wales, and the Marches of the ſame, with all officers, clerkes, and incidents to the ſame, in manner and forme as hath beene heretofore vſed and accuſtomed; which preſident and Councell ſhall haue power and authority to heare and determine by their wiſdomes and diſcretions, ſuch cauſes and matters as be, or hereafter ſhalbe aſſigned to them by the Kings Maieſty, as heretofore hath beene accuſtomed and vſed.

Stewards of Manors may hold Courts and Leets.

Item, that all Stewards of any Lordſhips or manors in Wales, ſhall and may keepe and hold ſuch leets, lawdaies, or Courtbarons, as appertaineth and belongeth to the Lordſhips and manors whereof they be ſtewards, and hold pleas by plaint, vnder the ſumme of forty ſhillings in euery ſuch Courtbaron, and haue and enioy all other authorities, commodities and profits, as ſtewards of leets, lawdaies, and Courtbarons in England commonly haue, and beene vſed to haue by reaſon of the ſaid offices, and none other, any law, vſage, or cuſtome, in the ſaid dominion of Wales, heretofore had to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

Stewards or Sheriffes ſhall not inquire of felony.

Item, prouided alwaies, and bee it enacted that the ſaid Stewards, nor any of them, nor the Sheriffe of the ſaid Counties in Wales, ſhall haue any power or authority, to enquire of any manner of felony, in any ſuch leet, lawday, or tourne within the ſaid dominion to be holden.

26.H.8.6.

And that from henceforth no leet nor lawday be kept by the Steward or other officer, of any Lordſhip or manor in the ſaid dominion of Wales: but in ſuch Lordſhips & places, where it was accuſtomed to be kept, before the making of the act of Parliament concerning Wales, made in the xxvi. yeere of our ſaid Soueraigne Lords reigne. So alwayes the place where ſuch Court ſhalbe kept, be meet and conuenient for that purpoſe.

Officers of corporate townes may hold pleas and determine actions.

Item, that all Maiors, Bailiffes, and head officers of corporate townes in Wales, may hold pleas, and determine actions, and doe euery other thing concerning common iuſtice, according to their lawfull grants and laudable cuſtomes of ſuch townes: So allwayes they follow the courſe, trade and faſhion of the lawes & cuſtomes of England, and not of any Welch lawes or cuſtomes. And that in euery of the ſaid townes they may try all iſſues ioyned or hereafter to be ioined, in any action perſonall by ſix men, according as heretofore in diuers places of the ſaid countrey it hath beene vſed: any thing contained in this act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The King may diſſolue Boroughes, & erect others by his letters patents.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that foraſmuch as there bee diuers and many ſmall Boroughes and Townes corporate within the ſaid Dominion of Wales, whereof many haue their commencement by grants, made from Lords Marchers, and ſome by other meanes: our ſaid Soueraigne Lord from henceforth, by vertue of this Act ſhall haue full power and authority, by his Letters Patents, to be enrolled in his graces high court of Chancery, at any time within ſeuen yeers, hereafter next enſuing the end of this preſent Parliament, to repell, adnihilate, and diſſolue ſuch, and as many of the ſaid boroughs, and townes corporat, & all liberties and cuſtomes of the ſame, as to his Highneſſe ſhall be thought expedient: to the intent his Maieſty, at his graces pleaſure, may duly erect, ordaine, and make ſuch and as many other boroughes and townes corporate within the ſaid dominion, being more apt and conuenient for that purpoſe, and endue them with ſuch liberties and franchiſes as to his moſt excellent wiſdome ſhall be thought neceſſary, for the wealth of the ſaid country.

Officers certaine fees ſhall continue, but not their caſuall fees.

Item, the Kings Maieſty is pleaſed and contented of his moſt gracious goodneſſe, that ſuch as haue Patents of any Office of Stewardſhips, Chamberlainſhips, Chancellorſhips, or Iuſticeſhips, within the ſaid Dominions of Wales, for terme of their liues, ſhall haue and enioy their certaine, ordinary, and annuall fees of money, vſed and accuſtomed to bee payed and borne by the Kings Highneſſe, by vertue of any their Letters Patents, during their intereſt therein, but in no wiſe to take or claime any caſuall fees, claimed by colour of their offices, contrary to this preſent ordinance: any cuſtome in Wales, or any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

There ſhall be foure iudiciall ſeales, in whoſe cuſtody they ſhalbe, & what ſhalbe ſealed with them.

Item ouer and beſides the ſaid originall ſeales, there ſhall be foure iudiciall ſeales, deuiſed by the Kings Maieſty, whereof one ſhall remaine with the Iuſtice of Cheſter, which is appointed by this Act, to be Iuſtice of the Shires of Flint, Denbigh, and Mountgomery, to bee vſed with the ſaid Shires to ſeale all iudiciall proceſſe and bils, that ſhall bee ſued before the ſaid Iuſtice, in the Seſſions, to be holden within the ſame Shires. And that one other of the ſaid iudiciall ſeales, ſhal likewiſe remaine, and be in the charge and cuſtody of the ſaid Iuſtice of Northwales. And that the third of the ſaid ſeales, ſhalbe and remaine in the cuſtody and charge, of the Iuſtice of the three Shires of Glamorgan, Breknok, and Radnor. And the fourth of the ſaid ſeales ſhall remaine in the charge and cuſtody of the Iuſtice of the ſaid three Shires of Pembroke, Caermarthin, and Cardigan. And the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall ſeale with the ſaid iudiciall ſeales, that is to ſay: euery of them with the ſeale committed to his charge and cuſtody, aſwell all bils, as all other iudiciall proceſſe, that ſhalbe ſued before them in the ſaid ſeſſions, vpon any original bils or writs and all other proceſſe that ſhall be awarded from any of the ſaid Iuſtices, ſhall be ſealed with the ſaid iudiciall ſeale.

And that ſuch fees ſhalbe paid for the writing and ſealing of ſuch originall writs and Bils, as hereafter ſhalbe expreſſed: that is to ſay, for the ſealing of euery originall writ to bee ſued in and vpon the cauſes aforeſaid: and for euery bill to bee purſued in actions perſonall, whereof the debt and damage amounteth to the ſum of forty ſhillings, or aboue, the parties purſuing the ſame, ſhall pay for the ſeale of euery ſuch writ or bill, ſix pence, and for euery iudiciall proceſſe, to be ſued vpon any ſuch originall writ or bill, the parties purſuing ſuch iudiciall proceſſe, ſhall pay for the ſealing thereof, ſeuen pence: whereof the Kings maieſty ſhall haue ſix pence, and the Iuſtice ſealing ſuch iudicial proceſſe, ſhall haue one peny.

Fees for writing and ſealing of writs and bils.

Item, that euery bill in perſonall actions, whereof the debt, duty or damage amounteth not to forty ſhillings, and all manner iudiciall proceſſe to be ſued vpon the ſame, ſhall alſo be ſealed with the ſaid Kings ſaid iudiciall ſeale, and the parties purſuing the ſame ſhall pay for the ſeale of euery ſuch bill and iudiciall proceſſe, thereupon to bee ſued, three pence, whereof the Kings Maieſty to haue two pence, and the Iuſtice ſealing ſuch proceſſe to haue a penie.

Det or damage not amounting to forty s.

Item, that all Writs of Scire facias, and Writs of good abearing, or for the peace, or Writs of Superſedeas vpon the ſame, and all other proceſſe to be ſued from the ſaid Iuſtices, vpon any record or ſuggeſtion, admitted by any of the ſaid Iuſtices within the limits of their authorities, ſhal alſo bee ſealed with the ſaid iudiciall ſeale. And that the parties purſuing for the ſame, ſhall pay for the ſeale of euery ſuch writ and proceſſe, ſeuen pence: whereof the Kings highneſſe ſhall haue ſix pence: and the Iuſtice by whom ſuch proceſſe ſhall be ſealed, a peny.

Proceſſes ſealed with the iudicial ſeale, & the fees.

And that euery exemplification, vpon any Record, before any of the ſaid Iuſtices, ſhall be ſealed with the Kings iudiciall ſeale: and the parties purſuing the ſame ſhall pay for the ſeale thereof twenty pence: whereof the Kings highneſſe ſhall haue ſixteene pence: and the Iuſtice ſealing the ſame foure pence.

Item, that recoueries, and fines, concords, and Warrants of Atturney for the ſame, ſhall and may be taken before euery of the ſaid Iuſtices, of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, within his authority, by force of his generall Commiſſion, without any writ of Dedimus poteſtatem, to be ſued for the ſame, in like manner and forme as is vſed to be taken before the Kings chiefe Iuſtice of his common place in England.

Recoueries, fines, concords &c. taken before the Iuſtices.

Item, that all fines hereafter to be leuied before any of the ſaid Iuſtices with Proclamation made the ſame Seſſions, that the ſaid fine ſhall be engroſſed and in two other great Seſſions then next to be holden within the ſame countrey, ſhalbe of the ſame force and ſtrength to all purpoſes, as fines leuied with proclamations be of, that be leuied before the Iuſtices of the Common place in England.

Of what force fines leuied before the Iuſtices ſhalbe.

Item, that euery perſon ſuing writs of Entree in the Poſt, or writs of Couenant, or any other writs, for any recouery to bee had by aſſent of parties, or otherwiſe, or for any fine to bee leuied, ſhall pay ſuch fines to the Kings vſe for the ſame, aſwell fines Pro licentia Concordandi as all other manner of fines, as is vſed in the Kings Chancery, or elſewhere in any of the Kings Courts of England: which fines ſhalbe paid to ſuch perſons, as ſhall ſeale the original writs, for that purpoſe: and that they ſhall account for the ſame in like forme, as they ſhall doe for the profits of the ſaid originall ſeale, as is aforeſaid.

Fines to the K. vpon recoueries or fines.

Item, that the Kings ſiluer, vpon euery fine to be leuied, ſhal be paid as is vſed in the Common place of England, that is to ſay, two ſhillings: which Kings ſiluer ſhalbe paid to the Iuſtice, afore whom ſuch fine ſhall bee leuied. Whereof the Kings highneſſe ſhall haue twenty pence: and the Prenotary entring the ſame ſhall haue two pence, and the Iuſtice afore whom ſuch fine ſhall bee leuied other two pence, and that the ſame Iuſtice ſhall account for the Kings part thereof, like as ſhall for the profits of the Kings iudiciall ſeale, committed to his charge in manner and forme as is aforeſaid.

Kings ſiluer.

There ſhalbe foure Prenotaries, and vpon whom they ſhall attend.

Item, there ſhalbe foure Prenotaries for the making of all iudiciall proces, and for the entring of all pleas, proces, and matters of record, in the Seſſions to bee holden before the ſaid Juſtices, whereof one of the ſaid Prenotaries ſhall attend vpon the ſaid Juſtice appointed for the three Shires of Northwales: and one other ſhall attend vpon the Juſtice, aſſigned for the three Shires of Flint, Denbigh, and Mountgomery: and the third ſhall attend vpon the Juſtice aſſigned for the three Shires of Caermarthin, Cardigan and Pembroke. And the fourth of the ſaid Prenotaries ſhall attend vpon the Juſtice, aſſigned for the three ſhires of Glamorgan, Breknok, and Radnor. Item, that in all and euery ſuch writs originall, or iudiciall, or other proces, pleas, or writings, which be not expreſſed in this ordinance, the fees thereof, aſwell for the ſeales as writing, ſhalbe rated by the ſaid Preſident, Councell, and Juſtices, or three of them, whereof the ſaid Preſident to be one, by their diſcretions from time to time as the caſe ſhall require: and that they ſhal haue full power and authority from time to time to aſſeſſe and appoint, what fee the ſaid Sheriffes, Eſcheters, and Coroners, and their miniſters, Prenotories and their Clerkes, and other miniſters of iuſtice in the ſaid ſhires, ſhal haue, take, and receiue of the Kings ſubiects for any manner writs, plaints, pleas, proces, returnes, or any other matter or thing concerning or belonging to the execution of their offices and romes, and to augment, or diminiſh any fee or fees aboue declared, as ſhall be thought by their diſcretions, to be conuenient and meet for the common wealth of the Kings ſubiects of thoſe parts of Wales, any thing contained in this act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

No felon put to his fine, but may be repriued.

Item. that from henceforth no manner of perſon or perſons, for murder or felony, ſhalbe put to his fine, but ſuffer according to the lawes of the Realme of England: except it pleaſe the Kings Maieſty to pardon him or them. And if the ſaid Juſtices ſee cauſe of pity or other conſideration, they may repriue the priſoner, till they haue aduertiſed the Kings maieſty of the matter.

A confirmation of the Stat. of 26.H.8.6. concerning inquiry of offences done in Wales in the counties next adioyning.

Item, that the Act made in the Parliament, holden in the xxvi. yeere of the moſt roiall reigne of the Kings Maieſty, concerning among other things inquiſitions and trials of counterfeiting, waſhing, clipping, and miniſhing of the Kings coine, murders, felons, and acceſſaries to the ſame perpetrated or done within Wales, to be had, made, and determined in the next ſhire, or county within England adioyning, where the Kings writ runneth, and euery article therein conteyned, ſhall ſtand in his full ſtrength and force, according to the tenour and effect of the ſame: Any thing in this ſaid ordinance, or any other Act, cauſe or matter heretofore had or made, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

And albeit the ſame Act as yet was neuer put in execution, for any of the ſaid offences heretofore done or committed within any of the ſaid three ſhires of North Wales, That is to ſay, the Counties of Angleſey, Caernaruan, and Merioneth. Be it now declared, and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Act, and euery article therin conteined, ſhall from henceforth take effect, and be executed in all points, for and concerning any of the ſaid offences perpetrated, and done, or that hereafter ſhalbe perpetrated and done within the ſaid County of Merioneth, to be enquired of, heard, and determined within the county of Salop, in like manner & forme as commonly is, and hath bin vſed for any of the ſame or like offences, committed or done within any other county or place of Southwales: any matter or cauſe heretofore riſen or growne to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Abertannad annexed to Salop, & within the Hundred of Oſweſtre.

Item, that the towne or hamlet of Abertannad, and all the grounds and ſoyle within the ſame, which afore this time hath beene taken, reputed, and vſed as parcell of the ſaid county of Merioneth, ſhall from the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, by vertue of this Act, be vnited, annexed, and made parcell of the ſaid county of Salop: and ſo from thenceforth to bee reputed, taken and vſed for euer, and not to be of any other ſhire or county of Wales. And that the ſame towne or hamlet and all the ground and ſoile within the ſame towne or hamlet be from and after the ſaid feaſt accepted, and taken, as part and parcell of the hundred of Oſweſtre: and that the inhabitants thereof, from the ſaid feaſt, ſhalbe attendant, and doe euery thing and things, with the inhabitants of the ſaid hundred of Oſweſtre, as the ſame inhabitants doe or be bound to doe, any lawes or cuſtomes to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Foren plea or voucher triable in any other ſhire in Wales or England.

Item, in caſe any forreine plee, or voucher, be hereafter pleaded or made before any of the ſaid Juſtices of Wales, betweene party & party, triable in any other ſhire within Wales, than where the ſame plea is pleaded or voucher made: that then the ſaid Juſtices afore whom the ſame plee or voucher is or ſhall be pleaded or made, ſhall and may ſend the Kings writ, with a tranſcript of the Record, mentioning the ſame forreine matter of plee or voucher vnder the ſeale to him committed, vnto the Juſtice of the County, where the ſame matter is or ſhalbe triable commanding the ſaid Iuſtice, by vertue of the ſaid writ, to proceed to the triall thereof according to the Kings lawes and ſtatutes, which triall ſo before him had, hee ſhall remaund with the whole Record vnto the Iuſtice, before whom the ſaid plee or voucher was pleaded, or made who thereupon ſhall proceed to iudgement, as the caſe ſhall require.

Item, in caſe the ſame forraine plee, voucher, or other matter ſo pleaded, be triable within the Realme of England: then in euery ſuch caſe the Iuſtice afore whom the ſame plee or voucher is or ſhall bee pleaded, had, or made, ſhall and may proceed to the triall thereof, as ſhall appertaine, within the ſame ſhire of Wales, where the ſame old voucher or matter was pleaded, the ſaid foreine plee, voucher, or any other thing or matter to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Item, that no manner of perſon or perſons from henceforth, without lawfull authoritie, ſhall make any rumors, tumults, vnlawful aſſemblies or outcries at any of the ſaid courts or ſeſſions, nor any outcries and vnlawfull aſſemblies in great numbers, at any other time or times, except it be for the apprehenſion, or purſuing of murtherers or felons, vpon paine of impriſonment and a grieuous fine to be taxed and ſet vpon them by the ſaid Preſident and Counſell, or by the Iuſtices or other officer, before whom ſuch miſbehauiour ſhall happen to be committed.

No rumors, tumults, vnlawfull aſſemblies, or outcries ſhall be in Wales.

Item, that all manors, lands, tenements, meſuages, and other hereditaments, and all rights, and titles to the ſame, in any of the ſaid ſhires of Wales deſcended to any manner perſon or perſons ſith the feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt, in the xxxiii. yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lords reigne, or that hereafter ſhall deſcend, bee taken, enioyed, vſed, and holden as Engliſh tenure to all intents according to the common lawes of this realme of England, and not to be partable among heires males, after the cuſtome of Gauelkinde, as heretofore in diuers parts of Wales hath been vſed and accuſtomed. And that the ſame law, from and after the ſaid feaſt of S. Iohn Baptiſt, in the ſaid xxxiii. yeere, be vſed, taken and exerciſed in the ſaid county of Monmouth and in all ſuch Lordſhips, and other places, as by vertue of the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid xxvii. yeere, or by any other Act or Acts, made or to be made, were and ſhall be annexed, vnited, or knit, to any of the Shires of Salop, Hereford, Glouc. or other ſhires: any lawes, vſages, or cuſtomes heretofor had or vſed to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

All lands in Wales ſhalbe Engliſh tenure & not partable.

27.H.8.26.

Item, that no morgages of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, made or had after the ſaid feaſt of S. Iohn Baptiſt, which was in the ſaid xxxiii. yeere of the reigne of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord, or that hereafter ſhalbe had or made, within any of the ſaid ſhires or places, ſhalbe hereafter allowed or admitted, otherwiſe than after the courſe of the Common laws and ſtatutes of the Realme of England: any vſage or cuſtome heretofore had to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Morgages of lands in Wales

Item, it ſhalbe lawful to all perſons, to alien, ſel, or other wiſe put away their lands, tenements and hereditaments, within the ſaid Country or Dominion of Wales, the County of Monmouth, and other places annexed to any of the ſhires of England, from them and their heires to any perſon or perſons in fee ſimple or fee taile, for terme of life, or for term of yeers, after the maner and according as is vſed by the laws of the realm of England: any Welch law or cuſtome, heretofore vſed in the ſaid country or dominion of Wales, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. This article to take effect from and after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuity of S. Iohn Baptiſt, which was in the ſaid three and thirtieth yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lords raigne.

All perſons may ſell their lands, or demiſe them after the maner of England.

Item, if any perſon or perſons, hauing lands or tenements within the ſaid dominion of Wales, been, or hereafter ſhalbe bound within the ſaid realme of England by obligation vpon the ſtatute of the ſtaple, or by recogniſance, and pay not the debt, as ſhall appertaine: that then vpon certificat thereof made into the Kings Chancery of England, by the Clerke of the ſtaple, or by any Iuſtice of Record, before whom ſuch recogniſance ſhall be knowledged, proceſſe ſhall be made to the Sheriffes of Wales, out of the Chauncery of England after the forme as is vſed to be made vpon ſtatutes and recogniſances, by the courſe of the laws of England, for the due leuying and paying of the ſaid debt.

Perſons hauing lands in Wales bound by ſtatute in England.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that for ſuch recogniſances as be, or hereafter ſhall bee taken and knowledged before the Kings Iuſtices of his highneſſe bench or common place of England, proces ſhalbe had and purſued immediatly out from the ſaid Iuſtices, as is vſed vpon recogniſances, taken before the ſaid Iuſtices, by the common courſe of the lawes of England.

Recogniſances taken in the Kings Bench, or common place.

Item, that all ſuch writs, bils, plaints, plees, proceſſe, challenges and trials, ſhall bee vſed throwout all the ſhires aforeſaid, before the ſaid Iuſtices in their ſeſſions, as is vſed in Northwales or as ſhalbe deuiſed by the ſaid Preſident, Councel and Iuſtices, or iii. of them, whereof the ſaid Preſident to be one for the good miniſtration of Iuſtice to be had in euery of the ſaid Shires.

CAP. I.

The Kings Succeſſion in the Crowne.

In what ſort the Crowne of England was entailed by the ſtat. of 28, H.8.7.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the eight day of Iune, in the eight and twentieth yeare of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, an Act was had and made for the eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme of England, by which Act amongſt diuers other things, it was enacted, That the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, with all dignities, honours, preeminences, prerogatiues, authorities, and iuriſdictions to the ſame annexed, or belonging, ſhould be to the Kings Maieſty and his heires of his body lawfully begotten: that is to ſay, to the firſt ſonne of his body betweene his Highneſſe and his then lawfull wife Queene Iane now deceaſed, begotten, and to the heires of the body of the ſame firſt ſonne lawfully begotten. And for default of ſuch heires, then the ſecond ſonne of his Highneſſe body, and of the body of the ſaid Queene Iane begotten, and to the heires of the body of the ſame ſecond ſonne begotten, with diuers other limitations of the eſtates, conueyance, and remainders of the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes.

And it was alſo enacted further by the ſaid ſtatute, that for lacke of iſſue of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the Kings body lawfully begotten. That then his Highneſſe ſhould, and might giue, will, limit, aſſigne, appoint, or diſpoſe the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes, to what perſon or perſons, and giue the ſame perſon or perſons ſuch eſtate in the ſame, as it ſhould pleaſe his Maieſty, by his Gracious Letters Patents vnder the great Seale, or by his laſt will in writing, ſigned with his moſt gracious hand, as by the ſame Act amongſt diuers other things therein conteined more at large it doth appeare. Sithen the making of this Act, the Kings Maieſtie hath onely iſſue of his body lawfully begotten betwixt his Highneſſe and his ſaid late wife Queene Iane, the noble & excellent Prince, Prince Edward, whom almighty God long preſerue. And alſo his Maieſty hath now of late ſithen the death of the ſaid Queene Iane, taken to his wife the moſt vertuous and gracious Lady Katherine, now Queene of England, late wife of Iohn Neuill, Knight, Lord Latimer deceaſed, by whom as yet his Maieſty hath none iſſue, but may haue full well, when it ſhall pleaſe God. And foraſmuch as our ſaid moſt dread Soueraigne Lord the King, vpon good and iuſt grounds, and cauſes, entendeth by Gods grace, to make a voyage Royall, in his moſt Royall perſon, into the Realme of France againſt his ancient enemy the French King: his Highneſſe moſt prudently and wiſely conſidering and calling to his remembrance, how this Realme ſtandeth at this preſent time in the caſe of ſucceſſion, and paiſing and weighing further with himſelfe, the great truſt and confidence that his louing Subiects haue had, and haue in him, putting in his hands wholly the order and declaration of the ſucceſſion of this Realme: Recogniſing and knowledging alſo, that it is in the only pleaſure and will of Almighty God, how long his Highneſſe or his ſaid entirely beloued ſonne Prince Edward ſhall liue, and whether the ſaid Prince ſhall haue heires of his body lawfully begotten or not, or whether his Highneſſe ſhall haus heires begotten and procreated betweene his Maieſty and his ſaid moſt deare and entirely beloued wife Queene Katherine that now is, or any lawfull heires and iſſues hereafter of his owne body begotten by any other his lawfull wife. And albeit that the Kings moſt excellent Maieſty, for default of ſuch heires as be inheritable by the ſaid Act, might by the authority of the ſaid Act giue and diſpoſe the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes, by his Letters Patents vnder his great Seale, or by his laſt Will in writing ſigned with his moſt Gracious hand, to any perſon or perſons, of ſuch eſtate therein, as ſhould pleaſe his Highneſſe to limit and appoint: yet to the intent that his Maieſties diſpoſition and minde therein ſhould be openly declared and manifeſtly knowne, and notified as well to the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, as to all other his louing and obedient Subiects of this his Realme, to the intent that their aſſent and conſent might appeare to concurre with thus farre as followeth of his Maieſties declaration in this behalfe: His Maieſty therefore thinketh conuenient, afore his departure beyond the Seas, that it be enacted by his Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, and therefore be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe it ſhall happen the Kings Maieſty, and the ſaid excellent Prince his yet only ſonne Prince Edward and heire apparant, to deceaſe without heire of either of their bodies lawfully begotten (as God defend) ſo that there be no ſuch heire male or female of any of their two bodies, to haue and inherit the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other his Dominions, according and in ſuch manner and forme as in the foreſaid Act, and now in this is declared: That then the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and all other the premiſſes, ſhall be to the Lady Marie, the Kings Highneſſe daughter, and to the heires of the body of the ſame Lady Marie, lawfully begotten, with ſuch conditions, as by his Highneſſe ſhalbe limited by his letters Patents, vnder his great ſeale, or by his Maieſties laſt will in writing ſigned with his gracious hand. And for default of ſuch iſſue, the ſaid Imperiall Crowne & other the premiſſes, ſhall be to the Lady Blizabeth, the Kings ſecond daughter, and to the heires of the body of the ſaid Lady Elizabeth, lawfully begotten, with ſuch conditions, as by his Highneſſe ſhall be limited by his Letters Patents vnder his great Seale, or by his Maieſties laſt Will in writing, ſigned with his gracious hand, any thing in the ſaid Act made in the ſaid eight and twentieth yere of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, to the contrary of this Act notwithſtanding.

If the King and Prince Edward ſhall die without heires of either of their bodies, then the Crowne ſhall remaine to the Lady Marie, &c.

The remainder to the Lady Elizabeth.

Prouided alway and be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid Lady Marie doe not keepe and performe ſuch conditions, which the Kings Maieſty ſhal hereafter by his Graces Letters Patents, ſealed vnder his great Seale, or by his Maieſties laſt will in writing, ſigned with his Highneſſe hand, declare and limit to her ſaid eſtate, in the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes: That then and from thence forth, for lacke of heires of the ſeuerall bodies of the Kings Maieſty and the ſaid Prince Edward lawfully begotten, the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes, ſhall be and come to the ſaid Lady Elizabeth, and to the heires of her body lawfully begotten, in ſuch like manner and forme, as though the ſaid Lady Marie were then dead, without any heire of her body begotten, any thing in this act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The eſtate of the Lady Marie tied with conditions.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the ſaid Lady Marie doe keepe and performe ſuch conditions, which the Kings Maieſty ſhall hereafter by his Graces Letters Patents, ſealed vnder his great Seale, or by his Maieſties laſt Will in writing, ſigned with his Highneſſe hand, declare and limit to her ſaid eſtate, as is aforeſaid, and that the ſaid Lady Elizabeth, for her part, doe not keepe and performe ſuch conditions, which the Kings Maieſty ſhall hereafter by his Graces Letters Patents, ſealed vnder his great Seale, or by his Highneſſe laſt will in writing, ſigned with his moſt gracious hand, declare and limit to her ſaid eſtate in forme aforeſaid: That then and from thenceforth, for lacke of heires of the ſeuerall bodies of the Kings Maieſtie, the ſaid Lord Prince, and of the ſaid Lady Marie lawfully begotten, the ſaid Imperiall Crowne and other the premiſſes, ſhall be and come to ſuch perſon and perſons, and of ſuch eſtate and eſtates, as the Kings Highneſſe by his Letters Patents, ſealed vnder his great Seale or by his laſt will in writing, ſigned with his Maieſties hand, ſhall limit and appoint.

The eſtate of the Lady Elizabeth tyed with conditions.

Prouided alway that if the ſaid Lady Marie doe not keepe and performe ſuch conditions, which ſhall be limited and appointed to her ſaid eſtate in the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes as is aforeſaid: and the ſaid Lady Elizabeth being then dead without any heire of her body lawfully begotten: That then and from thenceforth, for lacke of heires of the ſeuerall bodies of the Kings Maieſty, and the ſaid Lord Prince, lawfully begotten, the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes, ſhall be, come, and remaine, to ſuch perſon and perſons, and of ſuch eſtate and eſtates, as the Kings Highneſſe by his Letters Patents, ſealed vnder his great Seale, or by his laſt Will in writing, ſigned with his Maieſties hand, ſhall limit and appoint.

A limitation of the Crowne if the L. Marie doe breake her conditions, and the Lady Elizabeth die without iſſue.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that in caſe the Kings Maieſty do not declare, and limit by his Letters Patents, or by his laſt Will, in forme as is aforeſaid, any condition to the eſtates and intereſts afore limited to the ſaid Lady Marie and Lady Elizabeth, nor to the ſtate or intereſt of any of them: That then euery ſuch of the ſaid Lady Marie and Lady Elizabeth, to whoſe eſtate or intereſt no condition ſhall be limited by the Kings Maieſty in forme aforeſaid, ſhall haue and enioy ſuch intereſt, eſtate, and remainder in the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, and other the premiſſes, as is before limited by this Act, without any manner of condition: Any thing in this preſent Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

The eſtates of the Lady Marie and Elizabeth if the King limit no conditions.

And foraſmuch as it ſtandeth in the only pleaſure and will of almighty God, whether the Kings Maieſty ſhall haue any heires begotten and procreated betweene his Highneſſe and his ſaid moſt entirely beloued wife Queene Katherine, or by any other his lawfull wife, or whether the ſaid Prince Edward ſhall haue iſſue of his body lawfully begotten, or whether the Lady Marie, and Lady Elizabeth, or any of them, ſhall haue any iſſue of any of their bodies lawfully begotten, and if ſuch heires ſhould faile (which God defend) and no prouiſion made in the Kings life, who ſhould rule and gouerne this Realme, for lacke of ſuch heires, as in this preſent Act is afore mentioned: That then this Realme, after the Kings tranſitory life, and for lacke of ſuch heires, ſhould be deſtitute of a lawfull Gouernour, to order, rule and gouerne the ſame.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Kings Highneſſe

The King by his will oꝛ Letters Patents may aſſure the reuerſion oꝛ remainder of the Crowne to ſuch perſon as he will.

ſhall haue full power and authoꝛity, to giue, diſpoſe, appoint, aſſigne, declare and limit by his gracious Letters Patents vnder his great Seale, oꝛ elſe by his Highneſſe laſt will made in wꝛiting, and ſigned with his moſt gracious hand, at his only pleaſure, from time to time hereafter, the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, and all other the pꝛemiſſes, to be, remaine, ſucceed, and come after his deceaſe, and foꝛ lacke of lawfull heires of either of the bodies of the Kings Highneſſe and Pꝛince Edward begotten, and alſo foꝛ lacke of lawfull heires of the bodies of the ſaid Lady Mary, and Lady Elizabeth, to be pꝛocreated and begotten, as is afoꝛe limited in this Act, to ſuch perſon and perſons in remainder oꝛ reuerſion, as ſhall pleaſe his Highneſſe, and accoꝛding to ſuch eſtate, and after ſuch manner and foꝛme, faſhion, oꝛ condition, as ſhall be expꝛeſſed, declared, named and limited in his Highneſſe Letters Patents, oꝛ by his laſt will in wꝛiting, ſigned with his moſt Gꝛacious hand, as is afoꝛeſaid: Any thing conteined in this pꝛeſent Act, oꝛ in the ſaid foꝛmer Act, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And foꝛ further coꝛroboꝛation of this pꝛeſent Act, and of the ſaid act made in the ſaid eight and twentieth yéere of our ſaid Soueraigne Loꝛd, and alſo vtterly to exclude the long vſurped power, authoꝛity and iuriſdiction of the Biſhops of Rome, where in the ſaid act made foꝛ the eſtabliſhment of the Kings ſucceſſion, at the ſaid Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the eight day of Iuly, in the eight and twentieth yéere of the Kings Maieſties reigne, there is one oath limited in the ſaid Act, as in the ſaid Act amongſt other things appeareth.

They which haue ſwoꝛne the foꝛeſaid oaths ſhall eſteeme them as if they had ſwoꝛne this.

And where alſo at the ſaid Parliament, there was another ſtatute made and oꝛdeined againſt ſuch as would both extoll and ſtand to the iuriſdiction, power and authoꝛity of the Sée and Biſhop of Rome, in which ſtatute there is compꝛiſed another oath in ſuch wiſe, as in the ſame ſtatute amongſt other things is mentioned. Foꝛaſmuch as in both the ſaid oaths, mentioned in the ſaid ſeuerall Acts, there lacketh full and ſufficient woꝛds, whereby ſome doubts might riſe: Therefoꝛe be it enacted by authoꝛity of this pꝛeſent Parliament, that from and after the laſt day of this ſeſſion, all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, which be oꝛdered and limited by the ſaid ſeuerall acts, to take the ſaid oaths mentioned in the ſame acts, ſhall from thenceforth, in lieu and place of thoſe two oaths, take and ſweare this coꝛpoꝛall oath, accoꝛding to the tenoꝛ enſuing. And that they, which haue already ſwoꝛne the other foꝛeſaid oaths oꝛ any of them, ſhall take and eſtéeme it of the ſame effect and foꝛce, as though they had ſwoꝛne this. Which foꝛmer oaths notwithſtanding, becauſe they be not ſo pithy to all effects, noꝛ ſo plainly ſet foꝛth, as were conuenient. Therefoꝛe be it enacted by authoꝛity of this pꝛeſent Parliament, that after this pꝛeſent ſeſſion, the ſaid oaths, ſpecified in the ſaid ſeuerall acts, ſhall not thereafter be miniſtred, noꝛ any perſon hereafter be compelled to accept the ſame, and this oath hereafter mentioned in this act, to ſtand in foꝛce and place of the ſaid two oaths.

The oath againſt the authoꝛity of the Biſhop of Rome and foꝛ the maintenance of the title of the King and his heires.
REP. 1. & 2. P. & M. 8.

I, A. B. hauing now the vaile of darkneſſe of the vſurped power, authoꝛity and iuriſdiction of the Sée and Biſhops of Rome cléerely taken away from mine eyes, doe vtterly teſtifie and declare in my conſcience, that neither the Sée noꝛ the Biſhop of Rome, noꝛ any foꝛrein Poteſtate, hath, noꝛ ought to haue any iuriſdiction, power oꝛ authoꝛity within this Realme, neither by Gods Law, noꝛ by any other iuſt Law, oꝛ meanes. And though by ſufferance and abuſe in times paſſed, they afoꝛeſaid haue vſurped, and vendicated a fained and an vnlawfull power and iuriſdiction within this Realme, which hath béene ſuppoꝛted till few yéeres paſſed, therefoꝛe becauſe it might be déemed and thought thereby, that I tóoke oꝛ take it foꝛ iuſt and góod, I therefoꝛe now doe cléerely and frankly renounce, refuſe, relinquiſh, and foꝛſake that pꝛetended authoꝛity, power, and iuriſdiction, both of the Sée and Biſhop of Rome, and of all other foꝛraine powers: And that I ſhall neuer conſent noꝛ agrée, that the foꝛeſaid Sée oꝛ Biſhop of Rome, oꝛ any of their ſucceſſoꝛs, ſhall pꝛactiſe, exerciſe oꝛ haue any manner of authoꝛity, iuriſdiction oꝛ power within this Realme, oꝛ any other the Kings Realmes oꝛ Dominions, noꝛ any foꝛraine Poteſtate, of what eſtate, degrée oꝛ condition ſoeuer he be, but that I ſhall reſiſt the ſame at all times to the vttermoſt of my power: And that I ſhall beare faith, truth, and true allegeance to the Kings Maieſty, and to his heires and ſucceſſoꝛs, declared, oꝛ hereafter to be declared by the authoꝛity of the Act made in the Seſſion of the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the fourtéenth day of Ianuary, in the fiue and thirtieth yéere, and in the ſaid Act made in the eight and twentieth yéere of the Kings Maieſties reigne: And that I ſhall accept, repute and take the Kings Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſoꝛs (when they oꝛ any of them ſhall enioy his place) to be the only Supꝛeme head in earth vnder God of the Church of England and Ireland, and of all other his Highneſſes Dominions: And that with my body, cunning, wit, and vttermoſt of my power, without guile, fraud, oꝛ other vndue meane, I ſhall obſerue, kéepe, maintaine and defend all the Kings Maieſties ſtiles, titles and rights, with the whole effects and contents of the Acts pꝛouided foꝛ the ſame, and all other Acts and Statutes made, oꝛ to be made within this Realme, in and foꝛ that purpoſe, and the derogation, extirpation and extinguiſhment of the vſurped and pꝛetended authoꝛity, power and iuriſdiction of the Sée and Biſhop of Rome, and all other foꝛraine Poteſtates, as afoꝛe: And alſo aſwell the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid eight and twentieth yéere, as the ſtatute made in the ſaid Seſſion of the Parliament, holden the fiue and thirtieth yéere of the Kings Maieſties raigne, foꝛ eſtabliſhment and declaration of his Highneſſe ſucceſſion, and all Acts and Statutes made, and to be made in confirmation and corroboration of the Kings Maieſties power, and Supremacie in earth of the Church of England, and of Ireland, and of other the Kings Dominions, I ſhall alſo defend and maintaine with my body and goods, and with all my wit and power, and this I ſhall doe againſt all manner of perſons, of what eſtate, dignity, degree or condition they be, and in no wiſe doe nor attempt, nor to my power ſuffer, or know to be done or attempted, directly or indirectly, any thing or things priuily or apertly to the let, hinderance, damage or derogation of any of the ſaid ſtatutes, or of any part of them, by any manner of meanes, or for or by any manner of pretence. And in caſe any oath hath beene made by me to any perſon or perſons, in maintenance, defence or fauour of the See and Biſhop of Rome, or his authority, iuriſdiction or power, or againſt any the ſtatutes aforeſaid, I repute the ſame as vaine and adnihilate, and ſhall wholly and truly obſerue and keepe this oath, ſo helpe me God, all Saints, and the holy Euangeliſts.

A former oath reputed vaine, and void by the party that ſweareth.

Who ſhall take this oath.

And it is alſo enacted by authority aforeſaid, that all and every perſon and perſons, Spirituall and Temporall, ſuing livery, reſtitution, or oultre le maine, out of the Kings, his heires or ſucceſſors hands, or doing any fealty, to his Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, or which ſhall be ſworne to the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, or that ſhal haue any office, fee, or rowme of the moſt gracious gift of the Kings Maieſty, his heires or ſucceſſors, or ſhall be receiued in ſeruice with his Grace, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall make, take or receiue the ſaid oath.

And that alſo all and euery other Eccleſiaſticall perſon, at the time of his taking of Orders, and all and euery other perſon, which ſhall be promoted or preferred to any degree of learning, in any Uniuerſity within this his Realme, or other of the Kings Dominions, at the time of his or their promotion or preferment, or euery of them, ſhall make, take and receiue the ſaid oath, by this Act ſet forth and declared, as is aforeſaid, before his or their ordinary, or the commiſſary of ſuch Uniuerſity. And that all and ſingular other the Kings Maieſties Subiects, and reſiants within this his Graces Realme, and others his Maieſties Dominions, at his Highneſſes will and pleaſure ſhall accept and take the ſame oath, before ſuch Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, as his Highneſſe ſhall appoint for the ſame.

It ſhall be high Treaſon to refuſe to take the aforeſaid Oath. REP.1.Ed.6.12. 1.M.1.

And it is alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, limited or commanded by the authority of this act, to make, and take the ſaid oath, or commanded by any other perſon or perſons, authoriſed by the Kings Highneſſe Commiſſion vnder his great Seale, to make the ſaid oath, obſtinatly refuſe that to doe: that then euery ſuch offence and contempt ſhall be high treaſon, and the Offenders thereof, being lawfully conuicted, ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and other forfeitures, penalties and loſſes, as is limited and accuſtomed in caſes of high treaſon, by any Lawes or Statutes of this Realme, heretofore had or made in any wiſe concerning the ſame.

The penalty for doing any thing to the interruption of this Act, or of any eſtate limited thereby.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, dignity or condition ſoeuer they be, at any time hereafter, by words, writing, imprinting, or by any exteriour Act or deed, maliciouſly or willingly procure, or doe, or cauſe to bee procured or done directly or indirectly, any thing or things, to or for the interruption, repeale, or adnullation of this Act, or of any thing therein conteined, or of any thing that ſhall be done by the Kings Highneſſe, in the limitation and diſpoſition of his Maieſties Crowne, and other the premiſſes, by authority of the ſame: or to the perill, ſlander or diſhinheriſon of any the iſſues and heires of the Kings Maieſty, being limited by this act, to inherite and to be inheritable to the Crowne of this Realme, in ſuch forme as is aforeſaid, or to the interruption or diſheriſon of any perſon or perſons, to whom the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, and other the premiſſes, is aſſigned, limited and appointed by this Act, or ſhall be by the Kings Maieſties Letters Patents vnder his Highneſſe great Seale, or by his laſt Will in writing, ſigned with his moſt Gracious hand, limited and diſpoſed by the authority of this Act, as is aforeſaid, whereby any ſuch iſſues or heires of the Kings Maieſty, or ſuch other perſon or perſons, might be diſtroyed, diſturbed or interrupted, in body or title of the inheritance of the Crowne of this Realme, as to them is limited in this Act, in forme aboue rehearſed, or as to them ſhall be limited or aſſigned by the Kings Highneſſe, by vertue and authority of this Act: that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer he or they be, and their ayders, counſailers, maintainers and abbettours and euery of them, for euery ſuch offence aforedeclared, ſhall be adiudged high Traitors, and that euery ſuch offence afore ſpecified, ſhall be adiudged high treaſon, and the Offendors therein, their Aidors, Counſellors, Maintainors and Abbettors, and euery of them, being lawfully conuict of any ſuch offence, after the lawes and cuſtomes of this Realme, ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and loſſes and forfeitures, as in caſes of high treaſon.

Sauing alway to euery perſon and perſons, and bodies politike, to their heires, aſſignes and ſucceſſors, and to the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them (other than ſuch perſons as ſhall be ſo conuict or attainted, and their heires and ſucceſſors, and all other claiming to their vſes) all ſuch right, title, vſe, intereſt, poſſeſſion, condition, rents, fees, offices, annuities and commons, which they or any of them ſhall haue, in or vpon any ſuch manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, or hereditaments, that ſhall ſo happen to be loſt and forfeit, by reaſon of any conuiction or attainder for any the treaſons and offences aboue rehearſed, at any time before the ſaid treaſons and offences committed. Cap. II.

Where and before whom Treaſons committed out of the Realme ſhall be tried.

FOraſmuch as ſome doubts and queſtions haue béene moued, that certaine kinds of treaſons, miſpriſions and concelements of treaſons, done, perpetrated or committed out of the Kings Maieſties Realme of England, and other his Graces Dominions, cannot, ne may by the Common lawes of this Realme be inquired of, heard and determined within this his ſaid Realme of England: For a plaine remedy, order and declaration therein to be had and made: Be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that all manner of offences, being already made or declared, or hereafter to be made or declared, by any the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme, to be treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, or concelements of treaſons, and done, perpetrated or committed, or hereafter to be done, perpetrated or committed by any perſon or perſons, out of this Realme of England, ſhal be from henceforth inquired of, heard and determined before the Kings Juſtices of his Bench, for pleas to be holden before himſelfe, by góod and lawfull men of the ſame Shire, [a] where the ſaid Bench ſhall ſit and be kept, or elſe before ſuch Commiſſioners, and in ſuch Shire of the Realme, as ſhall be aſſigned by the Kings Maieſties Commiſſion, and by góod and lawfull men of the ſame Shire, in like manner and forme to all intents and purpoſes, as if ſuch treaſons, miſpriſions of treaſons, or concealements of treaſons, had béene done, perpetrated, and committed within the ſame [b] Shire, where they ſhall be ſo inquired of, heard and determined, as is aforeſaid.

Where and before whom treaſons committed out of the Realme ſhall be tried.

Cap. III.

The Kings ſtyle ſhall be, Henry the eight, by the grace of God, King of England, France and Ireland, Defendor of the Faith, and of the Church of England, and alſo of Ireland in earth the Supreme head: which ſtyle ſhall be vnited and annexed for euer vnto the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme of England. And it ſhal be high treaſon to imagine or attempt to depriue the King or any of his heires or aſſignes of any of their ſaid ſtyles or titles. REP. 1.2. P. & M. 8. Dyer. fol. 98.

Cap. IIII.

Remedy to repaire decayed houſes in certaine Townes of England and Wales.

FOraſmuch as in times paſt diuers and many beautifull houſes of habitation haue béene within the walles and liberties of the Towne of Shrewſbury, in the County of Salop, the City of Cheſter in the County of Cheſter, the Towne of Ludlow in the County of Salop, Hauerford weſt in the County of Hauerford in South-wales, the Towne of Pembroke tenby, in the County of Pembroke, the Towne of Karmerdyn in the County of Karmerdyn, the Towne of Mountgomery in the County of Mountgomery, Cardiffe, Swaneſſe, Cowbrige, New Radnor and Preſtend in the County of Radnor, the Towne of Breknoke in the County of Breknoke, and the Towne of Monmouth in the County of Monmouth, the Towne of Maldon in the County of Eſſex, the Townes of Abargauenny, Uſke, Carlyon, and Newport, in the Countie of Monmouth, the Townes of Lancaſter, Preſton, Lyrepole and Wygan, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, which now are fallen downe, decayed, and at this time remaine vnreedified, lying as deſolat and void grounds, and many of them adioyning nigh vnto the high ſtréets repleniſhed with much ordure, filth and vncleanneſſe, with pits, ſellers and vaults lying open and vncouered, to the great perill and danger of all the Inhabitants, and other the Kings Subiects paſſing by the ſame, and ſome houſes be very weake and féeble, ready to fall downe, and bee very dangerous to paſſe by, to the decay and hinderance of the ſaid City, Boroughes and Townes.

It may therefore be enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpirituall and temporal, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that if any perſon or perſons, or bodies politike, being owners or poſſeſſioners of any ſuch deſolat or void grounds, that at any time within fiue and forty yéeres next before the making of this Act, haue béene builded for houſes of habitation, or for any houſe or houſes of habitation now or hereafter being in decay and not fully fallen downe, within the liberties and precincts of any of the ſaid Boroughes, Townes and places, doe not ſufficiently reedifie, build and repaire, or cauſe to be reedified, builded and repaired the ſaid deſolate void ground and decayed houſes, conuenient for habitation and dwelling, within two yeeres next after proclamation to be made in or vpon the ſame void ground or grounds, decayed houſe or houſes, by the Maior, Aldermen, Bailiffes and Burgeſſes, or other head Officers, within the precincts of their owne authorities: that then it ſhall be lawfull for the chiefe Lord or Lords immediat, of whom ſuch deſolate and void grounds, decayed and ruinous houſes be holden, after the ſaid two yeeres be expired, to enter into the ſame, and to haue the ſame grounds or houſes with the curtilage, backſide, garden, and orchard adioyning to the ſame, if they be of the inheritance of the owner or owners of the ſaid decayed houſe or ground, and exceed not one acre of ground to them and to their heires or ſucceſſors, to their owne proper vſe for euer: ſo that the ſaid Lord or Lords immediat, entring by the authority of this Act, doe ſufficiently reedifie, build or repaire the ſaid void ground or decayed houſes, within two yeeres and an halfe next and immediatly following the determination of the foreſaid firſt two yeeres.

If the owner of a decayed houſe doe not reedifie it within three yeeres after proclamation, the Lord of the fee may enter.

And in caſe ſuch Lord and Lords, as may enter by this Act, doe not enter, and well and ſufficiently reedifie, build or repaire the ſame void grounds or decayed houſes within the ſaid two yeeres and an halfe, to them limited by this Act: or if ſuch Lord or Lords immediat, as may enter by this act, do ſufficiently reedifie, build and repaire the ſame void grounds or decayed houſes within the ſaid two yeeres and an halfe to them limited, and after they, their heires or ſucceſſors ſuffer the ſame houſes or void grounds to fall in ruine and decay, and doe not build or reedifie the ſame ſufficiently within two yeeres and an halfe of ſuch ruine or decay: that then it ſhall be lawfull to all perſon or perſons or bodies politike, as ſhall then haue any rent charge ioyntly or ſeuerally going out of the ſaid void ground or grounds, or decayed houſe or houſes, in any of the ſaid City, Boroughes, Townes or places, immediately after the ſaid two yeeres and an halfe expired, to enter into the ſame, and to haue to ſuch of them, their heires and ſucceſſors, to their owne proper vſe, as ſhall ſo build the ſaid void grounds or decayed houſes by authority of this Act, the ſame void ground or houſes, with the curtilage, backſide, garden and orchard adioyning to the ſame (if they be of the inheritance of the owner or owners of the ſaid decayed houſe or ground, and exceed not the quantity of one acre of ground) diſcharged of all rents going out of the ſame grounds or houſes, as well againſt the ſaid Lord and Lords immediat, as all other perſon or perſons or bodies politike, hauing any rent or rents charges, rent ſecke out of the ſame, other than the fee ferme of the ſaid City, Borough, Towne or place, or ſome parcell thereof: ſo that the ſaid perſon or perſons or bodies politike, hauing the ſaid rent charge, entring by the authority of this Act, doe ſufficiently reedifie, build, and repaire the ſame deſolate and void ground or grounds, or decayed houſe or houſes, within one yeere and three quarters next and immediatly following the determination of the ſaid two yeeres and an halfe, to the ſaid Lord or Lords immediately appointed by this act.

The entry of him or them which haue a rent charge in default of the chiefe Lord.

And in caſe ſuch perſon or perſons or bodies politike, hauing any of the ſaid rents charges, as may enter by this Act, doe not enter, and well and ſufficiently reedifie, build or repaire the ſame void grounds or decayed houſes, within one yeere and three quarters to them appointed by vertue of this Act: or if they, or any of them, hauing ſuch rent charge, and that may enter by this Act, doe ſufficiently build and repaire the ſame void ground or grounds, or decayed houſe or houſes, within the ſaid one yeere and three quarters to them limited, and after they their heires or ſucceſſors ſuffer the ſame void ground or grounds, houſe or houſes, to fall in ruine and decay, and doe not build or reedifie the ſame ſufficiently within on yeere and three quarters after ſuch ruine or decay: that then it ſhall be lawfull to the Maiors, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, and other the head Officers of the ſaid City, Boroughes, Townes and places, by what name or names ſoeuer they be incorporated, and their ſucceſſors and euery of them, within the limits of their authorities, immediatly after the ſaid yeere and three quarters expired, into euery ſuch deſolate and void grounds, decayed or ruinous houſes, to enter, and to haue, hold and enioy to them and their ſucceſſors for euer, to their owne vſes, the ſame grounds or houſes and euery of them, with the curtilages, gardens, orchards and backſides to the ſame, if they be of the inheritance of the owner or owners of the ſaid decayed houſe or ground, and exceed not in quantity one acre of ground, cleerely diſcharged of all rents going out of the ſame grounds or houſes, as well againſt the ſaid Lord or Lords immediate, as all other perſon or perſons or bodies politike, hauing ſuch rent charge or rent ſecke, as before is ſaid, other than the fee ferme of the ſaid City, Borough, Towne or place, or parcell thereof: ſo that the ſame Maiors, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, or other head Officers, as is aforeſaid or their ſucceſſors, for the time being, doe reedifie build or repaire, or cauſe to be reedified or repaired the ſame ground or grounds, houſe or houſes, within three yeeres next and immediately following the determination of the ſaid yeere and three quarters limited and appointed to ſuch perſon or perſons, or bodies politike, that haue or ſhall haue any rent, as is aforeſaid.

The entry of the chiefe Officers of the ſame corporate Townes in default of them which haue the rent charge.

And in caſe the ſaid Mayors, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, or other head Officers, as is aforeſaid, The entry of the firſt owners in default of the chiefe Officers.

A ſauing of the right of infants, women married, &c.

Prouided alway, that this Act or any thing therein conteined, be not in any wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons, being at the time of the ſaid Proclamation made, vnder the age of one and twenty yeeres, or being feme couert, or in priſon, or beyond the Sea, in the Kings warres, or in other lawfull affaires, or to any perſon or perſons not being then of whole and perfect memory: during the time that ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be within age, married, in priſon, or of no perfect memory, or beyond the Sea, ſo that the ſaid perſon or perſons, their heires or ſucceſſors, after that he or they come to their full age of one and twenty yeeres, or be vnmarried, out of the priſon, or come againe within this Realme, or be of whole and perfect memory, within three yeeres then next inſuing, doe reedifie the ſame deſolate or void grounds, or repaire the ſaid decayed houſes.

Cap. V.

No perſon ſhall be put to his triall vpon an accuſation concerning any of the offences compriſed in the Statute of 31. Hen. 8. 14. but only vpon ſuch as ſhall be made by the oath of twelue men before Commiſſioners authoriſed. And the preſentment ſhall be made within one yeere after the offence committed. No perſon ſhall be arreſted or committed to ward for any ſuch offence before he be indicted. If any Preacher or Reader ſhall ſpeake any thing in his Sermon or Reading, contrary to any matter contained in the ſix Articles, he ſhall be accuſed or indicted thereof within forty dayes, or elſe ſhall be diſcharged of the ſaid offence. REP. 1. Edw. 6. 12.

Cap. VI.

What kinde of Iurors ſhall appeare vpon a Niſi prius, &c.

FOraſmuch as the Iſſues ioyned in euery action, ſuit and demand betweene party and party at the Common law, are by the Lawes of this Realme, for the moſt part tried, and triable by the verdict of twelue men, wherein is daily ſeene great delay, partly for lacke of apparance of the perſons returned to try ſuch iſſues. The occaſion whereof commeth by reaſon of maintenance, imbracery, ſiniſter labour, and corrupt demeanours, and partly by reaſon of the chalenges of the parties, to the Iury or Iurours ſo returned, to the great coſts charges and hinderance of the parties to the ſaid actions, ſuits and demands, and to the great delay and hinderance of Iuſtice.

For reformation whereof, and for the more expedition of Iuſtice hereafter to be had in ſuch manner triall of iſſues.

The forme of a Venire facias, where each Iuror muſt diſpend forty ſhillings yeerely, and where he need not. 27. El. 6.

Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that in euery caſe, where ſuch perſons as ſhould paſſe vpon the triall of any iſſue ioyned in any of the Kings Courts of Record, commonly holden at Weſtminſter, ought by the law to diſpend forty ſhillings by the yeere, of freehold for terme of life: that the writs of Venire facias, which from and after the firſt day of April next comming, ſhalbe awarded and directed for the impanelling of ſuch perſons as ſhall try the ſame iſſue, ſhall be in this forme. Rex &c. Præcipimus, &c. quod venire fac. coram, &c. xij. liberos & legales homines de vicenato de B. Quorum quilibet habeat quadraginta ſolidat. terræ, tenement. vel reddit. per annum ad minus, per quos rei veritas melius ſciri poterit: Et qui nec, &c. And ſo forth the reſidue of the ſaid writ after the ancient forme. And in euery caſe, where it is not requiſit, that the perſons that ſhal paſſe vpon the triall of any iſſue ioyned in any of the Kings Courts aforeſaid, ſhall diſpend forty ſhillings by the yeere of freehold: that then the writ of Venire facias, that ſhall be awarded after the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, ſhall be made after the forme aforeſaid, omitting this clauſe, Quorum quilibet habeat quadraginta ſolidat. terræ ten. vel reddit per annum ad minus. And that vpon euery ſuch writ and writs of Venire facias, that ſhal haue the ſaid clauſe, Quorum quilibet, &c. the Shiriffe or other Miniſter or Miniſters, to whom the making of the panell ſhal appertaine, ſhall not returne in any ſuch panell any perſon, vnleſſe he may diſpend.

Six Hundredors ſhall be returned by the Sherife.

diſpend .xl.s. by yéere at the leaſt, of eſtate of fréehold out of ancient demeſne within the County, where the iſſue is to be tried. And alſo ſhall returne in euery ſuch panell vpon the ſame Venire facias, ſix ſufficient Hundredors at the leaſt, if there be ſo many hundredors within the ſaid hundred where the Venew lyeth, vpon peine to forfeit for euery perſon being returned in any ſuch panell, that cannot diſpend forty ſhillings by the yéere, as is aforeſaid, twenty ſhillings. And for euery Hundredor, that ſhall be omitted in ſuch returne of the number aforeſaid, twenty ſhillings. And in euery writ of Venire facias, wherein the ſaid clauſe, Quorum quilibet, &c. ſhall be omitted, the Sherife or other Miniſter or Miniſters, to whom the making of the panell ſhall appertaine, ſhall not returne in any ſuch panell any perſon, vnleſſe he may diſpend ſome lands or tenements of eſtate of fréehold out of ancient demene, within the County where the iſſue is to be tried. And alſo ſhall returne in euery ſuch panell vpon the ſame Venire facias, ſix ſufficient Hundredors at the leaſt, if there be ſo many Hundredors within the ſaid hundred where the venew lyeth, vpon like peine as is aforeſaid.

What Iſſues ſhall be returned vpon Iurors. Stat. 27. El. 6.

And furthermore be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that vpon euery ſuch writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtringas with a Niſi prius, deliuered of record to the Sherife or other Miniſter or Miniſters, to whom the making of the returne ſhall appertaine, the ſaid Sherife and other Miniſter and Miniſters ſhall from and after the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, returne the iſſues vpon euery perſon, impanelled and returned vpon any ſuch writ, at the leaſt fiue ſhillings. And at the ſecond writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtringas, with a Niſi prius, vpon euery perſon impanelled and returned, vpon any ſuch writ, ten ſhillings at the leaſt. And at the third writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtringas, with a Niſi prius, that ſhall be further awarded vpon euery perſon impanelled and returned vpon any ſuch writ, thirtéene ſhillings foure pence. And vpon euery writ that ſhall bée further awarded to try any ſuch iſſue, to double the iſſues laſt afore ſpecified, vntill a full Iury be ſworne, or the proceſſe otherwiſe ceſſed or determined, vpon peine to forfeit for euery returne to be made contrary to the forme aforeſaid, fiue pounds.

And for a more ſpéedy triall of iſſues to be tried by the verdict of twelue men hereafter to be had.

Tales de Circumſtantibus, at the plaintifes requeſt. Stat. 5. El. 25.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that in euery ſuch writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtringas, with a Niſi prius, where a full Iury ſhall not appeare before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſes or Niſi prius, or elſe after apparance of a full Iury, by chalenge of any of the parties, the Iury is like to remaine vntaken for default of Iurors: That then the ſame Iuſtices vpon requeſt made by the party plaintife or defendant, ſhall haue authority by vertue of this Act, to command the Sherife, or other Miniſter or Miniſters, to whom the making of the ſaid returne ſhall appertaine, to [a] name and appoint, as often as néed ſhall require, ſo many of ſuch other able perſons of the ſaid County then preſent at the ſaid Aſſiſes or Niſi prius, as ſhall make vp a full Iury, which perſons ſo to be named and impanelled by ſuch Sheriffe or other Miniſter or Miniſters, ſhall be added to the former panell, and their names annexed to the ſame.

Challenge of the Tales.

And that euery of the parties ſhall and may haue his or their chalenge to the iurors ſo named, added and annexed to the ſaid former panell by the ſaid Sherife or other Miniſter or Miniſters, in ſuch wiſe as if they had béene impanelled vpon the Venire facias, awarded to try the ſaid iſſue. And that the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall and may procéed to the triall of euery ſuch iſſue with thoſe perſons that were before impanelled and returned, and with thoſe newly added [b] and annexed to the ſaid former panell by vertue of this Act, in ſuch wiſe as they might or ought to haue done, if all the ſaid Iurors had béene returned vpon the writ of Venire facias, awarded to try the ſaid iſſue.

[b] Coke li.10.fol.

And that all and euery ſuch triall had after the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the Law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if ſuch triall had béene had and tried by twelue of the Iurors impanelled and returned vpon the writ of Venire facias, awarded to try ſuch iſſue.

And in caſe ſuch perſons as the ſaid Sherife, Miniſter or Miniſters ſhall name and appoint, as is aforeſaid, or any of them, after they ſhall be called, be preſent and doe not appeare, or after his or their apparance, doe wilfully withdraw him or themſelues from the preſence of the Court: That then ſuch Iuſtices ſhall and may ſet ſuch fine vpon euery ſuch Iuror making default, or wilfully withdrawing himſelfe, as is aforeſaid, as they ſhall thinke good by their diſcretion, the ſaid fine to be leuied in ſuch manner and forme as iſſues forfeited and loſt by Iurors, for default of their apparance at the Common law, haue béene accuſtomed to be leuied.

The Iurors making default ſhall loſe iſſues.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that where any Iury, that ſhall be returned by the Sherife or other Miniſter or Miniſters, ſhall be made full by the commandement of the ſaid Iuſtices, by vertue of this preſent act, that yet neuertheleſſe ſuch perſons as were returned in the ſaid panell by the Sherife or other Miniſter or Miniſters, to try any ſuch iſſue that ſhall not appeare, but make default, ſhall loſe the [c] iſſues vpon them returned, in ſuch wiſe, as though the ſame Iury had remained for default of Iurors.

Prouided alway and bée it enacted, that vpon a reaſonable excuſe, for the default of apparance of any Iuror or Iurors ſufficiently proued before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe or Niſi prius, at the day of their appearance by the oaths of two lawfull and honeſt witneſſes, that the ſame Iuſtices ſhall haue authority by their diſcretions to diſcharge euery ſuch Iuror of euery ſuch forfeiture of Iſſues vpon him returned. And that the Shirife and Shirifes, or other Miniſter or Miniſters, hauing commandement by the ſaid Iuſtices to omit the returning of ſuch iſſues as is aforeſaid, vpon ſuch Iuror or Iurors, ſhall be therein diſcharged of the penalties aforeſaid, for the not returning of the ſaid iſſues, and that yet notwithſtanding the ſaid returne to be good and effectuall in the law, any law, vſage, or cuſtome to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Iurors ſhall be diſcharged of iſſues vpon cauſe.

Iſſues diſcharged by the not comming of the Iuſtices.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the ſaid Iuſtices, afore whom any ſuch Iury ſhould appeare in the County, where ſuch iſſue is to be tried by vertue of a writ of Niſi prius, doe not come at the day and place appointed, but that the aſſiſe or Niſi prius for that time ſhall be diſcontinued for not comming of the ſaid Iuſtices, or for any other occaſion, other than by default and lack of Iurors: that then euery one of the ſame Iurors ſhall be diſcharged for forfeiting of any Iſſues vpon him returned in the ſame writ. And the Shirife or other Miniſter or Miniſters, ſhall be likewiſe diſcharged of the penalties of this eſtatute for the not returning of ſuch Iſſues, as are before limited in this Act, any article, or ſentence herein conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Iſſues returned vpon a Iury not lawfully ſummoned.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if vpon any ſuch writ of Habeas corpora, or Diſtringas, with a Niſi prius, Iſſues be returned vpon any Hundredors, Iuror or Iurors, by the Shirife or other Miniſter or Miniſters, to whom the execution of the ſame writ or writs ſhall appertaine, whereas the ſame hundredors, and Iurors ſhall not be lawfully ſummoned, warned, or diſtrained in that behalfe: that then euery ſuch Shirife or other Miniſter or Miniſters aforeſaid, ſhall loſe for euery ſuch offence ſo committed, double ſo much as the ſaid Iſſues returned vpon ſuch Hundredors or Iurors not lawfully ſummoned, warned, or diſtrained, ſhall amount vnto: the moity of all which forfeitures conteined in this preſent Act, other than the Iſſues to be returned vpon the Iurors as is aforeſaid, ſhall be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any of the Kings competent Courts, in which no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed ne admitted.

The right of others to iſſues forfeited, ſaued.

Sauing to all manner of perſons, and bodies politike and corporate, their heires and ſucceſſors, hauing lawfull right, title and intereſt to haue ſuch iſſues, to be before any ſuch Iuſtices of Aſſiſe or Niſi prius, at any time or times hereafter loſt and forfeited, all ſuch right, title and intereſt, as they or any of them ſhould or might haue had to any ſuch Iſſues to be loſt and forfeited, as though this Act had neuer beene had or made.

This Act ſhall not extend to any Shirife or Miniſter of a Towne corporate.

Prouided alſo that this Act, nor any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to any City or Towne corporate, or to any Shirife, Miniſter, or Miniſters in the ſame, for the returne of any Inqueſt or Panell to be made and returned of perſons inhabiting in the ſaid Cities or Townes corporate, but that they, and euery of them, ſhall and may returne ſuch perſons in euery ſuch Inqueſt or Panell, as before this time they might and haue beene accuſtomed to doe, and as if this Act had neuer beene had or made: ſo that the ſame Shirife, Miniſter or Miniſters, returne vpon ſuch perſons as ſhall be impanelled, like Iſſues as are before mentioned in this Act, any thing in the ſame conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding. CAP. X.

The Mayor and comminalty, &c. at alltimes needfull may make and amend conduits in and about London.

Foraſmuch as it is very commodious, neceſſary, and profitable to all Cities, Townes, and habitations, to haue ſweet and wholſome running waters, and freſh ſprings, to ſerue the ſame for their buſineſſes, and neceſſaries, and ſpecially within great Townes and Cities, to be conueyed by conduits and fountaines, whereunto requireth abundance and copioſity, for the ſeruing of the inhabitants of the ſame, whereof the City of London hath beene before this time well furniſhed, and abundantly ſerued, till that now of late, that either for faintneſſe of the ſprings, or for the drineſſe of the earth, the accuſtomed courſe of the waters, comming from the old ſprings and ancient heads, are ſore decayed, diminiſhed, and abated, and daily more and more, be like to appeire and faile, to the great diſcommodity, and diſpleaſure, both of the Citizens and inhabitants within the ſaid City and Suburbes thereof, and to all other perſons hauing recourſe to the ſame, to the great decay of the ſame City, if ſpeedy remedy the ſooner be not therein had, foreſeene, and prouided. For remedy whereof, Sir William Bowyer Knight, now Mayor of the ſaid City, intending and pondering the ſame neceſſity, much willing to help and relieue the ſaid City and Suburbes with new fountaines, and freſh ſprings, for the commodity of the Kings ſaid Subiects, calling to him aſwell diuerſe graue and expert perſons of his brethren, and other of the comminalty of the ſaid City, as other perſons, in and about the conueyance of water well experimented, hath not only by diligent ſearch and exploration, found out diuerſe great and plentifull ſprings, at Hampſted heath, Maribone, Hackney, Muſwel hill, and diuerſe places within fiue miles of the ſaid City, very meet, propiſe, and conuenient to be brought and conueyed to the ſame, but alſo hath laboured, ſtudied, and deuiſed the conueyance thereof by conduits, vaults, and pipes to the ſaid City, and otherwiſe, to his great trauell, labour, and paine, and alſo to the great charges and coſts of the Citizens of the ſaid City: which good and profitable purpoſe cannot ſort to concluſion, nor take good effect, without the aid and conſent of the Kings Maieſty, and of his high Court of Parliament. Wherefore may it pleaſe the Kings Maieſty, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, to eſtabliſh and enact, that it ſhall be lawfull to the Mayor and comminalty of the ſaid City of London for the time being, and to their ſucceſſors, aſſignes, and ſeruants, at all and euery time and times hereafter, to enter into the grounds and poſſeſſions, aſwell of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and ſucceſſors, as of euery other perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, where they ſhall finde or know any ſuch ſprings to be, or may be found for the intent aboueſaid, (ſo that it be not in to their houſes, gardens, orchards, or places incloſed within ſtone, brick, or mud walles,) and there to dig pits, trenches, and ditches, to erect heads, lay pipes, and make vaults, and to doe all, and euery ſuch things in the ſame places and grounds which ſhall be meet, propiſe, and neceſſary only for the conueyance of the ſaid water and ſprings to the City, and the Suburbes of the ſame, and alſo to haue free ingreſſe, egreſſe, and regreſſe in and to all ſuch places, where ſuch heads, pipes, or vaults ſhall be erected, laid, or made, to view and ſee from time to time the ſaid heads, pipes, ſuſpirals, and vaults, and them to amend, repaire, tranſlate, and to doe all things neceſſary and conuenient, as well for the finding of new ſprings, as for the conueyance of any water or ſprings now found or hereafter to be found, to the City and Suburbes aforeſaid, without interruption, let, or impediment of the owners of the ground their leſſees, aſſignes, or miniſters, or any other perſon.

The Mayor of London may dig in any perſons ground, and lay pipes and erect heads to conuey water into the City, &c.

And further be it enacted by the ſaid authority, That the ſaid Maior and his ſucceſſors and euery of them, for the digging and breaking of any ſuch ſoile or ground, in any place or places, for the intent and purpoſe aforeſaid, ſhall within the ſpace of one moneth next after any ſuch ground ſhall be broken by the Miniſters or workmen of the ſaid Maior or his ſucceſſors or their aſſignes, for the intents and purpoſes aforeſaid, ſatiſfie, content, and pay, vnto the owners or poſſeſſioners of the ſaid ſoile or ground ſo broken or digged, as much money for the ſame digging and breaking, as ſhall be adiudged, and taxed by the determination and iudgement of three or foure indifferent men, to be aſſigned by the Lord Chancellor of England for the time being, by vertue of the Kings Commiſſion from time to time to them directed at the coſts of the ſaid Mayor and Comminalty, and that to be vſed for euermore hereafter. And that all ſuch ſummes as after the ſaid time ſhall be taxed by the ſaid three or foure men, by vertue of the ſaid Commiſſion, for ſatiſfaction of any ſuch breaking and defacing of the ground, ſhall be payed and ſatiſfied to the poſſeſſioner or poſſeſſioners, owner or owners of the ſaid grounds, or to their miniſter, aſſignes or Officers by the ſaid Maior or his ſucceſſors for the time being within ten dayes next after the ſaid taxation or iudgement ſo made and adiudged vpon paine the ſaid Maior or ſucceſſors, ſo denying or refuſing the payment thereof, for euery ſuch offence, to forfeit xiij. s. iiij. d. ouer and aboue the ſumme ſo to be aſſeſſed: the one halfe of which forfeiture to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to the party greeued that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, in which action, bill, or plaint, no wager of law, protection, or eſſoine ſhall lye. And neuertheleſſe the party, whoſe ground hereafter ſhall be ſo broken or digged, for non payment of all ſuch ſummes of money, as by the ſaid thrée or foure men for the time being ſhall be taxed and adiudged, ſhall haue an action of debt againſt the ſaid Mayor or his ſucceſſors, by whoſe commandement any ſuch ground ſhall be ſo broken, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, for the recouery of the ſame debt ſo taxed, in which action, no wager of law, protection, nor eſſoine ſhall lye.

A remedy for the party whoſe ground is broken to recouer the money taxed againſt the Mayor, &c.

And if it ſhall happen that the ſaid thrée or foure men ſo named by the ſaid Lord Chancellor, in forme aforeſaid, doe not, nor ſhall not agrée in making any ſuch taxation for any digging, trenching, or breaking of ſuch ground within the ſaid time to them limited, or that the ſaid Mayor or his ſucceſſors for the time being doe not offer or tender to the party ſo gréeued a reaſonable amends and ſatiſfaction for the breaking, digging, or trenching his or their ſaid ground: that then the party or parties ſo gréeued, and whoſe land or ſoile ſhall be ſo hereafter ſubuerted and broken, ſhall haue his lawfull remedy againſt the ſaid Mayor and his ſucceſſors, by whoſe commandement any ſuch ſoyle or ground ſhall be for the purpoſe aforeſaid digged or broken, by action of treſpaſſe, and to recouer damages for the ſame, any thing in this preſent Act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The forfeiture of him who letteth the Mayor or any of his workmen to dig.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the ſaid Mayor, his ſucceſſors, officers, miniſters, or workmen, ſhall be interrupted, moleſted, or prohibited at any time herafter, to dig and trench any grounds for the intents aboueſaid, or for the laying of pypes, making of heads, vauts or fountaines, concerning the conueyance of any new ſprings to the ſaid City and Suburbes, or for the ſearch, repairing, or amendment of the defaults of the ſame, or for the conueyance of any new ſprings, or water or other things requiſit and neceſſary to be had, made or done at any time or times hereafter concerning the premiſſes or any of them, by any owner, leſſee, Miniſter, Officer, or other perſon whatſoeuer he be, then euery ſuch perſon owner, poſſeſſor, or perſons, ſo moleſting, reſiſting, or letting the ſaid Mayor or his ſucceſſors, or his, or their Officers, Miniſters, or workmen, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch offence, forty ſhillings ſterlings, the one halfe thereof to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moity to the Mayor and comminalty of the City of London, and their ſucceſſors, and the ſame to be recouered by action or plaint of debt, in any of the Kings Courts, in the which no protection, eſſoine, or wager of law to be admitted or allowed.

No water may be conueyed away that is brought to any Perſons houſe.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted, that it ſhall not be lawfull to the ſaid Mayor nor comminalty, nor to their ſucceſſors, or miniſters, to take away any water or ſpring, now brought or that hereafter ſhall be brought or conueyed by pypes or trenches to the manſion of any perſon or perſons for the neceſſary vſe of their houſhold: nor that any perſon or perſons, by any way, diſceipt, means, or other crafty conueyance, ſhall vndermine, miniſh, withdraw, or abate any ſpring or ſprings found, or hereafter to be found, now brought or conueyed, or at any time hereafter to be conueyed, fetched, had and brought to the ſaid City, whereby the water ſhall be miniſhed, ſtopped, abated, or otherwiſe altered from his due courſe and conueyance, vpon paine to forfeit to the party grieued treble damages, the ſame to be recouered againſt the party offending, by action or plaint of debt in any of the Kings Courts, in the which no protection, eſſoine, nor wager of law to be allowed.

No digging in the Kings ground without his licence.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, nor any thing therein conteined, ſhall extend to giue any liberty or authority to the ſaid Mayor and comminalty, or to any of their ſucceſſors, to enter, or dig, in any of the Kings grounds, for or concerning the conueying of any water in or to the ſaid City, without the Kings licence therein firſt had and obteined, any thing in this Act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A pound of pepper ſhal be paid for fetching water from Hamſted heath.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the ſaid Mayor and comminalty of the City of London, or their ſucceſſors at any time hereafter do fetch and conuey any water from any ſpring or ſprings, within the ſaid heath called Hampſted heath, vnto the ſaid City, and there erect and make heads and vaults for the conueyance of the ſame water, that then they the ſaid Mayor and comminalty and their ſucceſſors, ſhall for euer yéeld, beare, and pay yéerely vnto the Biſhop of Weſtminſter for the time being, and to his ſucceſſors, at the Feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, one pound of pepper, in and for the acknowledging him and them for the Lords and very owners of the ſaid heath. And that for the ſure payment thereof vnto the ſaid Biſhop for the time being, and to his ſucceſſors, the ſaid Mayor and comminalty for the time being, ſhall within thrée moneths next after the erection and making of any ſuch heads and vaults vpon the ſaid heath, make or cauſe to be made to the ſaid Biſhop for the time being and his ſucceſſors, a ſufficient grant in writing vnder their common Seale with clauſe of diſtreſſe, within any their lands or tenements, within the ſaid City of London, when and as often as it ſhall happen or fortune the ſaid pound of pepper at any time after the grant thereof to be behind vnpaid by the ſpace of x. dayes after the ſaid feaſt aboue limited, for the yéerely payment thereof, and it be lawfully aſked or demanded by the ſaid Biſhop, or his ſucceſſors, or his or their aſſignes, of the ſaid Mayor and his ſucceſſors, vpon any Court day within the Guild hall, this preſent Act of Parliament, or any thing therein conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Maior and Comminalty or their ſucceſſors, ſhall not at any time hereafter medle with the ſpring at the foot of the hill of the ſaid heath called Hamſted heath, now cloſed in with brick, for the eaſe, commodity and neceſſary vſe of the inhabitants of the towne of Hamſted, nor doe cauſe or procure to be done any thing, act or acts, to the impairing, hurt, or diminiſhing of the water of the ſame ſpring at any time hereafter, this Act or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A ſpring at the foot of Hamſtead heath.

And alſo it ſhall and may be lawfull to the ſaid Biſhop and his ſucceſſors, to dig, find and conuey, or cauſe to be digged, found, & conueyed from any ſpring or ſprings in any ground or grounds on the left ſide of the high way leading from the towne of Hamſted aforeſaid towards Hendon to the manor place of Hamſted aforeſaid, water ſufficient for the vſe and commodity of the ſame manor place, the ſaid Act or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XI.

By whom the Knights and Burgeſſes of the Parliament in Wales ſhall haue their wages paid.

Where the Knights of all, and euery Shire of this Realme of England and Wales, and the Burgeſſes of all Cities, Townes, and Boroughes of the ſame, be named, elected, and choſen for their aſſembly in the Kings high Court of Parliament, as by ancient laudable lawes and cuſtomes of this Realme, hath beene vſed and accuſtomed, at and by the Kings maieſties high commaundements, vnto the which Knights and Burgeſſes, their fees and wages bee aſſigned certainly, that is to ſay, to euery Knight by the day foure ſhillings, and to euery Citizen and Burgeſſe, by the day two ſhillings or more, as heretofore hath beene accuſtomed, accounting for the ſame ſo many dayes, as the ſaid high Court of Parliament endureth, with addition thereunto of ſo many dayes as euery ſuch Knight and Burgeſſe may reaſonably iourney and reſort from their habitations or dwelling places, to the ſaid high Court of Parliament, and from the ſaid high Court to returne to their habitations or dwelling places, together with their coſts of writs, and other ordinary fees and charges: which wages, fees, and charges at all times ought to bee leuied and collected by the Sheriffes, and by the Mayors, Bailiffes, and other head officers, of and in Cities, Boroughes, aud townes aforeſaid, wherein ſome of the ſaid Sheriffes, Mayors, and Bailiffes, and other head Officers of and in Cities, Boroughes, and Townes aforeſaid, haue bin negligent and laches, not indeuouring themſelues in accompliſhment of their duties, in collection and paiment of the ſame in due forme, according to iuſtice, to the great hurt, iniury, and delay of the Kings ſaid ſubiects. Be it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Sheriffes for the time being, of euery of the xii. ſhires in Wales, and in the county of Monmouth, from the beginning of this preſent Parliament, ſhal haue full power and authority, by force of this Act to gather and leuy, or cauſe to be gathered and leuied, the ſaid Knights Fees and Wages of the Inhabitants of the ſaid twelue Shires, and of the ſaid County of Monmouth, which ought to pay the ſame: and the ſame ſo gathered ſhall pay or cauſe to bee paid to euery ſuch Knight or Knights, or to his or their aſſignes within the terme of two moneths after that any ſuch Knight or Knights ſhall deliuer, or cauſe to bee deliuered the Kings writ De ſolutione feodi militis Parliamenti to any ſuch Sherife: and euery ſuch Sheriffe making default of paiment of the ſaid fees or wages, in manner and forme as is aforeſaid, to loſe and forfeit xx.li. whereof the one moity to be to the Kings vſe, and the other to his or their vſe that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, by information, bill, or plaint, or otherwiſe, afore any of the Kings officers: wherein none eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhall be admitted. And if it ſhall happen any Sheriffe, in any of the ſaid xii. Shires and County of Monmouth, to make default of paiment of yͤ ſaid wages or fees, by a longer terme than two moneths: then euery ſuch Sheriffe to forfeit for euery moneth that hee or they ſhall make default, twentie pounds, to be forfeited and leuied in manner and forme as is aforeſaid.

The wages of the Knights and Burgeſſes of the Parliament, from what time and to what time they ſhall be paid.

23.H.6.11.

The Sheriffe of euery Countie ſhall gather the wages of the Knights in euery Countie in Wales and in Monmouth.

And that euery Mayor, and Bailiffes, and other head officers of cities, boroughes and townes in euery the ſaid xii. Shires, and in the ſaid County of Monmouth, within like terme and ſpace of two moneths after the receit of the Kings maieſties writ De ſolutione feod. burgent. Parliament. like as is before mentioned, for gathering or leuying of the Knights fees, ſhall leuy, gather, and pay the wages and fees to their burgeſſes, in like manner and forme, as is aforeſaid, and in and vnder like pain and forfeitures, as bee before mentioned, to be leuied of the goods and cattels of euery ſuch Mayor, Bailiffe, and other head officer, to whom the Kings ſaid writ ſhall be directed for the leuying of ſuch fees, making default of paiment of the ſaid fees and wages to the Burgeſſes, in manner and forme as is aforeſaid.

The leuying of the wages of the Burgeſſes of the Paliament.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, for as much as the Inhabitants of all Cities and Boroughes in euery the ſaid twelue Shires within Wales, and in the ſaid County of Monmouth, not finding Burgeſſes for the Parliament themſelues, muſt beare and pay the Burgeſſes wages within the Shire townes, of and in euery the ſaid twelue ſhires in

Who ſhall be choſers of the Burgeſſes of the Parliament in Wales and Monmouth.

Wales, and in the ſaid County of Monmouth: that from the beginning of the ſaid Parliament, the Burgeſſes of all and euery of the ſaid cities, boroughes and townes, which be and ſhalbe contributary to the paiment of the Burgeſſes wages, of the ſaid Shire townes, ſhall be lawfully admoniſhed, by proclamation or otherwiſe, by the Maiors, Bailiffes, and other head officers of the ſaid townes, or by one of them, to come & to giue their elections for the electing of the ſaid Burgeſſes, at ſuch time and place lawfull and reaſonable, or ſhall bee aſſigned for the ſame intent by the ſaid Maiors, Bailiffes, and other head officers of the ſaid ſhire townes, or by one of them: in which elections the Burgeſſes ſhall haue like voice & authority, to elect, name, and choſe the Burgeſſes of euery the ſaid ſhire townes, like, and in ſuch manner as the Burgeſſes of the ſaid Shire townes haue or vſe.

Rating of Boroughes and inhabitants for the Burgeſſes wages.

Prouided alwaies that two Iuſtices of Peace in euery the Shires in Wales, and in the ſaid County of Monmouth, by force of this Act, ſhall haue full power and authority, indifferently to lot and tax euery city, borough, and towne within the ſhires in Wales, wherein they doe inhabit, and in the ſaid county of Monmouth, for the portions and rates that euery the ſaid Cities and boroughes ſhall beare and pay towards the ſaid Burgeſſes, within the ſaid ſhire townes of euery of the ſaid ſhires in Wales, and the county of Monmouth: which rates ſo rated and taxed in groſſe by the ſaid two Iuſtices of peace, as is aforeſaid, ſhalbe againe rated and taxed on the inhabitants of euery the ſaid cities and boroughes, by foure or ſix diſcreet and ſubſtantiall Burgeſſes of euery the ſaid cities and boroughs in Wales, thereunto named and aſſigned by the Maior, Bailiffes, or other head officers of the ſaid cities, townes, and boroughs, for the time being, and thereupon the Maior, Bailiffes, and other head officers of euery ſuch city, borough, and towne, to collect and gather the ſame, and thereof to make paiment in manner and forme as is aforeſaid, to the Burgeſſes of the Parliament for the time being, within like time, and vpon the like paines and forfeitures as is aboue mentioned.

Cap. XIIII.

Tenures reſerued at the Kings pleaſure vpon houſes and lands, being ſometimes Abbey lands vnder forty ſhillings a yeare.

Pleaſeth it your moſt excellent maieſty, that whereas in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the third day of Nouember in the one and twentieth yeere of your moſt gracious reigne, and by diuers prorogations there continued, vntill the fourth day of February, in the ſeuen and twentith yeere of your ſaid reigne, then and there it was amongſt other things enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed by authority of your high Court of Parliament, That your ſaid Maieſty ſhould haue, and enioy to your highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors for euer, all and ſingular ſuch Monaſteries, Priories, and other religious houſes, of Monkes, Chanons, and Nuns, of what kinds and diuerſities of habits, rules, or order ſoeuer they were then called or named, which then had not in lands, tenements, rents, tithes, penſions, or other hereditaments aboue the cleere yeerly value of two hundred pounds, and all the ſites and circuits of all ſuch religious houſes, and all and ſingular the manors, granges, meaſes, lands, tenements, reuerſions, rents, ſeruices, tithes, penſions, aduouſons, patronages, rights, entrees, conditions, and other hereditaments appertaining and belonging to euery ſuch Monaſtery, Priory, and other religious houſes, not hauing as is aforeſaid, Lands, and Tenements aboue the ſaid cleere yeerely value of two hundred pounds, in as large and ample manner, as the Abbots, Priors, Abbeſſes, Prioreſſes, and other Gouernours of ſuch Monaſteries, Priories, and other Religious houſes then had or ought to haue had the ſame, in the right of their houſes. And that your ſaid Highneſſe ſhould haue to you and your heires, all and ſingular ſuch Monaſteries, Abbies, and Priories, which at any time within one yeere next afore the making of the ſaid Act, had bin granted to your ſaid Maieſty by any Abbot, Prior Abbeſſe or Prioreſſe, vnder their couent ſeales, or that otherwiſe had been ſuppreſſed or diſſolued, and all and ſinguler the manors, lands, tenements, rents, ſeruices, reuerſions, tithes, penſions, portions, Churches, Chappels, aduouſons, patronages, rights, entrees, conditions, and all other intereſts, and hereditaments to the ſame monaſteries, Abbies, or Priories, or to any of them then appertaining or belonging, to doe and vſe therewith your ſaid highneſſe owne will. And furthermore by the ſaid Act it was ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that all and euery the premiſſes, ſhould bee in the order ſuruey, and gouernance of your ſaid highneſſe court, then erected and called the court of the Augmentations of the reuenues of your highneſſe Crowne, except alway and reſerued ſuch and as many of the ſame Monaſteries, Priories and houſes, with all their hereditaments, and poſſeſſions, which your ſaid highneſſe by your letters patents vnder your great ſeale, ſhould then declare and limit to continue and bee in their eſſentiall eſtate, and perſeuer in the body and corporation, as they were befor the making of the ſaid Act.

A rehearſall of the Statute of 27.H.8.28. which gaue to the King the lands of all Abbeyes not exceeding CC.li by yeere.

And where alſo it was then further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, that vpon all and ſingular letters patents then to be made vnder the great ſeale of England, of any manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments belonging or appertaining to any of the ſaid houſes compriſed in the ſaid Act, and committed to the ſuruey of the ſaid Court, to any perſon or perſons or body politike of any eſtate of inheritance, there ſhould be reſerued to your ſaid highneſſe, your heirs and ſucceſſors, a tenure by knights ſeruice, in capite, and a yeerly rent of the tenth part of the yeerely value of the ſame lands, to be compriſed in euer ſuch letters patents, according to ſuch rate as the ſame manors, lands, and tenements giuen, ſhould be declared and expreſſed to be of yeerly value in the ſame letters patents, any thing or clauſe contained in any warrant to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding: as more plainly at large it may appeare by yͤ ſaid eſtatute: Since yͤ making whereof, a great number of your moſt bounden, louing and obedient ſubiects, haue purchaſed and obtained of your ſaid highneſſe, by your graces letters patents, diuers and ſundry houſes, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, parcell of the premiſſes, by ſmal quillets, parcels, and portions according to their powers, abilities, and ſubſtance, toward the ſuſtentation of themſelues, their wiues and children.

A tenure in capite, & a yeerely rent of the tenth part of the value reſerued to the King vpon euery alienation.

And for as much as they bee not able to maintaine their poore family of the yeerely iſſues and profits comming and growing of the ſaid ſmal quillets, houſes and tenements, paying and doing the rents and ſeruices reſerued for and vpon the ſame, in ſuch manner as of right appertaineth: It may therefore pleaſe your ſaid excellent Maieſty, of your moſt abundant grace, that in conſideration of the premiſſes, and for the eaſe and reliefe of your ſubiects, that it may bee enacted, ordained and eſtabliſhed by your highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that from and after the foure and twentith day of April, in the fiue and thirtieth yeere of your moſt noble reign, that your ſaid highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall or may at your will and pleaſure vpon your letters patents of any manors, lands, tenemēts, reuerſions, rents, ſeruices, tithes, penſions, portions, aduouſons, patronages or other hereditaments not exceeding the cleere yeerly value of forty ſhillings, which were belonging to any of the ſaid houſes compriſed in the ſaid Act, wherby any eſtate of inheritance doth, or ſhall paſſe from your ſaid highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, (houſes, tenements, cotages and gardens, whereunto no lands, tenements, or hereditaments doe appertaine, only excepted) reſerue vnto your ſaid Highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, either a tenure by Knights ſeruice in capite, or elſe a tenure in ſocage or free burgage, and not in capite, at your free will and pleaſure, with the yeerly rent of the tenth part of the ſaid lands and tenements to bee compriſed in euery ſuch letters patents, according to ſuch rate and value, as the ſame manors, lands and tenements ſhalbe expreſſed and rated to be of the yeerly value in the ſame letters patents, the ſaid rent to be paid to the officers of your highneſſe ſaid court of the Augmentations of the reuenues of your Crowne, to your ſaid highneſſe vſe, according as other reuenues there be and ſhall be paid by the authority of this Act.

What tenures the King may reſerue vpon thoſe Abbey lands which exceed not the yeerely value of xl. ſhillings.

And that of houſes, tenements, cotages, and gardens, whereunto no lands, tenements, or hereditaments doe appertaine, not being any of the kings princely houſes, reſerued and kept by a keeper thereof to the Kings vſe, which were belonging to any of the ſaid houſes compriſed in the ſaid Act, vpon euery the letters patents of any the ſaid houſes, tenements, cotages, and gardens, to the which no lands doe appertaine, whereby any eſtate of inheritance doth or ſhall paſſe therein from your ſaid Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, to reſerue vnto the ſame your Highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, at your owne will and pleaſure, either a tenure by Knights ſeruice in capite, or elſe a tenure in ſocage or free burgage, and not in capite, with the yeerely rent of the tenth part as is aforeſaid: any law, ſtatute, cuſtome, vſage, or any other thing or things heretofore to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. 37.*H.*8.20.7.*Ed.*6.3.

Of houſes and gardens whereunto no land doth belong, no tenth ſhall be reſerued.

CAP. XV.

All perſons which haue any houſes, lands, gardens, or other grounds in the town of Cambridge adioyning vpon euery high way, ſtreet, or lane, in his owne right, or the right of his wife, or &c. ſhall cauſe the ſame to bee paued with pauing ſtone, vnto the middle of the ſame wayes, and in length as their grounds doe extend, and ſo ſhall from time to time maintaine them vpon paine to forfeit ſix pence for euery yard ſquare not ſufficiently paued to the King and informer. CAP. XVII.

An ordinance for preſeruation of Woods.

There ſhall be left xii. ſtandels in an acre of wood vnder 24. yeeres growth.

THe King our Soueraigne Lord perceiuing and right well knowing the great decay of timber and woods vniuerſally within this his realme of England to be ſuch, that vnleſſe ſpeedy remedy in that behalfe be prouided, there is great and manifeſt likelihood of ſcarcity and lack, as well of timber for building, making, repairing, & maintaining of houſes and ſhips, as alſo for fewell and firewood, for the neceſſary reliefe of the whole comminalty of this his ſaid realm: wherfore be it ordained and enacted by his highnes, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that in and vpon all and ſingular ſeuerall woods, commonly called coppice, woods or vnderwoods, which from or after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangel, which ſhalbe in the yeere of our Lord God M. D. XLIIII. ſhalbe felled at xxiiii. yeers growing or vnder, there ſhalbe left ſtanding and vnfeld, for euery acre of wood that ſhall bee felled within the ſaid coppice xii. ſtandils or ſtorers of oake: & if there be not ſo many ſtandils or ſtorers of oake, that then there ſhalbe left ſo many of other kinde, that is to ſay, of elme, aſh, aſpe, or beech, as ſhall make vp the ſaid number of twelue ſtandels or ſtorers, likely to proue, and to bee timber trees, the ſame ſtandels or ſtorers to bee of ſuch ſtandels or ſtorers, as haue beene left there ſtanding at any the felling of the ſame coppice, woods, or vnderwoods, in times paſt: and in caſe there be no ſuch ſtandels or ſtorers there ſtanding, which were there left at the laſt felling of the ſame coppice, or vnderwoods, then the ſame ſtandils or ſtorers there to be left, ſhalbe left at this now next felling of the ſaid coppice, woods or vnderwoods, of ſuch moſt likelieſt oaks: and if there be not ſufficient of oakes, then of the moſt likelieſt elmes, aſhe, aſpe or beech, to proue and to be timber-trees, as ſhall grow within any ſuch ſeuerall woods, coppice, or vnderwoods, & that the ſame ſtandils or ſtorers ſo left ſhalbee preſerued and not felled or cut downe, till they & euery of them ſhalbe of ten inches ſquare within three foot of the ground, vpon paine that euery owner of euery ſuch ſtandils and ſtorers, hauing an eſtate of inheritance, or an eſtate for term of life of freehold or by copy of court rol, or for yeeres in the ground or ſoile, where the ſame ſtandils or ſtorers ſhall grow cauſing or commanding any ſuch coppice, woods, or vnderwoods, to be felled or cut down, and not leauing the ſaid ſtandils or ſtorers there ſtanding in forme aforeſaid, to loſe & forfeit for euery ſtandil and ſtorer ſo not left ſtanding in the ſaid coppice, woods or vnderwoods, iii. s. iiii. d. And vpon paine that euery owner as is aforeſaid, of any ſuch coppice, woods or vnderwoods, cauſing or commanding any of the ſaid ſtandils or ſtorers ſo left as is aboueſaid, to be cut downe contrary to the forme of this Act, to forfeit and loſe for euery of the ſaid ſtandils or ſtorers which ſhal be cut downe iii. s. iiii. d. the one halfe of which ſaid forfeitures to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to be to the party that will ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in the which action, bill, plaint and information, no protection, wager of law nor eſſoine ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Woods preſerued of or vnder 14. yeers grouth Coke pla. fo. 365.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and ſingular coppice and vnderwoods, which after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, ſhall happen to be felled or cut downe at the age of xiiii. yeeres growth or vnder, and not being aboue the ſaid age, from and after the xx. day of Aprill, next after the felling thereof, during the terme of foure yeeres, then next enſuing, ſhall be ſufficiently encloſed, or the ſprings thereof otherwiſe ſaued and preſerued from deſtruction by any manner of cattel or beaſts, by him or them, which then ſhal haue lawful intereſt and poſſeſſion in the ſaid woods, coppice, or vnderwoods, as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of euery perſon or perſons ſo bounden to encloſe, fence, ſaue or preſerue the ſaid coppice, or vnderwoods, to forfeit and loſe for euery rood thereof ſo not encloſed, fenced, ſaued or preſerued during the ſaid foure yeers, three ſhillings foure pence, for euery moneth that the ſame coppice or vnderwoods ſhall happen to lye or be vncloſed, not fenced, ſaued or preſerued, as is aforeſaid. And that all and ſingular coppice, or vnderwoods, which after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, ſhall happen to be felled or cut downe, being aboue the age of fourteen yeers growth, and not aboue the age of foure and twenty yeers growth, from the twentith day of Aprill, next after the felling or cutting downe thereof during the terme of ſix yeers enſuing the ſame twentieth day of Aprill, ſhalbe ſufficiently encloſed, or the ſprings therof otherwiſe ſaued and preſerued from the deſtruction therof by any manner of cattell or beaſts, by and at the coſts of ſuch, which then ſhall haue lawfull intereſt & poſſeſſion in the ſaid woods or coppice as is beforeſaid, vpon paine of euery perſon or perſons, ſo bounden to encloſe, fence, ſaue, or preſerue ẏ ſaid coppice or vnderwoods, as is aforeſaid, to forfeit & loſe for euery rode, ſo not encloſed, fenced, ſaued or preſerued during the ſaid ſix yeers, three ſhillings foure pence, for euery moneth that the ſame coppice or vnderwoods ſhal happen to lye or be vncloſed and not fenced, ſaued or preſerued as is aforeſaid.

Woods aboue fourteene yeers growth.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael the Archangel, ſhal conuert or turne into paſture or tillage any ſuch coppice, or vnderwoods containing in quantity two acres or aboue, which now be wood or vnderwood, and put or reſerued to the vſe or encreaſe of wood or vnderwood, and being two furlong diſtant from the houſe of the owner thereof, or from the houſe whereunto the ſaid wood doth lye, appertaine, or belong, vpon paine to forfeit and loſe for euery acre of wood, ſo to bee conuerted or turned from wood into paſture or tillage, forty ſhillings.

No woods ſhall be conuerted to tillage or paſture.

Prouided alway, that this Act ſhall not extend to any coppice, woods or vnderwoods, deſtroyed or turned into tillage or paſture, within twenty yeeres laſt paſt, although the more part or any part thereof be now ouergrowne with buſhes or vnderwood.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, which haue, or hereafter ſhall haue any ſeuerall woods, or coppice growing and ſet with great trees, being aboue the age of xxiiii. yeeres growth, ſhall at the felling or hewing thereof, leaue ſtanding within the precinct of the ſaid wood and coppice, for euery acre ſo felled twelue trees of Oake of the ſame ſuch great trees, if there be ſo many trees of oake there to be left, and for lacke of Oaks, then to leaue for euery acre ſo felled as many other trees of Elme, Aſh, Beech, or Aſpe, as ſhall make the full number of xii. of ſuch as ſhall bee there then growing, the ſame trees there ſo left to ſtand, continue, and to be preſerued by ſuch owner or owners as is abouesaid, during the ſpace of xx. yeeres next after ſuch felling of the ſame woods. And alſo ſhall from the xx. day of Aprill, next after the felling thereof, during the terme of vii. yeares then next following, ſufficiently encloſe them, or the ſprings thereof otherwiſe ſaue and preſerue from the deſtruction thereof by any manner of cattell or beaſts, vpon paine that euery ſuch perſon or perſons, or bodies politik or corporat, being owners of the ſaid great woods as is aforeſaid, to forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch great tree of the ſaid number lacking, and not left ſo ſtanding in the ſaid wood as is abouesaid, vi.s.viii.d. And vpon paine that euery owner of the ground or ſoile whereupon ſuch great trees as is aforeſaid, ſhall be left ſtanding or growing, cauſing or commanding any of the ſaid great trees, there ſo left ſtanding as is aforeſaid, to bee cut downe contrary to the forme of this Act, to forfeit and loſe for euery of the ſame great trees ſo left, which ſhall be ſo cut downe as is aforeſaid, vi.s.viii.d. And vpon paine alſo to loſe and forfeit for euery rood of ſuch great wood, ſo not encloſed, fenced, ſaued or preſerued, during the ſaid ſpace of vii. yeeres, for euery moneth iii.s.iiii.d.

Woods aboue xxiiii. yeares growth.

The wood ſhall be encloſed for vii. yeares, or preſerued from cattell.

Prouided alway that it ſhall be lawfull to euery owner or owners of any of the ſaid Coppice, woods, vnderwoods, ſtandils, or ſtorers, great woods and trees afore rehearſed, to fell, cut downe, and take any of the ſame for building, repairing, encloſing, and maintaining of houſes, orchards and gardens, and euery of them, and for pailing, railing, or encloſing of Parkes, Foreſts, chaſes, or other grounds, and for making or repairing of water works, Damps, bridges, ſluogates, making, repairing or amending of ſhips, and all other veſſels, and for all other things concerning their owne vſes or affaires, in ſuch like manner and forme, as he or they ſhould or might lawfully haue done before the making of this Act, any thing in this preſent Act before mentioned to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

In what caſes the owners may fell their Standils.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall not bee lawfull to any perſon or perſons, which after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael, ſhall haue any woods, or vnderwoods, wherein any other perſon or perſons iuſtly hath, or haue vſed time out of mans remembrance, to haue common of paſture, to fell or cut downe the ſaid woods, and vnderwoods there growing, or being, or that ſhall grow or bee in any ſuch woods or vnderwoods (except it be to his owne vſe and occupation) vntill ſuch time as the [a] fourth part of ſuch woods, vnderwoods or grounds, where the ſaid woods now grow, or as much as the fourth part of the ſaid ground or ſoile, whereupon ſuch wood is or ſhall bee growing, ſhall amount vnto, ſhall bee by the Lord and owner for that time being, of the ſaid ground or ſoile, diuided, ſet out, meated, bounded, fenced and encloſed in manner and forme as by this Act hereafter ſhall bee declared, ordeined, and prouided: that is to ſay, the ſaid Lord that then ſhall bee owner of the ſaid ground or ſoile, ſhall call together the Tenants and Inhabitants being commoners in the ſaid ground or ſoile, or the

The King our Soueraigne Lord perceiuing and right well knowing the great decay of timber and woods vniuerſally within this his realme of England to be ſuch, that vnleſſe ſpeedy remedy in that behalfe be prouided, there is great and manifeſt likelihood of ſcarcity and lack, as well of timber for building, making, repairing, & maintaining of houſes and ſhips, as alſo for ſewell and firewood, for the neceſſary reliefe of the whole comminalty of this his ſaid realm: wherfore be it ordained and enacted by his highnes, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, & the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that in and vpon all and ſingular ſeuerall woods, commonly called coppice, woods or vnderwoods, which from or after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangel, which ſhalbe in the yeere of our Lord God M. D.XLIIII. ſhalbe felled at xxiiii. yeers growing or vnder, there ſhalbe left ſtanding and vnfeld, for euery acre of wood that ſhall bee felled within the ſaid coppice xii. ſtandils or ſtorers of oake: & if there be not ſo many ſtandils or ſtorers of oake, that then there ſhalbe left ſo many of other kinde, that is to ſay, of elme, aſh, aſpe, or beech, as ſhall make vp the ſaid number of twelue ſtandels or ſtorers, likely to proue, and to bee timber trees, the ſame ſtandels or ſtorers to bee of ſuch ſtandels or ſtorers, as haue beene left there ſtanding at any the felling of the ſame coppice, woods, or vnderwoods, in times paſt: and in caſe there be no ſuch ſtandels or ſtorers there ſtanding, which were there left at the laſt felling of the ſame coppice, or vnderwoods, then the ſame ſtandils or ſtorers there to be left, ſhalbe left at this now next felling of the ſaid coppice, woods or vnderwoods, of ſuch moſt likelieſt oaks: and if there be not ſufficient of oakes, then of the moſt likelieſt elmes, aſhe, aſpe or beech, to proue and to be timber-trees, as ſhall grow within any ſuch ſeuerall woods, coppice, or vnderwoods, & that the ſame ſtandils or ſtorers ſo left ſhalbee preſerued and not felled or cut downe, till they & euery of them ſhalbe of ten inches ſquare within three foot of the ground, vpon paine that euery owner of euery ſuch ſtandils and ſtorers, hauing an eſtate of inheritance, or an eſtate for term of life of freehold or by copy of court rol, or for yeeres in the ground or ſoile, where the ſame ſtandils or ſtorers ſhall grow cauſing or commanding any ſuch coppice, woods, or vnderwoods, to be felled or cut down, and not leauing the ſaid ſtandils or ſtorers there ſtanding in forme aforeſaid, to loſe & forfeit for euery ſtandil and ſtorer ſo not left ſtanding in the ſaid coppice, woods or vnderwoods, iii. s. iiii. d. And vpon paine that euery owner as is aforeſaid, of any ſuch coppice, woods or vnderwoods, cauſing or commanding any of the ſaid ſtandils or ſtorers ſo left as is aboueſaid, to be cut downe contrary to the forme of this Act, to forfeit and loſe for euery of the ſaid ſtandils or ſtorers which ſhal be cut downe iii. s. iiii. d. the one halfe of which ſaid forfeitures to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to be to the party that will ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in the which action, bill, plaint and information, no protection, wager of law nor eſſoine ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Woods preſerued of or vnder 14. yeers grouth Coke pla. fo. 365.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and ſingular coppice and vnderwoods, which after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, ſhall happen to be felled or cut downe at the age of xiiii. yeeres growth or vnder, and not being aboue the ſaid age, from and after the xx. day of Aprill, next after the felling thereof, during the terme of foure yeeres, then next enſuing, ſhall be ſufficiently encloſed, or the ſprings thereof otherwiſe ſaued and preſerued from deſtruction by any manner of cattel or beaſts, by him or them, which then ſhal haue lawful intereſt and poſſeſſion in the ſaid woods, coppice, or vnderwoods, as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of euery perſon or perſons ſo bounden to encloſe, fence, ſaue or preſerue the ſaid coppice, or vnderwoods, to forfeit and loſe for euery rood thereof ſo not encloſed, fenced, ſaued or preſerued during the ſaid foure yeers, three ſhillings foure pence, for euery moneth that the ſame coppice or vnderwoods ſhall happen to lye or be vncloſed, not fenced, ſaued or preſerued, as is aforeſaid. And that all and ſingular coppice, or vnderwoods, which after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, ſhall happen to be felled or cut downe, being aboue the age of fourteen yeers growth, and not aboue the age of foure and twenty yeers growth, from the twentith day of Aprill, next after the felling or cutting downe thereof during the terme of ſix yeers enſuing the ſame twentieth day of Aprill, ſhalbe ſufficiently encloſed, or the ſprings therof otherwiſe ſaued and preſerued from the deſtruction thereof by any manner of cattell or beaſts, by and at the coſts of ſuch, which then ſhall haue lawfull intereſt & poſſeſſion in the ſaid woods or coppice as is beforeſaid, vpon paine of euery perſon or perſons, ſo bounden to encloſe, fence, ſaue, or preſerue ỹ ſaid coppice or vnderwoods, as is aforeſaid, to forfeit & loſe for euery rode, ſo not encloſed, fenced, ſaued or preſerued during the ſaid ſix yeers, three ſhillings foure pence, for euery moneth that the ſame coppice or vnderwoods ſhal happen to lye or be vncloſed and not fenced, ſaued or preſerued as is aforeſaid.

Woods aboue fourteene yeers growth.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael the Archangel, ſhal conuert or turne into paſture or tillage any ſuch coppice, or vnderwoods containing in quantity two acres or aboue, which now be wood or vnderwood, and put or reſerued to the vſe or encreaſe of wood or vnderwood, and being two furlong diſtant from the houſe of the owner thereof, or from the houſe whereunto the ſaid wood doth lye, appertaine, or belong, vpon paine to forfeit and loſe for euery acre of wood, ſo to bee conuerted or turned from wood into paſture or tillage, forty ſhillings.

No woods ſhall be conuerted to tillage or paſture.

Prouided alway, that this Act ſhall not extend to any coppice, woods or vnderwoods, deſtroyed or turned into tillage or paſture, within twenty yeeres laſt paſt, although the more part or any part thereof be now ouergrowne with buſhes or vnderwood.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, which haue, or hereafter ſhall haue any ſeuerall woods, or coppice growing and ſet with great trees, being aboue the age of xxiiii. yeeres growth, ſhall at the felling or wening thereof, leaue ſtanding within the precinct of the ſaid wood and coppice, for euery acre ſo felled twelue trees of Oake of the ſame ſuch great trees, if there be ſo many trees of oake there to be left, and for lacke of Oaks, then to leaue for euery acre ſo felled as many other trees of Elme, Aſh, Beech, or Aſpe, as ſhall make the full number of xii. of ſuch as ſhall bee there then growing, the ſame trees there ſo left to ſtand, continue, and to be preſerued by ſuch owner or owners as is aboueſaid, during the ſpace of xx. yeeres next after ſuch felling of the ſame woods. And alſo ſhall from the xx. day of Aprill, next after the felling thereof, during the terme of vii. yeares then next following, ſufficiently encloſe them, or the ſprings thereof otherwiſe ſaue and preſerue from the deſtruction thereof by any manner of cattell or beaſts, vpon paine that euery ſuch perſon or perſons, or bodies politik or corporat, being owners of the ſaid great woods as is aforeſaid, to forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch great tree of the ſaid number lacking, and not left ſo ſtanding in the ſaid wood as is aboueſaid, vi.s.viii.d. And vpon paine that euery owner of the ground or ſoile whereupon ſuch great trees as is aforeſaid, ſhall be left ſtanding or growing, cauſing or commanding any of the ſaid great trees, there ſo left ſtanding as is aforeſaid, to bee cut downe contrary to the forme of this Act, to forfeit and loſe for euery of the ſame great trees ſo left, which ſhall be ſo cut downe as is aforeſaid, vi.s.viii.d. And vpon paine alſo to loſe and forfeit for euery rood of ſuch great wood, ſo not encloſed, fenced, ſaued or preſerued, during the ſaid ſpace of vii. yeeres, for euery moneth iii.s.iiii.d.

Woods aboue xxiiii. yeares growth.

The wood ſhall be encloſed for vii. yeares, or preſerued from cattell.

Prouided alway that it ſhall be lawfull to euery owner or owners of any of the ſaid Coppice, woods, vnderwoods, ſtandils, or ſtorers, great woods and trees afore rehearſed, to fell, cut downe, and take any of the ſame for building, repairing, encloſing, and maintaining of houſes, orchards and gardens, and euery of them, and for pailing, railing, or encloſing of Parkes, Foreſts, chaſes, or other grounds, and for making or repairing of water works, Damps, bridges, fludgates, making, repairing or amending of ſhips, and all other veſſels, and for all other things concerning their owne vſes or affaires, in ſuch like manner and forme, as he or they ſhould or might lawfully haue done before the making of this Act, any thing in this preſent Act before mentioned to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

In what caſes the owners may fell their Standils.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall not bee lawfull to any perſon or perſons, which after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael, ſhall haue any woods, or vnderwoods, wherein any other perſon or perſons iuſtly hath, or haue vſed time out of mans remembrance, to haue common of paſture, to fell or cut downe the ſaid woods, and vnderwoods there growing, or being, or that ſhall grow or bee in any ſuch woods or vnderwoods (except it be to his owne vſe and occupation) vntill ſuch time as the [a] fourth part of ſuch woods, vnderwoods or grounds, where the ſaid woods now grow, or as much as the fourth part of the ſaid ground or ſoile, whereupon ſuch wood is or ſhall bee growing, ſhall amount vnto, ſhall bee by the Lord and owner for that time being, of the ſaid ground or ſoile, diuided, ſet out, meated, bounded, fenced and encloſed in manner and forme as by this Act hereafter ſhall bee declared, ordeined, and prouided: that is to ſay, the ſaid Lord that then ſhall bee owner of the ſaid ground or ſoile, ſhall call together the Tenants and Inhabitants being commoners in the ſaid ground or ſoile, or the

the more part of them, and vpon the aſſembly and meeting of the ſaid Lord, tenants and inhabitants, or the more part of them, the ſaid Lord owner, by the aſſent, conſent and agreement, of the ſaid tenants and inhabitants, or of the more part of them, ſhall ſeuer, diuide, ſet out, meet, and bound the fourth part of the ſaid woods and vnderwoods, or ſo much thereof as ſhall amount to the full fourth part thereof. And if the ſaid Lord and the ſaid Tenants and Inhabitants, or the more part of them, can not, will not, or doe not aſſent, conſent & agree, for and vpon the ſeuering, diuiding, ſetting out, meeting and bounding of the ſaid fourth part, of the ſaid woods and vnderwoods, or of as much thereof as ſhall amount to the full fourth part thereof, that then two Juſtices of the Peace, not being of the kin, Aliance, Councell, or fee of or to the ſaid Lord or Owner, being thereunto appointed by the more number of the Juſtices of the Peace of the Shire, where the ſaid ground or ſoile lieth, in their open quarter Seſſions, vpon requeſt and ſuit made vnto them by the Lord or owner, or by his or their lawful deputy or deputies of the ſaid woods, vnderwoods, grounds or ſoile, ſhall haue full power and authority to call before them, vpon ſuch paines and penalties, as the ſaid Juſtices ſhal limit and appoint, ſuch twelue of the ſaid commoners and inhabitants, nigh vnto the ſame woods or vnderwoods, as by the diſcretion of the ſaid two Juſtices ſhall bee thought meet and conuenient. And vpon or after the appearance of the ſame Lords Owners, Commoners and inhabitants, or the more part of them, the ſame Juſtices ſhall open and declare vnto the ſame Lord owner, commoners and inhabitants, the cauſe of their aſſembly and appearance, and that done, ſhall by the aduice and aſſent of the ſaid Lord, owner, commoners and inhabitants, or their lawfull deputy or deputies, or of the more part of them, effectually proceed to the ſeuering, diuiding, meating and bounding of the ſaid fourth part of the ſaid woods and vnderwoods, or of ſo much thereof, as ſhall amount to the fourth part thereof. And if the ſame Juſtices, owners, commoners and inhabitants, or the more part of them, can not or wil not agree vpon the diuiſion, bounding, or ſetting out of the ſaid fourth part thereof, as is aforeſaid: that then the ſaid Juſtices ſhall haue full power and authority by this Act, to ſeuer, diuide and ſet out, by meet and bound, the fourth part of the ſaid woods and vnderwoods, or ſo much thereof vnder the ſame fourth part of the ſaid woods, and vnderwoods, as ſhall by the diſcretions and wiſdomes of the ſaid Juſtices, be thought neceſſary and requiſit to limit and ſet out: And within the moneth next after ſuch ſeuerance and ſetting forth thereof the owner or owners of the ſame woods or vnderwoods, in forme afore declared, ſhall ſufficiently incloſe the ſame part of the ſaid ground or ſoile ſo ſet forth as is aforeſaid, and after ſuch incloſure made, the ſaid owner of the ſaid woods or vnderwoods may at his liberty and pleaſure, fell, cut downe, and take the ſaid woods and vnderwoods, being, or that ſhall be in or vpon the ſaid coppice, woods, vnderwoods, ground or ſoile ſo ſet forth, or any part thereof.

Preſeruing of ſtandils from cutting downe.

How long woods incloſed from the common ſhalbe preſerued from cattell.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be left ſtanding and vnfelled in and vpon the ſaid part of euery the ſame woods, or vnderwoods, ground or ſoile, ſo ſeuered, bounded and ſet out diſtinctly in maner and forme as is aforeſaid, at euery felling thereof ſuch and like number of ſtandils or ſtorers of young oaks, or other young trees of elme, aſh, aſpe, or beech, if it be coppice or vnderwoods, which ſhalbe ſo felled or cut downe. And if the woods that ſhall be felled, ſhall be great trees or great woods, then ſuch number ſhall be left ſtanding of great trees, in or vpon the ſaid part to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, and vpon like and the ſame penalties as is before limited and appointed for not leauing, reſeruing, and preſeruing of ſtandils and ſtorers aboue appointed to be left ſtanding in ſeuerall woods and grounds. And that the ſaid part or parcell ſo ſeuered, bounded and ſet out, in maner and forme aforeſaid after euery felling or cutting down of the coppice, woods, or vnderwoods, for ẏ time being, in or vpon ẏ ſame by the authority of this Act, ſhall be ſufficiently incloſed and fenced, and the incloſure thereof ſufficiently and continually kept, made, repaired, preſerued and maintained by the ſpace of vii. yeers next after euery felling thereof, in like maner and forme to all intents and purpoſes, & vpon the ſame and like paines and penalties, as is before limited, rehearſed and appointed for the not cloſing or fencing, and for the not keeping, maintaining, repairing and preſeruing of the ſaid ſeuerall coppice, vnderwoods and woods. And alſo that the ſtandils, ſtorers and great trees, limited and appointed to be left ſtanding in or vpon the ſaid part, ſhalbe there left ſtanding, preſerued, & not cut downe in ſuch like maner and forme, and by all ſuch time, and vpon ſuch like penalties, to all intents and purpoſes, as is afore limited, appointed, and declared, for the preſeruation, and not felling of the ſaid ſtandils, ſtorers & great trees, limited, and appointed to be left in and vpon the ſaid ſeueral coppice, vnderwoods and woods. And that after the ſaid felling of the ſaid coppice, vnderwoods and woods, ſtanding, growing or being, or that ſhall ſtand, grow or bee in any ſuch part of any the ſaid woods, grounds or places, as is before declared, no beaſts or cattel during the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres next after the felling of the ſame woods, ſhall willingly by any perſon or perſons, be put in, or ſhal be ſuffered to feed, or to continue in any parcell of any ſuch part ſo ſet forth as is aforeſaid, during the ſaid terme of ſeuen yeeres next after the felling thereof, vpon paine of forfeiture and penalty of foure pence, for the putting in of euery beaſt, or wilfull ſuffering of euery beaſt or cattell to be put into any of the ſaid ſeuerall coppice, vnderwoods or woods.

And if it ſhall happen any perſon or perſons, being owner or owners, of any ſuch woods, vnderwoods, or coppice, ſet, lying & being in any waſt ground as is aforeſaid, to cut downe any trees or vnderwoods, contrary to the forme aforeſaid: that then euery perſon or perſons, owner or owners, ſo offending contrary to this Act, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery tree ſo cut downe ſix ſhillings eight pence: the one halfe of all the ſaid forfeitures to be to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other moity to ſuch perſon that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information in any of the Kings Courts of Record, in which ſuit no protection, wager of Law, or eſſoine ſhall be allowed nor admitted.

The forf. for cutting of wood in waſt ground.

Prouided alway, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that for as much as the ſaid tenants, commoners and inhabitants, ſhall be by authority of this Act, excluded of their Common in the ſaid part ſo to be ſeuered and ſet forth as is aforeſaid, by all the ſaid ſpace and terme of ſeuen yeers next after the felling or cutting downe of the ſaid coppice, woods and vnderwoods, that ſhall grow in or vpon the ſame part from time to time, that in recompence therof, the ſame commoners, tenants, and inhabitants, ſhall and may vſe, take, and haue their common for their cattell within the reſidue of the ſaid woods, vnderwoods, ground and ſoile not being incloſed, in manner and forme as if this Act had neuer beene had, ne made. And that the Lord being owner of the ſaid ground or ſoile, ſhall be by the authority of this Act, excluded and forecloſed, to put or haue any cattell or beaſts in or vpon the ſame reſidue: or to take any profit of the paſture in or vpon the ſaid reſidue during, and by all the ſaid terme and time of ſeuen yeers next after the felling, or cutting downe of the ſaid coppice, woods or vnderwoods, being or growing, or that ſhalbe or grow in or vpon the ſaid part, which ſhalbe ſo ſeuered, diuided, ſet out, bounded & incloſed as is aforeſaid. And that from and after the ſaid ſeuen yeeres expired, and ended, vntil the next felling or cutting downe of the ſaid coppice, woods, or vnderwoods, being vpon the ſaid part being ſo ſeuered and diuided as is aforeſaid, as well the ſame part as the ſaid reſidue of the ſaid ground and ſoile, ſhal lye and be vſed in common, and the paſture and other profits therof, ſhall and may be vſed and taken as well by the Lord being owner of the ſaid ground or ſoile, as by the ſaid tenants, commoners, and inhabitants, in like manner, forme and condition, as it ſhould or ought to haue bin before the making of this Act, and as if this Act had neuer beene had or made: any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

The L. of the wood excluded of his common and paſture in the reſidue.

Prouided alſo, that it ſhalbe lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, to fell and to encloſe all their coppice, woods and vnderwoods, in any waſt grounds, which before the making of this Act, haue beene vſed to be encloſed, preſerued and kept for the maintenance of wood and vnderwood: any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Woods vſed to be encloſed.

And whereas peraduenture, the Lord or owners of the foreſaid woods and vnderwoods, after that they haue encloſed and fenced, the fourth part thereof, or as much of the ſame as ſhall bee to them limited and aſſigned by the ſaid Juſtices of Peace or Commoners, will not or doe not fell the ſame woods & vnderwoods ſo incloſed or to be encloſed, but ſuffer the ſame to ſtand and grow, wherby the commoners, who ought to haue their common of paſture within the ſame part ſo encloſed, ſhall loſe and be put from their ſaid commons therein: bee it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the ſame part of wood and vnderwood ſo incloſed, bee not felled within foure moneths next after the encloſing thereof: that then, and ſo long as the ſame woods ſhall not bee felled, it ſhall bee lawfull to the ſaid commoners, to put their cattell into the ſame wood and ground ſo encloſed, and that the owner therof ſhal leaue open conuenient places, within the ſame incloſure, wherby the commoners beaſts may haue acceſſe, & come into the ſame wood ſo incloſed, and there to paſture and feed, as long as the ſame wood ſhall ſtand and be vnfelled, any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The comoners ſhall enioy their common ſo long as the wood is vnfelled.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that this Act ne any thing therein contained or expreſſed, extend or bee preiudiciall to any of the Lords or owners of the woods, vnderwoods or woodlands, growing or being within any of the townes, pariſhes or places commonly called or knowne to be within the welds of the counties of Kent, Surrey and Suſſex, or of any of them, other than to only the common woods growing and being within any of the ſaid welds, of the ſaid counties of Kent, Surrey and Suſſex: any thing in this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Woods growing in the wilds of Kent, Surr, or Suſſex.

Prouided alwaies, that this preſent Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend or bee preiudicial or hurtful, or extend to charge any perſon or perſons, which before the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, in the foure and thirtieth yeere of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eighth, haue bargained and bought woods or great trees, growing in any the ſame woods, for or concerning the felling or cutting downe of the ſame woods or trees, or not leauing of any Standils, or Storers of and in the ſame, according to the tenour of this preſent Act: any thing, penalty or forfeiture in this preſent Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Bargaines for wood made before the ſtatute.

Prouided alway, and bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to charge any perſon or perſons, with any penalty or penalties contained in this preſent Act, for or concerning any timber trees growing within two miles of the Sea, in the County of Cornewall, or any other timber trees within the Realme,

The penalty for breaking of wood hedges.

Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the ſaid authority, that if any perſon or perſons doe breake or deſtroy any ſeuerall fences or hedges, made or to bee made for the ſauing of the ſame woods, vnderwoods, grounds or ſoiles, that euery perſon ſo offending ſhal forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch offence ten ſhillings.

Swine ſhall not goe in a wood vnringed.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons ſuffer his ſwine, being of the age of ten weekes or aboue, during ſuch yeeres as the ſaid woods be appointed and ordained by this Act to bee incloſed at any time after the firſt day of Auguſt next comming; to goe or run in any common or ſeuerall ground or woods, vnleſſe the ſame ſwine be ſufficiently ringed or pegged, that then the owner or owners of euery ſuch ſwine ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch his ſwine, that ſhall ſo goe or run in any the ſaid grounds, woods or vnderwoods, and not being ſufficiently ringed or pegged as is aforeſaid, from and after the ſaid firſt day of Auguſt next comming foure pence: the one halfe of all & euery the ſaid forfeitures, if it be in any of the kings woods or grounds, to be to his highneſſe, and the other to the finder thereof. And if it be within any other perſon or perſons ſaid grounds, woods or vnderwoods, then the one halfe of all & euery the ſame forfeitures to be to the owners of the ſoile, and the other part thereof to be to him that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, action, information, or otherwiſe, in any Court of Record, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine or protection ſhalbe allowed, nor admitted.

The fencing of a wood in a parke where deere be.

Prouided alway, that where any woods or vnderwoods ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell, be felled or cut downe in any parke or ground encloſed, wherein any deere ſhalbe then kept, that the owner or owners, poſſeſſioner or poſſeſſioners, of ſuch Parke and Parkes, or grounds encloſed for deere, to bee chargeable for the encloſure and preſeruation of the ſame as is aforeſaid, but onely for the ſpace of foure yeeres after any ſuch time of felling or cutting downe of the ſame coppice, woods, or vnderwoods, and not aboue: any thing contained in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Where a ſtranger is cauſe of an offence, he only ſhall be puniſhed.

Prouided alſo, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the incloſure or incloſures of any of the ſaid coppice, woods, vnderwoods or grounds, happen to be broken or pulled downe, by any perſon or perſons againſt the wils and minds of the owner or owners, poſſeſſioner or poſſeſſioners of the ſame woods or vnderwoods, whereby cattell or beaſts eſcape into the ſame woods, grounds or vnderwoods, and deſtroy and hurt the ſpring thereof, or if the ſame woods, grounds or vnderwoods, be by any meanes deſtroied, hurted or hindered, by any maner of perſon or perſons, or by the cattell or beaſts of any perſon or perſons, without the aſſents, mindes and wils, of ſuch owner or owners, poſſeſſor or poſſeſſors: that then and in euery ſuch caſe, the ſaid penalties contained in this act, to be extended vpon the ſame perſon or perſons in or by whoſe default the ſame ſpring, wood, or vnderwood, ſhall be ſo deſtroyed, hurted or hindered, and not vpon the owner or owners, poſſeſſor or poſſeſſors, of the ſaid woods, grounds, or vnderwoods: any thing contained in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Within two yeeres colts and calues may be put into fenced wood.
Alt, 13. El. 25.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall and may be lawfull to euery owner and owners, poſſeſſor and poſſeſſors, their fermors and aſſignes, of all and ſingular the ſaid woods, vnderwoods, grounds, and coppice, after ſuch time as the ſame woods, vnderwoods, grounds and coppice, haue bin fenced and encloſed, or the ſpring thereof otherwiſe preſerued by the ſpace of two yeeres next after the felling thereof, to put colts and calues, being vnder the age of one yeere, into the ſaid woods, vnderwoods, grounds and coppice: any thing contained in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And this preſent Act and Acts to endure onely by the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres next after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell: and from thence vntill the end of the next Parliament. 13. Eliz. 25. made perpetuall. Coke lib. 8. fol. 138.

CAP. I.

Who ſhall appoint the Cuſtos Rotulorum, and Clerke of the Peace in euery County.

WHere before this time the Lord Chancellor of England for the time being, hath by reaſon of his office of the Chancellorſhip, the nomination and appointment of the Cuſtos Rotulorum within all and euery Shire of this Realme of England, and Wales, and other the Kings Dominions, Marches and territories of the ſame, and that in like manner all and euery perſons which had and enioyed the ſaid office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, hath had vntill now late the nomination and appointment of the Clerke of the peace within ſuch Shires where he or they had and enioyed the ſaid office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum : And where now of late diuers and ſundry perſons within this realme, being not learned, nor yet méet ne able for lacke of knowledge and learning to occupy and exerciſe the ſaid office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, and of the Clerkſhip of the peace, haue of late yéers by labour, friendſhip and means, attained and gotten for terme of their liues, of the Kings Maieſty, ſeuerall grants by his highneſſe letters patents to them made of the ſaid Clerkſhips of the peace. By reaſon whereof, and for that the parties to whom the ſaid ſeuerall grants haue béen ſo made and granted, haue not béen ſufficiently learned to exerciſe and occupy the ſame office and offices, many and ſundry inditements, aſwell of felony, murder and other offences and miſdemeanors, and the proces awarded vpon the ſame inditements, haue not onely béene by reaſon thereof made cléerely fruſtrate and void, ſometime by reaſon of the negligent ingroſſing and kéeping of the ſaid enditements, & ſometime by reaſon of the imbeſiling or raſure of the ſame inditements, but alſo diuers & ſundry bargains, and ſales of diuers and ſundry manors, lands and tenements, had and made betwéen party and party, haue béen made fruſtrate and void, for lacke of ſufficient enrolment of the bargaines and ſales to be had and made by the Clerks of the peace, to the great hindrance of Iuſtice, and to the diſinheritance of diuers of the Kings moſt louing ſubiects.

Inconueniences enſuing by the ignorance of the Clerke of the Peace.

For reformation wherof, to the intent that Iuſtice may be the better hereafter preferred, and that the ſame offices may hereafter be occupied and exerciſed by ſuch perſons learned in the laws of this realme, as ſhall be able to exerciſe and ſupply the ſame: Be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons ſhall from henceforth be nominated and appointed to the ſaid office and offices of the cuſtos rotulorum within any Shire of this Realme of England, Wales and other the Kings Dominions, Marches or Territories of the ſame, but ſuch as ſhall haue a bill ſigned with the Kings hand for the ſame, which bill ſigned ſhalbe a ſufficient warrant by the authority aboueſaid, to the ſaid Lord Chancellor of England, and the Lord Keeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, to make from time to time Commiſſion or Commiſſions, aſſigning and authoriſing thereby the ſame perſon to bee Cuſtos Rotulorum, vntill the King hath by another bill aſſigned with his owne hand, appointed and ordained one other perſon to haue, occupy and exerciſe the ſame office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, and that the ſaid perſon appointed and aſſigned to be Cuſtos Rotulorum, as is aboueſaid, ſhall and may occupy, exerciſe and enioy the ſame office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum by himſelfe or by his ſufficient deputy, learned in the lawes of this Realme, and méet and able to ſupply the ſaid office according to the tenor of the ſaid grant or Commiſſion.

The Cuſtos Rotulorum ſhall be appointed in euery county by bill ſigned with the Kings owne hand. Alt. 3. & 4. Ed. 6. 1.

And be it further enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that euery Cuſtos Rotulorum for the time being, ſhal at all times hereafter in euery Shire of this realme, Wales, and other the Kings Dominions, Marches, and Territories of the ſame, nominat, elect, appoint and aſſigne, all and euery perſon and perſons, which hereafter ſhall bee Clerkes of the Peace within any of the ſaid Shires of this Realme of England, Wales and other the Kings Dominions, Marches and Territories of the ſame, and to giue and grant the ſaid Office and Offices of the Clerkeſhip of the Peace to ſuch able perſon inſtructed in the lawes of this Realme, as ſhall bée able to exerciſe and occupy the ſame, to hold and inioy the ſame during the time that the ſaid Cuſtos Rotulorum, ſhall occupy and exerciſe the foreſaid office of Cuſtos Rotulorum: ſo that the ſaid Clerke demeane him in the ſaid office iuſtly and honeſtly. And that it bee lawfull to euery ſuch grantées of the ſaid Clerkeſhip, to occupy and enioy the ſame office of the Clerkſhip of the peace by himſelfe or by his ſufficient deputy, inſtructed in the Lawes of this Realme, ſo that the ſame deputy

CAP. I.

Who ſhall appoint the Cuſtos Rotulorum, and Clerke of the Peace in euery County.

Where before this time the Lord Chancellor of England for the time being, hath by reaſon of his office of the Chancellorſhip, the nomination and appointment of the Cuſtos Rotulorum within all and euery Shire of this Realme of England, and Wales, and other the Kings Dominions, Marches and territories of the ſame, and that in like manner all and euery perſons which had and enioyed the ſaid office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, hath had vntill now late the nomination and appointment of the Clerke of the peace within ſuch Shires where he or they had and enioyed the ſaid office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum: And where now of late diuers and ſundry perſons within this realme, being not learned, nor yet méet ne able for lacke of knowledge and learning to occupy and exerciſe the ſaid office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, and of the Clerkſhip of the peace, haue of late yéers by labour, friendſhip and means, attained and gotten for terme of their liues, of the Kings Maieſty, ſeuerall grants by his highneſſe letters patents to them made of the ſaid Clerkſhips of the peace. By reaſon whereof, and for that the parties to whom the ſaid ſeuerall grants haue béen ſo made and granted, haue not béen ſufficiently learned to exerciſe and occupy the ſame office and offices, many and ſundry inditements, aſwell of felony, murder and other offences and miſdemeanors, and the proces awarded vpon the ſame inditements, haue not onely béene by reaſon thereof made cléerely fruſtrate and void, ſometime by reaſon of the negligent ingroſſing and kéeping of the ſaid enditements, & ſometime by reaſon of the imbeſiling or raſure of the ſame inditements, but alſo diuers & ſundry bargains, and ſales of diuers and ſundry manors; lands and tenements, had and made betwéen party and party, haue béen made fruſtrate and void, for lacke of ſufficient enrolment of the bargaines and ſales to be had and made by the Clerks of the peace, to the great hindrance of Iuſtice, and to the diſinheritance of diuers of the Kings moſt louing ſubiects.

Inconueniences enſuing by the ignorance of the Clerke of the Peace.

For reformation wherof, to the intent that Iuſtice may be the better hereafter preferred, and that the ſame offices may hereafter be occupied and exerciſed by ſuch perſons learned in the laws of this realme, as ſhall be able to exerciſe and ſupply the ſame: Be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons ſhall from henceforth be nominated and appointed to the ſaid office and offices of the cuſtos rotulorum within any Shire of this Realme of England, Wales and other the Kings Dominions, Marches or Territories of the ſame, but ſuch as ſhall haue a bill ſigned with the Kings hand for the ſame, which bill ſigned ſhalbe a ſufficient warrant by the authority aboueſaid, to the ſaid Lord Chancellor of England, and the Lord Kéeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, to make from time to time Commiſſion or Commiſſions, aſſigning and authoriſing thereby the ſame perſon to bee Cuſtos Rotulorum, vntill the King hath by another bill aſſigned with his owne hand, appointed and ordained one other perſon to haue, occupy and exerciſe the ſame office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, and that the ſaid perſon appointed and aſſigned to be Cuſtos Rotulorum, as is aboueſaid, ſhall and may occupy, exerciſe and enioy the ſame office of the Cuſtos Rotulorum by himſelfe or by his ſufficient deputy, learned in the lawes of this Realme, and méet and able to ſupply the ſaid office according to the tenor of the ſaid grant or Commiſſion.

The Cuſtos Rotulorum ſhall be appointed in euery county by bill ſigned with the Kings owne hand.
Alt. 3. & 4. Ed. 6. 1.

And be it further enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that euery Cuſtos Rotulorum for the time being, ſhal at all times hereafter in euery Shire of this realme, Wales, and other the Kings Dominions, Marches, and Territories of the ſame, nominat, elect, appoint and aſſigne, all and euery perſon and perſons, which hereafter ſhall bee Clerkes of the Peace within any of the ſaid Shires of this Realme of England, Wales and other the Kings Dominions, Marches and Territories of the ſame, and to giue and grant the ſaid Office and Offices of the Clerkeſhip of the Peace to ſuch able perſon inſtructed in the lawes of this Realme, as ſhall bée able to exerciſe and occupy the ſame, to hold and inioy the ſame during the time that the ſaid Cuſtos Rotulorum, ſhall occupy and exerciſe the foreſaid office of Cuſtos Rotulorum: ſo that the ſaid Clerke demeane him in the ſaid office iuſtly and honeſtly. And that it bee lawfull to euery ſuch grantées of the ſaid Clerkeſhip, to occupy and enioy the ſame office of the Clerkſhip of the peace by himſelfe or by his ſufficient deputy, inſtructed in the Lawes of this Realme, ſo that the ſame

CAP. IIII.

That all Chappels, &c. ſhalbe in the Kings diſpoſition.

IN their moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your royall Maieſty your louing ſubiects, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that where there haue beene diuers Colleges, Freechappels, Chauntries, Hoſpitals, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and ſtipendary Prieſts, hauing perpetuity for euer within this your Realme of England, Wales, and the Marches of the ſame, of which, ſome of them by the licence of your gracious Highneſſe, or of your noble progenitors, and ſome of them by feoffements, and wils thereupon declared, and ſome of them by other deuiſes, conueiance, and aſſurance, haue beene incorporated, eſtabliſhed, founded, erected, had, or made by diuers names, ſurnames, degrees, and corporations, to haue had a perpetuall continuance for euer: ſithence which time diuers and many of the donors, founders, or patrons, or ſuch as pretend to bee donors, founders, or patrons of the ſame Colleges, Freechappels, Chauntries, Hoſpitals, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and ſtipendary Prieſts, and diuers other, of their Auaricious and Couetous mindes, and of their owne authority without your gracious licence, haue of late entred into the manſion houſes, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, to the ſame Colleges, Freechappels, Chauntries, Hoſpitals, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and ſtipendary Prieſts, belonging, and appertaining, and haue expulſed the Prieſts, Wardens, Maſters, Miniſters, Rulers, Gouernors, and Incumbents of the ſame, out and from the poſſeſſion thereof, and they, their heires and aſſignes doe occupy and enioy the ſaid manſion houſes Manors, Lands, Tenements and hereditaments, and doe receiue, take, and employ, and conuert the rents, iſſues, reuenues and profits of the ſame to their owne proper vſes. And ſome of the ſaid Prieſts, Wardens, Maſters, Miniſters, Rulers, Gouernors, and Incumbents of the premiſſes, by couin betweene them and the patrons, donors, or founders of the ſame, or of ſuch as pretend to bee patrons, donors, or founders of the ſame, or other, haue alſo of their owne authority without your graces licence, bargained and ſold all, or part of their manors, lands, and tenements anexed, vnited, pertaining or belonging to their ſaid Colleges, freechappels, Chantries, hoſpitals, and other the ſaid promotions: And ſome of the ſaid Prieſts, Wardens, Maſters, Miniſters, Rulers, Gouernors, uernors, and Incumbents by the aſſent and conſent of their Patrons, Donors, Founders, or ſuch other as haue had intereſt in the ſame: and ſome of the ſaid Prieſts, rulers, Gouernors and Incumbents, of their owne authorite, without the aſſent of their patrons, donors, or founders, or of ſuch other as haue had intereſt in the ſame, haue now of late made leaſes for terme of life, or liues, or for terme of yeeres of their ſaid Freechappels, Chantries, Hoſpitals, fraternities, brotherheads, guilds, or other the ſaid promotions, or of the manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or of part thereof, and haue not reſerued the cuſtomable rent and ferme, that the ſame hath beene vſed to be letten for. And ſome of them by couin haue ſuffered recoueries, leuied fines, and made feoffements, and other conueyances of all or part of their ſaid poſſeſſions, by reaſon whereof diuers of the ſaid Freechappels, Chantries, Hoſpitals and other promotions aboueſaid, beene cleerly diſſolued, extinct, or determined, contrary to the wils, mindes, intents and purpoſes of the founders, Donors, or patrons of the ſame, & to the great contempt of your Maieſty, and of your authority royall. And we your graces moſt louing, humble, and obedient ſubiects right well knowing and perceiuing the exceeding great and ineſtimable charges, coſts, and expences, which your maieſty hath had and ſuſtained, and daily doth ſuſtaine, aſwell for the maintenance of theſe preſent wars againſt the Realme of France and Scotland, and for the preſeruation and defence of vs your ſaid ſubiects, againſt the inuaſions, and malice of your enemies the Frenchmen and Scots (who daily doe ſtudy, deuiſe, and attempt to grieue, annoy, and hurt your ſaid ſubiects) as alſo for the maintenance of your moſt royall eſtate, honor, dignity and eſtimation, which all your ſaid louing ſubiects of naturall duty been bound to conſerue and increaſe by all ſuch wayes and meanes as they can deuiſe: doe therefore with our whole voice, petition and interceſſion, moſt humbly beſeech your Maieſty, that it may be enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed by your highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, by the authority of the ſame, in manner and forme following, that is to ſay.

All letters patents granted by the K and all aſſurāces made by his conſent of any College, and chantry, &c. ſhalbe good.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery letters patents made by the Kings highneſſe to any perſon or perſons of any of the ſaid Colleges, Chantries, Guilds, Fraternities, or other the ſaid promotions, or of any part or parcell of the ſaid Colleges, Chantries, hoſpitals, guilds, fraternities, brotherheads, or other the ſaid promotions: and that all fines feoffments, recoueries and all other aſſurances and conueyances therof had or made by the kings aſſent, conſent, licence or agreement, to any perſon or perſons, by any Chantry Prieſt, Maſter, Warden, Miniſter, ruler, Gouernor, or other hauing any the ſaid promotions of any of the ſaid Colleges, Chantries, hoſpitals, guilds, fraternities, brotherheads, or any of the ſaid promotions, or of any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, belonging, annexed, or vnited to any of them, or of any part, parcell, or member of the ſame, ſhall ſtand and be in their forces and effects according to their tenures, formes and effects, and ſhalbe by the authority of this act, good, perfect, and auaileable aſwell againſt the ſaid Chantry Prieſts, Wardens, Maſters, rulers, gouernors, and other hauing any of the ſaid promotions, and their ſucceſſors, and the ſucceſſors of euery of them, as againſt the founders, donors, and patrons of the ſame, and the ordinary of them, and euery of them, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them, any law, ſtatute, ordinance, or other thing to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

And where alſo at this preſent time there bee a great number of Chauntries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Freechappels, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and ſtipendary Prieſts, hauing perpetuity for euer, and being charged or chargeable to the paiment of the Firſt Fruits and Tenths, according to the Statute in that behalfe had and prouided, and all Colleges as well chargeable or not chargeable to the paiment of the Firſt Fruits and Tenths, ſet, lying, and being within this realme of England, Wales, and other the Kings dominions, or the Marches of the ſame, hauing diuers manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and other hereditaments, to the ſame aſſigned, appointed, limited, vnited, or annexed by the Patrons, Donors, or founders of them which haue bin eſtabliſhed, ordeined, founded, had or made by the ſaid patrons, donors, or founders for euer, to the intent that almes to the poore people and other good vertuous and charitable deeds might bee made, done, and executed by the Wardens, Maſters, Miniſters, Gouernors, Brothers, and Incumbents of the ſame: And for ſo much as it is right well knowne, that the ſaid Gouernors, Wardens, Maſters, Miniſters, brothers and Incumbents, or the greateſt number of them hitherto, haue not, ne yet doe vſe, exerciſe, order and rule their ſaid Chauntries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Freechappels, and other the ſaid promotions, nor the Manors, Lands, tenements and hereditaments to the ſame belonging, ne, yet doe beſtow, expend, and employ the iſſues, rents, reuenues and profits of the ſame in almes, and other deeds of charity according ding to ſuch vertuous and godly intents and purpoſes, as the ſaid Chauntries, Freechappels, Colleges, Hoſpitals, and other the ſaid promotions were firſt founded, eſtabliſhed, erected, ordeined, had, made, or incorporated, to the great diſpleaſure of almighty God, and to the diſcontentation of the King our Soueraigne Lord. And for that the Kings Highneſſe, of his moſt godly and bleſſed diſpoſition entendeth to haue the premiſſes vſed, and exerciſed to more godly and vertuous purpoſes, and to reduce and bring them into a more decent and conuenient order for the commodity and wealth of this his Realme, and for the ſurety of his Subiects of the ſame.

The rents and lands of hoſpitals, chantries, &c. be not imploiedto ſo good vſes as they were giuen for.

Be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the Kings Maieſty ſhall and may at his Highneſſe will and pleaſure from time to time hereafter, during his naturall life (which Almighty God long preſerue) make and direct his Graces commiſſion or commiſſions vnder his great Seale (euery ſuch commiſſion to be had and made vpon a warrant ſigned with his Graces hand) to ſuch number of perſons, and into ſuch Countries, Shires, and places, as by his Highneſſe ſhall be thought expedient and requiſite, giuing vnto the ſaid Commiſſioners, or to two of them at the leaſt, full power and authority, by vertue of the ſame commiſſion or commiſſions, for and in his Highneſſe name, to enter into all and ſingular ſuch and ſo many Chauntries, Freechappels, Hoſpitals, Colleges, and other the ſaid promotions, and into all and ſingular ſuch manors, manſion houſes, meaſes, lands, tenements, paſtures, woods, waters, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, poſſeſſions, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer they beene, or into any part and parcell thereof, for and in the name of ſeiſin and poſſeſſion of all the hereditaments annexed, vnited, belonging, or appertaining to any Chauntry, Hoſpitall, Freechappell, College, Fraternity, Brotherhead, Guild, or any other the ſaid promotions, or whereof any Prieſts, Preuoſts, Gouernors, Rulers, or other Incumbents of them or any of them, by what name, ſurname, degree, title, or corporation they and euery of them or any of them beene founded, erected, ordeined, eſtabliſhed, named, called or knowen, now hath or enioyeth, or hereafter ſhall haue and enioy, to the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Freechappels, Colleges, Fraternities, Brotherhoods, Guilds or other the ſaid promotions, being chargeable to the payments of the firſt fruits and tenths, and all Colleges chargeable or not chargeable to the ſaid payment of firſt fruits and tenths, as is aforeſaid, or to any of them, as ſhall bee named, expreſſed and appointed in the ſaid Commiſſion, or Commiſſions, and to ſeiſe and take the ſame Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Freechappels, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and other the ſaid promotions, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes mentioned in the ſaid commiſſion and commiſſions and euery of them, and euery part, parcell and member of the ſame, into the Kings poſſeſſion and hands: To haue and to hold the ſame to the Kings Highneſſe and to his heires and ſucceſſors for euer. And that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, may enter into any part or parcell of the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Freechappels, Colleges, and other the ſaid promotions, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments mentioned in any ſuch Commiſſion, for and in the name of all the Chantries, Colleges, Freechappels, and other the ſaid promotions, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, annexed, vnited, belonging or appertaining to any of the ſaid Chantries, Colleges, Chappels, or other the ſaid promotions, and expreſſed, mentioned, and named in any ſuch commiſſion: which entree ſo had and made into part or parcell, for and in the name of all the premiſſes mentioned in any ſuch commiſſion, ſhall by the authority of this Act be of as good force, value and effect in law, to all intents, reſpects, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, had entred into all and euery part and parcell of the ſame Chantries, Hoſpitals, Freechappels, Colleges, and other the ſaid promotions, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments mentioned in any ſuch commiſſion, although the ſaid Chantries and other the ſaid promotions, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments expreſſed within any ſuch commiſſion, ſhal happen to be in ſundry and ſeuerall townes, places, Shires, or Counties within this Realme, Wales, and other the Kings Dominions. And that vpon and by any ſuch entree had and made by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or by any two of them at the leaſt, into all, or into any part or parcell in the name of all the manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, to the ſaid promotions, or any of them vnited, annexed, pertaining, or in any wiſe belonging, and mentioned in the ſaid commiſſion, all and ſingular the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Freechappels, Colleges, and other the ſaid promotions, manſion houſes, manors, orchards, gardens, lands, tenements, meadowes, paſtures, woods, waters, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, tithes, pentions, portions, parſonages appropriat, Churches, Chappels, aduouſons, nominations, patronages, annuities, rights, intereſts, entrees, conditions, commons, leets, courts, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer they be to the ſaid promotions, mentioned in the ſaid commiſſion, or to any of them belonging or appertaining, vnited or annexed, ſo entred into, ſeiſed, or taken, ſhall forthwith and immediatly, after ſuch entree had and made (as is aboueſaid) by authority of this act, be veſted, adiudged, and deemed, and alſo be in the very actuall and reall poſſeſſion, and ſeiſon of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and of his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, as though all and ſingular the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Freechappels, and other the ſaid promotions, and the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and other the premiſſes whatſoeuer they be, and euery of them, were

The King may grant a Commiſſion to certaine perſons to enter into any Hoſpitals, Chantries, &c. and their lands, &c. and to ſeiſe them to his vſe.

The Commiſſioners may ſeiſe to the Kings vſe any Hoſpitals, Chantries, &c. and their lands named in their commiſſion.

After the Commiſſioners entry into any lands ſpecified in their commiſſion the ſame ſhal be veſted in the actuall poſſeſſion of the King.

adiudged, and deemed by expreſſe words, ſentences, and termes in this act to be thereafter in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion, and ſeiſon of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and were in this preſent act, ſpecially, particularly, and certainely rehearſed, named, and expreſſed by expreſſe words, names, ſurnames, corporations, titles, and faculties, and in their natures, kindes and qualities, without any inquiſition by the oaths of twelue men, office or other entree, or further circumſtance thereof to be had or made. And that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, after ſuch entree and ſeiſure ſo by them had and made by vertue of the ſaid commiſſion or commiſſions ſo to them directed, ſhall certifie and returne the ſaid commiſſion and commiſſions, and euery of them (making mention in writing of their doings in the ſame, according to the words and authority to them giuen by the ſaid Commiſſion) into the Kings Court of the Chancery, at ſuch day as ſhall be limited in the ſaid commiſſion or commiſſions, there to remaine of record for euer.

The Commiſſioners ſhall returne their commiſſion into the Chancery.

All Chantries, Colleges, Fraternities, &c. and their lands ſhall be in the order and ſuruey of the court of Augmentations.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that as well and euery the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Freechappels, and other the ſaid promotions, and all the manſion houſes, manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, and other the premiſſes whatſoeuer they be, and euery part and parcell of them, which (by authority and vertue of this Act) beene veſted, adiudged, and deemed, and alſo ſhall be in the Kings poſſeſſion and hands, as alſo all other the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Freechappels, and other the ſaid promotions, and all the manors, manſion houſes, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, to them or any of them belonging or appertaining, and euery part and parcell thereof, which hereafter ſhall happen to come to his Highneſſe hands and poſſeſſion by any ſuch entree, ſeiſure, or taking into his Graces hands by commiſſion or commiſſions, as is aboueſaid, from and after the ſaid entree, ſeiſure, and taking into his Maieſties hands, ſhall be in the order, rule, ſuruey and gouernance of our Soueraigne Lord the Kings Court of Augmentations of the reuenues of his Crowne, and to be granted, letten, and ſet to ferme by the Chancellor, Officers, and Miniſters of the ſame Court, in ſuch manner and forme, as other manors, lands, and tenements appointed to the ſaid Court of the augmentations of the reuenues of his Graces Crowne, beene to be granted or letten: and that all the fermes, iſſues, reuenues, and profits, comming and growing of the premiſſes, or of any part thereof, ſhall be taken and receiued to the Kings vſe, by the Officers and Miniſters of the ſame Court, in ſuch manner and forme as is vſed and had of other manors, lands, and tenements, and of the iſſues, reuenues and profits of the ſame, committed to the order, rule, ſuruey, and gouernance of the ſaid Court of the Augmentations: any Act, Statute, ordinance, cuſtome, or vſe heretofore had, made, or vſed to the contrary notwithſtanding.

All ſuits for the lands of Chantries, &c. ſhal be heard and determined in the Court of Augmentations.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all matters, variances, demands, ſuits, contentions, and debates to be had or made of or for any matter or thing, whereby the manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments ſo appointed to the ſaid Court of the Augmentations ſhall be charged, aſked, demanded, or challenged, to the hurt, detriment or preiudice of the King, ſhall be heard, examined, tried, ended, and determined by and in the ſaid Court of Augmentations, in ſuch forme, manner and condition, as other matters and cauſes, appointed to the ſaid Court, be ſued, heard, examined and determined, or by ſuch other wayes and meanes, as to the ſaid Court ſhall ſeeme conuenient and meet for the adminiſtration of iuſtice indifferently betweene the Kings Highneſſe aud his Subiects.

Suits betweene one of the Kings Subiects and another touching the ſaid lands ſhalbe determined by the common law.

And be it further ordeined and enacted by the ſaid authority, that all other matters, variances, contentions, ſuits, claimes, and demands to bee had, made, or done betweene any of the Kings Subiects, of, for, or concerning the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and the other premiſſes or any part thereof, or for any treſpaſſe or other offence touching the ſame, ſhall be ſued, aſked, demanded, tried, and determined at, and by the Common lawes of this Realme, and according to the rules, orders, and iudgement of the Common lawes and Statutes of this Realme, and not in the ſaid Court of the Augmentations of the reuenues of the Kings Crowne: any Law, Statute, Ordinance, or other thing had, made, or done to the contrary notwithſtanding, and as though the ſaid Court of the Augmentations of the reuenues of the Kings crowne had neuer been had ne made.

All aſſurances made by the gouernors of the ſaid Chantries, &c of any of their lands, without the Kings aſſent, ſhalbe void.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all recoueries, fines, feoffements and other conueyances to be hereafter had, made, done, or ſuffered, for, or of any eſtate of inheritance or freehold, without the Kings Maieſties aſſent, conſent, or agreement, by any of the ſaid Chantry Prieſts, Wardens, Maſters, Miniſters, Gouernors, Rulers, or other, hauing any of the ſaid promotions of the ſaid Chantries, Colleges, Guilds, Fraternities, Hoſpitals, and other the ſaid promotions, or of any manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, to the ſaid Chantries, Colleges, and other promotions vnited, annexed, belonging, or appertaining, or to any part or parcell of them, and being not had, made, done, or ſuffered to the Kings Highneſſe, ſhall be vtterly void, fruſtrate, and of none effect, as well againſt the Kings Maieſty, as againſt the ſucceſſor and ſucceſſors of euery ſuch Chantry Prieſt, Gouernours, Rulers, and any other hauing any of the ſaid promotions and euery of them.

Sauing to all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them, (other than the Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Gouernors, Rulers, Prieſts and Incumbents of the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Freechappels, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and other hauing any of the ſaid promotions, or any of them, and the ſucceſſors of them and of euery of them: and other than ſuch as be, and pretend to be founders, patrons, or donors of the premiſſes, or of any of them, or of any part or parcell thereof, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them: And other than ſuch perſon and perſons, and their heires, ſucceſſors and aſſignes, as claime or pretend to haue any eſtate, right, title, intereſt, vſe, poſſeſſion, or condition, of, in or to the premiſſes, or any part or parcell thereof, by reaſon of any feoffement, fine, bargaine and ſale, or by any other wayes, meanes, or conueyance to them made of any eſtate of freehold or inheritance without the Kings aſſent, conſent or agreement, by any of the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Gouernors, Rulers, Prieſts and Incumbents, or by the founders, donors, or patrons of them or of any of them) all ſuch right, title, claime, poſſeſſion, intereſt, rents, annuities, commodities, commons, offices, fees, leaſes, liueries, liuings, penſions, portions, ſinodies, proxies, debts, duties, and other profits, which they or any of them haue, claime, ought, may, or might haue had in of or to any of the premiſſes, or in of or to any part or parcell thereof, in ſuch like manner and condition to all intents, reſpects, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if this act had neuer beene had nor made, and as though the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, and other the ſaid promotions had ſtill continued and remained.

The right of others ſaued, except, &c.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any of the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Rulers, Gouernors, Prieſts, Incumbents, or owners of any ſuch Chantry, Hoſpitall, Freechappell, College, Fraternity, Brotherhead, Guild, or other the promotions aforeſaid, or of any of them, within one yeere next before the three and twentieth day of Nouember, in the ſeuen and thirtieth yeere of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the Kings reigne, haue made, or hereafter ſhall make any leaſe, or grant vnder his or their common ſeale or other ſeale, or otherwiſe for terme of yeeres, life, or liues of their ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Freechappels, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and other the ſaid promotions, or of any part thereof, or of any manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, or hereditaments whatſoeuer they be to them or any of them vnited or annexed, belonging or appertaining, or to them or any of them limited, or appointed, which manors, meaſes, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, or other hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, were not before the ſaid leaſe for the more part of twenty yeeres laſt paſſed, ſet, nor let to ferme, but kept and reſerued in manurance, tillage, or occupation, or now be in the manurance, tillage, or occupation of the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Rulers, Gouernors, Prieſts or Incumbents of the premiſſes, for the maintenance of hoſpitality, and good houſe keeping. Or within one yeere next before the ſaid three and twentieth day of Nouember hath made or hereafter ſhall make any leaſe, or grant for terme of liues, or for terme of yeeres, of any of the ſaid manors, meaſes, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, hereditaments, and other the premiſſes, whatſoeuer they be, whereof and in the which any eſtate or intereſt for terme of life, yeere or yeeres, at the time of the making any ſuch grant or leaſe, then had, or ſhall haue his being or continuance, and then was or ſhall not be determined, finiſhed or expired: Or within one yeere next before the ſaid three and twentieth day of Nouember, hath made or hereafter doe make any leaſe or grant for terme of life or for terme of yeeres of any of the ſaid manors, meaſes, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, or other hereditaments whatſoeuer they be, vpon which leaſes and grants the vſuall and old rents and fermes accuſtomed to bee yeelden and reſerued by the ſpace of twenty yeeres next before the ſaid three and twentieth day of Nouember, be not or ſhall not be thereupon reſerued and yeelden: Or if any of the ſaid Prieſts, Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, or other the ſaid Gouernors or Rulers ſithence the ſaid xxiii. day of Nouember, hath made any bargaine or ſale of his or their woods, which woods be yet growing and ſtanding, that then all and euery ſuch leaſe and grant of any of the premiſſes, and euery ſuch bargaine and ſale of wood or woods ſhall be vtterly void and of none effect.

Leaſes of lands reſerued for the maintenance of hoſpitality, made within one yeere before, &c.

Leaſes of lands in leaſe for life or yeeres made within one yeere.

Leaſes whereupon the old rent is not reſerued, made within one yeere before, &c.

Woodſales of woods yet growing.

Prouided alway, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to any manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, or hereditaments, which the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Chantry Prieſts, Incumbents, or other the ſaid Gouernors or Rulers of the premiſſes, or of any of them, hath, or is, or hereafter ſhall haue, or be poſſeſſed or ſeaſed of, in fee ſimple, fee taile generall or ſpeciall, for terme of life, terme of yeeres, or otherwiſe, to his or their owne proper vſes by inheritance or purchaſe, and not being vnited or annexed to his or their ſaid Colleges, Hoſpitals, Freechappels, or other the ſaid promotions, nor to any manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, rents, annuities, or yeerely penſion or penſions, of any yeerely ſumme or ſummes of money, heretofore giuen or granted, or hereafter to be giuen or granted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, to any of the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Chantry Prieſts, Incumbents, Gouernors, Rulers of the premiſſes, or of any of them, for terme of life only vnder his great Seale of England, or vnder the Seale of the Augmentation of the reuenues of the Kings Crowne: But that all, and euery the ſaid Maſters,

Lands or leaſes whereof the Gouernors were ſeiſed or poſſeſſed to their owne priuate vſes.

Penſions giuen by the King for terme of life.

Wardens, Miniſters, Chantry Prieſts, Incumbents, and other the Gouernors and Rulers aforeſaid, and euery of them, ſhall and may haue, hold, poſſeſſe, enioy, and kéepe, to their owne proper vſes all and ſingular ſuch manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, rents, annuities and yéerely penſions, not being annexed or vnited to his or their ſaid promotions, according to ſuch intereſt, eſtate, title and inheritance, as they or any of them hath, or ſhall haue, of, and in the ſame: any thing conteined in this act to the contrary notwithſtanding, and as though this act had neuer béene had ne made.

They from whom the King ſhall take any lands, ſhall be abated of their tenths and firſt fruits.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery of the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Chantry Prieſts, Incumbents, and other the ſaid Gouernors and Rulers, from whom the Kings Highneſſe, by vertue of this act, ſhall haue, take or ſeiſe any of his or their manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, or other hereditaments by any of the wayes or meanes aforeſaid, without giuing, or aſſuring any recompence for the ſame, that they and euery of them from thenceforth ſhall yéerely be defalked, abated, and allowed out of their yéerely tenths hereafter to be payed, and alſo of their firſt fruits, as they ſhall happen hereafter to be due to the King in his Court of firſt fruits and tenths, ſo much money, and after ſuch rate and portion, as the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, which by authority of this Act ſhall come to the Kings hands and poſſeſſion by any of the wayes or meanes aforeſaid, were aſſeſſed, valued, rated, and taxed, at, in and by the taxation of the tenths and firſt fruits now remaining of record in the ſaid Court of firſt fruits and tenths, by force of the ſtatute thereof made, had, and prouided.

A prouiſion for ſuch as had annuities or rents out of the lands of the Chantries, &c.

Prouided alway, and be it ordeined by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery perſon and perſons, that before the making of this Act had or enioyed any manner of annuity, or rent, to be taken or had of any of the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, or other promotions aforeſaid, ſhall haue and enioy the ſame in like manner and forme as they ſhould or ought to haue done, if the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, and other the ſaid promotions had ſtill remained and continued in eſſe, and full being: any thing in this act mentioned to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

He that hath bought and payd for any wood, ſhall haue his money againe, or the ſame wood.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons haue iuſtly and truly, without fraud and couin, payed or giuen any ſummes of money to any ſuch Maſter, Warden, Miniſter, Gouernor, Ruler, or to any other hauing any of the ſaid promotions, for the bargaine and ſale of any wóods, growing in and vpon any of the premiſſes, and not yet felled (as is aforeſaid) which bargaine and ſale by this act is made void and of none effect, that the ſame buyers, their executors or aſſignes, vpon requeſt by him or them made to the Chancellor of the Court of Augmentations, for the time being, ſhall be well and truly contented, and repayed of and with the Kings treaſure, remaining in the hands of the Treaſurer of the ſaid Court of Augmentations, for the time being, by the hands of the ſaid Chancellor, Treaſurer, or other Officers of the ſame Court of Augmentations, within one yéere after any ſuch requeſt, and after the diſſolution of the ſaid Chantries, Colleges, Hoſpitals, and other the ſaid promotions, or after the ſeuerance of any part of them: or elſe the ſaid bargainées and buyers of the ſaid wóod, ſhall haue and enioy, cut, take, and carry away the ſame wóods, ſo being by him or them bought: any thing aboue mentioned to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A remedy for any Gouernor that hath compounded for his firſt fruits.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that if any ſuch Gouernor, Ruler, Warden, Maſter, Miniſter, or other hauing any the ſaid ſpirituall promotions, haue or ſhall compound for their firſt fruits for any ſuch ſpirituall promotions, according to the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme: And the dayes of payment of any part thereof at the entry and ſeiſure thereof, as is aboueſaid, ſhall not then be expired or paſt, that all ſummes of money ſo to be payable at any day or dayes then to come ſhall ceaſe, and be not payed, aſked, or demanded, any bond, recogniſance, ſurety, or other thing had or made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Money due out of the premiſſes in the Eschequer ſhall be payable as before.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted, that all ſuch rents, ſeruices, iſſues, profits, and other ſums of money, due and payable for any cauſe or matter concerning the premiſſes, or any of them, in the Kings Court of his Eſchequer, ſhall continue, and be continually, and yéerely leuied, charged, and payed in the ſame Court, in ſuch manner and forme as heretofore haue béene vſed: any law, cuſtome, vnity of poſſeſſion in the Kings Highneſſe, or other thing to the contrary notwithſtanding, and as though the ſaid promotions, manors, lands, tenements, and the other premiſſes had not come to the Kings hands or poſſeſſion. CAP. V.

What perſons ſhall paſſe vpon triall of an Attaint in London, and where the ſame ſhall be tried.

Where the Kings Iuſtices ſhall take Inquiſitions in London.

HUmbly beſéechen your moſt excellent Maieſty your obedient Subiects, the Maior and Comminalty of your Citie of London, that whereas amongſt diuers and ſundry liberties and franchiſes, granted by your moſt noble progenitors to the City of London, for diuers reaſonable reſpects and conſiderations in their charters, expreſſed and mentioned, one liberty is, that all inquiſitions to be taken by the Iuſtices and Miniſters of your Highneſſe, of the Citizens of London, ſhall be taken at S. Martins the Graund, oꝛ at the Guild hall of the ſaid City of London, and not elſewhere, except inquiſitions befoꝛe the Juſtices in Eyre at the Tower of London, and foꝛ the deliuery of the Gaole of Newgate, as in the Charters of your ſaid noble Pꝛogenitoꝛs, to the ſaid Citizens of London granted, and by your Maieſty confirmed, plainly appeareth. Which liberties the ſame Citizens haue continually, ſince the ſaid grants thereof to them made, exerciſed, vſed and enioyed accoꝛdingly, as by diuers matters of Recoꝛd in your high Courts of Weſtminſter euidently appeareth.

And where alſo an act of Parliament concerning periury and puniſhment of vntrue verdicts, was made and eſtabliſhed in the xxiij. yeere of your moſt Gꝛacious reigne, amongſt other then and there made and oꝛdeined, that vpon euery vntrue verdict, made after the ſaid Act betweene party and party, in any ſuit, plaint, oꝛ demand made, and verdict thereupon giuen, extending to the value of xl. li. and not concerning the ieopardy of mans life, the party grieued by the ſame verdict, ſhall haue a wꝛit of attaint againſt euery perſon, which after the ſaid Act would giue an vntrue verdict: And that in the ſaid attaint there ſhould be awarded againſt the petit Jury, the party, and the grand Jury pꝛoceſſe of Sum. Reſum. and diſtreſſe infinit: which grand Jury ſhould be in like number as the grand Jury is now in attaint, and that euery of them that ſhall paſſe in the ſame, ſhall haue lands and tenements of the value of xx. markes by yeere of freehold, out of ancient demeane. And alſo it was then further enacted and eſtabliſhed, that all attaints afterwards to be taken, ſhould be taken befoꝛe your Maieſty in your Bench, oꝛ afoꝛe your Juſtices of your common place, and in none other Court: And that the Niſi prius ſhould be granted by the diſcretion of the Juſtices vpon the diſtreſſe.

23.H.8.3.

And foꝛaſmuch as the ſaid Act cannot be duly put in execution by the Citizens of the ſaid City foꝛ lacke of ſufficient perſons hauing lands and tenements to the cleere yeerely value of twenty markes out of ancient demeane, accoꝛding to the tenour of the ſaid act, and alſo that the apparance of the ſaid Citizens, to be had out of the ſaid City, is againſt the liberties and franchiſes of the ſame City, and no pꝛouiſo made within the ſaid Act foꝛ the ſame Citizens to enioy their ancient liberties and pꝛiuileges befoꝛe rehearſed. It may therefoꝛe pleaſe your Maieſty, of your moſt abundant grace, to condiſcend, that it may be enacted by your Highneſſe, and by the Loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and the Commons in this pꝛeſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that all and euery manner perſon and perſons, being Citizens of your ſaid City, and being in value of goods and cattels to the ſumme of CCCC. markes, may be impanelled and returned, by the Sheriffe of your ſaid City, in euery attaint hereafter to be bꝛought by vertue of the ſaid eſtatute, vpon verdicts hereafter to be giuen by your ſaid Citizens, without any challenge foꝛ the inſufficiencie of freehold of any of them, to be made by any of the ſaid parties, in any ſuch attaint, vpon ſuch verdicts hereafter to be giuen. And that the Juſtices foꝛ the time being, ſhall ſit only at the Guild hall of the ſame City, oꝛ at ſome conuenient place within the ſame City, and there to ſweare the grand Jury, and to take the verdicts in ſuch attaints hereafter to be taken. CAP. VI.

Burning of a frame of timber prepared for the building of an houſe, &c. made felony.

WHere diuers and ſundꝛy malicious and enuious perſons, being men of euill and peruerſe diſpoſitions, and ſeduced by the inſtigation of the Deuill, and minding the hurt, vndoing, and impoueriſhment of diuers of the Kings true and faithfull Subiects, as enemies to the Common wealth of this Realme, and as no true oꝛ obedient Subiects vnto the Kings Maieſty, of their malicious and wicked minds, haue of late inuented and pꝛactiſed a new damnable kinde of vice, diſpleaſure, and damnifying of the Kings true Subiects and the Common wealth of this Realme, as in ſecret burning of frames of timber pꝛepared and made by the owners thereof, ready to be ſet vp and edified foꝛ houſes, cutting out of heads & dammes of pooles, motes, ſtewes, and ſeuerall waters: cutting off conduit heads, oꝛ conduit pipes: burning of waines and carts loaden with coles, oꝛ other goods: burning of heapes of wood, cut, felled, and pꝛepared foꝛ making of coles: cutting out of beaſts tongues: cutting off the eares of the Kings Subiects: barking of Apple trees, Peare trees, and other fruit trees, and diuers other like kinds of miſerable offences, to the great diſpleaſure of almighty God, and of the Kings Maieſty, and to the moſt euill and pernicious example, that hath beene ſeene in this Realme.

Seuerall new and wicked deuiſes tending to the damnifying of others.

Foꝛ remedy whereof, be it enacted by authoꝛity of this pꝛeſent Parliament, that if any perſon oꝛ perſons, at any time after the firſt day of May next enſuing, maliciouſly, vnlawfully, willingly, and ſecretly burne, oꝛ cauſe to be burned, cut, oꝛ cauſe to be cut oꝛ deſtroyed any frame oꝛ frames of timber of any other perſon oꝛ perſons, made and pꝛepared, oꝛ hereafter ſo be made oꝛ pꝛepared, foꝛ oꝛ towards the making of any houſe oꝛ houſes, ſo that the ſame ſhall not be able foꝛ the purpoſe, foꝛ the which it was pꝛepared: that then euery ſuch Act and Acts ſo to be committed, perpetrated, and done by any perſon or perſons, ſhall be deemed and adiudged felony: and the offendor or offendors therein, being lawfully conuicted, or attainted, ſhall haue and ſuffer paines of death, and ſhall loſe and forfeit goods and cattels for euer, and the profits of their lands, tenements and hereditaments for terme of his or their liues.

This felony doth not make the wife loſe her dowry, nor any corruption of bloud in the heire.

The Offendors heire ſhall ſatiſfie the party grieued.

Prouided alwayes, that ſuch attainder ſhall be no auoiding of any womans dower, ne corruption of bloud againſt the heire or heires of ſuch Offendor or Offendors, but be it enacted, that the wife and wiues of ſuch Offendor or Offendors ſhall haue their dowers: and that ſuch heire and heires ſhall after the deceaſe of the ſaid Offendor haue and enioy the ſaid lands, tenements, and hereditaments of ſuch Offendor and Offendors, in like manner and forme, as they ſhould haue had, if this act, or any ſuch attainder had neuer beene had ne made. And that the heire or heires, hauing the ſaid lands, tenements, or hereditaments of any eſtate of inheritance, ſhall yeeld vnto the party grieued for ſuch offence or offences his damages of the profits of the ſaid lands, tenements or hereditaments of ſuch Offendor or Offendors, whereunto he ſhall be inheritable by action of debt, to be taken in the common Bench at Weſtminſter, in which action no wager of law, eſſoine, ne protection ſhall be allowed.

Indictments lacking vi & armis ſhalbe good in law, and Clergy ſhall not be granted to horſe-ſtealers.

The words cum baculis, cultellis, arcubus, & ſagittis ſhall not of neceſſity be put in an Indictment.

WHere before this time it was and yet is commonly vſed in all indictments and inquiſitions of treaſon, murder, felony, treſpaſſe and diuers other, to haue compriſed and put in euery the ſame indictments and inquiſitions theſe words, vi & armis, and in diuers of the ſame indictments to declare the manner of the force and armes, that is to ſay, vi & armis, videlicet, baculis, cultellis, arcubus, & ſagittis, or ſuch other like words in effect, where of truth the parties ſo indicted had no manner of ſuch weapons at the time of the ſaid offence committed and done: yet in default and lacks of the ſame words, the ſaid indictments were and yet be taken as void in the law, for to put any perſon to anſwer thereunto: and the party or parties ſo indicted for lacke of the ſame words, not being compriſed and put in the ſaid indictments, haue taken aduantage thereof, & haue auoided the ſame indictments by writ or writs of error, or by plee vpon his or their apparance, as the ſame caſe did require. For reformation whereof, be it enacted by the K. our ſoueraigne Lo. with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from the feaſt of the Natiuity of our Lord God next comming, theſe words, vi & armis, viz. cum baculis, cultellis, arcubus, & ſagittis, or ſuch other like, ſhal not of neceſſity be put or compriſed in any inquiſition or indictment: nor that the party or parties being hereafter indicted of any offence, ſhal haue or take any aduantage by writ, or writs of Error, plee, or otherwiſe, to adnull or auoid any ſuch inquiſition or indictment, for that, that the ſaid words, vi & armis, viz. baculis, cultellis, arcubus, & ſagittis, or any of the ſame or like words, ſhall not be put or compriſed in the ſaid inquiſitions or indictments: But that the ſame inquiſitions or indictments, and euery of them, lacking the ſaid words, vi & armis, videlicet baculis, cultellis, arcubus, & ſagittis, or any of them, ſhall from henceforth, by the authority aforeſaid, be taken, deemed, and adiudged to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as good and effectuall in the law, as the ſame inquiſitions and indictments, hauing the ſaid words, vi

How Offenders in Vſury ſhall be puniſhed.

Where before this time diuers and ſundry Acts, Statutes, and Lawes haue béene ordeined, had, and made within this Realme, for the auoiding and puniſhment of vſury being a thing vnlawfull, and of other corrupt bargaines, ſhifts, and cheuiſances, which Acts, Statutes, and lawes béene ſo obſcure, and darke in intents, words, and termes, and vpon the ſame ſo many doubts, ambiguities, and queſtions haue riſen, and growen, and the ſame acts, ſtatutes and lawes béene of ſo little force, or effect, that by reaſon thereof little or no puniſhment hath enſued to the Offendors of the ſame, but rather hath encouraged them to vſe the ſame. For reformation whereof, be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all and euery the ſaid acts, ſtatutes, and lawes heretofore made, of, for, or concerning vſury, ſhifts, corrupt bargaines, and cheuiſances, and euery of them, and all paines, forfeitures, and penalties concerning the ſame, and euery part thereof, ſhall from henceforth be vtterly void and of none effect to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes.

All Stat. concerning vſury repealed. 20.H.3.5. 3.H.7.5,6. 11.H7.8.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſoeuer he or they be, from and after the laſt day of January next comming, ſhall by himſelfe, Factor, Atturney, ſeruant, or deputy, ſell his Merchandiſes or wares to any perſon or perſons, and within thrée moneths next after by himſelfe, factor, atturney, deputy, or by any other perſon or perſons to his vſe and behoofe, buy the ſame Merchandiſes or wares, or any part or parcell thereof, vpon a leſſer price, knowing them to be the ſame wares or merchandiſes that he before did ſo bargaine, and ſell, vpon the paines and forfeitures hereafter limited in this eſtatute.

Selling of wares and buying them againe.

And be it alſo enacted by the ſame authority, that no perſon nor perſons, of what eſtate, degrée, quality or condition ſoeuer he or they be, at any time after the ſaid laſt day of January next comming, by way or meane of any corrupt bargaine, lone, eſchange, cheuiſance, ſhift, intereſt of any wares, merchandiſes, or other thing or things whatſoeuer, or by any other corrupt, or deceitfull way, or meane, or by any [b] couin, engine, or deceitfull way or conueyance, ſhall haue, [c] receiue, accept or take in lucre or gaines for the forbearing or giuing day of payment of one whole yéere of and for his or their money or other thing, that ſhall be due for the ſame wares, merchandiſe, or other thing or things, aboue the ſumme of ten pound in the hundred, and ſo after that rate, and not aboue, of and for a more or leſſe ſumme, or for a longer or ſhorter time, and no more or greater a gaine or ſumme thereupon to be had, vpon the paines and forfeitures hereafter in this Act mentioned and conteined.

Cap. XII.

In what manner they ſhall be puniſhed who refuſe to pay Tithes, due to be payed in London.

WHere of late time contention, ſtrife, and variance, hath riſen and growen within the City of London and the liberties of the ſame, betweene the Parſons, Vicars, and Curates of the ſaid City, and the Citizens and inhabitants of the ſame, for and concerning the payment of Tithes, oblations, and other duties within the ſaid City and liberties. For appeaſing whereof, a certaine order and decree was made thereof by the moſt Reuerend Father in God Thomas Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Metropolitane, and Primate of all England, Thomas Audeley Knight Lord Audeley of Walden, and then Lord Chancellor of England now deceaſed, & other, of the Kings Maieſties moſt honourable priuy Councell, and alſo the Kings Letters patents and Proclamation was made thereof and directed to the ſaid Citizens concerning the ſame, whereupon it was after enacted in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation the fourth day of February, in the xxvij. yeere of the Kings Maieſties moſt noble reigne by authority of the ſame Parliament, that the Citizens and inhabitants of the ſame City ſhould at Eaſter then next comming, pay vnto the Curates of the ſaid City and Suburbes, all ſuch and like ſummes of money for Tithes, Oblations, and other duties, as the ſaid Citizens and inhabitants by the order of the ſaid late Lord Chancellor and other of the Kings moſt honourable Councell and the Kings ſaid Proclamation, payed or ought to haue payed by force and vertue of the ſaid order at Eaſter, which was in the yeere of our Lord God M. D. haue agreed with the Curate, or Curates for their ſaid tithes, oblations, and other duties, as is aforeſaid, as in the ſaid Act more plainly appeareth: Sithen which Act diuers variances, contentions, and ſtrifes are newly riſen and growen betweene the ſaid Parſons, Vicars, and Curates, and the ſaid Citizens and inhabitants touching the payment of their tithes, oblations, and other duties, by reaſon of certaine words and termes ſpecified in the ſaid order, which are not ſo plainly and fully ſet forth, as is thought conuenient and meet to be: for appeaſing whereof, as well the ſaid Parſons, Vicars, and Curates, as the ſaid Citizens and inhabitants haue compromitted and put themſelues to ſtand to ſuch order and decree touching the premiſſes, as ſhall be made by the ſaid right reuerend Father in God Thomas Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Metropolitane and Primate of England, the right honourable Sir Thomas Wryotheſly Knight Lord Wryotheſly and Lord Chancellor of England, the right honourable Thomas Duke of Norff. Lord Treaſurer of England, the right honourable Sir William Pawlet Knight, Lord Saint Iohn, Lord Preſident of the Councell, and Lord great Maſter of the Kings moſt honourable houſhold, the right honourable Sir Iohn Ruſſell Knight Lord Ruſſell, and Lord Priuy Seale, the right honourable Edward Earle of Hertf. Lord great Chamberlaine of England, the right honourable Iohn Viscount Liſle high Admirall of England, Sir Richard Liſter Knight chiefe Iuſtice of England, Sir Edward Mountague Knight chiefe Iuſtice of the common Bench at Weſtminſter, and Sir Roger Cholmeley Knight, chiefe Baron of the Eſchequer, for a finall end and concluſion to be had and made touching the premiſſes for euer. And to the intent to haue a full peace, and perfect end betweene the ſaid parties, their heires, and ſucceſſors, touching the ſaid tithes, oblations and other duties for euer: Be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That ſuch end, order, and direction, as ſhall be made, decreed, and concluded by the forenamed Archbiſhop, Lords, and Knights, or any ſix of them, before the firſt day of March next enſuing, of, for, and concerning the payments of the tithes, oblations, and other duties within the ſaid City, and the liberties of the ſame, and enrolled in the Kings high Court of Chancery of Record, ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be as an Act of Parliament, and ſhall bind as well all Citizens and inhabitants of the ſaid City and liberties for the time being, as the ſaid Parſons, Vicars, Curates, and their ſucceſſors for euer, according to the effect, purport, and intent of the ſaid order and decree, ſo to be made and enrolled. And that euery perſon denying to pay any of his or their tithes, oblations, or other duties contrary to the ſaid Decree ſo to be made, ſhall by the commandement of the Mayor of London for the time being, and in his default or negligence, by the Lord Chancellor of England for the time being, be committed to priſon, there to remaine till ſuch time as he or they haue agreed with the Curate and Curates for his or their ſaid Tithes, Oblations, and other duties, as is aforeſaid.

Arbitrators choſen betweene the Parſons, Vicars, and Curates of London, and the Citizens and Inhabitants of the ſame touching the payment of Tithes.

The penalty of them which refuſe to pay their Tithes according to the Arbitrators decree.

The DECREE.

London.

AS touching the payments of Tithes in the City of London, and the liberties of the ſame: It is fully ordered and decreed by the moſt Reuerend Father in God, Thomas Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Primat and Metropolitan of England, Thomas Lord Wriotheſly, Lord Chancellor of England, William Lord Saint Iohn, Preſident of the Kings Maieſties Councell, and Lord great Maſter of his Highneſſe houſhold, Iohn Lord Ruſſell, Lord priuy Seale, Edw. Earle of Hertford, Lord great Chamberlaine of England, Iohn Vicount Liſle, high Admirall of England, Richard Liſter Knight, chiefe Iuſtice of England, and Roger Cholmley Knight, chiefe Baron of his Graces Eſchequer, this preſent xxiiij. day of February, Anno Domini ſecundum curſum & computationem Eccleſiæ Anglicanæ, milleſimo quingenteſimo quadrageſimo quinto, according to the Statute in ſuch caſe lately prouided. That the Citizens and Inhabitants of the ſaid City of London, and liberties of the ſame, for the time being, ſhall yeerely without fraud or couin for euer pay their Tithes to the Parſons, Vicars, and Curats of the ſaid City, and their ſucceſſors for the time being, after the rate hereafter following, that is to wit: Of euery ten ſhillings rent by the yeere, of all and euery houſe and houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, cellars, and ſtables, and euery of them within the ſaid City and liberty of the ſame, ſixteene pence ob. And of euery twenty ſhillings rent by yeere of all and euery ſuch houſe and houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, cellars, and ſtables, and euery of them within the ſaid City and Liberties, two ſhillings nine pence. And ſo aboue the rent of twenty ſhillings by yeere, aſcending from ten ſhillings to ten ſhillings, according to the rate aforeſaid.

Parſons, Vicars, Curates, Tithes.

Item, that where any leaſe is, or ſhall be made of any dwelling houſe or houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, cellars, or ſtables, or of any of them, by fraud or couin, reſeruing leſſe rent than hath beene accuſtomed, or is, or that any ſuch Leaſe ſhall be made without any rent reſerued vpon the ſame, by reaſon of any fine or income payed before hand, or by any other fraud or couin: That then in euery ſuch caſe the tenant or farmer, tenants or farmers, thereof, ſhall pay for his or their tithes of the ſame, after the rate aforeſaid, according to the quantity of ſuch rent or rents, as the ſame houſe or houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, cellars, or ſtables, or any of them were laſt letten for, without fraud or couin, before the making of ſuch Leaſe.

Item, that euery owner or owners, inheritor or inheritors of any dwelling houſe, or houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, Cellars, or Stables, or any of them within the ſaid City and liberties, inhabiting, or occupying the ſame himſelfe, or themſelues, ſhall pay after ſuch rate or tithe, as is aboueſaid, after the quantity of ſuch yéerely rent as the ſame was laſt letten for, without fraud or couin.

Leaſes.

Item, if any perſon or perſons haue taken, or hereafter ſhall take any Meaſe or Manſion place by Leaſe, and the taker or takers thereof, his or their executors or aſſignes, doth or ſhall inhabit in part thereof, and haue or hath within eight yéeres laſt paſt before this order, or hereafter will or ſhall let out the reſidue of the ſame: That then in ſuch caſe the principall farmor or farmors, or firſt taker or takers thereof, his or their executors or aſſignes, ſhall pay his or their tithes after the rate aforeſaid, according to his or their quantity therein, and that his or their Executors, aſſignée or aſſignees, ſhall pay his or their tithes after the rate aboueſaid, according to the quantity of his or their rent by yéere.

And that if any perſon or perſons haue, or ſhall take diuers manſion houſes, ſhops, warehouſes, cellars, or ſtables in one leaſe, and letteth, or ſhall let out one or moe of the ſaid houſes, and kéepeth, or ſhall kéepe one or moe in his or their owne hands, and inhabiteth or inhabite in the ſame: that then the ſaid taker or takers and his or their Executors or Aſſignes ſhall pay his or their tithes after the rate aboueſaid, according to the quantity of the yéerely rent of ſuch Manſion houſe or houſes, retained in his or their hands. And that his aſſignée or aſſignées of the reſidue of the ſaid Manſion houſe or houſes, ſhall pay his or their tithes after the rate aboueſaid, according to the quantity of their yéerely rents.

Item, if ſuch farmer or farmors, or his or their Aſſignes of any manſion houſe or houſes, warehouſes, ſhops, cellars, or ſtables, hath at any time within eight yéeres laſt paſt, or ſhall hereafter let ouer all the ſaid Manſion houſe or houſes conteined in his or their Leaſe, to one perſon, or to diuers perſons: That then the inhabitants, leſſées, or occupiers of them, and euery of them, ſhall pay their tithes, after the rate of ſuch rents, as the inhabitants, leſſées, or occupiers and their Aſſignée or aſſignées haue béene or ſhall be charged withall, without fraud or couin.

Item, if any dwelling houſe within eight yéeres laſt paſt, was or hereafter ſhall be conuerted into a warehouſe, ſtorehouſe, or ſuch like, or if a warehouſe, ſtorehouſe, or ſuch like, within the ſaid eight yéeres, was, or hereafter ſhall be conuerted into a dwelling houſe: That then the occupiers thereof ſhall pay tithes for the ſame, after the rate aboue declared of manſion houſe rents.

Item, that where any perſon ſhall demiſe any Diehouſe, or Brewhouſe, with implements conuenient, and neceſſary for dying or brewing, reſeruing a rent vpon the ſame, as well in reſpect of ſuch implements as in reſpect of ſuch Diehouſe, or Brewhouſe: That then the tenant ſhall pay his tithes after ſuch rate as is aboueſaid, the third peny abated. And that euery principall houſe or houſes, with Key or Wharfe, hauing any Crane or gibet belonging to the ſame, ſhall pay after the like rate of their rents, as is aforeſaid, the third peny abated. And that other Wharfes belonging to houſes hauing no Crane or Gibet, ſhall pay for his tithes as ſhall be payed for manſion houſes, in forme aforeſaid.

Item, that where any Manſion houſe with a Shop, Stable, Warehouſes, wharfe with Crane, Timberyard, Teinteryard, or garden belonging to the ſame, or as parcell of the ſame is or ſhal be occupied together, that if the ſame be hereafter ſeuered or diuided, or at any time within eight yéeres laſt paſt were ſeuered or diuided: That then the farmer or farmors, occupier or occupiers thereof, ſhall pay ſuch Tithes as is aboueſaid, for ſuch Shops, Stable, Warehouſes, Wharfe with Crane, Timberyard, Teinteryard, or garden aforeſaid, ſo ſeuered or diuided after the rate of their ſeuerall rents thereupon reſerued.

Item, that the ſaid Citizens and inhabitants ſhall pay their Tithes quarterly, that is to ſay, at the Feaſt of Eaſter, the Natiuity of Saint John Baptiſt, the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, and the Natiuity of our Lord, by euen portions.

Item, that euery Houſeholder, paying ten ſhillings rent, or aboue, ſhall for him, or herſelfe be diſcharged of their foure offering dayes: But his wife, children, ſeruant, or others of their family, taking their rights of the Church at Eaſter, ſhall pay two pence for their foure offering dayes yéerely.

Prouided alwayes, and it is decréed, that if any houſe or houſes which hath béene, or hereafter ſhall be letten for ten ſhillings rent by yéere, or more, be, or hath at any time within eight yéeres laſt paſſed, or hereafter ſhall be diuided and leaſed into ſmall parcels or members, yéelding leſſe yéerely rent than ten ſhillings by yéere: That then the owner or owners, if hee or they dwell in any part of ſuch houſe, or elſe the principall Leſſée and Leſſées, if the owner or owners doe not dwell in ſome part of the ſame, ſhall from henceforth pay for his or their tithes after ſuch rate of rent, as the ſame houſe was accuſtomed to be letten for, before ſuch diuiſion or diuiding into parts or members: And the vnderfarmer and farmers, leſſée and leſſées, to be diſcharged of all Tithes for ſuch ſmall parcels, parts or members, rented at leſſe yéerely rent than ten ſhillings by yéere without fraud or couin, paying two pence a péece yéerely for their foure offering dayes.

Prouided alway, and it is decreed, that for ſuch gardens as appertaine not to any manſion houſe, and which any perſon or perſons holdeth or ſhall hold in his or their hands for pleaſure, or to his owne vſe: that the then perſon ſo holding the ſame, ſhall pay no tithes for the ſame. But if any perſon or perſons, which holdeth, or ſhall hold any ſuch garden, containing halfe an acre or more doth or ſhall make any yeerely profit thereof by way of ſale: That then he or they ſhall pay tithes for the ſame, after ſuch rate of his rent, as is herein firſt aboue ſpecified.

Prouided alſo, that if any ſuch gardens now being of the quantity of halfe an acre, or more, be hereafter by fraud or couin diuided into leſſe quantity or quantities, than to pay tithe according to the rate aboue ſaid.

Prouided alway, that this decree ſhall not extend to the houſes of great men, or noble men, or noble women, kept in their owne hands, and not letten for any rent, which in times paſt hath payed no tithes, ſo long as they ſhall ſo continue vnletten. Nor to any Halles of Crafts or Companies, ſo long as they be kept vnletten, ſo that the ſame Hals, in times paſt haue not vſed to pay any tithes.

Prouided alwayes, and it is decreed, that this preſent order and decree, ſhall not in any wiſe extend, to bind or charge any ſheds, ſtables, cellars, timberyards, ne teinteryards, which were neuer parcell of any dwelling houſe, ne appertaining or belonging to any dwelling houſe, ne haue accuſtomed to pay any tithes: but that the ſaid Citizens and inhabitants ſhall thereof be quit of payment of any tithes, as it hath beene vſed and accuſtomed.

Prouided alſo, and it is decreed, that where leſſe ſumme than after ſixteene pence halfe peny in the ten ſhillings rent, or leſſe ſumme than two ſhillings nine pence in the twenty ſhillings rent, hath beene accuſtomed to be payed for tithes: That then in ſuch places the ſaid Citizens and inhabitants ſhall pay but only after ſuch rate as hath beene accuſtomed.

Item, it is alſo decreed, that if any variance, controuerſie, or ſtrife, doe or ſhall hereafter ariſe in the ſaid City for non payment of any tithes: or if any variance or doubt ariſe vpon the true knowledge or diuiſion of any rent or tithes, within the liberties of the ſaid City, or of any extent or aſſeſſement thereof, or if any doubt ariſe vpon any other thing conteined within this decree: That then vpon complaint made by the party grieued to the Maior of the City of London for the time being, the ſaid Maior by the aduice of Counſell, ſhal call the ſaid parties before him, and make a finall end in the ſame with coſts to be awarded by the diſcretion of the ſaid Maior and his aſſiſtants, according to the intent and purport of this preſent decree.

And if the ſaid Maior make not an end thereof within two moneths after complaint to him made, or if any of the ſaid parties finde themſelues agrieued: that then the Lord Chancellor of England for the time being, vpon complaint to him made within three moneths then next following, ſhall make an end in the ſame, with ſuch coſts to be awarded as ſhall be thought conuenient, according to the intent and purport of the ſaid decree.

Prouided alwayes, that if any perſon or perſons take any tenement for a leſſe rent than it was accuſtomed to be letten for, by reaſon of great ruine or decay, brenning, or ſuch like occaſions or miſfortunes: That then ſuch perſon or perſons, his executors or aſſignes, ſhall pay tithes only after the rate of the rent reſerued in his or their leaſe and none otherwiſe, as long as the ſame leaſe ſhall endure.

CAP. XVI.

Lands annexed to the Duchy of Lancaſter, and certaine lands exchanged by the King and others, and the Biſhop of London.

The lands of the Kings Duchy of Lancaſter greatly diminiſhed.

The Manor of Rippon in the County of Yorke, ſometime parcell of the poſſeſſions of the Archbiſhop of Yorke.

The Wacchary in the foreſt of Aſhedoune in Suſſex.

Certaine parcels of Lands lying within ſome of the K. Parkes that be no parcell of the Duchy.

The Manor of Rippon, the Waccary, &c. annexed to the Duchy of Lancaſter.

THe King our Soueraigne Lord, conſidering and regarding the eſtate of his Duchy of Lancaſter, being one of the moſt Princelieſt and ſtatelieſt peeces of his Graces ancient inheritance, and perceiuing that the poſſeſſions and yeerely reuenues thereof, haue beene of late greatly diminiſhed, aſwell by reaſon of ſundry gifts, grants, and ſales, made by his Highneſſe, as by reaſon of ſundry exchanges made betweene his Maieſty, and diuers his louing Subiects, of diuers manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, lately belonging to the ſame: and the manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, being aſſured to his Highneſſe in recompence of the ſaid exchanges, be not annexed vnto his ſaid Duchy, but beene in the order and gouernance of his Courts appointed for the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, ſo by his Highneſſe taken and receiued in exchange: And where his Maieſty is now lawfully ſeiſed in his demeane, as of fee, of and in the Lordſhip and Manor of Rippon, in the County of Yorke, with all the manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, members, profits and commodities, to the ſame belonging, or in any wiſe reputed, vſed or taken, as part, parcell, or member of the ſame. And of all royalties, liberties, franchiſes, iuriſdictions, and preheminences whatſoeuer they be there vſed, or in any wiſe to be exerciſed in, vpon, or by reaſon of the ſame Lordſhip, or any part or parcell thereof: all which were late of the poſſeſſions of the moſt reuerend Father in God, Robert Archbiſhop of Yorke, or of his late predeceſſor, as parcell of the poſſeſſions belonging to the Archbiſhoprick of Yorke: And whereas alſo the ſame our Soueraigne Lord, is now lawfully ſeiſed in his demeane, as of fee, of, and in one parcell of Land, called the Warchary, containing by eſtimation lx. acres more or leſſe, ſet, lying and being within the limits and bounds of the Foreſt of Aſhedoune, in the County of Suſſex, which parcell of Land was late parcell of the poſſeſſions of the late diſſolued Priory or Monaſtery of Michallame, in the ſaid County of Suſſex: And where alſo the Kings Highneſſe is ſeiſed of, and in diuers Parkes, as in the right of his Duchy, and as parcell of the poſſeſſions belonging to the ſame: And alſo of, and in diuers and ſundry parcells of lands, tenements and hereditaments, lying within the precinct, circuit, and compaſſe of the ſaid Parkes, which at this preſent are not parcell of the ſaid Duchy, ne of the poſſeſſions belonging to the ſame: his Highneſſe minding and intending the preſeruation, aduancement, maintenance and continuance of the ancient and honourable eſtate of his ſaid Duchy, is fully determined, reſolued, pleaſed and contented to aſſigne the ſaid Manor of Rippon, and all the other premiſſes to the ſaid Duchy. Wherefore be it enacted by the Kings Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame: that the ſaid Lordſhip and Manor of Rippon, in the ſaid County of Yorke, and all manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, hereditaments, members, profits and commodities, belonging to the ſame, or in any wiſe reputed, vſed or taken as part, parcell or member of the ſaid Manor of Rippon: and all royalties, liberties, franchiſes, iuriſdictions and preheminences whatſoeuer they be there vſed, or in any wiſe to be vſed, taken, or exerciſed, in, vpon, or by reaſon of the ſame Lordſhip, and Manor of Rippon, and other the premiſſes, or, in, vpon, by reaſon of any part or parcell thereof, which were late of the poſſeſſions of the ſaid Archbiſhop of Yorke, or of his ſaid predeceſſors, as parcell of the poſſeſſions of the ſaid Archbiſhopricke: and alſo the ſaid parcell of Land, called the Waccary, lying and being, within the limits and bounds of the ſaid Foreſt of Aſhdoune, in the ſaid County of Suſſex, with the appurtenances: and all the lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, which his Highneſſe now hath in poſſeſſion, reuerſion, remainder, ſeruice, or in vſe of any eſtate of inheritance, not being parcell of the poſſeſſion, belonging to the ſaid Duchy, and which beene lying or being within the precinct, circuit, or compaſſe of any of the ſaid Parkes, as wholly and entirely, and in as ample and large manner and forme, and with the ſame and like commodities, royalties, franchiſes, liberties, priuileges, preheminences and iuriſdictions, as they came, to the hands and poſſeſſion of the ſame our Soueraigne Lord the King, or to any other, to his Highneſſe vſe and behoofe, and in as ample and large manner, forme and condition as they now beene, or owen to be in his Maieſties hands and poſſeſſion, be, and ſhall be from henceforth vnited and annexed vnto his ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, and to be adiudged, deemed and taken, for and as parcell and member of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, and ſhall be of the ſame nature, kind, quality, and condition, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as other the ancient poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy, lying and being out of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, be, and ought to be, and ſhall be in the letting, ſetting, order, rule, ſuruey, receipt and gouernance of the Chancellor, Councell, and Officers of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, for the time being, for euermore, in like, and the ſame manner and forme, to all intents and purpoſes, as other the ſaid ancient poſſeſſions, of, or belonging to the ſame Duchy lying and being out of the ſaid County Palatine now beene, haue beene or owen to be: and that as well the ſaid Lordſhip and Manor of Rippon, and the other premiſſes as all other Lordſhips, Manors, Lands, Tenements, Poſſeſſions, and Hereditaments, which haue béene heretofore, by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, or by any of his moſt noble Progenitors, annexed, vnited, aſſigned, or appointed, to the ſaid Duchy, by Act of Parliament, bill aſſigned, Letters Patents; or other lawfull meanes, which be not as yet giuen, granted, ſold, or exchanged by the Kings Highneſſe, or any of his noble Progenitors, or otherwiſe ſeuered or diuided from the ſaid Duchy, and béene ſet, lying, and being, out of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter. And all and ſingular gifts, grants, leaſes, Letters Patents, and writings thereof, or of any parcell thereof to be made by the Kings Highneſſe, his Heires, or Succeſſors, ſhall for euermore paſſe, and be made vnder the Seale of the ſaid Duchy, and not vnder any other Seale, or otherwiſe, and with the like and the ſame liuery of ſeiſon, attournements, ceremonies, orders, and circumſtances in the law, and in the ſame maner and forme, as other the ancient poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy, lying and being out of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, and the Letters patents, Charters and writings thereof, heretofore made, haue vſed and ought to be made and paſſed, and not otherwiſe, nor in any other manner or forme: any Act of Parliament made concerning the eſtabliſhment and erection of the Court of the Augmentations of the Reuenues of the Kings Crowne, or concerning in any wiſe the ſaid Court of Augmentations, or any Lands, Tenements, or hereditaments, liberties, iuriſdictions, or preeminences, or other thing whatſoeuer limited or appointed to be in the order, ſuruey, gouernance, or diſpoſition of the ſame Court of Augmentations, or any Law, Act, ſtatute, vſage, or Cuſtome to the contrary hereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that as well all and ſingular Lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, which by this act be annexed, vnited, aſſigned, and appointed to the ſaid Duchy, as alſo all other manors, lands tenements, poſſeſſions, and Hereditaments, which at any time heretofore haue béene, by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the Kings Highneſſe, or by any of his moſt noble progenitors, annexed, vnited, aſſigned, or appointed to the ſaid Duchy, by Act of Parliament, bill aſſigned, letters patents, or other lawfull meanes, whereof the Officers and Miniſters of the ſaid Duchy, or any of them doe at this day receiue the profits to the Kings vſe, and which be not as yet giuen, granted, bargained, ſold, exchanged, or otherwiſe put away, diuided, or ſeuered from the ſaid Duchy, and being ſet, lying, and being within the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter. And all and ſingular gifts, grants letters patents and writings thereof, or of any part or parcell thereof, to be made by the Kings Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall for euermore paſſe, and be made vnder the ſeale of the County Palatine of Lancaſter; and not vnder or by any other ſeale, or otherwiſe, and with the like and the ſame orders, ceremonies and circumſtances in the law, and in the ſame manner and forme, as other the ancient poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy, lying and being within the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, hath béen had, vſed and made, and the Letters patents, Charters and writings thereof heretofore made, haue vſed and owen to bée paſſed and made, and not otherwiſe, nor in any other manner or forme. And that aſwell all and ſingular the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes now annexed and aſſigned to the ſaid Duchy by this Act, as all other manors, lands, tenements, and poſſeſſions heretofore aſſigned by our ſoueraign Lord, or by any of his moſt noble progenitors, to the ſaid Duchy, whereof the Officers and miniſters of the ſaid Duchy, or any of them, receiue the profits at this day, to the Kings graces vſe, lying or being within the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, and being not ſold, granted, bargained, giuen, exchanged or otherwiſe departed fro, diuided or ſeuered from the ſaid County Palatine, ſhall bee of the ſame Nature, Quality, and condition, to all intents, Conſtructions, and Purpoſes in the Law, as other the auncient Poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy, lying or being within the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, béene, owen, and haue vſed to be: any Law, Act, Statute, cuſtome or vſage, to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

The land aſſured to the Duchy ſhall paſſe vnder the Duchy ſeale, and by liuery, atturnement & other ceremonies. 2.& 3.P.& M.10.

And bee it further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, that all the rents, reuenues, iſſues, and profits, which haue riſen, comen and growen of the ſaid Manor or Lordſhip of Rippon, and of all other manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, members, profits and commodities to the ſame belonging, or in any wiſe reputed, taken or vſed, as part, parcell, or member of the ſame. And of all liberties, franchiſes, iuriſdictions and preeminences, vſed or exerciſed, in, vpon, or by reaſon of the ſame, or any part thereof, ſithen ſuch time as the inheritance of the ſame firſt came to the Kings hands, or poſſeſſion, ſhalbe taken, receiued, collected, and accompted, by the officers & Miniſters of the ſaid Duchy, in ſuch maner and forme, as other rents, reuenues and profits, of other lands, tenements, and hereditaments, belonging to the ſaid Duchy, haue vſed to be taken, receiued, collected and accompted for: any law, ſtatute, vſage or cuſtome to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Manor of Rippon with all lands, &c. belonging to the ſame ſhalbe in the order of the officers of the Duchy.

And where the reuerend Father in GOD, the Archbiſhop of Yorke now being, for and in conſideration of diuers Lands, Tenements, Rectories and other hereditaments, giuen, granted, and aſſured by the Kings Highneſſe, to the ſaid Archbiſhop and his ſucceſſors, Archbiſhops of Yorke, and for diuers other good conſiderations and intents, hath by his Indenture, enrolled of Record, bargained, ſold, giuen and granted to the Kings Highneſſe, the ſaid Manor of Rippon, with the appurtenances, and the manors of Sharow Stanley, Rippenholme, Colſtakeſhill, Pe-

And where the reuerend Father in God, Edmond now Biſhop of London, for certaine good recompences and conſiderations, by his deed, dated the third day of September, in the ſeuen and thirtieth yeere of the Kings Maieſties Reigne, hath bargained, ſold, giuen, and granted to the Kings highneſſe, the Manors of Chelmeſford, and Crondon, and the Parke of Crondon, with all and ſingular their and euery their members, rights, and appurtenances ſet, lying, and being in the County of Eſſex, and all ſuch Lands, tenements, rents, ſeruices and hereditaments, as be or haue beene reputed, taken, knowne or accepted as part, parcell, or member of any of the ſaid manors, Parke, and the other premiſſes: to haue and to hold to the Kings Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, as by the ſame deed more at large it may and doth appeare. By reaſon of which ſaid bargaine the Kings highneſſe was ſeiſed of the ſaid Manors, and the other premiſſes, in his demeſne as of fee: and the Kings highneſſe ſo being ſeiſed, for good conſiderations his Grace mouing, hath by his leters patents, dated the ſecond day of October, in the ſaid ſeuen and thirtieth yeere of his graces raigne, giuen and granted to his truſty Councellor, ſir William Peter Knight, the ſaid manor of Crondon, and the ſaid parke of Crondon, with all the members, rights, and appurtenances, to haue and to hold the ſaid manor & parke of Crondon, with the members, rights, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, to the ſaid ſir William Peter, his heires and aſſignes, to the vſe of the ſaid ſir William Peter, his heires and aſſignes, to hold of the Kings highneſſe, by the ſeruice of the fortieth part of a Knights fee, and yeelding and paying to his highneſſe, his Heires and ſucceſſors yeerly in the Court of Augmentations of the reuenues of his Crowne, ſeuenteene ſhillings and foure pence, in the name of tenths, as by the ſame letters patents, more at large it may and doth appeare.

Certaine Manors and lands aſſured by the Biſhop of London to the king his heires, &c.

And for the more ſurety and ſure making of the premiſſes, bee it ordained and enacted, by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Comons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the Kings highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall haue, hold and enioy for euer, the ſaid Manor of Chelmeſford, with all the members, rights and appurtenances to the ſame belonging. And all ſuch lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as be reputed, taken, knowne or accepted, as part, parcell or member of the ſame Manor of Chelmeſford.

The Manor of Chelmeſford aſſured to the king and his heires.

And be it further enacted by the ſame authority, that the ſaid ſir William Peter, his heires and aſſignes, ſhall haue, hold, and enioy for euer the ſaid Manor of Crondon, the ſaid Parke of Crondon, with all the members, rights, and appurtenances to the ſame Manor and Parke belonging or appertaining: and all ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, as bee reputed, taken, knowne or accepted as Part, Parcell, or Member of the ſame Manor, and Parke of Crondon.

The Manor and Parke of Crondon aſſured to ſir William Peter and his heires.

Sauing to all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, and to their heires and ſucceſſors, and to the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them (other than to the ſaid Robert Archbiſhop of Yorke and his ſucceſſors: and the ſaid Deane and Chapiter of the Cathedrall Church of Yorke and their ſucceſſors: and the ſaid Archbiſhop of Canterbury and his ſucceſſors, and the ſaid Deane and Chapiter of the ſaid Cathedrall Church of Canterbury and their ſucceſſors, and the ſaid Biſhop of London and his ſucceſſors, and the Deane and Chapiter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, and their ſucceſſors, and the ſucceſſors of euery of them, all ſuch right, title, claim, intereſt, poſſeſſion, rents charges, annuities, commons, leaſes, fermes, offices, fées, couenants, conditions, bargaines, grants, woodſales, aduantages and profits which they or any of them haue, claime, vſe or demand, or ought, may or might haue had, vſed, claimed, or demanded, into, vpon or out of any the premiſſes, or into, vpon, or out of any part or parcell thereof, in ſuch and the ſame like manner, forme and condition, to all intents and purpoſes, as if this Act had neuer béene had or made.

A ſauing of the right of others.

The lands aforeſaid ſhall be in the order of the Court of Augmentations

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all the ſaid manors, lands, tenements and other hereditaments in this preſent Act mentioned, (not being expreſly appointed to the order, and ſuruey of the ſaid Court of the ſaid Duchy) ſhall be and continue within the onely Suruey, Order and Rule of the Kings Highneſſe Court of the Augmentations of the reuenues of his Graces Crowne: any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

In what Court the Rents ſhall be paid when there is vnity of poſſeſſion in the king in the lāds, and the rents whereunto the ſame haue beene payable.

Prouided alway, and bee it enacted by the ſaid authority, that if any rents, reuenues, or profits heretofore payed, paiable or leuiable for or out of any honours, manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments being now, or that hereafter ſhalbe in the ſuruey of any one of the Courts of the Eſchequer, generall Surueyors, Wards and liueries, Duchy of Lancaſter, or the Augmentations of the reuenues of the Kings Crowne, to or by reaſon of any honors, manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, being now or that hereafter ſhall be in the order, ſuruey or gouernance of any of the ſaid Courts, that euery ſuch rents, reuenues and profits during the vnity of the poſſeſſion thereof in the Kings hands: and ſo long as the ſame ſhall continue and be in the poſſeſſion and ſeiſon of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord, ſhalbe paied by the officers of the ſaid court, where the ſaid honours, manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, before they came to the Kings poſſeſſion, were charged with any ſuch rents, reuenues or profits, to the Officers, Bailiffes and other Miniſters of the ſaid Court, hauing the ſuruey of any ſuch honors, manors, lands, tenemēts or other hereditaments, whereunto any ſuch rents, reuenues or profits, before the ſaid vnity of poſſeſſion thereof in the Kings Maieſty were paid or leuiable: any law, ſtatute or other thing to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XVII.

Doctors of the ciuill law, married or vnmarried, may exerciſe all manner of Eccleſiaſticall Iuriſdiction.

The authority of the King as ſupreme head of the Church.

IN moſt humble wiſe ſhew and declare vnto your Highneſſe your moſt faithfull, humble, and obedient ſubiects, the Lords ſpirituall and Temporall, and the commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that where your moſt royall Maieſty is, and hath alwayes iuſtly béene by the word of God ſupreme head in the earth of the Church of England, and hath ful power and authority, to correct, puniſh, and repreſſe all manner of hereſies, errours, vices, ſinnes, abuſes, idolatries, hypocriſies, and ſuperſtitions, ſprung and growing within the ſame, and to exerciſe all other manner of iuriſdictions, commonly called Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction. Neuertheleſſe the Biſhop of Rome and his adherents minding vtterly as much as in him lay to aboliſh, obſcure, and delete ſuch power giuen by God to the Princes of the earth, whereby they might gather and get to themſelues the gouernment and rule of the world, haue in their Counſels and Sinodes prouinciall, made, ordained, eſtabliſhed and decréed diuers ordinances and conſtitutions, that no lay or married man ſhould or might exerciſe or occupy any iuriſdiction Eccleſiaſticall, nor ſhould bée any Iudge, or regiſter in any Court, commonly called Eccleſiaſticall Court, leſt their falſe and vſurped power, which they pretended and went about to haue in Chriſts Church, ſhould decay, wax vile, and be of no reputation, as by the ſaid councels and conſtitutions prouincial appeareth: which ſtanding and remaining in their effect, not aboliſhed by your graces lawes, did ſound to appeare to make greatly for the ſaid vſurped power of the ſaid Biſhop of Rome, and to be directly repugnant to your Maieſty of Supreme head of the Church and prerogatiue royall, your Grace being a lay man.

The cauſe why no married man ſhould exerciſe Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction.

25.H 8.19. The Clergy haue no Eccleſiaſticall Iuriſdiction but by and vnder the King.

And albeit the ſaid decrées, ordinances and conſtitutions by a ſtatute made in the fiue and twentieth yéere of your moſt noble raigne, be vtterly aboliſhed, fruſtrate and of none effect: yet becauſe the contrary thereunto is not vſed, nor put in practice by the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons, and other Eccleſiaſticall perſons, who haue no maner of iuriſdiction Eccleſiaſtical but by, vnder, and from your royall Maieſty, it addeth or at the leaſt may giue occaſion to ſome euill diſpoſed perſons, to thinke, and little to regard the procéedings and cenſures Eccleſiaſticall made by your Highneſſe and your Vicegerent, Officials, Commiſſaries, Iudges, and Viſitors, being alſo lay and maried men, to be of little or none effect or force, wherby the people gathereth heart, and preſumption to doe euill, and not to haue ſuch reuerence to your moſt godly Iniunctions and procéedings, as becommeth them.

But for as much as your Maieſty is the only and vndoubted Supreme head of the Church of England,and alſo of Ireland,to whom by holy Scripture all authority and power is wholly giuen to heare and determine all manner cauſes Eccleſiaſtical,and to correct vice,and ſinne whatſoeuer, and to all ſuch perſons, as your Maieſty ſhall appoint thereunto: That in conſideration thereof,aſwell for the inſtruction of ignorant perſons,as alſo to auoid the occaſion of the opinion aforeſaid,and ſetting forth of your Prerogatiue Royall and ſupremacy.

It may therefore pleaſe your Highneſſe, that it may bee ordeined and enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament,that all and ſingular perſons,as well lay,as thoſe that now be married or hereafter ſhalbe married,being Doctors of the ciuill law,lawfully create and made in any Vniuerſity,which ſhalbe made,ordeined,conſtituted and deputed to be any Chancellor, Vicar generall,Commiſſary,Official,Scribe,or Regiſter by your Maieſty or any of your heires or ſucceſſors, or by any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Archdeacon, or other perſon whatſoeuer hauing authority vnder your Maieſty, your heires and ſucceſſors to make any Chancellor, Vicar generall, Commiſſary,Official,or Regiſter,may lawfully execute and exerciſe all manner of iuriſdiction, commonly called Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, and all cenſures and coercions appertaining or in any wiſe belonging vnto the ſame,albeit ſuch perſon or perſons be lay married or vnmarried, ſo that they be Doctors of the Ciuill Law,as is aforeſaid: any law,conſtitution or ordinance to the contrary notwithſtanding. St.1.& 2.P.& M.8. 1.El.1.

Doctors of the Ciuill law, if they be lay men, being maried,or vnmaried, may exerciſe Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction.

Cap. XVIII.

The King during his life,may by his ioynt or ſeuerall Letters patents vnder the great Seale, and proclamation, make the City of Weſtminſter one Honor, the Towne of Kingſton vpon Hull another, his Caſtell of Donington in the County of Berks a third, and Saint Oſith in the County of Eſſex a fourth Honor. And alſo ſo many other Honors as he will, and annex to them ſuch lands of his as he will. The Free-holders and Copy-holders ſhall hold their lands as they did before. Exp.

Cap. XIX.

Fines leuied in Lancaſter are of like force, as fines knowledged before the Iuſtices of the Common pleas.

FOr as much as diuers good and beneficiall ſtatutes for the commodity of the Kings Subiects within this Realme,haue heretofore beene made by authority of Parliament,concerning the leuying of fines with proclamation, both for auoiding of ſtrife, and alſo for the ſurety of the Kings ſubiects,to be had of and in lands, tenements, and hereditaments, by them purchaſed or obtained: which good and beneficiall ſtatutes doe not extend to fines leuied in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Be it therefore ordained and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord,and the Lords Spirituall and temporall,and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled,and by the authority of the ſame Parliament,that all and ſingular fines,which at any time hereafter ſhalbe leuied or knowledged before the Iuſtices of our ſoueraigne Lord the King,or of his heires or ſucceſſors of the County Palatine of Lancaſter,commonly called Iuſtices of Aſſiſe at Lancaſter,or before one of them,of any lands,tenements,or other hereditaments, lying or being within the County Palatine of Lancaſter,which ſhalbe openly read and proclaimed three ſeuerall daies in the open Seſſions,in the preſence of the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe at Lancaſter,or of one of them,for the time being at the ſame ſeſſions,that the ſame fine ſhal fortune to be ingroſſed,and alſo that ſhalbe openly read,& proclaimed in the preſence of the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe at Lancaſter,or of one of them for the time being,at the two next generall ſeſſions,that ſhall be holden in the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter before the Iuſtices of the ſame County,commonly called Iuſtices of Aſſiſe at Lancaſter, or before one of them, next after the leuying or ingroſſing of ſuch ſaid fine, at three ſeuerall dayes in either of the ſaid two ſeſſions, after ſuch manner and forme as is commonly vſed in the Kings Court of his Common place at Weſtminſter,ſhall be of like force, ſtrength and effect in the law to all intents,conſtructions,and purpoſes,as fines being duly leuied with proclamations before the Kings Iuſtices of his Common place,be or ought to be of.

Fines leuied and proclaimed before the Iuſtices of aſſiſe at Lancaſter ſhall be of like force as fines acknowledged before the Iuſtices of the cōmon place

Tenures of lands vnder forty ſhillings,which are granted by the Kings Letters patents,reſerued.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the fourteenth day of Ianuary, in the fiue and thirtieth yeere of the King our moſt gracious Soueraigne Lords reigne: it was among other things enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that from the foure and twentieth day of April then next following, the ſame our ſoueraigne Lord the Kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors vpon any letters patents, of any manors, lands, tenements or other hereditaments not exceeding the cleere yeerly value of forty ſhillings, belonging to any of the late Monaſteries or religious houſes which came to his gracious hands, by the act of Parliament made at Weſtminſter, in the ſeuen and twentieth yeere of his moſt gracious raigne: And vpon any of his or their Letters patents made of any houſes, tenements, cotages or gardens, whereunto no lands or hereditaments did appertaine, not being any of the Kings princely houſes, reſerued and kept by a keeper thereof to his graces vſe, which were belonging to any of the ſaid late Monaſteries or religious houſes compriſed in the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid ſeuen and twentieth yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the Kings raigne: By which Letters Patents, any eſtate of inheritance ſhould or might paſſe from the Kings highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, might reſerue vpon the ſame letters patents to his highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors at his and their owne will and pleaſure, either a tenure by Knights ſeruice in capite, or elſe a tenure in ſocage or free burgage, and not in capite: any law, cuſtome, vſage or any other thing to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding, as by the ſame act made in the ſaid fiue and thirtith yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the Kings raigne amongſt other things more plainely appeareth. For as much as diuers and ſundry ambiguities and doubts haue riſen and growne ſithen the making of the ſaid Act in the ſaid fiue and thirtieth yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the Kings raigne, aſwell vpon the expoſition of the words contained in the ſaid Act, in that that the ſaid act doth not extend to any lands or tenements, other than ſuch as bee expreſſed in the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid ſeuen and twentieth yeere of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord the Kings raigne, as alſo vpon the tenures of diuers manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments by his Highneſſe giuen and granted ſithen the ſaid foure and twentieth day of Aprill in the ſaid fiue and thirtieth yeere of his moſt noble reigne.

An explanation of the Statute of 35 H.8.14. touching reſeruing of tenures vpon land granted by the kings Patents.

Bee it therefore now ordeined and enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament: that all manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuenues, parſonages, tithes, and other hereditaments, not being at the time of the making of any ſuch Letters patents heretofore made ſithen the ſaid foure and twentieth day of Aprill, aboue the cleere yeerely value of forty ſhillings: and all houſes, meſuages, cotages, courtilages, orchards, yards and gardens, whereunto no other lands, tenements, or hereditaments were belonging or appertaining, not being any of the Kings Princely houſes, reſerued and kept by a keeper thereof to his graces vſe, by whatſoeuer title or titles they or any of them came vnto his Maieſties hands, heretofore giuen or granted by his Maieſty, to any perſon or perſons or bodies politike, ſithen the ſaid foure and twentieth day of Aprill, in the ſaid ſeuen and twentieth yeere of his reigne, by his letters patents, whereby any eſtate of inheritance hath paſſed from his highneſſe: to hold the ſame of his highneſſe his heires and ſucceſſors by fealty only, or by fealty only, and not in capite or in ſocage or free burgage, or by fealty only in free and common ſocage, and not in capite, or by any manner of ſuch like words in effect: Or to hold the ſame by fealty, as of any of his Graces honors, manors, or lands, or by fealty onely, as of any of his graces Honors, Manors, or Lands, and not in capite or by any ſuch like words in effect: ſhall from the date of euery ſuch letters patents be adiudged, taken and deemed to all intents and purpoſes, to be holden in ſocage, or burgage, and not in capite, according to the very expreſſe & plaine words contained in any ſuch letters patents, without any further implication, conſtruction, or explanation of the law thereof to be made or had by any perſon or perſons againſt the ſame, and in no manner wiſe to be deemed, adiudged, or to be taken to be holden in capite, any ambiguity, doubt or other thing heretofore riſen or moued or hereafter to be moued, ſtirred or ſet forth to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

The King during fiue yeeres may reſerue other tenures, and not in Capite, vpon lands not exceeding the yeerely value of forty ſhillings.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Kings Highneſſe, his Heires, or ſucceſſors, at any time or times within fiue yeeres next after the firſt day of Nouember laſt paſt, ſhall and may at his or their owne wils and pleaſure, vpon any Letters Patents made or hereafter to bee made of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Reuerſions, Seruices, parſonages, tithes, Portions, Penſions, and other Hereditaments, not being rated or valued at the time of the making of any ſuch Letters patents aboue the ſumme of forty ſhillings by yeere, whereby any ſtate of inheritance hath, or ſhall paſſe from his Highneſſe, his Heires or Succeſſors (Houſes, Meſuages, Cotages, Orchards, Yards and Gardens, whereunto none other lands, tenements or hereditaments doe appertaine only except:) And alſo ſhall and may vpon any like Letters patents hereafter to bee made within the ſaid fiue yeeres, of any houſes, meſuages, cotages, orchards, yards, curtilages or gardens, whereunto no other lands, tenements, or hereditaments doe appertaine (not being any of the Kings princely houſes, reſerued and kept by a keeper thereof to his Graces vſe) by whatſoeuer title or titles the ſaid manors, lands, Tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, parſonages, tithes, portions, penſions, houſes, tenements, cotages, gardens and other the premiſſes, or any of them, ſo to bee giuen or granted, bee come, or hereafter ſhall come to his Graces hands, his Heires or Succeſſors, reſerue either a tenure by Knights ſeruice in capite, or elſe a tenure by fealty, or in ſocage or burgage, and not in Capite. And that all and ſingular the ſaid generall tenures as well heretofore reſerued and made ſithen the ſaid foure and twentieth day of Aprill, in the ſaid fiue and thirtieth yeere of our Soueraigne

Lord the Kings reigne, as hereafter within the ſaid fiue yeeres next after following to bee reſerued or made, and hauing theſe words, Et non in capite, ſhall from the date of euery ſuch letters patents be deemed, adiudged, and taken to be tenures in ſocage or burgage, and not in capite.

A patent of land granted by the King with theſe words, Tenendum de nobis &c. & non in capite.

And that the patentees of the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any part thereof, their heires and aſſignes, and euery other perſon and perſons, hauing the ſame, or any part thereof, ſhall hold the ſame manors, lands, tenements, houſes, cotages and other hereditaments, compriſed in any ſuch Letters patents of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, hauing the ſaid words, Et non in capite, by the ſeruice of fealty, in ſocage, or burgage, according to the expreſſe words contained in any ſuch Letters patents: and ſhall not hold the ſame, or any part thereof, of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, his heires or ſucceſſors in chiefe, or in capite: nor ſhalbe compelled by reaſon only of the ſame, to ſue any liuery, make fine for alienation, or ſue any licence or pardon for any alienation only thereof. And the heire & heires of euery ſuch patentees, or of their heires and aſſignes, or of any other hauing any eſtate, right or title, of, in or to the ſame manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, and hauing no other lands tenements or hereditaments holden of the Kings highneſſe in capite, ſhall and may freely and lawfully after the death of any ſuch patentee, their heires or aſſignes, or other perſon or perſons hauing any ſuch eſtate, right, or title, enter into the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, houſes, cotages and other hereditaments, compriſed, or to be compriſed in any ſuch letters patents, without ſuing of liuery, ouſtre le maine, or any fine, or fee to be paid for any liuery only therof, to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires or ſucceſſors for the ſame, by reaſon onely of ſuch tenure in ſocage or burgage, expreſſed or to be expreſſed in any of the ſaid Letters patents: any law, cuſtome or vſage, heretofore had or vſed to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. Stat. 27. H.8.27; 35.H.8.14: 7.Ed.6.3.

Cap. XXI.

Two Churches not being aboue a mile diſtant, and one of them being not aboue the yeerely value of ſix pound, may be vnited into one.

WHere in diuers and ſundry places within this Realme of England, there bee many and ſundry Parſonages, the glebes, tithes, and yeerely reuenues and profits whereof be not ſufficient to finde a Prieſt or Curate to ſerue or miniſter to the Pariſhioners thereof, within a mile or leſſe of the Church, of which poore Parſonages there is in many places another Church pertaining to another Pariſh, ſtanding as neceſſary, and commodiouſly for the acceſſe of the Pariſhioners of the other poore Pariſh, as their owne doth.

And for as much as the charges for the maintenance of ſuch two Churches and Chappels with all manner of reparations, ornaments, and other accuſtomed duties pertaining to a Church, bee much greater than may bee well raiſed or borne amongſt ſuch poore pariſhioners, and might and ſhould be eaſed and remedied by the vniting and knitting of ſuch two Churches in one.

It may therefore pleaſe the Kings royall Maieſty, with the aſſent of his Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that it may be enacted and eſtabliſhed, That an vnion or conſolidation of two Churches in one, or of a Church and Chappell in one, the one of them not being aboue the yeerely value of ſix pounds, as it is rated and valued at to the Kings highneſſe, in his Court of the firſt fruits and tenths, and not diſtant from the other aboue one mile in any place or places within this realme of England, may be from henceforth had or made by the aſſent of the Ordinarie and Ordinaries of the Dioceſſe, where ſuch Churches and Chappels ſtanden, and by the aſſents of the Incumbents of them, and of all ſuch as haue a iuſt[a] right, title and intereſt to the patronages of the ſame Churches and Chappels, being then of full age. And that all ſuch vnions and conſolidations had or made of two Churches in one, or of a Church and Chappell in one, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be good ſufficient, lawfull, firme, ſtable, and aualeable in the Law, to remaine, endure, and continue for euer, vnited and knit in one, in ſuch maner and forme, as by writing or writings vnder the ſeales of ſuch Ordinaries, Incumbents and patrons it ſhalbe declared and ſet forth.

16.H.7 fo.
3.f.16.

There may be an vnion of two Churches in one, where they be not aboue a mile diſtant, and one not aboue the yeerly value of ſix pounds.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all vnions and conſolidations of all Churches and Chappels, which haue heretofore beene vnited or knit together in one by the aſſent of the Ordinaries, Incumbents, and true and lawfull Patrons in fee ſimple of them, as is aforeſaid, ſhal alſo remain and be from henceforth adiudged, and deemed in the law to endure and continue for euer vnited and knit in one, without any diſſolution, vndoing, vnknitting, or repeale of them or any of them by any manner of means or way.

A confirmation of all vnions heretofore made.

Sauing vnto the Kings Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſors, all the tenths and firſt fruits of all ſuch Churches and Chappels, as be heretofore vnited or conſolidated in one, or that hereafter ſhalbe vnited and conſolidated in one according to the ſame or ſuch like rates and valuations, as the ſame Churches and Chappels or any of them now are rated or valued at to the Kings ſaid Maieſty, in his ſaid highneſſe Court of the firſt fruits and tenths.

The Kings tenths and firſt fruits reſerued.

Prouided

Unions ſhall not be in corporate Townes without the conſent of the chiefe Magiſtrates thereof.

Prouided alway, that all vnions and conſolidations, and euery of them hereafter to bee had or made of any Church or Chappell within any City or Towne corporate within this Realme of England, without the aſſent of the Maior, Sheriffes and Comminalty of the City, where ſuch Churches, Church or Chappell be or ſhalbe: Or without the aſſent of ſuch bodies corporats of other Townes corporat, where ſuch Churches, Church or Chappell be or ſhalbe, by the names of their corporations in writing vnder their common Seale, ſhalbe cleerely void and of no force ne effect: any thing before expreſſed or any ordinance, law, cuſtome or ſtatute to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The vnion auoided vpon a competent liuing aſſured.

Prouided alſo, that where the inhabitants of any ſuch poore Pariſh, or the more part of them, within one yéere next after the vnion or conſolidation of the ſame Pariſh, by their writing ſufficient in the law, ſhall aſſure the Incumbent of the ſaid Pariſh for the yéerely payment of ſo much money, as with the ſumme that the ſaid Pariſh is rated and valued at in the Kings Highneſſe ſaid Court of the firſt fruits and tenths, ſhall amount to the full ſumme of eight pound ſterling, to bee leuied and paid yéerely by the ſaid inhabitants to the ſaid Incumbent and his ſucceſſors: that then all ſuch vnions or conſolidations hereafter to be had or made of any ſuch poore Pariſh, as is aforeſaid, ſhalbe void and of none effect: any thing ſtatuted or ordained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwayes, that this ſaid prouiſo ſhall not extend to any vnion or conſolidation of any Church or Chappell had or made before the making of this eſtatute: any thing in the ſaid prouiſo mentioned to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. Stat. 1. El. 4.

At what times the prices of wines ſhalbe ſet by the Lords according to the Statute of 28. H. 8. 14.

And whereas in the ſaid act concerning the ſetting of prices of wines, it is contained that the Lord Chancellor of England, Lord Treaſurer, Lord preſident of the Kings Councell, Lord priuy ſeale, and the two Chiefe Iuſtices, or fiue, foure or thrée of them ſhould haue power and authority by their diſcretions, to ſet the prices of all kind of wines, as by the ſame act more plainely appeareth. Be it now ordained and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident, Lord Priuy ſeale, and the two chiefe Iuſtices, or fiue, foure or thrée of them, ſhall yéerely ſet the prices of all kindes of the ſaid wines mentioned in the ſaid former Act, betwéene the twentieth day of Nouember, and the laſt day of December, and at no other time or times, and that all and euery perſon ſelling in groſſe or by retaile, any of the ſaid wines mentioned in the ſame act, ſhall not ſell any of the ſame wines aboue the prices, ſo by them ſet, vpon ſuch paines and forfeitures as be made and prouided in the ſame, ſtatute made at Weſtminſter the eight and twentieth yéere of the raigne of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord the King.

In what caſes chiefe Officers of Cities or corporate Townes may ſell other mens wines. 24. H. 8. 6.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, now haue, or hereafter ſhall haue any manner of wines to ſell in groſſe within any City, borough, towne corporate, porate, or any other hauen, corporate Towne or Townes within this Realme, or within any the Kings dominions or territories of the ſame, and do at any time hereafter refuſe to ſell any kind of the ſame wines, according to the price as now, or at any time hereafter ſhalbe limited and appointed by the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident, Lord Priuy ſeale and other the ſaid Chiefe Juſtices, or by any fiue, foure or thrée of them: that then it ſhall be lawfull to the Mayor of the City of London, Recorder of the ſame City, and two of the ancient Aldermen of the ſame City, being no Vintners, for the time being, and to the Mayor, Bailiffes, Aldermen, and other the head Officers, or to any two of them, whereof the Mayor or chiefe Alderman or Bailiffe to bee one, within all and euery other City, Borough and Port Towne within this Realme, wherein any wines now be, or hereafter ſhall be ſo ſold: to enter into the houſes, cellars and places of all and euery ſuch owner and owners of the ſame wines, in any the ſaid Cities, Boroughs and port Townes, and the ſame wines lawfully to ſell to the vſe of the owners of the ſame wines to any perſon and perſons willing to buy the ſame, according to ſuch prices and rate as by the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, Lord Preſident, Lord Priuie Seale, and the ſaid two Chiefe Juſtices, or by any fiue, foure or thrée of them, is, or hereafter ſhalbe, ſet, limited and aſſigned, according to the tenour of the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid eight and twentieth yéere of the Kings Maieſties raigne.

ANNO

Anno primo Edwardi ſexti.

Statutes made in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the fourth day of Nouember, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord Edward the ſixth. By the grace of God, King of England, Fraunce, and Ireland, Defender of the faith, and of the Church of England, and alſo of Ireland in earth the ſupreme head: and from thence continued to the xxiiii. day of December then next enſuing, that is to ſay, in the firſt Seſſion of the ſame Parliament, as followeth.

Cap. I.

The penalty for vnreuerend ſpeaking againſt the Sacrament of the body and bloud of Chriſt, or againſt the receiuing thereof vnder both kindes.

The King mindeth to haue vnity in religion by clemency.

The bleſſed Sacrament inſtituted by Chriſt himſelfe, and by what words of his.

The cauſes of the abuſe of the bleſſed Sacrament.

THE Kings moſt excellent Maieſty, minding the gouernance and order of his moſt louing ſubiects to bee in moſt perfect vnity and concord, in all things, and in eſpeciall, in the true faith and Religion of God, and wiſhing the ſame to be brought to paſſe with all clemency and mercy, on his highneſſe part towards them, as his moſt Princely ſerenity and Maieſty, hath already declared by euident proofe to the intent that his moſt louing ſubiects prouoked by clemency and goodneſſe of their Prince and King, ſhall ſtudy rather for loue than for feare, to doe their duties, firſt to almighty God, and then to his Highneſſe and the Common Wealth, nouriſhing concord and loue amongſt themſelues: yet conſidereth and perceiueth that in a multitude all be not on that ſort, that reaſon and the knowledge of their duties can moue them from offence, but many had need haue ſome bridle of feare, and that the ſame bee men moſt contentious and arrogant for the moſt part, or elſe moſt blind & ignorant: by the meanes of which ſort of men, many things well & godly inſtituted, & to the edification of many, be peruerted and abuſed, and turned to their owne & others great loſſe and hindrance, and ſometime to extreme deſtruction: the which doth appeare in nothing more or ſooner, than in matters of religion, and in the great and high miſteries thereof, as in the moſt comfortable Sacrament of the body and bloud of our Sauiour Jeſus Chriſt, commonly called the Sacrament of the Altar, and in Scripture, the [a] Supper and [b] table of the Lord, the [c] Communion and [d] partaking of the body and bloud of Chriſt: which Sacrament was inſtituted of no leſſe author, than of our Sauiour, both God & man, when at his laſt Supper amongſt his Apoſtles, he did take the bread in his holy hands, and did ſay: [e] Take you and eat, this my body, which is [f] giuen and [g] broken for you. And taking vp the [h] chalice or cup, did [i] giue thanks and ſay, [k] This is my bloud of the new Teſtament, which is ſhed for [l] you and for [m] many, for the [n] remiſſion of ſins, that [o] whenſoeuer we ſhould do the ſame, we ſhould do it in the remembrance of him, and to declare and ſet forth his death and moſt glorious paſſion, vntill his cōming. Of the which [p] bread whoſoeuer eateth, or of ẏ which cup whoſoeuer drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh condemnation and iudgment to himſelfe, making no difference of the Lords body. The inſtitution of which Sacrament being ordeined by Chriſt, as is before ſaid, and the ſaid words ſpoken of it here before rehearſed, being of eternall, infallible, and vndoubted truth: yet the ſaid Sacrament (all this notwithſtanding) hath beene of late maruellouſly abuſed by ſuch manner of men before rehearſed, who of wickedneſſe, or elſe of ignorance and want of learning, for certaine abuſes, heretofore committed of ſome, in miſuſing thereof, haue condemned in their hearts and ſpeech, the whole thing, & contempteouſly depraued, deſpiſed, or reuiled the ſame moſt holy and bleſſed Sacrament, and not only diſputed & reaſoned vnreuerently and vngodly of that moſt high myſtery, but alſo in their ſermōs, preachings, readings, lectures, communications, arguments, guments, talkes, rimes, ſongs, playes, or geſts, name, or call it by ſuch vile and vnſeemly words, as Chriſtian eares doe abhorre to heare rehearſed: for reformation whereof, be it enacted by the Kings highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpiritual and temporall, and of the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, from, and after the firſt day of May next comming, ſhall depraue, deſpiſe, or contemne the ſaid moſt bleſſed Sacrament, in contempt therof, by any contempteous words, or by any words of deprauing, deſpiſing, or reuiling: or what perſon, or perſons, ſhall aduiſedly in any other wiſe contemne, deſpiſe, or reuile the ſaid moſt bleſſed Sacrament, contrary to the effects, and declaration abouesaid, that then he, or they, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, of his, or their bodies, and make fine and ranſome at the Kings will and pleaſure. And for full and effectuall execution of the premiſſes before deuiſed, ordeined, and enacted by this Act: be it furthermore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, That immediately after the firſt day of May next comming, the Juſtices of peace, or three of them at the leaſt, whereof one of them to be of the Quorum, in euery ſhire of this realme, and Wales, and all other places within the Kings dominions, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this act, aſwell to take information and accuſation by the oaths and depoſitions of two able, honeſt, and lawfull perſons at the leaſt, and after ſuch accuſation, or information ſo had, to enquire by the oaths of xii. men, in euery their iiii. quarter ſeſſions yeerly to be holden, of all and ſingular ſuch accuſations, or informations to bee had, or made of any of the offences abouesaid to bee committed, or done after the ſaid firſt day of May, within the limits of their commiſſion: and that vpon euery ſuch accuſation ⁊ information, the offendor and offendors ſhall bee inquired of, and indicted before the ſaid Juſtices of peace, or three of them at the leaſt, as is aforeſaid, of the ſaid contempts and offences, by the verdict of xii. honeſt, and indifferent men, if the matter of the ſaid accuſation and information ſhall ſeeme to the ſaid Jury good and true.

The penalty for ſpeaking vnreuerently of the moſt bleſſed Sacrament.

Juſtices of peace may enquire of offenders.

And it is alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Juſtices of peace, or three of them at the leaſt, as is aforeſaid, before whom any ſuch preſentment information, and accuſation ſhal be made, or taken, as is aforeſaid, ſhall examine the accuſors, what other witneſſe were by, and preſent at the time of the doing and committing of the offence, whereof the information, accuſation, and preſentment ſhall be made, and how many others than the accuſors, haue knowledge thereof: and ſhall haue power and authority, by their diſcretions, to binde by recogniſance to be taken before them, as well the ſaid accuſors, as all ſuch other perſons, whom the ſame accuſors ſhall declare to haue knowledge of the offences by them preſented, and informed, euery of them in fiue pounds to the King, to appeare before the ſaid Juſtices of peace before whom the offendor or offendors ſhall be tried, at the day of triall and deliuerance of ſuch offendors.

Examination of the accuſers.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Juſtices of peace, or three of them at the leaſt, as is abouesaid, by vertue of this Act, ſhall haue full power and authority to make proces againſt euery perſon and perſons ſo indicted, by two Capias and an exigent, and by Capias vtlegatum, as well within the limits of their commiſſion, as into all other ſhires and places of this Realme, Wales, and other the Kings dominions, aſwell within liberties as without, and the ſame proceſſe to be good and effectuall in the law to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, and vpon the apparance of any of the offendors, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, and the commiſſion of peace, to determine the contempts and offences aforeſaid, according to the lawes of this realme, and effects of this Act: and that the ſaid Juſtices of peace, or three of them at the leaſt, as is abouesaid, ſhall haue full power and authority to let any ſuch perſon, or perſons ſo indicted, vpon ſufficient ſureties, by their diſcretions to baile for their apparance to be tried, according to the tenour, forme, and effect of this Act.

What proceſſe ſhalbe awarded againſt the perſons indited.

Juſtices of P. may determine the offences.

Bailment of perſons indited.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted, that the ſaid Juſtices of peace, or three of them at the leaſt, at their quarter Seſſions, where any offendor or offendors ſhall be, or ſtand indicted of any of the contempts, or offences abouesaid, ſhal direct and award one writ in the Kings name to the Biſhop of the Dioceſſe, wherein the ſaid offence or offences are ſuppoſed to bee committed, or done, willing and requiring the ſaid Biſhop to bee in his owne perſon, or by his Chauncellor, or other his ſufficient Deputy, learned, at the quarter Seſſions in the ſaid County to bee holden, when, and where the ſaid offendor ſhall be arraigned ⁊ tried, appointing to them in the ſaid writ the day and place of the ſaid arraignment, which writ ſhalbe of this forme: Rex. &c. Epō L. Salutem. Præcipimus tibi, quod tu, Cancellarius tuus, vel alius Deputatus tuus ſufficienter eruditus, ſitis cum Iuſticiariis noſtris ad pacem in com. noſtro. A writ directed by the Juſtices to the Biſhop.

Prouided alwaies, ⁊ be it enacted by thauthority abouesaid, yͤ no perſon or perſons ſhalbe indicted of any of the contēpts or offences abouesaid, but only of ſuch contēpts or offences, as ſhall be informed or preſēted within iii. moneths next after the ſaid offēces or offēce ſo cōmitted or done.

No inditement but within iii. moneths after the offence.

And be it further enacted by thauthority aforeſaid, that in all trials, for any ſuch offendors before the ſaid Juſtices, as is aforeſaid, the perſon or perſons being cōplained on, ⁊ arrained, ſhalbe admitted to purge or try, his, or their innocency, by as many, or moe witneſſes in number, ⁊ of as good good honeſty & credence, as the witneſſes be, which depoſed againſt him or them, or any of them.

The bleſſed Sacrament ſhalbe deliuered vnto the people vnder both kinds of bread & wine.

The vſage of other Churches not cōdemned.

And foraſmuch as it is more agræable, both to yͤ firſt inſtitution of the ſaid Sacrament, of the moſt precious body & bloud of our Sauiour Jeſus Chriſt, and alſo more conformable to the common vſe and practice both of the Apoſtles, & of the primatiue Church, by the ſpace of 500. yæres and more after Chriſts Aſcenſion, that the bleſſed Sacrament ſhould be miniſtred to all Chriſtian people vnder both the kinds of bread and wine, than vnder the forme of bread only: and alſo it is more agræable to the firſt inſtitution of Chriſt, and to the vſage of the Apoſtles, and the primatiue Church, that yͤ people being preſent ſhould receiue the ſame with the prieſt, than that the prieſt ſhould receiue it alone: therefore be it enacted by our ſoueraign Lord yͤ king, with the conſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporal, & the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, & by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid moſt bleſſed Sacrament be hereafter cōmonly deliuered, & miniſtred vnto the people, within this Church of England & Ireland, and other the Kings dominions vnder both the kinds, that is to ſay, of bread and wine, except neceſſity otherwiſe require: and alſo that the prieſt, which ſhall miniſter the ſame, ſhal at the leaſt one day before exhort all perſons which ſhalbe preſent, likewiſe to reſort, and prepare themſelues to receiue the ſame. And when the day prefixed cōneth, after a godly exhortation by the miniſter made (wherein ſhall be further expreſſed the benefit and comfort promiſed to them which worthily receiue the holy Sacrament, and danger & indignation of God threatned to them, which ſhall preſume to receiue the ſame vnworthily, to the end that euery man may try & examine his owne conſcience before he ſhal receiue the ſame) the ſaid Miniſter ſhal not without a lawfull cauſe deny the ſame to any perſon, that will deuoutly and humbly deſire it: any law, ſtatute, ordinance, or cuſtome contrary thereunto in any wiſe notwithſtanding: not condemning hereby the vſage of any Church out of the Kings Maieſties dominions. CAP. II.

The Election of Biſhops, and what Seales, and Stile they, and other Spirituall perſons exerciſing iuriſdiction Eccleſiaſticall ſhall vſe.

Elections of Biſhops belong only to the king St. 25. H. 8. 20.

None but the King ſhall collate to a Biſhopricks.

FOr as much as the Elections of Archbiſhops, and Biſhops by the Deanes, and Chapters within the Kings Maieſties Realmes of England, and Ireland, at this preſent time, bee as well to the long delay, as to the great coſts and charges of ſuch perſons, as the Kings Maieſty giueth any Archbiſhopricke, or Biſhopricke vnto: And whereas the ſaid elections bee in very déed no elections, but onely by a writ of Conge deſlier, haue Colours, Shadowes, or pretences of elections, ſeruing neuertheleſſe to no purpoſe, and ſéeming alſo derogatory and preiudiciall to the Kings Prerogatiue royall, to whom only appertaineth the Collation, and gift of all Archbiſhopricks, and Biſhopricks, and Suffragan Biſhops within his highneſſe ſaid realmes of England and Ireland, Wales, and other his dominions and marches. For a due reformation hereof, be it therefore enacted by the Kings highneſſe with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporal, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, yͭ from henceforth no ſuch Conge deſlier be granted, nor election of any Archbiſhop, or Biſhop by the Deane and Chapter made: But that the King may by his letters patents at all times, when any Archbiſhoprick or Biſhoprick is void, conferre the ſame to any perſon, whom the King ſhal thinke mæt: The which Collation ſo by the Kings letters patents made, and deliuered to the perſon to whom the King ſhal confer the ſame Archbiſhopricke, or Biſhoprick, or to his ſufficient Procter and Atturney, ſhall ſtand to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, to as much and the ſame effect, as though Conge deſlier had bæne giuen, the election duly made, and the ſame confirmed. And thereupon the ſaid perſon to whom the ſaid Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, or Suffraganſhip is ſo conferred, collated, or giuen, may bee conſecrated, and ſue his liuery, or ouſter le maine, and doe other things aſwel as if the ſaid ceremonies, and elections had bin done and made.

A Biſhop collated by the King ſhall pay the vſuall fees.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery ſuch perſon to whom any Collation, or gift of any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke or Suffraganſhip ſhall be giuen or collated by the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall pay, doe and yæld to all and euery perſon, all all ſuch fæs, intereſts, and duties, as of old time haue bæne accuſtomed to be done: any thing in this Act, or in any other to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And whereas the Archbiſhops, and Biſhops, and other ſpirituall perſons in this Realme doe vſe to make, and ſend out their Summons, Citations, and other proceſſe in their owne names, & in ſuch forme and manner, as was vſed in the time of the vſurped power of the Biſhop of Rome, contrary to the forme and order of the Summons and proceſſe of the Common law vſed in this Realme (ſæing that all authority of iuriſdiction Spirituall and Temporall is deriued, and deducted from the Kings Maieſty, as ſupreme head of theſe Churches and Realmes of England, and Ireland, and ſo iuſtly acknowledged by the Clergy of the ſaid Realmes, and that all Courts Eccleſiaſticall within the ſaid two Realmes bee kept by no other power or authority, either foraine or within the Realme, but by the authority of his moſt excellent Maieſty:) Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all Summons, and Citations, or other proceſſe Eccleſiaſticall, in all ſuits, and cauſes of inſtance betwixt party and party, and all cauſes of Correction, and all cauſes of Baſtardy, or Bigamie, or Inquiry de Iure patronatus, probats of teſtaments, and commiſſions of Adminiſtration of perſons deceaſed, and all acquitances of, and vpon accompts made by the Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Collectors of goods of any dead perſon, be from the firſt day of Iuly next following, made in the name, and with the ſtile of the King, as it is in writs originall, or iudiciall at the Common law: And that the Teſte thereof be in the name of the Archbiſhop, or Biſhop, or other hauing Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, who hath the commiſſion, and grant of the authority Eccleſiaſticall immediately from the Kings Highneſſe, and that his commiſſary, officiall, or ſubſtitute exerciſing iuriſdiction vnder him, ſhall put his name in the citation or proceſſe after the Teſte.

All proceſſes Eccleſiaſticall ſhall be in the Kings name; but the Teſte in the Biſhops name.

Furthermore be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all manner of perſon, or perſons, who hath the exerciſe of eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, ſhall haue from the firſt day of Iuly before expreſſed, in their Seales of office, the Kings Highneſſe Armes decently ſet, with certaine Characters vnder the Armes for the knowledge of the Dioceſſe, and ſhall vſe no other Seale of iuriſdiction, but wherein his Maieſties Armes be engrauen, vpon paine, that if any perſon ſhall vſe eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction (after the day before expreſſed) in this Realme of England, Wales, or other his Dominions, or territories, and not ſend or make out the citation, or proceſſe in the Kings name, or vſe any ſeale of iuriſdiction other than before limited: that euery ſuch Offendor ſhall incurre, and runne in the Kings Maieſties diſpleaſure, and indignation, and ſuffer impriſonment at his Highneſſe will and pleaſure.

Euery Biſhops, &c. ſeale of office ſhall haue the Kings Armes engrauen vpon it.

Prouided, that no more, nor other fees be taken, or payd for the Seale, and writing of any citations or other proceſſe, than was heretofore accuſtomed.

Vſuall fees ſhall be taken.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Archbiſhop of Canterbury for the time being, ſhall vſe his owne Seale, and in his owne name, in all faculties and diſpenſations, according to the tenour of an Act thereof made: And that the ſaid Archbiſhops, and Biſhops ſhall make, admit, order, and reforme their Chancellors, Officials, Commiſſaries, Aduocates, Proctors, and other their Officers, Miniſters, and Subſtitutes, and Commiſſiots of Suffragan Biſhops in their owne names vnder their owne ſeales, in ſuch manner and forme, as they haue heretofore vſed: And ſhall certifie to the Court of Tenths their certificates vnder their owne names and ſeales, as heretofore they haue vſed, and according to the Statute in that caſe made and prouided: and likewiſe ſhall make collations, preſentations, gifts, inſtitutions, and inductions of Benefices, letters of Order, or Dimiſſories, vnder their owne names and ſeales, as they haue heretofore accuſtomed: any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Archbiſhop of Canterbury may vſe his owne ſeale. St. 25. H. 8. 21. In what caſes other Biſhops may vſe their owne ſeales.

St. 32. H. 8. 45.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all proceſſe hereafter to be made, or awarded by any eccleſiaſticall perſon or perſons, for the triall of any plea, or pleas, or matter depending, or that hereafter ſhall depend in any of the Kings Courts of Record at the Common law, and limited by the Lawes, and cuſtomes of this Realme, to the ſpirituall Courts, to trie the ſame, that the certificate of the ſame, after the triall thereof, ſhall be made in the Kings name, for the time being, and with the ſtile of the ſame King, and vnder the ſeale of the Biſhop, graued with the Kings Armes, with the name of the Biſhop, or ſpirituall Officer, being to the Teſte of the ſame proceſſe, and certificat, and to euery of them. Certificates into a Court of Record ſhall be in the Kings name, Teſte the Biſhop.

CAP. III.

A repeale of all ſtatutes heretofore made for the puniſhment of vagabonds, and of all articles compriſed in the ſame. If any perſon ſhall bring to two Iuſtices of peace any runnagate ſeruant, or any other which liueth idely and loyteringly by the ſpace of three dayes, the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall cauſe the ſaid idle and loytering ſeruant or vagabond, to be marked with a hot iron on the breſt with the mark V. and adiudge him to be ſlaue to the ſame perſon that brought or preſented him, to haue to him his executors or aſſignes for two yeeres after, who ſhal take the ſaid ſlaue, and giue him bread, water, or ſmall drink, and refuſe meat, and cauſe him to worke by beating, chaining, or otherwiſe, in ſuch worke and labour as he ſhall put him vnto, be it neuer ſo vile. And if ſuch ſlaue abſent himſelfe from his ſaid maſter within the ſaid terme of two yeeres, by the ſpace of xiiij. dayes, then he ſhall be adiudged by two Iuſtices of peace to be marked on the forehead, or the ball of the cheek with a hot iron with the ſigne of an S. and further ſhall be adiudged to be ſlaue to his ſaid maſter for euer. And if the ſaid ſlaue ſhall run away the ſecond time, he ſhall be adiudged a felon. No clerk conuict ſhall make his purgation, but ſhall be a ſlaue for one yeere to him who will become bound with two ſurties in xx. li. to the Ordinary, to the Kings vſe, to take him into ſeruice. And he ſhall be vſed in all reſpects as is aforeſaid like to a vagabond. A clerk attainted or conuict, which by the law cannot make his purgation, may by the Ordinary be deliuered to any man, who will become bound with two ſufficient ſureties, to keepe him as his ſlaue fiue yeeres. And then he ſhall be vſed in all reſpects as is aforeſaid for a vagabond, ſauing for burning in the breſt. It ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon to whom any ſhall be adiudged a ſlaue, to put a ring of Iron about his neck, arme, or leg. A Iuſtice of peace and Conſtable, may binde a beggers manchild prentice to the age of fourteene yeeres, and a woman-child to the age of twenty yeeres, to any that will require them. And if the ſaid child run away, then his maſter may retaine and vſe him for the terme aforeſaid, as his ſlaue. All impotent, maimed, and aged perſons, who cannot be taken for vagabonds, ſhall haue conuenient houſes prouided for them, and otherwiſe be releeued in the Cities, Boroughs, or Townes where they were borne, or were moſt conuerſant by the ſpace of three yeeres, by the willing and charitable diſpoſition of the Pariſhioners. And none other ſhall be ſuffered to beg there. EXP. and REP. 3. and 4. Ed. 6. 16. & 39. El. 4.

Cap. IIII.

Lands comming to the Kings hands by Attainder, Diſſolution, or Surrender, &c. ſhall not be holden in Capite.

There ſhall be no tenure in Capite of the King, by reaſon of lands comming to his hands by Attainder, diſſolution, ſurrender, &c. St. 9. H. 3. 31. St. 1. Edw. 3. 13.

WHere before this time, ambiguities, queſtions, and doubts haue béene moued and ſtirred, in diuers and ſundry the Kings Courts of Record, whether ſuch honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments are holden of the King in Capite, which any his louing Subiects doe hold by Knights ſeruice, Socage, or other ſeruices of the King, as of his Duchies, Earledomes, Baronies, Honors, Caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, fées, and ſeigniories, which haue come to the hands and poſſeſſion of diuers of his Highneſſe moſt noble Progenitors, by atteindor of treaſon, miſpriſion of treaſon, atteindors of Premunire, and prouiſion had and done by Act of Parliament, by verdict, confeſſion, conuiction, or vtlagary, and offices or no offices thereupon found, or by the diſſolution, ſurrender, or giuing vp to the King, or to any his noble Progenitors, of any religious or Eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, or of any manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, to any of the ſame religious or Eccleſiaſticall houſes or places in any wiſe appertaining or belonging, or no: By meanes of which doubt ſo moued, his ſaid humble and obedient Subiects and tenants haue béene heretofore much vnquieted, moleſted, and grieued: wherefore the King our Soueraigne Lord, minding and entirely deſiring the quietneſſe of his ſaid Subiects, and that the certainty of the Lawes in that behalfe might be knowne, and declared to his ſaid louing Subiects, for a plaine declaration and reſolution to be had, of, for, and concerning the premiſſes, at the humble petition and ſuit of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, doth ordeine, declare, and enact by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all ſuch honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, and euery of them, which now be, or at any time hereafter ſhall be holden of the King or of any of his heires or ſucceſſors, by any of his ſaid Subiects, by Knights ſeruice, ſocage, or otherwiſe, as of any of his or their Dukedoms, Earledomes, Baronies, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, fées, or [a] ſeigniorles, which be come to the King, or his moſt noble Progenitors, or hereafter ſhall come to the King, his heires, or ſucceſſors, by meanes of any ſuch attainder, conuiction, vtlagary, or of any ſuch diſſolution, ſurrender, or giuing vp of any religious or Eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, or of any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to any of the ſaid religious or Eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, in any wiſe belonging or appertaining, ſhall not from henceforth be adiudged, déemed, taken or conſtrued to any intent, conſtruction or purpoſe, to be holden in Capite, or as tenure in Capite: any ambiguity, queſtion, or doubt heretofore moued to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Tenure of the King, as of his perſon, or ancient poſſeſſions.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe be preiudiciall ne hurtfull to the King, his heires, or ſucceſſors, to, for, or concerning any wardſhip, liuery, primer ſeiſon, fine or alienation, or to, or for any other profit or aduantage, which now is come, or hereafter ſhall, or may come, fall, or grow to the King, his heires, or ſucceſſors, by, or from any perſon or perſons, which now doth, or hereafter ſhal hold any honors, ſeigniories, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments of the King in chiefe, as of his perſon, or of any other his ancient poſſeſſions, and being not come to the King by any ſuch atteinder, confeſſion, conuiction, vtlagary, diſſolution, giuing vp, or ſurrender, as be aboueſaid.

Concluſion of tenure by matter of Record.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this preſent Act, or any thing therein conteined or ſpecified, ſhall not in any wiſe, or by any meanes, giue any aduantage, liberty or profit to any Tenant or owner in Fée ſimple, of any honors, manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, which haue heretofore ſued any ſpeciall, or generall liuery, or ouſterle maine, out of the hands of the King, or of any his noble Progenitors, of any honors, manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, by what tenure or ſeruice they were, or be holden, or that haue, or ſhal confeſſe by any matter of record, any tenure in chiefe of the King, but that they, their heires and aſſignes, ſhall haue and hold the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, in like manner and forme, as they did before the making of this preſent Act, and as though this preſent Act had neuer béene had, ne made: any thing aboue declared and enacted to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. V.

None may conuey horſes out of England without licence.

WHere before this time, diuers of the Kings Subiects, and namely of the North parts of this Realme, as well in time of peace as of war, haue conueyed, ſold, giuen, and deliuered out of this Realme, as well into Scotland, as into other forreine Realmes, beyond the Sea, many and diuers great multitude of horſes, geldings, and mares, which haue beene thought as well great occaſion, ſtrength, and boldneſſe to the Scottiſhmen, and other the Kings forreine enemies, hauing in poſſeſſion the ſame horſes, geldings, and mares, in time of war to inuade this Realme, as alſo a great decay of the good breed of horſes and mares, which before time hath beene within this Realme, to the great detriment and hinderance of the Kings poore Subiects, towards the defence of this Realme and other his Dominions: For remedy whereof, be it therefore enacted by our Soueraigne Lord the King, and by the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that if any perſon or perſons, after the firſt day of January next comming, do ſell, exchange, giue, conuey, or deliuer into the Realme of Scotland, to the vſe of any Scottiſhman, or doe carry, giue, exchange, ſell, ſend, conuey, or deliuer in any place beyond the ſea out of this Realme, or the Dominions of the ſame, any horſe, gelding or mare, without ſpecial licence therefore to be obtained of the Kings Highneſſe, or of his heires, vnder the great Seale of this Realme, or vnder the priuy ſignet: or if any perſon or perſons, after the ſaid firſt day of January, doe ſell, exchange, giue, or deliuer to any Scottiſhman within this Realme of England or Wales, the Towne of Barwike, or the marches of the ſame, to the intent to be conueyed into Scotland, any horſe, gelding, or mare, or doe conuey or carry any horſe, mare, or gelding into any forreine parties beyond the ſea, without like ſpeciall licence obteined of the Kings Highneſſe, or of his heires, vnder the great ſeale, or priuy ſignet, as is aforeſaid: that then the ſame perſon and perſons ſo offending contrary to this Act, ſhall loſe and forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord and his heires, the ſame horſe, mare, or gelding, ſo carried and conueyed, and ſhall alſo loſe and forfeit the ſumme of xl. li. for euery ſuch horſe, gelding, or mare, ſo to be conueyed and carried in forme aforeſaid: whereof the one moity to be to the King, and the other moity to him, or them, that will ſue for the ſame, by information, action of debt, or detinue in any of the Kings Courts of record, in which ſuit, no wager of law, eſſoine, ne protection ſhall be allowed. And that alſo all and euery perſon and perſons ſo offending contrary to this act, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole yeere.

The penalty for the conueying of horſes into Scotland or other forreine countries without the Kings licence. St. 23. H. 8. 16. St. 1. El. 7. St. 4. Iac. 8.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull, as well to the Warden and Wardens of the Eaſt, Weſt, and middle marches for the time being, in their Warden Courts, as alſo to all and euery the Kings Juſtices of peace in euery Shire, as well in England, as in Wales, in their quarter Seſſions, to enquire of all and euery offence or offences hereafter to be perpetrated, committed, or done contrary to this act: And that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euery perſon and perſons being the Kings ſubiects, to arreſt and impriſon euery Scottiſhman, and all and euery other perſon or perſons, which ſhall lead, or conuey contrary to the meaning of this Act, any ſuch horſe, gelding, or mare, out of this Realme into the ſaid Realme of Scotland, or into any other forreine place beyond the Sea, other than ſuch perſons, as hereafter ſhall haue ſufficient warrant, by, or from the Kings Highneſſe or his heires, vnder his, or their great ſeale, or priuy ſignet, according to the meaning of this Act.

The Wardens in their Courts and Juſtices of Peace, may inquire of Offenders.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, at any time hereafter, vnder his great ſeale, or priuy ſignet, doe giue licence, to any perſon or perſons, to carry or conuey any horſes, mares, or geldings into Scotland, or into any other parties beyond the Sea, or elſe doe giue authority, power, or commandement to any perſon or perſons, by warrant, vnder the Kings great ſeale, to licence any other perſon or perſons to carry, or conuey any horſes, mares, or geldings into Scotland, or into any parties beyond the Sea, that then it ſhall be lawfull, as well to all and ſingular perſon and perſons hauing ſuch licence vnder the Kings great ſeale, or priuy ſignet, as to all and euery other perſon and perſons, hauing licence in writing vnder the ſeale of ſuch perſon, or perſons to whom the King ſhall giue authority, power, or commandement in forme abouesaid, to licence other perſon or perſons to carry or conuey any horſes, mares, or geldings into Scotland, or into any parties beyond the Sea, to carry and conuey ſuch number of horſes, geldings, or mares, or any of them into Scotland, or into any of the parties beyond the Sea, as ſhall be mentioned in any ſuch licence, as is before ſpecified, any thing mentioned in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Kings licence to tranſport horſes, and licence to giue licence.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, ne any thing therein contained, ſhall in any wiſe extend to any perſon or perſons, which at any time hereafter ſhall carry or conuey any horſe, mare, or gelding into Scotland, or into any other forreine parties beyond the Sea, to ſerue the King in his warres, with the ſame horſes, mares, or geldings, any thing mentioned in this Act, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Carrying of horſes to ſerue the King in warres.

Licences ſhalbe ſhewed to the Wardens of the marches.

And to the intent the Kings Maieſty ſhall not hereafter be deceiued in the number of ſuch horſes, mares, or geldings, which hereafter ſhall be carried and conueyed into Scotland, ne that the parties which hereafter ſhall obtaine any licence by force of this Act, for the carriage or conueyance of any horſes, mares or geldings, to be carried or conueyed into Scotland: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, which hereafter ſhall be licenced, according to this Act, to carry or conuey any horſes, mares, or geldings into Scotland, ſhall before the ſame carriage, or conueyance, vpon the paine of forfeiture of the ſaid horſe, mare, or gelding, or the double value thereof: whereof the one moity to be to the King, and the other moity to him, or them, that will ſue for the ſame by ſuch like action, as before is limited in this Act, ſhew his or their ſaid licence, to one of the thrée Wardens of the thrée marches of England, to the intent that one of the ſaid Wardens ſhall cauſe the number of the ſaid horſes, mares, or geldings ſo licenced to be conueyed into Scotland, not only to be kalendred in a booke, to remaine in his owne cuſtody: but alſo to be endorſed and written on the backſide of the ſaid licence, and the ſame endorſement to be ſigned with the hand of the ſaid Warden.

Euery perſon that goeth beyond the Sea may take a horſe with him for his owne vſe. Rep. 5. Eli. 19.

Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery of the Kings Subiects, that ſhall paſſe ouer beyond the Sea, to ſhip and carry with them, horſes or geldings, for their owne occupation in their iourneyes, and not to the intent to ſell the ſame beyond the Sea: and that intent to be iudged by the oath of him, or them, that ſo will carry ouer any horſe, or gelding: which oath ſhall be taken before the cuſtomers, or their deputies, or ſearcher of euery ſuch Port, where the ſame horſe, or gelding ſhall be ſhipped, before the ſhipping thereof.

The Warden of the 5. Ports may giue certaine horſes.

Prouided alwayes, that the Warden of the fiue Ports now being, or hereafter to be, may yéerely at his pleaſure, giue ſix horſes or geldings, and no more, within one yéere, at one, or diuers times, vpon like paine as is aforeſaid, to any perſon or perſons, in the parties beyond the Seas, being in amity with the Kings Highneſſe, or his ſucceſſors: this Act or any thing therein, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The maſter of the Kings horſes.

Prouided alſo, that this Act, nor any thing therein mentioned, be in any wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall to the Maſter of the Kings horſes, now, & hereafter to be, for ſuch things and commodities, as ſhall and doe concerne his office, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Tranſporting a mare not exceeding ten ſhillings in price. 11. H. 7. 13.

Prouided alſo, that it ſhall be lawfull to any the Kings Subiects, to carry, or ſend into any parts beyond the Sea, any mares, whereof the price of any one mare ſo to be carried, doth not excéed x. s. in ſuch and like manner, as mares being of the price of ſix ſhillings eight pence haue béene, or might haue béene conueyed ouer the Seas, before the making of this Act: any thing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts heretofore made to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

Cap. VI.

How and by whom Worſted yarne is to be made in Norfolke.

WHere the greateſt, and almoſt the whole number of the poore inhabitants of the County of Norfolke, and the City of Norwich, be, and haue béene heretofore for a great time maintained, and gotten their liuing by ſpinning of the wolles growing in the ſaid County of Norfolke vpon the rock into yarne, & by all the ſaid time haue vſed to haue their acceſſe to common markets within the ſaid County and City, to buy their Wolles there to be ſpun, as is aforeſaid, of certaine perſons called Retailers of the ſame Wolles by eight peny worth, and xii. peny worth at one time or thereabout, and haue not vſed to buy, ne can buy their ſaid Wols of the Bréeders of the ſame Wols by ſuch ſmall parcels, as well for that the ſaid Bréeders of the ſaid Wols will not ſell their ſaid Wols by ſuch ſmall parcels, as alſo for that the moſt part of the ſaid poore perſons dwell far off from the ſaid Bréeders of the ſaid Wols: And foraſmuch as by an Act of Parliament made in the xxxvij. yéere of the reigne of the noble King of famous memory Henry the viij. all perſons be reſtrained vpon a great paine, to buy any Wols to ſell the ſame againe, except Merchants of the Staple, for the only prouiſion of the Staple, as in the ſaid Act among other things more at large is contained: therefore the ſaid Retailers of Wols in the ſaid County of Norfolke and city of Norwich, which heretofore haue vſed to buy Wols, and to ſell them againe to the ſaid poore perſons in ouert markets, as is aforeſaid, haue ſince the making of the ſaid ſtatute in eſchewing the danger and paine prouided by the ſame, ceaſed and left to buy the ſaid Wols, for the reliefe of the ſaid poore perſons: By reaſon whereof, the ſame poore perſons inhabiting within the ſaid county of Norfolk and city of Norwich, that hath heretofore béen ſpinners, and maintained by ſpinning of the ſaid Wols, be now vnoccupied and vnſet a worke, and a great number of them inforced to beg for lacke of worke, to the vtter decay and ruine of the poore people of the ſaid county and city, and the inhabitants thereof, vnleſſe ſome remedy be therein prouided. In conſideration whereof, it may pleaſe the Kings moſt royall Maieſty, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all and euery perſon and perſons dwelling and inhabiting within the ſaid county of Norfolk and city of Norwich, or in either of them, by his, or themſelues, or by his, or their factors, ſeruant or ſeruants, may lawfully from henceforth, without paine, forfeiture, danger, or breach of any law, or ordinance, to buy and bargaine Wools, and take and make prouiſion to buy and bargaine Wools growing, or that ſhall grow only within the ſaid county of Norfolk, in as large and like manner and forme, as the ſame inhabitants within the ſaid county and city might and did vſe to doe, before the making of the ſaid Act of Parliament, and as the ſaid Act of Parliament had neuer beene had or made, ſo that the ſame perſon and perſons ſo buying or bargaining, or making promiſe to buy or bargaine the ſaid Wools, doe ſell or retaile the ſame againe in the common market, or other open place within the ſaid county of Norfolk, or city of Norwich, to any perſon and perſons at their pleaſure and liberty that will buy the ſame, or any parcell thereof, dwelling and inhabiting within the ſaid county and city of Norwich, or any of them, that ſhall or will ſpin the ſame within the ſaid county of Norfolke, and the city of Norwich, or any of them: the ſaid former Act, or any article, clauſe or ſentence therein contained, or any other Act or Acts, Law, or ordinance heretofore made to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

By the Statute of 37. H. 8. 15. All perſons reſtrained to buy Wooll to ſell againe, except, &c.

Euery perſon dwelling in Norwich or Norfolke, may buy and ſell againe Norfolk wooll in open market, notwithſtanding the Stat. of 37. H. 8. 15.

And where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the three and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord the King, it was amongſt other things enacted thus, as enſueth or like in effect, that is to ſay, That no perſon or perſons from henceforth, ſhould buy, ne cauſe to be bought within the ſaid City of Norwich, or County of Norfolke, any yarne ſpun of the rocke, called woolſted yarne, the which ſhould thenafter that be ſpun within the ſaid County or City, but ſuch perſon or perſons being weauers of Woolſted, Ruſſels, Stamine, Saies, and ſuch other like clothes within the ſaid city or County, that ſhould weaue or worke, or cauſe to be wouen or wrought in Woolſted, Stamine, Ruſſels, Sayes, and ſuch other like clothes, the ſaid yarne ſo bought or cauſed to bee bought within the ſaid city or County, in the city of Norwich, or in ſome market Towne within the ſaid County: vpon the paine and forfeiture, for euery pound weight of the ſaid yarne called woolſted yarne, ſo bought within the ſaid County or city, and not wouen or wrought, as is aforeſaid within the ſaid city or county, forty ſhillings, the one halfe thereof to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe thereof to be to him or them that ſhould then after that ſue for the ſame by bill, information, action of debt, or otherwiſe in any court of Record, in which ſaid action, bill, or information, no eſſoine, wager of law, forreine plea, or protection ſhould be allowed.

St. 33. H. 8. 16.

Who may buy woolſted yarne ſpun in Norw. or Norfolke, and who not.

And where it is alſo ordeined in the ſaid Act, that if any perſon or perſons, did after the firſt day of Aprill then next after the ſaid act enſuing, ſhip, or carry or conuey, or cauſe to be ſhipped, to carry, or conuey into the parties beyond the ſea, or did carry or conuey into the parts beyond the ſea, any yarne called Woolſted yarne not made, or wrought in cloth, ſo that ſuch yarne were ſpun within this Realme, that then euery perſon and perſons ſo ſhipping, conueying, and carrying, or cauſing ſuch yarne ſo to be ſhipped, carried and conueyed, ſhould forfeit for euery pound of woolſted yarne ſo ſhipped, conueyed, or carried, forty ſhillings, the one halfe thereof to be to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other halfe thereof to him or them that ſhould ſue for the ſame by bill, information, or action of debt, in any of the Kings courts of Record, as in the ſaid Act, the ſame, or the like in effect more plainly doeth and may appeare. And foraſmuch as the ſaid act was made and ordeined to continue and endure vntill the Parliament then after that next enſuing, and hath beene ſithence by other generall Acts continued vntill this preſent Parliament, and was not by any of the ſaid Acts ordeined to continue for euer: It may now pleaſe the Kings moſt excellent Maieſty, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that all the afore recited Act for yarne, with all the words, forfeitures, paines, and ſentences before recited, as the ſame before recited and declared, may from henceforth be enacted to continue, and to be taken for an Act to continue for euer, to all intents and purpoſes, according to the ſaid words, ſentences, and the purport thereof before in this Act recited.

No Woolſted yarne not made into cloth ſhall be tranſported.

The ſtatute of 33. H. 8. 16. rehearſed and made perpetuall.

Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, being a Hatmaker, or Hatmakers, dwelling within the ſaid city of Norwith, to buy ſuch of the ſaid Woolſted yarne, as is called and knowne by the name of Middle vſſe yarne as they and euery of them haue heretofore done and vſed to doe, ſo that the ſame Middle vſſe yarne ſo bought by the ſaid Hatmakers, or Hatmaker, be wrought in hats, or employed to hatmaking within the ſaid city, any thing before recited to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. Stat. 5. Ed. 6. 7.

Hatmakers may buy Middle vſſe yarne.

CAP. VII.

The death of the King ſhall not diſcontinue any ſuit, &c.

WHere the Kings Subiects heretofore haue to their great coſts, charges and expenſes, proſecuted and ſued, diuers and ſundry actions, as well reall and perſonall, as all other actions mixt or otherwiſe, in the Kings Maieſties courts, and other courts of Record, not onely by writs, but alſo by plaint or bils, which actions, ſuits, bils and plaints, by the death, or demiſe of the Kings of this Realme, haue béene diſcontinued, and the parties in euery ſuch actions, ſuits, bils and plaints, thereby haue béene put without day, whereby the demandants, plaintifes and actors in euery ſuch action and ſuit, were compelled and driuen by the order of the Lawes of this Realme, for their further remedy, to commence and begin againe his or their ſaid actions, ſuits, or plaint, or elſe to proſecute & ſue reſummons, attachnents, Scire facias, or ſuch other like proceſſe to reuiue his or their ſaid actions, ſuits or plaints, which was not only to their great coſts, charges, expences, hinderances and delay, of their cauſes and ſuits, but alſo a great let and hinderance of iuſtice: for reformation whereof, be it ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords and commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from henceforth, by the death or demiſe of the Kings Maieſty that now is. (whoſe life Almighty God long preſerue, kéepe and maintaine in his moſt royall eſtate) nor by the death or demiſe of any that hereafter ſhall be King of this Realme, any action, ſuit, bill or plaint, now or that hereafter ſhall depend betwéene party and party in any of the courts aforeſaid ſhall not in any wiſe be [a] diſcontinued, or put without day. But that the proceſſe, plées, demurs and continuances in euery action, actions, ſuits, bils or plaints, which now or that hereafter ſhall depend, ſhall ſtand good and effectuall, and be [b] proſecuted and ſued forth, in ſuch manner and forme, and in the ſame eſtate, condition and order, as if the ſame King had liued, or continued in full life, the death or demiſe hereafter of any King of this Realme notwithſtanding. And that all, and all manner of iudiciall proceſſe that hereafter ſhall be had, or purſued in the time of the raigne of any other King, than reigned at the time of the purſuit of the originall, or other former proces, ſhall be made in the name of the King that for the time ſhall raigne, and be King of this Realme, and that variance touching the ſame proces betwéene the names of the Kings, ſhal not be in any wiſe materiall, as concerning any default to be alleaged, or obiected therefore.

The death of the King ſhall not diſcontinue any ſuit.

Variance betweene the originall and iudiciall proceſſe ſhall not be preiudiciall.

And alſo be it further eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Aſſiſe of Nouell diſſeiſin, Aſſiſe of Mortdanceſtor, Iuris vtrum, and attaint, which at any time hereafter ſhall be arraigned, commenced, or ſued before any of the Kings Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, ſhall not from henceforth be diſcontinued, or put without day, by reaſon of death, new commiſſion, aſſociation, or not comming of the ſame Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, or any of them, but ſhall ſtand good and effectuall in the Law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, the death, new commiſſion, aſſociation, or not comming of the ſame Iuſtices, or any of them, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Suits not diſcontinued by death, new commiſſion or aſſociation or not comming of Iuſtices.

And ouer that be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That albeit any demandant or plaintiffe in any manner of action, bill, or ſuit, ſhall fortune to be made or created Duke, Archbiſhop, Marques, Earle, Vicount, Baron, Biſhop, Knight, Iuſtice of one Bench or of the other, or Sergeant at the law, depending the ſame action, bill, or ſuit, yet that notwithſtanding, that no writ, action, or ſuit, ſhall for ſuch cauſe in any wiſe be [c] abatable or abated, but ſhall remaine in like force, goodneſſe, and ſtrength, as the ſame was before: any law, or vſage, to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Preferment of the plaintife to a name of dignity.

And alſo be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That albeit any perſon or perſons, being Iuſtice of Aſſiſe, Iuſtice of Gaole deliuerie, or Iuſtice of Peace within any of the Kings Dominions, or being in any other of the Kings commiſſions whatſoeuer, ſhall fortune to be made or created Duke, Archbiſhop, Marques, Earle, Vicount, Baron, Biſhop, Knight, Iuſtice of the one Bench or of the other, or Sergeant at law, or Sheriffe, yet that notwithſtanding, he and they ſhall remaine [d] Iuſtice and Commiſſioner, and haue full power and authority to execute the ſame, in like manner and forme, as he or they might, or ought to haue done before the ſame.

Preferment of a Iuſt. or Commiſſioner to a name of dignity.

And be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in all caſes, where any perſon or perſons heretofore haue béene, or hereafter ſhall be found guilty of any manner of treaſon, murder, manſlaughter, rape, or other felony whatſoeuer, for the which, iudgement of death ſhould, or may enſue, and ſhal be repriued to priſon without iudgement at that time giuen againſt him, her or them ſo found guilty, that thoſe perſons that at any time[e] hereafter ſhal by the Kings Letters Patents be aſſigned Iuſtices to deliuer the Gaole, where any ſuch perſon or perſons, found guilty ſhall remaine, ſhal haue full power and authority to giue iudgement of death againſt ſuch perſon ſo found guilty, and repriued, as the ſame Iuſtices (before whom ſuch perſon or perſons was or were found guilty) might haue done, if their commiſſion of Gaole deliuery had remained, and continued in full force and ſtrength.

New Iuſt. may giue iudgement of a priſoner found guilty of felony and repriued.

And ouer that, that no manner of proceſſe, or ſuit made, ſued, or had before any Iuſtices of Aſſiſe Gaole deliuery, Oyer and terminer (Iuſtices of Peace) or other of the Kings Commiſſioners, ſhall, [f] ne in any wiſe be diſcontinued, by the making and publiſhing of any new commiſſion, or aſſociation, or by altering of the names of the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, Gaole deliuery, Oyer and terminer (Iuſtices of Peace) or other the Kings Commiſſioners, but that the new Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, Gaole deliuery, and of the peace, and other Commiſſioners may procéed in euery behalfe, as if the old Commiſſions, and Iuſtices, and Commiſſioners had ſtill remained and continued not altered. St. 1. M. 8.

No ſuit before Iuſt. ſhall be diſcontinued by a new Commiſſion. St. 11. H. 6. 6. 2 & 3. P. & M. 18.

To which Letters Patents the Sta. doth not extend.

any time heretofore haue beene adnihilated, determined, or made void by iudgement, by authority of Parliament or decree: nor to any Patent to be made to any perſon or perſons for terme of yeeres, or during the minority of an heire, of, or in any Manors, Lands, or tenements, whereof any trauers hereafter ſhall be tendred within three moneths after any Office found and certified into any of the Kings courts of Record: ne to any leaſes or grants, of any manors, lands, or tenements, of our ſaid Soueraigne Lords, hereafter to be made vnder any of the Seales of the courts aforeſaid, contrary to the limitation, ordinance, prouiſion, eſtabliſhment, and authority of the ſame courts: any thing in this Act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted, that this act, nor any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to make any Letters patents, of any office, or offices, to be of any other effect, force, or ſtrength, than the ſame Letters Patents were, or ſhould haue beene before the making of this Act.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular ſuch Patentees, grantees, donees, as any time hereafter during the life of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord (which Almighty God long preſerue) ſhall fortune to haue, or obtaine any caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, tithes, pentions, portions, or other hereditaments, of the gift, grant, ſale, or exchange of the Kings Maieſty, or of the only gift of the Kings Maieſty, of his moſt liberall diſpoſition, and not ſold, which at the day of the date of the Letters Patents thereof made, ſhall be of more, or better yeerely value to the King in yeerely rent and ferme, than ſhall be conteined, mentioned, and ſpecified in any ſuch Letters Patents, and particulars thereof made by the particular Surueyour, or Surueyours thereof, and in ſuch bill, or bills, as ſhall be ſigned and ſealed with the hand or hands of the patentee or patentees thereof to be exhibited to the Kings Maieſty, or his Officer or Officers, within whoſe ſuruey the ſaid manors, lands, and tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any part thereof ſhall be, or within any of them, which bill ſhall be ſigned, ſealed, had, and made, as is aforeſaid, before any bill ſhall be thereof ſigned by the Kings Maieſty: that then euery of the ſaid patentees, grantees, and donees, their heires, executors, or adminiſtrators, within one yeere next after due proofe, and decree thereof made and had in the Court, within whoſe ſuruey the ſame caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any parcell thereof, before the ſaid gifts and grants were, ſhall content and pay to the King for the ſame ouerplus, and more value of the ſame manors, lands, tenements, tithes, pentions, portions, and other hereditaments to him ſold or exchanged, after ſuch rate as other lands, and tenements, were before to him ſold or exchanged, and for the ouerplus and more value of ſuch lands, and tenements as ſhall happen to be giuen by the Kings Maieſty, and not ſold, as is aboueſaid, the ſaid Patentee, his Heires, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, ſhall content and pay to the King, after the rate of twenty yeeres purchaſe, ſo that the ſame proofe and decree be had and made in manner and forme aboueſaid, within ten yeeres next after the date of the ſaid Letters Patents. Stat. 27. H. 8. 27. 7. Ed. 6. 3.

Recompence to the King for the ouerplus of that which ſhall not be conteined in the Letters Patents and particular.

Cap. IX.

Certaine Churches within Yorke vnited and drawne into a fewer number.

WHere in the ancient City of Yorke and Suburbs of the ſame, there are many Pariſh Churches, which heretofore the ſame being well inhabited and repleniſhed with people, were good and honeſt liuings for learned Incumbents, by reaſon of the priuy tithes of the rich Merchants, and of the offerings of a great multitude, which liuings be now ſo much decayed by the ruine and decay of the ſaid City, and of the trade of merchandiſe there, that the reuenues and profits of diuers of the ſame benefices are at this preſent not aboue the cleere yeerely value of ſix and twenty ſhillings and eight pence, ſo that a great ſort of them are not a competent and honeſt liuing for a good curate: yea, and no perſon will take the cure, but that of neceſſity there is ſome chantery Prieſt, or elſe ſome late religious perſon being a Stipendary taken and appointed to the ſaid cure and benefice, which for the moſt part are vnlearned, and very ignorant perſons, not able to doe any part of their duties: By reaſon whereof the ſaid city is not only repleniſhed with blind guides and Paſtors, but alſo the people much kept in ignorance, as well of their duties towards God as alſo towards the Kings Maieſty and the common wealth of this Realme, and to the great danger of their ſoules: In conſideration whereof, and for the better reliefe and order of the ſaid city, it may pleaſe the Kings Maieſty, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from henceforth it ſhall be lawfull to the Maior and Recorder of the ſaid city, and to the ordinary, or his deputy, and ſix Iuſtices of Peace in the ſaid city, to vnite and knit together the ſaid Pariſhes into fewer number, that is to wit, ſo many of the ſaid Pariſhes into one Pariſh, as to them ſhall be thought conuenient to be a liuing for one honeſt Incumbent, ſo the cleere yeerely value of one Pariſh exceed not xx. li. by yeere, and ſo to proceed thorow the ſaid City and Suburbes of the ſame.

It ſhall be lawfull to the Maior of Yorke, &c. to vnite ſo many of the Pariſhes in Yorke as to them ſhall ſeeme conuenient.

Pulling downe of Churches and beſtowing them.

Diſpoſing of the patronage.

And that it ſhall be lawfull for the ſaid Maior, Recorder, and Aldermen to pull downe the Churches, which they ſhall thinke ſuperfluous in the ſaid City and Suburbs of the ſame, and to beſtow the ſame toward the reparations, and enlargement of the other Churches, of the bridges in the ſaid City, and to the reliefe of the poore people. And further, that the ſaid Maior, Recorder, Ordinary, or his deputy, and ſix Iuſtices of Peace being Aldermen, ſhall allot and appoint the preſentment and patronage of the Church ſo vnited to the patrons of all the Churches, ſo knit in one Pariſh, that they may make their preſentments by turne, euery one according to their quantity of his former patronage.

A prouiſion for the incumbents of the Churches pulled downe.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all ſuch incumbents of the Churches aforeſaid, that ſhall be put downe by vertue of this Act, ſhall haue the yeerely value of their benefices after the rate they doe pay Tenthes during their liues, ſo they will doe ſeruice therefore in the Church called the Pariſh Church, according to their former duties. And if they refuſe to ſerue, then they only during their liues to haue the third part of the value, as is aforeſaid, and to be payed at the hands of the Incumbent of the Pariſh Church to be appointed.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Incumbents of euery ſuch Church, which by vertue of this Act ſhall be made and ordeined for the Pariſh Church, and whereunto any other Pariſh, or Pariſhes ſhall be vnited, ſhall after the vnion thereof, yeerely pay the Tenthes to be due for the ſaime to the Kings Maieſtie, his heires and ſucceſſors of the ſame Church, and of all other Churches thereunto vnited and annexed. And the ſaid Incumbents of the pariſh Church ſo vnited, to haue his allowance of the Incumbents of the Churches ſo vnited thereunto, during their ſeuerall liues, according to the rate and portion of the Churches ſo vnited, as ſhall be aſſigned by the aboueſaid perſons, hauing authority by this Act to vnite the ſame. And the ſucceſſor and ſucceſſors of euery ſuch Incumbent of euery ſuch Church, as ſhall be made the Pariſh Church, and whereunto any Church or Pariſh ſhall be vnited by force of this Act, ſhall pay or compound for the firſt fruits thereof at euery auoydance before his induction to the ſame, according to ſuch yeerely value, as ſuch Church, or Churches, as ſhall be made a Pariſh Church, and whereunto any Church, or Churches, Pariſh or Pariſhes ſhall be vnited by force of this Act, ſhall be of at the time of the vnion thereof, and as if it had beene of ſuch like yeerely values at the time of making of the Statute for firſt Fruits and Tenthes, and of no greater value: Any Ordinance, Statute, or Law, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

By whom the Tenth to the King ſhall be payed, and how vnited.

Who ſhall pay the firſt fruits, and according to what value.

Cap: X:

Exigents and Proclamations ſhall be awarded out of the Kings Bench and Common place, againſt any perſon dwelling in Wales or Cheſter.

Where in the high Court of Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſeuen and twentieth yeere of the moſt proſperous raigne of the late famous King Henry the eight, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons aſſembled in the ſaid high Court of Parliament: It was enacted and eſtabliſhed by authority of the ſame Parliament, that his Highneſſe Dominion and Principality of Wales, and all Manors, Lands, Tenements, and other Dominions within the ſaid Dominion and Principality of Wales, ſhould be deuided into twelue Shires or Counties, that is to ſay, the Shires or Counties of Glamorgan, Radnor, Brecknok, Kaermarthen, Pembroke, Cardigan, Merioneth, Mongomery, Flint, Caernaruan, Angleſey, and Denbigh, in euery of which ſaid Counties and Shires, amongſt the Officers yeerely appointed, it was then ordeined that there ſhould be diſtinct and ſeuerall Shiriffes yeerely: and alſo where the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, and of the City of Cheſter, be ancient and ſeuerall Counties Palatine of themſelues, in all which ſaid Counties, the Kings writ hath not, nor yet doth run: So that the Proclamation awarded vpon any Exigent againſt any perſon or perſons in any action, wherein proceſſe of outlawry doth lie, according to the Statute made in the ſixth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late King, cannot be directed vnto the Sheriffe or Sheriffes of any of the ſaid Shires or Counties, but vnto the Sheriffe of the County next adioyning: So that the party dwelling in any of the ſaid Shires or Counties, againſt whom any ſuch exigent and Proclamation ſhall be ſo awarded, ſhall not, nor can haue any knowledge of the ſame ſuit or proceſſe, by reaſon whereof, many of the perſons inhabiting in the ſaid Shires and Counties, without knowledge or cauſe of ſuit, haue beene wrongfully and vniuſtly outlawed to their vtter vndoing.

27.H.8.26.

St.6.H.8.4.

Be it therefore, and for diuers other good conſiderations, by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame enacted, ordained and eſtabliſhed, that if and whenſoeuer any writ of Exigent, at any time after the firſt day of Aprill next comming ſhall be awarded at the ſuit of the King, or of any other perſon or perſons, plaintiffe or plaintiffes, in any action or ſuit, in any of the Courts of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, commonly called the Kings Bench and the Common place, againſt any perſon or perſons, dwelling in any of the foreſaid Counties in Wales, or in the ſaid Counties Palatine of Cheſter or the City of Cheſter, or in any of them: that then immediatly vpon the awarding of euery ſuch exigent,

A proclamation vpon an exigent awarded againſt any perſon dwelling in Wales, the County or City of Cheſter.

exigent, the Iuſtice or Iuſtices before whom any ſuch writ of exigent vpon ſuch ſuit, or action ſhall be ſued, ſhall haue full power and authority to award one writ of Proclamation according to the tenor and effect of Proclamations awarded vpon exigents, directed out of any of the ſaid Courts in London, againſt any perſon dwelling in any other Shire, where the Kings Writ is currant, according to the order and forme of the ſaid Statute made in the ſixth yeere of the ſaid late King, to be directed to ſuch of the aforeſaid Sheriffes of any of the aforeſaid Counties in Wales, and of the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, and of the City of Cheſter for the time being, where it ſhall happen the ſaid defendant, againſt whom any ſuch action ſhall be ſued as is aforeſaid to be dwelling. And that euery ſuch Writ of Proclamation ſhall haue the ſame teſte, and day of returne, as the exigents, whereupon euery ſuch writ of Proclamation ſhall be awarded, ſhall haue: And that euery ſuch Sheriffe to whom any ſuch writ of Proclamation ſhall be directed, ſhal make proclamation of the ſaid writ of Proclamation, according to the tenor of the ſame, and ſhall make true returne of the ſame in ſuch Court, and before ſuch Iuſtices, as the tenor of the ſame Writ ſhall require and demand. And that all outlaries hereafter to be promulged, or pronounced againſt any perſon or perſons vpon any ſuch exigent, or exigents, awarded againſt any perſon or perſons, dwelling in any of the ſaid Counties of Wales, and the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, and of the City of Cheſter, and no writ of Proclamation awarded, in forme aboue ſaid, to the Sheriffe or Sheriffes of the County, where the party defendant ſhall be as is aboueſaid dwelling, or not returned to be cleerely void and of none effect nor force in the Law.

Euery Sheriffe in Wales and of Cheſhire and Cheſter ſhall haue deputies in the Kings bench and common place.

23. H.6.10.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Sheriffe and Sheriffes of euery of the ſaid Counties of Wales, and of the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, and of the City of Cheſter aforeſaid, ſhall haue in euery of the Courts of the Kings Bench and of the Common place, one ſufficient Deputy at the leaſt, to receiue all writs directed to ſuch the Sheriffe or Sheriffes, for whom the ſame Deputy or Deputies ſhalbe appointed, in like manner and forme, and vpon like paines as by the former Statutes and Lawes of this Realme, other Sheriffes of other Shires or Counties within this Realme of England be bounden to haue in either of the ſame Courts. And that all writs of Proclamation aforeſaid, ſhall be deliuered vnto euery ſuch Deputy of Record in the ſame Courts, and alſo like fees ſhall be paid for making euery ſuch writ of Proclamation, and for enrolling the ſame of Record, as is limited in the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid ſixth yeere of the raigne of our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight.

To whom proces againſt any perſon outlawed ſhall be directed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon dwelling in any of the ſaid Counties of Wales, after the aforeſaid firſt day of Aprill, ſhall be outlawed in any ſuit or action aforeſaid, that then writs of ſpeciall Capias vt legatū. ſingle Capias vt legatū. non moleſtand. And all other proceſſe, for or againſt any perſon outlawed, ſhall and may from thenceforth be directed to the Sheriffe of any of the ſaid Counties in Wales, as immediate Officers to the Kings ſaid Courts of the Kings Bench, or Common place in that behalfe: and that euery ſuch writs may be deliuered of Record to the Deputy of ſuch of the ſaid Sheriffes, to whom any ſuch writ or proceſſe ſhall be directed, and that euery ſuch Sheriffe ſhall make execution and returne of euery ſuch writ or proceſſe to him directed, vpon like paine and penalty as is aboue limited.

The Sheriffes forf. for not returning of a writ of Proclamation.

And be it further enacted and eſtabliſhed, that if any ſuch writ or writs of Proclamation hereafter directed to any of the Sheriffes of any of the ſaid Shires in Wales or Counties Palatine of Cheſter, or of the City of Cheſter, be deliuered vnto any of the ſaid Sheriffes for the time being, or to his or their Deputy, in manner and forme aforeſaid: and the ſame Sheriffe or Sheriffes doe not make true returne of euery ſuch writ and writs of Proclamation, into ſuch Court and Courts out of which the ſaid writ or writs of Proclamation ſhall be awarded: that for euery ſuch fault of non returne, euery ſuch Sheriffe for the time being ſhall loſe and forfeit v.li. the one halfe thereof ſhall be to our Soueraigne Lord the King his heires and ſucceſſors, the other halfe to any ſuch perſon or perſons as will ſue for the ſame in an action of debt grounded vpon this act, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, wherein no eſſoine, protection, or wager of Law ſhall be allowed or admitted.

A reſeruation of other liberties in Wales, &c.

Prouided alwayes, this Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend, or be preiudiciall to the ſame Counties of Wales, or to the ſaid Counties Palatine of Cheſter or of the City of Cheſter, for or concerning ſuch liberties, franchiſes or priuileges, as belong to them or any of them, or to any Miniſters or Officers of them or any of them, otherwiſe or in any other manner, than by the true meaning of this Act is before prouided and declared: any thing in this Act mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Liberties of the L. Merchers reſerued.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act ne any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe be preiudiciall or hurtfull to any Lord Marcher in Wales, but that they and euery of them, and their heires, and the heires of euery of them ſhall and may haue like liberty, intereſt and preeminence, as they and euery of them, had, might, or ought to haue had before the making of this Act, and as though this Act had neuer beene had nor made: any thing in this Act mentioned to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. 5. Ed.6.26.

Cap. XI.

A repeale of the Statute of 28. H.8.17. which gaue authority to the King after his age of foure and twenty yeeres, to repeale by his Letters Patents all former Statutes made during his minority. An authority giuen to the ſaid King Edward the ſixth, and to euery Heire of the late King Henry the eight, and to euery perſon to whom the Crowne ſhall deſcend, remaine or come by appointment of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, to repeale all Statutes made before his full age of foure and twenty yeeres, ſauing this Statute, and all Pardons granted by Parliament. So that the ſaid repeale containe all ſuch Acts as ſhall be repealed, and three ſeuerall dayes be openly proclaimed in the Chancery in Terme time, &c. and once in euery County at the Aſſiſes. EXP.

Cap. XII.

Statutes concerning Treaſons, &c. repealed.

NOthing being more godly, more ſure, more to be wiſhed and deſired betwixt a Prince, the ſupreme head and ruler, and the ſubiects, whoſe Gouernor and head he is, than on the Princes part, great clemencie and indulgencie, and rather too much forgiueneſſe and remiſſion of his royall power and iuſt puniſhment, than exact ſeuerity and iuſtice to be ſhewed: and on the Subiects behalfe, that they ſhould obey rather for loue, and for the neceſſity and loue of a King and Prince, than for feare of his ſtreight and ſeuere Lawes: yet ſuch times at ſome time come in the Common wealth, that it is neceſſary and expedient for the repreſſing of the inſolencie and unrulineſſe of men, and for the foreſeeing and prouiding of remedies againſt rebellion, inſurrection, or ſuch miſchiefes (as God ſometime with vs diſpleaſed for our puniſhment doth inflict and lay vpon vs, or the Deuill at Gods permiſſion to aſſay the good and Gods elect, doth ſowe and ſet among vs) the which almighty God, with his helpe and mans policie, hath alwayes beene content and pleaſed to haue ſtayed, that ſharper lawes, as a harder bridle ſhould be made, to ſtay thoſe men and facts, that might elſe be occaſion, cauſe and authors of further inconuenience, the which thing cauſed the Prince of moſt famous memory, King Henry the eight, father to our ſaid Soueraigne the King, and other his Highneſſe Progenitors, with the aſſent of the Nobles and Commons, at diuers Parliaments in their ſeuerall times holden, to make and enact certaine Lawes and ſtatutes, which might ſeeme and appeare to men of exterior Realmes, and many of the Kings Maieſties ſubiects very ſtreight, ſore, extreme, and terrible, although they were then, when they were made, not without great conſideration and policie, moued and eſtabliſhed, and for the time, to the auoidance of further inconuenience, very expedient and neceſſary. But as in tempeſt or Winter, one courſe and garment is conuenient, in calme or warme weather, a more liberall race, or lighter garment both may, and ought to be followed and vſed: ſo wee haue ſeene diuers ſtreight and ſore Lawes made in one Parliament, (the time ſo requiring) in a more calme and quiet reigne of another Prince, by the like authority and Parliament repealed and taken away. The which moſt high clemency and royall example of his Maieſties moſt noble Progenitors, the Kings Highneſſe of his tender and godly nature, moſt giuen to mercie and loue of his Subiects, willing to follow, and perceiuing the hearty and ſincere loue, that his moſt louing ſubiects, both the Lords and Commons doe beare vnto his Highneſſe, now in this his Maieſties tender age, willing alſo to gratifie the ſame therefore, and minding further to prouoke his ſaid Subiects with indulgencie and clemencie, ſhewed on his Highneſſe behalfe, to more loue and kindneſſe toward his Maieſty (if it may be) and vpon truſt that they will not abuſe the ſame, but rather bee encouraged thereby more faithfully, and with more diligence (if it may be) and care for his Maieſty, to ſerue his Highneſſe now in this his tender age, is contented and pleaſed, that the ſeuerity of certaine Lawes here following be mitigated and remitted.

Sometimes ſharp and ſometimes milder lawes be made according to the peoples inclination.

Be it therefore ordeined and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from henceforth, no act, deed, or offence, being by act of Parliament or ſtatute made treaſon, or petit treaſon, by words, writing, ciphring, deeds, or otherwiſe whatſoeuer, ſhal be taken, had, deemed and adiudged to be high treaſon, or petit treaſon, but only ſuch as be treaſon or petit treaſon, in or by the Act of Parliament, or ſtatute made in the xxv. yeere of the reigne of the moſt noble King of famous memory King Edward the third, touching, or concerning treaſon, or the declarations of treaſons: and ſuch offences as hereafter ſhall by this preſent act be expreſſed and declared to be treaſon or petit treaſon, and none other, nor that any paines of death, penalty or forfeiture in any wiſe enſue, or be to any of the Offenders for the doing or committing any treaſon, or petit treaſon, other than ſuch as be in the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid xxv. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid King Edward the third, or by this preſent ſtatute ordeined and prouided: any act or acts of Parliament, ſtatute or ſtatutes, had, or made at any time heretofore or after the ſaid xxv. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Edward the third, or any other declaration or matter, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

No offence made treaſon by any ſtatute ſhalbe ſo adiudged but ſuch as were made treaſon, by the ſtatute of 25. Ed.3.2. St.1.H.4.10. 1.M.1.

And alſo be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all Acts of Parliament and ſtatutes, touching, mentioning, or in any wiſe concerning religion or opinions, that is to ſay, as well the ſtatute made in the fifth yeere of the raigne of the Kings noble progenitor King Richard the ſecond: and the Statute made in the ſecond yeere of the reigne of King Henry the fifth: and the ſtatute alſo made in the xxv. yeere of the raigne of King Henry the eight, concerning puniſhment and reformation of heretikes and lollards, and euery prouiſion therein conteined: and the ſtatute made for the aboliſhment of diuerſity of opinions, in certaine articles concerning Chriſtian Religion, commonly called the vj. articles, made in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the xxviij. day of April, in the xxxj. yeere of the raigne of the moſt noble and victorious Prince of moſt famous memory King Henry the eight, father to our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord the King that now is: and alſo the act of Parliament and ſtatute made in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter, the ſixteenth day of Ianuary, in the three and thirtieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, and after that proroged vnto the two and twentieth day of Ianuary, in the foure and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, touching, mentioning, or in any wiſe concerning bookes of the old and new Teſtament in Engliſh, and the printing, vttering, ſelling, giuing, or deliuering of bookes, or writings, and retaining of Engliſh bookes or writings, and reading, preaching, teaching, or expounding of Scripture, or in any wiſe touching, mentioning, or concerning any of the ſame matters. And alſo one other ſtatute made in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the fiue and thirtieth yeere of the raigne of the late King Henry the eight, concerning the qualification of the Statute of ſix Articles, and all and euery other Act or Acts of Parliament concerning doctrine, or matters of religion, and all and euerie branch, article, ſentence, and matter, pains and forfeitures conteined, mentioned, or in any wiſe declared in any of the ſame acts of Parliament, or eſtatutes, ſhal from henceforth be repealed, and vtterly void and of none effect.

All ſtatutes made ſithence the firſt yeere of H.8. to make any thing felony repealed. St.1.M.1.

And be it further ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all offences made felony by any act or acts of Parliament, ſtatute, or ſtatutes, made ſithence the xxiij. day of Aprill, in the firſt yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, not being felony before, and alſo, all and euery the braunches and articles mentioned, or in any wiſe declared, in any of the ſame ſtatutes, concerning the making of any offence or offences to be felony, not being felony before: and all paines and forfeitures, concerning the ſame, or any of them, ſhall from henceforth be repealed and vtterly void and of none effect.

A repeale of the St. of 31.H.8.8. and 34.H.8.23. touching the authority of the Kings proclamations.

And be it alſo ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that one Act made in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the one and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, that proclamations made by the Kings Highneſſe, by the aduice of his honourable Councell, ſhould be obeyed and kept, as though they were made by authority of a Parliament: and alſo one other act made in the Parliament holden in the xxxiij. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, for the due execution of the ſaid Proclamations: and alſo all and euery branch, article, and matter in the ſame Statutes, and euery of them mentioned or declared, ſhall from henceforth be repealed, and vtterly void and of none effect.

The penalty for affirming by words, that the King is not ſupreme head of the Church, or that any other is, or to compaſſe to depoſe him, or to affirme that he ought not to be King. Rep. 1, & 2. P.& M. 8. for ſo much as concernes the ſupremacie.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, at any time after the firſt day of March next comming, by open preaching, expreſſe words, or ſayings, doe affirme, or ſet forth, that the King, his heires or ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme for the time being, is not, or ought not to be ſupreme head in earth of the Church of England and Ireland, or any of them, immediatly vnder God, or that the Biſhop of Rome, or any other perſon or perſons, other than the King of England for the time being, is, or ought to be by the Lawes of God, ſupreme head of the ſame Churches, or of any of them, or that the King, his heires or ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme, is not, or ought not to be King of England, France and Ireland, or of any of them: or after the ſaid firſt day of March, doe compaſſe, or imagine by open preaching, expreſſe words or ſayings, to depoſe or depriue the King, his heires, or ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme, from his, or their royall eſtate, or titles, to, or of the Realmes aforeſaid, or doe openly publiſh, or ſay by expreſſe words or ſayings, that any other perſon or perſons, other than the King, his heires or ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme, of right ought to be Kings of the Realmes aforeſaid, or of any of them, or to haue and enioy the ſame, or any of them: that then euery ſuch Offendor being thereof duely conuicted, or attainted by the Lawes of this Realme, their aidors, comforters, abbettors, procurors, and counſailors, for his or their ſuch firſt offence, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the King, all his and their goods, and cattels, and alſo ſhall haue and ſuffer impriſonment, of his and their bodies, at the Kings will and pleaſure. And if any perſon being once conuicted or attainted of any of the ſaid offences, ſhall after his conuiction or attaindor eftſoones commit, or perpetrate any of the offences before mentioned, other than ſuch as be expreſſed in the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid xxv. yeere of King Edward the third, and ſhall be thereof duely conuicted and attainted by the Lawes of this Realme: then euery ſuch Offender, their Aiders, Comforters, Abbettors, Procurers, and Counſellers, for his, or their ſaid ſecond offence or offences, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the King, the whole iſſues and profits of all his and their lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, benefices, prebends, and other ſpirituall promotions, for terme of life, of ſuch Offender or Offendors: and ſhall alſo loſe and forfeit to the King all his and their goods and chattels, and alſo ſuffer, during his and their liues, perpetuall impriſonment of his and their bodies. And if any perſon being two times hereafter conuicted, or attainted of any of the ſame offences, ſhall after his ſaid ſecond conuiction or attainder, eftſones commit or perpetrate againe any of the ſaid offences, and be thereof duly conuicted or attainted by the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme: that then euery ſuch third offence, or offences, ſhall be deemed and adiudged high treaſon, and the Offender or Offenders, their Aiders, Comforters, Abbettors, Procurors, and Counſellers, being therein conuicted or attainted, according to the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, ſhall be deemed and adiudged high Traitors, and ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and loſe and forfeit all their goods and chattels, lands and tenements, to the King, as in caſes of high treaſon.

The puniſhment for the third offence, being twice conuicted.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, at any time after the ſaid firſt day of March next comming, by writing, printing, ouert deed, or Act, doe affirme or ſet forth, that the King of this Realme for the time being, is not, or ought not to be ſupreme head in earth of the Church of England and Ireland, or of any of them, immediately vnder God: or ſhall by writing, printing, ouert deed, or act, after the ſaid firſt day of March, affirme, or ſet forth, that the Biſhop of Rome, or any other perſon or perſons, other than the King of England for the time being, is, or ought to be by the Lawes of God or otherwiſe, the ſupreme head in earth of the ſame Churches, or of any of them: or doe after the ſaid firſt day of March, compaſſe or imagine by writing, printing, ouert deed, or Act, to depoſe or depriue the King, his heires or ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme, from his, or their royall eſtate, or titles of the King of England, France, or Ireland, or of any of them, or by any writing, printing, ouert deed, or Act, doe affirme, that any other perſon or perſons, other than the King, his heires and ſucceſſors is, or of right ought to be King of the Realmes of England, France, or Ireland, or to haue and enioy the ſame, or any of them: that then euery ſuch offence and offences ſhall be deemed and adiudged high treaſon, and the Offender and Offenders, their Aiders, Comforters, Abbettors, Procurers, and Counſellers therein conuicted or attainted, according to the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, ſhall be deemed and adiudged high Traitors, and ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and loſe and forfeit all their goods and chattels, lands and tenements to the King, as in caſes of high treaſon.

It ſhall be high treaſon to affirme by writing, printing, or deed, that the King is not ſupreme head of the Church, or that any other is, &c.

St. 13. El. 1.
St. 26. H. 8. 13.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Statute, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to repell, adnull, or make fruſtrate or void, any Act or Acts of Parliament, Statute or Statutes made, concerning the counterfeiting, or forging of any of the coynes of this Realme, or the coyne of any other Realme or Realmes, currant within this Realme, or for clipping, waſhing, or filing any of the ſaid coynes, or for, or concerning the bringing into this Realme, of counterfeit money or coine: ne to any Statute made in the ſeuen and twentieth yeere of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, concerning the falſe forging and counterfeiting of the Kings ſignes Manuel, priuy ſignet, or priuy ſeale, ne to their Counſellors, Procurors, Aiders, and Abbettors, nor to any article or branch, concerning the ſame offences, or any of them, conteined in the ſame Statutes, or any of them.

To which acts of Parliament this ſtatute extendeth not.

St. 27. H. 8. 2.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any the heires of the King our ſaid Soueraigne Lord that now is, or any perſon or perſons to whom the Crowne and dignity of this Realme is limited and appointed by act of Parliament made in the fiue and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, or the heires of any of them, doe at any time hereafter vſurpe the one of them vpon the other, in the Crowne of this Realme, or demand, challenge, or claime the ſame, otherwiſe, or in any other forme or degree of diſcent or ſucceſſion, or in any other courſe, forme, degree, or condition, but only in ſuch manner and forme as is declared by the ſaid ſtatute: or if any of the ſaid heires, or perſons aforeſaid, doe interrupt, or let the Kings Highneſſe that now is, peaceably and quietly to keepe, haue, and enioy the ſaid imperiall crowne: that then all and ſingular the Offenders, their Aiders, Conforters, Abbettors, Procurers, and Counſellers therein, ſhall be deemed and adiudged high Traitors, and ſhall ſuffer and incurre the paines of death, loſſe and forfeitures, as is aforeſaid, in caſes of high treaſon.

It ſhall be high treaſon to interrupt any perſon to whom the Crowne is limited by the Statute of 35. H. 8. 1.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, that heretofore hath beene, or at any time hereafter ſhall be, in due forme of the Lawes attainted or conuicted of murder, of malice prepenſed: or of poiſoning of malice prepenſed: or of breaking of any houſe by day or by night, any perſon being then in the ſame houſe where the ſame breaking heretofore hath beene, or hereafter ſhall be committed, and heretofore hath beene, or hereafter ſhalbe thereby put in feare or dread: or of, or for robbing of any perſon or perſons in the high way, or neere to the high way: or for felonious ſtealing of horſes, geldings, or mares: or of felonious taking of any goods out of any Pariſh Church, or other Church or Chappell: or being indited or appealed of any of the ſame offences, and thereupon found guilty by verdict of twelue men, or ſhall confeſſe the ſame, vpon his or their arraignement: or will not anſwer directly, according to the Lawes of this Realme: or ſhall ſtand wilfully, or of malice mute, ſhall not be admitted to haue or enioy the priuilege or benefit of his Clergy or Sanctuary, but ſhall be put from the ſame: And that in all other caſes of felony, other than ſuch as are before mentioned, all and ſingular Statutes made during the reigne of King H. 8. touching challenges and forreine pleas confirmed. St. 35. H. 8. 6. 4. H. 8. 2. 22. H. 8. 2.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all clauſes, articles, and ſentences, mentioned or ſpecified in any Act or Acts of Parliament, Statute or Statutes made in the time of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, touching, or in any wiſe concerning any manner of challenge, for the County, Hundred, or peremptory challenge, or any of them, or touching, or in any wiſe concerning any manner of triall of forreine pleas pleaded by murderers, felons, or other offenders, ſhall, as concerning the ſaid challenges and trials, remaine in their force and ſtrength not repealed, any thing in this Act mentioned, ſounding or ſeeming to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

This Statute ſhall not extend to thoſe that be arreſted, impriſoned, indicted, conuicted, outlawed, attainted, or fled for treaſon.

Prouided alſo, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act of Parliament, or any thing therein mentioned as concerning the repeale of any eſtatute or eſtatutes made touching treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, ſhal not in any wiſe giue any manner of benefit, aduantage, or commodity to any perſon or perſons, being the laſt day of October laſt paſt, arreſted or impriſoned for treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, or to any perſon or perſons heretofore being indicted of treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, or to any other perſon or perſons being likewiſe conuicted, outlawed, or attainted of treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon: or being fled beyond the ſeas, or into Scotland, before the ſaid laſt day of October laſt paſt, for any treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, but that they and euery of them ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death, loſſes, and forfeiture of lands and goods, as in caſes of treaſon, as though this Act had neuer beene had or made: any thing in this Act to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding: and that the Lawes and Statutes repealed by this Act ſhall ſtand againſt them, and euery of them, in full ſtrength, vertue, force and effect, concerning all and euery offence by them, or any of them heretofore committed or done.

Wilfull killing by poyſoning ſhall be adiudged murder.

Prouided alſo, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all wilfull killing, by poyſoning of any perſon or perſons, that at any time hereafter ſhall be done, perpetrated, or committed, ſhalbe adiudged, taken, and deemed wilfull murder of malice prepenſed: and that the Offenders therein, their Aiders, [a] Abbettors, Procurors, and Counſellers, ſhall ſuffer death, and forfeit in euery behalfe, as in other caſes of wilfull murder of malice prepenſed.

a Plow. fo. Coke li. li. 9. fol.

And ouer that, be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in all and euery caſe and caſes, where any of the Kings Maieſties Subiects ſhall and may vpon his prayer, haue the priuilege of Clergy, as a Clerke conuict, that may make purgation, in all thoſe caſes, and euery of them, and alſo in all and euery caſe and caſes of felony, wherein the priuilege and benefit of Clergy is reſtreined, excepted, or taken away by this Statute, or Act (wilfull murder, and poyſoning of malice prepenſed only excepted) the Lord and Lords of the Parliament, and Peere and Peeres of the Realme hauing place and voice in Parliament, ſhall by vertue of this preſent Act of common grace, vpon his or their requeſt or prayer, alleaging that he is a Lord or Peere of this Realme, and claiming the benefite of this Act, though he cannot read, without any burning in the hand, loſſe of inheritance, or corruption of his blood, be adiudged, deemed, taken, and vſed for his firſt time only, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as a Clerke conuict, and ſhall be in caſe of a Clerke conuict, which may make purgation without any further or other benefit or priuilege of Clergy, to any ſuch Lord or Peere, from thenceforth at any time after, for any cauſe to be allowed, adiudged, or admitted: any law, ſtatute, vſage, cuſtome, or any other thing to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A Lord of the Parliament ſhall haue his Clergy for the firſt offence of felony.

Triall by proceſſe of a Lord of the Parliament.

Prouided alwayes, that if any of the ſaid Lords of the Parliament, or any of the Peeres of this Realme for the time being, ſhall fortune to be indicted of any of the offences limited in this Act: that then they and euery of them, ſhall haue his or their triall by their Peeres, as it hath beene vſed heretofore in caſes of high treaſon.

Bigamus allowed his Clergy. St. 1. Iac. 11.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, that by this Statute, or by any other Statutes or Lawes of this Realme ought to haue, or be admitted to the benefit of his or their [b] Clergy: that the ſame perſon and perſons, ſhall be from henceforth admitted and allowed to his or their clergy, although they, or any of them haue beene diuers and and ſundry times married to any ſingle woman, or ſingle women, or to any widow, or widowes, or to two wiues, or moe: any Law, Statute, or vſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XIIII.

All Chantries, &c. be giuen to the King.

THe Kings moſt louing Subiects, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, conſidering that a great part of ſuperſtition and errors in Chriſtian Religion, hath beene brought into the minds and eſtimation of men, by reaſon of the ignorance of their very true and perfect ſaluation, through the death of Ieſus Chriſt, and by deuiſing and phantaſying vaine opinions of Purgatory, and Maſſes ſatiſfactory to be done for them which be departed: The which doctrine and vaine opinion, by nothing more is maintained and vpholden, than by the abuſe of Trentals, Chantries, and other prouiſions made for the continuance of the ſaid blindneſſe and ignorance. And further conſidering and vnderſtanding, that the alteration, change, and amendment of the ſame, and conuerting to good and godly vſes, as in erecting Grammar Schooles to the education of youth in vertue and godlineſſe, the further augmenting of the Uniuerſities, and better prouiſion of the poore and needy, cannot in this preſent Parliament be prouided and conueniently done, nor cannot, ne ought to any other manner perſon be committed, than to the Kings Highneſſe, whoſe Maieſty, with, and by the aduice of his Highneſſe moſt prudent Councell, can and will moſt wiſely and beneficially both for the honour of God, and the weale of his Maieſties Realme, order, alter, conuert, and diſpoſe the ſame. And calling further to their remembrance, that in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſeuen and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, father to our moſt dread and naturall Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, it was ordeined, enacted, and eſtabliſhed amongſt other things, that all and ſingular Colleges, Free chappels, Chantries, Hoſpitals, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and other promotions mentioned in the ſaid former Act, had, or made to haue continuance in perpetuity for euer, and then being, or that had, or ought to be contributory or chargeable to the payment of the firſt Fruits and Tenthes, according to the Lawes and Statutes in that behalfe had, and made, by what name, ſurname, degree, or corporation, they, or any of them were founded, ordeined, eſtabliſhed, erected, named, called, or knowen: and all and ſingular the manſion houſes, manors, orchards, gardens, lands, tenements, paſtures, woods, waters, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, commons, tithes, penſions, portions, Churches, Chappels, aduouſons, nominations, patronages, annuities, rights, intereſts, entrees, conditions, leets, courts, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, then appertaining or belonging, or that did appertaine, or belong, or were aſſigned or appointed to any ſuch College, free Chappell, Chantry, Hoſpitall, Fraternity, Brotherhead, Guild, ſtipendary Prieſt, or other the ſaid promotions, or to any of them, or accepted, knowen, or taken as part, parcell, or member of them, or of any of them: and to the ſaid Colleges, Chantries, free Chappels, Hoſpitals, Fraternities, Brotherhead, Guild, ſtipendary Prieſts, or other promotions, or to any of them vnited or annexed: which betweene the fourth day of Februarie in the ſeuen and twentieth yeere of the ſaid late Kings reigne, and the fiue and twentieth day of December, in the ſeuen and thirtieth of his Graces reigne, by reaſon of any entree, expulſion, bargaine, ſale, feoffement, fine, recouery, leaſe, or other conueyance thereof made, were diſſolued, determined, or relinquiſhed by any of the wayes, meanes, or conueyances mentioned in the ſaid Act, or otherwiſe, other than ſuch of them, as then were in the poſſeſſion of the ſaid King, or that were granted or aſſured by his licence, agreement, conſent, or Letters Patents, to any perſon or perſons, or then had beene lawfully obtained or recouered by any perſon, by any former right or title, without fraud or couin, or by the Kings licence, ſhall from thenceforth by authority of the ſame former Act, be adiudged and deemed, and alſo be in the very actuall and reall poſſeſſion and ſeiſon of the ſaid late King, and of his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, in as large and ample manner as the ſaid Prieſts, Wardens, Maſters, Miniſters, Gouernors, Rulers, or other Incumbents, or any of them, or the Patrons, Donors, or Founders of any of them at any time ſithence the ſaid fourth day of Februarie in the ſeuen and twentieth yeere aforeſaid, had, occupied, or enioyed, or then had, occupied, or enioyed the ſame, and as though all and ſingular the ſaid Colleges, Chantries, Hoſpitals, Free chappels, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and other the ſaid Promotions, and the ſaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, hereditaments, and other the premiſſes whatſoeuer they be, and euery of them, had beene in the ſaid former Act, ſpecially, particularly, & certainely rehearſed, named, and expreſſed by expreſſe words, names, ſurnames, corporations, titles, and faculties, and in their naturall kindes and qualities: the ſaid entrees, expulſions, bargaines, ſales, fines, feoffements, recoueries, or other aſſurance and conueyance whatſoeuer they were, had, or made (except before in the former Act excepted) to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And where alſo it was enacted and granted by the ſaid late King, by the ſaid former Act, that the ſame late King during his naturall life, might make and direct his commiſſion and commiſſions vnder his great ſeale, to enter into all and ſingular ſuch and as many Chantries, Free chappels, Hoſpitals, Colleges, and other the promotions mentioned in the ſaid former Act, and into all and ſingular ſuch manors, manſions, houſes, meaſes, lands, tenements, paſtures, woods, waters, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, poſſeſſions, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, or into any part or parcell therof, in the name, ſeiſin, and poſſeſſion of all the hereditaments, annexed, vnited, belonging or appertaining to any Chantry, Hoſpitall, Free chappell, College, Fraternity, Brotherhead, Guild, or other the ſaid promotions, or whereof any Prieſts, Prouoſts, Gouernors, Rulers, or other Incumbents, of them, or of any of them, by what name, ſurname, degree, title, or corporation, they and euery of them, or any of them were founded, erected, ordeined, eſtabliſhed, named, called, or knowen, then had or enioyed, or that hereafter ſhould haue or enioy to the ſaid Chantries, Hoſpitals, Free chappels, Colleges, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, or other the ſaid Promotions, that then were chargeable to the payment of the firſt Fruits and Tenths: and all Colleges that were chargeable, or not chargeable to the ſaid payment of the firſt Fruits and Tenths, as is aforeſaid, or to any of them, as ſhould be named, expreſſed, and appointed in the ſaid commiſſion or commiſſions, and to ſeiſe and take the ſame Chantries, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Free chappels, Fraternities, Brotherheads, Guilds, and other the ſaid promotions, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes mentioned in the ſaid commiſſion or commiſſions,

The K. Commiſſions to certaine perſons to enter into chantries, &c. and their lands.

ſions, and in euery of them, and euery part, parcell, and member of the ſame into the Kings poſſeſſion and hands: to haue and to hold the ſame to the ſaid late King, and to his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, as by the ſaid former Act amongſt other things more at large appeareth: It is now ordeined and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all manner of Colleges, Free chappels and Chantries, hauing being, or in elſe, within fiue yeeres next before the firſt day of this preſent Parliament (which were not in [a]actuall and reall poſſeſſion of the ſaid late King, nor in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of the King our Soueraigne Lord that now is, nor excepted in the ſaid former Act in forme aboueſaid, other than ſuch as by the Kings commiſſions in forme hereafter mentioned, ſhall be altred, tranſpoſed, or changed) and all manors, lands, tenements, rents, tithes, penſions, portions, and other hereditaments, and things aboue mentioned, belonging to them, or any of them: And alſo all manors, lands, tenements, rents, and other hereditaments, and things aboue mentioned by any manner of aſſurance, conueyance, will, deuiſe, or otherwiſe, had, made, ſuffered, knowledged, or declared, giuen, aſſigned, limited or appointed to the finding of any Prieſt, to haue continuance for euer, and wherewith, or whereby any Prieſt was ſuſteined, maintained, or found within fiue yeeres next before the firſt day of this preſent Parliament (which were not in the actuall and [b]reall poſſeſſion of the ſaid late King, nor in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is) and alſo all annuall rents, profits, and emoluments at any time within fiue yeeres next before the beginning of this preſent Parliament, employed, payed or beſtowed, toward, or for the maintenance, ſupportation or finding of any ſtipendary Prieſt, intended by any Act, or writing to haue continuance for euer, ſhall by the authority of this preſent Parliament, immediately after the Feaſt of Eaſter next comming, be adiudged and deemed, and alſo be in the very actuall and reall poſſeſſion and ſeiſon of the King our Soueraigne Lord, and his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, without any office or other inquiſition thereof to be had or found, and in as large and ample manner and forme, as the Prieſts, Wardens, Maſters, Miniſters, Gouernors, Rulers or other Incumbents of them, or any of them, at any time within fiue yeeres next before the beginning of this preſent Parliament, had, occupied or enioyed, or now hath, occupieth or enioyeth the ſame, and as though all and ſingular the ſaid Colleges, Free chappels, Chantries, Stipends, ſalaries of Prieſts, and the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and other the premiſſes whatſoeuer they be, and euery of them, were in this preſent Act ſpecially, particularly and certainly rehearſed, named and expreſſed by expreſſe words, names, ſurnames, corporations, titles, and faculties, and in their natures, kindes and qualities.

Colleges, Free chappels, chantries, and their lands giuen to the King.
Coke pla.fo. 200.

Lands and annuall rents aſſigned to the finding of a Prieſt to haue continuance for euer giuen to the King.

And ouer that be it ordeined and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that where any manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, rents, profits, or other hereditaments, by any manner of aſſurance, conueyance, will, deuiſe, or otherwiſe at any time heretofore had, made, ſuffered, knowledged or declared, were giuen, aſſigned or appointed, to, or for, the maintenance, ſuſtentation, or finding of one Prieſt, or of diuers Prieſts, for terme of certaine yeeres yet continuing, and that any Prieſt hath beene maintained, ſuſtained, or found with the ſame, or with the reuenues, or profits thereof within fiue yeeres laſt paſt, that the King from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ſhall haue and enioy in euery behalfe, for, and during all ſuch time to come, euery ſuch and like things, tenements, hereditaments, profits and emoluments, as the Prieſt, or Prieſts ought, or ſhould haue had, for or toward his, or their maintenance, ſuſtenance, or finding, and for no longer or further time, nor for any other profit, aduantage or commodity thereof to be taken.

Where lands haue beene giuen to the finding of Prieſts for yeeres.

Prouided alwayes, and it is ordeined and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that when and aſſoone as the time aſſigned, for the maintenance, ſuſtentation, or finding of the Prieſt, or Prieſts ſhall be expired and run: that then it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, to whom any manors, lands, tenements, tithes, portions, penſions, rents, and other hereditaments, or any of them ſhould haue belonged, or appertained, if the ſaid former Act and this Act had neuer beene had, or made, to enter into, take, perceiue, haue and enioy the ſame without any manner of liuery, Ouſter le maine, petition, or other ſuit to be made to the King, in like manner, forme, and condition, to all intents, conſtructions, & purpoſes, as though the ſaid former act & this act had neuer bin had, or made, & as though the King had neuer had any ſeiſon or poſſeſſion thereof. Any thing in the ſaid former Act, or in this Act, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

He in reuerſion may enter after the yeeres expired.

And be it ordeined and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires and ſucceſſors from the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter next comming, ſhall haue, hold, perceiue, and enioy for euer, all lands, tenements, rents, and [c] other hereditaments which by any manner of aſſurance, conueyance, wills, will, deuiſe, or otherwiſe at any time heretofore had, made, ſuffered, knowledged, or declared, were giuen, aſſigned, or appointed to goe, or be employed wholly to the finding, or maintenance of any Anniuerſary, or Obite, or other like thing, intent, or purpoſe, or of any light, or lampe, in any Church or Chappell, to haue continuance for euer, which hath beene kept, or maintained within fiue yeeres next before the ſaid firſt day of this preſent Parliament.

Lands wholly giuen to the maintenance of an Obite, &c.
Coke pla.fo. 209. 377.

Part of the iſſues of lands imployed to the finding of a Lampe, Obite, &c.

And alſo that where but part of the iſſues, or reuenues of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, rents, or other hereditaments hath by any of the wayes, or meanes aboueſaid béene giuen, aſſigned or appointed to be beſtowed, or [d] employed to the finding or maintenance of any Anniuerſary, or Obite, or other like thing, intent, or purpoſe, or of any light, or lampe in any Church, or Chappell, and to haue continuance for euer: that then our Soueraigne Lord the King ſhall from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next comming for euer, haue, perceiue, and enioy euery ſuch ſummes of money, that in any one yéere within fiue yéeres next before the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, hath béene expended, and beſtowed about the finding, or maintenance of any ſuch Anniuerſary, or Obite, or other like thing, intent, or purpoſe of any light, or lampe, to him, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, as a rent charge to be payed yéerely at the Feaſts of Saint Michael the Archangell, and the Annunciation of our Lady Saint Mary the Uirgin, by euen portions in the Kings Court of the Augmentations, and Reuenues of his Crowne, or in any other Court or Courts, as the King hereafter ſhall appoint. And that it ſhall be lawfull to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors for non payment of any ſuch ſumme or ſummes of money, to diſtraine in the ſaid Manors, Lands and Tenements, of the iſſues and reuenues, whereof the ſaid Anniuerſary, or Obite, or other like thing, or any ſuch light or lampe was found, ſuſtained or maintained. And that for lacke of ſufficient diſtreſſe, in or vpon any of the premiſſes, whereof any of the ſaid yéerely rents, or ſummes of money ſhould be payed by the ſpace of one moneth next after that any of the ſaid rents ſhould be payed, and be not payed within the ſaid moneth, that then it ſhall be lawfull to, and for our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors by vertue of this preſent Act, to enter into, and to haue, and poſſeſſe as much of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, whereof the ſaid rent, or rents ſhould be leuied or payd as the rent or rents that ſhould be leuied, or payed out of the ſame, doth, or ſhall amount or come to in yéerely value, and the ſame lands, tenements and hereditaments to hold and kéepe, and to haue to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and aſſignes for euer, or for ſuch eſtate as our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, or ſucceſſors, had, or ought to haue had, of, or in the ſaid rent or rents.

The Kings diſtreſſe for the rent, and entrie for default thereof.

Mony giuen to the finding of a Prieſt, Obite, Lampe, Light by a Corporation.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that our Soueraigne Lord the King, ſhall from the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter next comming, haue, perceiue, and enioy all and ſingular ſuch ſummes of money, profits, commodities, and emoluments, which by vertue of any manner of aſſurance, conueyance, compoſition, will, deuice, or otherwiſe, heretofore haue béene giuen, aſſigned, limited, or appointed to haue continuance for euer, which in any one yéere within fiue yéeres next before the beginning of this preſent Parliament haue béene payed, beſtowed or imployed by any manner of Corporations, Guilds, Fraternities, Companies or Fellowſhips of myſteries, or crafts, or any of them, being in England, Wales, and other the Kings Dominions, or by the Maſters, Wardens, Gouernors, or other Officers or Miniſters, or by the Maſter, Warden, Gouernor, or other Officer, or Miniſter of them, or any of them, toward or about the finding, maintenance or ſuſtentation of any Prieſt or Prieſts, of any Anniuerſary or Obite, Lampe, light or lights, or other like thing, as is aforeſaid, to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, to be payed yéerely as a rent charge, at the Feaſts of Saint Michael the Archangell, and the Annunciation of our Lady, by euen portions, in the Kings Court of Augmentations, and Reuenues of his Crowne, or in any other Court or Courts, as the King hereafter ſhall appoint.

The King may diſtraine for the money or profit.

And that it ſhall be lawfull to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors for non payment of any ſuch ſummes, or ſumme of money, profit, commodity, or emolument, or for non payment of any of them, to diſtraine in all the manors, lands and tenements of euery ſuch Crafts, Corporations, Guilds, Fraternities, Companies, or fellowſhips of myſteries or crafts, or any of them, by whom, or by the Maſters, Wardens, Gouernors, or other Officers or Miniſters, or Maſter, Warden, Gouernor, or Miniſter, of the which any ſuch ſummes, or ſumme of money, profit, commodity or emolument, haue or hath béene payed, beſtowed, or employed: And that all and euery of the ſaid ſummes of money, profits, commodities and emoluments, ſhall from the Feaſt of Eaſter next comming, without any manner of inquiſition, or office to be had or found, be iudged and déemed to be in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, in like manner and forme, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if the ſame had béene particularly and ſpecially mentioned in this preſent Act.

Fraternities, Brotherhoods and Guilds giuen to the King.

And furthermore be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the King our Soueraigne Lord, ſhal from the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter next comming, haue and enioy to him, his heires and ſucceſſors for euer, all Fraternities, Brotherhoods and Guilds, being within the Realme of England, and Wales, and other the Kings Dominions: and all manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, belonging to them, or any of them (other than ſuch Corporations, Guilds, Fraternities, Companies, and Fellowſhips of myſteries or crafts, and the manors, lands, tenements and other hereditaments, pertaining to the ſaid Corporations, Guilds, Fraternities, Companies, and Fellowſhips of myſteries, or crafts aboue mentioned) and the ſame ſhall by vertue of this Act be iudged and déemed, in the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of our ſaid Soueraigne

Lord

Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, from the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter next comming for euer, without any inquiſition or office thereof to be had or found.

Commiſſions ſhal be directed to ſeuerall perſons, and what their authority ſhall be to doe thereby.

And alſo be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, at his and their will and pleaſure may direct his and their Commiſſions and Commiſſion vnder the great Seale of England to ſuch perſons as it ſhall pleaſe him: And that the ſame Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, and of the ſaid Commiſſion, as well to ſuruey all and ſingular lay Corporations, Guilds, Fraternities, Companies and Fellowſhips of myſteries, or crafts Incorporate, and euery of them, as all other the ſaid Fraternities, Brotherhoods, and Guilds within the limits of their Commiſſion to them directed: And all the euidences, compoſitions, bookes of accompts, and other writings of euery of them, to the intent thereby to know what money, and other things was payed, or beſtowed to the finding or maintenance of any Prieſt, or Prieſts Anniuerſary, or Obite, or other like thing, light or lampe, by them, or any of them: as alſo to inquire, ſearch and try by all ſuch wayes and meanes as to them ſhal be thought meet and conuenient, what manors, lands, tenements, rents, and other hereditaments, profits, commodities, emoluments, and other things be giuen, limited or appointed to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King by this Act within the limits of their Commiſſion.

And alſo that the ſame Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt by vertue of this act, and of the commiſſion to them directed, ſhall haue full power and authority to aſſigne, and ſhall appoint (in euery ſuch place where Guild, Fraternity, the Prieſt or Incumbent of any Chantry in eſſe, the firſt day of this preſent Parliament by the foundation, ordinance, or the firſt inſtitution thereof, ſhould or ought to haue kept a Grammar Schoole, or a Preacher, and ſo hath done ſithen the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell laſt paſt) lands, tenements, and other hereditaments of of euery ſuch Chantry, Guild, and Fraternity to remaine and continue in ſucceſſion to a Schoolemaſter or Preacher for euer, for, and toward the keeping of a Grammar Schoole, or Preaching, and for ſuch godly intents and purpoſes, and in ſuch manner and forme, as the ſame Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt ſhall aſſigne, or appoint: And alſo to make and ordeine a Vicar to haue perpetuity for euer, in euery Pariſh Church the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, being a College, Freechappell, or Chantry, or appropried, annexed, or vnited to any College, Freechappell, or Chantry that ſhall come to the Kings hands by vertue of this Act, and to endow euery ſuch Vicar ſufficiently, hauing reſpect to his cure and charge, the ſame endowment to be to euery ſuch Vicar, and to his ſucceſſors for euer, without any other licence, or grant of the King, the Biſhop, or other Officers of the Dioceſſe. And alſo the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue authority by force of this Act, to aſſigne in euery great Towne or Pariſh, where they ſhall thinke, neceſſary to haue moe Prieſts than one, for the miniſtring of the Sacraments, within the ſame Towne, or Pariſh, lands and tenements belonging to any Chantry, Chappell, or ſtipendary Prieſt being within the ſame Towne or Pariſh the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, to be to ſuch perſon and perſons, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall aſſigne, or appoint to continue in ſucceſſion for euer, for, and towards the ſufficient finding, and maintenance of one, or moe Prieſts within the ſame Towne, or Pariſh, as by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them ſhall be thought neceſſary, or conuenient. And as well to make ordinances and rules, concerning the ſeruice, vſe, and demeanour of euery ſuch Prieſt and Schoolemaſters, as is aforeſaid, to be appointed, as alſo by what name, or names he and they ſhal from henceforth be named and called. And alſo that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, and of the ſaid commiſſion to them directed, to aſſigne as well to euery Deane, Maſter, Warden, Prouoſt and other Incumbent, and Miniſter of any of the ſaid Colleges, Freechappels, or Chantries, being within the limits of their commiſſion, which hereafter ſhall be diſſolued, or determined by vertue of this Act, as to euery ſtipendary Prieſt, and other Prieſt, whoſe ſalary the King ſhall be intituled vnto by this Act, as to euery Fellow and poore perſon hauing yeerely reliefe out of any of the ſaid Colleges, Freechappels, or Chantries being within the limits of their commiſſion, ſuch yeerely annuities, penſions, or other recompences, during their ſeuerall liues, as to the ſame Commiſſioners, or two of them ſhall be thought meet and conuenient.

hereditaments, parcell of the premiſſes, for the maintenance and continuance of the ſame for euer: and alſo to appoint to Fraternities, Brotherhoods, and Guilds, lands, tenements and hereditaments parcell of the premiſſes, towards and for the maintenance of piers, iutties, walls, or bankes, againſt the rages of the Sea, Hauens and Creekes. And that all and ſingular annuities, penſions, and other recompences, ſhall be halfe yeerely payed to the perſons to whom the ſame ought to be payed by the Kings Receiuor for the time being, of his lands commonly called the ſuppreſſed lands, or other his reuenues, lying in the County or City, where ſuch College, free Chappell, or Chantry, or other the Premiſſes, giuen, limited, or appointed to the King, by this Act, the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, were or remained without any fee, or reward therefore to be payed: The firſt payment to begin at the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming. And that euery ſuch Receiuor, vpon his accompt, ſhall haue full and due allowance of all ſuch annuities, penſions and other recompences by him payed, by vertue of any ſuch aſſignement to be made, by the ſaid Commiſſioners or two of them at the leaſt.

Lands aſſigned towards the maintenance of the walls and banks of the Sea.

The Commiſſioners oath for the fauourable execution of the Commiſſion towards the Deanes, &c.

And it is ordeined and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Commiſſioners, and euery of them, that ſhall take vpon him the execution of any of the ſaid Commiſſions, ſhall be bound, as he will anſwer before God, to execute the Commiſſion, to him and other directed beneficially towards the Deanes, Maſters, Wardens, Prouoſts, and other Incumbents, and Miniſters aforeſaid, and towards the poore people, concerning the ſaid aſſignements, and alſo toward the maintenance of piers, iutties, walls, or bankes, againſt the rages of the ſea, hauens and Creekes. And that all manner of aſſignements and ordinances to be made by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, and certified vnder their ſeales, or the ſeales of two of them at the leaſt, into the Kings Court of the Augmentations and reuenues of his Crowne, or to any other Court or Courts, by the Kings Maieſty to be made or aſſigned, ſhall by vertue of this Act, and of the ſaid Commiſſions, be as good and effectuall in the law to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as though the ſame had beene aſſigned and ordeined by authority of this preſent Parliament, by expreſſe and apt words, termes, and ſentences.

The force of the Commiſſioners aſſignements and ordinances.

No offices, annuitie or penſion ſhall extend to more than it did before.

Prouided alſo, that ſuch annuities, penſions, or other recompences, that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any of them, ſhall aſſigne or appoint to be payed yeerely to any ſuch Deane, Maſter, Warden, Gouernor, or other Incumbent, Fellow, or Miniſter, ſhall not extend to any more cleere yeerely value, than ſuch Deane, Maſter, Warden, Prouoſt, Gouernor, or other Incumbent, Fellow, or Miniſter, or his Predeceſſor lawfully had, or enioyed in money, meat, drinke, liuery, or allowance of the ſame yeerely, within fiue yeeres next before the beginning of this preſent Parliament.

His penſion ſhall ceaſe that is promoted to a better liuing.

Prouided alſo, that if any of the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Prouoſts, Gouernors, or other Incumbents, Fellow, or Miniſters, ſhall at any time hereafter, during his life, be promoted by the King to any benefice, or other ſpiritual promotion, being of a better cleere yeerely value than his ſaid annuity or penſion, or other recompence ſhall be of: that then the annuity, penſion, or other recompence that any ſuch Deane, Maſter, Warden, Gouernor, Preuoſt, or other Incumbent, Fellow, or Miniſter that ſo ſhall be promoted ſhall haue, ſhall immediatly after ſuch promotion had, ceaſe, and vtterly determine.

The Commiſſioners certificat of lands aſſigned to the vſes aforeſaid.

And be it ordeined and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them at the leaſt, to whom any Commiſſion by vertue or meane of this Act, ſhall de directed and deliuered, ſhall be bounden vpon the forfeiture, euery of them of a hundred pound, to make certificat vnder their ſeales, or the ſeales of two of them at the leaſt, into the ſaid Court of the Augmentations, and reuenues of the Kings Crowne, or into any other Court, as is aforeſaid, within one yeere next after the Commiſſion to them directed, of all manors, lands, tenements, rents, tithes, portions, penſions, hereditaments, and recompences by the ſame Commiſſioners or two of them, aſſigned or appointed to any of the vſes, intents or purpoſes aboue mentioned.

The King ſhall haue the goods of euery College, Chantery, &c.

And alſo be it ordeined and enacted, by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that our Soueraigne Lord the King ſhall haue and enioy all ſuch goods, cattels, jewels, plate, ornaments, and other moueables, as were or be the common goods of euery ſuch College, Chantry, free Chappell, or ſtipendary Prieſt, belonging or annexed to the furniture or ſeruices of their ſeuerall foundations, or abuſed of any of the ſaid Corporations, in the abuſes aforeſaid, the property whereof was not altered nor changed before the viij. day of Decemb. in the yeere of our Lord God, M.D.xlvij.

The debts of Colleges ſhall be payed by the King.

And it is alſo ordeined and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all ſuch debts and ſummes of money, as ought or ſhould without fraud or couin hereafter be payed of the money or goods of any of the ſaid Colleges, due, or payable, by reaſon of any contract, ſpecialty or promiſe, had or made, before the ſame viij. day, ſhall truly and fully be payed by the Treaſurer of the Kings Court of the Augmentations and reuenues of his Crowne, or by the Treaſurer or Receiuor of any other Court, to which any of the premiſſes ſhall be appointed, of the Kings treaſure, being in his or their hands, with as conuenient ſpeed, as the ſame may be payed.

Prouided alwayes, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any article, clauſe, or matter conteined in the ſame, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to any College, Hoſtell, or Hall, being within either of the Vniuerſities of Cambridge and Oxford: nor to any Chantry founded in any of the Colleges, Hoſtels, or Hals, being in the ſame Vniuerſities: nor to the Free chappell of Saint George the Martyr, ſituate in the Caſtle of Windſor: nor to the College, called S. Marie College of Wincheſter, beſides Wincheſter, of the foundation of Biſhop Wikeham: nor to the College of Eton: nor to the Pariſh Church commonly called the Chappell in the ſea in Newton, within the Iſle of Ely, in the County of Cambridge: nor to any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to them, or to any of them pertaining or belonging: nor to any Chappell made or ordeined for the eaſe of the people dwelling diſtant from the Pariſh Church, or ſuch like Chappell, whereunto no more lands or tenements, than the Churchyard, or a little houſe or cloſe, doth belong or pertaine, nor to any Cathedrall Church or College, where a Biſhops See is, within this Realme of England or in Wales, nor to the manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments of any of them; other than to ſuch Chantries, Obites, Lights and Lampes, or any of them, as at any time within fiue yeeres next before the beginning of this preſent Parliament, haue beene had, vſed, or maintained within the ſaid Cathedrall Churches, or within any of them, or the iſſues, reuenues, or profits of any of the ſaid Cathedrall Churches, to which Chantries, Obites, Lights and Lampes, it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid that this Act ſhall extend.

To which Colleges, &c. this ſtatute ſhall not extend.

Cathedrall Churches wherein any Chantries, Obites, Lamps or Lights haue beene maintained.
Coke.pl.fo. 385.

And it is ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That our Soueraigne Lord the King, at any time during his life (which God long preſerue) may at his will and pleaſure, alter and change the name or names, of all and ſingular Chantries, and the foundations of the ſame, being in any of the Colleges, Hoſtels, or Halls, of any of the ſaid Vniuerſities, according as to his godly wiſdome ſhall be thought meet and conuenient.

The King may alter the names of Chantries.

Sauing to al and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them, (other than the Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Gouernors, Rulers, Prieſts, Incumbents, Fellowes, and Brethren of the ſaid Colleges, Chantries, Free chappels, and other the premiſſes, giuen, limited, or appointed to the King by this Act: and the ſucceſſors of them, and euery of them, and other than ſuch as be, or pretend to be Founders, Patrons, or Donors of the premiſſes, or any of them, or of any part or parcell thereof, and the heires, ſucceſſors, and aſſignes of euery, or any of them: and other than ſuch as be, or were feoffees, recouerees, coniſees, grantees, or deuiſees of any of the premiſſes, to, or for any of the vſes, purpoſes, or intents aboue mentioned, or to the vſe of any of the ſaid Colleges, Free Chappels, Chantries, or other the Premiſſes, giuen, limited, or appointed by this Act to the King, or to the intent to employ the rents or profits therof, to the vſe of the Maſters, Rulers, Incumbents, or Miniſters of them, or any of them: and other than ſuch perſon and perſons, and bodies politike and corporate, their heires, ſucceſſors, and aſſignes, as claime or pretend, to haue eſtate, right, title, intereſt, vſe, poſſeſſion, or condition, of, in, or to the premiſſes, or any part or parcell thereof, by reaſon of any feoffement, fine, bargaine and ſale, or by any other wayes, meanes, or conueyance to them made, of any eſtate of inheritance, without the ſaid late Kings licence, aſſent, conſent, or agreement, and without the licence, aſſent, or agreement of the Kings Maieſty that now is, by any of the ſaid Deanes, Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Gouernors, Rulers, Prieſts, or Incumbents, or by the Foundors, Donors, or Patrons of them, or of any of them,) all ſuch[a] right, title, claime, poſſeſſion, intereſt, rents, annuities, commodities, commons, offices, fees, leaſes, liueries, liuings, penſions, portions, debts, duties, and other profits, which they, or any of them lawfully haue, or of right ought to haue, or might haue had, in, of, or to any of the premiſſes, or in, of, or to any part or parcell thereof, in ſuch like manner, forme, and condition, to all intents, reſpects, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if this Act had neuer beene had nor made, and as though the ſaid Chantries, Colleges, and other the ſaid promotions, had ſtill continued, and remained in their full being: and ſauing to all and euery Patron, Donor, Foundor, or Gouernor of any ſuch College, Chantry, free Chappell, ſtipendary Prieſts, and other the premiſſes, giuen, limited or appointed to the King by this Act, and the Donor, Feoffor and Giuer of the foreſaid lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to them or any of them, or to any vſes or purpoſes before mentioned, all ſuch rents ſeruices, rents ſecke, rents charge, fees, annuities, profits, and offices: and alſo leaſes for terme of life, liues, and yeeres, whereupon the accuſtomed rent, or more, is reſerued, as they, or any of them lawfully had, perceiued, and enioyed, in, out, or of any the ſaid promotions, or out of any of the ſaid lands, tenements or hereditaments, before the firſt day of this preſent Parliament.

ib.47. 32.

The right of ſtrangers ſaued.

Certaine rents and duties ſaued to euery Donor, Founder and Gouernor of a College, Chantry, &c.

And ouer that, it is ordeined and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all and euery perſon and perſons, being in life, which haue, or hath for any ſumme of money to him or them payed, bargained or ſold, any manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments aforeſaid, whereunto the King our Soueraigne Lord is intituled, by vertue of this Act, ſhall repay to ſuch perſon, as ſo bought any of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, or to his executors or aſſignes, vpon a requeſt therefore made, or within three moneths, then next enſuing the ſame requeſt, as much money, as he or they receiued, for the ſale of any thing, ſo by him or them them ſold. And for non payment thereof, ſuch perſon and perſons as purchaſed, or bought the ſaid lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any parcell thereof, and their Executors and Adminiſtrators, ſhall be enabled by the authority of this preſent Parliament, to ſue, and maintaine an action of debt at the Common law of this Realme, againſt ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſo bargained or ſold to him or them, or to their teſtator, any of the premiſſes, belonging to any College, Chantry, frée Chappell, or other promotion ſpirituall, in which action of debt, none eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhall be admitted or allowed.

All Chantry, free Chappell, &c. lands ſhal be in the order of the Court of Augmentations.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery of the ſaid Chantries, Colleges, and frée Chappels, and other the premiſſes, giuen, limited, or appointed to the King by this Act, and all the manſion houſes, manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, and other the premiſſes whatſoeuer they be, giuen, limited, and appointed to the King by this Act, and euery part and parcell of them, which by authority and vertue of this Act, béene veſted, adiudged, and déemed, or ſhall be in the Kings Maieſties poſſeſſion and hands, or which the King ſhall be entitled vnto, by vertue of this Act, ſhall be in the order, ſuruey, and gouernance of our Soueraigne Lord the Kings Court of the Augmentations and Reuenues of his Crowne, or in ſuch other Court as the King at any time hereafter ſhall aſſigne, name, or appoint, and ſo ſhall, and may be granted, letten, and ſet to the farme by the Chancellor, Officers, and Miniſters of the ſame Court, or of any other Court ſo to be appointed, in ſuch manner and forme as other manors, lands and tenements, appointed to the ſame Court of Augmentations, and reuenues of his Graces Crowne, or other Court ſo to be appointed, béene to be granted or letten: And that all the farmes, iſſues, reuenues, and profits comming and growing of the ſame premiſſes, and of euery part thereof, ſhall be taken and receiued to the Kings vſe, by the Officers and Miniſters of the ſame Court or Courts, in ſuch manner and forme, as is vſed and had of other manors, lands, and tenements, and of the iſſues, reuenues, and profits of the ſame, committed to the order, rule, ſuruey and gouernance of the ſaid Court of the Augmentations and Reuenues of the Kings Crowne, or any other Court ſo to be appointed: any act, ſtatute, ordinance, cuſtome, or vſe heretofore had, made, or vſed, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Leaſes made by the Gouernors not reſeruing the old rent ſhal be void.

And it is further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that if any of the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Rulers, Gouernors, Prieſts, Incumbents, or owners of any ſuch College, Chantry, frée Chappell, or of any the premiſſes, giuen, limited, or appointed to the King by this Act, or of any of them, ſithence the thrée and twentieth day of Nouember, in the xxxvij. yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late King, haue made any leaſe, vnder his or their common Seale, or otherwiſe for terme of yéeres, life, or liues, of their ſaid Colleges, Chantries, frée Chappels, or of other the ſame premiſſes, or of any part therof, or of any manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, or hereditaments, whatſoeuer they be, to them, or to any of them, vnited, or annexed, belonging, or appertaining, vpon the which leaſes, the vſuall and old rents and fermes, accuſtomed to be yéelden and reſerued, or more, by the ſpace of twenty yéeres next before the ſaid thrée and twentieth day of Nouember, be not reſerued and yéelden, ſhall be vtterly void and of none effect: and that all other leaſes, and grants, heretofore made of any the premiſſes, giuen, limited, or appointed to the King, by this Act, ſhall be as good, auaileable, and effectuall in the Law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if this Act had neuer béene had or made, any thing in this Act, or any other Act heretofore had or made, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Lands whereof the Gouernors of any Colleges, &c. were ſeiſed to their owne vſes.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, or hereditaments, which the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Chantry Prieſts, Incumbents, or other the ſaid Gouernors, Officers, Miniſters or Rulers of the Premiſſes or of any of them, hath or is, or hereafter ſhall haue or be poſſeſſed, or ſeiſed of in fée ſimple, fée taile generall or ſpeciall, for terme of life, terme of yéeres or otherwiſe, to his or their owne proper vſes, by inheritance or purchaſe: and not being at any time vnited or annexed to his or their ſaid Colleges, Frée Chappels, Chantries, or other the Premiſſes, giuen, limited or appointed to the King by this Act: Nor ſhall extend to any manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, rents, annuities and yéerely penſion or penſions, or to any yéerely ſumme or ſummes of money, being not vnited, or parcell of any the ſaid Colleges and other the premiſſes aforeſaid, or of any of them, heretofore giuen or granted by the ſaid late King, or giuen or granted, or hereafter to be giuen or granted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, to any of the ſaid Deanes, Maſters, Wardens, Miniſters, Chantry Prieſts, Incumbents, Gouernors or Rulers of the Premiſſes, or of any of them, for terme of life only, vnder his great Seale of England, or vnder the Seale of the Court of the augmentations and reuenues of the Kings Crowne, or any other of the Kings Seales of any of his Courts: any thing conteined in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Lands, annuities, &c. not vnited to the ſaid Colleges, &c. but granted by King H. 8 or by the King that now is.

Euery perſon which had rent or yéerely profit out of the lands of any Chantry, &c ſhall enioy them.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that as well all and euery Patron, Donor, Foundor, and giuer of any of the ſaid promotions, or premiſſes, or giuer, Donor, or Feoffor, of any their lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, or other [a] hereditaments, as all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies Politike and Corporate, which before the making of this Act, lawfully without fraud or couin, had or enioyed, any manner of rent, or other yéerely profits, to be taken,

A confirmation of letters patẽts made by king H. 8. or king E. 6. of any Chantry, &c. Lands vnited to them.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular grants, licences, confirmations, and letters patents, which our late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eighth, or our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, haue made vnder the great Seale of England to any perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporate of any College, Chappell, or Chantry now being in eſſe, or ſtanding, or now not being in eſſe, or not ſtanding, or of any Lordſhips, Manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, annexed, vnited, belonging or appertaining to any College, Chappell, or Chantry now being in eſſe, or ſtanding, or now not being in eſſe, or not ſtanding, or of any other thing or things mentioned or expreſſed in this Act, and all & euery matter and thing mentioned, expreſſed, or contained in any ſuch grant, licence, confirmation, or letters patents, ſhall from henceforth be deemed, taken, expounded and adiudged good and effectual in the law, according to the words, ſentences, meanings, intents, forme & effects of the ſame grants, licences, confirmations and letters patents, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if this Act, and the ſaid Act made in the ſaid ſeuen & thirtieth yeere, of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, had neuer beene had or made: And that this Act, or the ſaid Act made in the ſaid ſeuen and thirtieth yeere of the Raigne of our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eighth, or any clauſe, article, ſentence, or other thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Colleges Chappels, Chantries, or other thing or things mentioned in this Act now being in eſſe, or ſtanding, or now not being in eſſe, or not ſtanding, or to any manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, reuenues, or hereditaments annexed, vnited, belonging or appertaining to any College, Chappell, Chantrie, or other thing mentioned in this Act now being in eſſe or ſtanding, or now not being in eſſe or not ſtanding, or to any other thing or things mentioned or expreſſed in this act: which any perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporate haue had, or obteined by the aſſent, licence, confirmation, grant or Letters patents of the ſaid late King, or of the Kings Maieſtie that now is, nor ſhal extend to any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Reuenues, Poſſeſſions, Hereditaments, or other thing or things mentioned, expreſſed or conteined in any ſuch licence, confirmation, grant, or letters patents: but that euery ſuch perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, their heires, ſucceſſors and aſſignes, and the heires, ſucceſſors and aſſignes of euery of them, ſhall haue, hold, and enioy, all and euery the ſame Colleges, Chappels, Chantries, Manors, lands, tenements, reuenues, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, and all and euery other thing & things whatſoeuer, ſo by them had or obtained, by the aſſent, licence, confirmation, grant, or letters patents of the ſaid late king, or of the kings maieſty that now is, according to the words, ſentences, forme effect, meaning, and intent of the ſame licences, confirmations, grants, and letters patents: this Act, or the ſaid Act made in the ſaid ſeuen and thirtieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, or any clauſe, article, ſentence, matter, or thing mentioned, expreſſed, or conteined in any of the ſame Acts, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cap. XV.

The Kings generall and free pardon confirmed by Parliament. Except, &c.

ANNO SECVNDO ET TERTIO EDWARDI SEXTI.

ACTS made in the Seſsion of this preſent Parliament, holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter the fourth day of Nouember, in the Second yeare of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord, EDWARD the ſixth, by the grace of God, King of England, France, and Ireland, Defendor of the faith, and of the Church of England, and alſo of Ireland, in earth the ſupreme head, and there continued and kept to the fourteenth day of March, in the third yeare of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, as followeth.

Cap. I.

The penalty for not vſing vniformity of Seruice and adminiſtration of Sacraments, &c.

WHere of long time there hath beene had in this Realme of England, and in Wales, diuers formes of Common prayer, commonly called the ſeruice of the Church: That is to ſay, the vſe of Sarum, of Yorke, of Bangor, and of Lincolne: and beſides the ſame now of late, much more diuers and ſundry formes and faſhions haue beene vſed in the Cathedrall, and Pariſh Churches of England and Wales, as well concerning the Mattines, or Morning prayer, and the Euenſong, as alſo concerning the holy Communion, commonly called the Maſſe, with diuers and ſundry rites and ceremonies concerning the ſame, and in the adminiſtration of other Sacraments of the Church. And as the doers and executors of the ſaid rites and ceremonies, in other forme than of late yeeres they haue beene vſed, were pleaſed therewith: So other not vſing the ſame rites and ceremonies, were thereby greatly offended. And albeit the Kings Maieſty, with the aduice of his moſt entirely beloued Uncle the Lord Protector, and other of his Highneſſe Councell, hath heretofore diuers times aſſaied, to ſtay innouations or new rites concerning the premiſſes: yet the ſame hath not had ſuch good ſucceſſe, as his highneſſe required in that behalfe, whereupon his Highneſſe by the moſt prudent aduice aforeſaid, being pleaſed to beare with the frailty and weakeneſſe of his ſubiects in that behalfe, of his great clemency hath not beene onely content, to abſtaine from puniſhment of thoſe that haue offended in that behalfe, for that his Highneſſe taketh that they did it of a good zeale: But alſo to the intent a vniforme, quiet, and godly order ſhould bee had, concerning the premiſſes, hath appointed the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and certaine of the moſt learned and diſcreet Biſhops, and other learned men of this Realme, to conſider and ponder the premiſſes, and thereupon hauing aſwell eye and reſpect to the moſt ſincere and pure Chriſtian religion taught by the Scripture, as to the vſages in the Primitiue Church, ſhould draw and make one conuenient and meet order, rite and faſhion of Common and open Prayer, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments, to be had and vſed in his Maieſties Realme of England, and in Wales: The which at this time, by the ayd of the holy Ghoſt: with one vniforme agreement, is of them concluded, ſet forth and deliuered to his Highneſſe, to his great comfort and quietneſſe of minde, in a Booke intituled: The Booke of the Common Prayer, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and other Rites, and Ceremonies of the Church, after the vſe of the Church of England. Wherefore the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, conſidering as well the moſt godly trauell of the Kings Highneſſe, of the Lord Protector, and other of his Highneſſe Councell, in gathering and collecting the ſaid Archbiſhop, Biſhops, and learned men together, as the godly Prayers, Orders, Rites, and Ceremonies in the ſaid Booke mentioned, and the conſiderations of altering thoſe things which be altered, and retaining thoſe things which be retained in the ſaid Booke: And alſo the honour of God and great quietneſſe, which by the Grace of God ſhall enſue vpon the one and vniforme Rite and Order, in ſuch Common prayer and rites, and externe ceremonies to bee vſed thorowout England and in Wales, at Calice and the Marches, of the ſame, doe giue to his Highneſſe moſt hearty and lowly thankes for the ſame, and humbly prayen that it may be ordained and enacted by his Maieſty, with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all and ſingular perſon and perſons that haue offended concerning the premiſſes, other than ſuch perſon and perſons, as now be and remaine in Ward of the Tower of London, or in the Fleet, may be pardoned thereof, And that all and ſingular Miniſters in any Cathedrall or Pariſh Church, or other place within this Realme of England, Wales, Calice, and the Marches of the ſame, or other the Kings Dominions, ſhall from and after the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, be bounden to ſay and vſe the Mattens, Euenſong, celebration of the Lords Supper, commonly called the Maſſe ⁊ adminiſtration of each the Sacraments, ⁊ all their common ⁊ open praier in ſuch order and forme as is mentioned in the ſame book and none other or otherwiſe. And albeit that the ſame bee Innouators not puniſhed for that they did it vpon good zeale.

The booke of Common prayer by the aide of the holy Ghoſt is ſet forth by the Biſhops ⁊ learned men of the Realme.

be ſo godly and good, that they giue occaſion to euery honeſt and conformable man moſt willingly to embrace them, yet leſt any obſtinate perſon, who willingly would diſturbe ſo godly order, and quiet in this Realme ſhould not goe vnpuniſhed: that it may alſo bee ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any manner of Parſon, Vicar, or other whatſoeuer Miniſter that ought, or ſhould ſing or ſay common prayer, mentioned in the ſaid Booke, or miniſter the Sacraments, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, refuſe to vſe the ſaid cõmon praiers, or to miniſter the Sacraments in ſuch Cathedrall or pariſh Church, or other places as hee ſhould vſe or miniſter the ſame in ſuch order and forme, as they bee mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid booke, or ſhall vſe, wilfully and obſtinately ſtanding in the ſame, any other rite, ceremony, order, forme or manner of Maſſe openly or priuily, or Mattens, Euenſong, adminiſtration of the Sacraments, or other open prayer, than is mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid booke: (open prayer in, and throughout this Act, is meant that prayer which is for other to come vnto or heare, either in Common Churches, or priuate Chappels, or Oratories, comonly called the ſeruice of the Church) or ſhall preach, declare, or ſpeake any thing in the derogation, or deprauing of the ſaid Booke, or any thing therein contained, or of any part thereof, and ſhall be thereof lawfully conuicted, according to the lawes of this Realme, by verdict of xii. men, or by his owne confeſſion, or by the notorious euidence of the fact, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, for his firſt offence, the profit of ſuch one of his Spirituall benefices or promotions, as it ſhall pleaſe the Kings highneſſe to aſſigne or appoint, comming and ariſing in one whole yeere, next after this conuiction. And alſo that the ſame perſon ſo conuicted, ſhal for the ſame offence ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of ſix moneths, without baile or mainpriſe. And if any ſuch perſon once conuict of any offence concerning the premiſſes, ſhal after his firſt conuiction eftſones offend, and bee thereof in forme aforeſaid, lawfully conuict, that then the ſame perſon ſhall for his ſecond offence ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole yeere, and alſo ſhal therefore be depriued Ipſo facto, of all his ſpirituall promotions: and that it ſhalbe lawfull to all Patrens, Donors, grantors, of all & ſingular the ſame ſpirituall promotions, to preſent to the ſame any other able Clerk in like manner and forme, as though the party ſo offending were dead. And that if any ſuch perſon or perſons, after he ſhall be twice conuicted in forme aforeſaid, ſhall offend againſt any of the premiſſes the third time, and ſhalbe therof in forme aforeſaid lawfully conuict, that then the perſon ſo offending, and conuicted the third time, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment during his life. And if the perſon that ſhall offend, and be conuict in forme aforeſaid, concerning any of the premiſſes, ſhall not be beneficed, nor haue any Spirituall promotion, that then the ſame perſon ſo offending and conuict, ſhall for the firſt offence ſuffer impriſonment during ſix moneths, without baile or mainpriſe. And if any ſuch perſon, not hauing any ſpirituall promotion, after his firſt conuiction ſhall eftſoones offend in any thing concerning the premiſſes, and ſhall in forme aforeſaid bee thereof lawfully conuicted, that then the ſame perſon ſhall for his ſecond offence ſuffer impriſonment during his life.

The penalty for not vſing the booke of Common praier and other rites and ceremonies, according to the vſe of the Church of England.

Vſing any other manner of prayer.

The penalty for deprauing the booke or any thing conteined therein.

The penalty for the ſecond offence.

The penalty for the third offence.

And it is ordeined and enacted by the authority abouesaid, that if any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, after the ſaid Feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, ſhal in any Enterludes, Plaies, Songs, Rimes, or by other open words declare or ſpeake any thing in the derogation, deprauing, or deſpiſing of the ſame booke, or of any thing therein contained, or any part thereof: or ſhall by open fact, deed, or by open threatnings, compell, or cauſe, or otherwiſe procure, or maintaine any Parſon, Vicar, or other Miniſter, in any Cathedrall or Pariſh Church, or in Chappell, or in any other place to ſing or ſay any common and open praier, or to miniſter any ſacrament otherwiſe, or in any other manner or forme, than is mentioned in the ſaid Booke: or that by any of the ſaid meanes ſhall vnlawfully interrupt or let any Parſon, Vicar, or other Miniſters in any Cathedrall or pariſh Church, Chappell, or any other place, to ſing or ſay common and open prayer, or to miniſter the Sacraments, or any of them, in ſuch manner and forme as is mentioned in the ſaid booke, that then euery perſon being thereof lawfully conuicted in forme abouesaid, ſhall forfeit to the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires and ſucceſſors for the firſt offence, ten pounds. And if any perſon or perſons, being once conuicted of any ſuch offence, eftſoones offend againſt any of the premiſſes, and ſhall in forme aforeſaid bee thereof lawfully conuict, that then the ſame perſon ſo offending and conuict, ſhall for the ſecond offence forfeit to the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires and Succeſſors twenty pound. And if any perſon after he in forme aforeſaid, ſhall beene twice conuict of any offence concerning any of the premiſſes, ſhall offend the third time, and bee thereof in forme abouesaid lawfully conuict, that then euery perſon ſo offending and conuict, ſhall for his third offence forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the King all his goods and cattels, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment during his life. And if any perſon or perſons, that for his firſt offence concerning the premiſſes, ſhall be conuict in forme aforeſaid, doe not pay the ſum to be paid by vertue of his conuiction, in ſuch manner and forme, as the ſame ought to bee paid, within ſix weekes next after his conuiction, that then euery perſon ſo conuict, and ſo not paying the ſame, ſhall for the ſame firſt offence in ſtead of the ſaid ten pound ſuffer impriſonment,

The penalty by Plaies, Songs or rimes to depraue the booke of Common prayer, or to compell any to vſe other praier.

The penalty for the ſecond offence.

The penalty for the third offence.

by the ſpace of three moneths without bails or mainepriſe. And if any perſon or perſons, that for his ſecond Offence, concerning the Premiſſes, ſhall bee conuict in forme aforeſaid, doe not pay the ſumme to bee payed by vertue of his conuiction, in ſuch manner and forme, as the ſame ought to bee payed, within ſix Weekes next after his ſaid ſecond Conuiction, that then euery perſon ſo conuicted, and not ſo paying the ſame, ſhall for the ſame ſecond offence, in the ſteed of the ſaid twenty pound ſuffer impriſonment during ſix moneths, without bayle or mainpriſe.

Iuſtices of Oyer, determiner and Aſſiſe ſhall haue power to heare and determine thoſe offences.

And it is ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Iuſtices of Oyer and determiner, or Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, ſhall haue full power and authority in euery of their open and generall Seſſions to enquire, heare and determine, all and all manner of offences, that ſhall bee committed or done contrary to any article contained in this preſent Act, within the limits of the commiſſion to them directed, aud to make proces for the execution of the ſame, as they may doe againſt any perſon being indicted before them of treſpaſſe, or lawfully conuicted thereof.

A Biſhop may ioyne with the Iuſtices.

Prouided alwayes and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop ſhal, or may at all time and times at his liberty and pleaſure, ioyne and aſſociate himſelfe by vertue of this Act, to the ſaid Iuſtices of Oyer & determiner, or to the ſaid Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, at euery of the ſaid open and generall Seſſions to be holden in any place within his Dioceſſe, for, and to the enquiry, hearing and determining of the offences aforeſaid.

Who may vſe prayers in another language.

Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall be lawfull to any man, that vnderſtandeth the Greeke, Latine and Hebrew tongue or other ſtrange tongue to ſay and haue the ſaid prayers, heretofore ſpecified of Mattens and Euenſong in Latine, or any ſuch other tongue, ſaying the ſame priuately as they doe vnderſtand.

And for the further encouraging of learning in the tongues, in the Uniuerſities of Cambridge and Oxford, to vſe and exerciſe in their common and open prayer in their Chappels (being no Pariſh Churches) or other places of prayer, the Mattins, Euenſong, Letany, and all other prayers (The holy Communion commonly called the Maſſe excepted) preſcribed in the ſaid booke, in Greeke, Latine or Hebrew, any thing in this preſent Act, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prouided alſo that it ſhall be lawfull for all men, as well in Churches, Chappels, Oratories, or other places, to vſe openly any Pſalmes or prayer taken out of the Bible, at any due time not letting or omitting thereby the ſeruice, or any part thereof mentioned in the ſaid Booke.

When the Seruice bookes ſhall be gotten.

Prouided alſo and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the bookes concerning the ſaid ſeruices, ſhall at the coſts and charges of the pariſhioners of euery pariſh and Cathedral Church, be attained and gotten before the Feaſt of Pentecoſt next following, and that all ſuch Pariſhes and Cathedrall Churches, or other places where the ſaid bookes ſhall bee attained and gotten before the ſaid feaſt of Pentecoſt, ſhall within three weeks next after the ſaid bookes ſo attained and gotten, vſe the ſaid ſeruice, and put the ſame in vre according to this Act.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be at any time hereafter impeached or otherwiſe moleſted, of, or for any of the offences aboue mentioned, hereafter to be committed or done contrary to this Act, vnleſſe he or they ſo offending be thereof endited at the next generall Seſſions, to bee holden before any of the Iuſtices of Oyer & determiner, or Iuſtices of Aſſiſe next after any offence committed or done, contrary to the tenour of this Act.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular Lords of the Parliament, for the ſaid offences aboue mentioned, ſhall bee tried by their Peeres.

Chiefe officers of Cities, & corporat Townes may heare and determine theſe offences.

Prouided alſo, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Maior of London, and all other Mayors, Bailiffes, and other head officers, of all and ſingular Cities, boroughs and townes corporate within this Realme, Wales, Calice, and the Marches of the ſame, to the which Iuſtices of Aſſiſe doe not commonly repaire, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, to enquire, heare and determine the offences aboueſaid, and euery of them yeerly within fifteene dayes after the feaſt of Eaſter, and Saint Michael the Archangell, in like manner and forme as Iuſtices of Aſſiſe and Oyer & determiner may doe.

Theſe offences inquirable and puniſhable by the Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction.

Prouided alwaies, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular Archbiſhops and Biſhops, and euery of their Chancellors, Commiſſaries, Archdeacons, and other Ordinaries hauing any peculiar Eccleſiaſticall Iuriſdiction, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, as well to enquire in their Viſitations, Synodes, and elſewhere within their iuriſdiction, at any other time and place, to take occaſions and informations of all and euery the things aboue mentioned, done, committed or perpetrate, within the limits of their iuriſdictions and authority, and to puniſh the ſame by admonition, excommunication, ſequeſtration, or depriuation, and other cenſures and proceſſe in like forme as heretofore hath beene vſed in like caſes, by the Kings Eccleſiaſticall Lawes.

Prouided alwaies and be it enacted, that whatſoeuer perſon offending in the premiſſes, ſhal for the firſt offence receiue puniſhment of the Ordinary, hauing a teſtimonial thereof, vnder the ſaid Ordinaries Seale, ſhall not for the ſame offence eftſoones bee conuicted before the Iuſtices, and likewiſe receiuing for the ſaid firſt offence, puniſhment by the Iuſtices, he ſhall not for the ſame offence eftſoones receiue puniſhment of the Ordinary, any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

But once puniſhed for one offence.

Th ſtatute was repealed by 1.M.2.ſeſſ.2. But the ſame 1.M.being repealed, by 1. Iac. 25. this preſent ſtatute ſtands now in force, ſaue that it is in part altered by 5.Ed.6.1.& by 1.El.2.

Cap. II.

Captaines and Souldiers not doing their true ſeruice, and neglecting their offices, ſhall be puniſhed.

Where before this time, diuers of the Kings Maieſties louing and obedient ſubiects, according to their bounden duties, haue aſſigned, appointed and ſent forth, as well in the parts beyond the Seas, and to the Seas, as alſo into Scotland and other places, diuers times both within this Realme and without this Realme, many able perſons or Souldiers well furniſhed, with good Horſes and Harneſſes, meete to ſerue the King in warres, to their great charges and coſts, yet ſome of the ſaid Souldiers ſo ſent to ſerue, contrary to their Maſters expectation, and contrary to their bounden duties to the Kings Highneſſe, haue ſold, loſt, exchanged, or altered their Maſters horſe and Harneſſe, or otherwiſe by deceit or couin conuerted the ſame: By meane whereof the Kings Highneſſe hath not only beene deſtitute of the ſame ſouldiers in time of neede, but alſo the owners of the ſaid Horſes and Harneſſe, who ſent them thither, haue beene vntruly deceiued of their horſes and harneſſe, being thereby leſſe able to refurniſh other the like ſouldiers with Horſe and Harneſſes, at ſuch time as they ſhall bee thereunto commanded by the Kings Highneſſe.

And ſometime the Captaines of ſuch ſouldiers departed, haue demanded, had and taken of the Kings highneſſe wages for the ſame ſouldiers ſo departed, by meane whereof the Kings Maieſty hath ſuſtained and borne great payments, and yet his Maieſty hath not beene truly ſerued for the ſame, not a little to the diſpleaſure of the King, and to the great charge of the poore ſubiects being commanded to ſet forth ſuch ſouldiers.

For remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that if any Souldier hereafter, ſeruing the King in his warres, in any his dominions, or on the ſeas, or beyond the ſeas, or in Scotland, after the firſt day of April next comming, doe ſell, giue away, or wilfully purloyne, or otherwiſe exchange, alter or put away any horſe, Gelding, or Mare, or any harneſſe wherewith he ſhalbe ſet forth: that then euery ſuch ſouldier ſo offending, vpon due proofe, or teſtimony to be taken before the Lieutenant, high Admiral, the Kings deputy, Viceadmirall, Warden or Captaine, and in their abſence before any of their Deputies, ſhall be impriſoned by the ſame Lieutenant, or any other before named, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, vntill he haue ſatisfied to the party, owner of the Horſe, Gelding, Mare, or harneſſe ſo by him ſold, purloyned, exchanged, wilfully loſt, altered, or otherwiſe made away.

The penalty of a Souldier that maketh away his Horſe or harneſſes. Stat.4.& 5.P.& M.2.

And if ſuch ſouldiers ſo offending, fortune to eſcape from the Lieutenant, and other the foreſaid perſons, without the puniſhment and reſtitution aforeſaid, that then the ſame ſouldier vpon complaint made by the party grieued, or his executors or adminiſtrators, vpon due proofe thereof to be made to any Iuſtice or Iuſtices of Peace, in the parts where ſuch ſouldier ſo offending ſhal be found, ſhalbe by ſuch Iuſtice or Iuſtices committed to Ward, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, vntill hee haue ſatiſfied the party grieued, his executors or adminiſtrators, of and for ſuch horſes, geldings, or mares, and harneſſe, ſo by any ſuch ſouldier wilfully loſt, exchanged, altered, or otherwiſe purloyned.

Prouided alway, that if the ſaid ſouldier bring any ſufficient warrant or teſtimony before the ſaid Iuſtice, from the ſaid Lieutenant, or any of the perſons aboue named in writing vnder the Seale of any of them, teſtifying that the ſame Horſe or Harneſſe were loſt in the Kings ſeruice, againſt the will of the ſaid Souldier, or that the ſame horſe or harneſſe was taken by the ſame Lieutenant, or any of the others before named, from the ſaid Souldier, for any reaſonable reſpect, and appointed to ſome other, to ſerue in the place and ſtead of the ſaid ſouldier: that then euery ſuch ſouldier, not bringing to the owner the ſaid horſe & harneſſe, ſhalbe diſcharged thereof againſt the owner thereof. And that then euery ſuch ſouldier to whom the ſaid horſe or harneſſe ſhal be appointed, as is aforeſaid, not bringing home to the owner, the ſaid horſe and harneſſe, after he ſhalbe diſcharged, to ſuffer like paine as is aforeſaid.

A remedy if the Horſe or harneſſe be loſt, or appointed to another.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any ſouldier ſeruing as is aforeſaid,

It ſhalbe felony for a ſouldier to depart from his Captaine without licence.

St.18.H.6.19. 5.El.5.1.Iac.25. 4 & 5.P.& M.3.

The penalty of a Commiſſioner, licencing a ſouldier to depart, and aſſigning another for gaine.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any Commiſſioner or Captain to whom the King ſhall direct his commandement, by cõmiſſion or letters, for the leuying or ſetting forth of any man to ſerue the King in his warres, ſhall at any time after the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, for any gaine, reward or other lucre, diſcharge any perſon or perſons by him appointed to ſerue the King, as a Captaine, Souldier or Pionor, of his ſeruice ſo appointed, and doe aſſigne any other perſon or perſons in his or their ſtead, for any lucre or gaine as is aforeſaid, that then euery Commiſſioner or other perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit to the King, for euery ſuch default of euery man ſo diſcharged, twenty pound to be leuied of his goods and cattels.

A Captaine licenceth one in his retinue to to depart.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any Captaine being appointed to haue the order of any number of ſouldiers vnder any other higher officer, doe for any cauſe licence any ſouldier in his retinue to depart from the field or fortreſſe, where they ſhalbe appointed to ſerue without the ſpeciall aſſent and licence in writing of the Lieutenant or the others before named, he ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch ſouldier, ſo by him licenced to depart, twenty pound to bee leuied as is aforeſaid, to the vſe of the King.

A Captaine demanding more wages for his ſouldiers, than there is cauſe.

And bee it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any Lieutenant, or any other before named: hauing the order of any number of ſouldiers ſeruing, as is aforeſaid vpon the ſea or land, doe at any time after the ſaid firſt day of April demaund, receiue or take of the Kings highneſſe, or any of his Treaſurers, any wages for any more ſouldiers, than ſerued in ſuch manner & forme as the wages was paid for, or for any moe dayes than ſuch ſouldiers ſerued, and doe not note the day of euery ſouldiers entry into wages, and day of his death and departure, and deliuer the ſame to ſuch Treaſurers as ſhall pay the ſaid wages, euery moneth in writing, ſo as the truth of the number of the ſouldiers may appeare to the Kings Treaſurer, and Maſter of the Kings Muſters for the time being, in that behalfe, that then euery ſuch Lieutenant, and other before named ſo offending, ſhall forfeit and loſe to the King for euery ſuch default fiue pound, to be leuied as is aforeſaid to the vſe of the King, and to bee impriſoned by the ſpace of one moneth, and to loſe his roome and office.

None but the Lieutenant ſhal giue a ſouldier licence to depart.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no Captaine after the ſaid firſt day of Aprill ſhall giue to any of his ſouldiers, appointed to ſerue vnder him in any Towne or Fortreſſe, kept with gariſons of ſouldiers, any licence or paſports to depart from his ſeruice, but only the Lieutenant or any others, as is aforeſaid, vpon paine of impriſonment, as well of the Captaine as ſouldier ſo offending, at the diſcretion of the ſaid Lieutenant, or the others before named.

Proclamation of this Act.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery Lieutenant and other before named, vpon the paine of ten pound, ſhall cauſe to be proclaimed, the whole effect and contents of this act. That is to ſay, euery Lieutenant of an army, in euery field vnder his charge, to proclaim this act euery moneth, and that euery of the Kings deputies of euery Fortreſſe and Captaine of any other fortreſſe, to proclaime this Act within his charge, once euery quarter of a yeere.

Reward for informing of offences.

And alſo be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, for the better execution of the premiſſes, that euery perſon or perſons, giuing to the Lieutenant or the others aboue named, true information of any of the offences aboue remembred, ſhall haue for his labour one moneths wages of him that ſhalbe found faulty, to be paid by the hand of the treaſurer, vpon warrant of the ſaid Lieutenant, or any of the others aforeſaid.

Prouided alwaies, that nothing herein contained, ſhall in any wiſe extend to touch or infringe any orders eſtabliſhed for the gouernment of Calice, and the Marches of the ſame, or any other place of the Kings, now gouerned, or hereafter to be gouerned by the ſame orders, or by ſuch orders as may pleaſe his grace hereafter to ſet forth for the ſame.

Retaining of wages.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull for all & euery of the ſaid Lieutenants, and other the ſaid perſons to retaine in his or their owne hands, to their owne vſe, of the wages of his or their ſouldiers, the ſummes following, that is to ſay, ſix ſhillings eight pence for the liuery or coat of euery yeoman ſouldier, and thirteene ſhillings foure pence for the liuery or coat of euery gentleman ſouldier for one whole yeere.

In what caſes a Lieutenant ſhall not be preiudiced for lacke of his number.

Prouided alwayes and bee it further ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no manner of Lieutenant, or any other the ſaid perſons, ſhall hereafter bee charged or preiudiced by vertue of this Act, or any thing therein contained, for lacke of his or their number retained, as is aforeſaid, for, or concerning any ſouldier or ſouldiers, as ſhal happen to dye during his ſeruice, or to be ſicke by the viſitation of God, or that ſhall depart againſt the will of his Lieutenant, or other before named, vnleſſe it ſhall be in the default of any of them.

Prouided alwaies, that this Act bee not preiudiciall or hurtfull to the ſaid Lieutenant, or any other the ſaid perſons, or any other hauing vnder them retinue of ſouldiers, nor any of them, for none paiment of the Kings wages, to their houſhold ſeruants and other, to whom thy ſhall daily finde and giue meat and drinke, during the ſaid ſeruice of warre.

Houſhold ſeruants ſhall not be compriſed in this Act.

Prouided alway that this act, nor nothing therein contained, ſhall extend to charge any perſon or perſons for the taking or receiuing of any gift or reward, of any of his or their tenants or friends towards the reliefe, aid, or helpe of the ſame perſons, being commanded by the Kings Maieſty to ſerue in warres, or otherwiſe to finde men on horſebacke or on foot, as well within this Realme or without; Nor for the gift, reward, aid or helpe, reſerued or couenanted to be paid or giuen to any perſon appointed to ſerue in warres, or to find horſe or men to ſerue by reaſon of any grant, couenant, reſeruation, cuſtome or tenure.

Reliefe of tenants or friends. Stat. 4. & 5. P. & M. 3.

Prouided that this act nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to charge any Lieutenant or others aboue named, for detaining or retaining any part of any the ſaid ſouldiers wages toward, or for the paiment of victuals, harneſſe, weapons, or for any preſt money prouided and deliuered to any ſuch ſouldier.

Lawfull cauſes of detaining wages from Souldiers.

CAP. III.

No Purueyor, or other perſon, by authority of any Commiſſion or other warrant, ſhall during three yeares next, puruey or take for the prouiſion of the Kings houſhold, his ſiſters, or any other perſons, any Corne, Beeues, muttons, &c. wood, cole, ſtraw, hay, or any kinde of victuals, without the full conſent of the owner, and at ſuch price for ready money, as the owner and Purueyor can agree: Or ſhall take for any of the Kings affaires, or the warres or otherwiſe, any goods, cattels, or other things whatſoeuer (ſauing Barges, Ships, Carts, and things neceſſarie for carriages) without conſent of the owner, and at ſuch prices for ready money, as the owner and Purueyor can agree, (except poſt-horſes, for which ſhall bee payed a peny a mile.) And if any Taker, or other perſon ſhall offend in any point contrary to the ordinance aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit to the partie grieued treble the value of the thing taken, ſuffer impriſonment a quarter of a yeare, and make fine at the Kings pleaſure. The King will allow to the owner of euery cart taken, for his houſhold foure pence a mile, and for the warres, and other carriages, three pence a mile. EXP.

CAP. IIII.

Sheriffes vpon their accompts in the Exchequer, vpon their oath taken ſhall be diſcharged of all ſuch moneys as they cannot leuy, and ſhall haue their due allowances.

MOſt humbly beſeechen the Kings moſt excellent Maieſty, his true and faithfull ſubiects, the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled: That where in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter, the ſixteenth day of January, in the three and thirtieth yeere of the Reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord of famous memory, King Henry the eight, and by prorogation holden at Weſtminſter the two and twentieth day of January, in the foure and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord, and there continued vntill the twelfth day of May, in the fiue and thirtieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late King: Vpon diuers and ſundry conſiderations, there was enacted and made an act, by the authority of the ſame Parliament, concerning the account or accounts of Sheriffes, to be made in the Exchequer, as in the ſame act more plainly at large it is contained.

And albeit it was meant, at the time of the making of the ſaid Act, as it may appeare by the words of the ſaid Act, that Sheriffes ſhould not be charged vpon their accompts, but onely with ſuch ſummes of money as they might lawfully leuy: And alſo that the ſaid Sheriffes ſhould haue allowance, not all only for ſuch charges and expences, as they ſhould ſuſtaine and beare for the diets and charges of the Juſtices of Aſſiſe, but alſo for other neceſſary charges and expences by them ſuſtained, in and about the exerciſing of their ſaid office: Yet neuertheleſſe, the ſaid Sheriffes are and haue beene, ſithen the making of the ſaid Act, more and ſorer charged, vexed and troubled than they were before, to the great impoueriſhment of men of worſhip and gentlemen within this realme, that haue bin Sheriffes, and ſo is very like to be to all ſuch as hereafter ſhall be Sheriffes, if remedy bee not prouided in this behalfe: it may therefore pleaſe the Kings moſt excellent Maieſty, that it may be enacted and eſtabliſhed, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid former Act, and all clauſes and ſentences in the ſame contained, ſhall be from henceforth cleerely fruſtrate and void, to all intents and purpoſes, other than hereafter in this Act ſhalbe ſpecified.

The ſtatute of 34. H. 8. 16. touching Sheriffes rehearſed and repealed.

And that it may be enacted by this preſent Parliament, that the Sheriffes which ſhalbe made from henceforth within all the Shires of England: and alſo ſuch as haue not made and finiſhed their accompt or accompts, ſhall haue ſuch & like tailes of reward, and all ſuch other allowances as they had before the making of the ſaid former act, or elſe the ſame Sheriffes which ſhall bee or heretofore haue beene, to bee at their election and choice to accompt, and all other things to doe, according to the aforeſaid former Act. And that they, and euery of them that ſo ſhall accompt, and take no taile of reward ſhalbe in, and by all things intreated in the Kings Exchequer, as though the ſaid former Act were and ſhould continue in his full ſtrength and effect, any thing before ſpecified notwithſtanding.

Euery Sheriffe ſhall haue tailes of reward.

And that the ſame tailes of reward, and euery of them by force of this preſent Act, without any further warrant or warrants to be obtained for the ſame, ſhalbe leuied or ſtrikē at the receipt of the kings maieſties Exchequer in due manner and forme, with ſuch like letter or writings, vpon the ſame tailes and euery of them, as before the making of the ſaid former Act were and haue beene accuſtomed to be leuied and ſtriken.

And that the ſame tailes ſo hereafter there to be leuied and ſtriken, ſhalbe deliuered vnto euery of the ſame Sheriffes, or their ſufficient Atturney for them without preſt or other charge to be ſet vpon them for the ſame.

And that this act ſhalbe a ſufficient warrant and diſcharge vnto the Treaſurer of England, and all other Officers within the ſaid receipt, for ſtriking, leuying and deliuery of the ſaid tailes and euery of them.

Sheriffes allowances that haue no tailes of reward.

And further, that all thoſe Sheriffes that hereafter ſhalbe made within thoſe Shires of England, wheras no tailes of reward haue heretofore beene by the Kings Maieſties moſt noble Progenitors giuen and granted, and ſuch Sheriffes as ſhall hereafter take no taile of reward, ſhall in conſideration of their great coſts, charges and expences which they ſhall beare and ſuſtaine, as well by the diets of the Iuſtices of Aſſiſes, as by any other meanes, haue vpon the end of their accompts, and of euery of them, ſuch allowances vpon a petition to bee made by the ſame Sheriffes or any of them, in a bill to be brought in by the ſame Sheriffes and euery of them, of their ſaid coſts and charges, vpon which bils the ſame Sheriffes to bee ſworne in their owne proper perſons, or by their vnder Sheriffes or lawſull Atturney, thereunto admitted to be true without warrant or taile ſuing for the ſame.

And alſo that all Sheriffes which hereafter ſhall take no taile of reward, and euery of them, ſhall be diſcharged vpon their accompts of all ſuch fermes, goods, cattels, profits, caſualties, and ſummes of money, which they might or ſhould bee charged with vpon their accompts in the ſaid Exchequer, by what title or name ſoeuer they be named, or vpon whatſoeuer perſon or perſons they ſhalbe ſtreated, or out of whatſoeuer lands and tenements they ſhal bee going forth, as they cannot leuy or come by.

Sheriffes allowances for ſuch Vicountels concerning poſſeſſions as be come to the Kings hands by vnity of poſſeſſion.

And that all other Sheriffes which hereafter ſhal take any taile of reward, ſhal in like manner, be diſcharged of all ſuch fermes and ſummes of money aforeſaid (except onely of the Vicountels of their Shires, wherewith they ſhalbe charged, and anſwerable as they were before the making of the foreſaid former Act.) And alſo the ſame Sheriffes of euery Shire of England that now be, or heretofore haue beene, or that hereafter ſhall be, and euery of them, ſhall haue plaine deduction and allowance in their ſaid accompts, of all ſuch ſumme and ſummes of money, as they or any of them, ſhall make or haue made true petition of, for, or concerning ſuch poſſeſſions and hereditaments, as bee come vnto, or were in the Kings Maieſties hands, or any his Progenitors, by vnity of poſſeſſion or by any meane, out of the which any part or parcell of the foreſaid Vicountels, were at any time heretofore leuiable or leuied. And that the Lord Treaſurer, Chamberlain, Chancellor and Barons of the ſaid Exchequer, or in the abſence of the ſaid Lord Treaſurer, Chamberlaine, and Chancellor, the ſaid Barons ſhall by authority of this act, giue and make allowance, deduction and exoneration, to euery of the ſaid Sheriffes of the ſaid fermes, and of all other things without any other warrant.

The Sheriffe ſhall be ſworne to bring into the Exchequer rols of parchment, of money which he hath or might haue leuied.

Prouided alway, that euery of the ſaid Sheriffes at his day of prefection, immediatly after that he or his Deputy or Atturney, is ſworne to accompt for the iſſues and profits of his office of Sheriffewike, ſhall by himſelfe or by his Atturney, or Deputy ſworne for him, when he ſhall anſwer before the Lord Treaſurer, Chamberlaines, Chancellor and Barons of the ſaid Exchequer, or in the abſence of the ſaid Lord Treaſurer, Chamberlain or Chancellor, or of any of them: then before ſuch of the ſaid Lord Treaſurer, Chamberlaines or Chancellor, and of the ſaid Barons, as then ſhall happen to bee preſent, in the ſaid Court of Exchequer, to bring in and deliuer into the ſaid Court, Rols, or Cedules of Parchment, containing in them truly, without omiſſion or concealment, all ſuch particular ſummes of money, which hee hath leuied, or lawfully might haue leuied, to his weting or knowledge within his Bailiffewike, as part or parcell as well of the ſaid fermes, called Vicoundels, in the ſaid former Act expreſſed, as of all other fermes of what name or title ſoeuer they be called, being ſtreated, writtē or otherwiſe charged, to any of the ſaid Sheriffes, out of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, making expreſſe and diſtinct mention in the ſame Rols or Cedules, as nigh as hee or they can or may, of what perſon, and what lands and tenements, and for what cauſe the ſame particular ſums of money, and euery of them be leuied or leuiable: and that after the ſame Rols or Cedules ſo deliuered, and the particular ſums of money in them contained, appertaining to their proper fermes, caſt and rated in the ſaid Court, the ſaid Lord Treaſurer, Chamberlaine, Chancellor and the ſaid Barons, in the abſence of the ſaid Treaſurer, Chamberlaines or Chancellor, or any of them for the time being, ſhall haue full power and authority by this act, for the leuying and recouery of ſuch parcels belonging to any the ſaid fermes, called Vicountels, or any other fermes, by what name or title ſoeuer they ſhalbe called, being omitted out of the ſaid Rols or Cedules, & for ſauing of other the Kings ancient rights and inheritances, anſwerable in the ſaid Exchequer, which be now wrongfully withdrawne, or vniuſtly withholden from the Kings Maieſty his poſſeſſions : and ſhall haue power and authority from time to time to award ſuch proceſſe, and vſe ſuch conuenient waies and meanes by commiſſion or otherwiſe, according to the courſe of the ſaid Exchequer, and further as ſhalbe deuiſed by their diſcretion : ſo that the Kings Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſors may bee truly anſwered of the Iſſues and profits of the ſame: this Act, or any other ſtatute, Act, ordinance, or vſe heretofore, to the contrary had, made or vſed in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proceſſe ſhalbe awarded out of the Exchequer, to enquire of the Kings debt.

And furthermore, that the ſaid Treaſurer, Chamberlaines, Chancellor and Barons of the ſaid Exchequer, or the ſaid Barons in the abſence of the ſaid Treaſurer, Chamberlaines or Chancellor, or any of them for the time being, ſhall haue full power and authority, by their diſcretions, from time to time, to giue and allow, vnto all and euery ſuch Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, as they ſhall aſſigne and appoint by their diſcretion, to enquire of the ſaid fermes, and other the Kings rights withdrawne, their reaſonable coſts and charges, as from time to time, to them ſhal ſeeme good and conuenient.

Allowance made to Commiſſioners for their coſts.

Cap. V.

Such fee fermes and ſummes of money, paid for fee fermes, as by any City, Borough, or Towne corporate within England or Wales, or by the bodies corporate or politike, Officers or Miniſters of the ſame, ought to be due and payable to the King, &c. during three yeeres next enſuing, ſhall ceaſe, and not be due: and ſhalbe beſtowed about repairing of wals, bridges, ſetting poore on work, or other good deeds in euery ſuch City, &c. But if the King hath granted the fee ferme to any other, he ſhall enioy it. Exp. Stat. 3. Ed. 6. 18.

Cap. VI.

No Officer ſhall exact any money of any Merchant or Fiſherman trauelling into Ireland for Fiſh.

For as much as within theſe few yeares now laſt paſt, there hath beene leuied, perceiued and taken, by certaine of the Officers of the Admiraltie, of ſuch Merchants and Fiſhermen as haue vſed and practiſed the aduentures and iourneyes into Iſland, New found land, Ireland, and other places commodious for fiſhing, and the getting of fiſh, in and vpon the Seas or otherwiſe, by way of Merchandiſe in thoſe parts, diuers great exactions, as ſummes of money, doles, or ſhares of fiſh, and ſuch other like things, to the great diſcouragement and hinderance of the ſame Merchants and Fiſhermen, and to no little damage to the whole Common weale.

And whereas alſo great complaints haue bin made, and informations alſo yeerly to the Kings Maieſties moſt honourable Councell: for reformation wherof, and to the intent alſo, that the ſaid Merchants and Fiſhermen may haue occaſion the rather to practiſe and vſe the ſame trade of Merchandiſe and fiſhing freely without any ſuch charges or exactions, as is before limited, whereby it is to be thought, that more plenty of Fiſh ſhall come into this Realme, and thereby to haue the ſame at more reaſonable price.

Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That neither the Admirall nor any Officer nor Miniſter, Officers or Miniſters of the Admiralty for the time being, ſhal in any wiſe hereafter exact, receiue or take by himſelfe, his ſeruant, deputy, ſeruants or deputies of any ſuch Merchant or Fiſherman, any ſumme or ſummes of money, doles or ſhares of fiſh, or any other reward, benefit or aduantage whatſoeuer it be, for any licence to paſſe this Realme to the ſaid voyages or any of them: Nor vpon any reſpect concerning the ſaid voyages or any of them, vpon paine to forfeit for the firſt offence, treble the ſum, or treble the value of the reward, benefit or aduantage, that any ſuch Officer or Miniſter ſhall hereafter haue or take, of any ſuch Merchant or Fiſherman. For the which forfeiture the party grieued, and euery other perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer he or they be, ſhall and may ſue for the ſame, by information, bill, plaint, or action of debt, in any of the Kings Courts of record, the King to haue the one moytie, and the party complaining the other moity: in which ſuit no eſſoine, protection or wager of law ſhall be allowed: and for the ſecond offence, the party ſo offending, not only to loſe or forfeit his or their office or offices in the Admiralty, but alſo to make fine and ranſome at the Kings wil & pleaſure.

There ſhall be no exaction by the Admirall or his officers of any Merchant, &c. trauelling for fiſh.

Cap. VII.

Thoſe Penſioners that by the crafty practices of others, did ſell them ſuch Penſions as by the Kings Patents were granted vnto them out of Abbey and religious Lands, for life, ſhall haue their Penſions againe. So that they pay or tender ſo much money as they receiued for their ſaid Penſions. EXP.

Cap. VIII.

How offices in ſome caſes ſhall be found before Eſcheators.

Leſſees for yeers or copiholders being put forth of poſſeſſion by the King by the Common Law ſhall haue no remedy.

Where many and diuers perſons holding, or that haue holden lands, tenements or hereditaments, ſome for terme of yéeres, and ſome by copy of Court roll, haue béene expulſed and put out of their terms and holds, by reaſon of inquiſitions or offices, founden before Eſcheators, Commiſſioners and other, containing tenures of the King in capite, intituling the King to the wardſhip or cuſtody of ſuch lands or tenements, and ſometime intituling the King to the ſame vpon attainders of treaſon, felony or otherwiſe, by reaſō that ſuch leaſes for terme of yéers or intereſt by copy of Court roll, of ſuch perſons haue not béene found in ſuch inquiſitions or offices: after which expulſion or putting out, the ſaid perſons haue béene without remedy, for the obtaining of the ſaid fermes and holds, during the Kings poſſeſſion therin, and can haue no trauerſe Monſtrance de droyt, ne other remedy for the ſame, becauſe their ſaid intereſt is but a chattell in the law or cuſtomary hold, and no ſtate of fréehold.

And alſo where any perſon or perſons, hath any rent, common, office, fée, or other profit Apprendre, of any ſtate of fréehold or for yéeres, or otherwiſe, out of ſuch lands or tenements, ſpecified in ſuch offices or inquiſition, the ſaid rent, common, office, fée or profit Apprendre, not found in the ſame office or offices, ſuch perſons are in like manner without remedy, to obtaine or haue the ſaid rent, common, office, fée or profit Apprendre, by any trauerſe or other ſpéedy meane, without great and exceſſe charges, during the Kings intereſt therein, by force of ſuch inquiſition or office.

The intereſt of others ſhall be ſaued, though they be not found by office.

For remedy whereof be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That where any ſuch office or inquiſition, is or ſhall be founden, omitting ſuch titles, intereſts, or matters, as is aforeſaid, that in all ſuch caſes, euery leſſée, tenant for terme of yéeres, or copy holder, and euery ſuch perſon or perſons that haue or ſhall haue any intereſt to any rent, common or profit Apprendre, for terme of yéeres, life, or otherwiſe, out of any of the lands, tenements, or hereditaments contained in ſuch office or inquiſition, where the King his heires or ſucceſſors, is or ſhall be intituled, as is aforeſaid, to any ſuch lands, tenements or hereditaments, ſhall haue, hold, enioy, and perceiue all and euery their leaſes & intereſts for terme of yéeres, or by copy of Court roll, rents commons, offices, fées and profit Apprendre, in ſuch manner, forme, ſtate and condition, as they and euery of them ſhould or might haue done, in caſe there had béene no ſuch office or inquiſition founden, and as they ſhould, or lawfully might or ought to haue done, in caſe ſuch leaſe, intereſt by copy of Court roll, rent, common, office, fée or profit Apprendre had béene founden in ſuch office or inquiſition, any law, cuſtome, or vſage to the contrary, heretofore vſed in ſuch caſes, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And alſo where it is or ſhall be founden for the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, that the heire or heires of his tenant or tenants, is or ſhall be within age, where in déed ſuch heire or heires, is or ſhall be at the ſame time of full age, or of a more or greater age than is or ſhalbe contained within ſuch office.

A remedy where an heire of full age ſhalbe found within age.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that in euery ſuch caſe, ſuch heire and heires, ſhal and may at his or their very full age, or after proſecute a writ of Ætate probanda, and ſue his or their liuery, or Ouſtre le maine, as his or their caſes ſhall lie, and haue the [a] profits of his or their lands, tenements or hereditaments, from the time of his or their very full age, any ſuch vntrue office or inquiſition, or any law or cuſtome to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

[a] Br.office

Trauers to an vntrue office found after the death of the Kings tenant, or vpon attainder of treaſon, felony, &c.

Alſo, where one perſon or moe, is or ſhalbe founden heire to the Kings tenant, by office or inquiſition, where any other perſon is or ſhalbe heire, or if one perſon or moe, be or ſhalbe founden heire by office or inquiſitiō in one county, and another perſon or perſons is or ſhal be found heire to the ſame perſon in another County, or if any perſon bee or ſhall bee vntruly founden lunatike ideot or dead: Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery perſon and perſons, grieued or to be grieued by any ſuch office or inquiſition, ſhal and may haue his or their trauers to the ſame, immediatly or after, at his or their pleaſure, and procéed to triall therin, and haue like remedy & aduantage, as in other caſes [b] of trauers vpon vntrue inquiſitions, or offices founden, any law, vſage or cuſtome to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

[b] Dyer.fol Coke li.7.

Alſo where it is or ſhalbe hereafter vntruly founden by office or inquiſition, that any perſon or perſons attainted, or that ſhalbe attainted of treaſon, felony, or premunire, is or ſhall be ſeiſed of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, at any time of ſuch treaſon, felony or offence committed or done, or any time after, whereunto any other perſon or perſons hath, or ſhall haue any iuſt title or intereſt of any eſtate of freehold, that then in euery ſuch caſe, euery perſon and perſons grieued thereby, ſhall haue his or their trauerſe, or Monſtrance de droit to the ſame, without being driuen to any petition of right, and like remedy and reſtitution vpon his or their title, found, or iudged for him or them therein, as hath been accuſtomed and vſed, in other caſes of trauers, although the Kings Maieſty, his heires or ſucceſſors, be, or ſhall be, in ſuch caſe intitled to any ſuch lands tenements, or hereditaments, by double matter of Record, any Law, cuſtome or vſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A trauerſe though the king be intituled by double matter of record.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that where any inquiſition or office, is or ſhall be founden by theſe words, or like, Quod de quo vel de quibus, teuementa pred. tenent. Iurat. predict. ignorant, or elſe founden, holden of the King, Per quæ ſeruic. gnorant, or ſuch like, that in ſuch caſe, ſuch Tenure ſo vncertainely founden,[a] De quo vel de quibus tenementa predict. tenentur ignorant ſhal not be taken for any immediat tenure of the King, nor ſuch tenure ſo founden of the King, Per quæ ſeruic. ignorant, ſhall not bee taken any Tenure in Capite, but in ſuch caſes,[b] a melius inquirendum, to be awarded as hath beene accuſtomed in old time, any vſage of later time to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Trauerſe to an office.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that where it is or ſhall be founden by any office or inquiſition, that any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, are, or ſhall bee diſcenden, remained, or commen to any heire[c] within age, and in the Kings ward, or that ought to be in the Kings ward, and that ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, are holden of the King immediatly, where indeed the ſame are or ſhall be holden of ſome other common perſon, and not of the king immediatly: that in ſuch caſe, ſuch heire or heires, ſhall and may haue their trauerſe to the ſame, within age, and like remedy & reſtitution vpon his or their title, found or iudged for him or them therein, as hath been accuſtomed and vſed in other caſes of trauerſes: any law, vſage or cuſtome, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Trauerſe to an office where a wrong tenure is found.

Alſo where the Kings Maieſty by his prerogatiue, ought to haue as well ſuch lands and tenements as be holden of other perſons, as holden of himſelfe immediatly, whereof his tenant holding of him in chiefe, dyeth ſeiſed his heire being within age, vntill ſuch time as liuery be ſued by ſuch heire, and that the meane Lords, of whom the ſaid other lands and tenements of ſuch heire be holden, vſed to ſpare the rents due to them for the ſame lands or tenements holden of them, during the Kings poſſeſſion. And when ſuch heire hath ſued his or their liuery they vſe by diſtreſſe, or otherwiſe to compell the ſaid heire to pay to them the arrerages of ſuch rents, for ſuch time as the ſaid Lands or Tenements, were in the Kings poſſeſſion by ſuch minority, where they ſhould haue ſued by petition to the Kings Maieſty to haue obtained the ſame, out of the Kings hands, if they would haue the ſame, which is to the great detriment, loſſe, and hinderance of ſuch heire and heires: for redreſſe whereof, be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that from henceforth ſuch meane Lords during ſuch minority, ſhal haue, receiue, and take the ſaid rents, by the hands of ſuch the Kings officers, as ſhalbe appointed to haue, receiue and take the iſſues, reuenues and profits of the ſame lands and tenements ſo holden of ſuch mean Lords,[d] during the minority and none age of ſuch heire and heires, and vntill ſuch heire and heires ſue his or their liuery, and that ſuch heire and heires vntill ſuch time as hee or they ſhall haue ſued their liuery, or might conuenientlly haue ſued their liuery, ſhalbe thereof cleerly diſcharged.

A remedy for the rents of the meane Lords where the King hath the wardſhip.

Cap. X.

In what manner Malt ſhall be made and vſed.

Generall vnlawfull practices vſed in the making and ſelling of Malt.

Where diuers and ſundꝛy perſons taking vpon them the art and myſtery of Maltmaking, and tendering moꝛe their owne pꝛiuate lucre, gaine, and pꝛofit, than the wholſome vittelling of the King Maieſty, the nobility of this Realme, and other his graces ſubiects, haue now of late by their vnſatiable, couetous, and gréedy mindes, accuſtomably and commonly made much Malt, vnpure and vnſeaſonable, foꝛ that they haue made the ſame Malt in eight oꝛ nine dayes, where indéed the ſame cannot be well and perfectly made, vnleſſe it haue the time and ſpace of xii dayes in the making thereof. And where alſo diuers and ſundꝛy of the ſaid makers of Malt, commonly haue and doe ſlackly and deceitfully dꝛy the Malt, ſo by them made foꝛ that they would haue an inoꝛdinate increaſe thereof, by the ſwelling of the ſaid Malt, whereby the ſame Malt not being ſufficiently dꝛied, cannot be kept any long time oꝛ ſpace but it will be muſty and full of weuels, whereby no wholeſome dꝛinke foꝛ mans body can by any meanes be thereof made, which is not only to the great perill, and danger of the Nobility, and other the Kings highneſſe ſubiects within this realme, and alſo to the great loſſe and decay of the commonwealth of the ſame, but alſo an vtter impoueriſhment of the Bꝛewers of this ſaid realme, foꝛ that the ſaid Bꝛewers (ouer and beſides the vnwholeſomeneſſe of the dꝛinke, which is commonly made thereof) cannot make ſo much dꝛinke of fifty quarters of Malt, being ſo euill dꝛied and made, as they might, and can make of foꝛty quarters being wel and truly made. And alſo foꝛaſmuch as diuers and ſundꝛy perſons minding and ſéeking their owne pꝛiuate and exceſſiue gaine and pꝛofit, foꝛgetting thereby their duty, and the oꝛder oꝛ charity towards the common wealth and their neighbours in this behalfe, doe commonly vſe to put and mix good Malt and euill Malt together, and after put the ſame Malt to ſale, as good Malt, whereby many of the Kings ſubiects haue béene and are like to be very often deceiued to their great loſſe and hindꝛance, contrary to the honeſt, ſéemly, and godly buying ſelling, and communtation that ſhould oꝛ ought to be amongſt Chꝛiſtian people, ſpecially in things concerning the ſuſtentation and ſuſtenance of mans body.

How long time Malt ſhalbe in the fat, flooꝛe, ſteeping and dꝛying.

Foꝛ remedy whereof, it may pleaſe the Kings Maieſty, with the aduice of his Loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛal, and the commons in this pꝛeſent Parliament aſſembled, that it may be eſtabliſhed & enacted by the authoꝛity of the ſame, that no ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons at any time, after the firſt day of March next comming, ſhall make any Barley Malt, (the moneths of June, July, and Auguſt only excepted:) but that the ſame ſhal haue in making thereof, that is to ſay, in the fat, flooꝛe, ſtéeping and ſufficient dꝛying of the ſaid Malt, thꝛée wéekes at the leaſt: and that no ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons at any time within the ſaid moneths of June, July, and Auguſt, ſhall make any Barly Malt, except the ſame haue in the fat, floore, ſtéeping, and ſufficient dꝛying the time and ſpace of ſeuentéene dayes at the leaſt, vnder and without which time and times, the ſaid Malt cannot bee well and perfectly made, noꝛ wholeſome foꝛ mans body: vpon paine to foꝛfeit and loſe foꝛ euery quarter of Malt, which ſhalbe made by any perſon oꝛ perſons, contrary to the tenoꝛ, purpoꝛt, and true meaning of this Act, ii. s. And be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that no perſon oꝛ perſons, after the firſt day of March next coming, ſhall mingle oꝛ put together, any Malt, not being well and ſufficiently made, oꝛ being made of Mowburnt, oꝛ ſpired Barley, with other good Malt, and after put the ſame ſomingled to ſale, vpon paine to foꝛfeit and loſe foꝛ euery quarter ſo mingled and put to ſale, two ſhillings.

None ſhall mingle good Malt with euil to ſell.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons after the laſt day of January next comming, ſhall put to ſale any Malt, which ſhall not be ſufficiently and well troden, rubbed, and well fanned, whereby there may be conueniently fanned out of one quarter thereof halfe a peck of duſt or more, that then the perſon, ſo putting the ſame to ſale, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery quarter ſo put to ſale, xx. pence. The moity of all which forfeitures to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moity thereof to the party that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any of the Kings Courts, wherein no protection, wager of Law, or eſſoine, nor iniunction ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Malt ſhall be well troden, rubbed and fanned. St.17.R.2.4.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Juſtices of peace in euery of their ſeſſions, and alſo the Steward in euery léet, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this act, to inquire, heare and determine, aſwell by preſentment of xij. men, as by accuſation or information of ij. honeſt witneſſes, of, for, and vpon all and euery the offences and forfeitures aforeſaid, aſwell for the King, as for the party that ſhall ſue, procure, or cauſe the ſame to be preſented, as is before ſaid. And that the Bailiffes and Conſtables of euery Borough, or market Towne, or other Towne where any ſuch Malt ſhall be made, or put to ſale, ſhall haue full power and authority from time to time, to view, ſearch, and ſuruey all ſuch Malt as ſhalbe made or put to ſale, within any of the ſaid Townes. And if any of them ſhall thereupon finde any Malt ſo put to ſale, being euill made, or mingled with euill Malt contrary to the tenour and true meaning of this preſent Act: That then the ſaid Bailiffe or Conſtable, ſo finding any ſuch Malt euill made, or mingled as is beforeſaid, with the aduice of one Juſtice of Peace, within the ſame Shire, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be ſold to ſuch perſon or perſons, and at ſuch reaſonable price or prices, and vnder the common price of the market, as to his diſcretion ſhall ſéeme neceſſary and expedient.

Juſtices, Stewards of Leets and Officers of Townes ſhall puniſh Offenders.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to charge, or be, to the making of Malt, for any mans owne prouiſion for his owne houſe or family, neither preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons for, or concerning any of the offences or forfeitures aforeſaid: except he or they ſo offending, ſhall happen to be ſued, preſented, and accuſed for the ſame, in manner and forme aforeſaid, within one yéere next after any ſuch offence or offences to be done, or committed, any thing in this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. This preſent act to continue vntill the end of the next Parliament. 27. El. 14.1.Iac.25. 21.Iac.28. and 3. Car. 4. continued.

Malt made for a mans owne prouiſion.

Within what time an Offender ſhall be preſented.

A confirmation of all leaſes and grants by copy of court roll for life, or liues, not exceeding iij. liues of any lands of the Duke of Somerſets, called Bartons lands, or demſne lands, made or to be made, by the ſaid Dukes aſſignes to any perſon. PR.

Cap. XIII.

In what manner Tythes ought to be payed.

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the iiij. day of February, in the xxvij. yéere of the reigne of the late King of moſt famous memory King Henry the eight, there was an act made concerning payment of tithes prediall and perſonall. And alſo in another Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xxxiiij. day of July in the xxxij. yéere of the raigne of the ſaid late King Henry the viij. another act was made concerning true paiment of tithes and offerings, in which ſeuerall acts, many and diuerſe things be omitted and left out, which were conuenient and very neceſſary to be added to the ſame. In conſideration whereof, and to the intent the ſaid tithes may be hereafter truly paid, according to the mind of the makers of the ſaid act: be it ordeined and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall & temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that not only the ſaid Acts, made in the ſaid xxvij. and xxxij. yéeres of the raigne of the ſaid late King Henry the viij. concerning true payment of tiths, and euery article and branch therein contained, ſhall abide and ſtand in their full ſtrength and vertue, But alſo be it further enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that euery of the Kings ſubiects ſhall from henceforth truly and iuſtly, without fraud or guile, diuide, ſet out, yéeld and pay all manner of their prediall tithes, in their proper kinde, as they riſe and happen, in ſuch manner and forme, as hath béene of right yéelded and payd, within forty yéeres, next before the making of this Act, or of right or cuſtome ought to haue béene payd. And that no perſon ſhall from henceforth, take or carry away any ſuch or like tithes, which haue béene yéelded or payd within the ſaid forty yéeres, or of right ought to haue béene payd, in the place or places tithable of the ſame, before he hath iuſtly diuided or ſet forth for the tithe thereof the tenth part of the ſame, or otherwiſe agréed for the ſame tithes, with the Parſon, Vicar, or other owner, proprietory, or fermour of the ſame tithes, vnder the paine of forfeiture of treble value of the Tithes ſo taken or carried away.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that at all times whenſoeuer, and as often as the ſaid prediall Tithes ſhall be due at the tything time of the ſame, it to be lawfull to euery party, to whom any of the ſaid Tithes ought to be payd, or his deputy, or ſeruant, to view and ſée their ſaid tithes to be iuſtly and truly ſet forth, and ſeuered from the ix. parts, and the ſame quietly to take and carry away. And if any perſon carry away his corne or hay, or his other prediall tithes, before the tithe thereof be ſet forth, or willingly withdraw his tithes of the ſame, or of ſuch other things, whereof prediall Tithes ought to be payd, or do ſtop or let the Parſon, Vicar, proprietory, owner, or other their Deputies or Fermours, to view, take, and carry away their Tithes, as is aboueſaid, by reaſon whereof the ſaid Tithe or Tenth is loſt, impaired, or hurt, that then vpon due proofe thereof made, before the ſpirituall Iudge, or any other Iudge, to whom heretofore he might haue made complaint, the party ſo carrying away, withdrawing, letting, or ſtopping, ſhall pay the double value of the Tenth or Tithe ſo taken, loſt, withdrawen, or carried away, ouer and beſides the coſts, charges, and expences of the ſuit in the ſame: the ſame to be recouered before the Eccleſiaſticall Iudge, according to the Kings Eccleſiaſticall Lawes.

The penalty for carrying of corne or hay before the tithe be ſet forth, or for letting the parſon to carry it.
Coke pl. fo. 161.

Tithe of cattell feeding in a waſt where the Pariſh is not knowen.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery perſon which hath, or ſhall haue any beaſts, or other cattell tythable, going, féeding, or depaſturing in any waſt or common ground, whereof the Pariſh is not certainly knowen, ſhall pay their tithes for the increaſe of the ſaid cattell ſo going in the ſaid waſt or common, to the Parſon, Vicar, proprietory, portionary, owner, or other their Fermors, or deputies of the Pariſh, Hamlet, Towne, or other place, where the owner of the ſaid cattell inhabiteth or dwelleth.

The tithe of barren heath or waſte ground.
1. El. Dy. fo. 170.
Coke pla. fo. 462.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch barren heath, or waſte ground, other than ſuch as be diſcharged for the payment of Tithes by act of Parliament, which before this time haue layen barren, and payed no tithes, by reaſon of the ſame barrennes, and now be, or hereafter ſhall be improued and conuerted into arrable ground or medow, ſhall from henceforth, after the end and terme of vij. yéeres, next after ſuch improuement fully ended and determined, pay tithe for the corne and hay growing vpon the ſame: any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any ſuch barren, waſte, or heath ground, hath before this time béene charged with the payment of any tithes, and that the ſame be hereafter improued and conuerted into arrable ground or medow, that then the owner or owners thereof, ſhall, during the vij. yéeres next following, from and after the ſame improuement, pay ſuch kinde of tithe as was payd for the ſame before the ſaid improuement: any thing in this Act to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Who ſhall pay their perſonall Tithes.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That euery perſon exerciſing merchandiſes, bargaining and ſelling, clothing, handycraft, or other art or faculty, being ſuch kind of perſons, and in ſuch places as heretofore within theſe xl. yéeres haue accuſtomably vſed to pay ſuch perſonall tithes, or of right ought to pay (other than ſuch as béene common day labourers) ſhall yéerely at or before the feaſt of Eaſter, pay for his perſonall tithes, the x. part of his cléere gains, his charges, and expences, according to his eſtate, condition, or degrée, to be therein abated, allowed, and deducted.

Handycrafts men hauing vſed to pay Tithes.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that in all ſuch places where handycrafts men haue vſed to pay their Tithes within theſe forty yéeres, the ſame cuſtome of payment of tithes to be obſerued, and to continue: any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Ordinary may examine him that refuſeth to pay his Tithe.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon refuſe to pay his perſonall tithes in forme aforeſaid, that then it ſhalbe lawfull to the Ordinary of the ſame Dioceſſe, where the party that ſo ought to pay the ſaid Tithes is dwelling, to call the ſame party before him, and by his diſcretion, to examine him by all lawfull and reaſonable meanes, other than by the parties owne corporall oath, concerning the true payment of the ſaid perſonall Tithes.

Payment of offerings.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and euery perſon and perſons, which by the Lawes or cuſtomes of this Realme, ought to make or pay their offerings, ſhall yéerely from henceforth, well and truly content & pay his or their offerings, to the Parſon, Vicar, Proprietory, or their deputies or fermors, of the pariſh or pariſhes where it ſhall fortune or happen him or them to dwell or abide: and that at ſuch iiij. offering dayes, as at any time heretofore within the ſpace of foure yeeres laſt paſt, hath beene vſed and accuſtomed for the payment of the ſame, and in default thereof, to pay for their ſaid offerings at Eaſter then next following.

Tithe of Fiſh.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to any Pariſh, which ſtands vpon, and towards the Sea coaſts, the commodities and occupying whereof, conſiſteth chiefly in fiſhing, and haue by reaſon thereof, vſed to ſatiſfie their tithes by Fiſh: but that all and euery ſuch Pariſh and Pariſhes, ſhall hereafter pay their tithes, according to the laudable cuſtomes, as they haue heretofore of ancient time, within theſe xl. yeeres, vſed and accuſtomed, and ſhall pay their offerings as is aforeſaid.

Payment of tithe by houſes.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend in any wiſe to the inhabitants of the City of London and Canterbury, and the Suburbs of the ſame, ne to any other Towne or place, that hath vſed to pay their Tithes by their houſes, otherwiſe than they ought or ſhould haue done before the making of this Act: any thing conteined in this Act, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Suits for withholding of Tithes ſhall be in the Eccleſiaſticall Court.

Excommunication of the party condemned.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon do ſubtract, or withdraw any manner of tithes, obuentions, profits, commodities, or other duties before mentioned, or any part of them, contrary to the true meaning of this Act, or of any other Act heretofore made, that then the party ſo ſubtracting, or withdrawing the ſame, may or ſhall be conuented and ſued in the Kings Eccleſiaſticall Court, by the party from whom the ſame ſhalbe ſubtracted or withdrawen, to the intent the Kings Iudge Eccleſiaſticall, ſhall and may, then and there heare and determine the ſame according to the Kings Eccleſiaſticall Lawes. And that it ſhall not be lawfull vnto the Parſon, Vicar, Proprietory, Owner, or other their Fermors, or Deputies, contrary to this Act, to conuent or ſue ſuch withholder of tithes, obuentions, or other duties aforeſaid, before any other Iudge, than Eccleſiaſticall. And if any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Chancellor, or other Iudge Eccleſiaſticall, giue any ſentence in the foreſaid cauſes of tithes, obuentions, profits, emoluments, and other duties aforeſaid, or in any of them (and no appeale ne prohibition hanging) and the party condemned doe not obey the ſaid ſentence, that then it ſhall be lawfull to euery ſuch Iudge Eccleſiaſticall, to excommunicate the ſaid party, ſo as afore condemned, and diſobeying, in the which ſentence of excommunication, if the ſaid party excommunicate, wilfully ſtand and indure ſtill excommunicate, by the ſpace of xl. dayes next after, vpon denunciation and publication thereof, in the Pariſh Church, or the place or Pariſh, where the party ſo excommunicate is dwelling, or moſt abiding, the ſaid Iudge Eccleſiaſticall, may then at his pleaſure ſignifie to the King in his Court of Chancery, of the ſtate and condition of the ſaid party ſo excommunicate, and thereupon to require proceſſe De excommunicato capiendo, to be awarded againſt euery ſuch perſon, as hath beene ſo excommunicate.

A copy of the lybell ſhall be deliuered to the Iudge before a prohibition granted.

7. El. Dy. fo. 242.

A conſultation granted for default of prouing a ſuggeſtion.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any party at any time hereafter, for any matter or cauſe before rehearſed, limited, or appointed by this Act, to be ſued or determined in the Kings Eccleſiaſticall Court, or before the Eccleſiaſticall Iudge, doe ſue for any prohibition in any of the Kings Courts, where prohibitions before this time haue beene vſed to be granted, that then in euery ſuch caſe, the ſame party before any prohibition ſhalbe granted to him or them, ſhall bring and deliuer to the hands of ſome of the Iuſtices, or Iudges of the ſame Court where ſuch party demanded prohibition, the very true copy of the Libell, depending in the Eccleſiaſticall Court, concerning the matter, wherefore the party demandeth prohibition, ſubſcribed or marked, with the hand of the ſame party, and vnder the copy of the ſaid Libell ſhal be written the ſuggeſtion, wherefore the party ſo demandeth the ſaid prohibition: and in caſe the ſaid ſuggeſtion by two honeſt and ſufficient witneſſes at the leaſt, be not proued true in the Court, where the ſaid prohibition ſhall be ſo granted, within ſix moneths next following, after the ſaid prohibition, ſhall be ſo granted and awarded, that then the party that is letted or hindered, of his or their ſuit in the Eccleſiaſticall Court, by ſuch prohibition, ſhall vpon his or their requeſt and ſuit, without delay haue a conſultation granted in the ſame caſe in the Court, where the ſaid prohibition was granted, and ſhall alſo recouer double coſts and damages againſt the party that ſo purſued the ſaid prohibition, the ſaid coſts and damages to be aſſigned or aſſeſſed by the Court, where the ſaid conſultation ſhall be ſo granted, for which coſts and damages, the party to whom they ſhall be awarded, may haue an action of debt, by bill, plaint, or information in any of the Kings Courts of Record, wherein the defendant ſhall not wage his, or their law, nor haue any eſſoine or protection allowed or admitted.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to giue any Miniſter or Iudge Eccleſiaſticall, any iuriſdiction to hold plee of any matter, cauſe, or thing, being contrary or repugnant, to, or againſt the effect, intent or meaning of the Statute of Weſtminſter ſecond, the v. Chapter, the Statutes of Articuli cleri, circumſpecte agatis: Silua ſedua, the treatiſe De regia prohibitione, ne againſt the Statute of Anno primo Edwardi tertii, the x. Chap. or any of them, ne yet hold plee in any matter, whereof the Kings Court of right, ought to haue iuriſdiction: any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided neuertheleſſe, where heretofore ſuch a cuſtome hath béene in many parts of Wales, that of ſuch cattell and other goods, as hath béene giuen with the marriage of any perſon their tithes haue béene exacted and leuied by the Parſons and Curates in thoſe parts: which cuſtome being diſſonant from any part of this Realme, as it ſéemed when the ſaid Countrey of Wales, was through ciuill diſſention vnculted, for want of other ſufficient profits, that might otherwiſe grow to the Curates and Miniſters there, to haue béene for that time tolerable: ſo now the Countrey being well manured and huſbanded, and the tithe is duly payd there, of corne, hay, wooll, and chéeſe, and of other increaſe of all manner of cattell, as it is commonly in all other parts of this Realme, the ſame cuſtome ſéemes to be grieuous and vnreaſonable, ſpecially where the benefices are elſe ſufficient for the finding of the ſaid Miniſters and Curates: that it be therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that from and after the firſt day of May next comming, no ſuch tithes of marriage goods be exacted or required of any perſon within the ſaid Dominion of Wales, or marches of the ſame: any thing in this Act contained, or any other Act, cuſtome, preſcription, had or made to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding. No tithes of mariage goods ſhall be paid in Wales, &c.

Cap. XIIII.

No perſon may ſhoot with an handgun in City or Towne, at a mark: or elſe ſhoot with haleſhot.

Anno 33.H.8.6.

WHereas an Act made in the xxxiij. yéers of the late King of famous memory Henry the eight, for ſome liberty to ſhoot in handguns, Haques, and Harquebuts, by which Act neuertheleſſe it was prouided, that no perſon ſhould ſhoot in any of the aboue ſaid péeces, but at a bank of earth, and not to any Dere or fowle, vnleſſe the party might diſpend an C. pound by the yéere: foraſmuch as the ſaid Act hauing béene deuiſed, as it was then thought for neceſſary exerciſe, tending to the defence of the Realme, is growen ſithen to the maintenance of much idleneſſe, and to ſuch a liberty, as not only dwelling houſes, Douecotes, and Churches, are daily damaged by the abuſe thereof, by men of light conuerſation, but that alſo there is growen a cuſtomable manner of ſhooting of haileſhot, whereby an infinit ſort of fowle is killed, and much game therby deſtroyed, to the benefit of no man, whereby alſo the meaning of the ſaid ſtatute is defrauded, for that the ſaid vſe of haileſhot, vtterly deſtroyeth the certainty of ſhooting, which in wars is much requiſite: Be it therefore enacted, that no perſon vnder the degrée of a Lord of the Parliament, ſhall from henceforth ſhoot in any Handgun, within any City or Towne, at any fowle, or other marke, vpon any Church, houſe, or Douecote: neither that any perſon ſhall ſhoot in any place any haileſhot, or any moe pellots than one, at one time, vpon paine to forfeit for euery time that he or they ſhall ſo offend, contrary to this Act, x. pound and impriſonment of his body during thrée moneths.

The penalty for ſhooting with a handgun in a Citie or Towne, or for ſhooting with haileſhot.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, nor any thing therein conteined, ſhall extend, or be preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons, authoriſed by value of land, to ſhoot in any Handgun or Croſſebow, but that they may ſo do, in ſuch forme and order, as they ſhould doe, and might haue done, before the making of this Act (haileſhot excepted) as indéed that kind of ſhot in the ſaid Act was not meant; and that all and euery other perſon or perſons, authoriſed to ſhoot, or otherwiſe, if he inhabite in any towne corporat, be preſented to the Maior, or other Officer of the ſame, and inhabiting in the countrey, be preſented within one moneth after the publiſhing of this act to the next Iuſtice of peace adioyning, in which caſes the ſaid Maior, Iuſt. or other Officer ſo taking their names, as is aforeſaid, ſhall againe preſent and record the ſame, before a Iuſtice of the Peace, at the next quarter Seſſions, to the intent the Clerke of the peace of the County, may kéepe a certaine booke or roll, of the names of all ſuch perſons, by the which the Kings Maieſty may from time to time be aſcertained, how many méet and able men, exerciſed in that feat, be in euery County, that the ſame may be employed in his graces ſeruice, as néed and occaſion ſhall require, vpon paine that euery perſon, offending in this Act, in preſuming to ſhoot in any Handgun or halfe Hake, without the preſenting of his name, as is aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for euery ſhot, the ſum of xx. s. the one moity whereof, to be to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other moity to him or them, that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, action, plaint, information or otherwiſe. The Officer that ſhould take their names, and preſent the ſame as is aboueſaid, to incurre for the lacke of his duty in this part, for euery time ſo offending like paine.

The names of thoſe that ſhoot in handguns ſhall be preſented to a Iuſtice and recorded.

Cap. XV.

Victualers conſpiring to ſell their victuals but at certaine prices, and labourers conſpiring touching their workes, ſhall be puniſhed.

FOraſmuch as of late dayes, diuers ſellers of victuals, not contented with moderate & reaſonable gaine, but minding to haue, and to take for their victuals, ſo much as luſt them, haue conſpired and couenanted together, to ſell their victuals at vnreaſonable prices: And likewiſe Artificers, handicrafts men, and labourers, haue made confederacies and promiſes, and haue ſworne mutual oathes, not only that they ſhould not meddle one with others worke, and performe and finiſh, that another hath begun, but alſo to conſtitute and appoint how much worke they ſhall doe in a day, and what houres and times they ſhall worke, contrary to the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, and to the great hurt and empoueriſhment of the Kings Maieſties Subiects: for reformation thereof, it is ordeined and enacted, by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any Butchers, Brewers, Bakers, Poulters, Cokes, Coſtermongers or Fruterers, ſhal at any time, from and after the firſt day of March next comming, conſpire, couenant, promiſe or make any oathes, that they ſhall not ſell their victuals, but at certaine prices, or if any artificers, workmen or labourers, doe conſpire, couenant or promiſe together, or make any oathes, that they ſhal not make, or doe their workes, but at a certaine price and rate, or ſhall not enterpriſe or take vpon them, to finiſh that another hath begun, or ſhall doe but a certaine worke in a day, or ſhall not worke but at certaine houres and times, that then euery perſon ſo conſpiring, couenanting, ſwearing or offending, being lawfully conuict thereof by witneſſe, confeſſion or otherwiſe, ſhall forfeit for the firſt offence, x. li. to the Kings Highneſſe, and if he haue ſufficient to pay the ſame, and do alſo pay the ſame within ſix dayes next after his conuiction, or elſe ſhall ſuffer for the ſame offence, twenty dayes impriſonment, and ſhall only haue bread and water for his ſuſtenance. And for the ſecond offence, ſhall forfeit xx. li. to the King, if he haue ſufficient to pay the ſame, and doe pay the ſame within ſix dayes next after his conuiction, or elſe ſhall ſuffer for the ſecond offence puniſhment of the pillory. And for the third offence, ſhall forfeit xl. li. to the King, if he haue ſufficient to pay the ſame, and alſo doe pay the ſame within ſix dayes next after his conuiction, or elſe ſhall ſit on the pillory and loſe one of his eares, and alſo ſhall at all times after that, be taken as a man infamous, and his ſayings, depoſitions or oath, not to be credited at any time, in any matters of iudgement.

The puniſhment of victualers conſpiring not to ſell their victuals but at certaine prices.

The puniſhment of labourers conſpiring touching the times or manner of their workes. St. 5. El. 4.

And if it fortune any ſuch conſpiracie, couenant or promiſe to be had and made by any Society, Brotherhood or Company of any Craft, Myſtery or Occupation, of the Victulers aboue mentioned, with the preſence or conſent of the more part of them, that then immediately vpon ſuch Act of conſpiracie, couenant or promiſe, had or made, ouer and beſides the particular puniſhment, before in this Act appointed for the Offendor, their Corporation ſhall be diſſolued to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes.

A conſpiracy by a Society or Company of victualers.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, Iuſtices of Peace, Maiors, Bailiffes, and Stewards of Leets, at all and euery their Seſſions, Leets and Courts, ſhall haue full power and authority to enquire, heare and determine all and ſingular offences committed againſt this Statute, and to puniſh or cauſe to be puniſhed the Offendor, according to the tenour of this Statute.

Which Magiſtrates may enquire of and puniſh offendors.

And it is ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons ſhall at any time after the firſt day of Aprill next comming, interrupt, deny, let or diſturbe any free Maſon, Rough Maſon, Carpenter, Bricklayer, Plaiſterer, Ioyner, Hardhewer, Sawier, Tiler, Pauier, Glaſier, Lime burner, Brickmaker, Tilemaker, Plummer or Labourer, borne in this Realme or made Denizen, to worke in any of the ſaid Crafts in any City, Borough or Towne corporate, with any perſon or perſons that will retaine him or them, albeit the ſaid perſon and perſons ſo retained, or any of them do not inhabit or dwell in the Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate where he or they ſhall worke, nor be free of the ſame City, Borough or Towne, any Statute, Law, Ordinance, or other thing whatſoeuer had or made to the contrarie in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that vpon paine of forfeiture of v. li. for euery interruption or diſturbance done contrary to this Statute, the one moity of euery ſuch forfeiture to be to the King, and the other moity thereof to be to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, by bill, plaint, action of debt or information, wherein no wager of Law, eſſoine, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

None of theſe occupations ſhall be prohibited to worke in any Towne though he doth not dwell therein. REP. 3. & 4. Ed. 6. 20.

Cap. XVI.

The King ſhall haue authority to remoue ſuch as haue by Letters Patents the keeping of Caſtles, Fortreſſes or Bulwarkes, giuing to them as good fees, wages and profits, and of ſuch like eſtate, and as good aſſurance in the ſame as they had in the other. EXP.

Cap. XVII.

A confirmation of the attainder of S. William Sherington, who was indited and attainted by confeſſion of high Treaſon for the counterfeiting of Teſtons to the value of xij. M. li. PR.

Cap. XVIII.

S. Thomas Seymor, Lord Seymor, Lord Admirall, attainted of high Treaſon, for attempting to get into his cuſtody the perſon of the King, and the gouernment of the Realme, for obtaining many offices, reteining many men into his ſeruice, for making great prouiſion of money and victuals, and for endeuouring to marry the Lady Elizabeth the King ſiſter, and for perſwading the King in his tender age to take vpon him the rule and order of himſelfe. All perſons ſhalbe payd ſuch debts as the ſaid Lord Seymor did owe them. PR.

CAP. XIX.

Eating of fleſh on certaine dayes and times forbidden,

ALbeit the Kings Subiects now hauing a more perfect and cleere light of the Goſpell, and true word of God, through the infinit mercy and clemencie of Almighty God, by the hands of the Kings Maieſty, and his moſt noble Father of famous memory, promulgat, ſhewed, declared and opened, and therby perceiuing that one day or one meat of it ſelfe, is not more holy, more pure or more cleane than another, for that all dayes and all meats be of their nature of one equal purity, cleanneſſe and holineſſe, and that all men ſhould by them liue, to the glory of God, and at all times and for all meats, giue thankes vnto him, of which meats, none can defile Chriſtian men, or make them vncleane at any time, to whom all meats be lawfull and pure, ſo that they be not vſed in diſobedience or vice: Yet foraſmuch as diuers of the Kings Subiects, turning their knowledge therein, to ſatiſfie their ſenſuality, where they ſhould thereby encreaſe in vertue, haue of late time more than in times paſt, broken and contemned ſuch abſtinence which hath beene vſed in this Realme, vpon the Frydayes and Saturdayes, the Embring dayes and other dayes, commonly called Vigilles, and in the time commonly called Lent, and other accuſtomed times; the Kings Maieſtie conſidering, that due and godly abſtinence is a meane to vertue and to ſubdue mens bodies to their ſoule and ſpirit, and conſidering alſo that Fiſhers, and men vſing the trade of liuing by fiſhing in the Sea, may thereby the rather be ſet on worke, and that by eating of fiſh much fleſh ſhall be ſaued and encreaſed, and alſo for diuers other conſiderations and commodities of this Realme, doth ordeine and enact, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all manner of Statutes, Lawes, conſtitutions and vſages, concerning any manner of faſting or abſtinence from any kinds of meats, heretofore in this Realme made or vſed, ſhal from the firſt day of May next enſuing, loſe their force and ſtrength, and be void and of none effect.

All Lawes concerning faſting repealed.

The penalty for eating of fleſh vpon any day vſed commonly as a fiſh day. St. 5. El. 5. 27. El. 11.

And alſo that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree or condition he or they be, ſhall at any time after the ſaid firſt day of May in the yeere of our Lord God, M.D. xlix. willingly and wittingly eat any manner of fleſh, after what manner of kinde or ſort it ſhall be ordered, dreſſed or vſed, vpon any Fryday, or Saterday, or the Embring dayes or in any day in the time commonly called Lent, nor at any ſuch other day, as is or ſhall be at any time hereafter commonly accepted and reputed as a fiſh day, within this Realme of England, wherein it hath beene commonly vſed for to eat fiſh and not fleſh, vpon paine that euery perſon eating any manner of fleſh vpon any of the ſaid dayes or times prohibited by this act, to forfeit for the ſaid firſt offence, ten ſhillings of lawfull money of England, and alſo to ſuffer impriſonment, by the ſpace of ten dayes, and during the time of his or her ſaid impriſonment, to abſtaine from eating of any manner of fleſh.

The penalty for the 2. offence

And if any perſon after he ſhall le lawfully conuict of any offence contrary to this Act, doth eftſones offend, contrary to this Act, and be thereof lawfully conuict, that then euery perſon ſo offending the ſecond time, ſhal for his ſecond offence forfeit twenty ſhillings of lawfull money of England, and alſo ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of twenty dayes, and during the time of his or her ſaid impriſonment, to abſteine from eating of any manner of fleſh, and ſo like paine and impriſonment as often as he or ſhe afterwards ſhall offend.

Iuſt of G. deliuery and P. ſhall determine theſe offences.

And furthermore, it is ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery and Iuſtices of Peace, in all and ſingular Counties, Cities, Townes Corporate, and other places within this Realme of England, and other the Kings Dominious, ſhall haue full power and authority, to enquire, heare and determine, all and all manner offences, that ſhall be committed or done contrary to this Act, in like manner and forme as they may enquire, heare and determine any treſpaſſe or other offence, againſt the Kings Peace committed or done, within the limits or place where they then ſhall be Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery or Iuſtices of Peace. And the moity of euery ſuch forfeiture, ſhall be extreated into the Court of the Exchequer, in like manner and forme, as fines for any treſpaſſe, or other offence committed, againſt the Kings Peace, ought or ſhould be extreated: and the other moity of the ſaid forfeiture ſhall be to him that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, in which no eſſoine, protection or wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

To what perſons this Statute ſhall not extend.

Prouided alwayes, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act or any thing therein conteined, ſhal not in any wiſe extend to any perſon or perſons that heretofore hath or hereafter ſhall haue obtained any licence of our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, nor to any perſon being in great age, and in debility and weakneſſe thereby, nor to any perſon being ſicke or notably hurt, without fraud or couin, during the time of his or her ſaid ſickneſſe, neſſe, nor to any woman being with child or lying in child bed, for eating of ſuch one kinde of fleſh, as ſhe ſhall haue great luſt vnto, nor to any perſon being in priſon, for any other offence, than for any offence, contrary to this Act, neither to any that is, or hereafter ſhalbe the Kings Highneſſe, Lieutenant, Deputy or Captaine of any his Maieſties Army, Hold or Fortreſſe: but the ſame, themſelues may eat fleſh, and licence and permit their Souldiers, to doe the ſame in times prohibited, vpon the want and lacke of other kinde of victuall: neither ſhall extend to S. Laurence euen, S. Markes day, or any other day or euen being abrogate, neither to any ſuch as heretofore haue obteined any licence, in due forme of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

S. Laurence euen and S. Markes day.

And further, be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that all Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Archdeacons and their Officers, or the Officers of any of them, ſhall haue power to enquire of the Offendors in the premiſſes, and preſent the ſame to ſuch from time to time, as by vertue of this Act haue authority to heare and determine the ſame.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that no manner of perſon or perſons, be empeached, moleſted or troubled, or ſhall incur any paine, penalty or forfeiture, for any offence contrary to the Act before rehearſed, committed or done, except he or they be accuſed, conuented or indicted, of and for the ſaid offence, according to the tenour of this Statute, within thrée moneths next after the committing of the ſaid offence. 5. & 6. Ed. 6. 3.

Within what time the offendor ſhall be indited.

Cap. XX.

An Incumbent, for not payment of his Tenths due to the King, the ſame being demanded, ſhall be depriued of that benefice.

WHere in the Parliament holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter, the third day of Nouember, in the ſix and twentieth yéere of the raigne of the moſt excellent Prince, King Henry the eight, Father to our Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maieſty that now is, amongſt other things concerning the payment of one annuall penſion of the tenth part of all poſſeſſions of the Church, Spirituall and Temporall, granted to the Kings Highneſſe and his heires, it was enacted, ordeined and eſtabliſhed, that euery Eccleſiaſticall perſon, and other hauing any Eccleſiaſticall promotion or dignity, ſpecified in the ſaid Act, which did not duly pay the ſaid tenth part and by reaſon thereof, were certified by the Archbiſhop, Biſhop, or other authoriſed in the ſaid Act, ſhould vpon ſuch certificat made, according to the tenour of the ſaid Act, be iudged depriued, ipſo facto, of all ſuch dignities and promotions Spirituall, that any ſuch Incumbent making ſuch default, had at the time of ſuch certificat made, or at any time after, as by the ſaid Act more plainly may appeare.

Foraſmuch as the paine limited in the ſaid Statute, in ſuch forme and manner, as in the ſame is expreſſed, is very ſore and dangerous vnto all the Kings faithfull and obedient Subiects of the Clergy, whereof diuers ſithen the making of the ſaid Statute, entending none otherwiſe than moſt willingly and with good heart that payment ſhould be made of the ſaid tenths by them due, without fraud or delay, to ſuch Officers, and at ſuch time as by the ſaid Statutes is appointed and declared, by the default and negligence of their fermors, and other whom they haue truſted to make payment thereof, and by diuers other ſiniſter meanes being certified, or making default of payment thereof, haue incurred the paine, and danger of the ſaid ſtatute, with the loſſe or depriuations, of all the Spirituall promotions, whereof they were then Incumbents, being alſo made vnable to take any other, to the vtter vndoing of ſuch perſons, and the like perill and danger of many other the Kings moſt humble, and faithfull Subiects of the Clergy, againſt whom the like things may be practiſed, and attempted hereafter: for the moderation of which paine, and to the end that the Kings Maieſty, our Soueraigne Lord that now is, and his heires and ſucceſſors may be truly anſwered and ſatiſfied of the ſaid yéerely penſion or annuall rent of the tenth part, vnited and knit to his Imperiall Crowne, in manner and forme, as in the ſaid Act is contained.

The inconueniences enſuing by the ſta. of 26 H. 8. 3 touching depriuation of all a mans ſpirituall liuings for the lacke of payment of the tenth of one.

The Kings ſaid faithfull, and moſt obedient Subiects, the Clergy of this Realme, doe moſt humbly beſéech his Maieſty, that it may be enacted and eſtabliſhed by his Highneſſe, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that if any ſum of the ſaid annuall penſion, being once due, and demanded, according to the maner and forme ſpecified in the ſaid Act, be not truly contented and payed vnto ſuch Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or their Miniſters and Officers, or to ſuch other perſon or perſons, or their Miniſters or ſeruants, as ſhall haue the charge and collection thereof, euery yéere yéerely, at the time of the ſaid Act expreſſed, and thereupon certificat made, into the Kings Maieſties Court of firſt fruits and tenths, in writing vnder the Seals of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or of ſuch as be limited and charged to the collection of the ſaid penſion, by the ſaid former Act, then euery Incumbent ſo making default and certified, ſhall be iudged depriued, Ipſo facto, or that only dignity, benefice, or other Eccleſiaſticall promotion by what name ſoeuer it be called, whereof ſuch certificat ſhall be made. So that ſuch dignity, benefice or other Eccleſiaſticall promotion,

The penalty for default of payment of tenths ſhall be the forfeiture of that only benefice out of the which the ſame is due.

whereof any Incumbent making ſuch default of payment, ſhall be adiudged depriued, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be cleerely void and deſtitute of Incumbent, in the Law, to all intents and purpoſes; as if ſuch Incumbent, making ſuch default of payment, were dead indeed.

And that no Incumbent making ſuch default of payment, ſhall be therefore made vnable to take or enioy any other benefice or promotion Spirituall, or incur any penalty, forfeiture or loſſe, to be payd by them, their executors or aſſignes, for the ſame default, other than in this preſent Act is heretofore expreſſed: any thing in the ſaid former Act, or any other Statutes or Acts conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prouided alway, that the ſaid former Act, concerning the payment of the ſaid yeerely rent and penſion, amounting to the tenth part of euery ſuch dignity, benefice, or promotion Spirituall, and euery other Act touching the ſame, and all articles, clauſes and ſentences, in them or any of them mentioned, expreſſed, or contained, now being in his or their force and effect, other than ſuch as by this preſent Act be already qualified or moderated, ſhall ſtand and abide in all his or their full ſtrength, effect and vertue: any thing in this preſent Act conteined notwithſtanding. 1. Eliz. 4.

CAP. XXI.

All Lawes prohibiting Spirituall perſons to marry, who by Gods Law may marry ſhall be void.

The benefits which would enſue if Prieſts and Miniſters did liue chaſte, ſole and vnmarried.

ALthough it were not only better, for the eſtimation of Prieſts, and other Miniſters in the Church of God, to liue chaſt, ſole and ſeparat from the company of women, and the bond of marriage, but alſo thereby they might the better intend to the adminiſtration of the Goſpell, and be leſſe intricated and troubled with the charge of houſhold, being free and vnburdened from the care and coſt of finding wife and children: and that it were moſt to be wiſhed, that they would willingly and of their ſelues, endeuour themſelues to a perpetuall chaſtitie and abſtinence from the vſe of women: yet foraſmuch as the contrary hath rather beene ſeene, and ſuch vncleanneſſe of liuing, and other great inconueniences, not meet to be rehearſed, haue followed of compelled chaſtity, and of ſuch Lawes, as haue prohibited thoſe (ſuch perſons) the godly vſe of marriage: It were better and rather to be ſuffered in the Common wealth, that thoſe which could not containe, ſhould after the counſell of Scripture, liue in holy marriage, than feynedly abuſe with worſe enormitis outward chaſtity or ſingle life.

All Lawes, &c. which doe prohibit marriage to ſpirituall perſons that by Gods Law may marry ſhall be void.

Be it therefore enacted by our Soueraigne Lord the King, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all and euery Law and Lawes Poſitiue, Canons, Conſtitutions and Ordinances, heretofore made by authority of man only, which doth prohibit or forbid marriage to any Eccleſiaſticall or Spirituall perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, condition or degree they be, or by what name or names ſoeuer they be called, which by Gods Law may lawfully marry, in all and euery article, branch and ſentence, concerning only the prohibition for the marriage of the perſons aforeſaid, ſhall be vtterly void and of none effect. And that all manner of forfeitures, paines and penalties, crimes or actions, which were in the ſaid Lawes conteined, and of the ſame did follow, concerning the prohibition for the marriage of the perſons aforeſaid, be cleerely and vtterly void, fruſtrat and of none effect, to all entents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as well concerning marriage heretofore made, by any of the Eccleſiaſticall or Spirituall perſons aforeſaid, as alſo ſuch which hereafter ſhall be duely and lawfully had, celebrat and made, betwixt the perſons, which by the Lawes of God, may lawfully marry.

No marriage without aſking in the Church.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to giue any liberty to any perſon to marry without aſking in the Church, or without any Ceremony, being appointed by the order preſcribed and ſet forth in the booke entitled, The Booke of the Common Prayer, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments, &c. any thing aboue mentioned to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Decrees and diuorces heretofore made.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to alter, change, reuoke, repell or otherwiſe to diſannull any decree, iudgement, ſentence or diuorce heretofore had or made: but that all and euery ſuch decree, iudgement, ſentence and diuorce, ſhall remaine, and be of ſuch like force, effect, ſtrength and degree, to all entents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as they were in, before the making of this Act, and as though this Act had neuer beene had ne made: This Act or any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. CAP.

Cap. XXII.

The penalty for cuſtoming other mens goods, whereby the King loſeth his duty.

Where at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the firſt yeere of the reigne of the noble King of famous memory Henry the eight, it was ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, by the authority of the ſaid Parliament, that it ſhould be lawfull from thenceforth, that euery Engliſhman, and all other the Kings Subiects, might in euery port or hauen within this Realme of England, Ireland, and Wales, and the Marches of the ſame, and in the Towne of Barwike, where it ſhould happen any merchandiſe to arriue, or to be charged and carried out, to cuſtome in his name, all manner of goods and merchandiſe, of another Engliſhman, or the Kings Subiect. And in like forme euery Merchant ſtranger, to cuſtome in his name, any goods or merchandiſe, of any other Merchant ſtranger, ſo that the ſaid Merchant ſtranger, that cuſtomes the goods of another Merchant ſtranger, and the very owner or proprietory of the goods ſo cuſtomed, be charged with like cuſtome, ſubſidy and other things, ſo that the Kings Grace were not defrauded of his right.

And if any Merchant Stranger, or Denizen, or any other the Kings Subiect, cuſtome any goods, or merchandiſe, of any other Stranger, or Denizen, or of any other the Kings Subiect, whereby the Kings Grace ſhould loſe his cuſtome, ſubſidy, or other his right or duty, that then the ſaid Merchant Stranger, or Denizen, or any other the Kings Subiect, that ſo taketh vpon him or them to do, ſhould forfeit to the King, the goods or merchandiſe ſo cuſtomed, and ouer that, to forfeit to the party or parties in that behalfe greeued, as much mony as the goods or merchandiſe of the Merchant Stranger, Denizen, or other the Kings Subiect, ſo cautelouſly cuſtomed, amounted vnto.

A confirmation of the ſtatute of 1.H.8.5. touching cuſtoming of goods in the name of others.

And that no Citizen of London, or other the Kings Subiects inhabiting in the Cinque Ports, or any other being free of Priſage, or Butlarage of Wines, by grant, cuſtome, or otherwiſe, ſhould cuſtome no Wines, of any perſon or perſons, not being free of any Priſage, or Butlarage: And if any perſon, free of the ſaid Priſage, or Butlarage ſo did, that then the ſaid perſon or perſons, that ſo did, ſhould forfeit to the King, the double value of the Priſage of the ſaid Wines ſo cuſtomed. And further, that it ſhould be lawfull to any perſon, or perſons, greeued contrary to the ſaid Act, to haue an action of debt, againſt any perſon, or perſons, that ſo cuſtomed the goods, or merchandiſe in his name, and not in the owners name, of the ſumme of the value of the ſaid merchandiſe, ſo cuſtomed and forfeited. In the which action, no eſſoine, nor protection ſhould lie, nor the defendant to wage his Law, as by the ſaid former Act, more at large doth appeare. Sithence the making of which Act, diuers perſons, as well Strangers, and Denizens, as the Kings Subiects, forgetting their bounden duties to the Kings Highneſſe, and nothing fearing the penalties and forfeitures, mentioned in the ſaid former Act, doe daily deceiue the King, as well in his cuſtomes and ſubſidies, by payment of cuſtomes and ſubſidies, in the names of ſuch perſons, other than ſuch as be the very owners, or proprietaries, of the goods, wares, and merchandiſe, of the priſage or butlarage of Wines due to the King.

Wherefore, be it ordeined and enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any Stranger borne, Denizen or not Denizen, or any the Kings Subiects, doe at any time, from, or after the laſt day of March next comming: any thing or Act, contrary to the true meaning, tenour, and purport of the ſame former Act and Statute, that then he and they ſo offending, ſhall loſe and forfeit all his and their owne goods, and cattalles, perſonalles for euer: The moity of which forfeiture, ſhall be to the King, and the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, action of debt or information, in which bill, plaint, action or information, no wager of Law, eſſoine or protection ſhall be admitted or allowed.

The penalty for cuſtoming of other mens goods whereby the King loſeth his duty.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aboueſaid, that euery ſuch bill, plaint, action, or information, ſhall be had, and purſued, within three yeeres next enſuing, any ſuch offence committed or done, or elſe the offendor, to be cleerely free, and diſcharged thereof: any Law or Statute, to the contrary had or made notwithſtanding. St. 1.H.8.5. 3.H.7.7. 1.Eliz.11.

Cap. XXIII.

Part of the Statute of precontracts repealed.

Whereas in the two and thirtieth yeere of the raigne of the late King of famous memory, King Henry the eight, becauſe that many inconueniences had chanced in this Realme, by breaking and diſſoluing of good and lawfull marriages, yea, whereupon alſo, ſometime iſſue and children had followed, vnder the colour and pretence of a former contract made with another, the which contract diuers times was but very ſlenderly proued, and often but ſurmiſed by the malice of the party who deſired to be diſſolued from the marriage which they liked not, and to be coupled with another: there was an Act made, that all and euery ſuch marriages, as within the Church of England, ſhould be contracted and ſolemnized in the face of the Church, and conſummat with bodily knowledge or fruit of children or child, being had betweene the parties ſo married, ſhould be by authority of the ſaid Parliament, deemed, iudged and taken to be lawfull, good, iuſt and indiſſoluble, notwithſtanding any precontract or precontracts of Matrimony, not conſummat with bodily knowledge, which either of the perſons ſo married or both, had made with any other perſon or perſons, before the time of contracting that marriage which is ſolemnized or conſummated, or whereof ſuch fruit is enſued or may enſue, as by the ſame act more plainly may appeare; Sithence the time of the which act, although the ſame was godly meant, the vnrulineſſe of men, hath vngodly abuſed the ſame, and diuers inconueniences (intollerable in manner to Chriſtian eares and eyes) followed thereupon, women and men, breaking their owne promiſes and faiths made by the one vnto the other, ſo ſet vpon ſenſuality and pleaſure, that if after the contract of Matrimony, they might haue whom they more fauoured and deſired, they could be contented by lightneſſe of their nature, to ouerturne all that they had done afore, and not afeard in manner, euen from the very Church doore and marriage feaſt, the man to take another ſpouſe, and the eſpouſe to take another husband, more for bodily luſt and carnall knowledge than for ſurety of faith and truth, or hauing God in their good remembrance, contemning many times alſo the commandement of the Eccleſiaſticall Iudge, forbidding the parties hauing made the contract, to attempt or doe any thing in preiudice of the ſame.

A repeale of ſo much of the St. of 32. H. 8. 38. as maketh that marriage indiſſoluble, which is ſolemnized in the Church and conſummated with bodily knowledge and fruit of child.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings Highneſſe, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that as concerning precontracts, the ſaid former Statute ſhal from the firſt day of May next comming, ceaſe, be repealed, and of no force or effect, and be reduced to the eſtate and order of the Kings Eccleſiaſticall Lawes of this Realme, which immediatly before the making of the ſaid eſtatute, in this caſe were vſed in this Realme: ſo that from the ſaid firſt day of May, when any cauſe or contract of marriage, is pretended to haue beene made, it ſhalbe lawfull to the Kings Eccleſiaſticall Iudge, of that place, to heare and examine the ſaid cauſe: and (hauing the ſaid contract ſufficiently and lawfully proued before him) to giue ſentence for matrimony, commanding ſolemnization, cohabitation, conſummation and tractation, as it becommeth man and wife to haue, with inflicting all ſuch paines vpon the diſobedients and diſturbers therof, as in times paſt before the ſaid ſtatute, the Kings Eccleſiaſticall Iudge, by the Kings Eccleſiaſticall lawes, ought and might haue done, if the ſaid ſtatute had neuer beene made: any clauſe, article or ſentence in the ſaid Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that this Act doe not extend to diſanull, diſſolue, or breake any marriage, that hath or ſhall be ſo ſolemnizated and conſummated, before the ſaid firſt day of May next enſuing, by title or colour of any precontract, but that they be, and be deemed of like force and effect, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if this Act had neuer beene had nor made: any thing in this preſent Act notwithſtanding.

A confirmation of the reſidue of the ſaid Sta. of 32. H. 8. 38.

Prouided alſo, that this Act doe not extend to make good any of the other cauſes, to the diſſolution or diſanulling of Matrimony, which be in the ſaid Act ſpoken of and diſanulled. But that in all other cauſes and other things there mentioned, the ſaid former Act of the two and thirtieth yeere of the late King of famous memory, doe ſtand and remaine in his full ſtrength and power, any thing in this Act notwithſtanding. Cap. XXIIII.

Triall of murders may be in ſeuerall Counties.

FOraſmuch, as the moſt neceſſary office and duty of Law, is to preſerue and ſaue the life of man, and condignely to puniſh ſuch perſons that vnlawfully and wilfully murder, ſlea or deſtroy men, and alſo that another office and duty of Law is, to puniſh robbers and theeues, which daily endeauour themſelues to rob and ſteale, or giue aſſiſtance to the ſame, and yet by craft and cautile doe eſcape from the ſame without puniſhment.

No inditement by the common Law of the death of him who is ſtriken in one County and dieth in another.

And where it often happeneth, and commeth in vre, in ſundry Counties of this Realme, that a man is feloniouſly ſtriken in one County, and after dieth in another County: in which caſe it hath not beene founden by the Lawes or cuſtomes of this Realme, that any ſufficient enditement thereof can be taken in any of the ſaid two Counties, for that by the cuſtome of this Realme, the Iurors of the County where ſuch party died of ſuch ſtroke, can take no knowledge of the ſaid ſtroke being in a forrein County, although the ſame two Counties and places adioyne very neere together: ne the Iurors of the County where the ſtroke was giuen, cannot take knowledge of the death in another County, although ſuch death moſt apparantly come of the ſame ſtroke: ſo that the Kings Maieſty within his owne Realme, cannot by any Lawes yet made or knowen, puniſh ſuch murderers or manquellers, for offences in this forme committed and done, nor any appeale at ſometime may lie for the ſame, but doth alſo faile, and the ſaid murderers and manquellers eſcape thereof without puniſhment, as well in caſes where the Counties, where ſuch offences be committed and done, may ioyne, as otherwiſe where they may not ioyne. And alſo it is a common practice among arrant theeues and robbers in this Realme, that after they haue robbed or ſtollen in one County, they will conuey their ſpoile, or part thereof ſo robbed and ſtollen, vnto ſome of their adherents, into ſome other County, where the principall offence was not committed ne done, who knowing of ſuch felony, willingly and by falſe couin, receiueth the ſame: In which caſe, although the principall Felon be after attainted in the one County, the Acceſſary eſcapeth, by reaſon that he was acceſſary in another County, and that the Iurors of the ſaid other County, by any Law yet made, can take no knowledge of the principall felony, ne attainder in the firſt County, and ſo ſuch acceſſaries eſcape thereof vnpuniſhed, and doe often put in vre the ſame, knowing that they may eſcape without puniſhment. For redreſſe and puniſhment of which offences, and ſafegard of mans life: Be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that where any perſon or perſons hereafter ſhall be feloniouſly ſtricken, or poiſoned in one County, and die of the ſame ſtroke or poyſoning in another County, that then an indictment thereof founden by Iurors of the County, where the death ſhall happen, whether it ſhall be founden before the Crowner, vpon the ſight of ſuch dead body, or before the Iuſtices of peace, or other Iuſtices, or Commiſſioners, which ſhall haue authority to enquire of ſuch offences, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the law, as if the ſtroke or poiſoning had beene committed and done in the ſame County, where the party ſhall die, or where ſuch indictment ſhall be ſo founden: any Law or vſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The triall of a manqueller that poiſoneth or ſtriketh a man in one County, which dieth thereof in another. Raſt.pla.fo.51.

And that the Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery, and Oyer and Terminer, in the ſame County, where ſuch indictment at any time hereafter ſhall be taken: And alſo the Iuſtices of the Kings Bench, after ſuch indictment ſhall bee remoued before them, ſhall and may proceed vpon the ſame in all points, as they ſhould or ought to doe, in caſe ſuch felonious ſtroke, and death thereby enſuing, or poyſoning, and death thereof enſuing, had growen in all one ſame County. And that ſuch party to whom appeale of murder ſhall be giuen by the Law, may commence, take, and ſue appeale of murder, in the ſame County where the party ſo feloniouſly ſtriken, or poyſoned, ſhall die, as well againſt the principall and principals, as againſt euery acceſſary to the ſame offences, in whatſoeuer County or place the acceſſary or acceſſaries ſhall be guilty to the ſame, And further, the Iuſtices before whom any ſuch appeale ſhall be commenced, ſued, and taken, within the yeere and day after ſuch murder and manſlaughter committed and done, ſhall proceed againſt all and euery ſuch acceſſary and acceſſaries in the ſame County, where ſuch appeale ſhall be ſo taken, in like manner and forme, as if the ſame offence or offences of acceſſary or acceſſaries had beene committed and done in the ſame County, where ſuch appeale ſhall be ſo taken, as well concerning the triall by the Iurors, or twelue men of ſuch County, where ſuch appeale or appeales ſhall be hereafter taken vpon the plea of not guilty, pleaded by ſuch Offender or Offenders, as otherwiſe.

Where an appeale of murder in the caſe aforeſaid ſhall be purſued.

Appeale againſt the acceſſory.

And further, be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that where any murder or felony hereafter ſhall be committed and done in one County, and another perſon or moe ſhall be acceſſary, or acceſſaries in any manner of wiſe, to any ſuch murder, or felony in any other County, that then an indictment found or taken againſt ſuch acceſſary and acceſſaries, vpon the circumſtance of ſuch matter before the Iuſtices of the Peace, or other Iuſtices or Commiſſioners, to enquire of Felonies in the County where ſuch offences of acceſſary or acceſſaries in any manner of wiſe ſhall be committed or done, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the Law, as if the ſaid principall offence had beene committed or done within the ſame [a] County, where the ſame endictment againſt ſuch acceſſary ſhall be found. And that the Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery, or Oyer and Terminer, or two of them, of, or in ſuch County, where the offence of any ſuch acceſſary ſhall be hereafter committed and done, vpon ſuit to them made, ſhall write to the Cuſtos Rotulorum, or Keepers of the Records, where ſuch principall ſhall be hereafter attainted, or conuict, to certifie them whether ſuch principall be attainted, conuicted, or otherwiſe diſcharged of ſuch principall felony, who vpon ſuch writing to them, or any of them directed, ſhall make ſufficient certificate in writing vnder their ſeale or ſeales to the ſaid Iuſtices, whether ſuch principall be attainted, conuicted, or otherwiſe diſcharged, or not. And after that they ſo ſhall haue the cuſtody of ſuch records, doe certifie that ſuch principall is attainted, conuicted, or otherwiſe diſcharged of ſuch offence by the Law: That then the Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery, or of Oyer and Terminer, or other there authoriſed, ſhall proceed vpon euery ſuch acceſſary, in the County where ſuch acceſſary or acceſſaries became acceſſary, in ſuch manner and forme, as if both the ſaid principall offence, and acceſſary had beene committed and done in the ſaid County, where the offence of acceſſary was, or ſhall bee committed or done. And that euery ſuch acceſſary and other offenders aboue expreſſed, ſhall anſwer vpon their arraignments, and receiue ſuch triall, iudgement, order, and execution, and ſuffer ſuch forfeitures, peines and penalties, as is vſed in other caſes of felony, any Law or cuſtome to the contrary heretofore vſed in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Triall of an acceſſory in one County to a felony done in another.

Sheriffes ſhall keepe their County Courts monethly.

WHere heretofoꝛe in the moſt part of all Shires and Counties within this Realme, the County Court is and hath beene vſually kept and holden from moneth to moneth, and ſo at euery moneths end one County: yet albeit in ſome Countreis (though not many) the ſaid County Courts are holden from ſix weekes to ſix weekes, by foꝛce whereof the Officers award out Pꝛoceſſe, aſwell foꝛ the King, as Pꝛoceſſe foꝛ the peace, out of the Kings Bench, as alſo other common Pꝛoceſſe betwixt party and party, and the Atturneyes and Solicitoꝛs (who ſue the ſame) not knowing the pꝛiuate cuſtoms of their particular Shires, which haue and vſe their Counties to bee holden euery ſix weekes, giue their Pꝛoceſſe like returne as in thoſe Shires which haue common cuſtome to hold, and keepe County Courts euery moneth, whereby the Kings ſuits be not only deferred, the plaintifes and demandants delayed of their lawfull actions and demands, but alſo the ſaid plaintifes and demandants thereby put to double coſt and charge, to the great ignominy and ſlander of the law, encouraging of the Offendoꝛs and Tranſgreſſoꝛs, and to the continuall impoueriſhing of all thoſe who haue cauſe of ſuit.

County Courts ſhall be kept monethly.

In conſideration whereof, be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Loꝛd, the Loꝛds ſpiritual and tempoꝛall, and the Commons in this pꝛeſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoꝛity of the ſame, that from and after the firſt day of October next enſuing this pꝛeſent Seſſion of Parliament, no County Court oꝛ Courts, hereafter to be kept within this Realme, ſhall be longer deferred but one moneth, from Court to Court, and ſo the ſaid Courts from henceforth ſhall be kept euery moneth, and none otherwiſe: Any vſage, cuſtome, ſtatute oꝛ law, heretofoꝛe had oꝛ made to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Where the County Court of Noꝛthumberland ſhall be kept.

And be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that the Sheriffe of Noꝛthumberland from thenceforth ſhall keepe the County Court of that Shire in the Towne oꝛ Caſtle of Alnewike, and in none other place: Any later vſe lately begun and bꝛought in, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXVI.

White Aſhes ſhall not be ſhipped or carried ouer the Sea.

COnſidering that white Aſhes made within the Realme, and other the Kings Dominions, and Territoꝛies, are very neceſſary and expedient foꝛ the making of Sope, and Salt Peter, and foꝛ the whiting of Linnen Cloath, dying, and ſcowꝛing of woollen Cloth, and foꝛ other needfull things in the Realme, and that the ſame Aſhes now of late haue beene commonly conueyed ouer the Seas, and thereby enhaunced in pꝛice, and ſo ſcarce, that the Kings louing Subiects cannot haue ſufficient of the ſame foꝛ any conuenient pꝛices:

The penalty foꝛ ſhipping oꝛ tranſpoꝛting white aſhes.

Wherefoꝛe be it oꝛdeined and enacted by the Kings Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Loꝛds ſpirituall and tempoꝛall, and of the Commons in this pꝛeſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoꝛity of the ſame, that no perſon oꝛ perſons, after the firſt day of Apꝛill next comming, ſhall ſhip, lade, carry, oꝛ conuey any white Aſhes, towards the parts beyond the ſeas, vpon paine of foꝛfeiture of ſix ſhillings eight pence foꝛ euery buſhell of ſuch aſhes, ſo to be ſhipped oꝛ laded, to be carried oꝛ conueyed into the parts beyond the ſeas: The moity of which foꝛfeiture ſhall be to the King, and the other moity to him oꝛ them that will ſue foꝛ the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Recoꝛd, by action, bill, plaint, oꝛ infoꝛmation, in the which action, bill, plaint, oꝛ infoꝛmation, no wager of law, eſſoine, oꝛ protection ſhall be admitted oꝛ allowed.

CAP. XXVII.

None may forge nor ſell gads of Yron, like in faſhion to gads of Steele.

WHere diuers perſons of late haue deceitfully foꝛged and made of certaine yꝛon, called Bilbow yꝛon, like to the faſhion and manner of gads of Steele, and haue ſold the ſame ſo foꝛged to diuers of the Kings Subiects foꝛ Steele, whereby the greateſt part of edged tooles, weapons, and other neceſſary things hauing edges, are of little oꝛ no value oꝛ goodneſſe, to the great hurt of the Kings louing Subiects:

The penalty foꝛ foꝛging oꝛ putting to ſale any gads of yꝛon like to gads of ſteele.

For reformation whereof, be it enacted by the Kings Highneſſe, by the aſſent of the Loꝛds Spirituall and Tempoꝛall, and of the Commons in this pꝛeſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoꝛity of the ſame, That if any perſon after the firſt day of May next comming, doe foꝛge oꝛ make any ſuch gads of yꝛon, oꝛ doe vtter oꝛ put to ſale, any ſuch gads of any yꝛon, he ſhall foꝛfeit foꝛ euery gad ſo foꝛged, oꝛ vttered, oꝛ put to ſale, foure pence: The moity of which foꝛfeiture ſhall be to the King, and the other moity to him oꝛ them that will ſue foꝛ the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Recoꝛd, by action, bill, plaint, oꝛ infoꝛmation, in the which action, bill, plaint, oꝛ infoꝛmation, no wager of law, pꝛotection oꝛ eſſoine, ſhall be allowed oꝛ admitted.

The force of fines leuied of Lands in Cheſhire, before the high Iuſtices of Cheſter, or the Deputy or Lieutenant.

IN humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your excellent Maieſty, your true and faithfull ſubiects and liege men, the inhabitants of your Graces County Palatine of Cheſter: That whereas heretofore by authority of Parliament, diuers neceſſary and beneficiall ſtatutes haue bin made for and concerning the leuying of fines with proclamation, which are not only neceſſary for the preſeruation of quietneſſe and concord amongſt your louing ſubiects, and for the auoiding of ſtrife and contention, but alſo for the great & perfect aſſurance of all ſuch perſons, to whom any ſuch fines are leuied of any lands, tenements and hereditaments, which ſaid beneficiall and neceſſary Statutes doe not extend to any fines to be leuied within your ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter: In tender conſideration whereof, pleaſeth it your moſt excellent Maieſty, that it may bee enacted by your highneſſe and the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all and ſingular fines, which at any time hereafter ſhall be leuied or knowledged before the high Iuſtice of our Soueraigne Lord the King, or of his Heires and Succeſſors, of his County Palatine of Cheſter for the time being, or before the deputy or Lieutenant Iuſtice there for the time being, of any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, lying or being within the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter, which ſhalbe openly read and proclaimed three ſeueral daies in the open ſeſſions, in the preſence of the Iuſtice of the ſaid county Palatine of Cheſter for the time being, or before the deputy or Lieutenant Iuſtice there at the ſame Seſſions, that the ſame fine ſhall fortune to bee engroſſed: And alſo that ſhall bee openly read and proclaimed in the preſence of the Iuſtice of the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter, or before the deputy or Lieutenant Iuſtice there for the time being, at the two next generall Seſſions that ſhalbe holden in the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter, before the Iuſtice of the ſame county Palatine, or before the deputy or Lieutenant Iuſtice there next after the leuying and ingroſſing of ſuch ſaid fine at three ſeueral daies in either of the ſaid two ſeſſions, after ſuch manner & forme as is commonly vſed in the Kings Court of Common pleas at Weſtminſter, ſhalbe of like force ſtrength, and effect in the law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as fines being duly leuied with proclamations before the Kings Iuſtices of his cōmon pleas be, or ought to be of. 43. Recogniſances acknowledged before the Maior of Cheſter ſhalbe good.

IN their moſt humble wiſe ſhewen vnto your highneſſe, your true, faithfull and obedient ſubiects, the Mayor, Aldermen Sheriffes, and Comminalty of your Graces city of Cheſter, that where before this time the Maiors of the city of Cheſter were appointed and authoriſed, to take and receiue before the ſaid Maiors, Recogniſances, according to the Statutes Merchant, and of Acton Burnell, whereupon were deliuered vnto the ſaid Maior by the Kings Maieſties Progenitors that then were, a ſpeciall ſeale concerning the ſame: by force whereof the Maiors and other officers there appointed (time out of minde) haue continually vſed and practiſed, to take recogniſances before them of Statutes Merchant, and Acton Burnell, and enrolled the ſame, which euer hitherto was allowed, permitted, and taken to be good and effectuall in the law: vntill now of late that ambiguity and doubt hath riſen, by meanes of certaine ſiniſter perſons, more for the defrauding of right, equity, and Iuſtice, than vpon any good ground, or matter, for their priuate commodity, becauſe that in all points it doth not follow and agree, according to all the ſtraight words of the ſaid Statutes Merchant, and Acton Burnell, as well to the great hurt and ſlander of the ſaid City, as alſo to the decay of the Merchants, which haue, and ſhall lend their liuings, wares and money, and great boldneſſe of the debtors, to detaine the ſame in their hands, to the great decay of the ſaid city: wherefore for the inconuenience thereof, and alſo for the auoyding of the ſaid ambiguity and doubt: it may pleaſe your highneſſe that it may bee by your grace with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, ordeined eſtabliſhed, and enacted by the authority of the ſame, that all ⁊ euery ſuch recogniſance of ſtatutes Merchant, and Acton Burnell, which after the firſt day of May next comming, ſhall be taken, knowledged, enrolled, had, and ſealed with the ſaid Seale, appointed to the ſaid city of Cheſter, before the Mayor of the ſame city for the time being, in like manner as heretofore the predeceſſors Maiors, and other officers in the ſaid city haue accuſtomed to take and enroll, and ſeale, ſhalbe as good, effectuall, and of force in the law, to all intents, conſtructions ⁊ purpoſes, as if the taking of ſuch recogniſance did fully agree and accord to all intents and purpoſes, with the ſtreight words of the ſaid ſtatutes of Acton Burnell, and the ſtatute Merchant. And that vpon all certificates of the ſaid Maiors hereafter, like proceſſe and execution to be awarded and directed out of the high Courts of Chancery, and Common place to all Sheriffes, Maiors, Bailiffes, or other officers in England or Wales, in as ample manner and forme as is vſed elſewhere within this realme, for any recogniſance taken, vpon any of the ſtatutes aforeſaid: any law, ſtatute, liberty, franchiſes, or vſage had or vſed to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Stat. of 32.H.8.30. concerning Ieofailes, ⁊c. and of 35.H.6 touching granting Tales made perpetuall.

WHere in the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the xxxii. yéere of the reigne of our late moſt dread ſoueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, and there by diuers prorogations, continued vntill the xxiiii. day of July, in the xxxvi. yéere of the raigne of the ſaid late K. Henry the eighth, there was one Act made and eſtabliſhed for and concerning the reformation of Miſpleading, Ieofailes, and Atturneies, which ſaid Act with the prouiſo, were made to endure vntill the laſt day of the next Parliament. And where alſo at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the xxxv. yéere of the raigne of our ſaid late moſt dread ſoueraigne Lord, one act was made that for none apparance in Juries to haue de Circumſtantibus. And in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the xxxvii. yéere of the raigne of our ſaid late moſt dread ſoueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, the ſaid acts and either of them were continued vntill the end of the next Parliament. Be it enacted and eſtabliſhed by the K. our ſoueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpiritual and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the acts aforeſaid, and either of them, and all clauſes, articles, and prouiſions, in them ⁊ euery of them contained, ſhal continue and endure in their force and ſtrength for euer. ſt.4.& 5.P.&M.7.

Cap. XXXIII.

Whoſoeuer ſtealeth an horſe, &c. ſhall loſe his Clergy.

He that ſtealeth one horſe, ſhall not haue his clergy or ſanctuary.

FOraſmuch as it is and hath béene ambiguous and doubtfull, vpon the words mentioned in one act of Parliament made the firſt yéere of the raigne of our ſoueraigne Lord the King, whether that any perſon being in due forme of the lawes found guilty, or otherwiſe attainted or conuicted for felonious ſtealing of one horſe, gelding or mare, ought to be admitted to haue or enioy the priuilege and benefit of his clergy and ſanctuary: Therefore it is declared and enacted by the King our ſoueraigne Lord, and the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame Parliament, that all and ſingular perſon ⁊ perſons, feloniouſly taking or ſtealing any horſe, gelding or mare, ſhal not be admitted to haue or enioy the priuilege or benefit of his or their[a] clergy, or ſanctuary, but ſhalbe put from the ſame, in like manner and forme as though he or they had béen indicted or appealed for felonious ſtealing of two horſes, two geldings or two mares, of any other, and thereupon found guilty by verdict of twelue men, or confeſſed the ſame vpon their arraignment, or ſtand wilfully, or of malice mute. Sheriffes of Northumberland accountable for their offices, as other Sheriffes be.

FOraſmuch as the Sheriffs of the county of Northumberland, which haue bin named now of long time paſſed, haue not accounted to the Kings Maieſty of the iſſues ⁊ profits of their Bailiwike in the Kings highneſſe Eſchequer, or elſewhere, as other Sheriffes of the ſaid County in old time paſſed haue done, nor as the Sheriffes of other counties of this realme doe at this time, but doe yéerely receiue and take the whole profits thereof to their owne vſes, to the great detriment and loſſe of the King our ſoueraigne Lord, both of his Vicountels, and other fermes, anſwerable by the hands of the ſaid Sheriffe, ⁊ of all other debts, iſſues, fines, and amerciaments within the ſaid county, and of all alienations and intruſions, wards mariages, reliefes, and ſuch other.

The Sheriffe of Northumberland ſhall put in ſureties in the exchequer for his account, as other Sheriffes doe.

Wherefore be it enacted by the King our ſoueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from henceforth all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhalbe hereafter named to be Sheriffe of the ſaid county of Northumberland, forthwith before he receiue his patent, and before he doe exerciſe any part of the ſaid office, ſhal put in ſufficient ſureties by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient deputie or deputies, into the kings Eſchequer, there to enter in recogniſances in ſuch ſumme, and vpon ſuch conditions, as the Lord treaſurer, and Barons of the ſaid Eſchequer ſhall ſeeme conuenient in manner & forme as all other Sheriffes of other counties of this realme doe, vpon paine of euery ſuch Sheriffe making default, to forfeit to the Kings maieſty an hundred pound, to bee leuied of his goods and chattels, lands and tenements whereſoeuer they may bee found, to the Kings highneſſe vſe: And that the ſaid Barons from time to time, ſhall cauſe ſuch Proceſſe to be made for the King for the leuying of the ſaid hundred pound, ſo to bee forfeited, to be directed to ſuch perſon and perſons, and in ſuch nature and ſort as to them ſhall ſeeme beſt for the King for the leuying thereof, any thing in this Act, or in any other law, ſtatute, vſe, prouiſion or cuſtome, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwayes and bee it enacted by the ſaid authority, that any ſuch Sheriffe, being ſo bounden as is aboueſaid, ſhall not be accountable but for his owne time, and for the yeere of his Sheriffewike onely, neither ſhall be charged, in or vpon his account, by any Proceſſe, with any arrerages or duties, due to the K. Maieſty by any his predeceſſors in the ſaid office of Sheriffe: any thing in this Act, or any law, or vſage, or prerogatiue to the contrary notwithſtanding.

How farre the Sheriffe of Northumberland ſhall be charged.

Cap. XXXVII.

No perſon ſhall carry Bell metall, &c. out of this realme.

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the three and thirty yeere of our late ſoueraign Lord of famous memory King Henry the eight, it was enacted, that no perſon or perſons ſhould carry or conuey by water, or otherwiſe, any braſſe, copper, latton, bell metall, pan metall, or gun metall, or ſhroffe metall, whether it bee cleane or mixed (tin and lead onely excepted) into any part beyond the ſea, or into any outward realme or dominion, whatſoeuer it be, vpon paine of forfeiture of double the value thereof. And where alſo by the ſaid Statute, it was likewiſe enacted, that no perſon or perſons ſhould at any time ſhip, or carry any of the ſaid metals, to carry or diſcharge the ſame in any part of this realme, vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons, before the ſhipping thereof did declare and manifeſt vnto the Cuſtomers of ſuch a Port or creeke, where the ſame metall ſhould bee ſhipped, the true weight of all ſuch metall as ſhould bee ſhipped, and ſhould alſo make a ſufficient obligation in the Law, in the which hee ſhould bee bounden to the ſaid Cuſtomer, to the Kings vſe, in ſuch ſumme as ſhould amount to the double value of the ſaid metall ſo declared, and manifeſted, with condition that the ſame ſhould bee diſcharged, at ſome port, or creeke within this realme, and in no other place, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame, in manner and forme aboue rehearſed, as by the ſaid Act, amongſt other things more plainly appeareth. 33. H. 8. 7.

Forasmuch as the paines and forfeitures in the ſaid Statute, are not great enough, and forasmuch alſo, as diuers couetous and greedy perſons, hauing no reſpect or obedience to the lawes, haue craftily, and by all ſiniſter meanes practiſed to defraud the ſaid Statute, ſome by bribing and rewarding the Searchers, Maſters, Purſers, or other Officers of ſhips, ſome by ſecret conueying thereof in ſmall creekes, Sugar cheſts, Hogſheads, or otherwiſe: Be it therefore ordeined, and enacted that from and after the feaſt of Eaſter next comming, no perſon or perſons ſhall carry or conuey, or ſhip, to the intent to carry or conuey any braſſe, Copper, Latton, Bell metal Pan metall, Gun metall, or Shroffe metall, whether it bee cleere, or mixed (Tin and Lead onely excepted) into any part beyond the ſea, or into any outward Realme, or Dominion whatſoeuer it be, vpon paine to forfeit the double value thereof, and x. li. for euery thouſand weight of the ſame metall ſo carried and conueyed, or ſhipped, to the intent to be carried or conueyed, the triall whereof ſhall be in like manner and forme, as in the ſaid former Act is expreſſed.

The penalty for carrying, or for ſhipping to carry any braſſe latton, &c. beyond the ſea.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons, after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall ſhip or carry any of the ſaid metals prohibited by this Statute, to carry or diſcharge the ſame in any part of this Realme, vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons, before the ſhipping thereof, doe declare and manifeſt to the Cuſtomer of ſuch Port, or creek where the ſame metall ſhalbe ſhipped, the true weight of all ſuch metall as ſhall bee ſhipped, and ſhall alſo before the ſhipping thereof, make a ſufficient obligation in the law, in which hee ſhall bee bounden to the ſaid Cuſtomer to the Kings vſe, in ſuch ſumme as ſhall amount to the double value, and x.li.for euery M.weight, ſo declared and manifeſted, with condition, as in the ſaid Statute is appointed and enacted, and ſhall make certificate of the diſcharge thereof, in like manner as in the ſaid ſtatute is further ordeined and enacted.

What he muſt doe that ſhippeth metals in one port of this realme, to carry to another.

The penalty of a Cuſtomer offending. And be it further enacted, that if any Cuſtomer, Comptroller, or their deputy or deputies, by couin, or by any other vndue meane, will ſuffer any perſon after that the metall is ſhipped, or carried, contrary to the meaning of this Act, to make obligation or obligations, without dates, for the diſcharge and certificate of their metall, as is aforeſaid, that then ſuch Cuſtomer, ſo ſuffering, or receiuing ſuch obligation, or obligations, ſhall loſe his office and the value of the metall ſo ſhipped, or carried,

The penalty of the Maſter of a ſhip, which carrieth the metall. And be it further enacted, that if any Maſter, Owner, Purſer, or Boteſwaine of any ſhip, doe willingly permit or ſuffer any of the metals aboueſaid to be ſhipped contrary to the tenor of this Act, or elſe perceiuing any ſuch metall to be ſhipped, doe not diſcloſe the ſame within thrée dayes after knowledge had to the Cuſtomer, or Comptroller of the ſame port, or his or their deputy or deputies, where the ſame is ſhipped, that then euery ſuch Owner, Maſter, Purſer, or Boteſwain ſo willingly putting the ſame metall to be ſhipped, or concealing the ſame when he perceiueth it to bee ſhipped, ſhall forfeit the double value of the ſame metall ſo ſhipped or carried. And if any Cuſtomer or Searcher doe willingly ſuffer any of the metals aforeſaid, to be ſhipped contrary to the meaning of this Act, or elſe hauing knowledge that it is ſecretly ſhipped, or carried, doe not ſeiſe the ſame to the Kings vſe, then euery Cuſtomer, or ſearcher ſo offending, ſhall loſe his office, and the value of the metall ſo ſhipped or carried.

No metall ſhall be laden but where there is a Cuſtomer. And be it further enacted, That no perſon nor perſons, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt, lade, ſhip, or carry into any part beyond the Sea, any of the metals aforeſaid, but onely out of ſuch port or créeke, where the Cuſtomer or his deputy is reſident, and dwelling, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid metall, and ten pound for euery thouſand weight ſo ſhipped or carried, the moity of all which forfeitures ſhall bee to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by Bill, Plaint, Information, action of debt, or otherwiſe in any of the Kings Courts, in which no eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhall bee admitted or allowed.

A confirmation of the ſtatute of 33.H.8.7. And be it further enacted, that the ſaid Eſtatute made in the ſaid thrée and thirtieth yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, and euery article and prouiſion, being not altered by this eſtatute, ſhall be góod and effectuall. 21.H.8.10.

ANNO TERTIO ET QVARTO EDWARDI SEXTI.

ACTS made in the Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter the fourth day of Nouember, in the third yeare of the raigne of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord, EDWARD the ſixth, by the grace of God, King of England, France, and Ireland, Defendor of the faith, and of the Church of England, and alſo of Ireland, in earth the ſupreme head: and there continued and kept to the firſt of February, in the fourth yeare of the reigne of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, as followeth.

Cap. I.

The Lord Chancellor, &c. ſhall name the Custos Rotulorum in euery Shire of England and Wales.

37.H.8.1. Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the ſeuen and thirtieth yéere of the reigne of the moſt excellent Prince of famous memory King Henry the eighth, it was enacted that no perſon or perſons ſhould from the making of the ſaid Act, bee nominated and appointed to the office or offices of Cuſtos rotulorum, within any ſhire of this Realme of England, Wales, or other the Kings dominions, Marches, or Territories of the ſame, but ſuch as ſhould haue a bill ſigned with the Kings hand for the ſame, which bill ſigned, ſhould bee a ſufficient warrant by authority of the ſaid Act, to the Lord Chancellor of England, and Lord Keeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, to make from time to time, Commiſſion or Commiſſions, aſſigning and authoriſing thereby, the ſame perſon to be Cuſtos rotulorum, vntill the King had by another bill aſſigned with his owne hand, appointed and ordeined another perſon, to haue, occupy and exerciſe the ſame office of Cuſtos rotulorum, and that the ſaid perſon appointed, and aſſigned to be Cuſtos rotulorum, as is aboueſaid, ſhould and might occupy, exerciſe, and enioy the ſaid office of Cuſtos rotulorum by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient deputy learned in the lawes of this realm, and meet and able to ſupply the ſaid office, according to the tenor of the ſaid grant or Commiſſion, as by the ſame Act among other things more at large it doth, and may appeare.

Since the making of the which Statute, diuers and many perſons being in the ſaid offices of Cuſtos rotulorum, in diuers Shires of the Realme, haue departed this preſent life, and dyed, ſo that there hath not come to the hands of the Chancellor of England, or Lord Keeper of the great ſeale, any bill or bils aſſigned with yͤ Kings Maieſties hand for the naming, appointing, or aſſigning of any new Cuſtos rotulorum, in the ſame ſhires, and ſo the ſaid offices haue remained voyd for a long time, to the great let of iuſtice. And alſo for that it ſhalbe very tedious, and much to the moleſting of the kings maieſty vpon euery auoidance of ſuch Cuſtos rotulorum, by death or otherwiſe, to moue his Maieſty for the ſigning of bils for other perſons to be elected, named, choſen, & appointed to ſupply the ſaid offices of Cuſtos rotulorum, being void. And for that the nomination and appointing of the ſaid office of Cuſtos rotulorum, long before the making of the ſaid Statute laſt before rehearſed did appertain and belong to the office of the Chancellor of England, or Lord keeper of the great ſeale for the time being.

Reaſons why the Cuſtos Rotulorum ſhould be aſſigned by the L. Chancellor, and not by the King.

Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled and by the authority of the ſame, that the Chancellor of England, or Lord keeper of the great ſeale for the time being, ſhall at all time and times hereafter, and from time to time without any bill or bils, to bee aſſigned with the Kings hand, name, elect, aſſigne, and appoint ſuch perſon and perſons to be Cuſtos rotulorum, within euery ſhire of this realme of England, Wales, and other the Kings dominions, marches and territories of the ſame, or by any of them, as by the diſcretion of the ſaid Lord Chancellor, or Lord keeper of the great ſeale, for the time being, ſhall be thought able, and meet to haue and exerciſe the ſame. And that the ſaid perſon and perſons, ſo to bee appointed, elected, named and aſſigned by the ſaid Lord Chancellor, or Lord keeper of the great ſeale for the time being, ſhall and may occupy, exerciſe and enioy the ſame office of Cuſtos rotulorum, by himſelfe, or by his ſufficient deputy or deputie, in as ample, and large manner, and forme as if the ſaid Act had neuer beene had ne made, the before rehearſed Act, or any thing therein conteined to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The L. Chancellor, &c. ſhall appoint the Cuſtos rotulorum in euery ſhire.

Prouided alway, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all ſuch as now haue any of the ſaid offices of Cuſtos Rotulorum, by the Kings Letters Patents, or Commiſſion to them or any of them made, ſhall and may enioy, haue, and exerciſe their ſaid offices by vertue of the ſame Letters patents, or Commiſſion, by himſelfe or his ſufficient and able deputy, inſtructed in the lawes of this Realme, any thing in this preſent Act, had or made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Cuſtos rotulorum may exerciſe his office by himſelf or his deputy.

Prouided alſo, that it be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Archbiſhop of Yorke, the Biſhop of Durham, the Biſhop of Ely, and euery of their ſucceſſors, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaſter for the time being, and all and euery perſon and perſons, Corporations, and bodies corporated, to whom the Kings Maieſty, or any of his noble progenitors by his, or their Letters Patents, or Act of Parliament, haue giuen and granted any liberty and authority, or otherwiſe haue authority by other lawful means or wayes, to ordeine, make, and conſtitute, any of the ſaid officers of Cuſtos rotulorum, within any County Palatine, or other place, ſhall and may haue, and enioy the ſame liberty, and authority, according as they haue had and enioyed the ſame, any thing in this preſent Act, had or made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The right of others ſaued which haue authority to name the Cuſtos Rotulorum.

Cap. II.

In Townes not corporate Iuſt. of Peace ſhall appoint Ouerſeers, for the true making of wollen cloth, &c.

FOraſmuch as by the ſleight and ſubtile making of clothes, and colours within diuers parts of this realme now of late practiſed, and vſed, not only great infamies and ſlanders haue growne to this ſame realme, but alſo the Kings maieſties faithfull and true ſubiects haue ſuſtained great loſſe in the vſe, and wearing of the ſame clothes, ſo ſleightly and ſubtilly made. For remedy and reformation whereof bee it ordeined, and enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Maieſty, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that euery Clothier and Clothmaker, ſhall from the feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady next comming, ſet his ſeale of lead to his cloth, declaring thereby the iuſt lengths thereof, to be tried by the water.

The Clothier ſhal ſet his ſeale of lead to his cloth.

And that no perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt ſtreine, or ſtretch any ſet clothes, or any other cloth aboue one yard and a halfe in length, and a quarter of a yard in bredth, vpon paine to forfeit forty ſhillings for euery default.

Stretching of cloth.
Al. 5.E.6.6.39.El 20.43.El.10.
Shrinking of cloth.

And that no perſon, nor perſons, ſhall from the ſaid feaſt, vpon paine laſt before remembred, put to ſale any cloth, which when it ſhall bee wet, ſhall ſhrinke more than one yard and an halfe in all the length, and a quarter of a yard in the breadth. And that narrow ſtreits, and kerſeyes, ſhall not from the ſaid feaſt be ſtretched, aboue a yard in length, & halfe a quarter of a yard in breadth, vpon the paine for euery default therein twenty ſhillings, nor ſhal put to ſale any cloth, narrow, ſtreit or kerſey, the pieces whereof being wet, ſhal ſhrinke more than after the ſame ſeueral rates in the whole piece, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch offence, xx.s.

Dying of cloth.

And further that no perſon or perſons occupying the feat of Dying, ſhall Dye or alter into colors, or cauſe to be died, or altered into colors, any woollē clothes, as browne blewes, peukes, tawnies or violets, except the ſame woollen cloths be perfectly boiled, greined, or maddered vpon the woad, and ſhot with good and ſufficient corke, or orchal after a due, ſubſtancial, and ſufficient maner of workmanſhip, according to the ancient workmanſhip in time paſt vſed, vpon paine for euery default to forfeit xx.s.

Dying of wooll

Nor that any perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt Dye any wooll to bee conuerted into cloth, called ruſſets, muſters, marbles, graies, royes, and ſuch like colours, or to be conuerted, and made into Hats or Caps, vnleſſe the ſame wooll be perfectly woaded, boiled, and maddered according to the true and ancient vſage, vpon the paine of forfeiture for the falſe dying of euery ſuch cloth, or of as much wooll as ſhall ſerue for the making of euery cloth contrary to the true meaning hereof, xl.s. Nor ſhall dye with brazell to the intent to make a falſe colour in cloth or wool hats nor caps, vpon paine for euery default to forfeit xx.s.

No deceiueable thing ſhalbe put vpon cloth.

And that no perſon or perſons, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt put any flocks chalke, flower, or ſterch or any other deceiueable thing, vpon any ſet cloth, or vpon any other cloth, or clothes coloured, or vncoloured, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch offence, xl.s.

No yron cards or pickards.

And that no perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt, occupy any yron cards, or pickards in rowing of any ſet cloth, or any manner of woollen cloth, vpon paine to forfeit as well the ſaid yron cards, or pickards, as alſo the ſumme of xx.s. for euery ſuch offence.

Meaſure of cloth. 6.H.8.9.

Nor that any perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt ſell any cloth by any leſſe meaſure than after the true content thereof, to bee meten and meaſured by the yard, adding to euery yard one inch of the rule, according to the ſtatute made in the ſixth yeere of the Reigne of the moſt worthy Prince of moſt famous memory King Henry the eighth, father vnto our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, vpon paine to forfeit for euery yard of cloth ſo put to ſale, by any other leſſe meaſure, ſix ſhillings eight pence. And that no perſon ſhall from the ſaid feaſt, put to ſale here within the Realme, either by retaile or otherwiſe, any cloth being preſſed to be occupied, and worne here withn the Realme of England, Wales, or Ireland, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſame cloth, or the value thereof that haue beene ſo preſſed, and put to ſale as is laſt before remembred.

Preſſed cloth.

Ouerſeers appointed by Iuſtices of Peace, or chiefe gouernors of corporat townes.

And for the better execution of this ſtatute: Bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that in euery Towne, Village, or Hamlet, being not corporate, where any cloth ſhall bee made or ſold, the Iuſtices of Peace of the ſame Shire where any ſuch Towne, Village, or Hamlet is, or two of them at the leaſt: and in euery City, Borough, or Towne corporate, the head officer, or officers of euery of the ſame City, Borough, or Towne corporate, together with the wardens of the Clothworkers, or two of them at the leaſt, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, once euery yeere to conuent, and call before them by their precept, or otherwiſe, two, foure, ſix, eight, or more, as they ſhall thinke good by their diſcretion, of the moſt honeſt, diſcreet, and indifferent men of euery ſuch City, Borough, Towne, Village, or Hamlet, where any cloth ſhalbe made or ſold, and them ſhall conſtitute, ordaine, and appoint to bee ouerſeers for one whole yeare then next following within the City Borough, Towne, Village, or Hamlet, where the ſame ouerſeers ſhalbe dwelling, charging them alſo vpon their oathes, and as they doe tender the honour of the Realme, and the common wealth of the ſame, that they doe endeuour themſelues for that yeere, as much as in them ſhall lye, to ſee that this ſtatute be truly obſerued, and kept within the limits of their charge, in euery part thereof.

The Ouerſeers duty.

And that the ſame ouerſeers, or two of them, ſhall euery quarter of the ſaid yeere at the leaſt, or ſo often as need ſhall require, by their diſcretions, by force hereof, viſite, and goe into euery Clothiers, Drapers, Clothworkers, Dyers, and Preſſors houſes, ſhops, and other places, where cloth or dyed wooll ſhall bee, and there to make due ſearch, and to view the clothes, and wools, made, or dyed, or remaining to be ſold and to ſearch and try, as well whether the ſaid clothes bee drawne, or ſtreined, or falſly dyed, as alſo of all other the defaults before ſpecified, committed or done contrary to the true meaning of this Act. And if vpon the ſearch the clothes found drawne or ſtreined, or the cloth; or wools falſly dyed, or coloured, or any other of the ſaid faults committed or done contrary to the true meaning of this ſtatute: that then the ſaid ſeuerall forfeitures to incurre vpon the party or parties, which ſhall offend in the ſame; or in any of them: the one halfe of all which forfeitures to be vnto the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to ſuch of the ſaid ouerſéers, as doth find the ſaid defaults or cauſes of forfeitures, and that will ſue for the ſame in any ot the Kings Courts of Record, or before the Iuſtices of peace, within any ſuch city, borough or towne corporat, or before the Iuſtices of peace, within any ſhire where any ſuch forfeitures ſhall bee had out of any city or towne corporate: the ſame ſuit to bee purſued by bill, plaint, action of debt, information or otherwiſe, and in which ſuit no wager of law eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed for the defendant.

The forfeitures for defaults in cloth, and who ſhal haue them.

And if the ſaid ouerſéers ſhall bee negligent, and will not ſue for the ſame forfeitures, by the ſpace of one halfe yéere next after the cauſe of the ſame forfeitures cõmitted, and done, that then the one halfe of the ſame forfeiture to bee vnto our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to him which will ſue for the ſame, as is aforeſaid, within one other halfe yéere next after ſuch default be had by the ſaid ouerſéers.

And if any of the ſaid perſons ſo commanded to appeare to be made ouerſeers, as is aforeſaid, and hauing no reaſonable excuſe, doe refuſe to come, and to take vpon him or them to be an ouerſéer, as is aforeſaid, that then euery ſuch perſon refuſing, and hauing no reaſonable excuſe ſo to do, to forfeit for euery ſuch refuſing forty ſhillings, the one halfe thereof to bee to the King our ſaid Soueraigne, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to the Iuſtices of peace, or other head officer or officers, by whoſe commandement hee was commanded to appeare, or to be an ouerſéer, and the ſame ouerſéer ſo offending, to remaine in the ward of the Sheriffe, vntill ſuch time as hee haue made payment of the ſaid forfeiture, or otherwiſe put in ſufficient bond for the ſatiſfaction of the ſame. And if the ſame ouerſéers, or two of them at the leaſt, doe not once euery quarter of the yéere, make due ſearch for the true executing of this Statute: that then euery of the ſaid ouerſéers, to forfeit for euery ſuch default, ten pound, the one halfe to bee to the Kings Highneſſe, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, action of debt, information, or otherwiſe. In which ſuit no eſſoine, or protection ſhall bee allowed for the defendant. And if the ſaid ouerſéers ſhall bee interrupted, and not ſuffered to enter into the ſaid houſes, ſhops, or other places, where any ſuch clothes or wools ſhall be made, or died, or any other of the ſaid defaults ſhall happen to be done or committed, there to make ſearch for the better executing of this Statute, that then euery one that ſo ſhall make any ſuch interruption, ſhall forfeit twenty pound, the one halfe of which forfeiture, to be to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe thereof to be to the ſaid ouerſéers, to whom any ſuch interruption ſhall be made, and the ſame to be obtained, and purſued for, in ſuch manner and forme as before in this Act is expreſſed for the recouery of other of the ſaid forfeitures.

The forf. of him which refuſeth to be ouerſeer.

The forfeiture for the interruption of the ouerſeers.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall and may be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, to put to ſale any cloth or clothes, made, dyed, or preſſed, which before the ſaid feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady ſhall be made, dyed, or preſſed at any time within one yéere, next after the ſaid feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady, ſo as the Alneger, or his deputy, or other head officer in any ſuch City, Borough, Towne, Village, or Hamlet, doe put ſome notorious marke to euery ſuch cloth, whereby the ſame may be knowne to be made before the ſaid feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady next comming.

Prouided alſo, that no manner of perſon, ſhal take any aduantage of any of the ſaid forfeitures by reaſon of this ſtatute, vnleſſe the ſame perſon doth commence his ſuit, within one yéere next after the ſaid offences and forfeitures committed.

Within what time the forf. ſhalbe taken.

And to the intent, that all ſuch clothes as ſhall be made within this Realme, or any other of the Kings dominions after the ſaid feaſt ſhall be the better knowne from the other clothes made before the ſame time. Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid that euery clothier ſhal before ſuch time, as he ſhall put his cloth to ſale, being made after the ſaid feaſt, cauſe euery cloth to be marked wᵗ a letter of E. crowned, wrought in the cloth, vpon pain of forfeiture for euery cloth ſo being ſold, and not marked with the ſaid letter E. by any ſuch clothier, twenty ſhillings, the one halfe of which forfeiture to bee to onr Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame, in manner and forme before rehearſed.

Clothes ſhalbe marked with the letter E. crowned.

Cap. III.

Euery perſon bringing an Aſſiſe vpon any branch of either of the ſtatutes touching approuement of waſts, &c. ſhall haue treble dammages.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Merton in the twentieth yéere of the reigne of King Henry the third, it is contained, that for becauſe many great men of England which had enfeoffed

By the ſtat.of 20.H.3.4 Lords of manors may approue againſt their tenants.

enfeoffed Knights, and other their free Tenants of ſmall tenements in their great Manors, did complain that they might not make their profits of the reſidue of their manors, as of waſt, woods, and paſtures, where the ſame feoffees had ſufficient paſture, as much as belonged vnto their tenements, it was prouided and granted, that whatſoeuer perſons ſo enfeoffed, brought aſſiſe of nouel diſſeiſin of their common of paſture, and before the Iuſtices it were recogniſed, that they had as much paſture as did ſuffiſe vnto their tenements, and that they had free ingreſſe, and egreſſe into, and from their tenements vnto their paſture, that then they ſhould therewith be contented, and that they vpon whom they had complained, ſhould depart quiet with that, that they might make their profit of their lands waſts, woods, and paſtures. And if it were ſaid that they had not ſufficient paſture, or ſufficient ingreſſe, and egreſſe, aſmuch as doth belong vnto their tenements, as is aboueſaid, that then the truth therof ſhould be enquired by aſſiſe: and if it were recogniſed by the Aſſiſe, that their ingreſſe, & egreſſe were in any thing letted by the ſame deforciators, or that they had not ſufficient paſture and ſufficient ingreſſe and egreſſe, as is aboueſaid, that then they ſhould recouer their ſeiſon by view of the Iurors, ſo that by the diſcretion, and oath of them, the complainants ſhould haue ſufficient paſture, and ſufficent ingreſſe, and egreſſe, in form aforeſaid, and that the diſſeiſors ſhould be in amerciament of the King, and ſhould yeeld damages, as they were wont to doe before the ſame prouiſion. And if it were recogniſed by the aſſiſe, that the complainants had ſufficient paſture with free ingreſſe, and egreſſe, as is aboue mentioned, that then the other might lawfully doe their profit of the reſidue, and ſhould goe quite from the ſame aſſiſe, as in the ſaid eſtatute more plainly appeareth.

By the ſtat.of 13.Ed.1.46. Lords of manors may approue againſt their neighbors.

And where alſo in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, after Eaſter, the thirteenth yeere the raigne of King Edward the firſt, it was ordained, that where in the ſtatute made at Merton, it was agreed that Lords of waſts, woods, and paſtures might approue themſelues of their waſts woods, and paſtures, notwithſtanding the gainſaying & contradiction of their tenants, whiles the ſame tenants had ſufficient paſture to their tenements, with free ingreſſe, and egreſſe into, and from the ſame. And for that no mention was made betweene neighbour and neighbour, many Lords of waſts, woods, and paſtures, vnto that time were let by contradiction, or gaineſaying of neighbors, hauing ſufficient paſture. And foraſmuch as forrain tenants haue no greater right of commoning in the wood, waſt, or paſture of any Lord, than the proper tenants of the ſame Lord, it was from thenceforth ordained, that the ſaid ſtatute prouided at Merton, betwéen the Lord and his tenants, ſhould haue place from thenceforth betwéen the Lords of waſts, woods, and paſtures and neighbours: ſauing ſufficient paſture to their men and neighbours, ſo that the Lords of the ſame waſt, waſts, woods, and paſtures may approue themſelues of the reſidue, and that the ſame ſhould be obſerued of them that claim paſture, as pertaining to their tenements. But if any man claime common of paſture by ſpeciall feoffement or graunt, to a certaine number of beaſts or otherwiſe, then of common right he ought to haue it: where couenant doth abrogate the law, he ſhal haue ſuch recouery as he ought to haue by form of the grant to him made. And that by occaſion of a Windmill, Sheephouſe, Dairy, augmentation, or increaſe of any Court neceſſary, or curtilage from thenceforth no man ſhould be grieued by aſſiſe of nouel diſſeiſon, of common paſture. And for as much as it happeneth ſometime that ſome men hauing right to approue to himſelfe, hath made or leuied a ditch or a hedge, and other by night, or ſuch other time, when they beleeue their deed ſhould not be knowne, doe, or wil caſt down the ſame dith or hedge, and that it cannot be knowen by verdict of Aſſiſe, or Iury, who did caſt downe the ſame ditch or hedge, nor the men of the next Towne will indict them that be guilty of the ſame deeds, then the next towneſhip adioyning about the ſame ſhall be diſtreined, to leuy, and make vp the ſame ditch, or hedge, at their proper coſts, and to yeeld dammages, as in the ſaid eſtatute amongſt other things more plainely appeareth.

For what cauſes any may approue common.

A ditch or hedge of ground approued caſt downe by perſons vnknowne.

A confirmation of the foreſaid Stat of Merton and Weſt. 2

And foraſmuch as the aforeſaid eſtatutes beene thought beneficiall for the Common wealth of this Realme of England. Be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all and euery the ſaid ſtatutes, and all branches, clauſes, articles, ſentences, matters, and points contained, and ſpecified in them, and euery of them now not repealed, ſhall from henceforth be good and effectuall, and alſo ſtand and bee in their full ſtrength, force and effect.

Treble damages vpon an aſſ. of common of paſture, &c.

And becauſe that ſuch perſons as ſhall bring Aſſiſe of Nouel diſſeiſon vpon the ſaid Eſtatutes or vpon any of them, ſhall by force of the Eſtatute, recouer but onely ſingle dammages, which is thought to be a ſmall recompence for the ſame. Therfore be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhall at any time hereafter bring aſſiſe vpon any branch or article of the ſaid eſtatutes, or any of them, and haue iudgement to recouer, ſhall haue his or their dammages trebled by the iudgement of the Court, where ſuch aſſiſe, and iudgement ſhalbe had.

Houſes builded vpon waſts with 3. acres of ground.

And where in diuers Countries of this Realme, there hath beene builded vpon Commons, or waſt grounds, certaine neceſſary houſes with ground, vnder the quantity of three acres, and not aboue three acres, encloſed to and with the ſame: and in ſome place there is encloſed a Garden, den, Orchard, or Pond, out, of, or in ſuch waſts, or grounds, which exceed not the quantity of two acres, or thereabouts, which doth no hurt, and yet is much commodity to the owner therof, and to others: bee it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid two former Acts, nor any of them, nor any thing in them contained, ſhall extend to any ſuch houſe, ground, or other thing ſo encloſed, as is laſt herein before mentioned, ne ſhall cauſe any perſon or perſons to loſe or forfeit any paine, dammage, or penalty for the ſame.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that if any ſuch houſe hath béene heretofore builded vpon any ſuch waſt ground, as is aforeſaid, and that there be aboue the number of thrée acres encloſed to the ſame, that then the ſaid houſe, and thrée acres parcell of the ſame encloſure, ſhall ſtill remaine, ſtand, abide, and continue in like, and the ſame forme and degrée, as it now doth, and that the ouerplus of the ſaid thrée acres ſo encloſed, as is aforeſaid, ſhall and may bee laid open by the owner or owners of the ſame waſtes: any thing in this Act, or in any of the ſaid former Acts, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The ouerplus aboue 3 acres ſhalbe laid open.

Cap. IIII.

Grants made by Patentees out of Patents ſhall be good.

Where the right noble, and famous King of full worthy memory King Henry the eighth, father to our moſt dread, and now naturall Soueraigne liege Lord, ſithence the fourth day of February, in the ſeuen and twentieth yéere of his late raigne, and alſo the Kings moſt excellent Maieſty, by their ſeuerall Letters Patents, haue giuen, granted, bargained, ſold, and exchanged, to, and with diuers and ſundry the ſubiects of this realme, bodies politike and corporate in fée ſimple, fée taile, for terme of life, or yéeres, diuers honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, and offices: After, and ſince which grants, bargaines, ſales, and exchanges, diuers of the ſaid patentées, their heires, ſucceſſors, or aſſignes haue bargained, ſold, giuen, exchanged, or demiſed diuers particular parts, parcels, or portions of the ſaid honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and offices, or other things thereunto appertaining, or belonging to other perſon or perſõs, bodies politike or corporat, that is to ſay, to ſome of them in fée ſimple, to ſome other in fée taile, for terme of life or yéers, or otherwiſe. And after the ſame patentées for conſiderations them mouing, haue ſurrendred or giuen vp their ſaid Letters patents into the Chancery, or otherwiſe the ſame letters patents haue béene forfeited by attainder, loſt, cancelled, imbeſilled, or by other wayes or meanes haue come to the hands of the Kings Maieſty his late father. And therupon oft-times the enrolment of the ſame hath béen made void and fruſtrate, ſometime in part, and ſometime in the whole, by reaſon whereof ſuch perſons, bodies politike or corporate, as haue had intereſt or title, in or to the ſame caſtles, manors, or particular portions, or parcels of the ſame ſo to them giuen and granted, haue béne in times paſt, and in time to come are like to be diſherited, or in danger of loſſe of their intereſt, in, or to the ſame, to their no little hinderance and perill.

For remedy whereof, be it ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all and euery perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporate, which lawfully ſhall or may claime by force of any patent, or patents made ſithence the fourth day of February, or hereafter to be made by the Kings Maieſty, his heires or ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme, or by any of them, and all other that now haue, or hereafter ſhall happen to haue any good or lawfull eſtate, right, title, rent, profit, intereſt, or poſſeſſion, of, in, to, or out of any honors, manors, lands tenements, hereditaments, or offices, or of other things, to any of the premiſſes appertaining or belonging, or to any part, parcel, or member of them, or any of them, by, from, or vnder any ſuch Patentée, or Patentées, or any of them, or by, from, or vnder the heires, ſucceſſors, or aſſignes of them or any of them, or by, from, or vnder the ſtate of any others, which had, haue, or hereafter ſhall haue the ſtate, title, or intereſt, of any ſuch patentée or patentées, or by any other meanes vnder the date of such letters patents, ſhal and may at all times hereafter, in any the Kings courts his heires or ſucceſſors, and elſewhere, by vertue of this preſent act, make and conuey vnto themſelues title by way of declaration, plaint, auowry, title, barre, or otherwiſe, as well againſt the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, and euery of them, as againſt any other perſon or perſons, vnto the ſaid honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, offices and other the premiſſes, or any part or parcel of the ſame, vnto them or any their predeceſſors, or anceſtors, or others, whoſe eſtate they haue in the ſame, by, from, or vnder the ſaid patentées, or any of them, or the heires, anceſtors, or aſſignes of any of them, or otherwiſe, vnder the date of the ſaid letters patẽts, compriſed and contained in any exemplification, or conſtat thereof made, or to be made by the ſhewing forth of the ſaid exemplification, or conſtat of the roll, or of ſo much thereof as ſhall ſerue for the matter in variance, vnder the great ſeale of England. And the ſame exemplification, or conſtat of the ſaid enrolment ſo (as is aforeſaid) pleaded, and ſhewed, ſhall bee of like, and the ſame force and effect, to all intents, and conſtructions in the law, as the ſaid firſt letters patents were and ſhould be of, if the ſame were or ſhould be pleaded or ſhewed. 13. Part of the Stat. containing taking of wilde fowle, with nets or other engines, repealed.

25.H.8.11.

Where in the fiue and twentieth yeere of the reigne of your Maieſties father, of moſt famous memory, King Henry the eighth, an Act was made containing two branches, whereof the one was againſt the taking of wilde fowle, betweene the laſt day of May, and the laſt day of Auguſt, with any nets or engines, vpon a paine limited thereupon, as in the ſaid ſtatute more largely doth appeare: For as much as the occaſion of the ſaid branches, appeareth ſithen to haue riſen but vpon a priuate caſe, and that no manner of common commodity is ſithen perceiued to be growne of the ſame, being notably, by daily experience found, and knowne that there is at this preſent, leſſe plenty of fowle, brought vnto the markets, than was before the making of the ſaid Act, which is taken to come of the puniſhment of God, whoſe benefit was thereby taken away from the poore people, that were wont to liue by their ſkill, in taking of the ſaid fowle, whereby they were wont at that time to ſuſtaine themſelues, with their poore houſholds, to the great ſauing of other kindes of victuall, of the which ayd they are now deſtitute, to their great and extreme impoueriſhing: Humbly beſeeching your Grace, your Maieſties true and faithfull ſubiects, eſpecially ſuch as haue their places of habitation nigh vnto the Fens, that all that branch of the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeere of your Graces ſaid father of moſt noble memory, touching the taking of wilde fowle, in manner as is aboueſaid, may bee from henceforth by your Maieſty, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, repealed and vtterly void and of none effect, with all and euery Article, ſentence, matter, paines, and forfeitures, contained or otherwiſe mentioned in the ſaid branch as if the ſame Act had neuer beene had, ne made.

A repeale of ſo much of the ſtat of 25.H.8.11. as toucheth the taking of wild fowle with engins at certaine times.

Prouided and be it enacted by the authority aboueſaid, ẏ one other branch, conteined in the ſaid Act, concerning ſuch perſons as ſhall preſume by day, or night willingly to withdraw, purloyne, take, deſtroy or conuey, any manner of egges of any kind of wild fowle, from or in any neſt, place or places, where they ſhall chance to be layed, by any kinde of wild fowle, with euery article, ſentence, matter, paines, forfeitures and prouiſions, contained, or mentioned in this ſaid laſt branch, ſhall ſtand in full ſtrength and effect, to all purpoſes, intents and conſtructions, as if this preſent Act had neuer beene had nor made.

No perſon ſhall deſtroy or take away the egges of any wilde fowle.

Cap. VIII.

The Statute of Sewers ſhall be continued.

The ſtat, of 23. H.8.5 touching the Commiſſion of Sewers made perpetuall.

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, by Prorogation the fifteenth day of January in the three and twentieth yeere of the moſt victorious raigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eighth, among other things, one generall Act, concerning Commiſſions of Sewers, to be directed into all parts, within this Realme, was enacted and made to continue and endure for twenty yeeres, then next following, as by the ſame Act more at large it doth and may appeare. And foraſmuch as the ſame Act is thought good and beneficiall for the common wealth of this Realme: Be it therefore enacted and ordeined by the King our ſoueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpiritual and temporal, & the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid Act, and all clauſes, articles & prouiſions in the ſame contained, ſhall continue and endure in their force and ſtrength, and to bee obſerued ſerued and kept for euer, in ſuch manner and forme as ſhall and may ſtand with the ſequele and additions, hereafter mentioned.

And be it further enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſaid, that all ſcots, lots, and ſummes of money hereafter to bee rated and taxed, by vertue of ſuch Commiſſion of Sewers, vpon any of the Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, of our Soueraigne Lord the King, his Heires or Succeſſors, for any manner of thing or things, concerning the Articles of the ſaid Commiſſion of Sewers, ſhall bee gathered and leuied by diſtreſſe, or otherwiſe, in like manner and forme, as ſhall or may be done in the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, of any other perſon or perſons: And that all Bills of Acquitance, ſigned with the hand or hands of ſuch Collector or Receiuor as ſhall haue the Collection thereof by the appointment of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or ſix of them, ſhall be as well a ſufficient diſcharge, to the Tenants, Fermors and occupiers of the ſame grounds, ſo to be charged for the ſaid ſumme, wherewith their grounds ſhall bee ſo charged, as alſo ſufficient warrant to all and euery the receiuors, Auditors, and other whatſoeuer Officer or Officers, of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, for the allowance to ſuch Tenant, Fermor, or occupier for the ſame: Adding moreouer vnto this Act, by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that ſuch and like fees, and none other nor more, ſhalbe at any time paid or demanded, for any Commiſſion or Commiſſions, or Writs of dedimus poteſtatem, hereafter to be ſued out, or obtained vnder the ſeale of the Duchy, but only ſuch and like fees as beene mentioned in the ſaid former Act, to be paid in the Chancery, for Commiſſions and Writs of dedimus poteſtatem, to bee obtained from the ſame Court of Chancery. Adding moreouer thereunto by the authority aboueſaid, that euery Commiſſion and Commiſſions, hereafter to bee awarded for Sewers, ſhall continue and endure for terme of fiue yeeres, next after the teſte of ſuch Commiſſion, vnleſſe the ſame Commiſſion and Commiſſions ſhall bee otherwiſe diſcharged, within the ſame by Superſedias, any thing or things mentioned, or contained in the ſaid former Act, contrary to the additions before mentioned, or any of them, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

All ſummes of money rated by force of the commiſſion of Sewers vpon any of the K. Land ſhalbe leuiable by diſtreſſe.

What fees ſhall be payed for the Commiſſion of Sewers ſued out vnder the Seale of the Duchy.

Cap. X.

Certaine bookes and Images ſhall be aboliſhed.

Where the Kings moſt excellent Maieſty hath of late ſet forth, and eſtabliſhed by authority of Parliament, an vniforme, quiet and godly order of common and open prayer, in a booke intitled, The booke of common praier, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments and other rites and ceremonies after the Church of England, to bee vſed, and obſerued in the ſaid Church of England, agreeable to the order of the Primatiue Church, much more comfortable vnto his louing Subiects, than other diuerſity of ſeruice, as heretofore of long time hath beene vſed, being in the ſaid booke ordained nothing to bee read but the very pure word of God, or which is euidently grounded vpon the ſame, and in the other, things corrupt, vntrue, vaine, and ſuperſtitious, and as it were a preparation to ſuperſtition: which for that they be not called in, but permitted to remaine vndefaced, doe not only giue occaſion to ſuch peruerſe perſons, as doe impugne the order and godly meaning of the Kings ſaid booke of common praier, to continue in their old accuſtomed ſuperſtitious ſeruice, but alſo miniſter great occaſion to diuerſity of opinions, rites, ceremonies, & ſeruices: be it therefore enacted by the King our ſoueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpiritual and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that all bookes called Antiphoners, Miſſales, Grailes, Proceſſionals, Manuels, Legends, Pies, Portuaſſes, Primers in Latine and Engliſh, Couchers, Iournals, Ordinals, or other bookes or writings, whatſoeuer heretofore vſed for ſeruice of the Church, written or printed in the Engliſh or Latine tongue, other than ſuch as ſhall be ſet forth by the Kings Maieſty, ſhalbe by authority of this preſent Act, cleerly and vtterly aboliſhed, extinguiſhed and forbidden for euer to be vſed or kept in this Realme, or elſewhere within any the Kings Dominions.

Popiſh bookes aboliſhed. St. 3. Iac. 5.

And be it further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, of what degree, eſtate, or condition ſoeuer hee, ſhee, or they be, bodies politike or corporate, that now haue or hereafter ſhall haue in his, her, or their cuſtody, any the bookes or writings of the ſorts aforeſaid, or any Images of ſtone, timber, alablaſter, or earth, grauen, carued, or painted, which heretofore haue bin taken out of any Church or Chappell, or yet ſtand in any Church or Chappel, and do not before the laſt day of Iune next enſuing, deface, and deſtroy, or cauſe to be defaced and deſtroyed the ſame images and euery of them, and deliuer or cauſe to bee deliuered all and euery the ſame bookes to the Mayor, Bailiffe, Conſtable or Churchwardens of the Towne, where ſuch bookes then Images taken out of, or yet remaining in Churches ſhall be deſtroyed.

Popiſh bookes ſhalbe firſt deliuered to the Mayor,&c. and then by him to the Biſhop, &c. to be burnt, or otherwiſe defaced.

then ſhall be, to be by them deliuered ouer openly within three moneths next following, after the ſaid deliuery, to the Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Chancellor, or Commiſſary of the ſame Dioces, to the intent the ſaid Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Chancellor, or Commiſſary, and euery of them, cauſe them immediatly after, either to be openly burnt, or otherwiſe defaced and deſtroyed, ſhall for euery ſuch booke or bookes willingly retained in his, her, or their hands, or cuſtody, within this Realme or elſewhere within any the Kings dominions, and not deliuered, as is aforeſaid, after the ſaid laſt day of Iune, and be therof lawfully conuict, forfeit and loſe to the King our ſoueraigne Lord for the firſt offence ten ſhillings, and for the ſecond offence ſhall forfeit and loſe (being thereof lawfully conuict) foure pounds: And for the third offence ſhall ſuffer impriſonment at the Kings will.

The penalty of Mayor,&c. or Biſhop,&c. omitting their duty herein.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any Maiors, Bailiffes, Conſtables, or Churchwardens doe not within three moneths after receit of the ſame bookes, deliuer or cauſe to be deliuered, ſuch bookes ſo by them receiued, to the Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Chancellor, or Commiſſary of their Dioces, and if the ſaid Archbiſhop, Biſhops, Chancellor, or Commiſſaries, doe not within forty dayes after the receipt of ſuch bookes, burne, deface, and deſtroy, or cauſe to bee burned, defaced, or deſtroyed the ſame bookes, and euery of them: that then they and euery of them ſo offending, ſhall loſe and forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the King, being thereof lawfully conuict, forty pounds: The one halfe of all which forfeitures ſhall be to any of the Kings Subiects that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, Action of debt, or Information, in which Action no Eſſoyne, Protection, wager of law, or other delay ſhall be allowed.

Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, & peace ſhall heare & determine theſe offences.

And for better execution of the ſame Act, bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that as well Iuſtices of Aſſiſe in their circuits, as Iuſtices of Peace within the limits of their Commiſſion in the generall Seſſions, ſhall haue full power and authority to enquire of the offences aforeſaid, and to heare and determine the ſame, in ſuch forme as they may doe in other ſuch like like caſes.

Images vpon tombes ſhal ſtill remaine.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Image, or picture, ſet or grauen vpon any tombe in any Church, Chappell, or Churchyard, onely for a monument of any King, Prince, Nobleman, or other dead perſon, which hath not beene commonly reputed and taken for a Saint, but that all ſuch Pictures and Images may ſtand and continue in like manner and forme, as if this Act had neuer beene had nor made, any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Primers ſet out by H. 8. being purged, may be ſtill retained.

Prouided alſo, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that any perſon or perſons may vſe, keepe, haue, and retaine, any Primers in the Engliſh, or Latine tongue, ſet forth by the late King of famous memory, King Henry the eighth, ſo that the ſentences of inuocation, or prayer to Saints in the ſame Primers, bee blotted, or cleerely put out of the ſame, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. No Cattle ſhall be bought but in open Faire or market, but by a Butcher, or for prouiſion of houſhold, &c.

BE it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, That no perſon or perſons, at any time from and after the feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady next comming, ſhall buy, or common and conclude to buy, any manner of Oxen, Steeres, Ronts, Kine, Heifers, or Calues, but only in the open faire or market, where the ſame ſhall happen to be brought and put to ſale, and ſhall not ſell the ſame againe on liue, at, and in the Market or Faire, where hee bought the ſame during the time of the ſaid Faire or Market, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double value of ſuch cattell bought or ſold contrary to the tenor of this preſent Act.

No Cattell ſhal be bought but in open faire or market, and thoſe not ſold againe in the ſame faire or market.

Prouided alway, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull for all and euery perſon and perſons, to buy any Oxen, Steeres, Ronts, Kine, Heighfers, and Calues, or any of them, out of any open Faire or Market, for his or their prouiſion, for their houſhold, teeme or dairy, at his or their will or pleaſure, to be imployed and ſpent only in keeping and maintenance of his or their houſe, or for their teeme or dairy, and not otherwiſe.

For what purpoſes cattell may be bought out of a faire or market. EXP.

And be it further enacted by the authority aboueſaid, that no perſon, being a Butcher, and vſing the craft or myſtery of Butchery, ſhall at any time after the ſaid Feaſt buy any fat Oxen, Steeres, Ronts, Kine, Heighfers, Calues, or Sheepe, and ſell, or cauſe to be ſold the ſame againe on liue, vpon paine of forfeiture of euery ſuch Oxe, Steere, Ront, Cowe, Heighfer, Calues, or Sheeps, bargained or ſold contrary to the forme of this preſent Act.

A Butcher ſhall not buy cattell and ſell them aliue.

Prouided alway, that all and euery perſon and perſons, being a Butcher, and vſing the art and myſtery of Butchery, ſhall and may at his, and their will & pleaſure buy any fat Oxen, Steeres, Ronts, Kine, Heighfers, Calues and ſheepe, or any of them, out of any open Faire or market: So that ſuch Butcher ſell not, nor cauſe to be ſold the ſame againe on liue, as is aforeſaid, any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. The one moity of all which forfeitures ſhall be to our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors: and the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, wherein no wager of Law, eſſoigne, or protection ſhall be allowed for the defendant or defendants. This Act to endure to the end of the next Parliament. 1. Iac. 25. continued vntill the end of the next Parliament. Stat. 3. Car. 4.

Cap. XX.

Some part of the Stat. 2. E. 6. 15. repealed, conteining the deniall of certaine Artificers to worke in Cities or Townes where they dwell not.

WHere by a certaine Act made in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation the fourth day of Nouember, in the ſecond yeere of the raigne of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, it is enacted and eſtabliſhed, that no perſon or perſons ſhould at any time after the firſt day of Aprill then next enſuing, interrupt, deny, let or diſturbe any free Maſon, rough Maſon, Carpenter, Brickelayer, Plaiſterer, Ioyner, Hardhewer, Sawier,

2.& 3. Ed.6.15.

Tiler, Pauier, Glaſier, Limeburner, Brickmaker, Tilemaker, Plummer, or Labourer borne in this Realme, or made Deniſen, to worke in any of the ſaid crafts, in any City, Borough, or Towne Corporate, with any perſon and perſons, that will retaine him, or them, albeit the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo retained, or any of them doe not inhabit or dwell in the City, Borough and Towne corporat, where he or they ſhall worke, nor be free of the ſame City, Borough or towne, any Statute, Law, Ordinance, or other thing whatſoeuer before had, or made to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding, and that vpon paine of forfeiture of fiue pounds for euery interruption, or diſturbance done contrary to the ſaid eſtatute, the one moity of euery ſuch forfeiture to be to the King, and the other moity thereof to be to him, or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of record, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, nor protection ſhould be allowed, as by the ſaid Act of Parliament amongſt other things more plainly appeareth.

And foraſmuch as in the City of London being the Kings Chamber and moſt ancient City of this Realme, the Artificers and Craftſmen of the Arts, Crafts and myſteries aforeſaid, are at great coſts and charges, as well in bearing, and paying of taxes, tallages, ſubſidies, ſcot, lot, and other charges, as well to the Kings Maieſty, as to the ſaid City, and at many and ſundry triumphes and other times for the Kings honour, and that if forreines ſhould come and worke among them, within the liberties of the ſaid City, contrary to their ancient priuileges, that the ſame ſhould be a great decay of cunning, and an impoueriſhment, and driuing away of the free men, being Artificers of the crafts, and arts, and myſteries aforeſaid, within the ſaid City of London, to the great hurt, or deſtruction of the ſaid City.

So much of the Statute of 2. & 3. Ed. 6. 15. repealed as concerneth the deniall of Artificers to worke in a Towne where they dwell not.

For reformation whereof, the Kings Maieſties is pleaſed and contented, that it be enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That the ſaid Act only touching the article, and clauſe aforeſaid, and all, and euery ſentence, and branch conteined in the ſaid Act, concerning the ſame article, ſhall from henceforth be reſumed, repealed, adnulled, reuoked, admihilated, and vtterly made void for euer. Any thing conteined in the ſaid former Act touching that clauſe, or article aforeſaid, in any wiſe to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Cap. XXI.

Butter or Cheeſe ſhall not be bought to be ſold againe, except it be by retaile in open ſhop, faire, or market.

Butter or Cheeſe ſhal not be bought to be ſold againe but in open Shop, Faire or Market.

Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that no perſon or perſons, after the feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady next comming, ſhall buy to ſell againe any Butter, or Cheeſe, vnleſſe he or they ſell the ſame againe by retaile, in open Shop, Faire or Market, and not in groſſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of the double value of the ſame Butter and Cheeſe ſo ſold, contrary to the tenour of this preſent Act: the one moity of all which forfeiture to be to our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to him, or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed for the defendant or defendants.

Retailing. 21. Iac. 22.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that the ſaid word of retaile mentioned in this act, ſhall be expounded, declared, and taken, only where a weight of Cheeſe, or a barell of Butter or of leſſe quantity and not aboue, ſhall be ſold at any time to any perſon or perſons in open ſhop, faire, or market, and that to be done without fraud or couine.

Inholders and Victualers.

Prouided alway, that this Act, or any thing therein conteined ſhall not extend to any Inholder, or Victualer, for ſuch Butter or Cheeſe, as ſhall be ſpent, or vttered by retaile, in any of their houſes, any thing conteined in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding: this Act to endure to the next Parliament. 3. Car. 4. Continued vntill the ende of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

Cap. XXII.

ANNO QVINTO ET SEXTO EDWARDI SEXTI.

ACTS made in the Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter the three and twentieth day of Ianuary, in the fifth yeare of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord, EDWARD the ſixth, by the grace of God, King of England, France, & Ireland, Defendor of the faith, and of the Church of England, and of Ireland, in earth the ſupreme head: and there continued and kept till the fifteenth day of Aprill, in the ſixth yeere of the reigne of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, as followeth.

Cap. I.

Vniformity of Prayer, and adminiſtration of Sacraments ſhall be vſed in the Church.

WHere there hath beene a very godly order ſet forth by the authority of Parliament, for Common praier, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments to be vſed in the mother tongue, within this Church of England, agreeable to the Word of God, and the Primitiue Church, very comfortable to all good people deſiring to liue in Chriſtian conuerſation, and moſt profitable to the eſtate of this Realme, vpon the which, the mercy, fauour, and bleſſing of Almighty God is in no wiſe ſo readily, and plenteouſly powred, as by Common prayers, due vſing of the Sacraments, and often preaching of the Goſpell, with the deuotion of the hearers: and yet this notwithſtanding, a great number of people in diuers parts of this Realme, following their owne ſenſuality, and liuing either without knowledge, or due feare of God, dos wilfully and damnably before Almighty God abſtaine, and refuſe to come to their Paroche Churches, and other places where Common prayer, adminiſtration of the Sacraments and preaching of the Word of God is vſed vpon the Sundayes and other dayes ordeined to be holy dayes.

For reformation hereof, be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from and after the Feaſt of all Saints next comming, all, and euery perſon and perſons, inhabiting within this Realme, or any other the Kings Maieſties Dominions, ſhall diligently and faithfully (hauing no lawfull or reaſonable excuſe to be abſent) endeauour themſelues to reſort to their Paroche Church, or Chappell accuſtomed, or vpon reaſonable let thereof, to ſome vſuall place where common prayer, and ſuch ſeruice of God ſhall be vſed in ſuch time of let, vpon euery Sunday, and other dayes ordeined, and vſed to be kept as holy dayes, and then and there to abide orderly, and ſoberly, during the time of the common prayer, preachings, or other ſeruice of God, there to be vſed and miniſtred, vpon paine of puniſhment by the cenſures of the Church.

Euery perſon ſhall reſort to his Pariſh Church or Chappell, vpon Sundayes and holydayes.

And for the due execution hereof, the Kings moſt excellent Maieſty, the Lords Temporall, and all the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, doth in Gods name earneſtly require, and charge all the Archbiſhops, Biſhops and other Ordinaries, that they ſhall endeauour themſelues, to the vttermoſt of their knowledges, that the due and true execution hereof may be had throughout their Dioceſſes, and charges, as they will anſwer before God, for ſuch euils and plagues, wherewith Almighty God may iuſtly puniſh his people, for neglecting this good and wholeſome law.

And for their authority in this behalfe, be it further likewiſe enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular, the ſame Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and all other their officers exerciſing Eccleſiaſticall Iuriſdiction, as well in place exempt, as not exempt, within their Dioceſſes, ſhall haue full power and authority by this Act, to reforme, correct and puniſh by Cenſures of the Church, all and ſingular perſons, which ſhall offend within any their Iuriſdictions, or Dioceſſes after the ſaid Feaſt of all Saints next comming, againſt this Act and Statute: any other Law, Statute, Priuilege, Libertie, or prouiſion, heretofore made, had, or ſuffered to the contrary notwithſtanding.

They which come not to the Church may be puniſhed by the Cenſures of the Church.

And becauſe there hath riſen in the vſe and exerciſe of the aforeſaid common ſeruice in the Church, heretofore ſet forth, diuers doubts for the faſhion and manner of the miniſtration of the ſame, rather by the curioſity of the miniſter, and miſtakers, than of any other worthy cauſe, therefore aſwell for the more plaine and manifeſt explanation hereof, as for the more perfection of the ſaid order of common ſeruice, in ſome places where it is neceſſary to make the ſame praier and faſhion of ſeruice more earneſt and fit to ſtir Chriſtian people to the true honouring of Almighty God: The Kings moſt excellent Maieſty, with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, hath cauſed the aforeſaid order of common ſeruice, entituled the booke of Common Prayer, to be faithfully and godly peruſed explaned, and made fully perfect, and by the aforeſaid authority hath annexed and ioyned it ſo explaned and perfected to this preſent ſtatute, adding alſo a forme and manner of making and conſecrating of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſts, and Deacons, to be of like force, authority and value, as the ſame like foreſaid Booke, entituled the Booke of Common Prayer, was before, and to be accepted, receiued, vſed, and eſteemed, in like ſort and manner, and with the ſame clauſes of prouiſions and exceptions, to all entents, conſtructions and purpoſes as by the act of Parliament made in the ſecond yeere of the Kings Maieſties reigne, was ordeined, limited, expreſſed and appointed for the vniformitie of Seruice, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments throughout the Realme, vpon ſuch ſeuerall paines, as in the ſaid Act of Parliament is expreſſed. And the ſaid former Act, to ſtand in full force and ſtrength to all entents and conſtructions, and to be applied, practiſed, and put in vre, to and for the eſtabliſhing of the booke of Common Prayer, now explaned, and hereunto annexed, and alſo the ſaid forme of making of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons, hereunto annexed, as it was for the former booke.

The Booke of Common prayer with the forme of conſecrating Biſhops, Prieſts, Deacons. 1.Ed.6.2.

2.& 3.Ed.6.1.

And by the authority aforeſaid it is now further enacted, That if any manner perſon or perſons, exhabiting and being within this Realme, or any other the Kings Maieſties Dominions, ſhall after the ſaid Feaſt of all Saints, willingly, and wittingly heare, and be preſent at any other manner or forme of Common prayer, or adminiſtration of the Sacraments, of making of Miniſters in the Churches, or of any other rites, conteined in the booke annexed to this Act, than is mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid booke, or that is contrary to the forme of ſundry prouiſions and exceptions, conteined in the foreſaid former Statute, and ſhall be thereof conuicted, according to the Lawes of this Realme, before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, Iuſtices of Oyer and determiner, Iuſtices of Peace in their Seſſions, or any of them, by the verdict of twelue men, or by his, or their owne confeſſion or otherwiſe, ſhall for the firſt offence ſuffer impriſonment, for ſix moneths, without baile or mainepriſe, and for the ſecond offence, being likewiſe conuicted, as is aboueſaid, empriſonment for one whole yeere, and for the third offence, in like manner empriſonment, during his or their liues. And for the more knowledge to be giuen hereof, and better obſeruation of this law: be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all, and ſingular Curates, ſhall vpon one Sunday euery quarter of the yeere during one whole yeere, next following the foreſaid feaſt of all Saints next comming, read this preſent Act in the Church, at the time of the moſt aſſembly, and likewiſe once in euery yeere following, at the ſame time, declaring vnto the people, by the authority of the Scripture, how the mercy and goodneſſe of God hath in all ages beene ſhewed to his people, in their neceſſities, and extremities, by meanes of hearty and faithfull prayers made to Almighty God, eſpecially where people be gathered together with one faith and minde, to offer vp their hearts by prayer, as the beſt Sacrifices that Chriſtian men can yeeld.

Cap. III.

Which dayes only in the yeere ſhall be Holydayes, and which ſhall be Faſting dayes.

FOraſmuch as at all times men be not ſo mindefull to laud and praiſe God, ſo ready to reſort and heare Gods holy Word, and to come to the holy Communion, and other laudable rites, which are to be obſerued in euery Chriſtian Congregation, as their bounden duty doth require: therefore to call men to remembrance of their duty, and to helpe their infirmity, it hath beene wholeſomely prouided, that there ſhould be ſome certaine times and dayes appointed, wherein the Chriſtians ſhould ceaſe from all other kinde of labours, and ſhould apply themſelues only and wholly vnto the aforeſaid holy workes, properly pertaining vnto true Religion. That is, to heare, to learne, and to remember Almighty Gods great benefits, his manifold mercies, his ineſtimable gracious goodneſſe, ſo plenteouſly powred vpon all his creatures, and that of his infinite and vnſpeakable goodneſſe, without any mans deſert. And in remembrance hereof, to render vnto him moſt high and hearty thankes, with prayers and ſupplications for the reliefe of all our daily neceſſities. And becauſe theſe be the chiefe and principall workes, wherein man is commanded to worſhip God, and doe properly pertaine vnto the firſt Table: therefore as theſe workes are both moſt commonly, and alſo may well be called Gods ſeruice, ſo the times appointed ſpecially for the ſame are called Holy dayes. Not for the matter and nature, either of the time or day, nor for any of the Saints ſake, whoſe memories are had on thoſe dayes (for ſo all dayes and times conſidered are Gods creatures, and all of like holineſſe) but for the nature and condition of thoſe godly and holy workes, wherewith only God is to be honoured, and the congregation to be edified, whereunto ſuch times and dayes, are ſanctified and hallowed. That is to ſay, ſeparated from all prophane vſes, and dedicated and appointed, not vnto any Saint or creature, but only vnto God, and his true worſhip. Neither is it to be thought, that there is any certaine time or definite number of dayes, preſcribed in holy Scripture, but that the appointment, both of the time, and alſo of the number of the dayes, is left by the authority of Gods Word, to the liberty of Chriſts Church to be determined and aſſigned orderly in euery Countrey, by the diſcretion of the Rulers and Miniſters thereof, as they ſhall iudge moſt expedient to the true ſetting forth of Gods glory, and the edification of their people. Be it therefore enacted, by the King our Soueraigne Lord with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all the dayes hereafter mentioned, ſhall be kept, and commanded to be kept holy dayes, and none other. That is to ſay, all Sundayes in the yeere: the dayes of the feaſts of the Circumciſion of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt. Of the Epiphanie. Of the Purification of the bleſſed Virgin. Of Saint Mathie the Apoſtle. Of the Annunciation of the bleſſed Virgin. Of Saint Marke the Euangeliſt. Of Saint Philip and Iacob the Apoſtles. Of the Aſcenſion of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt. Of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt. Of Saint Peter the Apoſtle. Of Saint Iames the Apoſtle. Of Saint Bartholomewe the Apoſtle; Of Saint Mathew the Apoſtle. Of Saint Michael the Archangel. Of Saint Luke the Euangeliſt. Of Saint Simon and Iude the Apoſtles. Of All Saints. Of Saint Andrew the Apoſtle. Of Saint Thomas the Apoſtle. Of the Natiuity of our Lord. Of Saint Stephen the Martyr. Of Saint Iohn the Euangeliſt. Of the holy Innocents. Munday and Tuſeday in Eaſterweeke. And Munday and Tueſday in Whitſon weeke. And that none other day ſhall be kept and commanded to be kept holy day, or to abſtaine from lawfull bodily labour.

Wherefore ſome dayes are more called holy dayes then other.

All theſe dayes ſhall be kept holy dayes and none other.

And it is alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That euery euen or day next going before any of the aforeſaid dayes of the Feaſts of the Natiuity of our Lord, of Eaſter, of the Aſcenſion of our Lord, Pentecoſt, of the Purification, and the Annunciation of the aforeſaid bleſſed Virgin, of All Saints, and of all the ſaid Feaſts of the Apoſtles, (other than of Saint Iohn the Euangeliſt, and Phillip and Iacob) ſhall be faſted, and commanded to be kept, and obſerued, and that none other euen, or day ſhall be commanded to be faſted.

Which dayes ſhall be commanded and kept faſting dayes.

And it is enacted by the authority aboueſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to all Archbiſhops, and Biſhops in their Dioceſſes, and to all other hauing Eccleſiaſticall or Spirituall Iuriſdiction, to enquire of euery perſon that ſhall offend in the premiſſes, and to puniſh euery ſuch Offendor, by the Cenſurers of the Church, and to enioyne him, or them ſuch penance, as ſhall be to the Spirituall Iudge, by his direction thought meet and conuenient.

Puniſhment of Offendors by the Eccleſiaſticall Law.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to abrogate or take away, the abſtinence from fleſh in Lent, or on Fridayes and Saturdayes, or any other day, which is already appointed ſo to be kept, by vertue of an Act, made and prouided in the third yeere of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maieſtie that now is, ſauing only of thoſe euens or dayes, whereof the holy day next following is abrogated by this Statute. Any thing aboue mentioned to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Abſtinence from fleſh in Lent, Fridayes and Saturdayes.
2 & 3, Ed. 6. 19.

Prouided alſo, and it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that when, and ſo often, as it ſhall chance any of the ſaid Feaſts, (the euens whereof be by this Statute commanded to be obſerued, and kept faſting day) to fall vpon the Monday: that then, as it hath alwayes beene heretofore accuſtomably vſed, ſo hereafter the Saturday then next going before any ſuch Feaſt, or Holy day, and not the Sunday, ſhall be commanded to be faſted for the euen of any ſuch Feaſt, or Holy day. Any thing in this Statute before mentioned or declared to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

When the Saturday ſhall be faſted in ſteed of the Sunday.

Prouided alwayes, and it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery Husbandman, Labourer, Fiſherman, and to all and euery other perſon and perſons of what eſtate, degree, or condition he, or they be, vpon the holy dayes aforeſaid, in harueſt, or at any other times in the yeere, when neceſſity ſhall require, to labour, ride, fiſh, or worke any kinde of worke, at their free willes and pleaſure, any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

In what caſes ſome perſons may labour vpon the holy day.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to the Knights of the right honourable Order of the Garter, and to euery of them, to keepe, and celebrate ſolemnly, the feaſt of their Order, commonly called S. Georges Feaſt, yeerely from henceforth the xxii. xxiii. and xxiiii. dayes of Aprill, and at ſuch other time and times, as yeerely ſhal be thought conuenient by the Kings Highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the ſaid Knights of the ſaid honourable Order, or any of them now being, or hereafter to be. Any thing in this Act heretofore mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding. REP.1.M.2. 1.Jac. 25. Reuiued, becauſe 1. M.2.is repealed by 1.Jac.25.

CAP. IIII.

The penalty for ſtriking or drawing a weapon in Church or Churchyard.

The penalty for chiding in the Church or Churchyard.

FOraſmuch as of late, diuers and many outragious and barbarous behauiours and Acts haue beene vſed and committed by diuers vngodly and irreligious perſons, by quarelling, brauling, fraying and fighting openly in Churches and Churchyards: Therefore it is enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon whatſoeuer, ſhall at any time after the firſt day of May next comming, by words onely quarell, chide or braule in any Church or Churchyard, that then it ſhal be lawfull vnto the Ordinary of the place where the ſame offence ſhall de done, and proued by two lawfull witneſſes to ſuſpend euery perſon ſo offending. That is to ſay, if he be a Lay man, ab ingreſſu Eccleſiæ, and if he be a Clerke, from the miniſtration of his office, for ſo long time as the ſaid Ordinary ſhall by his diſcretion thinke meet and conuenient, according to the fault.

The penalty for ſmiting in a Church, &c.

Dyer. fol. 27

And further it is enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, after the ſaid firſt day of May, ſhall ſmite or lay any violent hands vpon any other, either in any Church or Churchyard: That then Ipſo facto, euery perſon ſo offending, ſhall be deemed excommunicate, and be excluded from the fellowſhip and company of Chriſts congregation.

The penalty for drawing or ſmiting with a weapon in a Church, &c.

And alſo it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon after the ſaid firſt day of May, ſhall maliciouſly ſtrike any perſon with any weapon in any Church or Churchyard, or after the ſame firſt day of May, ſhall draw any weapon, in any Church or Churchyard, to the intent to ſtrike another with the ſame weapon: That then euery perſon ſo offending, and thereof being conuicted by verdict of twelue men, or by his owne confeſſion, or by two lawfull witneſſes; before the Juſtices of Aſſiſe, Juſtices of Oyer and Determiner, or Juſtices of Peace in their Seſſions, by force of this Act ſhall be adiudged by the ſame Juſtices; before whom ſuch perſon ſhall be conuicted; to haue one of his eares cut off. And if the perſon or perſons ſo offending haue none eares, whereby they ſhould receiue ſuch puniſhment as is before declared, that then he or they to be marked and burned in the cheeke with an hot yron, hauing the letter F. whereby he or they may be knowne and taken for fraymakers and fighters, and beſides that euery ſuch perſon, to be, and ſtand, Ipſo facto, excommunicated, as is aforeſaid.

CAP. V.

So much land ſhall be put in tillage, and ſo continued, as was at any time in tillage, (and ſo kept foure yeeres) ſithence Anno 1. Henry the eight, vpon paine the Offender to forfeit fiue ſhillings an Acre. CAP. VI.

The true length, breadth and weight of woollen clothes.

WHere heretofore diuers and many goodly Statutes haue beene made for the true making of Cloth within this Realme: Which neuertheleſſe, foraſmuch as Clothiers, ſome for lacke of knowledge and experience, and ſome of extreme couetouſneſſe, doe daily more and more ſtudy rather to make many, than to make good clothes, hauing more reſpect to their priuate commodity and gaine, than the aduancement of truth, and continuance of the commodity in eſtimation, according to the worthineſſe thereof, haue and doe daily in ſtead of truth, practiſe falſehood, and in ſtead of ſubſtantiall making of cloth, do practiſe ſleight and ſlender making, ſome by mingling of yarne of diuerſe ſpinnings in one cloth, ſome by mingling fell wooll, and lambs wooll or either of them with fleece wooll, ſome by putting too little ſtuffe, ſome by taking them out of the mill before they be full thicked, ſome by ouerſtretching them vpon the tentour, and then ſtopping with flockes ſuch brackes as ſhall be made by meanes thereof: finally, by vſing ſo many ſubtill ſleights and vntruths, as when the clothes ſo made, be put in the water to try them, they riſe out of the ſame neither in length nor breadth as they ought to doe, and in ſome place narrower than ſome, beſide ſuch cockeling, bandoning and diuers other great and notable faults, as almoſt cannot be thought to be true.

Generall abuſes practiſed in making of cloth.

And yet neuertheleſſe, neither fearing the Lawes in that caſe prouided, nor regarding the eſtimation of their Country, doe not only procure the Aulneger to ſet the Kings Seale to ſuch falſe, vntrue and faulty cloth, but doe themſelues weaue into the ſame, the likeneſſe and ſimilitude of the Kings Highneſſe moſt Noble and Imperiall Crowne, and alſo the firſt letter of his name, which ſhould be teſtimonies of truth, and not a defence of vntruth, to the great ſlander of the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the ſhame of this Land, and to the vtter deſtruction of ſo great and notable commodity, as the like is not in any forrein Nation.

Our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, therefore minding to aduance all truth and to abandon falſhood, and alſo to prouide for the continuance of the ſaid commodity of cloth making, to his honor and the common profit of the Realme, hath by the aduice of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, cauſed as well diuers honeſt Clothiers, as alſo diuers Drapers, Merchant Tailors, Cloth-workers, Sheremen and other Artificers to whom it appertaineth, to be examined by certaine wiſe, diſcreet and ſage Knights and Burgeſſes of this preſent Parliament of ſuch matters as touch as well the falſe, as the true making of clothes, by whoſe declaration, conſent, agreement and aduice, after diuers and ſundry meetings and great deliberate aduice taken in the premiſſes, by authority of this preſent Parliament, it is enacted as hereafter followeth, to remaine firme and perfect, notwithſtanding any ſuggeſtions hereafter to be made by any Clothier or Clothmaker to the contrary, as they haue in like caſes heretofore done: That is to ſay, that euery cloth, Karſey, peece of Friſe and Cotton, ſhalbe made in ſuch ſort and forme, and ſhall containe in length, breadth and weight, as is herein hereafter particularly mentioned, vpon ſuch peines, penalties and forfeitures, as be hereafter expreſſed and appointed.

The counſell of ſeuerall ſage, diſcreet and men of experience, and of the ſame trade vſed in the making of this Statute.

Firſt, that all and euery broad cloth and clothes, which ſhall be made after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming, within the Shires of Kent and Suſſex, or at the Towne of Redding, or any of them, or elſewhere of like making, as the clothes made there ſhall be of, ſhall containe in length at the water, euery peece being thorow wet, betwixt eight and twenty and thirty yards of meaſure that is now cuſtomably vſed, and in breadth ſeuen quarters at the leaſt within the liſt, by the whole length of the ſame cloth, the liſts of the ſame clothes to be of like making and aſſiſe, as they haue here before time beene vſed to be made, and that euery peece of the ſaid clothes being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, ſhall be in weight and weigh foureſcore and ten pound at the leaſt.

The weight and length of broad cloth made in certaine places.

And that all and euery white cloth and clothes, which ſhall be made within the City of Worceſter, commonly called Long Worceſters, and all like clothes of like making, made within the Citie of Couentrie, or elſewhere, after the ſaid Feaſt, ſhall conteine in length, being wet, as is aforeſaid, betwixt nine and twenty and one and thirty yards the peece, and to euery yard one inch of the ſtanderd, and ſhall be of the breadth aboue ſpecified throughout and by all the length of the whole cloth, and liſted as hath beene accuſtomed, and being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, ſhall weigh foureſcore and foure pound the peece at the leaſt.

Long Worceſters.

And that all coloured clothes made in the ſaid Cities of Couentry and Worceſter, or elſewhere of like making, after the ſaid Feaſt, ſhall conteine and be of like length and breadth, as is laſt before mentioned, and be liſted as is aforeſaid, and being well ſcoured, thicked and fully dryed, ſhall weigh foureſcore pound the peece at the leaſt.

Coloured clothes.

And that all and euery white cloth and clothes, commonly called ſhort Worceſters, which ſhall be made within the ſaid City or County, or elſewhere of the ſame ſort, after the ſaid Feaſt, ſhall conteine in length, being wet, betwixt three and twenty and fiue and twenty yards, yard and inch of the rule, and ſhall be of the breadth as is aforeſaid, throughout and by all the whole cloth, and liſted according to the ancient cuſtome, and being well ſcoured, thicked and fully dried, ſhall weigh threeſcore pound the peece at the leaſt.

White clothes called ſhort Worceſters.

And that all coloured long clothes, which after the ſaid Feaſt ſhall bee made within the Shires of Suffolke, Norfolke and Eſſex, or any of them, or elſewhere of like ſort, ſhall containe in length, wett, as is aforeſaid, betwixt eight and twentie and thirtie yards, yard and inch of the rule, and ſhall be in breadth ſeuen quarters of the yard within the liſts at the leaſt, throughout, and by all the whole cloth, and liſted as hath beene accuſtomed, and being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, ſhall weigh foureſcore pound the peece at the leaſt.

Coloured long clothes.

And that all and euery ſhort cloth and clothes coloured, which after the ſaid Feaſt ſhalbe made

Forfeiture of the offendors in broad clothes, &c.

And be it further enacted, that all and euery perſon and perſons, which after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming, ſhall make or cauſe to be made any of the ſeuerall kinds of broad clothes aboue rehearſed, of any ſhorter or longer meaſure, than is aboue ſpecified and appointed for euery Country or ſeuerall kinde of clothes to be made, or make any ſuch cloth or clothes of leſſe breadth or weight, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled and fully dried, than as is aboue ſpecified and appointed for euery ſeuerall Country, or kindes of clothes, and ſhall put the ſame to ſale, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch default of euery cloth, ſold or offered to be ſold, in length or breadth, forty ſhillings, and for euery pound weight, which any cloth ſo made and ſold, or offered to be ſold, ſhall lacke, exceeding not aboue foure pound in weight, ſhall alſo forfeit two ſhillings for euery pound, the ſame forfeiture to goe to the finder thereof. And that if any ſuch cloth lacke aboue foure pound weight of the ſeuerall weights aboue mentioned, that euery owner thereof ſhall then forfeit forty ſhillings for euery ſuch cloth, ſo lacking of his weight, as is aforeſaid.

Cloth exceeding the length by the goodnes.

Prouided alwayes, that if any broad cloth ſhall exceed the ſeuerall length before appointed for euery Country, or kinde of making, by meanes of the fineneſſe, or the good, perfect and ſtuffy making of the ſame cloth, that then the maker thereof ſhall not incur any loſſe or penalty for the ouerlength of any ſuch fine cloth: Any thing herein to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Forfeiture for narrow clothes, Karſeyes, Douſeines.

And be it further enacted, that all and euery perſon and perſons, which after the ſaid feaſt ſhal make or cauſe to be made any of the ſeuerall kinds of Karſeyes, narrow clothes, ſtreights, Douſeines, Friſes or Cottons aboue mentioned, which ſhall not be made in ſuch manner and forme as is aboue ſaid, nor containe and haue in length, breadth and weight ſeuerally appointed and limited, as is aboue ſpecified, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery peece of cloth called Streight or Douſein, and for euery peece of narrow cloth, Karſey, Friſe or Cotton, ſo to be made and ſold, or offered to be ſold, twenty ſhillings.

No Flockes, Haire or Yarne of lambs wooll ſhall be put in any cloth.
REP. 27. El. 18.
7. Edw. 6. 9. 43. El.
10. 4. Iac. 2.

And be it further enacted, that from and after the ſaid Feaſt, no perſon or perſons ſhall put any haire, flockes or any yarne made of lambs wooll, into any cloth, Karſey, Friſe or Cotton, ſo made and ſold, or offered to be ſold, vpon peine to forfeit euery ſuch cloth, Karſey, Friſes, and Cotton, wherein any ſuch yarne, haire or flockes ſhall be put, or the value of ſuch cloth, Karſeyes or Friſe.

REP. 4. & 5. P. & M. 5.

And be it further enacted, that if at any time after the ſaid Feaſt, any cloth through the default or negligence of the Carders, Spinners or Weauers, or any of them ſhall, or doe proue either purſie, baudy, ſqually by warpe or wouſe, or elſe ſhall happen to be euill burled or waſted in the mill, or elſe through the default or negligence of the mill man, or otherwiſe to be full of holes, mill brackes, or to be holely, that then the Seale of the Aulneger ſhall not be fixed or ſet to any ſuch cloth: any law, ſtatute or vſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding: but the accuſtomable fees and allowances of the Aulneger, ſhall neuertheleſſe be paid vpon paine of forfeiture of ſuch whole cloth, or the value thereof.

And be it further enacted, that if any Clothier or Clothmaker, doe after the ſaid Feaſt, put any

The Aulnegers fee ſhall be payd before the cloth be ſold.

any cloth or Karſey to ſale before he ſhall haue paid to the Aulneger or his Deputy, the accuſtomable fee, or agree for the ſame, as he, ſhe or they haue beene accuſtomed, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery default twenty ſhillings.

No cloth ſhalbe tranſported before the Aulnegers and owners Seale be ſet to it.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons, Engliſh, Denizen, Alien or ſtranger, ſhal after the ſaid Feaſt carry or tranſport, or cauſe to be carried or tranſported, into any of the parts beyond the ſea, any cloth, Karſey, Friſe or Cotton of the ſeuerall ſorts aboue recited, vnleſſe the Kings Seale, or Aulnegers Seale of this Realme, and the Seale of the owner or maker of the cloth, (declaring therein the length of the cloth, as it ſhall be in the water) be ſet vpon euery ſuch cloth, vpon paine to forfeit euery ſuch cloth lacking the ſame Seales, or any of them, or the value thereof.

Euery retailer ſhall try his cloth, and preſent that which is faulty.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no Draper, Merchant Tailor, Clothworker, or other perſon, which ſhall retaile any of the clothes or Karſeyes, Friſes, Rugges or Cottons of the ſeuerall makings aforeſaid, ſhall after the ſaid Feaſt put to ſale any of the clothes afore mentioned, whereunto the Aulneger ſhall haue ſet to the Kings Seale, and the owner his ſeale, till ſuch time as he or they haue made triall, aſwell by the water, as by the weight and meaſure, whether they, and euery of them ſhall be made according to the purport and true meaning of this Act, or no.

And if any perſon or perſons, ſhall find any defectiue or faulty cloth in length, weight or meaſure, made contrary to the order aforeſaid, that then he or they ſhall preſent euery ſuch cloth to euery Maior, Bailiffe or other head Officer or head Officers of euery City, Borough or Towne corporate, or to two Iuſtices of Peace next adioyning out of a City, Borough, or Towne corporate, where ſuch cloth ſhall be found faulty, as is aforeſaid, to the intent the ſame cloth may be cut into three equall parts and peeces. The one peece thereof to be forfeited to our Soueraigne Lord the King, another peece to be to the preſenter thereof, and the third part reſidue, to ſuch perſon or perſons, as it ſhall then be preſented to, vpon paine that euery ſuch perſon, as ſhall not ſo ſearch euery of the clothes, Karſeyes, Cottons or Friſes aforeſaid, ſo by him to be bought and ſold, and ſhall not ſeiſe and preſent ſuch cloth or clothes, as he or they ſhall finde defectiue, as is aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe the double value of euery ſuch cloth.

The Clothier ſhall repay his money to the buyer of faulty cloth.

And be it further enacted, that euery Clothier or other perſon whatſoeuer, which ſo ſhall ſell any ſuch faulty Karſey, Cotton or Friſe, whereunto the Aulneger and the owner ſhall haue ſet to their ſeales, and ſhal ſo be ſealed, as is aforeſaid, ſhal within fourteene dayes next after requeſt made in writing, meſſage or otherwiſe, by ſuch perſon, which ſhall ſo buy ſuch cloth, make payment of ſuch ſummes of money as he receiued for the ſame, or ſhall otherwiſe ſatisfie, diſcharge and acquit him for ſo much money as he ſhall or ſhould haue receiued for the ſame,. vpon paine of forfeiture to the party grieued for euery non payment, or not acquitall, as is aforeſaid, the double value of the money ſo receiued, or to be receiued, the ſame to be recouered by bill, plaint, action of debt, or otherwiſe, in any of the Kings Maieſties Courts of Record, where in no eſſoine, protection or wager of Law ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Stretchins of clothes.

And for the further auoiding of much vntruth practiſed by ſtretching of clothes, be it enacted, that no perſon or perſons ſhall after the ſaid Feaſt, ſtraine or ſtretch, or cauſe to be ſtrained or ſtretched any cloth aboue one yard in length, and one halfe quarter in breadth, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch default, fiue pounds.

The penalty for vſing a tentour, with a wrinch, rope or ring.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon which ſhall after the ſaid Feaſt keepe, haue, vſe or occupy any tentour, ſhall haue, vſe, or occupy any wrinch, rope or ring, with the ſame tentour, or ſhall vſe any other engine vnlawfully to ſtraine or ſtretch any cloth or clothes, vpon paine that euery offendor that ſhall vſe or occupy any tentour, or other engine to the contrary ſhall forfeit twenty pounds.

Tranſporting defectiue cloth. ALT.4. & 5. P. & M. 5. St.43. El.10.

And be it alſo enacted by like authority, that if any Merchant ſhall by any meanes tranſport or carry ouer into the parts beyond the Sea, any Cloth, Kerſey, Friſe, or Cotton, which ſhall be found defectiue, or faulty either in length, bredth, or weight, or elſe ſhall haue any of the faults aforeſaid, that then the Merchant, or other perſon, which ſhal ſo tranſport the ſame, ſhall returne againe the ſame cloth, ſo found defectiue, into England, at the coſts and charges of the Clothier, or Clothmaker, that ſold the ſame cloth: the ſame coſts and things to be recouered againſt ſuch Clothmaker or Clothier, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information in any of the Kings Courts, any promiſe or bargaine to the contrary notwithſtanding: Vpon paine that euery Merchant, or other perſon, which ſhall not ſo returne ſuch faulty or defectiue cloth (if through miſfortune by tempeſts, pirates or enemies, he be not letted) ſhall forfeit and loſe the value of the cloth ſo ſhipped and tranſported, and not returned, as is aforeſaid. The one moity thereof to the King, and the other moity to him that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, by bill, plaint or information, in which action no eſſoine, protection nor wager of law ſhall be admitted for the defendant.

And to the intent that it may perfectly be knowne which clothes are perfectly dreſſed, died and preſſed with the cold preſſe, without fraud, couin and deceit, as well within the City of London, as elſewhere, and haue ſufficient workmanſhip.

Be

Two ſearchers ſhall be appointed in euery City, Borough, &c. of cloth, and their authority. 2.& 3.P.& M.12.

Be it further enacted, that as well the Maior of the City of London, and Aldermen, or the moſt part of them, for the time being, as all and euery other Maior, Bailiffe and other head Officer or Officers, of euery City, Borough or Towne corporate within this Realme, ſhall haue full power and authority, by vertue of this Act, to nominate, depute, and appoint from time to time, as occaſion ſhall ſerue, and ſhall ſo from time to time nominate, depute and appoint two or moe honeſt, diſcreet and expert perſons, which ſhall from time to time vpon their oathes, view and ſearch all and euery cloth and clothes, that ſhall be dreſſed, dyed or preſſed with the cold preſſe, within euery ſuch City, Borough, Towne Corporate, or Port Towne, and view and ſearch whether the ſame cloth and clothes be well and ſufficiently dreſſed, and preſſed with the cold preſſe, without putting thereto flockes, ſollacs, chalke, flower or any other deceitfull thing, and alſo whether the ſame ſhall be well and ſubſtantially dyed with good and perfect colours, without any deceiueable thing, or whether it ſhall be ſtretched or ſtrained any more than is aboue ſpecified: and ſhall haue full power and authority, by vertue of this Act, to enter into all and euery perſons houſe or houſes, where they ſhall thinke meet to ſearch and to ſeiſe all and euery ſuch cloth and clothes, as they ſhall finde defectiue in the premiſſes, as forfeited, in whoſe hands ſoeuer they ſhall be found. The moity of which forfeiture ſhall be to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other moity to the vſe of the Maior and Communalty of the City of London, or to the vſe of euery City, Borough, Towne corporate, Port Towne or Market Towne, where the ſame ſhall be ſeiſed.

A remedy for the loſer where the cloth is faulty.

And be it further enacted, That euery perſon or perſons, in whoſe hands or poſſeſſion ſuch defectiue or faulty cloth, either by euill or deceiuable dying, dreſſing or preſſing, as is aforeſaid, ſhal be found and ſeiſed, as is aforeſaid, ſhall haue his, her, or their remedy by action of debt, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe in any of the Kings Maieſties Courts of Record, wherein no eſſoine, protection, or wager of Law ſhall be admitted or allowed for the defendant, againſt all and euery ſuch perſon or perſons, by whoſe defaults or negligence, ſuch cloth ſhall ſo be found faulty, and ſhall thereby recouer all ſuch coſts, loſſes and dammages, as he ſhall ſuſtaine by occaſion thereof.

A Seale of lead for a Towne Corporate.

And be it further enacted by the ſame authority, that as well the ſaid Maior of the City of London, as euery other Maior, Bailiffe, Port-Rieue, or other head Officer of euery City, Borough, Towne corporate, or Port Towne, ſhall on this ſide the ſaid Feaſt, cauſe to be prepared a Seale of lead, wherein as well the Armes, as the name of euery ſuch City, Borough, Towne corporate, and Port Towne, ſhall be grauen, which the ſame Searchers ſhall cauſe to be fixed to euery cloth that they ſhall finde, after the ſaid Feaſt, well and ſufficiently dreſſed, dyed and preſſed with the cold preſſe, without any of the deceits aforeſaid, and ſhall haue for their paines and trauelles therein to be taken, by the owner thereof for the ſealing of euery cloth, two pence.

The Seale of faulty cloth.

And be it further enacted, that if any Searcher or Searchers ſo to be appointed, doe after the ſaid Feaſt finde any of the clothes, being coloured or dyed, ſo made after the ſaid Feaſt, either cockly, purſie, baudy, ſqually or rowy, or euill burled, or waſted in the mill, or full of holes or brackes, that then the ſame Searcher or Searchers, ſhall beſides the Seale of the City, Borough, or Towne corporate, where the ſame cloth ſhall be found, put another Seale of lead at euery end of the ſaid cloth, wherein ſhall be grauen the letter F. and ſhall alſo ſet a marke in the liſt, right againſt ſuch place where any of the faults aforeſaid ſhall be, with the print of a letter, or marke of an inch compaſſe at the leaſt, whereby euery buyer may well know what, and where the fault is.

Forf. where the Seale is ſet to cloth not ſufficiently dreſſed.

And be it further enacted, that if any of the Searchers aforeſaid ſhall ſet the Seale of any City, Borough, Towne corporate, or Port Towne, to any coloured cloth, which ſhall not be ſufficiently dreſſed, dyed, preſſed and wrought, as is aforeſaid, that then the Maior and Communalty, or Bailiffes or Communalty or other Corporation of the Towneſhip by whatſoeuer name or names they ſhall be incorporated where ſuch cloth ſhall ſo be ſealed, ſhall forfeit and loſe the whole value of the cloth ſo ſealed.

Forf. where the Seale is ſet to faulty cloth.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any of the Searchers aforeſaid, after the ſaid Feaſt doe ſet to the Seale of the City, Borough or Towne corporate within the limits of their ſearch, to any cloth which ſhall be cokely, purſie, baudy, ſqually, rowy, euill burled, waſted in the mill, or full of holes, as is aforeſaid, and not ſet at euery end of the ſaid clothes one ſeale with the letter F. as is aforeſaid, and alſo declare by the liſts, as is aforeſaid, what and where the faults of the cloth be: that then the Maior and Communalty, or other the Corporation of euery ſuch Borough, City or Towne corporate, where ſuch Searcher ſhall be appointed, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch omiſſion, or not ſetting to of any ſuch Seale, as is aforeſaid, fiue pound.

Cloth retailed, which is vnſealed.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer they be, which commonly vſe to retaile cloth or Karſey, ſhall put to ſale in groſſe, or by retaile, to any manner of perſon, any manner of cloth, which ſhall be made after the ſaid Feaſt, being dreſſed, dyed and preſſed, as is aforeſaid, except there be fixed thereunto at euery end of the ſame cloth, the ſeale of ſuch City, Borough, or Towne corporate, where the ſame cloth ſhall be ſo dyed, dreſſed and preſſed, or the ſeuerall ſeale of euery ſuch City, Borough, or Towne corporate, where it ſhall be dyed, dreſſed, or preſſed, to remaine at the laſt end of euery of the ſaid cloth which ſhall be ſold, during and by all the time, that any péece, or remnant of ſuch cloth is to be ſold, vpon paine of forfeiture the whole value of ſuch whole cloth.

The forfeiture of the chiefe officer of a Citie Borough, &c. for not appointing ſearchers.

And be it further enacted, that euery Mayor, Bailiffe, or other head Officer of any City, Borough or Towne corporate, in which any ſuch cloth or clothes after the ſaid feaſt ſhall be made, dyed, dreſſed, or preſſed with the cold preſſe as is aforeſaid, which doth not, or ſhall not after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michael, nominate and appoint from time to time ſo many Searchers as ſhall be requiſite, to view and ſearch clothes vpon their oathes as is aforeſaid, ſhal loſe and forfeit for euery default ten pound.

The penalty for refuſing to be a ſearcher.

And be it further enacted, that if any of the ſaid Searchers ſo to be appointed by the Mayor, being a frée man of the ſaid City, or by the Mayor, Bailiffe, or other head Officer of any City, Borough, or Towne corporate, as is aforeſaid, hauing no reaſonable excuſe, doe refuſe to take vpon him to be a Searcher, and doe not vſe the office of a Searcher, as is aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch refuſall, and not executing of his office ſo to him appointed, v. li. The one halfe thereof to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to the vſe of the comminalty of euery City, Borough or Towne corporat, where he ſhall ſo be aſſigned, and to remaine in ward till ſuch time as he hath made payment of the ſaid forfeiture, or otherwiſe put in ſufficient bonds for the ſatiſfaction of the ſame.

No coloured cloth ſhall be put to ſale but theſe within named.
REP. 21. Iac. 28.
St. 4. & 5. P. & M. 5.

And foraſmuch as there be now in this time many falſe and deceiueable colours made in diuerſe places of this Realme, whereby many of the Kings louing Subiects are deceiued: Be it enacted, that from and after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming, no perſon or perſons, ſhall put to ſale by retaile within this Realme, any cloth or clothes, which ſhal be made after the ſaid feaſt, of any other colour or colours, than is hereafter expreſſed. That is to ſay, Scarlet, Red, Crimoſin, Murrey, Violet, Puke, Browne-blew, Blacks, Gréenes, Yellowes, Blewes, Orenge-tawny, Ruſſet, Marble-grey, ſad new colour, Azure, Watchet, Shéepes colour, Lyon colour, Motteley, or Yron-grey, vpon paine that euery perſon offending to the contrary, ſhall loſe and forfeit the value of the cloth ſold by retaile, which ſhall be of any other colour.

Preſſing of cloth.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons, after the ſaid feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, ſhall preſſe any kinde of cloth with the hot preſſe, or in any other kinde of deceiueable manner, but only with the cold preſſe, as is aboue ſpecified, vpon paine of forfeiture of the whole cloth ſo preſſed contrary to the meaning of this Statute, or the value thereof.

Counterfeiting, ſetting to or taking away ſeales.

And be it further enacted, that if any perſon or perſons, but ſuch as are appointed, aſſigned, and permitted by this act, doe at any time after the ſaid feaſt counterfeit, ſet to, or take away, from any of the Clothes, Karſeis, Friſes, Rugges, or Cottons aforeſaid, any of the ſeales ſo to be fixed, as is aboue recited, that then euery perſon ſo offending, ſhall for the firſt offence (being thereof duly conuicted by verdict of twelue men, by two ſufficient witneſſes, or by confeſſion of the party) forfeit and loſe ten pound. And for the ſecond offence (being likewiſe thereof conuicted) ſhall ſit on the pillory, and loſe and forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the King, all ſuch his goods and cattalles (his debts being duly and truly paid, without fraud or couine) as he had or ſhall haue at the time of his conuiction.

A Clothier ſhal not giue ouer the making of cloth without licence.

And be it further enacted, that if betwéene the firſt day of May next comming, and the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, then next comming, any perſon or perſons, which now doth vſe the art or myſtery of Draping or Cloth-making, ſhall giue ouer Draping or Cloth-making, except he be licenced ſo to doe by thrée Iuſtices of Peace, at the leaſt of the City, County, Borough, or Towne corporat where he dwelleth, vpon ſome reaſonable cauſe ſhewed vnto the ſaid Iuſtices, ſhall neuer after take vpon him to make or cauſe to be made, any kinde of Cloth, or Karſey, to ſell the ſame againe, vpon paine of forfeiture of euery ſuch Cloth or Karſey that he ſhall ſo ſell.

A repeale of all former ſtatutes touching the making, dying, and dreſſing, &c. of cloth.

And be it further enacted, that all and euery article, clauſe, or ſentence in any Act of Parliament thereof made, concerning making, dying, dreſſing, preſſing, ſearching or ſealing any of the kindes of Clothes, broad or narrow, white or coloured Karſeis, Friſes, Rugges or Cottons, heretofore in this Act mentioned, and being repugnant, or contrariant to any article or ſentence in this Statute, ſhall from the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next, be vtterly void, and of none effect, and to the intent that all ſuch Clothes as ſhall be made within this Realme, or any other the Kings Dominions, after the ſaid Feaſt, ſhall be the better knowen from the other clothes made before the ſame time.

A meane to diſcipher faulty clothes by the want of the E. crowned. St. 3. & 4. Ed. 6. 2.

Bee it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that from and after the ſaid Feaſt, the letter E. crowned, ſhall not be wrought into the cloth, for and by the ſpace of two yéeres then next enſuing, vpon paine of forfeiture of twenty ſhillings, for euery cloth or Karſey, wherein the ſaid letter E. ſhall ſo be wrought, the moity of all which forfeitures, and of all other forfeitures before expreſſed, and not otherwiſe appointed by this preſent Act, ſhall be to the King our ſoueraigne Lord, and the other moitie to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, detinue, bill, plaint, or information, in any of the Kings courts of Record, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhal bee admitted, nor allowed, for the defendant.

Who ſhall haue the forfeitures, and by what meanes.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aboueſaid, that it ſhall not bee lawfull to any perſon or perſons, at any time after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming, to boile, or cauſe to be boiled any kinde of Wools, to bee conuerted into any kinde of broad cloth, or Karſey, with any kind of gauls, rindes, barkes of trées, or ſaw duſt, vpon paine to forfeit all ſuch wooll, or the value thereof to be recouered, and had, in ſuch forme and ſort, as in the foreſaid Act is limited and expreſſed.

No boyling of Wools.

Prouided alwayes that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to any Cloth or Clothes made in the towne of Taueſtocke, in the County of Deuonſhire, or elſe where within the ſaid County, commonly called Taueſtocke clothes, but that it ſhall bee lawfull to all and euery Inhabitants of the ſaid Towne, or makers of the ſaid Clothes, commonly called Taueſtockes, to make and ſeale the ſame with the accuſtomed Seale, as they haue heretofore béene accuſtomed, any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Cap. VIII.

What perſons may weaue or make broad Woollen cloth.

Be it enacted by the aſſent of the Kings Maieſty, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons within this Realme of England, Wales, or other the Kings Dominions, after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next enſuing, ſhall weaue or make, or put to weauing, or making, any manner of broad Woollen clothes, to bee ſold, vnleſſe that ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſhall ſo weaue or make, or put to weauing, or making the ſaid broad Woollen cloth or clothes, ſo to be made to be ſold, haue béene an Apprentice to the occupation of broad Woollen cloth making, or clothes weauing, or haue béene exerciſed and practiſed in, and with broad cloth making, or cloth weauing, by the ſpace of ſeuen yéers at the leaſt, before the ſame perſon or perſons ſhall ſo take vpon him or them, to make or weaue, or to put to weauing or making the ſaid broad Woollen clothes, vpon paine to forfeit all, and euery ſuch cloth and clothes, ſo wouen or made contrary to the forme of this Act.

No perſon ſhall weaue any broad woollen cloth vnleſſe he hath been ſeuen yeeres apprentice.

The one halfe of which forfeiture, ſhall bee to our Soueraigne Lord the King: and the other halfe to him or them that will or ſhall ſue for the ſame, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information in any Court of Record, within this Realme of England, or Wales: in which action, ſuit, plaint, bill, or information, no eſſoine, protection, or plea, to the Iuriſdiction of the Court, ſhall be allowed for the Defendant. Cap. IX.

No perſon robbing any houſe, &c. ſhall haue the benefit of his Clergy.

Where at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, by prorogation in the thrée and twentieth yéere of the reigne of the late King of famous memory, King Henry the eighth. It was among other things, then and there enacted, eſtabliſhed, and ordeyned, by authority of the ſame Parliament, that no perſon or perſons, which after that time ſhould happen to be found guilty, after the lawes of this Realme, for any manner pety Treaſon, or for any wilfull murther of malice prepenſed, or for robbing of any Churches, Chappels, or other holy places, or for robbing of any perſon or perſõs in their dwelling houſes, or dwelling places, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife, his children, or ſeruants then being within, and put in feare, or dread by the ſame, or for robbing of any perſon or perſons, in or néere about the high waies, or for wilfull burning of any dwelling houſes, or barnes, wherein any graine or corne ſhould happen to be, nor any perſon or perſons, being found guilty of any abbetment, procurement, maintaining, or concealing of any, or to any ſuch pety treaſon, murthers, or Felonies, ſhould from thenceforth be admitted to the benefit of his or their Clergy, but vtterly to be excluded thereof, and ſuffer death in ſuch maner and forme, as they ſhould haue done for any the cauſes or offences aboueſaid, if they were no Clerkes,ſuch as be within the holy Orders,that is to ſay,of the Orders of Subdeacon, or aboue,all only excepted,as by the ſame Act among other things more plainly appeareth,which act was made to endure vntill the laſt day of the next Parliament:and after that at the ſeſſion of the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation, in the two and thirtieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late King,the ſame Act,with other Acts,was made to continue for euer. 32.H.8.3.

Three ſeuerall doubts and queſtions moued vpon the St. of 23.H.8.1.

Sithen the making of which Statute, it hath beene doubted, that if ſuch robberies and felonies,hath beene committed and done in dwelling houſes,and dwelling places,the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife his children or ſeruants, being then put in feare or dread by the ſame, ſhall not loſe the benefit of their Clergy, if the offendors bee therein found guilty by the lawes of this Realme, vnleſſe the ſame robbery or felony, be committed and done in the very chamber,houſe or place where the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe,his wife, children,or ſeruants ſhall happen to be, or lye at the time of ſuch robbery and felony committed and done, and put in feare and dread, although the owner and dweller in ſuch houſe and houſes, his wife, his children or ſeruants, at the time of ſuch robbery and felony committed and done, were or lay in other places within the precinct of the ſame dwelling houſes,nigh vnto the houſe or place, where ſuch robbery and felony ſhall happen to be done. Or if it happen that the owner or dweller within the ſame houſe where ſuch robbery and felony ſhal happen to be done,his wife,children or ſeruants to be a ſleep,at the time of ſuch robbery and felony committed and done,although the ſame robbery were done in the chamber, or place where the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife, children or ſeruants, then lay, the offendors, being found guilty thereof according to the lawes of the land,ſhould not loſe the benefit and aduantage of their Clergy.

And where alſo it hath beene in queſtion and doubted,that if ſuch robberies and felonies, happen to bee committed and done in any booth or boothes, tent or tents, in any faire or market, the owner of the ſame,his wife,children or ſeruants happening to be within the ſame, at the time of the committing of ſuch felonies, and put in feare and dread, the offendors therein being found guilty,after the lawes of this realme,ſhould not loſe the benefit of their Clergy.

For the true declaration and explication of the ſame doubts or queſtions before recited: Be it enacted,ordained,and eſtabliſhed by the King our ſoueraigne Lord,the Lords ſpirituall and temporall and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled,and by the authority of the ſame, that if it happen any perſon or perſons,to be found guilty according to the lawes of this realme, for robbing of any perſon or perſons after the firſt day of May next enſuing, in any part or parcell of their dwelling houſes, or dwelling places, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, or his wife, his children, or ſeruants being then within the ſame houſe or place, where it ſhall happen the ſame robbery and felony to be committed and done, or in any other place within the precinct of the ſame houſe or dwelling place,that ſuch offendors ſhal in no wiſe be admitted to their[d] clergy, whether the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife, or children,then and there being, ſhall be waking or ſleeping, Burglary the owner,&c.being in another part of the houſe or a ſleepe.

[d] Coke

And that no perſon nor perſons,which after the ſaid firſt day of May,ſhall happen to be found guilty,after the Lawes of this Realme,of, and for robbing any perſon or perſons,in any Booth or Tent,in any Faire or Market, the owner,his wife, his children or ſeruants, or ſeruant then being within the ſame Booth or Tent, ſhall not from henceforth be admitted to the benefit of his or their Clergy,but vtterly be excluded thereof,and ſuffer death in ſuch manner and forme,as is before mentioned in the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid three and twentieth yeere of the reigne of the ſame late King,for robberies and felonies committed and done,in dwelling houſes,and dwelling places, the owner or dweller in the ſame, his wife, children or ſeruants, then being within the ſame,and put in feare and dread,without hauing any reſpect or cōſideration whether the owner or dweller in ſuch Boothes and tents,his wife, children or ſeruants being in the ſame Boothes or tents at the time of ſuch robberies and felonies committed,ſhalbe ſleeping or waking.

Burglary in a tent or booth, in a faire or market.

Cap. X.

Such as rob in one ſhire and flye into another ſhall not haue their Clergy.

25.H.8.3.

23.H.8.1.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, vpon prorogation the xv.day of January,in the xxv.yeere of the raigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight: It is recited that at that Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxiii. yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late King,amongſt other things it was ordeined,eſtabliſhed and enacted, that no perſon nor perſons,which after that time ſhould happen to be found guilty after the lawes of this land,of any manner of petit treaſon,or for any wilfull murther of malice prepenſed,or for robbing of any Churches,Chappels,or other holy places,or for robbing of any perſon or perſons,in their dwelling houſes, or dwelling place, the owner or dweller in the ſame houſe, his wife, his children or ſeruants then being within,and put in feare and dread by the ſame, or for robbing of any perſon or perſons, in or neere about the high way, or for wilfull burning of any dwelling houſes, or

Barnes, wherein any graines of Corne ſhould happen to bee, nor any perſon or perſons, being found guilty of any abbetment, procurement, helping, maintaining or concealing of, or to any ſuch pety treaſon, murders, or felonies ſhould from thenceforth be admitted, to the benefit of his or their Clergy, but ſhould vtterly be excluded thereof, and ſuffer death in ſuch manner and forme, as they ſhould haue done for any the cauſes or offences aboueſaid, if they were no clerkes, which Act extended, but onely where ſuch offendor was conuicted in ſuch County or place, where ſuch offence was ſo committed and done, and not where he or they, did ſuch offence in one County and were taken with the manner in another County. Wherefore it was conſidered, that for as much as diuers and many felons, and robbers, that commit, and doe diuers and many great heinous Robberies, and Burglaries, in one Shire, and conuey the ſpoyle and robbery into any other Shire, and there bee taken, endicted, and arraigned of felony, of the felonous ſtealing of the ſame goods in the ſame other Shire, than where the ſame Robberies, or Burglaries were done and committed, and not of the ſame robbery nor burglary, for that it was not done, nor committed in the ſame Shire, where they be ſo endicted and arraigned, and that by reaſon thereof, ſuch felons, robbers, and burglarors, had, and enioyed the priuilege and aduantage of their Clergy.

For redreſſe whereof it was enacted in the ſaid Parliament, holden in the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeere of the ſaid late King, that if any perſon or perſons, after that time, after ſuch robbery or burglary, by him or them done in one County, ſhould bee endicted of felony for ſtealing of any Goods or Cattells, in any other County within this Realme, and thereupon arraigned and found guilty, or ſtand mute of malice, or challenge peremptory aboue the number of twenty perſons, or would not vpon his or their ſaid arraignement directly anſwer to the ſame felony, that then the ſame perſon and perſons, ſo arraigned and found guilty, or ſtanding mute of malice, or challenging peremptory aboue the number of twenty perſons, or that would not directly anſwer to the Law, ſhould loſe and bee put from the benefit of his or their Clergy, in like manner and forme, as they ſhould haue beene, if they had beene endicted, arraigned, and found guilty in the ſame County where ſuch Robbery or Burglary, as is aforeſaid, was done or committed, if it ſhould appeare to the Juſtices before whom any ſuch felons or robbers ſhould bee arraigned by euidence giuen before them or by examination, that the ſame felons and burglarors ſhould haue beene put from their Clergy in caſe they had beene endicted, arraigned, and found guilty in the ſame County, where the ſame robberies or burglaries were committed, or done, as in the ſame Statute made in the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeere among other things more plainly appeareth.

And where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the fourth day of Nouember, in the firſt yeere of the Reigne of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is: It is ordeined and enacted amongſt other things, that no perſon or perſons, that before that time had beene, or at any time hereafter ſhould bee in due forme of the lawes attainted, or conuicted of murder, of malice prepenſed, or of poyſoning of malice prepenſed, or of breaking of any houſe by day or by night, any perſon being then in the ſame houſe, where the ſame breaking had beene, or after that time ſhould be committed, being put in feare or dread, or of, or for robbing of any perſon or perſons in the high way, or neere the high way, or for felonious ſtealing of horſes, geldings, or mares or of felonious taking of any goods out of any pariſh Church, or other Church or Chappell, or being indicted or appealed of any of the ſame offences, and thereupon found guilty, by verdict of xii. men, or ſhould confeſſe the ſame vpon his or their arraignment, or would not anſwer directly according to the lawes of this realme, or ſhould ſtand wilfully, or of malice mute, ſhould not be admitted to haue or enioy the priuilege or benefit of his or their Clergy or Sanctuary, but ſhould be put from the ſame.

Wherein the ſtatute made 1.Ed.6.12.doth take away the force of the St.of 25.H.8.3.

And that in all other caſes of felony other than ſuch as bee before mentioned, all and ſingular perſon and perſons, which after the firſt day of March then next following, ſhould be arraigned or found guilty vpon his or their arraignement, or ſhould confeſſe the ſame, or ſtand mute in forme aforeſaid, or would not anſwer directly in forme aboueſaid, ſhould haue and enioy the priuilege and benefit of his or their Clergy, and the liberty and priuilege of Sanctuary, in like manner and forme, as hee or they might or ſhould haue done, before the xxiiii. day of Aprill in the firſt yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, as in the ſaid Act made in the ſaid firſt yeere among other things more plainly appeareth. By reaſon of which article & clauſe, contained in the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid firſt yeere, the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid xxv. yeere of the ſaid late King, which did put ſuch felons and burglarors from their Clergy, that doe ſuch offence in one County, and after are taken with the goods ſtollen in another County, and there endicted arraigned, and found guilty, was made void. By reaſon whereof diuers and many perſons that ſithen the ſaid firſt yeere haue committed ſuch robberies and burglaries in one county, and after haue been taken with the manner in another county, and there endicted, arraigned, and found guilty, haue had and enioyed their Clergy, which they would not haue had in caſe the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid xxv. yeere had ſtand in force, to the great bolding and comfort of ſuch offendors. For redreſſe whereof from henceforth to be had, be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Pꝛoces of outlawꝛy awarded againſt an offender in treaſon, being out of the Realme. St. 25. H. 8. 13.

And that all pꝛoceſſe of outlawꝛy, hereafter to be made and had, within this Realme, againſt any offendoꝛs in Treaſon, being reſiant, oꝛ inhabitant, out of the limits of this Realme, oꝛ in any the parts beyond the Sea, at the time of the[c] outlawꝛy pꝛonounced againſt them, ſhall be as góod and effectuall in the law, to all intents and purpoſes, as if any ſuch offendoꝛs had béene reſident, and dwelling within this Realme, at the time of ſuch pꝛoceſſe awarded, and outlawꝛy pꝛonounced.

[c] Dyer fo.

The party outlawed, yeeldeth himſelfe to the chiefe Juſtice of England.

Pꝛouided alwayes, and bee it enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that if the party ſo hereafter to bee outlawed, ſhall within one yéere next after the ſaid outlawꝛy pꝛonounced, oꝛ Judgement giuen vpon the ſaid outlawꝛy, yéeld himſelfe vnto the chiefe Juſtice of England, foꝛ the time being, and offer to trauerſe the indictment oꝛ appeale, whereupon the ſaid outlawꝛy ſhall be pꝛonounced, as is afoꝛeſaid, that then he ſhalbe receiued to the ſaid Trauerſe, and being thereupon found not guilty by the verdict of twelue men, he ſhalbe cléerely acquitted, and diſcharged of the ſaid outlawꝛy, and of all penalties and foꝛfeitures, by reaſon of the ſame, in as large and ample manner and foꝛme, as though no ſuch outlawꝛy had béene made, any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Foꝛfeiture by attainder of treaſon of lands in fee taile.

And bee it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that euery offendoꝛ oꝛ offendoꝛs, being hereafter lawfully conuict of any manner of high Treaſon, by pꝛeſentment, confeſſion, verdict oꝛ pꝛoceſſe of outlawꝛy, accoꝛding to the due courſe, and cuſtome of the lawes of this realme, ſhall loſe & foꝛfeit to the Kings highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſoꝛs afoꝛeſaid, all ſuch lands, tenements and hereditaments, which any ſuch offendoꝛ oꝛ offendoꝛs ſhall haue, of any eſtate of [d] inheritance in his owne right, in vſe, oꝛ poſſeſſion, within this realme of England, oꝛ elſewhere within any the Kings dominions, at the time of any ſuch Treaſons committed, oꝛ any time after.

Within what time, & befoꝛe whom the offender muſt be accuſed.

And it is further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that no perſon oꝛ perſons, ſhal in any wiſe bee impeached, foꝛ any of the offences aboueſaid, committed onely by open pꝛeaching, oꝛ woꝛds, vnleſſe the offendoꝛ oꝛ offendoꝛs be thereof accuſed within thꝛée moneths next after the ſame open pꝛeaching and woꝛds, and that the ſame accuſation oꝛ accuſations, be had, made and declared to one of the Kings Councell, oꝛ to one of the Kings Juſtices of Aſſiſe, oꝛ elſe to one of the Kings Juſtices of the peace, being of the Quorum, oꝛ to two Juſtices of the peace within the ſhire where the ſame offence oꝛ offences ſhal happen to be done oꝛ committed: any thing contained in this act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Concealment of high treaſon is miſpꝛiſion of treaſon.

Pꝛouided alſo, and be it declared and enacted, by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that concealment oꝛ kéeping ſecret of any high treaſon, be déemed and taken, only miſpꝛiſion of treaſon, and the offendoꝛ therein, to foꝛfeit and ſuffer, as in caſes of miſpꝛiſion of treaſon, as heretofoꝛe hath béen vſed, any thing aboue mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Pꝛouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that no perſon oꝛ perſons, after the firſt day of Iune next comming, ſhalbe indicted, arraigned, condemned, conuicted, or attainted, for any of the treaſons or offences aforeſaid, or for any other treaſons, that now be or hereafter ſhall be, which ſhall hereafter be perpetrated, committed or done, vnleſſe the ſame offendor or offendors be thereof accuſed by two lawfull accuſers, which ſaid accuſers at the time of the arraignment of the party accuſed, if they be then liuing, ſhalbe brought in perſon before the party ſo accuſed, and auow and maintaine that that they haue to ſay againſt the ſaid party, to proue him guilty of the treaſons or offences contained in the bill of enditement laid againſt the party arraigned, vnleſſe the ſaid party arraigned ſhall willingly without violence confeſſe the ſame. Sauing to euery perſon and perſons, their heires and ſucceſſors, other than the offendors and their heires, and ſuch perſon and perſons, as claime to any their vſes, all ſuch rights, titles, intereſt, poſſeſſions, leaſes, rents, reuerſions, offices and other profits, which they or any of them ſhall haue at the day of committing ſuch treaſons, or at any time after, in as large and ample manner, as if this Act had neuer béene had nor made.

Coron. 319.

No perſon ſhall be attainted of treaſō but vpon the teſtimony of 2. lawfull accuſers.

The right of others ſaued.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the wife or wiues, whoſe husband or husbands hereafter ſhalbe attainted of treaſons ſpecified in this Act, or of any other treaſons whatſoeuer they be, ſhall in no wiſe be receiued, to aſke, challenge, demand or haue dowry of any the lands, tenements or hereditaments, of any the perſon or perſons to be attainted of treaſon, as is aforeſaid, during the ſaid attainder in his force: any thing before mentioned to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cap. XII.

The marriage of Prieſts and other Spirituall perſons ſhall be adiudged lawfull.

2. & 3. Ed. 6. 21.

ALbeit, that at the ſeſſion of this Parliament holden by prorogation at Weſtminſter, the fourth day of Nouember in the ſecond yéere of the raigne of the Kings Maieſty that now is, it was ordeined and enacted by the authority of the ſame Parliament, That all and euery Law, and lawes Poſitiue, Canons, Conſtitutions and Ordinances, before that made by the authority of man onely, which then did prohibit and forbid marriage to any Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, condition or degrée they then were, or by what name or names ſoeuer they then were called, which by Gods Law might lawfully marry, and all and euery article, branch & ſentence, concerning only the prohibition for the marriage of the perſons aforeſaid, ſhould be vtterly void and of none effect: And that all manner of forfeitures, paines, penalties, crimes or actions, which were in the ſaid Lawes conteined, or of the ſame did follow, concerning the prohibition for the marriage of the perſons aforeſaid, ſhould be cléerely and vtterly void, fruſtrat and of none effect, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as well concerning marriage ſince that time made by any of the Eccleſiaſticall or Spirituall perſons aforeſaid, as alſo ſuch, which thereafter ſhould be duly and lawfully had, celebrated and made betwixt the perſons which by the laws of God might lawfully marry: Yet ſince the making of the ſaid Act, diuers euill diſpoſed perſons peruerſly taking occaſion of certaine words and ſentences in the ſame Act compriſed, haue and doe vntruly and very ſlanderouſly report of Prieſts matrimony, ſaying, that the ſame ſtatute is but a permiſſion of Prieſts matrimony, as Vſury and other vnlawfull things be now permitted, for the eſchewing of greater inconuenience and euils, ſo that thereby the lawful matrimony of Prieſts, in the opinion of many, and the children procreate and borne in ſuch lawfull matrimony, rather bee of a great number of the Kings ſubiects accompted as baſtards, than lawfully borne, to the great ſlander, perill and diſheriſon of ſuch children. Which vntrue ſlanderous report of holy matrimony, doth not only redound to the high diſhonor of Almighty God, but alſo to the Kings Maieſties diſhonor, and his high Court of Parliament, and the learned Clergy of this Realme, who haue determined the ſame to be moſt lawfull, by by the law of God, in their Conuocation, aſwel by yͤ cōmon aſſent, as by the ſubſcription of their hands. And, that moſt of all is to be lamented, through ſuch vncomly railings of matrimony, and ſlanderous reproches of the Clergy, the word of God is not heard with reuerence, followed with diligence, the godly procedings of the Kings Maieſty not receiued with due obedience, and thereby the wealthy men of this realme diſcouraged, to nouriſh and bring vp their children in learning, ſo as it is to be feared, leſt in place of good learning and knowledge, ſhall créep in ignorance, and for learned men, vnlearned ambitious men and flatterers, to the great diſpleaſure of Almighty God, and to the perill of the whole ſtate of Gods true religion within this Realme, if ſpéedy remedy bee not prouided herein.

Therefore it is enacted, by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame Parliament, That the matrimony of all and euery Prieſt, and other Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall perſons and perſon heretofore had, celebrated and made, and the matrimony of euery Prieſt and other Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall perſon, which ſhall hereafter duly be had, celebrated and made, ſhall be adiudged, déemed and taken for true, iuſt and lawfull matrimony, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes. And that all and euery children and childe, borne in any ſuch matrimony, ſhall be deemed, iudged, reputed and taken, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, to bee borne in lawfull matrimony and to bee legitimate, and inheritable to lands, tenements and other hereditaments, from and by any of their fathers, mothers, and other anceſtors in like manner and forme, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as any other children, borne in lawful matrimony betwixt any of the Kings Lay ſubiects be inheritable, and that by the authority aforeſaid, as well all and euery Prieſt, and other Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall perſon and perſons, be and ſhall be enabled to be tenants by the courteſie, after the death of their wiues, of ſuch lands, tenements and other hereditaments, as their wiues ſhal happen to be ſeiſed of, of eſtate in fee ſimple, or eſtate in fee taile generall, during the ſpouſailes, as alſo euery wife of euery ſuch Prieſt and other Eccleſiaſticall perſon, ſhall bee enabled to claime, demand, haue, and enioy dower of the lands, tenements and other hereditaments, whereof her huſband during the eſpouſailes betweene them, was ſeiſed of eſtate in fee ſimple, or fee taile generall in his owne right, in like manner and forme, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as any other huſband or wife may or might claime, demand, haue or enioy: any law, ſtatute, ordinance, canon, conſtitution, preſcription or cuſtome, had made, exerciſed or vſed in this realme to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The matrimony of Prieſts, & other ſpirituall perſons ſhalbe adiudged lawfull.

Prieſts children ſhalbe legitimat, and inherit their anceſtors lands.

Prieſts ſhalbe tenants by the courteſie, & their wiues endowable of their lands.

Asking in the Church.

Prouided alway, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to giue liberty to any perſon to marry without asking in the Church, or without the Ceremonies according to the Booke of Common prayer and adminiſtration of the Sacraments, nor ſhall make any ſuch matrimony already made, or hereafter to be made good, which are prohibited by the law of GOD for any other cauſe.

Diuorces already made.

Prouided alſo, that this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to alter, change, reuoke, repeale or otherwiſe to diſanull any decree, iudgment, or ſentence of diuorce heretofore had or made, or to change or alter the poſſeſſion or inheritance of any Lands or Tenements already deſcended: but that they and euery of them ſhal remaine, continue and be of ſuch like force, effect, ſtrength and degree, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as they were before the making of this Act: this Act or any thing therein contained, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cap. XIII.

Euery religious perſon ſhall be inheritable to his Anceſtor, only from the time of his dereignment.

31. H. 8. 6.

WHere by an act of Parliament made the one and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of the moſt noble Prince of famous memory, King Henry the eight, for and concerning the enablement of profeſſed and religious perſons, to purchaſe to them and to their heires, in fee ſimple, fee taile, for terme of life, for yeeres or at wil, manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, and other Hereditaments and things whatſoeuer: and that they and euery of them, ſhould or might from thenceforth vſe and exerciſe, receiue, take, haue and enioy, all and euery lawfull thing and things to be growne, fallen or happened to them or any of them, after the ſame deraignment, or departing out of religion. And in which ſaid act of Parliament, there is a prouiſo conteined, that none of the ſame religious perſons ſhould or might at any time after the making of the ſame Act, bee taken, deemed, or iudged, for or as heire or heires, or inheritable to any perſon or perſons, to any purpoſe, reſpect, conſtruction or intent in the law, as by the ſame Act among other things therein conteined, more fully at large it may and doth appeare.

And foraſmuch as ſith the time of the making of the ſaid Act, there hath beene certaine ambiguities and doubts growne and ariſen, and hereafter are like to grow and ariſe, vpon the expoſition of the ſaid Act, whether the ſaid late religious and profeſſed perſons ſhould or might bee adiudged able to inherit and to bee inheritable as heire or heires, to any of his or their anceſtor or anceſtors, and to haue and enioy all and euery thing and things deſcended, growne, fallen or happened to them or any of them, after the ſaid deraignment or departing out of religion, yea or no. For the full and plaine declaration whereof, be it enacted, declared and expounded by this preſent Parliament, and by the authority of the ſame, that all and euery of the ſame late religious and profeſſed perſon and perſons, ſhall and may by authority of this act, be enabled to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, at all time and times hereafter to be taken, deemed and iudged, as heire or heires, and inheritable to all, and euery their anceſtor or anceſtors, and to haue, challenge, or enioy, receiue, and take all manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and euery other thing and things, to them or any of them fallen, come, growne, or deſcended from any their anceſtors, by any manner of wayes, ſince the time of their ſeuerall deraignments, or departing out of their religion, in as ample and large manner, forme, and condition, as they had neuer beene profeſſed, nor entred into religion, the ſame profeſſion or religion, or any law, cuſtome or vſe within this Realme, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Euery Religious perſon ſhall be adiudged inheritable to his anceſtor only from the time of his deraignment.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that none of the ſaid religious perſons, ſhall or may by vertue of this Act, at any time hereafter, be taken, deemed or iudged for heire or heires, or inheritable to any perſon or perſons, to any conſtruction and intent in the law, by reaſon of any former right, title, intereſt, matter or cauſe, had, made, done, deſcended or growne to any reſpect or purpoſe, before their ſaid ſeuerall deraignments or departing out of their religion: any thing before in this Act or in the ſaid former Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

No religious perſon ſhall inherit by force of any former right growne before his deraignmēt.

Cap. XIIII.

Who ſhall be iudged a Foreſtaller, who a Regrater and who an Ingroſſer: and the puniſhment of them.

ALbeit diuers good Statutes heretofore haue béene made againſt Foreſtallers of merchandiſes and victuals: yet for that good lawes and Statutes againſt Regrators and Ingroſſers of the ſame things haue not béen heretofore ſufficiently made and prouided, and alſo for that it hath not bin perfectly knowne what perſon ſhould be taken for a Foreſtaller, Regrator, or Ingroſſer, the ſaid ſtatutes haue not taken good effect, according to the minds of the makers thereof: Therefore be it enacted and declared by the King our ſoueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, that after the firſt day of May next comming ſhall buy or cauſe to be bought any merchandiſe, victual or any other thing whatſoeuer, comming by land or by water, toward any market or Faire to be ſold in the ſame, or comming toward any City, Port, Hauen, Créeke or Rode of this Realme, or Wales, from any parts beyond the Sea to be ſold, or make any bargaine, contract or promiſe, for the hauing or buying of the ſame or any part thereof, ſo comming as is aforeſaid, before the ſaid merchandiſe, victuals or other things, ſhall be in the market, Faire, City, Port, Hauen, Créeke or Rode, ready to be ſold or ſhall make any motion by word, letter, meſſage, or otherwiſe to any perſon or perſons, for the enhanſing of the price, or dearer ſelling of any thing or things aboue mentioned, or elſe diſſwade, moue, or ſtir any perſon or perſons, comming to the market or faire, to abſtain or forbeare, to bring or conuey any of the things aboue rehearſed, to any Market, Faire, City, Port, Hauen, Créeke, or Rode to be ſold, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be déemed, and taken, and adiudged for a Foreſtaller.

Statutes made againſt foreſtallers. 31. Ed. 1. 25. Ed. 3. 3. 2. R. 2. 3.

Who ſhalbe adiudged a Foreſtaller.

Further be it enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, that whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, that after the ſaid firſt day of May, ſhall by any meanes regrate, obtaine or get into his or their hands or poſſeſſion, in any Faire or Market, any Corne, Wine, Fiſh, Butter, Chéeſe, Candels, Tallow, Shéepe, Lambes, Calues, Swine, Pigs, Géeſe, Capons, Hens, Chickins, Pigeons, Conies or other dead victuall whatſoeuer, that ſhall bee brought to any Faire or Market, within this Realme or Wales, to be ſold, and doe ſell the ſame againe in any Faire or Market, holden or kept in the ſame place or in any other Faire or Market within foure miles thereof, ſhall be accepted, reputed and taken for a Regrator or Regrators.

Who ſhalbe reputed a Regrator.

And be it alſo enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, that whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, that after the ſaid firſt day of May, ſhall engroſſe or get into his or their hands, by buying, contracting or promiſe taking, other than by demiſe, grant or leaſe of land or tithe: any Corne growing in the fields, or any other Corne or Graine, Butter, Chéeſe, Fiſh or other dead victuals whatſoeuer within the realme of England, to the intent to ſell the ſame againe, ſhalbe accepted, reputed and taken an vnlawfull Ingroſſer or Ingroſſers.

Who ſhalbe taken an Ingroſſer.

And if any perſon or perſons ſhall at any time after the ſaid firſt day of May, offend in any of the things before recited, and being thereof duly conuicted or attainted by the lawes of this realm, or after the forme hereafter mentioned, ſhall for his or their firſt offence haue or ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of two moneths, without baile or mainpriſe, and ſhall alſo loſe and forfeit the value of the goods, cattell and victuall, ſo by him or them bought or had.

The puniſhmēt of the offendors aforeſaid for the firſt offence.

And if any perſon lawfully conuicted or attainted of or for any the offences aboueſaid, be thereof eftſoones lawfully conuicted or attainted, that then euery perſon or perſons ſo offending, ſhall haue and ſuffer for his or their ſaid offence, impriſonment by the ſpace of one halfe yéere, without baile or mainpriſe, and ſhall loſe the double value of all the goods, cattell and victuall, ſo by him bought or had, as is aforeſaid.

The puniſhmēt for the ſecond offence.

And if any perſon being lawfully twice conuicted or attainted, of or for any of the ſaid offences, ſhall eftſoones offend the third time, and be thereof lawfully conuicted or attainted, that then euery ſuch perſon, for the ſaid third offence, ſhall be ſet on the Pillory in the City, Towne or place, where he ſhall then dwell and inhabit, and loſe and forfeit all the goods and cattell, that he or they haue to their owne vſe, and alſo bee committed to priſon, there to remaine during the Kings Maieſties pleaſure.

The puniſhmēt for the third offence.

Prouided alway, and it is enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, that the buying of any ſuch Barley, Bigge or Otes, as any perſon or perſons (not foreſtalling) ſhall buy to conuert into Malt or Otemeale, in his or their owne houſe or houſes, and ſo ſhall bee conuerted in déed, To what retailing or other Acts this Stat. doth not extend. 13.El.25.

Or the buying of any ſuch thing, by any ſuch Fiſhmonger, Butcher or Poulter, as concerne his or their owne faculty, craft or myſtery (otherwiſe than by foreſtalling) which ſhall ſell the ſame againe vpon reaſonable prices by retaile, Or the taking of any Cattell, Corne, Graine, Butter Cheeſe or any other thing aboue mentioned, reſerued without fraud or couin, vpon any leaſe for terms of life or liues, yeere or yeeres, heretofore made or hereafter to be made, Or the buying of any wine or other dead victuall aboue mentioned, being apt and meet for mans ſuſtenance, by any Inholder or other Victualler, to ſell the ſame by retaile within his houſe, or to any of his neighbours for their ſuſtenance, for reaſonable prices, Or the buying of any dryed or ſalted Fiſh, Herring or Sprats (not foreſtalled) and ſold for reaſonable prices, or the buying of any Corne, Fiſh, Butter or Cheeſe, by any ſuch Badger, Lader, Kidder, or Carrier, as ſhall bee aſſigned and allowed to that office or doing, by three Iuſtices of peace of the country, where the ſaid Badger, Lader, Kidder, or Carrier ſhall dwel, which ſhall ſell or deliuer in open Faire or Market, or to any other Victualler, or to any other perſon or perſons, for the prouiſion of his or their houſe or houſes, all ſuch Corne, Graine, Butter and Cheeſe, as any ſuch perſon ſhall buy or cauſe to bee bought, and that within one moneth next after he ſhall ſo buy any ſuch Corne, Graine, Butter or Cheeſe, ſo that the ſame ſhal be bought without foreſtalling, Or elſe that any common prouiſion made or hereafter to bee made without fraud or couin, by any perſon or perſons, of any of the things aboueſaid, for any City, Borough, or Towne Corporate, or for prouiſion of victualling of any Ship, Caſtle, or Fort, within the Kings dominions, without foreſtalling, which ſhall be employed onely to that vſe and purpoſe, Or the buying and prouiſion of any of the victuals aboue mentioned, neceſſary and requiſite for the furniture and prouiſion of the Inhabitants of Calice, Guiſnes, and other the marches of the ſame, or of the Towne of Barwike, Holly Iſland, or the Marches of England againſt Scotland, which without fraud or couin ſhalbe tranſported and conueyed as ſoone as winde and weather may ſerue, to ſuch of the places aforeſaid, for the which the ſame ſhalbe ſo prouided, ſhall not be in any wiſe deemed adiudged or taken any offence contrary to this Act.

Changing of ſeed corne.

And it is alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons after the ſaid firſt day of May next comming, hauing ſufficient Corne and Graine for the prouiſion of his or their owne houſe or houſes, and ſowing of their grounds, for one yeere do buy any corne in any faire or market, for the change of his or their ſeed, and doe not bring to the ſame faire or market the ſame day ſo much Corne as hee ſhall fortune to buy for his ſeed, and ſell the ſame if hee can, as the price of Corne then goeth in the ſaid market or faire, that then euery ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo buying Corne for ſeed, ſhall forfeit and loſe the double value of the Corne ſo bought.

No perſon may ſell his cattell within 5. weeks after he bought them.

Or if any perſon or perſons after the ſaid firſt day of May, ſhal buy any manner of Oxen, Ronts, Steeres, Kine, Heckfers, Calues, Sheepe, Lambes, Goats, or Kids liuing, and ſell the ſame againe aliue, vnleſſe he or they doe keep and feed the ſame, by the ſpace of fiue weeks, in his or their owne houſes, ground, ferme ground, or elſe in ſuch ground or grounds where hee or they haue the herbage or common of paſture by grant or preſcription: That then euery perſon or perſons ſo buying and ſelling againe, ſhall loſe the double value of the cattell or things ſo bought and ſold againe. The moity of all which forfeitures afore rehearſed ſhalbe to the king, and the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, by bill, plaint, action of debt or information, in the which bill, plaint, action or information, no wager of Law, eſſoine or protection ſhalbe admitted.

The Iuſt. of P. may enquire, heare & determine the offences aforeſaid.

Bee it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Iuſtices of the Peace in euery County within this Realme, or Wales, at their quarter Seſſions, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, to enquire, heare and determine, all and euery the defaults and offences, perpetrated, committed or done, contrary to this Act, within the County where any ſuch Seſſions ſhall bee kept, by inquiſition, preſentment, bill or information before them exhibited, and by examination of two lawfull witneſſes, or by any of the ſame wayes or meanes, by the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices, and to make proceſſe thereupon, as though they were endicted before them by inquiſition, or by verdict of twelue men or more: and vpon the conuiction of the offendor by information or ſuit of any other than the King, to make extracts of the one moity of the forfeitures to bee leuied to the Kings vſe, as they vſe to doe of other fines, iſſues and amerciaments growen in the Seſſions of Peace, and to award execution of the other moity for the complainant, or enformer againſt the offendor, by Fieri facias, or capias, as the Kings Iuſtices at Weſtminſter may doe and vſe to doe. And if any ſuch conuiction or attaindor, ſhall hereafter happen to be at the Kings ſuit only, that then the whole forfeitures to be extracted and leuied to the Kings vſe only.

But one puniſhment for one offence.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that whatſoeuer perſon, ſhall at any time hereafter be puniſhed by vertue of this act for any thing mentioned in this act, that then the ſame perſon ſhall not otherwiſe bee vexed, troubled, ſued or put to any paine or puniſhment for that thing, wherefore he or they ſhall haue beene ſo puniſhed.

Prouided alwayes, and it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon or perſons, which ſhall be aſſigned and allowed by three Iuſtices of the peace of the county where he ſhall dwell thereunto, to buy (otherwiſe than by foreſtallin) Corne Graine, or Cattell to be tranſported or carried by water from any Port or place within this realme or Wales, unto any other Port or place, within the ſaid realme or dominions, if he or they ſhall without fraud or couin, ſhip or embarke within forty dayes next after he or they ſhall haue bought the ſame, or taken couenant or promiſe for the buying therof, and with ſuch expedition and diligence as wind and weather will ſerue, to carry and tranſport the ſame to ſuch port or place, as his or their cockets ſhall declare: and there doe diſbarke, unlade and ſell the ſame, and doe bring a true certificat thereof, from one Iuſtice of peace of the County, or Mayor, or Bailiffe of the Towne Corporat where the ſame ſhall bee unladen, and alſo of the Cuſtomer of the port, where ſuch unlading ſhall be, of the place and day where the ſaid corne or Cattell ſhalbe diſbarked, unladen and ſold, to bee directed unto the Cuſtomer and Controller of the Port, where the ſame were embarked: any thing mentioned in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Tranſporting of Corne, &c. from one part to another by Licence of the Iuſtices.

And ouer that, that at all times hereafter, when Wheat ſhall bee commonly at the price of ſix ſhillings eight pence the quarter or under, Malt and Barley at three ſhillings foure pence the quarter or under, Otes or Otes malted at the price of two ſhillings the quarter or under, Peaſe or Beanes at the price of foure ſhillings the quarter or under, and Rye or Miſteline at the price of fiue ſhillings the quarter or under (all which quarters ſhall be entended to be of London meaſure) that then it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons (not foreſtalling) to buy, engroſſe, and keepe in his or their graneries or houſes, ſuch Corne of the kinds aforeſaid, as without fraud or couin ſhalbe bought at or under the prices afore expreſſed: any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Euery man may engroſſe corne being at theſe prices.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this act, or any thing therin contained, extend not to charge any perſon or perſons, for any the offences aboue mentioned, unleſſe he or they be ſued for the ſame, within two yeeres next after ſuch offence done or committed: this Act to endure untill the end of the next Parliament.

Within what time the offendor muſt be ſued

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhalbe lawful to all and euery of the Kings Maieſties ſubiects, now dwelling and inhabiting, or that hereafter ſhall dwel or inhabite within one mile of the maine ſea, to buy all manner of fiſh, freſh or ſalted (not foreſtalling the ſame) and to ſell the ſame againe at reaſonable prices: this Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Regreating of freſh fiſh.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhalbe lawfull to all and euery perſon and perſons, knowne for a common Drouer or Drouers being licenſed, authoriſed, and allowed in writing by three Iuſtices of the peace, wherof one to be of the Quorum, of the County, or counties, where the ſame Drouer or Drouers ſhalbe moſt abiding and dwelling, to buy cattell in ſuch Shires or Counties, where Drouers haue beene wont in times paſt accuſtomably to buy cattell at their free liberty and pleaſure, and to ſell the ſame, as is aforeſaid, at reaſonable prices in common faires and markets, diſtant from the place or places, where hee or they ſhall buy the ſame forty miles at the leaſt, ſo that the ſame cattell be not bought by way of foreſtalling. This Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Drouers of cattell licenced by the Iuſtices, may buy and ſel againe.

Prouided alwayes, that ſuch licence of Iuſtices of Peace ſhall not endure aboue one yeere, unleſſe the ſame be yeerely renued by ſo many Iuſtices as is aforeſaid. 13. El. 25. made perpetuall. St. 5. El. 5. 31. El. 5. 21. Iac. 22.

Cap. XV.

By what perſons, and for what purpoſes tanned leather may be bought and engroſſed.

Where by the couetouſneſſe of diuers greedy perſons, regrating and engroſſing all kindes of tanned leather into their hands, and ſelling the ſame againe at exceſſiue prices to Sadlers, Girdlers, Cordwainers, and ſuch other Artificers, and handicrafts men, as make wares of tanned leather, the Kings louing ſubiects are inforced to buy the ſaid wares at unreaſonable prices: For remedy and reformation wherof, Be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from and after the firſt day of May next comming no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree or condition ſoeuer he or they be, ſhall buy or ingroſſe or cauſe to be bought or ingroſſed, any kind of tanned leather, to the entent to ſel the ſame againe, upon paine to forfeit the ſaid leather ſo bought, or the iuſt price thereof. The one moity of which forfeiture, ſhalbe to the King our ſoueraigne Lord, and the other moity to him or them that ſhall ſeaſe or ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of record, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, protection or iniunction ſhall bee admitted or allowed for the defendant.

The penalty for buying of taned lether to the intent to ſell the ſame againe.

Sadlers &c may buy leather, &c. Rep. 1.M.8.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all Sadlers, Girdlers, Cordwainers and all other Artificers, ſuch as make males, bougets, leather pots, tankerds, barhides or any other wares of Leather, ſhall or may buy all ſuch kinde of tanned leather, as is or ſhall be neceſſary for their occupying, to bee wrought and made by them or by their ſeruants, in or about their ſaid Wares: Any thing before mentioned in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Artificers may ſel their wombs, ſhreds & neckes.

Prouided alſo, that euery Girdler, and other Artificer before mentioned in this Act, may at his free will and pleaſure ſell their neckes, wombes and ſhreds of tanned Leather (ſuch as they or any of them cannot occupy about the wares they vſe to make) to any perſon or perſons, without incurring any forfeit, paine or penalty before expreſſed in this Act: any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Buying of ſo much tanned leather as the party hath licence to tranſport.

Prouided alſo, and bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall bee lawfull to or for euery perſon or perſons, which now haue or hereafter ſhall haue the Kings Maieſties ſpeciall licence or licences, to tranſport, carry or conuey ouer the Sea, any kinde of tanned Leather, to buy for the furniture of their ſaid licence or licences, in open Faire or Market, ſuch and ſo much Tanned Leather, as hee or they bee or ſhall bee licenced to tranſport, carry or conueigh. So that the ſame licence or licences, be preſented and ſhewed vnto the chiefe Officer or Officers, that now haue, or hereafter ſhall haue, the gouernance of any City, Towne, Faire or Market, where as the ſaid Leather or any part thereof ſhall be bought. And ſo that the ſaid Officer or Officers, ſeeing the ſame licence to be good and perfect, doe iuſtly and truly write vpon the backſide of euery ſuch licence or licences, how much tanned leather he or they ſhal there haue bought, and the certaine day, time and place of buying the ſame, that thereby it may manifeſtly appeare, how and when euery ſuch licence and licences be or ſhalbe ſatiſfied: any thing in this act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No perſon ſhall tranſport ſhoos, bootes, &c.

And be it further enacted by the authority abouesaid, that after the ſaid firſt day of May next comming, no perſon or perſons, ſhall ſhip or cauſe to be ſhipped (to the intent to carry, tranſport, or conuey ouer the Seas, as merchandiſe to be ſold or exchanged there) any ſhooes, boots, buſkins, ſtertups or ſlippers, vpon paine to forfeit all and euery ſuch ſhooes, bootes, buſkins, ſtertups, or ſlippers, ſo ſhipped contrary to the true meaning of this Act, or the value of the ſame: the one moity of the ſaid forfeiture to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moity to him or them that ſhal ſeaſe or ſue for the ſame, in any of the Kings maieſties Courts of record, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe: wherein no wager of Law, eſſoine, protection or iniunction ſhall be admitted or allowed for the defendant.

Rep. 5.El. 8.& 1.Iac. 22.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this act, ne any thing therin conteined ſhal not in any wiſe extend to be preiudiciall or hurtfull to any perſon or perſons being the Kings ſubiects, for tranſporting or carrying ouer the ſeas vnto Calice or the Marches of the ſame, and vnto the Iſle of Man, ſo much or as many of the aforeſaid made wares (as bootes, buſkins, ſtertups and ſlippers heretofore recited) as ſhall bee neceſſary and conuenient for the wearing and furniture of the Kings Subiects in them or any of them: any thing in this laſt Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

No cutter of lether in London ſhall curry it in his houſe.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no Sadler, Girdler, cordwainer nor other Artificer dwelling within the City of London and the Suburbes of the ſame, which ſhall cut the ſame tanned Leather (as is aforeſaid, to the intent to make wares thereof.) ſhall curry or dreſſe any of the aforeſaid tanned Leather, in his or their owne houſe or houſes, or by his or their ſeruant or ſeruants, vpon pain of forfeiture of all and euery the ſaid tanned lether ſo to bee curried. The one moity of which forfeiture ſhall bee to our Soueraine Lord the King, and the other moity to the party that will ſue for the ſame, in any of the Kings Courts of record by bill, plaint, action or information, wherein no wager of Law, eſſoine, protection or iniunction ſhall be admitted or allowed for the defendant. Cap. XVI.

The penalty for buying or ſelling of ſome ſort of offices.

FOr the auoyding of corruption which may hereafter happen to be in the Officers and Miniſters, in thoſe Courts, places or roomes, wherein there is requiſit to be had, the true adminiſtration of iuſtice or ſeruices of truſt, and to the intent that perſons, worthy and meet to bee aduanced to the place where iuſtice is to bee miniſtred or any ſeruice of truſt executed ſhould hereafter be preferred to the ſame and no other.

Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame: That if any perſon or perſons at any time hereafter bargaine or ſell any office or offices, or Deputation of any office or offices, or any part or parcell of any of them, or receiue, haue or take any money, fee, reward, or any other profit directly or indirectly, or take any promiſe, agreement, couenant, bond, or any aſſurance, to receiue or haue any money, fee, reward, or other profit directly or indirectly, for any office or offices, or for the deputation of any office or offices, or any part of any of them, or to the intent that any perſon ſhould haue, exerciſe, or enioy any office or offices, or the deputation of any office or offices, or any part of any of them, which office or offices, or any part or parcell of them, ſhall in any wiſe touch or concerne the adminiſtration or execution of Juſtice, or the receipt, comptrolment or payment of any of the Kings highneſſe Treaſure, Money, Rent, Reuenue, Account, Aulneage, Auditorſhip, or Surueying of any of the Kings Maieſties Honors, Caſtles, Manors, Lands, Tenements, Woods, or Hereditaments, or any the Kings Maieſties Cuſtomes, or any Adminiſtration or neceſſary attendance to bee had, done, or executed in any of the Kings Maieſties Cuſtome houſe or houſes, or the keeping of any the Kings Maieſties Townes, Caſtles, or Fortreſſes, being vſed, occupied or appointed for a place of ſtrength and defence, or which ſhall concerne or touch any Clerkeſhip to bee occupied in any manner of Court of Record, wherein Juſtice is to bee miniſtred: That then all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons that ſhall ſo bargaine or ſell any of the ſaid Office or Offices, deputation or deputations, or that ſhall take any money, fee, reward, or profit for any of the ſaid Office or Offices, Deputation, or Deputations of any of the ſaid Offices, or any part of any of them, or that ſhall take any promiſe, couenant, bond, or aſſurance for any money, reward, or profit to bee giuen for any of the ſaid Office or Offices, Deputation, or Deputations of any of the ſaid Office or Offices, or any part of any of them, ſhall not onely loſe and forfeit all his and their right, intereſt, and eſtate, which ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall then haue, of, in, or to any of the ſaid Office or Offices, Deputation, or Deputations, or any part of any of them, or of, in, or to the gift, or Nomination of any of the ſaid Office or Offices, Deputation, or Deputations, for the which Office or Offices, or for the Deputation or Deputations of which Office or Offices, or for any part of any of them, any ſuch perſon or perſons, ſhall ſo make any bargaine or ſale, or take, or receiue any ſumme of money, fee, reward or profit, or any promiſe, couenant, or aſſurance to haue or receiue any fee, reward, money, or profit: But alſo that all and euery ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſhall giue or pay any ſumme of money, reward, or fee, or ſhall make any promiſe, agreement, bond, or aſſurance for any of the ſaid Offices, or for the Deputation or Deputations of any of the ſaid Office or Offices, or any part of any of them, ſhall immediately by, and vpon the ſame fee, money, or reward giuen or paid, or vpon any ſuch promiſe, couenant, bond, or agreement, had or made, for any fee, ſumme of money, or reward to bee paid, as is aforeſaid, bee adiudged a diſabled perſon in the law to all intents and purpoſes, to haue, occupy, or enioy the ſaid Office or Offices, Deputation or Deputations, or any part of any of them, for the which ſuch perſon or perſons, ſhall ſo giue or pay any ſumme of money, fee, or reward, or make any promiſe, couenant, bond or other aſſurance, to giue, or pay any ſumme of money, fee, or reward.

The penalty for buying or ſelling of ſome ſort of offices or deputations of offices.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery ſuch bargaines, ſales, promiſes, bonds agreements, couenants, and aſſurances, as be before ſpecified, ſhalbe void, to and againſt him and them, by whom any ſuch bargaine, ſale, bond, promiſe, couenant, or aſſurance ſhal be had, or made.

The bargaines and aſſurances ſhalbe void.

Prouided alway that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to any office or offices whereof any perſon or perſons is or ſhalbe ſeiſed of any eſtate of inheritance nor to any office of Parkerſhip, or of the keeping of any parke, houſe, manor, garden, chaſe, or foreſt, or to any of them: any thing in this Act heretofore mentioned to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

To what offices this ſtatute ſhal not extend.

Prouided alſo, that if any perſon or perſons, doe hereafter offend in any thing contrary to the tenour and effect of this Act, yet that notwithſtanding all iudgements giuen, and all other Act, and Acts, executed or done, by any ſuch perſon or perſons, ſo offending by authority, or colour of the Office or Deputation, which ought to bee forfeited, or not occupied, or not enioyed by the perſon, ſo offending as is aforeſaid, after the ſaid offence ſo by ſuch perſon committed or done, and before ſuch perſon ſo offending, for the ſame offence bee remoued from the exerciſe, adminiſtration, and occupation of the ſaid Office, or Deputation, ſhall bee and remaine good and ſufficient in law, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, in ſuch like manner and forme as the ſame ſhould or ought to haue remained and beene, if this Act had neuer been had or made.

Acts done by an officer remoueable ſhall be good.

Prouided alſo, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to any bargaine, ſale, gift, graunt, nomination, bond, couenant, promiſe, agreement, or aſſurance, whatſoeuer it be of, or for any the Office or Offices, Deputation, or Deputations aforeſaid, or any part of any of them, had, made, done, concluded, or agreed before the firſt day of March next comming, but that the ſame bargaine, ſale, gift, grant, nomination, bond, couenant, promiſe, agreement, or aſſurance, had, made, concluded or agreed before the ſaid firſt day of March, ſhall alwayes remaine, continue, and bee in ſuch force, ſtrength, and effect, as if this Act

Gaſcoine or Guian wines, or Tholouſe woad may be brought into this Realme, by any other ſhips, as well as Engliſh.

4.H.7.10.

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the thirtéenth day of January, in the fourth yéere of the raigne of the famous Prince of worthy memory, King Henry the ſeuenth after the conqueſt, grandfather to our now moſt gracious, and naturall Soueraigne Liege Lord, it was amongſt other things ordeined, ſtabliſhed, and enacted, that no manner of perſon, of what degrée, or condition that he were, ſhould conuey, or bring into this realm, Ireland, Wales, Calice, or the Marches thereof, or Barwike, from the feaſt of the Natiuity of S. Iohn Baptiſt, that after that was in the yéere of our Lord God, one thouſand foure hundred and ninety, any manner wines growing of the duchy of Guyen, or Gaſcoine, or Woad, called Tholouſe Woad but ſhould be conueyed, auentured, and brought in ſhip or ſhips, whereof the ſaid late King, or ſome of his ſubiects of this realme of England, Ireland, Wales, Calice, or Barwike, were owners, poſſeſſors, and proprietaries, and the Maſter vnder God, and the Mariners of the ſame ſhip or ſhips, Engliſh, Iriſh, Welch, or men of Barwicke, or men of Calice, or of the Marches of the ſame, for the more party, vpon paine to forfeit the ſame wines, or Woad ſo brought, contrary to the ſaid Act, as in the ſaid Act more at large it doth and may appeare.

The reaſons of the making of the ſtatute of 4.H.7.10. and the contrary euents thereof.

The which Act was ſuppoſed to bee made for the maintenance of the Nauy of this Realme. And alſo to the intent, and vpon good hope and truſt, to haue had the ſame Wines, and Woad at more eaſie prices than before they had béene, the experience whereof hath euer ſithence (and now of late moſt of all) appeared to the contrary, for that the ſaid Wines, and Woad, be daily ſold at ſuch exceſſiue prices, as hath not before béen ſéene within this realme, and the nauy of the realme thereby neuer the better maintained.

An alteration of the Stat. of 4.H.7.10. touching bringing into this realme of wine and woad. Alt.5.El.5.

In conſideration whereof be it enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from the firſt day of February next comming after the Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, vnto the firſt day of October then following, and ſo yéerely, and from yéere to yéere, beginning at, and betwéen the firſt day of February, and the firſt day of October, it ſhall and may be lawfull to all and euery perſon and perſons, being of the parts or Countries in amity with our ſoueraigne Lord the King, to conuey or bring into this realme, Ireland, Wales Calice, or the Marches of the ſame, or Barwicke, any manner of Wines, of the growing of the duchy of Guien, or Gaſcoine, or of any other part of France, or Tholouſe Woad, or any of them in whatſoeuer ſhip or ſhips, craper, or crapers, bote or botes, or by any other meane, whoſoeuer bee, or ſhall bee thereof owner, poſſeſſor or proprietary, being of the parts or countries in amity of our ſoueraigne Lord, or whoſoeuer be therof Maſter, Mariner or Mariners in the ſame, without any forfeiture or penalty thereof to bee had. CAP. XIX.

The penalty for exchanging of Gold and Siluer.

St.25.Ed.3.12.

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the fiue and twentieth yeere of the reigne of King Edward the third, it was accorded, that it ſhould be lawfull for euery man to exchange gold for ſiluer, or ſiluer for gold, or for gold and ſiluer, ſo that no man did hold, the ſame as exchanged, nor take no profit for making of ſuch exchange, vpon paine of forfeiture of the money ſo exchanged, except the Kings Exchangers, which take profit of ſuch exchange, according to an ordinance before that time made. Which Statute notwithſtanding, diuers couetous perſons of their owne authorities haue of late taken vpon them to make exchanges, as well of coyned gold, as of coyned ſiluer, receiuing and paying therefore more in value than hath beene declared by the Kings Proclamation to be currant for, within his Realme, and other his Dominions, to the great hinderance of the Common wealth of this Realme.

The penalty for giuing or receiuing for money more than it is currant.

Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, by the aſſent of the Lords, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons, after the firſt day of Aprill next comming, exchange any coyned gold, coyned ſiluer or money, giuing, receiuing, or paying any more in value, benefit, profit, or aduantage for it, than the ſame is or ſhall be declared by the Kings Maieſties Proclamation to be currant for, within this his Highneſſe Realme, and other his Dominions. That then all the ſaid coyned gold, ſiluer, and money ſo exchanged, and euery part and parcell thereof ſhall be forfeit, and the parties ſo offending, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole yeere, and make fine at the Kings pleaſure. The one moity of the ſaid gold, ſiluer, or coyne ſo forfeited, to bee to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other moity to be to the party that ſeiſeth the ſame, or will ſue for it by Bill, Plaint, Originall, Action of debt, Information, or otherwiſe, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, in which ſuit no eſſoine, protection or wager of law ſhall lie, be allowed, or admitted.

CAP. XX.

The Statute of 37.H.8.9. repealed. No perſon by any meanes ſhall lend or forbeare any ſumme of money for any manner of vſurie, or encreaſe, to be receiued or hoped for, aboue the ſumme lent, vpon paine to forfeit the ſumme lent, and the increaſe, impriſonment, and fine at the Kings pleaſure. CAP. XXI.

No Tinker, Pedler, or petit Chapman ſhall wander about from the Towne where he dwelleth, or exerciſe the trade of Tinker, but ſuch as ſhall be licenced by two Iuſtices of Peace, or more, vnder their hands and ſeales, vpon paine of foureteene dayes impriſonment. REP. 1. Jac. 25.

CAP. XXII.

None ſhall occupy any Gig mill in the workemanſhip of Woollen Clothes.

Foraſmuch as true Drapery of Woollen Cloth is to be commended as well in forreine Realmes, as in this Realme of England, and all wayes and meanes vſed to the contrary are to be eſchewed and taken away: And for as much as in many parts of this Realme is newly and lately deuiſed, erected, builded, and vſed certaine Milles, called Gig Milles, for the perching and burling of cloth, by reaſon whereof the true Drapery of this Realme is wonderfully empaired, and the Cloth thereof deceitfully made, by reaſon of the vſing of the ſaid Gig Milles: For the remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That no manner of perſon or perſons, after the laſt day of May next comming, ſhall vſe or occupy any of the ſaid Gig Mils, for the working of any woollen cloth, or clothes made or to be made within this Realme, vpon paine of forfeiture, for euery cloth ſo wrought in, or by any of the ſaid Mils, called Gig Mils fiue pound. The moity of all and euery ſuch forfeiture, and forfeitures, penalty and penalties, to be to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the King, and his heires, and the other moity to the vſe of him that ſhall ſue for the ſame, in any of the Kings Courts, be it by Writ, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein the Defendant ſhall not be admitted to wage his Law, nor any Protection, Eſſoine, or Iniunction ſhall be to him allowed.

The penalty for vſing of a Gig mill in working of woollen cloth.

CAP. XXIII.

What ſtuffe ſhall be put in Featherbeds, Bolſters, Pillowes, Quilts, Mattreſſes, and Cuſhions.

What ſtuffe ſhall be put in Featherbeds, Bolſters, Pillowes.

FOr the auoiding the great deceit vſed, and practiſed in ſtuffing of Featherbeds, Bolſters, Pillowes, Mattreſſes, Cuſhions, and Quilts: Be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, that from, and after the laſt day of Iune next comming, no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, ſhall make (to the intent to ſell, or offer to be ſold) any Featherbed, Bolſter, or Pillow, except the ſame be ſtuffed with dry pulled Feathers, or cleane Downe only, without mingling of ſcalded feathers, Fendowne, Thiſtledowne, Sand, Lyme, Grauell, vnlawfull or corrupt ſtuffe, haire, or any other, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch Featherbeds, Bolſters, and Pillowes, and euery of them ſo offered to be ſold, or the value thereof.

What ſtuffe ſhall be put in Quilts, Mattreſſes, and Cuſhions.

And be it further enacted by the ſame authority, that from, and after the ſaid day, no perſon or perſons, ſhall make (to the intent to ſell or offer, or put to ſale) any Quilt, Mattreſſe, or Cuſhions, which ſhall be ſtuffed with any other ſtuffe, than feathers, wooll, or flockes alone, vpon paine of forfeiture of all, and euery ſuch Quilts, Mattreſſes, or Cuſhions, ſo ſold or offered to be ſold, or the value thereof.

The moity of all which forfeitures ſhall be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity thereof to any ſuch perſons as will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, or in any other Court, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection, ſhall be allowed for the defendant, or defendants. 11. CAP. XXIIII.

Who may make Felts. Hats, &c. at Norwich, and in Norffolke, and in what places there.

WHere the making of Hats, Dorneckes, and Couerlets, haue of late béene begun to be practiſed within the City of Norwich, in which City there be good and profitable ordinances and conſtitutions prouided and ordeined for the preſeruation and continuance of the good making of the ſame Hats, Dorneckes, and Couerlets, by reaſon whereof the young and idle people of the ſaid City, to a great number, haue béene and yet be well occupied, maintained, and ſet on worke. And foraſmuch as diuers euil, and couetous diſpoſed perſons, exerciſing the myſteries of making of Hats, and weauing of Couerlets, and Dorneckes within the ſaid City, and not being brought vp, or practiſed in the ſaid arts or myſteries, to the intent they might occupy and exerciſe the ſaid myſteries out of the ſaid City of Norwich, where no ſuch ordinances and conſtitutions be made, or prouided, haue withdrawen themſeluss from the ſaid City, into certaine Townes nigh about the ſame City, where they doe, and may occupy, and exerciſe the making of Hats, weauing of Couerlets, and Dornecks deceitfully, and inſufficiently, without controlment, to the vtter decay as well of the ſaid crafts and myſteries, as of the ſaid City, if remedy be not therein prouided.

Who only may make Hats, Couerlets, and Dorneckes in Norffolke and Norwich.

It may therefore be enacted by the Kings Maieſtie, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That no perſon by himſelfe, or by his ſeruant, or apprentice, ſhall from and after the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel next comming, make or worke any Felts, or thrummed Hats, or weaue or make any Couerlets, or Dorneckes, or occupy, vſe, or exerciſe the myſteries, or occupations of making of Felts, or thrummed Hats, or weauing of Dorneckes, and Couerlets, or any of them within the ſaid City of Norwich, or within the County of Norffolke, vnleſſe he or they that ſhall ſo make or worke any ſuch Felts, or Hats, or ſo occupy the occupation, or myſtery of making of Felts or Hats as aforeſaid, within the ſaid City, or County, be licenced and admitted ſo to doe by the Maior, Recorder, Steward, and two Iuſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City, or by foure of them, or that haue béene apprentice to the ſame occupation and myſtery of Felts, and Hats making by the ſpace of ſeuen-yéeres. And in like caſe vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſhall ſo make or weaue Dorneckes, or ſo occupy the occupation or myſtery of Dorneckes weauing within the ſaid City or County, be licenced, or admitted ſo to doe by the Maior, Recorder, Steward, and two Iuſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City, or by foure of them, or that haue béene apprentice to the ſaid myſtery and occupation of Dorneckes weauing, by the terme of ſeuen yéeres. And vnleſſe he or they that ſhall ſo make or weaue Couerlets, or ſo occupy the arts or myſtery of Couerlets weauing or making, be licenced and admitted ſo to doe, by the Maior, Recorder, Steward, and two Iuſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City, or by foure of them, or that haue béene apprentice to the occupation, and myſterie of Couerlets weauing, or making, by the ſpace or terms of ſeuen yéeres.

And

Hats, Dorneckes, couerlets, &c. ſhall be made only in a corporate or market Towne.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons, ſhall from henceforth make any Felts or Hats, or weaue, or make any Dorneckes, or Couerlets, as aforeſaid, or occupy, exerciſe or vſe the occupation, arts or myſteries of making of Hats or Felts, or weauing or making of Dorneckes, or Couerlets, or any of them, as aforeſaid, in any place out of the ſaid City of Norwich, within the ſaid County of Norffolke, but onely in a corporate or market Towne, vpon paine of forfeiting, as well of the Felts, Hats, Dorneckes, and Couerlets, and euery of them, which ſhall be made, wrought or wouen contrary to the forme, effect, and tenor of this Act, or of any part or clauſe thereof, as alſo ten ſhillings for euery halfe douſin of the ſaid Felts or Hats, and of thrée ſhillings foure pence for euery Couerlet, and of ſix ſhillings eight pence for euery ſix yards of Dorneckes, ſo as is aforſaid to be made, wouen or wrought contrary to this Act, the one halfe of which forfeitures to be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe thereof to the perſon or perſons that ſhal, or will ſeiſe the ſame, or that will, or ſhall ſue for the ſame, or for any part thereof, in the Kings Court of the Guild hall, within the ſaid City of Norwich, or in any other of the Kings Courts of Record, within this Realme of England, by action of detinue, debt, plaint, bill, information, or otherwiſe, in which ſaid action, or actions, ſuit, bill, plaint, or information, no eſſoine, wager of Law, protection, or forreine plea to the iuriſdiction of the Court, ſhall be admitted or allowed.

The Inhabitants of Pulham in Norff.

Prouided alway, that all and euery ſuch perſon or perſons, as doe now dwell, or hereafter ſhall dwell, and exerciſe the myſtery of Dorneckes and Couerlets making, within the Towne or Pariſh of Pulham, in the ſaid County of Norffolke, ſhall and may occupy, and exerciſe the making of Dorneckes, and Couerlets within the ſaid Towne of Pulham, as they haue heretofore vſed to doe: Any thing in this Act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The penalty for an Officer to take money for admitting one to occupy.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if the Maior, Recorder, Steward, or Iuſtices of Peace of the ſaid City, for the time being, or any of them, ſhall take any ſumme of money, or reward for admitting of any perſon to occupy, or vſe any of the arts, or myſteries aforeſaid, that for euery ſuch time, and euery ſuch caſe, the perſon ſo offending, ſhall loſe and forfeit fiue pound, the one halfe of which forfeiture, to be to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and the other halfe to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame, as is aforeſaid.

CAP. XXV.

None ſhall ſell Ale or Beere without licence, and they ſhall be bound by Recogniſance.

FOraſmuch as intolerable hurts, and troubles to the Common wealth of this Realme, daily doe grow and increaſe through ſuch abuſes and diſorders, as are had and vſed in common Alehouſes, and other houſes called tipling houſes: It is therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the Iuſtices of Peace within euery Shire, City, Borough, Towne corporate, franchiſe, or liberty within this Realme, or two of them at the leaſt, (whereof one of them to be of the Quorum) ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, within euery Shire, City, Borough, or Towne corporat, franchiſe, and liberty where they be Iuſtices of Peace, to remoue, diſcharge, and put away common ſelling of Ale and Béere, in the ſaid common Alehouſes, and tipling houſes, in ſuch Towne or Townes and places, where they ſhall thinke méet and conuenient. And that none after the firſt day of May next comming, ſhall be admitted or ſuffered to kéepe any common Alehouſe, or tipling houſe, but ſuch as ſhall be thereunto admitted and allowed in the open Seſſions of the Peace, or elſe by two Iuſtices of the peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum. And that the ſaid Iuſtices of the peace, or two of them (whereof the one to be of the Quorum) ſhall take bond and ſurety, from time to time, by Recogniſance of ſuch as ſhall be admitted, and allowed hereafter to kéepe any common Alehouſe, or tipling houſe, as well for, and againſt the vſing of vnlawfull games, as alſo for the vſing and maintenance of góod order and rule, to be had and vſed within the ſame, as by their diſcretion ſhall be thought neceſſary, and conuenient: for making of euery which Recogniſance, the party or parties that ſhall be bound, ſhall pay but twelue pence.

The Iuſtices of Peace may diſcharge common ſelling of Ale and Beere.

Recog. with ſurety by thoſe which do keepe Alehouſe.

Twelue pence for making the Recogn.

Recogn. muſt be certified at the next quarter Seſſions.

And the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall certifie the ſame Recogniſance at the next quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be holden within the ſame Shire, City, Borough, Towne corporate, franchiſe, or liberty where ſuch Alehouſe or tipling houſe ſhall be. The ſame recogniſance there to remaine of Record before the Iuſtices of Peace of that Shire, City, Borough, Towne corporate, franchiſe or liberty, vpon paine of forfeiture to the King for euery ſuch recogniſance taken and not certified, thrée pound ſix ſhillings eight pence.

Inquiry of thoſe which haue forfeited their Recogniſance.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Iuſtices of peace of euery Shire, City, Borough, Towne corporate, franchiſe, & liberty, where ſuch Recogniſance ſhall be taken, ſhall haue power and authority by this Act, in their quarter Seſſions of the Peace, by preſentment, information, or otherwiſe by their diſcretion, to inquire of all ſuch perſons as ſhall be admitted and allowed to keepe any Alehouſe or tipling houſe, and that be bound by Recogniſance as is aboueſaid, if they or any of them haue done any Act or Acts, whereby they or any of them haue forfeited the ſame Recogniſance. And the ſaid Iuſtices of euery Shire, and places where they be Iuſtices, ſhall vpon euery ſuch preſentment, or information, award Proceſſe againſt euery ſuch perſon ſo preſented, or complained vpon before them, to ſhew why he ſhould not forfeit his Recogniſance, and ſhall haue power and authority by this act, to heare and to determine the ſame by all ſuch wayes and meanes, as by their diſcretion ſhall be thought good.

The puniſhment of thoſe of which contrary to the commandement of the Iuſtices doe keepe Alehouſe. 3.Car. 3.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, other than ſuch as ſhall be hereafter admitted and allowed by the ſaid Iuſtices, ſhall after the ſaid firſt day of May, obſtinately, and vpon his owne authority take vpon him or them to keepe a common Alehouſe, or tipling houſe, or ſhall contrary to the commandement of the ſaid Iuſtices, or two of them, vſe commonly ſelling of Ale and Beere: that then the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, or two of them (whereof one to be of the Quorum) ſhall for euery ſuch offence, commit euery ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending to the common Gaole within the ſaid Shire, City, Borough, Towne corporate, Franchiſe, or Liberty, there to remaine without baile or mainepriſe, by the ſpace of three dayes. And before his or their deliuerance, the ſaid Iuſtice ſhall take Recogniſance of him or them ſo committed, with two ſureties, that he or they ſhall not keepe any common Alehouſe, tipling houſe, or vſe commonly ſelling of Ale or Beere, as by the diſcretion of the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall be ſeene conuenient.

Certificate of the Recog. and offence at the quarter Seſſions.

The fine of thoſe which keepe Alehouſe without licence.

And the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall make certificate of euery ſuch Recogniſance, and offence, at the next quarter Seſſions that ſhall be holden within the ſame Shire, City, Borough, Towne corporate, franchiſe or liberty, where the ſame ſhall be committed or done. Which certificate ſhall be a ſufficient conuiction in the law, of the ſame offence. And the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace vpon the ſaid certificate made, ſhall in open Seſſions aſſeſſe the fine for euery ſuch offence at twenty ſhillings.

A Prouiſo for Townes where faires be kept.

Prouided alway, that in ſuch Townes and places where any Faire or Faires ſhalbe kept, that for the time only of the ſame Faire or Faires, it ſhall be lawfull for euery perſon and perſons, to vſe common ſelling of Ale or Beere in boothes, or other places there, for the releefe of the Kings Subiects that ſhall repaire to the ſame, in ſuch manner and ſort as hath beene vſed and done in time paſſed. This act, or any thing therein contrary, notwithſtanding. 1.Iac.9. 4.Iac.4. 11.H.7.2. 3.Car.3.

CAP. XXVI.

Writs vpon Exigents and Proclamations ſhall be currant in Lancaſter.

WHere the County of Lancaſter is, and of long time hath beene, one ancient County Palatine of it ſelfe, in which County the Kings Writ hath not, nor yet doth not run, ſo that the Writ of Proclamation awarded vpon any Exigend, againſt any perſon or perſons, inhabiting within the ſame County, in any action wherein Proceſſe of outlawry doth lie, according to the Statute made in the ſixth yeere of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord of famous memory, King Henry the eight, cannot be directed to the Sheriffe of the ſaid County Palatine, but vnto the Sheriffe of the County next adioyning vnto the ſaid County Palatine, ſo that the party dwelling within the ſaid County Palatine, againſt whom any ſuch Exigend, and Proclamation hath beene, or ſhall be awarded, hath not had, nor hereafter can haue any knowlegde of the ſame ſuit or Proceſſe, by reaſon whereof, many perſons inhabiting within the ſaid County Palatine, without knowledge haue beene outlawed, and hereafter be in like manner like to be outlawed, to their vtter vndoings, if ſome ſpeedy remedy be not the ſooner prouided.

6.H.8.4.

A Proclamation vpon an Exigend awarded againſt any perſon dwelling in the County of Lancaſter.

Be it therefore, and for diuers other good conſiderations enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the King our Soueraigne Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that if, & whenſoeuer any Writ of Exigend, at any time after the firſt day of April next comming, ſhalbe awarded at the ſuit of the King, his heires or ſucceſſors, Kings of this Realme, or at the ſuit or ſuits of any other perſon or perſons, plaintife or plaintifes in any action, or ſuit in any of the Courts of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, Kings of this Realme, commonly called the Kings Bench, and the Common place, againſt any perſon or perſons, dwelling within the ſaid County Palatine: that then immediatly vpon the awarding of euery ſuch Exigend, the Iuſtice or Iuſtices, before whom any ſuch Writ of Exigend vpon ſuch ſuit or action ſhall be ſued, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, to award one Writ of Proclamation, (according to the tenour and effect of Writs of Proclamation awarded vpon Exigends, and commonly directed out of any of the ſaid Courts into London, or into any other Shires of this Realme againſt any perſon, or perſons dwelling in other Shire or Shires of this Realme where the Kings Writs doth run, according to the order and forme of the ſaid Statute, made in the ſixth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King) to be directed to the Sheriffe of the ſaid County

Palatine of Lancaſter, where it ſhall happen the ſaid defendant againſt whom any ſuch action ſhall be ſued, as is aforeſaid, to be dwelling, and not to the Sheriffe of any other Shire next adioyning to the ſaid County Palatine, any law, cuſtome, or vſage heretofore vſed to the contrary notwithſtanding. And that euery ſuch Writ of Proclamation ſo to be hereafter awarded to the Sheriffe of the ſaid County Palatine, ſhall haue the ſame Teſte and day of returne, as the Exigends, whereupon euery ſuch Writ of Proclamation ſhall be awarded, ſhall haue.

And that euery ſuch Sheriffe of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, to whom any ſuch Writ and Writs of Proclamation ſhal be directed, ſhall make Proclamations of the ſaid Writ and Writs of Proclamation, according to the tenour of the ſame, and ſhall make true returnes of the ſame, in ſuch Court and Courts, and before ſuch Iuſtices as the tenour of the ſame Writ and Writs of Proclamations, ſhall require and demand. And that all outlawries hereafter to be promulged, or pronounced againſt any perſon or perſons, vpon any ſuch exigend or exigends awarded againſt any perſon or perſons, dwelling in the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, and no Writ of Proclamations awarded in forme aboueſaid, to the Sheriffe of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, where the party defendant ſhall be, as is aforeſaid dwelling, or not returned, to be cleerely void and of none effect nor force in the law.

The Sheriffe of the County of Lancaſter ſhall make Proclamation according to the tenour of his Writ.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery Sheriffe of the ſaid County Palatine for the time being, ſhall haue in euery of the ſaid Courts of the Kings Bench, and of the common place, one ſufficient Deputy at the leaſt, to receiue all ſuch Writs of Proclamations, which ſhall be hereafter directed to euery ſuch Sheriffe of the ſaid County Palantine, for whom the ſame Deputy or Deputies ſhal be appointed, in like manner and forme, and vpon like paines as by the former Statutes and Lawes of this Realme, other Sheriffes of other Shires or Counties within this Realme of England, be bounden to haue in either of the ſaid Courts. And that all ſuch Writs of Proclamations aforeſaid, ſhall be deliuered vnto euery ſuch Deputy or Deputies of Record in the ſame Courts, and either of them, and alſo like fees ſhall be payed for making euery ſuch Writ of Proclamations, and for enrolling the ſame of Record, as is limited in the ſame Statute, made in the ſaid ſixth yeere of our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eighth.

The Sheriffe of Lancaſhire ſhal haue a Deputy in the K. Bench, and another in the common place.

Be it further enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſaid, that if any ſuch Writ or Writs of Proclamations hereafter to be directed to any Sheriffe of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, be deliuered vnto any of the Sheriffes of the ſaid County Palatine for the time being, or to his or their Deputy or Deputies, in manner and forme aforeſaid, and the ſame Sheriffe or Sheriffes, doe not make true returne of euery ſuch Writ and Writs of Proclamations into ſuch Court and Courts, out of which the ſaid Writ or Writs of Proclamations ſhall be awarded, that for euery ſuch default of non returne, euery ſuch Sheriffe for the time being, ſhall loſe and forfeit fiue pound, the one halfe whereof ſhall be to our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe thereof, to any ſuch perſon or perſons, as will ſue for the ſame, in one action of debt to be grounded vpon this Act, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, wherein none eſſoine, protection or wager of law ſhall be allowed or admitted.

The Sheriffes forfeiture for not returning of a Proclamation.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend, or be preiudiciall to the ſame County Palatine of Lancaſter, for, or concerning ſuch liberties, franchiſes, or priuileges as belong to the ſame, or to any Miniſters or Officers of the ſame County Palatine, otherwiſe or in any other manner than by the true meaning of this Act is before prouided and declared, any thing in this Act mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

This Statute ſhall not preiudice the liberties of the County of Lancaſter.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, dwelling within the ſaid County Palatine, after the aforeſaid firſt day of Aprill, ſhall be outlawed in any ſuch ſuit or action, as is aforeſaid, that then all Writs of ſpeciall Capias vtlagatum, ſingle Capias vtlagatum, non moleſtandum, and all other proceſſe, for, or againſt any perſon or perſons, ſo outlawed, ſhall and may from henceforth be directed, from time to time, to the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaſter, who ſhall make like Writs and proceſſe thereupon, and of like effect, ſealed with the ſeale of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, to be directed to the Sheriffe of the ſaid County Palatine for the time being, as heretofore hath beene vſed and accuſtomed in ſuch caſes. 1.Ed.6.10.

Proceſſe awarded againſt any perſon outlawed dwelling in the ſaid County Palatine.

ANNO SEPTIMO EDWARDI SEXTI.

ACTS made in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, the firſt day of March, in the ſeuenth yeare of the reigne of our moſt redoubted Soueraigne Lord, EDWARD the ſixth, by the grace of God, King of England, France, & Ireland, Defendor of the faith, and of the Church of England, and alſo of Ireland, in earth the ſupreme head: and there continued to the diſſolution of the ſame, being the laſt day of the ſaid moneth of March, as followeth.

Cap. I.

Certaine Officers accomptable to the King, ſhall be bound with ſureties for their true accompt and payment.

Foraſmuch as the Kings Maieſties Treaſurers, and generall and particular Receiuors and Bailiffes of his Honors, Caſtles, Lordſhips, Manors, Lands, and Tenements, Reuerſions, Poſſeſſions, and other his Hereditaments in England, Wales, and Calice, and the Marches of the ſame, or elſewhere within the Kings Dominions, haue not ſo iuſtly, ſpéedily, neither duly made yéerely payments of ſuch ſumme, and ſummes of money, as hath béene by them, and euery of them receiued of the Kings Maieſties reuenues, poſſeſſions, and profits into the Kings Maieſties Treaſury, according to their duties, but yéerely doe deteine and kéepe the ſame to their owne gaine, profit and lucre, contrary to all right, truth and equity, and to the manifeſt iniury, wrong, and hinderance, of, and to the King our Soueraigne Lord.

Euery Officer that now is accomptant to the King ſhall be bound for his true accompt and payment.

Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that euery Treaſurer, and generall and particular Receiuor, Collector, and Bailiffe, and other Miniſter accomptant which now is charged, or chargeable with, or for the receipt of any of the Kings Maieſties money, rents, or reuenues whatſoeuer, not being bound with ſuerty, or ſuerties by Obligation, Recogniſance, or otherwiſe, to our late Soueraigne Lord the King, or to our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, for, or concerning their office, or offices, before the twentieth day of December next comming, or at any time or times before the ſame twentieth day of December, if they, or any of them be reaſonably required, ſhall vpon paine of forfeiture of his office, be bound to the Kings Maieſtie by ſufficient writing obligatory in reaſonable ſumme, or ſummes of money: the ſame writing obligatory to be made with, or vpon condition, that the perſon which ſo ſhall be bounden, his heires, executors, adminiſtrators, deputy or deputies, or one of them, from time to time, ſhall yeeld a perfect and true accompt of all ſummes of money, and other things that the ſame Treaſurer, and generall and particular Receiuor, Collector, Bailiffe, or other miniſter accomptant, ſhall, may, or reaſonably might be charged with, concerning, or by reaſon of his or their office, or offices: And alſo ſhall make payments of the ſame ſummes of money, at ſuch dayes and times, and in ſuch manner and forme, as hereafter in this Act is expreſſed, and declared.

Euery Officer to the King accomptant hereafter to be named, ſhall be bound with ſuerties for his true accompt and payment.

And be it further enacted, that all, and euery perſon, and perſons hereafter to be named, aſſigned or appointed to be Treaſurer, or generall or particular Receiuor, Collector, or Bailiffe, or miniſter accomptant of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, ſhall before any their entry, executing, vſing, or exerciſing of his or their office or offices, whereunto he or they ſhall be ſo nominated or appointed, together with ſuerty or ſuerties, acknowledge and make ſufficient and lawfull bond, or bonds to the Kings Maieſtie in ſuch Court of Record, where the ſame Officer or Officers is, or ſhall be accomptable, and chargeable, that they, their heires, executors, adminiſtrators, aſſignes or deputies ſhall truly accompt, and pay all ſuch ſums of money, as ſhall come to their hands, or ſhall, may, or reaſonably might be charged with, concerning his or their office or offices to the Kings vſe within the circuit of their ſeuerall receipts and collections, at ſuch, or like dayes and times, and in ſuch manner and forme, as is aboueſaid, to be conteined in the conditions of euery of the ſaid bonds, vpon paine of loſſe and forfeiture of his or their office or offices, and of his and their Letters Patents of the ſame office or offices.

Receiuors precepts vnto accomptants to make payment of their collections due to the King at Eaſter.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery Receiuor of the Kings Maieſties honors, manors, lands, poſſeſſions, rents and reuenues for the time being, or his Deputy or Deputies, ſhall yéerely make his ſeuerall precepts, to all, and ſingular the Collectors, Miniſters, and Bailiffes accomptant within the circuit of his office, charging and commanding them on the Kings Maieſties behalfe by the ſame precept, to appeare before them perſonally, or by their ſufficient Deputy or Deputies, for whom they will anſwer, within the County where the ſame Offices, Bailiwikes, Receipts or Collections do lie, at a certaine day and place in the ſame precept to be limited, and to pay to the Kings Maieſties vſe ſuch ſummes of money as they ought to doe by reaſon of any of their ſaid offices, being due to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, at, or before the Feaſt of Eaſter, which they haue, or may by any lawfull or due meane, leuy or receiue within, or by reaſon of their ſaid offices, or collections. And that the ſame precepts ſhall be ſeuerally deliuered to euery of the ſaid Officers, Miniſters and Bailiffes accomptant, or to their Deputy or Deputies, or elſe be left at their dwelling houſes, or at the manor, lordſhip or place where their receipt, or collection is or ought to be, twelue dayes at the leaſt before the day of apparance to them giuen and prefixed in the ſame precept or precepts.

The penalty where an accomptant maketh default of apparance or payment.

And if any of the ſaid Miniſters, Collectors, or Bailiffes accomptant, vpon, or after any ſuch precept, or precepts at any time hereafter made by any ſuch Receiuor, and being deliuered or left in forme aforeſaid, doe make default at the ſame day and place aſſigned and appointed, in and by the ſaid precept or precepts, that then the ſame Collector, Miniſter, or Bailiffe accomptant ſo making default, and not appearing, as is aforeſaid, and being thereof duly and lawfully conuicted in the Court where the Reuenue is, or ſhall be anſwered, ſhall for the firſt offence loſe and forfeit to the King our Soueraigne Lord, his whole fee for that yeere, wherein he ſhall ſo make default, or the value thereof. And for non payment of the ſaid money due, and payable, at or before the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter, vnto our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, within, or by reaſon of his ſaid office, collection, or bailiwike, ſhall loſe and forfeit for the firſt offence of non payment, ſix pence of the pound, in the name of a paine, for euery moneth after the ſaid day of apparance, vntill the ſame money ſhall be by him, or his deputy payed to the hands of the ſaid Receiuor to the Kings Maieſties vſe.

The penalty, for the ſecond offence.

And after the firſt default of apparance made by any of the ſaid officers, and another like precept by the ſaid Receiuor be made, and deliuered, or left in forme aforeſaid, then the ſaid Officer, or Officers making againe default, and being thereof lawfully conuict, as is aforeſaid, for the ſecond default, and offence of non apparance, ſhal loſe and forfeit to the King our Soueraigne Lord his office and fee: And for the ſaid ſecond offence in the non payment of the ſaid money due, and payable, within and by reaſon of his office, collection, or bailiwike, at, or before the ſaid Feaſt of Eaſter, ſhall loſe and forfeit twelue pence of euery pound, in the name of a paine, for euery moneth after the ſaid laſt day of apparance, and default made, as is aforeſaid, vntill the ſame money ſhal be by him, or his deputy payed to the hands of the ſaid Receiuor, to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the King.

The Auditors precepts to accomptants to make payment of their collections due at Michaelmas.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Auditor and Auditors of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, of his Maieſties Honors, Manors, Lands, Poſſeſſions, Rents, and Reuenues, for the time being, or his, or their ſufficient Deputy, or Deputies ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, yeerely to make their precept, or precepts to all Miniſters, Collectors, and Bailiffes accomptant, commanding them on the behalfe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, to appeare and accompt before him, or them perſonally, or elſe by their ſufficient Deputy, or Deputies, at a place certaine within the County, where the ſame lands and poſſeſſions doe lie, at the Kings Maieſties Audite, to be holden there yeerely betweene the feaſt of Saint Michaell the Archangell, and the Natiuitie of our Lord God, of, and for all rents, reuenues, and profits due, and payable within, or by reaſon of their ſaid offices, collections, or bailiwikes, at, or before the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next before the ſame Audite, expreſſing in the ſame precept or precepts, the time and place when, and where the ſame Miniſters, Collectors, and Bailiffes accomptable, or their ſufficient Deputy, or Deputies for whom they will anſwer, ſhall appeare, the ſame precepts to be deliuered to the ſame Miniſters, Collectors, Bailiffes accomptant, or their Deputie or Deputies, or left at their dwelling houſes, or at the Manor, Lordſhip, or place where their Receipts or Collections is or ought to be, twelue dayes at the leaſt before the day of apparance to him or them prefixed in the ſame precept, or precepts. And if any Miniſter, Collector, or Bailiffe accomptant doe not appeare before the ſaid Auditor or Auditors, or his, or their Deputy or Deputies at the ſaid Audite, according to the ſaid precept, or elſe if he doe appeare, and refuſe to accompt for his ſaid receipt, collection, or bailiwike before the ſaid Auditor or Auditors, or his, or their Deputy or Deputies: that then the ſaid Miniſter, Collector, or Bailiffe accomptant ſo making default and not appearing, or ſo refuſing to accompt, as is aforeſaid, and being thereof duly and lawfully conuict in the Court where the Reuenue is, or ſhall be anſwerable, ſhall for his firſt offence loſe, and forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the King his whole fee for that yeere, wherein he ſhall ſo make default, or the value thereof: and for the non payment of the ſaid money due, and payable within his collection, office, or bailiwike, at, or before the ſame Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the King our Soueraigne Lord for his ſaid firſt offence ſix pence of euery pound, in the name of a paine, for euery moneth after the ſaid day of apparance, and default made, as is aforeſaid, vntill he, or his ſufficient Deputy or Deputies ſhal accompt before the ſaid Auditor or Auditors, or his, or their Deputy or Deputies for his ſaid collection, receipt, or Bailiwike. And alſo pay vnto the hands of the ſaid Receiuor or Receiuors, all, and euery of ſuch ſumme and ſummes of money, as ſhall be iuſtly found due by the ſaid accomptant before the ſaid Auditor, or Auditors, or his, or their Deputy or Deputies, to the Kings Maieſty vpon the foot, and determination of his accompt: And after the firſt default of apparance made before the ſaid Auditor or Auditors, or his, or their Deputy or Deputies by any of the ſaid Officers accomptant being ſo warned, as is aforeſaid: And after another like precept made, and deliuered, or left in forme aforeſaid: That then the ſaid Officer, or Officers that ſo ſhall make againe default of apparance, for the ſaid ſecond offence in making default in his apparance, as is aforeſaid, and being thereof duly and lawfully conuicted in the Court, where the reuenue of his ſaid office is, or ſhall be anſwerable, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the King our Soueraigne Lord his office and fee.

The penalty where an accomptant maketh default of apparance or payment.

The penalty for the ſecond offence.

And for the ſecond offence in the non payment of the ſaid money due, and payable with, and by reaſon of his receipt, collection, or bailiwike, at or before the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, ſhall loſe and forfeit to our Soueraigne Lord the King twelue pence of euery pound, in the name of a paine, for euery moneth after the ſaid laſt day of apparance, and default made, as is aforeſaid, vntill he, or his ſufficient Deputy or Deputies ſhall accompt before the ſaid Auditor or Auditors, or his or their Deputy or Deputies for the ſaid receipt, Collection, or Bailiwike. And alſo pay vnto the hands of the ſaid Receiuor or Receiuors, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, to the Kings vſe, all ſuch ſummes of money as ſhall be iuſtly found due by the ſaid accomptant vpon the foot, and determination of his ſaid accompt.

Within what times the Kings Receiuors ſhall make payment of the money by them receiued.

And further be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that all, and euery Receiuor and Receiuors of the Kings Maieſties Honors, Manors, Lands, Poſſeſſions, Rents, or Reuenues, ſhall make ready, and full payment yeerely to the Treaſurer, or generall Receiuor of the Court, where the ſaid Reuenue is, or ſhall be anſwerable, or otherwiſe, as he, or they are, or ſhall be appointed, and aſſigned by ſufficient warrant, of all ſuch ſummes of money, as he or they ſhall know to be due to our Soueraigne Lord the King, and can by any lawfull or due meane obtaine, get, haue, or receiue of the rents or reuenues of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, with, or by reaſon of their offices being due, at, or before the Feaſt of Eaſter by the twentieth day of Iune then next following, at the furtheſt. And alſo ſhall make like payment yeerely of all their like receipts of the Rents and Reuenues of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, that ſhall be due, at, or before the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, by the twentieth day of Ianuary then next following at the furtheſt, vpon paine of loſſe, and forfeiture for euery default at any of the ſaid daies, two pence of euery pound, for euery day that the ſaid money ſo by them or any of them ſhall be vnpayed.

When the Kings Receiuors ſhall accompt.

And alſo it is further enacted that all, and euery the ſaid Receiuor and Receiuors, or their Deputy or Deputies for whom they will anſwer, ſhall enter into their accompt yeerely in the Terme of Saint Hillary, and fully and cleerely finiſh the ſame accompt before the tenth day of March then next following, and make full and ready payment of the money that ſhall appeare to be due vpon the foot, and determination of the ſame accompt, before the twentieth day of the ſaid moneth of March, vpon paine of forfeiture to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King his offices and fees, and foure pence of the pound for euery day that they ſhall deteine and withhold the ſaid money, without making any payment thereof, as is aforeſaid.

The Kings Receiuors, Bailiffes, &c. may diſtraine for the arrerages of rent.

And further be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Receiuors, Collectors, and Bailiffes of any of the Kings Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, rents, or reuenues for lacke of payment, and leuying of their ſaid rents, iſſues, and reuenues within their offices, and charges, ſhall and may haue power and authority from henceforth by vertue of this Act to diſtraine for the ſame, and to vſe, and order the ſame diſtreſſes in ſuch ſort, and forme, as any Officer or Officers of the Kings Court of the Exchequer for leuying and lacke of payment of the Kings rents, and reuenues anſwerable in the ſame Court, heretofore haue lawfully done, and may lawfully vſe to doe, deliuering to the party diſtreined the ſurpluſage and ouerplus of the value of euery ſuch diſtreſſe, if any ſhall be, the Kings debts and duties being firſt payed, and the diſtreinant anſwered of reaſonable coſts.

Amercing of Sheriffes for not returning of writs touching the leuying of the Kings rents, &c.

And that the head and chiefe Officer, or Officers of euery of the Kings Courts of Reuenue, being of Record, or that ſhall be of Record, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this act to ſet and aſſeſſe reaſonable fines and amerciaments vpon any Sheriffe, or Sheriffes, for not returning or miſ-returning of any Writ to them directed, and deliuered out of any of the ſame Courts, touching or concerning the leuying, or anſwering of any of the ſaid iſſues, rents, or reuenues, or of any debt due to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King in ſuch ſort, and after ſuch manner and forme as now is, or heretofore hath beene lawfully vſed in the like, and ſuch other caſes in the Kings Highneſſe Court of the Exchequer.

Theſe accomptants vpon warning, ſhall accompt and make ready payment.

Be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all Treaſurers and Chamberlaines, and generall Receiuors of any of the Kings Graces Courts of Reuenue for the time being, and all Cuſtomers, and Collectors of Cuſtomes, or certaine and ſtalled ſubſidies within any Port, Hauen, or Creeke of this the Kings Realme of England, that now be, or hereafter ſhall be, within ten dayes next after notice to him or them giuen from the King, or ſix of his moſt honourable priuie Councell in writing ſigned with their hands, ſhall by themſelues, or their ſufficient Deputy, or Deputies, for whom they will anſwer, declare in writing, what ſummes of money then being due vnto our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, be at that time in his or their hands, or cuſtody, and ſhall make ready and full payment of all the ſaid ſummes of money, as then ſhall remaine in his or their hands or cuſtody, ouer and aboue the ordinary payments, and ſummes of money conteined, and expreſſed in ſufficient warrant, or warrants, reſting and remaining in his, or their Office, or Offices, and being in their full force, ſtrength, and effect, and not lawfully contermanded, nor reuoked to their knowledge, to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lord the King, at ſuch time, and in ſuch ſort, as he or they ſhall be commanded, and appointed by ſufficient warrant, vpon paine of forfeiture of his, or their Office, or Offices.

Within what time theſe accomptants ſhall yeerely accompt.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſame Treaſurers, Chamberlaines, and generall Receiuors by themſelues, or by their Deputy, or Deputies, for whom they will anſwer, ſhall yéerely before the twentieth day of Iune, make a perfect accompt of all ſuch money, or treaſure as hath come to their hands to the Kings vſe, yéerely, at, or before the twentieth day of March then next before the ſaid twentieth day of Iune, and ſhall make a perfect and whole declaration in writing, of the money remaining in euery of their hands, to the Kings Maieſtie, or to his Priuy Councell yéerely before the laſt day of Iune then next following, and make payment of the ſame at ſuch time, and in ſuch ſort, as he, or they ſhall be commanded, or appointed by ſufficient warrant, vpon paine of forfeiture of his, or their Office, or Offices.

The penalty of an accomptant taking more than is due for the payment of any penſion, &c.

fol.101.

And be it further enacted, that if any Treaſurer, Receiuor, or Miniſter accomptant, or their Deputy, or Deputies do take, or receiue of any perſon or perſons, any ſumme or ſummes of money, or other profit, of, and for the payment of any[a] fées, annuities, penſions, duties, or warrants, more, or otherwiſe than he or they may lawfully doe by former Lawes, and Statutes therein prouided: That then the ſaid Treaſurer, Receiuor, and Miniſter ſo offending ſhall forfeit, and loſe for euery peny, or peny worth ſo to be taken, or receiued ſix ſhillings eight pence to the party gréeued, to be recouered in any of the Kings Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, or Action of debt, in which ſuit no wager of Law, eſſoine, or protection ſhall be allowed.

The penalty if the Auditor refuſe or delay to take an accompt.

And be it alſo enacted, that if any Auditor or Auditors, or his or their Deputy, or Deputies which ought to take the accompt of any Treaſurer, Chamberlaine, Receiuor, or other Officer accomptable before him, or them, doe refuſe, or willingly protract and delay the taking of the ſame accompt, in ſuch wiſe, as it cannot be finiſhed within the time or times limited, and appointed by this Act for the taking and finiſhing thereof, that then euery Auditor ſo refuſing, or protracting, and delaying, as is aforeſaid, and being thereof duly and lawfully conuict in the Court where the Reuenue or charge of the ſame accompt is, or ſhall be anſwerable to the King, ſhall incur, forfeit and loſe ſuch like paine, loſſe, and forfeiture as the Treaſurer, Chamberlaine, Receiuor or other Officer aboueſaid, ſhall, and ought to doe by this Act, for not accompting of, and for their charges, and Office, or Offices. And thereby the ſame Treaſurer, Chamberlaine, Receiuor, and other Officer that ſhould accompt, and ſhall be refuſed, or ſhall be protracted, and delayed, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be diſcharged of any paine, loſſe, or forfeiture for not accompting, as is aboueſaid.

The copy of the accompt ſhal be deliuered to the accomptant.

And be it further enacted, that the duplicate, or copy of euery accompt that ſhall be made by any Treaſurer, or Receiuor, or by their Deputy or Deputies, in forme aforeſaid, within conuenient time after the finiſhing of the ſame accompt, and at the reaſonable requeſt, and coſts of ſuch accomptant, ſhall be deliuered to them, or any of them ſubſcribed with the hands of the Auditor or Auditors that ſhall take the ſame accompt, or of his, or their Deputy or Deputies, for whom he or they will anſwer, vpon paine that the ſame Auditor or Auditors, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the Kings Maieſtie ten pound for euery ſuch default.

Biſhops accompt and payment of tenths.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, nor any thing therein conteined ſhal in any wiſe extend to charge any Archbiſhops, or Biſhops of this Realme, or of any other the Kings Maieſties Dominions, or any of them at any time hereafter, to make any manner of bonds, or to make their accompt, and payment of the tenths ariſing, and growing within any of their Dioceſſe due, or to be due to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, otherwiſe, or in any other manner and forme, than they, or any of them heretofore haue béene charged, or accomptable, and chargeable by the Lawes, and Statutes of this Realme, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Reuenues of Calice.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, or any thing therein conteined ſhall not extend to cauſe the rents, profits and reuenues, riſing and growing to the Kings Maieſty within the Towne or Marches of Calice, to be anſwered or payed otherwiſe, or at any other dayes or times, than heretofore hath béene vſed, and accuſtomed, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Which officers ſhall not be chargeable by this Statute.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained ſhall in any wiſe extend to touch or charge any Sheriffe, Eſcheator, or Collector of any Diſmes, Quindiſmes, Beneuolences, Contributions, or Subſidies (Subſidies of Tonnage, and poundage only except) but that they, and euery of them ſhall, and may doe, and exerciſe their ſaid ſeuerall offices, and pay ſuch ſummes of money, as they, or any of them, be, or hereafter ſhall be chargd withall by their ſaid ſeuerall offices, in ſuch, and like ſort, manner and forme, as they, and euery of them haue vſually done, or ſhould, or ought to doe, if this Act had neuer beene had or made. This Act, or any thing therein conteined in any wiſe to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

Cap. II.

The Kings power to diſſolue or vnite certaine Courts erected by the late King.

27.H.8.27.

WHere in the ſeuen and twentieth yeere of the late King of famous memory King Henry the eight, Father to the Kings Maieſty that now is, there was ordeined, made, ſtabliſhed, and enacted by authority of Parliament, a certaine Court commonly called the Court of Augmentations of the Reuenues of the Kings Crowne. And where alſo in the two and thirtieth yeere of the ſaid late King there was made and erected by authority of Parliament, two ſeuerall Courts, the one commonly called the Court of the firſt Fruits and Tenths: and the other the Court of the Kings Wards: And where alſo in the three and thirtieth yeere of the ſaid late King, there was made, ſtabliſhed, and erected by authority of Parliament, one Court, commonly called the Court of the generall Surueyors of the Kings lands: And where there is one other Court, commonly called the Court of the Duchy of Lancaſter.

32.H.8.45.
32.H.8.46.
33.H.8.39.

The Courts of Augment. and generall Surueyors were diſſolued.

After which ſaid ſeuerall Courts ſo erected, as is aforeſaid, the ſaid late King did repeale, and diſſolue, extinguiſh, and determine, as well the ſaid Court of Augmentation of the Reuenues of the Kings Crowne, as alſo the ſaid Court of generall Surueyors of the Kings lands, and the officers of the ſaid late Courts of the Augmentations of the Kings Crowne, and generall Surueyors of the Kings lands did ſurrender their Patents and Offices into the ſaid late Kings hands.

A ſecond Court of Augmentations erected.

And after the ſaid late King did, by his Letters Patents erect one other Court, called the Court of Augmentation, and Reuenues of the Kings Crowne, and did, by the ſame his Letters Patents conſtitute, and appoint diuers Officers and Miniſters for the ſupplying thereof, as by the ſame Letters Patents more plainly and at large it may, and doth appeare.

Queſtion about the diſſolution of the firſt court of Augmentation by Let. Pat. only.

And for as much as ſince the erection of the ſaid Court of Augmentation, and Reuenues of the Kings Crowne, ſtabliſhed and erected by Letters Patents, as is aforeſaid, diuers ambiguities, and doubts haue riſen, and growen among ſuch as be learned in the Lawes of the Realme, whether the diſſoluing, extinguiſhing, and repealing of the ſaid late Courts erected by authority of Parliament, as is aforeſaid, might by the order of the Law be diſſolued, extinguiſhed, and repealed by Letters Patents, conſidering that the commencement of them were firſt had, and made by authority of Parliament, yea or no: Whereupon great inconueniences might enſue, as well to the Kings Maieſty, as to diuers of his Graces moſt louing and obedient Subiects, who haue had by exchange, purchaſe, gift, or otherwiſe, diuers manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments.

The K. Let. P. for the erection of the ſecond Court of Augmentations ſhall be good.

For remedie and declaration whereof, be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid Letters Patents ſo made by the ſaid late King, and all, and euery thing, and article therein conteined, ſhall be as good, auaileable, and effectuall in the Law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as though the ſame had beene made, and done by authority of Parliament.

The King may by his Letters Patents alter, change, or diſſolue any of the Courts aforeſaid, and erect any new.

And be it further enacted by authoritie aforeſaid, that the Kings Maieſty ſhall, or may at any time during his naturall life (which God long preſerue) by his Graces Letters Patents, vnder his great Seale of England, at his moſt gracious will and pleaſure, alter, change, vnite, tranſpoſe, diſſolue, or determine, all, or any of the ſaid Court or Courts, and to reduce the ſame Courts, or any of them into one, two, or more Court or Courts, or to vnite and annexe the ſaid Courts, or any two or more of them together, or to any other of his Maieſties Courts of Record: Or to erect any other new Court or Courts, as to his Highneſſe ſhall be thought moſt conuenient, and beſt, for the better, ſurer, and more ſpeedy anſwering of his yeerely Reuenues, caſualties, or profits now anſwerable in the ſaid Courts, or in any of them: And that all, and ſingular ſuch alterations, changings, vnitings, annexings, tranſpoſings, diſſoluings, or determinations of the ſaid Courts, or of any of them ſo to be altred, changed, vnited, annexed, tranſpoſed, diſſolued, or determined, or otherwiſe newly to be erected, as is aforeſaid, as concerning an order for the true payment of the reuenues, rents, iſſues, caſualties, and profits of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, as ſhall be ſet forth and declared in any ſuch Letters Patents, or writings, vnder his great Seale of England, hereafter to be made, ſet forth and declared, ſhall be of ſuch like, and of the ſame force, and ſtrength to all intents conſtructions, and purpoſes, as though the ſame were, or ſhould haue beene ſet forth, or declared by authority of Parliament, the ſaid ſeuerall erections, or any other thing heretofore had, or made to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that any thing conteined in the ſaid Letters Patents made by the ſaid late King, or in the Letters Patens hereafter to be made by the Kings Highneſſe that now is, concerning any paines, penalties, rules, or orders made, or to be made, for the leuying of the Kings Reuenues, Rents, Iſſues, Caſualties, or profits, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to charge any of the Kings Subiects in any other manner or forme, than they, or any of them ought lawfully to haue béene charged by the Lawes of the Realme, before the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, or by any ſtatute made, or to be made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

No Orders made for the leuying of the Kings debts ſhall be preiudiciall to any.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Letters Patents, made in the time of the ſaid late King, or any other Letters Patents hereafter to be made by the Kings Highneſſe that now is; or any thing, or matter conteined in this Act, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to giue any power or authority to the Chancellor, and generall Surueyors of the ſaid Court of the Augmentation, and Reuenues of the Kings Crowne, or to any Officer or Officers of the ſame Court, or to any other Court or Courts hereafter to be erected by the Kings Maieſtie, as is aforeſaid, or to any other Officer, or Officers to be appointed, in any of the ſame Courts, hereafter to be erected by the Kings Highneſſe, as is aforeſaid, to heare or determine any plea, matter or cauſe betwéene any of the Kings Subiects, but onely in ſuch caſe, where the Kings Highneſſe is only a méere and a ſole party: Sauing to all and euery perſon and perſons, and bodies politike and corporate, and to euery of them, ſuch offices of Stewardſhips, offices of Maſterſhips of any Game or Games, kéepers of foreſts, chaſes, parkes, houſes and caſtles, and the profits thereunto belonging, and all rents, annuities and fées, as they, or any of them haue, or ought to haue, if this Act had neuer béene had ne made.

The officers of theſe Courts ſhall heare and determine cauſes only where the King is a partie.

A ſauing of all mens offices in certaine caſes.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this Act, nor any thing therin conteined, ſhall in no wiſe extend, or be conſtrued to take away, extinct, or determine from any perſon or perſons, their heires, ſucceſſors or aſſignes, or from any of them, any fées, annuities, penſions, ſtipends, or annuall payments of any ſummes of money, which they, or any of them haue, or of right might, or ought lawfully to haue by any Letters Patents, or other ſufficient writing made before the ſix and twentieth day of March, in the ſeuenth yéere of the raigne of our Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, but that all and euery perſon and perſons, their heires, ſucceſſors, executors and aſſignes, and euery of them, which haue, or hereafter ſhall haue any fée, annuitie, ſtipend, penſion or annuall payment, of any ſumme or ſummes of money payable yéerely in any of the ſaid Courts, or by the hands of any Officer or Officers of any of the ſame Courts, ſhall, and may perceiue, take, and receiue the ſame, and ſhall yéerely thereof be payed of the Kings Treaſure at the dayes, and times compriſed in ſuch Letters Patents, or other writings in any of the ſaid Courts, where now the ſame is, or ought to be payable, as long as the ſaid Court ſhall remaine, and haue any being: And after in ſuch Court or Courts, as ſhall pleaſe the King newly to erect by the hands of the Officers of the ſame Court, and for default thereof in any of the Kings Courts, wherein ſufficient Reuenue ſhall be to anſwer the ſame of the Kings Treaſure there, by the hands of the Officers of the ſame Court, in ſuch like manner and forme, as the ſame perſon and perſons, their heires, executors, and aſſignes or any of them ſhould, and might haue done, or béene payed, in any other place or Court, if this Act had neuer béene had, or made, any thing in this Act conteined, or any other thing hereafter to be done, by reaſon, colour or authority of this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. Confirmation of certaine Letters Patents of bargaine and ſale made by K.H.8. ſince the fourth of February, Anno 27. of his raigne: and by K. Ed.6. ſince 28. Ianuar. An.1. of his raigne, notwithſtanding his minority.

WHereas in the Seſſion of Parliament holden vpon Prorogation at Weſtminſter, the two and twentieth day of Ianuary, in the foure and thirtieth yéere of the raigne of the late King of famous memory King Henry the eight, and there continued, kept vntill the twelfth day of May, in the fiue and thirtieth yéere of the raigne of the ſaid late King, amongſt diuers and ſundry, and many Statutes, there was then one Statute made for the confirmation of Letters Patents, notwithſtanding any miſnaming, miſpriſion, or miſrehearſall, or any other default conteined, or rehearſed in the ſame Act: Wherein it was prouided and enacted by the authority of the ſame Parliament, that all and ſingular ſuch Patentées, Grantées, and Donées, as at any time from the making of the ſame Statute, during ſeuen yéere then next following, ſhould fortune to haue, or obtaine any caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments of the gift, grant, ſale or exchange of the Kings Maieſtie, or of the only gift of the Kings Maieſty, of his moſt liberall diſpoſition, and not ſold, which at the day of the date of the Letters Patents thereof made, ſhould be of more and better yéerely value to the King in yéerely rent and ferme, than ſhould be contained, mentioned or ſpecified in any ſuch Letters Patents, 34.H.8.21.

A Bill ſhall be ſigned and ſealed by the Patentée of thoſe Lands, which the King ſhall after grant to him by his Bill ſigned.

By what meanes the King ſhall be ſatiſfied for the ouerplus of lands, by him ſold, exchanged or giuen.

and particulars thereof made by the Auditor or Auditors, and in ſuch bill or billes, as ſhould be ſigned and ſealed with the hand or hands of the Patentée, or Patentées thereof to be exhibited to the Kings Maieſty or his Officer or Officers, within whoſe Suruey the ſaid Manors, Lands, and Tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any part thereof ſhould be, or within any of them, which bill ſhould be ſigned, ſealed, had, and made, as is aforeſaid, before any bils, ſhould be thereof ſigned by the Kings Maieſty, that then euery of the ſaid Patentées, Grantées, and Donées, their Heires, Executors, and Adminiſtrators, within one yéere next after due proofe, and decrée thereof had and made in the Court, within whoſe Suruey, the ſame caſtels, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any parcell thereof then ſhould be, ſhould content, and pay vnto the King for the ſame ouerplus, and more value for the ſame manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, and other hereditaments to him ſold, or exchanged, after ſuch rate as the other lands and tenements were before to him ſold, or exchanged, and for the ouerplus, and more value of ſuch lands, and tenements as ſhould happen to be giuen by the Kings Maieſty, and not ſold, as is aboueſaid: The ſaid Patentée, his Heires, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, ſhould content and pay to the King, after the rate of twenty yéeres purchaſe: So that the ſame proofe, and decrée, were had and made, in forme aboueſaid, within ten yéeres next after the date of the ſaid Letters Patents, as by the Statute more at large it doth, and may appeare.

1. Ed. 6. 8.

A confirmation of Patents notwithſtanding miſnaming, miſrehearſall, or other default made by K. E. 6.

And alſo whereas in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter, the fourth day of Nouember, in the firſt yéere of the raigne of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, King Edward the ſixth, and from thence continued to the foure and twentieth day of December then next enſuing: That is to ſay, the firſt Seſſion of the ſame Parliament, amongſt diuers, and ſundry Statutes, there was then alſo one other Statute made for the confirmation of Letters patents, notwithſtanding any miſnaming, miſrehearſall, or any other default conteined, or rehearſed in the ſame Act: wherein it was alſo prouided, and enacted by the authority of ſame Parliament, that all, and ſingular ſuch Patentées, Grantées, and Donées, as at any time after the ſaid Parliament, and during the life of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, ſhould fortune to haue, or obtaine any caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments, of the gift, grant, ſale or exchange of the Kings Maieſty, or of the only gift of the Kings Maieſty of his moſt liberall diſpoſition, and not ſold, which at the day of the date of the Letters Patents thereof made, ſhould be of more, or better yéerely value to the King, in yéerely rent and ferme, than ſhould be conteined, mentioned, and ſpecified in any ſuch Letters Patents, and particulars thereof made by the particular Surueyor, or Surueyors thereof. And in ſuch bill or bils, as ſhould be ſigned and ſealed with the hand, or hands of the Patentée, or Patentées thereof to be exhibited to the Kings Maieſty, or his Officer or Officers, within whoſe Suruey the ſaid manors, lands and tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any part thereof ſhould be, or within any of them, which bill ſhould be ſigned, ſealed, had and made, as is aforeſaid, before any bill ſhould be thereof ſigned by the Kings Maieſty: That then euery of the ſaid Patentées, Grantées, and Donées, their Heires, Executors or Adminiſtrators, within one yéere next after due proofe and decrées thereof made and had in the Court, within whoſe Suruey the ſame caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any parcell thereof, before the ſaid gifts and grants were, ſhould content, and pay to the King for the ſame ouerplus, and more value of the ſame manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions and other hereditaments to him ſold, and exchanged after ſuch rate as other lands and tenements were before to him ſold, or exchanged, and for the ouerplus and more value of ſuch lands and tenements, as ſhould happen to be giuen by the Kings Maieſty, and not ſold, as is aboueſaid, the ſaid Patentée, his Heires, Executors, or Adminiſtrators ſhould content, and pay to the King after the rate of twenty yéeres purchaſe, ſo that the ſame proofe and decrée were had, and made, in manner and forme aforeſaid, within ten yéeres next after the date of the ſame Letters Patents, as by the ſame ſtatute more at large it doth and may appeare.

Seuerall inconueniences enſuing to the K. Patentees by the Statutes. of 34. H. 8. 21. and 1. Ed. 6. 8.

Sithence the making of which Statutes, diuers of the ſaid Patentées, Grantées and Donées, according to the true meaning, and intent of the ſaid Statutes, and prouiſions of the ſame, haue by their bils ſeuerally ſigned and ſealed with the hands and ſeales of the ſaid Patentées, exhibited to the Kings Maieſtie, or to his Officer mentioned in the ſaid ſeuerall Acts and prouiſions, before the ſame Bill were ſigned by the ſaid late King, or by the Kings Highneſſe that now is: Which Bils ſigned by the ſaid Patentées, ſometime by the negligence of the ſame Officers, or their Clerkes, ſometime by the death of the ſame Officers, and ſometime by the alteration, and change of the ſaid Officers, many of the ſaid Bils ſo ſigned and ſealed be now by negligence embeaſeled, and loſt, and many times there haue béene no ſuch Bils made, but omitted and forgotten: by reaſon whereof diuers queſtions, ambiguities and doubts may ariſe, as well for the Kings ſurety, and ſatiſfaction, as for the Patentées, their Heires and Aſſignes.

A confirmation of the Letters Patents of K. H. 8. and King Ed. 6. made and to be made during his life.

For the auoiding of all which ambiguities, queſtions and doubts: Be it enacted by the King our Soueraigne Lord, the Lord Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that as well all and ſingular Letters Patents made by the ſaid late King, as by the Kings Maieſty that now is, ſithence the making of the ſaid ſeuerall Statutes and Acts, or that hereafter ſhall be made by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King that now is, during his life (whoſe life God long preſerue) ſhall be good and effectuall to all, and euery Patentée, their heires and aſſignes, the lacke [illegible] want of any ſuch Bill or Bils, or whether the particular or particulars were had, or made, or hereafter to be had or made by any of the Kings Auditor or Auditors, Surueyor, or Surueyors in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And that the ſame Patentées, Grantées, and Donées, their Heires and Aſſignes, and euery of them ſhall from henceforth haue, and take, all and ſingular ſuch profits, benefits, commodities and aduantages mentioned in the ſaid ſeuerall Statutes, as though the ſaid Bils had béene ſigned and ſealed, and were ready to be ſhewed, according to the true intent of the ſaid Statutes, or any of them.

And to the intent the King ſhall be truly anſwered of the ouerplus of the yéerely value of the ſaid manors, lands, and tenements, and hereditaments conteined, or to be conteined in any ſuch Letters Patents, as is aforeſaid, according to the true meaning of the ſaid Act or Acts, and the prouiſions of the ſame: Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular ſuch Patentées, Grantees, and Donées, as at any time from the making of the ſaid ſeuerall Statutes haue obtained, or gotten, or hereafter ſhall obtaine, or get any caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments of the gift, grant, ſale, or exchange of the ſaid late King, or of the King that now is, or of the only gift of the ſaid Kings, or of any of them, of his or their moſt liberall diſpoſition, or of any of them, and not ſold, which at the date of the Letters Patents thereof made, or hereafter to be made, ſhall be of more, or better yeerely value to the ſaid late King, or to the King that now is in yeerely rent and ferme, than is, or ſhall be conteined, mentioned or ſpecified in any ſuch Letters Patents, or particulars thereof made by the ſaid Auditor or Auditors, Surueyor or Surueyors, or other Officers, that then euery of the ſaid Patentées, Grantées, and Donées, their Executors and Aſſignes, within one yeere next after due proofe, and decree thereof made, and had in the Court within whoſe Suruey the ſame caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, or any parcell thereof then were, or ſhall be, ſhall content, and pay vnto the King for the ſame ouerplus, and more value for the ſame manors, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, and other hereditaments to him or them ſold or exchanged, or hereafter to be ſold or exchanged, after ſuch rate, as the other lands and tenements were before to him ſold or exchanged, or that hereafter ſhall be ſold or exchanged, and for the ouerplus, and more value of ſuch lands and tenements as hath béene giuen by the ſaid late King, or the Kings Maieſty that now is, or that hereafter ſhall be giuen by the King that now is, and not ſold, as is aboueſaid, the ſaid Patentée and Patentées, and his and their Heires, Executors and Aſſignes ſhall content and pay to the King, after the rate of twenty yéeres purchaſe, ſo that the ſame proofe, and decrée be, or ſhall be made, in forme aforeſaid, within ſixtéene yéeres next after the date of ſuch and the ſame Letters Patents made or to be made in forme aforeſaid.

A meane to ſatiſfie the King of the ouerplus of the Lands, ſold, exchanged or giuen by him to others.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any prouiſion therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to confirme, ratifie, or make good any Leaſe, or Leaſes made, or hereafter to be made for terme of life, liues or yéeres, whereupon the old and accuſtomed rents, or more be not, or hereafter ſhall not be reſerued, and yéerely payable during the time and terme of the ſaid Leaſe and Leaſes, nor to any Leaſe or Leaſes made in reuerſion of any part, or parcell of any manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, parcell of the Duchy of Lancaſter, or within the Suruey of the ſame Duchy.

Leaſes of lands parcell of the Duchy of Lancaſter made in reuerſion, or whereof the old rent is not reſerued.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, nor any thing therein conteined, ſhall extend to confirme, ratifie, or make good any Letters patents heretofore made, or hereafter to be made of eſtate of inheritance, by any King or Kings of this Realme, but to ſuch Letters Patents, as were made by the ſaid late King Henry the eight, ſince the ſaid fourth day of February, in the ſaid ſeuen and twentieth yéere of his reigne, or hath béene, or hereafter ſhall be made by the Kings Maieſty that now is during his life (which God long preſerue) any thing or matter conteined in this act, or in any of the prouiſions before rehearſed to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

What Letters Patents only this ſtatute doth extend vnto.

And where alſo the late King of famous memory Henry the eight, and alſo our Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maieſty that now is, as well by diuers bargaines and ſales, for diuers great ſummes of money, as by gifts, exchanges, or otherwiſe haue giuen, and granted by their ſeuerall Letters Patents, vnder the great Seale of England, or vnder the great Seale of the Duchy of Lancaſter, diuers manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments with the appurtenances to diuers and ſundry their louing Subiects, of any eſtate of inheritance to hold in ſocage only, and not in Capite, for all manner of ſeruices, and without reſeruation of any tenths or rents in the ſame Letters Patents, as by the ſame ſeuerall Letters Patents may appeare. And foraſmuch as by certaine Statutes heretofore made, doubts, and ambiguities may ariſe vpon ſuch Letters Patents for lake of tenures in Capite, or reſeruations of tenths or rents, which might be hereafter to the vnquietneſſe of ſuch Patentées, their Heires, Aſſignes or Succeſſors, contrary to the intents and mindes of the ſaid late King, and of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maieſties that now is.

A confirmation of the K. Letters Patents notwithſtanding his Nonage, or any ſtatute made for Tenures, Rents, or Tenthes.

For the auoiding of all doubts and ambiguities, and for the quietneſſe of the Kings louing Subiects: Be it alſo enacted, and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſaid, that all Letters patents ſealed, or hereafter to be ſealed with the great Seale of England, or with the great Seale of the Duchy of Lancaſter, ſhall be good, perfect and auaileable in Law to all intents and purpoſes, according to the ſaid Letters patents, the nonage of our Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maieſty that now is, as Duke of Lancaſter, albeit alwayes as King he is of full age, or any Act, Statutes or Lawes, for or concerning any tenures, or reſeruations of rents, or tenths to the contrary notwithſtanding: Sauing to all and euery perſon, and perſons, bodies politicke and corporate, their Heires, Succeſſors, Executors and Aſſignes, and to euery of them (other than the Kings Maieſty, his Heires and Succeſſors, as Kings of this Realme, or as Dukes of Lancaſter,) all, and euery ſuch rights, titles, leaſes, conditions, rents, and intereſts whatſoeuer, as they, or any of them ſhould, ought, or might haue had, if this Act had neuer beene had, or made: This Act, or any thing therein conteined to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding. CAP. VIII.

Patentee of Collectorſhips of Tenths ſhall be bound for their Collections.

St.26.H.8.3. 2.Eliz,4.

WHere the Archbiſhops and Biſhops of this Realme of England, are bound to the Kings Maieſty for the collecting, and true payment of the Diſmes or Tenths, due to his Highneſſe, for all and ſingular Benefices, and other Eccleſiaſticall Promotions whatſoeuer, being within their ſeuerall Dioceſſe: For the collection whereof, diuers of the predeceſſors of the ſaid Archbiſhops, and Biſhops haue by their Letters Patents, (confirmed with Chapiter Seale) giuen, and granted to ſundry perſons the collection of the ſame Diſmes and Tenths, without prouiſion of ſufficient bonds, for the true collection and payment of the ſaid Diſmes or Tenths, to our Soueraigne Lord, or otherwiſe, to diſcharge the Grantors of the ſaid Patents, and their Succeſſors, whereby the King Maieſty hath bene greatly defrauded of his ſaid duties, and many of the ſaid Biſhops ſore troubled, to their great hinderance, and vtter vndoing.

The Collectors of tenthes ſhall be bound to ſaue the Biſhops harmeleſſe againſt the King St.14.El.7.

Be it therefore enacted by our Soueraigne Lord the King, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all Collectors of the ſaid Tenths, vnder any Archbiſhop or Biſhop within this Realme of England, or other the Kings Dominions, hauing Letters Patents, or other writings of their ſaid Office of Collectorſhip of the ſaid Tenths, ſhall before the Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, be bound by their ſufficient writing obligatory or recogniſance, in the Court of the firſt Fruits and Tenths, or in any other Court, where the Kings reuenues of the Tenth ſhall be anſwerable, in ſuch ſumme or ſummes of money as ſhall be due and growing yeerely to our Soueraigne Lord the King, within their ſaid collection or office, to ſaue and keepe the ſaid Archbiſhops or Biſhops, and euery of them harmeleſſe, and without hurt or damage, againſt the Kings Maieſty, his Heires and Succeſſors of, and for all manner of accompts and payments of money, which they, or any of them haue, ſhall, or may conueniently receiue, during the time of their ſeuerall collections, and that may be lawfully demanded or required of the ſaid Archbiſhops or Biſhops, or any of them, for, or concerning the ſaid Tenths, by reaſon of the Statute of the firſt Fruits and Tenths, or elſe their ſaid Letters Patents, and other writings to be vtterly void, and of none effect.

The Tenthes ſhall be payed the laſt day of May.

Certificat of Recuſants made in May.

And for that the Parſons, Vicars and Curats within this Realme, for the moſt part be not able to pay their Tenths, before that they ſhall haue receiued the profits of their Benefices, which yeerely groweth, and reneweth to them at the Feaſt of Eaſter, which Feaſt in many yeeres falleth after the firſt day of Aprill, which ſaid firſt day of Aprill is now the day that is ſtalled and appointed to the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, to make payment to the Kings Maieſty of the ſaid Tenths: Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, and euery of them, ſhall from henceforth make yeerely payment of the ſaid Tenths, vnto our ſaid Soueraigne Lord, his Heires and Succeſſors in the Court of the firſt Fruits and Tenths, or elſe where it ſhall pleaſe the Kings Maieſty to appoint the payment of the ſame, before, or at the laſt day of May, and not otherwiſe. And that the certificat of recuſants made by any of the ſaid Archbiſhops or Biſhops, or any of them, before, or at the laſt day of May yeerely, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the Law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as though it had beene made at the dayes and times heretofore limited and appointed by the Statute made the ſix and twentieth yeere of the reigne of his moſt noble Father of famous memory King Henry the eight, for payments of Tenths and firſt Fruits, any Law, or Statute heretofore had or made to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any Promotion ſpirituall be now, or ſhall chance hereafter to be or remaine in ſuch ſort void, that no Incumbent is, or can be conueniently prouided for the ſame: That then the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, and euery of them ſhall, and may certifie yéerely before the laſt day of May, the ſame vacations ſpecially and according to the truth of the matter, into the ſaid Court of the firſt Fruits and Tenths, or in any other Court where the Kings Reuenues of Tenths ſhall be anſwerable, vpon which Certificate, the ſaid Archbiſhops, and Biſhops, and euery of them, ſhall be diſcharged towards and againſt the Kings Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſors, in like ſort as they now be, vpon their certificat of the recuſants: And that then, and from thence forth, it ſhall be lawfull to the Kings Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſors, to leuy, and take all the Glebe lands, tithes, iſſues or profits of the ſaid Benefice, or ſpirituall Promotion ſo eſpecially certified, as is aforeſaid, vntill his Grace, his Heires and Succeſſors may be fully anſwered, ſatisfied, and payed of the whole Arrerages of the ſaid Tenths then due to his Maieſty, and the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, and euery of them to be from the time of the ſaid eſpeciall certificate, cléerely exonerated and diſcharged againſt the King, his heires and ſucceſſors of the ſame arrerages: any Law or Statute heretofore had or made to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A Spirituall promotion void for which no Incumbent can be prouided.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Grant, Patent, or writing whatſoeuer, that ſhall hereafter be made to any perſon or perſons, by any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, by themſelues, or elſe by any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, confirmed by Chapter ſeale, within this Realme of England, or elſewhere within the Kings Dominions, of the office of Collectorſhip of the Tenths, growing and ariſing yéerely to be due vnto our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, within the Dioceſſe and Biſhopricke of any ſuch Grantor, by reaſon of the Statute of the firſt Fruits and Tenths, ſhall ſtand, abide, and endure in his or their force, ſtrength and effect no more, nor longer time, than the ſaid Grantor ſhall be, and remaine Archbiſhop or Biſhop of the ſame Sée and Biſhopricke, whereof he was poſſeſſed at the time of his ſaid grant, any confirmation of the ſaid grant, or any cuſtome, vſage, Law or Statute at any time heretofore had, vſed, or made to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Patent of a Collector ſhall be good no longer, than during the continuance of the Grantor in the Sée.

Cap. V.

At what prices Wines ſhall be ſold, and at whoſe appointment the prices ſhall be ſet downe.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons within any the Dominions aforeſaid, except he or they ſhall, and may diſpend in lands, tenements, hereditaments, or other yéerely profits certaine, the ſumme of one hundred Markes of lawfull money of England, or elſe be worth of his owne proper goods and Cattels, one thouſand Markes, or ſhall be the Sonne of a Duke, Marques, Earle, Vicount, or Baron of this Realme, to haue and kéepe after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, in his houſe or cuſtody, any péece or veſſell of any of the ſaid Wines of Gaſcon, Guion, French, or Rochel Wines, conteining aboue the quantity of ten Gallons, to the intent to ſpend, or drinke the ſame in his or their houſe or houſes, by any colour or meanes, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch offence, ten pound of lawfull money of England.

Who may haue Wine in his houſe, and who not.
REP. 1. Iac. 25.

And alſo be it further enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, within any of the ſaid Dominions, after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael to kéepe any Tauerne, or to ſell, or vtter by retaile, by the Gallon, or leſſe, or greater meaſure in any place, any of the ſaid Wine or Wines, within any of the ſaid Dominions, except it be in [a] Cities, Townes corporate, Boroughs, Port Townes, or Market Townes, or in the Townes of Grauesend, Sittingborne, Turford, and Bagſhot, vpon paine that euery perſon or perſons that ſhall ſo offend contrary to the forme of this Act, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery day ſo offending the ſumme of ten pound of lawfull money of England: Nor that it ſhall be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael, to kéepe any Tauerne, or ſell, or

No Wines ſhall be ſold by retaile, but in Cities, Boroughs, market townes.

No perſon ſhall ſell Wines, but by licence of the Maiors, &c. of the Townes where, &c.

No perſon ſhall ſell Wines in any Towne not Corporate but by the licence of the Iuſtices of Peace of the Shire.
Coke pl. fo. 370.

How many Tauernes may be licenced in one Towne, &c.

vtter by retaile, by the Gallon, or leſſe, or greater meaſure, in any City, Borough, or Towne corporate, any manner of Wines, but only ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall be thereunto nominated, appointed, and aſſigned, by the head Officers, and the moſt part of the common Councell, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Iurates, or Comminalty for the time being of ſuch City, Borough, or Towne corporate, where ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall tauerne, ſell, or vtter Wine by retaile, as is aforeſaid: the ſaid nomination and aſſignement to be made by writing vnder the common Seale of ſuch Citie, Borough, or Towne corporate, as is aforeſaid: and the ſaid nomination, appointment, and aſſignement ſhall continue in their force, or be changed at the election and pleaſure of the head Officer or Officers, and the moſt part of the common Councell, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Iurates, or Comminalty, for the time being of ſuch City, Borough, or Towne Corporate by writing, and vnder ſuch common Seale, as is aforeſaid: Nor that it ſhall be lawfull to any perſon or perſons to keepe any Tauerne, or to ſell or vtter any Wine by retaile, as is aforeſaid, in any City, Borough, Port towne, or Market towne not corporat, within the Realme of England, or Wales, or in the ſaid Townes of Graueſend, Sittingborne or Bagſhot, but only ſuch perſon or perſons, as thereunto ſhall be aſſigned, nominated, and appointed by all, or the moſt part of the Iuſtices of Peace, for the time being of ſuch Shire, or County where ſuch Tauernes, or ſelling of Wine by retaile ſhall be had or allowed, as ſhall be preſent at the generall Seſſion for the time being, to be holden within euery of the ſaid Shires or Counties, the ſaid aſſignement, nomination, and appointment to be had, and made in full Seſſion by writing vnder the ſeuerall Seale of euery of the ſaid Iuſtices, and to be continued, altered, or changed in like forme, and by like authority, as is laſt aforeſaid, vpon paine that euery perſon that ſhall after the ſaid Feaſt, ſell, or retaile any Wine being not thereunto licenced and authoriſed, as is aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery day that he ſhall ſo offend, fiue pounds of lawfull money of England: Nor that any perſon or perſons, hauing authority by this preſent Act to nominate, aſſigne, or appoint what perſons ſhall tauerne, vtter or ſell Wine by retaile, as is aforeſaid, ſhall nominate, aſſigne, or appoint by his or their writing any moe, or greater number of tauernes, or Wine ſellers by retaile to ſell, or vtter Wine, or keepe or continue any Tauerne at one time, in any one City, Borough, Towne corporate, Port Towne, or Market Towne, or in Graueſend, Sittingbourne, or Bagſhot, (all and euery ſuch City and Towne hereafter expreſly named only except) than two Wine Sellers or Tauernes. And it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons hauing authority to nominate, aſſigne, or appoint Tauernes, or ſellers of Wine by retaile, by this Act to nominate, aſſigne, or appoint by writing any moe, or greater number of Tauernes, or Wine ſellers in the City of London, to ſell or vtter Wine by retaile at any time aboue the number of forty Tauernes, or Wine ſellers. And in Yorke eight, in Norwich foure, in Weſtminſter three, in Briſtol ſix, in Lincolne three, in Kingſton vpon Hull foure, in Shrewſbury three, in Exeter foure, in Saliſburie three, in Gloceſter foure, in Weſtcheſter foure, in Hereford Eaſt three, in Worceſter three, in Southhampton three, in Canterbury foure, in Ipſwich three, in Wincheſter three, in Oxford three, in Cambridge foure, in Colcheſter three, in Newcaſtle vpon Tine foure Tauernes, or Wine Sellers, vpon paine, that euery perſon authoriſed by this Act to nominate, aſſigne, or appoint Tauernes, or Wine Sellers, to forfeit for euery nomination, aſſignement, or appointment by him made, contrary to the forme of this Act, fiue pounds.

No man ſhall retaile wine to be ſpent in his houſe.

Who ſhall haue the forfeiture.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, from, and after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael, ſhall ſell, or vtter by retaile any kinde of Wine or Wines to be drunke or ſpent in his or their Manſion houſe or houſes, or other place in his or their tenure or occupation, by any colour, craft, engine, or meane, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch offence, ten pound of lawfull money of England, the one halfe of all which forfeitures ſhall be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint or information in any of the Kings Courts of Record, in which action or ſuit, no eſſoine, wager of Law or protection ſhall be allowed.

Who may haue wines to ſpend in their houſes.

Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall be lawfull for all and euery Merchant and Merchants aduenturing for the ſame at his or their owne coſts and charges, to haue, and keepe to ſpend in his or their houſe or houſes, ſuch Wine or Wines as he ſhall tranſport or cauſe to be tranſported into this Realme, or any part thereof, not taking any money or other recompence for the ſame that ſhall be ſo ſpent in his or their houſes: and that it ſhall be lawfull to euery high Sheriffe of euery County, Maior, Bailiffe and Sheriffe of euery City and Towne corporate within this Realme of England, and other the ſaid Dominions for the time being, during his or their office of charge, and to euery other perſon inhabiting or dwelling in any of the Kings Maieſties Forts or townes fortified and kept for the warres, during his or their dwellings in any ſuch Fort or Towne of warre, to haue wine in their houſes by the veſſell, to ſpend the ſame in his or their houſes without taking any money, or other recompence for the ſame ſo ſpent in his or their houſe or other place in their tenure or occupation; This Act or any thing therein conteined to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Iuſtices of Peace of euery Shire or County, City and Towne corporate in their ſeuerall Seſſions, and the Steward in euery Leete, and the Sheriffe in his turne, and euery Eſchetor ſhall haue full power and authority by this preſent Act, to enquire by the oathes of twelue lawfull men, of all and euery offence and offences perpetrated or done contrary to the forme of this Act. And that euery inquirie, and preſentment taken and had by the oathes of twelue lawfull men, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be of ſuch force and effect, as if the ſame were taken or had before the King in his Maieſties Bench. And that euery of the paines, penalties and forfeitures aforeſaid, to be due by force of this Act, for any offence to be committed or done by any perſon or perſons, contrary to the forme of this preſent act, as ſhall be found by preſentment before the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, Eſchetors, Sheriffe or Steward by verdict of twelue men, as is aforeſaid, and no bill, plaint, action or information thereof commenced in any of the Kings Courts of Record, ſhall be diuided equally in two parts, whereof the one ſhall be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, his Heires and Succeſſors. And the other to be to the poore people of the Towne, or place where ſuch preſentment ſhall be found.

Which officers may enquire of the offences aforeſaid.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to charge any perſon or perſons with any penalty, or forfeiture, for, and concerning any offence to be done contrary to the tenor of this Act, vnleſſe he or they ſo offending, be ſued, endited or preſented for the ſame, within one yeere next after the ſame offence be done and committed, as is aforeſaid, any thing in this Act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Within what time an Offendor muſt be ſued.

Prouided alwayes, that this act or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe be preiudiciall or hurtfull to any of the Vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or to the Chancellor or Schollers of the ſame or their ſucceſſors, or any of them, to empaire or take away any of the Liberties, Priuileges, Franchiſes, Iuriſdictions, Powers or Authorities to them or any of them appertaining or belonging: but that they, and euery of them, and their ſucceſſors may haue, hold, vſe and enioy all their Liberties, Priuileges, Franchiſes, Iuriſdictions, Powers and Authorities, in ſuch large and ample wiſe, as though this act had neuer beene had, ne made, ſo alwayes that there be not any more or greater number of Tauernes kept or maintained within any of the ſaid Townes of Oxford or Cambridge, than may be lawfully kept and maintained by the prouiſion, true meaning and intent of this Statute, any thing in this promiſo mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

None of the liberties of Oxford or Cambridge ſhall be impaired.

Cap. VI.

The Statute of 17. *Edw.*4.1. touching the tranſporting of Gold and Siluer, continued for twenty yeeres. EXP.

Cap. VII.

What ſhall be the Aſſiſe of fuell of all ſorts.

Where the aſſiſe and meaſure of talwood, billet, fagot, coles and other fuell appointed, and aſſiſed by an Act of Parliament made at Weſtminſter, the two and twentieth day of Ianuary, in the foure and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, is the ſame aſſiſe that was kept in the time of King Edward the fourth, which aſſiſe hath not beene kept, ne could conueniently be kept theſe threeſcore yeeres, nor at theſe dayes can be kept, by reaſon of the great ſcarcity of woods that is happened ſince the time of the ſaid King Edward the fourth. And alſo by reaſon of the greatneſſe of the ſaid aſſiſe, the ſame fuell nor coles cannot be carried at theſe dayes without alteration of the carts, wherein ſuch fuell and coles are now carried, by reaſon whereof, and for that that in the ſaid ſtatute, the penalty which is the forfeiture of the ſaid fuell or coles, lacking the ſaid aſſiſe conteined in the ſaid Act, dependeth vpon the buyer thereof, and not vpon the ſeller, ne maker, marker, or feller of the ſame. By reaſon whereof diuers Cities and Countries are like preſently to lacke fuell and coles, vnleſſe ſpeedy remedy be ſhortly had in this behalfe.

34.H.8.3.

For redreſſe whereof, be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that no perſon or perſons ſhall ſuſteine any loſſe, peine or penalty for buying or ſelling of any talwood, billet or fagot now cut and made, although the ſame be not of the aſſiſe conteined in the ſaid Act, any thing conteined in the ſame act notwithſtanding. And that all talwood, billet, fagot and coles to be made and put to ſale in the Cities of London, Weſtminſter, or in the Suburbs of the ſame, after the laſt day of September next comming, ſhall keepe the aſſiſes hereafter expreſſed, that is to weet, that euery ſack of coles containe foure buſhels of good or cleane coles. And that euery talſhid containe in length foure foot, beſides the carfe. And euery talſhid named of one, to conteine in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt ſixteene inches about. And euery talſhid named of two to conteine in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt three and twenty inches about. And euery talſhid named of three, to containe in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt eight and twenty inches about. And euery talſhid named of foure, to containe in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt,

The aſſiſe of talwood, billet, fagot and coles, to be ſold in London and Weſtminſter and the Suburbs thereof.

thrée and thirty inches about. And euery talſhid named of fiue, to containe in greatneſſe within a foot of the middeſt, eight and thirty inches about. And euery billet to containe in length thrée foot and foure inches. And euery billet named a ſingle, to containe ſeuen inches and a halfe about. And euery billet named to be a caſt, to containe ten inches about. And euery billet named of two caſt, to containe fourtéene inches about. And euery fagot bound to containe in length thrée foot. And the bond of euery ſuch fagot to be of foure and twenty inches about, beſides the knot, which aſſiſes are little leſſe than the aſſiſes conteined in the ſaid former Act, and alſo are much greater than any aſſiſe that now is, or of long time hath béene commonly kept.

The forfeiture for lacking of the aſſiſes aforeſaid. REP. 43. El. 14.

All other Statutes for aſſiſe of fuell, repealed.

And be it further enacted, that it ſhalbe lawfull from henceforth for euery owner without danger of any forfeiture to make billets of two caſts. And that all billets of two caſts from henceforth to be made and put to ſale, ſhall be of the aſſiſe herein compriſed, or more, and ſhall be marked only within ſix inches of the middeſt thereof. And that euery billet of one caſt from henceforth to be made and put to ſale, ſhalbe only marked within foure inches of the end thereof, vpon peine that euery maker, and euery ſeller that ſhall make any ſuch fuell or coles, and put the ſame to ſale, to forfeit for euery ſhid of tallwood, billet, fagot, or ſack of coles from henceforth put to ſale, lacking of the aſſiſe aforeſaid thrée ſhillings foure pence. And that this preſent ſtatute only, and no other ſtatute of aſſiſe of fuell or coles, ſhall from henceforth ſtand in force, ne take place.

And foraſmuch as by the gréedy appetite and couetouſneſſe of diuers perſons, fuell, coles and wood runneth many times thorow foure or fiue ſeuerall hands or moe before it commeth to the hands of them, that for their neceſſity doe burne or retaile the ſame.

None ſhall buy fuel, but ſuch as will burne or retaile the ſame.

No perſon ſhall alter any marke or aſſiſe of fuell marked.

Be it further enacted, that from the firſt day of May next comming, no perſon or perſons ſhall buy any ſuch wood, coles or fuell, but only ſuch as will burne or conſume the ſame, or ſuch perſons as ſhall ſell the ſame againe by retaile to ſuch, as ſhall burne or conſume the ſame for their owne occupying, without fraud or couin, or wharfingers or bargemen, vpon paine to forfeit the treble value of all ſuch wood, coles and fuell, as ſhal be otherwiſe bought for any lucre or gaine. And that no perſon or perſons ſhall alter any marke or aſſiſe of any of the ſaid fuell marked or aſſiſed, according to this ſtatute, in peine of like forfeiture, as is aforeſaid: the one halfe of all which forfeiture herein conteined, ſhall be to the King our Soueraigne Lord, and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, wherein no eſſoine, protection nor wager of law to be allowed, or admitted for the defendants.

Within what time an offender ſhalbe ſued.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that no perſon or perſons ſhall yéeld ne forfeit any penalty herein contained, vnleſſe action or ſuit be commenced for the ſame, within one whole yéere next after the offence thereof committed or done. And that if any cutter or maker, as aforeſaid, or other that ſhall forfeit any ſumme herein conteined, ſhall not be able to yéeld ſuch forfeiture or ſumme, as is aforeſaid, that then ſuch perſon thereof conuicted by witneſſes or otherwiſe, to be ſet on a pillory in the next market Towne to the place where he ſhall ſo offend, by a Iuſtice of the Peace, or any other of the Kings Officers, at eleuen of the clocke vpon the market day, with a billet or fagot bounden to ſome part of his body, and ſo to be diſcharged of the ſaid forfeiture.

The puniſhment of an Offender not able to pay the forfeiture.

Prouiſion for Calice.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, to buy, ſell, make and cut billets for the only ſeruing of the Towne of Calice, and the Marches of the ſame ſo that they containe in length thirty inches at the leaſt, as hath béene there moſt accuſtomed forty yéeres laſt paſt, without forfeiture of any penalty herein conteined, any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Anno primo Mariæ.

Acts made in the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter, the fifth day of October, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our moſt gracious Soueraigne Lady Marie, by the grace of God, Queene of England, France, and Ireland, Defender of the faith, and of the Church of England, and of Ireland in earth the ſupreme Head: and there continued to the one and twentieth day of the ſame moneth, that is to ſay, in the firſt Seſſion of the ſame Parliament, as followeth.

Cap. I.

A repeale of certaine Treaſons, Felonies, and Premunire.

The eſtate of a King ſtandeth more aſſured by the loue of his Subiects, than in feare of Lawes.

Forasmuch as the ſtate of euery King, Ruler and Gouernor of any Realme, Dominion or Comminalty ſtandeth, and conſiſteth more aſſured by the loue and fauour of the Subiect toward their Soueraigne Ruler and Gouernor, than in the dread and feare of Lawes made with rigorous paines and extreme puniſhment, for not obeying of their Soueraigne Ruler and Gouernor: And Lawes alſo iuſtly made for the preſeruation of the common weale without extreme puniſhment or great penalty, are more often, for the moſt part obeyed and kept, than lawes and ſtatutes made with great and extreme puniſhments. And in ſpeciall, ſuch lawes and ſtatutes ſo made, whereby not only the ignorant and rude vnlearned people, but alſo learned and expert people, minding honeſty, are often and many times trapped and ſnared, yea many times for words only, without other fait or deed done or perpetrated.

The Queenes moſt excellent Maieſty, calling to remembrance that many as well honourable & noble perſons, as other of good reputation within this her Graces Realme of England, haue of late, (for words only without other opinion, fait or deed) ſuffered ſhamefull death, not accuſtomed to Nobles. Her Highneſſe therefore of her accuſtomed clemencie and mercie, minding to auoid and put away the occaſion, and cauſes of like chances hereafter to enſue, truſting her louing Subiects will, for her clemencie to them ſhewed, loue, ſerue and obey her Grace the more heartily, and faithfully, than for dread or feare of paines of body: is contented and pleaſed that the ſeuerity of ſuch like extreme, dangerous and painefull lawes, ſhall be aboliſhed, adnulled, and made fruſtrate and void.

No Act or offence ſhall be Treaſon, petit Treaſon or Miſpriſion, but ſuch as be declared by the Statute of 25. Edw. 3. 2.

Be it therefore ordained and enacted by the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame: That from henceforth none act, deed or offence, being by Act of Parliament or Statute made treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, by words, writing, ciphering, deeds or otherwiſe whatſoeuer, ſhall be taken, had, deemed or adiudged to be high treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, but only ſuch as be declared, and expreſſed to be treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, in or by the Act of Parliament, or ſtatute made in the fiue and twentieth yeere of the raigne of the moſt noble King of famous memory, King Edward the third, touching or concerning treaſon, or the declarations of treaſons, and none other, nor that any paines of death, penalty or forfeiture in any wiſe, enſue, or be to any Offendor or Offendors, for the doing or committing any treaſon, petit treaſon or miſpriſion of treaſon, other than ſuch as be in the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid King Edward the third, ordeined and prouided, any Act or Acts of Parliament, Statute or Statutes, had or made at any time heretofore, or after the ſaid fiue and twentieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late King Edward the third, or any other declaration or matter to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Prouided alwayes, and be it ordeined and enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that this Act of Parliament, or any thing therein mentioned, ſhall not in any wiſe extend, to giue any manner of benefit, aduantage or commodity to any perſon or perſons, being the laſt day of September laſt paſt, arreſted or impriſoned for treaſon, petit treaſon, or miſpriſion of treaſon, or to any perſon or perſons, heretofore being indicted of treaſon, petit treaſon or miſpriſion of treaſon, or being outlawed or attainted of treaſon, petit treaſon or miſpriſion of treaſon, before the ſaid laſt day of September laſt paſt, or being commanded to keepe his or their houſe or houſes, or other mens houſes, or otherwiſe excepted out of the Queenes Highneſſe moſt gratious pardon giuen the day of her Coronation, but that they and euery of them, for any of the offences before mentioned, perpetrated, committed, or done by them or any of them, before the ſaid laſt day of September, ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death, loſſes, and forfeitures of lands and goods, as in caſes of treaſon, as though this Act had neuer beene had ne made, any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Certaine perſons exempted out of the benefit of this Statute.

And be it further ordeined and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all offences made felony, or limited or appointed to be within the caſe of premunire, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, Statute or Statutes, made ſithens the firſt day of the firſt yeere of the raigne of the late King of famous memory, King Henry the eight, not being felony before, nor within the caſe of premunire, and alſo all and euery branch, article and clauſe mentioned, or in any wiſe declared in any of the ſame eſtatutes, concerning the making of any offence or offences to be felony, or within the caſe of premunire, not being felony, nor within the caſe of premunire before, and all paines and forfeitures concerning the ſame, or any of them, ſhall from henceforth be repealed, and vtterly void, and of none effect.

All offences made felony, or in the caſe of premunire, ſithence An. 1. H. 8. repealed.

ANNO PRIMO MARIÆ, SESSIO SECVNDA.

ACTS made in the ſecond and laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter, the foure and twentieth day of October, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our moſt gracious Soueraigne Lady MARY, by the grace of God, Queene of England, France, and Ireland, Defender of the faith, and in earth ſupreme head of the Church of England, and of Ireland, and there continued and kept to the diſſolution of the ſame, being the ſixth day of December then next enſuing, as followeth.

CAP. I.

The Queene borne in lawfull Matrimonie, and all ſentences of diuorce to the contrary repealed.

FOraſmuch as truth (being of her owne nature of a moſt excellent vertue, efficacie, force and working) cannot but by proceſſe of time breake out and ſhew her ſelfe, howſoeuer for a while ſhe may by the iniquity and frailty of man be ſuppreſſed and kept cloſe: And being reuealed and manifeſted, ought to be embraced, acknowledged, confeſſed and profeſſed in all caſes, and matters whatſoeuer, and whomſoeuer they touch or concerne, without reſpect of perſons, but in ſuch caſes and matters ſpecially, as whereby the glory and honor of God in heauen (who is the Author of truth, and truth it ſelfe) is to be ſpecially ſet forth, and whereby alſo the honor, dignity, ſurety and preſeruation of the Prince, and the Ruler vnder God in earth, dependeth, and the welfare, profit and ſpeciall benefit of the vniuerſall people and body of a Realme, is to be continued and maintained.

Truth may be ſuppreſſed for a time, but not for euer extinguiſhed.

We your Highneſſe moſt louing, faithfull and obedient Subiects, vnderſtanding the very truth of the ſtate of Matrimonie betweene the two moſt excellent Princes of moſt worthy memory, King Henry the eight and Queene Katharine, his louing, godly and lawfull wife, your Highneſſe lawfull father and mother, cannot but thinke our ſelues moſt bounden, both by our duty of allegiance to your Maieſty, and of conſcience towards God, to ſhew vnto your Highneſſe, firſt how that the ſame Matrimony, being contracted, ſolemnized and conſummated, by the agreement and aſſent of both their moſt noble Parents, by the counſell and aduice of the moſt wiſe and graueſt men of both their Realmes, by the deliberate and mature conſideration and conſent of the beſt and moſt notable men in learning, in thoſe dayes, of Chriſtendome, did euen ſo continue by the ſpace of twenty yeeres and more betweene them, to the pleaſure of almighty God and ſatiſfaction of the world, the ioy and comfort of all the Subiects of this Realme, and to their owne repoſe and good contentment, God giuing for a ſure token and teſtimony of his good acceptation of the ſame, not only godly fruit, your Highneſſe moſt noble perſon (whom we beſeech the almighty and euerliuing God, long to proſper and preſerue here amongſt vs) and other iſſue alſo, whom it hath pleaſed God to take out of this tranſitory life vnto his eternall glory, but alſo ſending vs a happier flouriſhing and moſt proſperous Common wealth in all things.

The ground or cauſe of the diuorce betweene King Henry the eight & Queene Katharine his wife.

And then afterward, how that the malicious and peruerſe affections of ſome (a very few perſons) enuying the great felicity, wherein by the goodneſſe of God, your ſaid moſt Noble Father and Mother, and all their good Subiects liued and continued in many yeeres, did for their owne ſingular glory, and vaine reputation conceiue ſundry ſubtill and diſloyall practiſes, for the interruption and breach of the ſaid moſt lawfull and godly concord. And trauelling to put the ſame in vre, deuiſed firſt to inſinuate a ſcruple into the King your Fathers conſcience, of an vnlawfull marriage betweene him, and his moſt lawfull wife the Queene, your Highneſſe Mother, pretending for the ground thereof, that the ſame was againſt the Word of God. And thereupon ceaſed not to perſwad continually vnto the ſaid King your Father, that he could not without danger of the loſſe of his ſoule continue with his ſaid moſt lawfull wife, but muſt be ſeparated and diuorced from her.

The vnlawfull ſentence of Thomas Cranmer Biſhop of Canterbury, touching the Kings marriage.

And to this intent cauſed the Seales, as well of certaine Vniuerſities in Italy and France to be gotten (as it were for a teſtimony) by the corruption of money with a few light perſons, Schollers of the ſame Vniuerſities, as alſo the Seales of the Vniuerſities of this Realme to be obtained by great trauell, ſiniſter working, ſecret threatnings, and entreatings of ſome men of authority, ſpecially ſent at that time thither for the ſame purpoſes. And how that finally, Thomas Cranmer, then newly made Archbiſhop of Canterbury, moſt vngodly and againſt all Lawes, equity and conſcience, proſecuting the ſame wicked deuice of diuorce, and ſeparation of the ſaid King your father, and Queene your mother, called before him (ex officio) the hearing of the ſame matter of marriage, and taking his foundation partly vpon his owne vnaduiſed iudgement of the Scripture, ioyning therewith the pretended teſtimonies of the ſaid Vniuerſities, and partly vpon bare and moſt vntrue coniectures, gathered and admitted by him vpon matters of no ſtrength or effect, but only by ſuppoſall, and without admitting or hearing any thing that could be ſaid by the Queene your mother, or by any other on her behalfe, in the abſence of the ſaid late Queene your mother, proceeded, pronounced, diſcerned, declared, and gaue ſentence, the ſame moſt lawfull and vndoubted matrimony, to be naught, and to be contracted againſt Gods Law, and of no value, but lacking the ſtrength of the Law: and the ſaid moſt noble King your father, and the ſaid noble Queene your mother, ſo married together, did ſeparate and diuorce, and the ſame your moſt noble father King Henry the eight, and the ſaid noble Queene your mother, from the bands of the ſame moſt lawfull matrimony, did pronounce and declare, by the ſame his vnlawfull ſentence, to be free, diſcharged, and ſet at liberty.

The ſentence confirmed by the Statutes made 25.H.8.22. & 28.H.8.7.

Which ſentence and iudgement ſo giuen by vnlawfull and corrupt meanes and wayes, by the ſaid Archbiſhop of Canterbury, was afterwards vpon certaine affections ratified and confirmed by two ſeuerall Acts, the one made in the fiue and twentieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid King your Highneſſe father, and entituled, an Act declaring the ſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the Kings moſt Royall Maieſty of the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme. The other act of Parliament made in the eight and twentieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid King your Highneſſe father, entituled, an act for the ſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the imperial crowne of the Realme.

The marriage made betweene King Henry the eight & Queene Katharine was true, iuſt and lawfull.

Plagues ſent by God vpon this Realme ſithence the diuorce of the King and Queene.

In the which ſaid two Acts, was conteined the Illegitimations of your moſt Noble perſon, which your ſaid moſt Noble perſon being borne in ſo ſolemne a marriage, ſo openly approued in the world, and with ſo good faith both firſt contracted, and alſo by ſo many yeeres continued betweene your moſt noble Parents, and the ſame marriage in very deed not being prohibited by the Law of God, could not by any reaſon or equity in this caſe be ſo ſpotted. And now we your Highneſſe ſaid moſt louing, faithfull and obedient Subiects, of a godly heart and true meaning, freely and franckly, without feare, fanſie, or any other corrupt motion or ſenſuall affection, conſidering that this foreſaid marriage had his beginning of God, and by him was continued, and therefore was euer, and is to be taken for a moſt true, iuſt, lawfull, and to all reſpects, a ſincere and perfect marriage, nor could, ne ought by any mans power, authority or iuriſdiction be diſſolued, broken or ſeparated, (for whom God ioyneth, no man can, ne ought to put a ſunder,) and conſidering alſo, how during the ſame marriage in godly concord, the Realme in all degrees flouriſhed to the glory of God, the honour of the Prince, and the great reputation of the Subiects of the ſame, and on the other ſide vnderſtanding manifeſtly, that the ground of the ſaid deuice and practiſe for the ſaid diuorce proceeded firſt of malice and vaine glory, and afterward was proſecuted and followed of fond affection and ſenſuall fantaſie, and finally executed and put in effect by corruption, ignorance and flattery: And not only feeling to our great ſorrow, domage and regret, how ſhamefull ignominies, rebukes, ſlanders, contempts, yea, what death, peſtilence, warres, diſobediences, rebellions, inſurrections, and diuers other great and grieuous plagues, God of his iuſtice hath ſent vpon vs, euer ſithens this vngodly purpoſe was firſt begun and practiſed: but alſo ſeeing euidently before our eyes, that vnleſſe ſo great an vniuſtice as this hath beene and yet continueth, be redubbed, and that the ſaid falſe and wrongfull proceſſe, iudgement and ſentence, with their dependences be repealed and reuoked, nothing is leſſe to be doubted, than that greater plagues and ſtrokes are like to encreaſe and continue daily more and more within this Realme: doe beſeech your moſt excellent Maieſty, as well in reſpect of your owne honour, dignity and iuſt title, as for truths ſake, wherewith (we doubt not) but your Highneſſe alſo will be ſpecially moued in conſcience, and alſo for the entire loue, fauour, and affection, which your Maieſty beareth to the common wealth of this Realme, and for the good peace, vnity, and reſt of vs your moſt bounden Subiects, and our poſterity, that it may be enacted by your Highneſſe, with the conſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled.

And be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all, and euery decrees, ſentence, and iudgement of diuorce, and ſeparation betweene the ſaid King your Father, and the ſaid late Queene your mother, and all the proceſſe commenced, followed, giuen, made, or promulged by the ſaid Thomas Cranmer, then Archbiſhop of Canterbury, or by any other perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer, whereby the ſame moſt iuſt, pure, and lawfull marriage, betweene the ſaid late King your Father, and the ſaid late Queene your Mother, was, or is pronounced, or in any wiſe declared to be vnlawfull, or vniuſt, or againſt the Law of God, be and ſhall be from the beginning, and from henceforth of no force, validity, or effect, but be vtterly naught, void, fruſtrate, and adnichilate, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if the ſame had neuer beene giuen or pronounced.

Euery ſentence of diuorce betweene King H. 8. and Queene Katharine his wife, giuen by Biſhop Cranmer or any other, ſhall be void.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that aſwell the ſaid Act of Parliament, intituled, an Act declaring the eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the Kings moſt royall Maieſty of the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, made in the fiue and twentieth yeere of the reigne of the King your Father, be repealed, and be void, and of none effect, as alſo all and euery ſuch clauſes, articles, branches, and matters contained and expreſſed in the foreſaid Act of Parliament, made in the ſaid eight and twentieth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King your Father, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, as whereby your Highneſſe is named or declared to be illegitimate, or the ſaid marriage betweene the ſaid King your Father, and the ſaid Queene your Mother, is declared to be againſt the word of God, or by any meanes vnlawfull, ſhall be, and be repealed, and be void, and of no force, nor effect, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if the ſame ſentence, or Acts of parliament, had neuer beene had ne made. And that the ſaid marriage had and ſolemnized betweene your ſaid moſt noble Father King Henry, and your ſaid moſt noble Mother Queene Katherine, ſhall be diffinitiuely, cleerely, and abſolutely, declared, deemed, and adiudged to be, and ſtand with Gods law, and his moſt holy word, and to be accepted, reputed, and taken of good effect and validitie, to all intents and purpoſes.

The St. of 25. H 8. 22. & 28. H. 8. 7. repealed.

The marriage betweene King H. 8. & Queene Katharine doth ſtand with the law of God, and ſhall be reputed good.

Cap. III.

The penalty for diſturbing of Preachers and Miniſters in the Church.

Foraſmuch as it is moſt neceſſary in euery Chriſtian common wealth, to prouide that tranquillity and peace may be preſerued and continued amongſt the people, and ſpecially in holy Church, in the time of diuine ſeruice, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and Sacramentals, as before this time it hath beene accuſtomed in holy Church within this Realme, and that all things being contrary thereunto, or that are, or may be in diſturbance thereof, may by foreſight be eſchewed and auoyded, and remedy therefore in due time prouided, as well for the preſeruation of the Queenes Highneſſe peace, as for an vniuerſall quietneſſe, and order to be vſed within this Realme.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that if any perſon or perſons of their owne power and authority, at any time or times, after the twentieth day of December next comming, doe, or ſhall willingly, and of purpoſe, by open and overt word, fact, act, or deed, maliciouſly, or contemptuouſly, moleſt, let, diſturbe, vex, or trouble, or by any other vnlawfull wayes, or meanes, diſquiet, or miſuſe any Preacher or Preachers that now is, or that at any time or times hereafter ſhall be licenſed, allowed, or authoriſed to preach by the Queenes Highneſſe, or by any Archbiſhop, or Biſhop of this Realme, or by any other lawfull Ordinary, or by any of the Uniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or otherwiſe lawfully authoriſed or charged by reaſon of his or their cure, benefice, or other ſpirituall promotion or charge, in any of his, or their open Sermon, Preaching, or Collation, that he or they ſhall make, declare, preach, or pronounce in any Church, Chappell, Churchyard, or in any other place or places, vſed, frequented, or appointed, or that hereafter ſhall be vſed or appointed to be preached in.

Moleſting a Prieſt preparing or celebrating Maſſe, or other ſeruice.

Or if any perſon or perſons, after the ſaid twentieth day of December next comming, ſhall maliciouſly, willingly, or of purpoſe, moleſt, let, diſturbe, vex, diſquiet, or otherwiſe trouble any Parſon, Uicar, Pariſh prieſt, or Curate, or any lawfull Prieſt, preparing, ſaying, doing, ſinging, miniſtring, or celebrating the Maſſe, or other ſuch diuine ſeruice, Sacraments, or Sacramentals, as was moſt commonly frequented and vſed in the laſt yeere of the raigne of the late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, or that at any time hereafter ſhall be allowed, ſet forth, or authoriſed by the Queenes Maieſty.

Abuſing the bleſſed Sacrament of the body and bloud of Chriſt, or breaking any Altar or Crucifix.

Or if any perſon or perſons, at any time or times, after the ſaid twentieth day of December, ſhall contemptuouſly, vnlawfully, or maliciouſly, of their owne power or authority, pull downe, deface, ſpoile, abuſe, breake, or otherwiſe vnreuerently handle, or order the moſt bleſſed, comfortable, and holy Sacrament of the body and bloud of our Sauiour Jeſus Chriſt, commonly called the Sacrament of the Altar, being, or that ſhall be in any Church or Chappell, or in any other decent place, or the pixe or canapy, wherein the ſame Sacrament is, or ſhall be: or vnlawfully, contemptuouſly, or maliciouſly, of their owne power and authority, pull downe, deface, ſpoile, or otherwiſe breake any Altar or Altars, or any Crucifix, or Croſſe, that now, or hereafter ſhall be in any Church, Chappell, or Churchyard. That then euery ſuch Offendor and Offendors in any the premiſſes, his or their aydor, procuror, or abettor, aydors, procurors, or abbettors, immediatly, and forthwith after any of the ſaid Act or Acts, or other the ſaid miſdemeanours ſo committed, done, or made, or any time or times after, ſhall be apprehended, arreſted, and taken by any Conſtable or Conſtables, Churchwarden, or Churchwardens of the ſaid Pariſh, Towne, or place, where the ſaid offence or offences ſhall be ſo committed, made, or done, or by any other Officer or Officers, or by any other perſon or perſons, then being preſent, at the time of the ſaid offence or offences ſo vnlawfully committed, made, or done.

Which perſon or perſons ſo apprehended, taken, or arreſted, with conuenient ſpeed, ſhall be brought and carried to any Juſtice of peace within the ſaid Shire, or within any City, Borough, Liberty, or Towne corporate, wherein Juſtices of Peace be, where the ſaid offence or offences ſhall be ſo committed, done, and made: and that the ſaid Juſtice of Peace, vpon due accuſation thereupon had and made by the apprehendor, or apprehendors, or other perſon or perſons of any of the ſaid perſon or perſons, ſo offending, forthwith ſhall commit the ſaid perſon or perſons, ſo apprehended, arreſted, and taken, to ſafe keeping and cuſtody, as by the diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtice ſhall be thought moſt meet and conuenient, and that within ſix dayes next and immediatly after the ſaid accuſation ſo had and made to the ſaid Juſtice, the ſaid Juſtice, with one other Juſtice of Peace in the ſaid Shire, City, Borough, Liberty, or Towne corporate, ſhall diligently examine the Act or Acts, offence, or offences aforeſaid.

The puniſhment of the Offendor for any of the crimes aforeſaid.

And if they the ſaid two Juſtices of Peace, ſhall vpon their ſaid examination, find or perceiue the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo accuſed, guilty of any of the ſaid offence, or offences, whereof hee or they ſhall be ſo accuſed, and that by two ſufficient witneſſes, or by his or their owne confeſſion or confeſſions, that then, and immediatly with conuenient ſpeed, the ſaid two Juſtices ſhall commit and award the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo accuſed, as is aforeſaid, to the Gayle, of, or for the ſaid Shire, City, Borough, Liberty, or Towne corporate, where the ſaid offence, or offences was ſo committed, made or done, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe, by the ſpace of three moneths then next enſuing: and further to the next quarter Seſſions, to be holden within the ſaid Shire, City, Borough, Liberty, or Towne corporate, next after the end of the ſaid three moneths: at which ſaid quarter Seſſions, the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo committed to the Gayle as is aforeſaid, vpon his or their reconciliation, and repentance in that behalfe, before the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, at the ſaid Seſſions, ſhall be deliuered, and diſcharged out of priſon and Gaile, vpon ſufficient ſuerty of his good abearing and behauior, to be then and there taken, by the ſaid Juſtices for one whole yeere, then next enſuing, as by the diſcretion or diſcretions of the ſaid Juſtices then, and there being, or of the more part of them, ſhalbe thought meet and conuenient. And if the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo in Gaile, as is aforeſaid, will not be reconciled, and repent at the ſaid quarter Seſſions, that then the ſaid perſon or perſons immediatly in time conuenient, ſhall be further awarded, and committed to the ſaid Gaile, by the ſaid Juſtices, or by the more part of them, there to remaine, without baile or mainpriſe, vntill he or they ſo committed and awarded to Gaile, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be reconciled, & be penitent for his or their ſaid offence or offences.

The penalty for reſcuing an Offendor, or diſturbing the arreſt.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, at any time or times after the ſaid twentieth day of December, of their owne authority of power, willingly and vnlawfully, doe reſkew any offendor or offendors ſo apprehended, taken, or arreſted, as is aforeſaid: or will diſturbe, hinder, or let the ſaid offendor or offendors, ſo offending, as is aforeſaid, foreſaid, to be apprehended, taken, or arreſted, that then euery one of the ſaid reſkewers, or diſturbors, ſhall ſuffer like impriſonment as is aforeſaid: and further ſhall pay, forfeit, and loſe for a fine, for euery of his or their ſaid offences, fiue pound to the Quéenes Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any of the offendors aforeſaid be not taken, apprehended, or arreſted immediately in time conuenient, as is aforeſaid, but doe eſcape, or goe away, that then the ſaid eſcape ſhall bee lawfully preſented before the Juſtices of Peace in the ſaid Shire, City, Borough, Liberty, or towne corporate, at the next quarter Seſſions to be holden, where the ſaid eſcape was made and ſuffered, and that then the inhabitants of yͤ pariſh, where the ſaid eſcape was ſo ſuffered, ſhall forfeit and loſe to the Quéenes Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors, for euery ſuch eſcape fiue pound, to be leuied and taken as other like amerciaments before this time, hath, and bin leuied and taken vpon any village, Hundred, or Towne for the eſcape of any murderer, or other felon, for not making purſuit vpon Hue and cry according to the Eſtatute of Wincheſter, and the eſtatute made and prouided in the third yéere of the worthy King Henry the ſeuenth.

The penalty if an offendor be not taken but doth eſcape.

13.Ed 1.8.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular Juſtices of peace, Juſtices of aſſiſe, Juſtices of Oyer and Determiner, and all and ſingular Maiors, Bailiffes, and Juſtices of peace, within any City, Borough, or towne corporate, in any parts within this Realme within the limits of their commiſſion or commiſſions, ſhall haue full power and authority, by vertue of this Act, after the ſaid twentieth day of December, to enquire of all and ſingular the offences and miſdemeanors aforeſaid, and to heare and determine the ſame, and to ſet the fines and amerciaments of the ſaid offendor or offendors, as is aforeſaid.

What Magiſtrates ſhall haue authority to enquire of and puniſh the offendors.

Prouided allwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to abrogate, and take away the authority, iuriſdiction, power, and puniſhment of the Eccleſiaſticall lawes, now ſtanding and remaining in their force, of, or for the puniſhment of any the offences and miſdemeanors aforeſaid: but that the authority, power, iuriſdictions, and puniſhments of the ſaid Eccleſiaſticall lawes, of, and for any of the offences and miſdemeanors aforeſaid, ſhall ſtand in full power and ſtrength, and to be vſed and exerciſed in all and in euery thing, as though this Act had neuer bin had and made. This preſent act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The iuriſdictiõ of the law eccleſiaſticall ſaued.

Prouided allwayes and be it enacted, that whatſoeuer perſon offending in the premiſſes, ſhall for any of the offences afore recited, receiue puniſhment of the Ordinary, hauing a teſtimoniall thereof, vnder the ſaid Ordinaries ſeale, ſhall not for the ſame offence, eftſones bee conuicted before the Juſtice: and in likewiſe receiuing for the ſaid offences, puniſhment by the Juſtice, he ſhal not for the ſame offence eftſones receiue puniſhment of the Ordinary: any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

There ſhall be but one puniſhment for one offence.

Cap. IIII.

Writings, &c. made from the ſixt of Iuly laſt, and before the firſt of August, ſhall be good and effectuall: excepting ſuch as were made by the Lady Iane Dudley.

Where it hath pleaſed almighty God, the ſixt day of July laſt paſt, to call out of this tranſitory life vnto his mercy, our late ſoueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixt, by, and immediatly after whoſe deceaſe, the Jmperial Crowne of this Realme, with all dignities, dominions, honours, preheminences, prerogatiues, ſtiles, authorities, and iuriſdictions, to the ſame vnited, annexed or belonging, did not only diſcend, remaine, and come vnto our moſt dread Soueraigne Lady the Quéenes Maieſtie, but alſo the ſame was then immediately, and lawfully inueſted deemed, and adiudged, in her highneſſe moſt royall perſon, by the due courſe of inheritance, and by the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme.

Neuertheleſſe, the ſame her highneſſe moſt lawful poſſeſſion was for a time diſturbed, and diſquieted, by the trayterous rebellion and vſurpation of the Lady Iane Dudley, Wife vnto Guileford Dudley Eſquire, otherwiſe called the Lady Iane Grey, and other her complices, during the time of the which ſaid rebellion and vſurpation, diuers Eſtatutes, Recogniſances, Indentures, Obligations, Acquittances, grants, patents, euidences, and other writings were made and deuiſed, betwéene, and to ſundry of the ſubiects of this Realme, whereupon diuers queſtions, ſuits, and doubts may hereafter ariſe, grow, and enſue, to many of the Quéenes highneſſe true louing ſubiects. For the auoiding of all which ambiguities and doubts, which by reaſon thereof may bee ſtirred and moued.

Be it ordeined and enacted, that all Eſtatutes, Recogniſances, Indentures, and other writings whatſoeuer, knowledged or made, by, or to any perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporate, being the Quéenes Subiects, ſince the ſixth day of July laſt paſt, and before the firſt day of Auguſt then next following, vnder the name of the Reigne of any other perſon, than vnder the Name of our Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, ſhall bee as good and effectuall

All writings made by or to any perſon ſith the vi July laſt, and before i August vnder the name of any other thã the Queene ſhall be good.

in the Law, to all intents, purpoſes, conſtructions and meanings, as if vpon the making thereof the name of our Soueraigne Lady the Quéenes Maieſty with her ſtile appropriate, and vnited vnto her Maieſties Imperiall Crowne, had béene fully and plainely expreſſed, and conteined in the ſame Obligations, Recogniſances, Indentures, Eſtatutes, and other writings. And that the ſame Obligations, Recogniſances, Indentures, Eſtatutes, and other writings, ſhal and may be ſued and miniſtred in barre, exhibited, auerred, vſed, and pleaded in the name, title, and ſtile of our Soueraigne Lady the Quéenes Maieſty, in ſuch and the ſame manner and forme, as though the name of the ſame our Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, with her Graces vſuall ſtile had béene expreſſed, written, and contained in the ſame, the lacke of the naming or mentioning of the name of our Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, of her Maieſties ſtile, in the date or time of the making of the ſaid Eſtatutes, Recogniſances, Indentures, or other writings in the ſaid Eſtatutes, Recogniſances, or other writings in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

No writings made by the Lady Iane Dudley ſithence the vi. of July laſt, ſhall be good.

Prouided alwayes that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to make good any Letters patents, commiſſions, gifts, grants, leaſes, deuiſes, or other writings made by the ſaid Lady Iane Dudley, otherwiſe called the Lady Iane Grey, ſithence the ſaid vi. day of July laſt paſt, of any manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, offices, fées, or other writings, whatſoeuer, now or then being by any wayes or meanes parcell, member, or belonging to the ſaid Imperiall Crowne, or to make good any other writings whatſoeuer, made by the ſaid Lady Iane, ſithence the ſaid ſixt day of July. But that they and euery of them, ſhal remain and be vtterly void, and of none effect, any thing aforeſaid to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. V.

Certaine writs and acts wherevnto the Statute of Limitation made 32.H.8.2. ſhall not extend.

WHere at a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the xxiiii. day of July, in the xxxii. yere of the reigne of the late King of famous memory, King Henry the eighth, it was enacted, that no manner of perſon or perſons, ſhould from thenceforth ſue, haue, or maintaine any writ of right, or make any preſcription, title, or claime, of, to, or for any Manors, lands, tenements, rents, annuities, commons, penſions, portions, corrodies, or other hereditaments of the poſſeſſion of his or their anceſtor, or predeceſſor, and declare, and alleage any further ſeiſon, or poſſeſſion of his or their anceſtor or predeceſſor, but only of the ſeiſon or poſſeſſion of his anceſtor, or predeceſſor, which hath béene or then was, or ſhall be ſeiſed of the ſaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, rents, annuities, commons, penſions, portions, corrodies, or other Hereditaments within threeſcore yéeres next before the teſte of the ſame writ, or next before the ſaid preſcription, title, or claime, ſued, commenced, brought, made, or had after the making of the ſame Act.

A rehearſall of part of the ſtatute of 32.H.8.2. touching limitation of preſumption.

And where alſo it was further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, amongſt other things, that no perſon or perſons, ſhould after that, make any auowry or cogniſance for any rent, ſuit or ſeruice, or alleage any ſeiſon of any rent, ſuit, or ſeruice in the ſame auowry or cogniſance in the poſſeſſion of his or their anceſtors or predeceſſor or predeceſſors, or in his owne poſſeſſion, or in the poſſeſſion of any other, whoſe eſtate he ſhould after that, pretend or claime to haue aboue fifty yéeres next before the making of the ſaid auowry or cogniſance.

And where by the ſame Act it was alſo further enacted amongſt other things, that if any perſon or perſons, at any time after that, did ſue any of the ſaid Actions or writs, for any Manors, Lands, Tenemets, or other Hereditaments, or make any auowry, cogniſance, preſcription, title, or claime, of, or for any rent, ſuit, ſeruice, or other hereditaments, and could not proue that hee or they, or his, or their anceſtors or predeceſſors, were in actuall poſſeſſion or ſeiſon, of, and in the ſame Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Suits, Seruices, Annuities, Commons, Penſions, Portions, Corrodies, or other Hereditaments, at any time or times, within the yéeres before limited and appointed in the ſame Act, in manner and forme as is aforeſaid, that if the ſame ſeiſon were trauerſed or denied by the party Plaintife, Demaundant, or Auowant, or by the party Tenant or Defendant, that then, and after ſuch triall therein had, all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, and their heyres, ſhould from thenceforth be vtterly barred for euer, of all, and euery the ſaid Writs, Actions, Auowries, Cogniſance, Preſcription, Title and Claime after that to be ſued, had, or made, of, and for the ſame manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or other the Premiſſes, or any part of the ſame, for the which the ſame action, Writ, Auowry, Cogniſance, Preſcription, Title or claime, that ſhould at any time be had, ſued, or made.

Certain doubts moued vpon the ſaid St. of 32.H.8.2.

Vpon which ſaid Act, doubt and ambiguity hath riſen, and béene moued, whether a Writ of right, of aduouſon, a quare impedit, iure patronatus, or aſſiſe of darrenpreſentment, may be maintained by any perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporate, whereas the ſame perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporate, their anceſtor or predeceſſor, or he, or they, by whom hee or they doe claime, cannot lay the explees, ſeiſon, or preſentment in him or themſelues, or the anceſtor or predeceſſor of them, or any of them, or in him, or them, by whom hee or they doe claime, within threeſcore yeeres next before the teſte of the ſame writ of right, of aduouſon, quare impedit, or aſſiſe of darrenpreſentment, and iure patronatus. And alſo whether any perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporat, hauing a ſeignory by reaſon of any Caſtles, Honors, Manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of him or them holden by Knights ſeruice, may maintaine a writ of right of ward, or a writ of rauiſhment of ward, for any caſtels, honors, manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments holden by Knights ſeruice, or for the body of any ward, that hee or they claime by reaſon of any ſuch tenure by Knights ſeruice, whereas he or they haue not beene ſeiſed of the ſame ſeruices, within threeſcore yeeres next before the teſte of any ſuch writs. For the explanation and plaine declaration whereof, and in auoiding of the ſaid ambiguities and doubts: Bee it enacted and declared by the Queenes highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſaid former Act made in the ſaid two and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry, or any article, clauſe, ſentence, or matter therein conteined, ſhall not extend to any writ of right, of aduouſon, quare impedit, or aſſiſe of darrenpreſentment, nor iure patronatus, nor to any writ of right of ward, writ of rauiſhment of ward, for the wardſhip of the body, or for the wardſhip of any Caſtles, Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments holden by Knights ſeruice, nor to the ſeiſor of the wardſhip of the body of any ward or wards, or to the ſeiſor or Wardſhip of any Caſtels, Honors, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments holden by Knights ſeruice: but that all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the heires and ſucceſſors of euery of them, ſhall and may haue, maintaine, and purſue all and ſingular the ſaid writs of right, of aduouſon, Quare impedit, aſſiſe of darrenpreſentment, iure patronatus, writs of right of ward, rauiſhment of Ward, and alſo ſeiſe the wardſhip both of the[a] body, and of the caſtles, honors, manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments, holden by knights ſeruice in like manner and forme, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as they or any of them ſhould or might haue done, made, or purſued, before the making of the ſaid Act made in the xxxii. yeere, as though the ſame Act had neuer beene had or made: any thing in the ſaid former Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. St.21.Iac.16.

Certaine writs and acts whereunto the ſaid ſtatute ſhall not extend.

Cap. VI.

Counterfeiting of ſtrange Coines, &c. adiudged Treaſon.

FOraſmuch as by the Lawes of this Realme, ſmall and no due and condigne puniſhment is at this preſent time prouided, for ſuch euil diſpoſed perſons as ſhal counterfeit or forge ſuch kind of gold or ſiluer, of other Realmes, as is not the proper coine of this Realme, and yet permitted and ſuffered by the Queene our Soueraigne Ladies conſent, and heretofore hath been permitted and ſuffered, by the conſent of her moſt noble Progenitors, to bee currant in paiment, within this her Realme, nor for ſuch perſons as ſhall counterfeit the Queenes Highneſſe Signe manuell, her priuy Signet, or priuy Seale. By reaſon whereof, diuers euill diſpoſed perſons are encoraged and boldened daily to perpetrate and commit the ſaid ſeuerall offences.

For remedy whereof, be it enacted by our Soueraigne Lady the Queene, the Lords ſpiritual and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons, hereafter falſely forge and counterfeit any ſuch kind of Coyne of Gold or Siluer, as is not the proper Coyne of this Realme, and is, or ſhall be currant within this Realme, by the conſent of the Queene, her heires or ſucceſſors. Or if any perſon or perſons, at any time hereafter, doe falſely forge or counterfeit the Queenes ſigne manuell, priuy ſignet, or priuy ſeale, that then euery ſuch offence ſhall bee deemed and iudged high Treaſon, and the offendors therein, their counſellors, procurors, aydors, and abettors, being conuict, according to the lawes of this Realme, of any of the ſaid offences, ſhall bee likewiſe deemed and adiudged Traytors againſt the Queene, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the Realme, and ſhall ſuffer and haue ſuch paines of death, forfeiture of lands, goods, and cattels, and alſo loſe the priuilege of all ſanctuary, as in caſe of high treaſon it is vſed and ordeined.

Treaſon to forge the Coine of other realms currant in this Realme or the Kings ſigne manuell, &c. 27.H.8.2.25.Ed, 3. 2.

Cap. VII.

Fines leuied before the Iuſtices of the common place, ſhall be of force, notwithſtanding proclamations be not made.

WHereas vpon fines leuied with Proclamations, doubts haue of late riſen, by occaſion of adiournment of Termes, in which Proclamations ſhould haue beene made according to the forme, limited for proclamations vpon fines, by the ſtatute made in the fourth yeere of King Henry the ſeuenth, and were not by reaſon of ſuch adiournments, had ne made, according to the puruiey of the ſame eſtatute.

4.H.7.24.

Be it therefore enacted that all fines, as well heretofore leuied, as hereafter to bee leuied, before the Iuſtices of the common place, of any manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, wherupon the Proclamations hath not, or ſhall not, by reaſon of adiournment of any Terme by Writ, bee duly made, ſhalbe of as good force, effect and ſtrength, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if any terme heretofore ſo adiourned, or that at any time hereafter ſhalbe ſo adiourned, had beene holden and kept from the beginning to the end thereof, not adiourned, and Proclamations therein made, according to the forme and effect of the ſaid eſtatute.

Fines ſhal be of force notwithſtanding proclamations be not duly made by the adiournment of any Terme.

Prouided allwayes that this Act ſhall not in any wiſe extend to any fine heretofore leuied of any Manors, lands, tenements, or Hereditaments now in ſuit, demand, or variance in any of the Queenes courts, or whereof any Charters, euidences, or muniments concerning the ſame, be now in demand in the Queenes high Court of Chancery, nor to any fine or fines heretofore leuied, of any manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which before the firſt day of this preſent Parliament haue been recouered, gotten, or obtained by reaſon of any iudgement, entre, decree, arbitrament, or other lawfull means, contrary to the purport, intent, or effect of any ſuch fine or fines thereof heretofore leuied.

Certaine fines to which this Statute ſhall not extend.

Cap. VIII.

No Sheriffe ſhall be Iuſtice of Peace, where or when he is Sheriffe.

1.Ed.6.7.

WHere in one Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the continuance of Actions, after the death of any King, made in the firſt yeere of our late ſoueraigne Lord, King Edward the ſixth, amongſt other things, it is ordeined, and enacted, that albeit any perſon or perſons, being Iuſtice of Aſſiſe, Iuſtice of Gaole deliuery, or Iuſtice of peace, within any of the Kings dominions, or being in any other of the Kings cōmiſſions whatſoeuer, ſhall fortune to be made Duke Archbiſhop, Marques, Earle, Viſcount, Baron, Biſhop, Knight, Iuſtice of the one bench or of the other, or Serieant at the law, or Sheriffe, yet that notwithſtanding he and they ſhould remaine Iuſtice and Commiſſioner, and haue full power and authority to execute the ſame, in like manner and forme, as he or they might, and ought to haue done before the ſame, as in the ſaid act more plainly appeareth. Sithence the making of the which Act, diuers perſons being in the commiſſion of the peace in one County, haue beene made Sheriffes of the ſame County, and haue exerciſed either of the ſaid offices, which ſeemeth not to be conuenient.

Wherefore be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that no manner of perſon or perſons, hauing, vſing, or exerciſing the office of the Sheriffe of any County or Counties, ſhall vſe or exerciſe the Office of the Iuſtice of the Peace, by force of any Commiſſion or otherwiſe in any County or Counties, where he or they ſhall be Sheriffe, during the time only that he or they ſhall vſe or exerciſe the ſaid office or Sherifwike. Any thing in the ſaid former Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that all and euery Act and Acts, to bee done by any ſuch Sheriffe or Sheriffes, by authority of any Commiſſion of the Peace, during the time aboueſaid, ſhalbe void and of none effect: The ſaid former Act notwithſtanding.

No Sheriffe ſhall be Iuſtice of peace of any county where and when he is Sheriffe.

Cap. IX.

The incorporation of Phyſitians in London.

WHereas in the Parliament holden at London the fifteenth day of Aprill, in the fourteenth yeare of the raigne of our late Soueraigne Lord, King Henry the eight, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter the laſt day of Iuly, in the fifteenth yeers of the raigne of the ſame King, and there holden. It was enacted, that a certaine grant by leters patents, of incorporation made and granted by our ſaid late King, to the Phyſitians of London, and all clauſes and articles contained in the ſame grant, ſhould bee approued, granted, ratified, and confirmed by the ſame Parliament.

A confirmation of the St. of 14.H.8 5. touching the corporation of Phyſitians of London.

For the conſideration thereof, be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid Statute or Act of Parliament, with euery article and clauſe therein conteined, ſhall from henceforth ſtand and continue ſtill in full ſtrength, force and effect. Any act, ſtatute, law, cuſtome or any other thing made, had, or vſed to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And for the better reformation of diuers enormities, happening to the Common wealth, by the euill vſing and vndue adminiſtration of Phyſick, and for the enlarging of further articles for the better execution of the things, conteined in the ſaid grant enacted.

Whoſoeuer ſhal be committed to priſon by the Preſidēt of the College of Phyſitians in London, ſhalbe receiued and kept thereby.

Bee it therefore now enacted, That whenſoeuer the Preſident of the College, or Communalty of the faculty of Phyſicke of London, for the time being, or ſuch as the ſaid Preſident and College ſhall yeerely, according to the tenor and meaning of the ſaid Act, authoriſe to ſearch, examine, correct, and puniſh all offendors, and tranſgreſſors, in the ſaid faculty, within the ſame City and precinct, in the ſaid Act expreſſed, ſhall ſend or [a] commit any ſuch offendor or offendors, for his or their offences or diſobedience, contrary to any article or clauſe, contained in the ſaid grant or Act, to any ward, Gaole, or Priſon, within the ſame City and precinct (the Tower of London except.) That then from time to time, the Warden, Gaoler or Keeper, Wardens, Gaolers, or Keepers of the Wards, Gaoles and Priſons, within the City or precinct aforeſaid (except before excepted) ſhall receiue into his or their priſons, all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending, as ſhalbe ſo ſent or committted to him or them, as is aforeſaid, and there ſhall ſafely keep the perſon or perſons, ſo committed, in any of their priſons, at the proper coſts & charges of the ſaid perſon or perſons, ſo committed, without baile or mainpriſe, vntill ſuch time as ſuch offendor or offendors, or diſobedient be diſcharged of the ſaid impriſonment, by the ſaid preſident, and ſuch perſons as by the ſaid College, ſhalbe thereunto authoriſed, vpon paine that all and euery ſuch Warden, Gaoler, or Keeper, doing the contrary, ſhall loſe and forfeit the double of ſuch fine and amerciament, as ſuch offendor and offendors, or diſobedients, ſhall be aſſeſſed to pay, by ſuch as the ſaid preſident and College ſhall authoriſe, as aforeſaid, ſo that the ſame fine and amerciament, be not at any one time aboue the ſumme of xx.li. the moity thereof to be employed to the vſe of our Soueraigne Lady the Queene, her heires and ſucceſſors, the other moity vnto the ſaid Preſident and College. All which forfeitures to be recouered by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any of the Queenes, her heires and ſucceſſors Courts of Record, againſt any ſuch Warden, Gaoler or Keeper, ſo offending: in which ſuit no eſſoine, wager of Law, nor protection ſhalbe allowed, ne admitted for the defendant.

The offendors forfeiture, and who ſhall haue it, and by what meanes.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, for the better execution of the ſearch and view of Poticary wares, Drugges and Compoſitions, according to the tenour [illegible] a Statute, made in the two and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eighth, that it ſhall be lawfull for the Wardens of the Grocers, or one of them, to goe with the ſaid Phyſicians in their view and ſearch, that if the ſaid Warden or Wardens, doe refuſe or delay his or their comming thereunto, forthwith and immediately when the ſaid Preſident or foure of his College Elect, as aforeſaid, doe call vpon him or them, that then the ſaid Phyſicians may and ſhall execute that ſearch and view, and the due puniſhment of the Poticaries, for any their euill and faulty ſtuffe, according to the Statute laſt before mentioned, without the aſſiſtance of any of the ſaid Wardens : any clauſe in the aforenamed Statute, to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding. And euery ſuch perſon or perſons, as will or ſhall reſiſt ſuch ſearch, ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch reſiſtance x.li. the ſame penalty to be recouered in forme aforeſaid, without any of the delaies aforeſaid to be had in ſuit thereof.

Searching in London for Apothecary wares. 32.H.8.40.

The penalty for reſiſting of ſearch of Apothecary wares.

And further be it enacted, that all Iuſtices, Maiors, Sherifes, Bailifes, Conſtables, and other miniſters and officers, within the city and precincts aboue written, vpon requeſt to them made, ſhall helpe, aid and aſſiſt the Preſident of the ſaid College, and all perſons by them (from time to time) authoriſed, for the due execution of the ſaid acts or ſtatutes, vpon pain for not giuing of ſuch ayd, helpe, and aſſiſtance, to run in contempt of the Queenes Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors.

Other Magiſtrates ſhall aſſiſt the Phyſicians in their ſearch.

Cap. X.

The Queene hath power to erect, vnite, or diſſolue certaine Courts.

WHereas in the Seſſions of the Parliament holden and begun at Weſtminſter the firſt day of March, in the ſeuenth yeere of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord, of moſt famous and worthy memory, King Edward the ſixth, and there continued to the diſſolution of the ſame, being the laſt day of the ſaid Moneth of March, amongſt other Acts it was enacted by the authority of the ſaid Parliament, That the Kings Maieſty ſhould or might at any time during his naturall life, by his Graces Letters Patents, vnder his great Seale of England, at his moſt gracious will and pleaſure, alter, change, vnite, tranſpoſe diſſolue or determine all or any of the Courts, commonly called the Court of the Augmentations of the Reuenues of the Kings Crowne, the Court of the firſt fruits and tenths, the Court of the Kings Wards, the Court of the generall Surueyors of the Kings Lands, and the Court of the Duchy of Lancaſter, and to reduce the ſame Courts or any of them, into one, two or more Court or Courts, or to vnite and annex the ſaid Courts, or any two or more of them together, or to any other his Maieſties Courts of Record, or to erect any other new Court or Courts, as to his Highneſſe ſhould haue beene thought moſt conuenient and beſt for the better, ſurer, and more ſpeedy anſwering of his yeerely reuenues, caſualties or profits, anſwerable in the ſaid Courts, or in any of them. And that all and ſingular ſuch alterations, changings, vnitings, annexings, tranſpoſings, diſſoluings, or determinations of the ſaid Courts, or of any of them ſo by his Highneſſe to be altered, changed, vnited, annexed, tranſpoſed, diſſolued or determined, or otherwiſe ſo to haue beene erected by the ſaid King, concerning order for the true paiment of his reuenues, rents, iſſues, caſualties, and profits, as ſhould be ſet forth, and declared in any ſuch his Letters Patents, or writings vnder his great ſeale of England, by his Highneſſe to be made, ſet forth, and declared, ſhould haue beene of ſuch like, and of the ſame force and ſtrength, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes,

A rehearſall of the Stat. of 7. Ed.6.2 touching the diſſolution and vniting of Courts.

as though the ſame were, or ſhould haue beene ſet forth, or declared by the authority of Parliament, the erection of the ſaid ſeuerall Courts, or any other thing had or made, before the making of the ſaid act, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding, as by the ſaid act more plainly it doth and may appeare. Sithens the making of which Act, it hath pleaſed Almighty God to take vnto his mercy, our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord, King Edward the ſixt, before any alteration, vniting, tranſpoſing, diſſoluing or determining any the ſaid Courts, by his letters patents, according to the tenor of the ſaid Act.

In conſideration whereof, and to the intent that the Queenes Highneſſe may at all times hereafter, during her Highneſſe life (which Almighty God long preſerue) alter, change, vnite, tranſpoſe, diſſolue, determin or reduce the ſame Courts, or any of them into one, two, or more courts at her Highneſſe free will and pleaſure: Bee it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Queenes Highneſſe ſhall or may at any time hereafter during her naturall life, by her graces Letters patents vnder her great ſeale of England, at her moſt gracious will and pleaſure, alter, change, vnite, tranſpoſe, diſſolue or determine all or any of the ſaid Court or Courts, and to reduce the ſame Courts or any of them into one, two or more Court or Courts, or to vnite and annex the ſaid Courts, or any two or more of them together, or to any other of her Maieſties Courts of Record, or to erect of the ſame any other new Court or Courts, as to her Highneſſe ſhalbe thought moſt conuenient and beſt, for the better, ſurer and more ſpeedy anſwering of her yeerely reuenues, caſualties or profits now anſwerable in the ſaid courts or in any of them, and that all and ſingular ſuch alterations, changings, vnitings, tranſpoſings, diſſoluings, or determinations of the ſaid Courts, or of any of them ſo to bee altered, changed, vnited, annexed, tranſpoſed, diſſolued or determined, or otherwiſe newly to be erected, as is aforeſaid, and concerning all and euery order for the true paiment of the reuenues, rents, iſſues, caſualties, & profits of our ſaid ſoueraign Lady the Queene, now anſwerable in the ſaid courts, or in any of them, as ſhall bee ſet forth, and declared in any ſuch Letters Patents, or writings vnder her Highneſſe great ſeale of England, hereafter to be made, ſet forth and declared, ſhalbe of ſuch like, and of the ſame force and ſtrength, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as though the ſame were or ſhould haue been ſet forth or declared by authority of Parliament, the ſaid ſeuerall erections, or any other thing heretofore had or made to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Queene may alter, vnite diſſolue, or reduce into one or more the courts of firſt fruits, Wards, Surueyors, &c.

No orders made by the Q. ſhall preiudice the ſubiect otherwiſe than before.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that any thing conteined, or to be conteined in the ſaid letters patents, hereafter to be made by the Queenes highneſſe that now is, concerning any paines, penalties, rules, or orders, made or to bee made for the leuying of the Queenes reuenues, rents, iſſues, caſualties, or profits, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to charge any of the Queenes ſubiects in any other manner or forme than they or any of them, ought lawfully to haue beene charged by the lawes of this realme, before the ſecond day of this preſent ſeſſion of Parliament.

Prouided alſo, & be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that any letters patents hereafter to be made by the Queenes highneſſe, or any thing or matter conteined in this act, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to giue any power or authority to the Chancellor, & generall ſurueyors of the court of the augmentations & reuenues of the Queenes Crowne, or to any other officer or officers of the ſame court, or of any other court or courts hereafter to be erected by the Queenes maieſty, as is aforeſaid, or to any other officer or officers, to be appointed in any of the ſame Courts hereafter to bee erected by the Queenes highneſſe, as is aforeſaid, or to any officer or officers, of any Court, wherunto any of the foreſaid courts ſhalbe by her highneſſe vnited to heare or determin any plea, matter or cauſe, but only where her highneſſe is only the meere & ſole party, againſt any of her ſubiects, of, for or concerning the ſpeedy anſwering, leuying or paimēt of her ſaid maieſties rents, reuenues, iſſues, caſualties, profits, & debts, being within the ſuruey of any the ſaid courts.

The officers of any of the ſaid courts ſhall not hold plea but where the Q. is onely party againſt any of her ſubiects.

The other Courts annexed to the Exchequer. The offices and profits of other ſaued.

Prouided alwaies, that if her Highneſſe hereafter ſhall annex any of the ſaid Courts vnto her Court of the Exchequer, that then all things within the ſuruey of the ſaid Court ſo annexed, ſhall be ordered in like manner, to all intents, as the ſaid Court of the Exchequer is, or ought to be, by the common lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, ſauing to all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporat, and to euery of them, ſuch offices of Stewardſhips, offices of Maſterſhips of any game or games, keepers of foreſts, chaſes, parkes, houſes and caſtles, and the profits therunto belonging, and all rents, annuities and fees, as they or any of them haue, or ought to haue, if this Act had neuer beene had ne made.

Annuities, fees, &c. paid out of the Court of Augmentatiōs ſhall be hereafter paid.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall in any wiſe extend or bee conſtrued, or take away, extinct, or determine, from any perſon or perſons, their Heires, Succeſſors, or Aſſignes, or from any of them, any Fees, Annuities, Penſions, Stipends, or Annuall paiments of any ſummes of money, which they, or any of them of right might, or ought lawfully to haue by any Letters Patents, or other ſufficient writing, vnder the Seale of the ſaid Court of the Augmentations, made before the ſeuenth day of Iuly laſt paſt: but that all, and euery perſon and perſons, their Heires, Succeſſors, Executors, and Aſſignes, and euery of them, which of right haue, or ought to haue or hereafter ſhall haue any fee, annuity, ſtipend, penſion, or annuall paiment, of any ſumme or ſums of money vnder the ſaid ſeale of the Court of the Augmentations, or being lawfully allowed, and payed in the ſame Court, ſhall and may according to the tenour of the ſame grant, perceiue, take and receiue the ſame, and ſhall yeerely thereof be payd of the Queenes Treaſure, her Heires and Succeſſors, at the dayes and times compriſed in ſuch Letters Patents or other writings in any ſuch Court or Courts, whereunto the ſame Court, where the ſame annuities or yeerely ſummes of money was payd, ſhall be ſo vnited and annexed, or in ſuch Court or Courts, as ſhall be by authority of this Act of Parliament newly erected and made in the place of any of the ſaid Courts, ſo being diſſolued, as long as the ſame Court ſhall remaine and haue any being, and after in ſuch Court or Courts, as ſhall pleaſe the Queene newly to erect, by the hands of the Officers of the ſame Court, and for default thereof, in any of the Queenes Courts, wherein ſufficient Reuenue ſhall bee to anſwer the ſame of the Queenes treaſure there, by the hands of the Officers of the ſame Court, in ſuch like manner and forme as the ſame perſon or perſons, their heires, executors and aſſignes, or any of them, ſhould or might haue done or beene paid in any other place or Court, if this Act had neuer beene had or made, any thing in this Act contained, or any other thing hereafter to bee done by reaſon, colour or authority of this Act, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Annuities, fees ſtipends, &c. granted by letters patents ſaued to the grantees.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, nor any thing therin contained, ſhal in any wiſe extend or be conſtrued to take away, extinct, or determin from any perſon or perſons, their heires, ſucceſſors or aſſignes, or from any of them, any fees, annuities penſions, ſtipends or annuall paiments of any ſummes of money, which they or any of them, lawfully haue or of right might, or ought lawfully to haue by any Letters patents or other ſufficient writing, made before the ſeuenth day of July laſt paſt: but that all and euery perſon and perſons, their heires, ſucceſſors, executors and aſſignes, and euery of them, which haue or hereafter ſhall haue, any fee, annuity, ſtipend, penſion or annuall paiment of any ſumme or ſums of money, payable yeerly in any of the ſaid Courts, or by the hands of any officer or officers of any of the ſame Courts, ſhall and may perceiue, take and receiue the ſame, and ſhall yeerly thereof be paid of the Queenes treaſure, at the daies and times compriſed in ſuch letters patents or other writings, in any of the ſaid Courts, where now the ſame is or ought to be payable, as long as the ſaid Court or Courts ſhall remaine and haue any being, and after in ſuch Court or Courts as ſhall pleaſe the Queene newly to erect, by the hands of the officers of the ſame court or Courts, or for default thereof, in any of the Queenes Courts wherein ſufficient reuenue ſhall be to anſwer the ſame of the Queenes treaſure there, by the hands of the officers of the ſame Court or Courts, in ſuch like manner and forme, as the ſame perſon and perſons, their heires, executors, and aſſignes, or any of them, ſhould and might haue done and been paid in any other place or Court, if this Act had neuer beene had or made: any thing in this Act contained, or any other thing hereafter to be done by reaſon, colour or authority of this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding. 1. El. 4.

A confirmation of the ſtatute of 21. H. 8. 9. touching the prices of woollen Hats and Caps made beyond the ſea. Cuſtoming of the ſame Hats and Caps. No man ſhall buy aboue one doſen of Hats or Caps made out of this Realme. Rep. 1. Iac. 25.

Cap. XII.

If any perſons to the number of twelue, or aboue, being aſſembled together, ſhall intend, goe about, practice or put in vſe with force and armes vnlawfully, & of their own authority to change any Lawes made for religion by authority of Parliament ſtanding in force, or any other lawes or ſtatutes of this Realme, or any of them, the ſame number of twelue or aboue being commanded or required by the Sherife of the ſhire, or by any Iuſtice of peace of the ſame Shire, or by any Mayor Sheriffe, Iuſtices of Peace, or Bailiffes of any City, Borough or Towne Corporate, where any ſuch aſſemblies ſhalbe vnlawfully had or made by Proclamation in the Queenes name to retire and repaire to their houſes, habitations, or places from whence they came, and they or any of them notwithſtanding ſuch Proclamatiō ſhall cōtinue together by the ſpace of one whole houre after ſuch commandement or requeſt made by Proclamation: or after that ſhall willingly in forcible and riotous manner attempt to do or put in vre any of the things aboue ſpecified, that then aſwell euery ſuch abode together, as euery ſuch act or offence ſhalbe adiudged felony, and the offendors therein ſhall be adiudged felons, and ſhall ſuffer onely execution of death as in caſe of felony. And if any perſons to the ſaid number of twelue or aboue ſhall goe about &c. to ouerthrow, cut, caſt down or dig the pales, hedges, ditches, or other encloſure of any Parke or other ground encloſed, or the bankes of any fiſh-pond or poole, or any Conduits for water, Conduit heads or Conduit pipes, hauing courſe of water, to the intēt that the ſame or any of them ſhould from thenceforth lie open, or vnlawfully to haue way or common in the ſaid Parkes or other grounds encloſed, or to deſtroy the Deere in any manner of Parke, or any Warren of Conies, or any Doue-houſes, or any Fiſh in any Fiſhpond or poole, or to pull or cut downe any houſes, barnes, mils or bayes, or to bnrne any ſtackes of Corne, or to abate or diminiſh the rents of any lands, or the price of any victuall, corne or Graine, or any other thing vſuall for the ſuſtenance of man, and being required or commanded by any Iuſtice of Peace, &c. by proclamation to be made &c. to retire to their habitations, &c. and they or any of them notwithſtanding ſhal remain together by the ſpace of one whole houre after ſuch comandement made by proclamation, or ſhal in forcible manner put in vre any of the things laſt before mentioned, &c. That then euery of the ſaid offendors ſhall bee iudged a felon, &c. And if any perſon or perſons vnlawfully & without authority, by ringing of any bell or bels, ſounding of any Trnmpet, Drumme, Horne, or other inſtrument, or by firing of any Beakon, or by malicious ſpeaking of any words, or making any ouecry, or by ſetting vp or caſting of any bill or writing, or by any other deed or act, ſhall raiſe or cauſe to bee raiſed any perſons to the number of twelue or aboue, to the intẽt that the ſame perſons ſhould doe or put in vre any of the acts aboue mentioned, & that the perſons ſo raiſed & aſſembled, after cõmandement giuen in forme aforeſaid, ſhall make their abode together in form as is aforeſaid, or in forcible manner put in vre any of the acts aboueſaid. That then all and ſingular perſons by whoſe ſpeaking, deed, act or other the meanes aboue ſpecified to the number of twelue ſo raiſed, ſhalbe adiudged felons. And if the wife, ſeruant, or other perſons ſhal any way relieue them that be vnlawfully aſſembled as is aforeſaid with victuals armors, weapons, or any other thing, that then they ſhalbe adiudged felons. And if any perſons aboue the number of two & vnder the number of twelue, ſhal practiſe or put in vre any of the things aboue mentioned, & being commanded by a Iuſtice of peace, &c. to retire, &c. and they make their abode by the ſpace of one houre togethes, that then euery of them ſhal ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one yeere without baile or mainpriſe, and euery perſon damnified ſhal or may recouer his triple dammages againſt him: and euery perſon able, being requeſted by the Kings officers, ſhalbe bound to reſiſt them. If any perſons to the number of forty or aboue, ſhall, aſſemble together by forcible manner vnlawfully and of their owne authority, to the intent to put in vre any of the things aboue ſpecified or to doe other felonies or rebellions, act or acts, and ſo ſhall continue together by the ſpace of three houres after Proclamation ſhall bee made, at or nigh the place where they ſhalbe ſo aſſembled, or in ſome Market towne therunto next adioyning, and after notice thereof to them giuen, then euery perſon ſo willingly aſſembled in forcible manner, and ſo continuing together by the ſpace of three houres, ſhall be adiudged a felon. And if any Copiholder or Farmer being required by any of the Kings officers hauing authority, to ayd and aſſiſt them in repreſſing any of the ſaid offendors, doe refuſe ſo to doe, that then he ſhall forfeit his copihold or leaſe, only for terme of his life. ACTS made in the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter, the ſecond day of April, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our moſt gracious Soueraigne Lady MARY, by the grace of God, Queene of England, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, and there continued and kept to the diſſolution of the ſame, being the fifth day of May, then next enſuing, as followeth.

CAP. I.

The Regall power is in the Queenes Maieſtie as fully as it hath béene in any her Progenitors.

FOrasmuch as the Imperial Crowne of this realme, with all dignities, honors, prerogatiues, authorities, iuriſdictions and preheminences therunto annexed, vnited and belonging, by the diuine prouidence of Almighty God, is moſt lawfully, iuſtly and rightfully diſcended and come vnto the Quéenes highneſſe that now is, being ẏ very true & vndoubted heire and inheritrix therof, and inueſted in her moſt royall perſon, according vnto the lawes of this realme. And by force and vertue of the ſame, all regall power, dignity, honor, authority, prerogatiue, preheminence, and iuriſdictions doth appertain and of right ought to appertaine and belong vnto her highneſſe, as to the Soueraigne, ſupreme gouernor and Quéene of this Realme and the dominions thereof, in as full, large and ample manner, as it hath done heretofore to any other her moſt noble Progenitors, Kings of this realme. Neuertheleſſe the moſt ancient ſtatutes of this realme, being made by Kings then reigning, doe not onely attribute and refer all prerogatiue, preheminence, power and iuriſdiction royall vnto the name of King, but alſo doe giue, aſſigne and appoint the correction and puniſhment of all offendors againſt the regality and dignity of the Crowne, and the lawes of this Realme vnto the King. By occaſion whereof, the malicious and ignorant perſons may be hereafter induced and perſwaded vnto this error and folly, to thinke that her highneſſe could, ne ſhould haue, enioy and vſe ſuch like royall authority, power, preheminence, prerogatiue and iuriſdiction, nor doe, ne execute and vſe all things, concerning the ſaid Statutes, and take the benefit and priuilege of the ſame, nor correct and puniſh offendors againſt her moſt royall perſon, and the Regality and Dignity of the Crowne of this Realme, and the Dominions thereof, as the Kings of this Realme her moſt noble Progenitors haue heretofore done, enioyed, vſed, and exerciſed.

Seueral cauſes why this Stat. was made.

For the auoyding and cléere extinguiſhment of which ſaid error or doubt, and for a plaine declaration of the lawes of this realme in that behalfe.

Be it declared and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Law of this realme is, and euer hath béene, and ought to be vnderſtood, that the Kingly or regall office of this Realme, and all dignities, prerogatiue royall, power, preheminences, priuileges, authorities and iuriſdictions therunto annexed, vnited or belonging, being inueſted either in male or female, are, and be and ought to be, as fully, wholly, abſolutly and entirely déemed, iudged, accepted, inueſted and taken in the one as in the other, ſo that what, or whenſoeuer ſtatute or law doth limit and appoint, that the King of this realme may, or ſhall haue, execute, and doe any thing as King, or doth giue any profit or commodity to the King, or doth limit or appoint any paines or puniſhment for the correction of offendors or tranſgreſſors againſt the regality and dignity of the King or of the Crowne, the ſame the Quéene (being ſupreme gouerneſſe, poſſeſſor and inheritor to the Imperiall Crowne of this realme as our ſaid ſoueraigne Lady the Quéene moſt iuſtly preſently is) may by the ſame authority and power likewiſe haue, exerciſe, execute, puniſh, and correct, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, without doubt, ambiguity, ſcruple, or queſtion, any cuſtome, vſe or ſcruple, or any other thing whatſoeuer to be made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The regal power of this realme & all the dignities of the ſame ſhalbe aſwell in a Queene as in a King.

Where the City of Worceſter, and diuers other Cities, Boroughes and Townes Corporate within the Realme of England, of long time haue beene vpholden, repaired, and onely maintained by making of broad Clothes called long Clothes, ſhort Clothes and coloured Clothes, and the Citizens, Freemen, and the Inhabitants of the ſame Cities, Townes, and Boroughes Corporat, haue thereby beene greatly enriched, and the poore people and handicraftsmen of the ſame and the Countries adioyning dayly ſet a worke, as Weauers, Walkers, Fullers Fulling-mill-men, Sheeremen, and Dyers, forcers of wools, caſters of Wools, and ſorters of wools, Spinners, Carders, and Spullers of yarne, and haue had their onely liuing thereby, till now of late in the fifth yeere of the raigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, That an eſtatute was made, that no man ſhould occupy Cloth making, ne put any broad Cloth or clothes to weauing or walking, except hee hath beene apprentice to cloth making by the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres, or elſe haue occupied and practiſed cloth making by the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres, or more, vnder paine of forfeiture of great penalties in the ſame Eſtatute limited, by reaſon whereof, diuers and many good Clothiers, dwelling in the ſaid Cities and Townes corporate, which had occupied and made Clothe by the ſpace of fiue or ſix yeeres, and ſome which haue married Clothiers wiues, which had occupied cloth making by the ſpace of twenty yeeres before, by reaſon of the ſame Eſtatute, haue beene enforced to leaue off, and cleerely diſcontinue their cloth making, to their great impoueriſhment, and to the vtter vndoing of a great number of poore people, and handicrafts men, which daily had their liuing by the ſaid Clothiers. And foraſmuch as the perfect and principle ground of Cloth making, is the true ſorting of Wools, and the experience thereof conſiſteth only in women, as Clothiers wiues and their women ſeruants, and not in apprentices, they bee thereby very like to be vtterly vndone for euer, vnleſſe ſpeedy remedy be therein prouided.

Curriers as well as other Artificers may buy Leather.

WHere at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, vpon the prorogation, the fifteenth day of Aprill, in the ſixth yeere of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixt, it was amongſt other things enacted, that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, or condition ſoeuer he or they be, ſhould buy, ingroſſe, or cauſe to be bought or engroſſed, any kind of tanned lether, to ſell the ſame againe, ſauing only Sadlers, Girdlers, Cordwainers, and certaine other Artificers, as by the ſame Act more plainly may appeare: Sithence the making whereof, foraſmuch as many poore Artificers, as Shoomakers and Coblers, who, afore that, might buy from time to time their ſtuffe of the Currier ready prouided, and wrought ſufficiently, and to buy the ſame at a price reaſonable, and now being very poore men, and not able to buy two or three hides or backes of leather at one time, nor to pay ready money for the ſame, are inforced to giue vp their occupations in great number, to their vtter impoueriſhment, and vndoing: and foraſmuch alſo, as ſithence the making of the ſaid Eſtatute, all kind of ſtuffe made of leather, is more ſlenderly and deceitfully wrought and made than euer it was, and neuertheleſſe as deare, or rather dearer, whereby it may appeare that the ſaid former Act was procured for the ſingular commodity of a few rich Shoomakers, and other Artificers, that are now common Regrators, and Engroſſers of leather, without reſpect of perfect workmanſhip, or of the Common wealth, which is well perceiued both in mens purſes, and alſo in their Shooes: The experience is well proued, for they hauing the only trade of buying of leather, ſtuffe, and tallow in their hands, do notwithſtanding deliuer to the Currier ſo little ſtuffe, and tallow, whereby the leather cannot be ſufficiently wrought: And foraſmuch as the Curriers are by diuers lawes bound to the ſufficient workmanſhip and currying of leather vpon diuers paines, whereas they may buy no leather, and the Shoomaker will not allow them ſufficiently to doe the ſame.

A rehearſal of a branch of the ſtatute of 5. & 6. Ed. 6. 15.

The inconueniences of the ſame branch.

Be it therefore enacted, that from henceforth it ſhall be lawfull as well for the Currier, Shoomaker, Girdler, Sadler, Bugetmaker, and all other Artificers, occupying the craft or myſtery of leather buying, lawfully to buy all kindes of tanned leather, in faires and markets, within all places of this Realme accuſtomed to be ſold, it being lawfully tanned and dreſſed, ſo that the ſaid Curriers, Shoomakers, and Girdlers, nor any perſon for them, or for their vſe ſhall buy any kind of tanned leather to ſell againe to any Merchant, or other ſtranger, to be conueied ouer the ſea, ne ſhall ſend or conuey any leather beyond the ſea, vpon the forfeiting of all ſuch leather ſo bought, the one halfe of the ſame to be to the Queenes Highneſſe, and the other halfe to him, that preſenteth the ſame: And further the foreſaid Act from henceforth to be repealed, made void, and of none effect concerning the Curriers, Shoomakers, Sadlers, Bugetmakers, Girdlers, and all other Artificers, occupying the myſtery of leather buying, curried and dreſſed.

Curriers, Shoomakers, &c. may buy leather, but not to conuey beyond ſeas.

A repeale of the aforeſaid branch of 5. & 6. Ed. 6. 15.

The Curriers of London, and the ſuburbs thereof ſhall vſe their owne ſtuffe.

And be it further enacted, that from henceforth no perſon or perſons (occupying the feat or myſtery of currying of tanned leather) within the City of London, or the ſuburbs of the ſame, ſhall occupy about the currying of the ſame leather, any other ſtuffe or tallow brought vnto him by any other perſon or perſons, but ſuch as ſhall be his owne, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch leather ſo curried, contrary to the true meaning thereof.

How the lether ſhalbe ordered that the currier ſhall dreſſe.

And furthermore that no currier ſhall curry any hides for any Shoemaker, to make Shoes, or botes of, from the feaſt of Saint Iames the Apoſtle, vnto the fiue and twentieth day of March, but ſuch as ſhalbe ſufficiently dipped twice in the pan, for the true and iuſt workmanſhip thereof, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch leather, as ſhall bee wrought to the contrary, the one halfe of the ſame to the Queenes highneſſe, and the other moity to him that ſhal find and preſent the ſame, all the ſame penalties to bee recouered in forme aforeſaid, by him, or them, that will ſue for the ſame, by action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any Court of Record, wherein no Eſſoine, or Protection, or wager of Law ſhall bee admitted or allowed for the Defendant.

Within what time lether ſhall be curried.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that when, and as often as any Shoomaker or his deputy doth bring any Leather ſufficiently tanned to any Currier to bee curried, deliuering ſufficient Liquor for well dreſſing of the ſame, the ſame ſhall bee by euery ſuch Currier, well and ſufficiently curried, and made ready for the Shoemaker, within the ſpace of fiue dayes in Summer, that is to ſay, from the firſt day of March to the laſt day of September, and alſo in like manner within the ſpace of ten dayes in winter, that is to ſay, from the firſt day of October vnto the laſt day of February, vpon paine to forfeit to the party grieued for euery hide not curried, and dreſſed, in manner and forme aforeſaid, the ſumme of ten ſhillings.

Prouided further, that this prouiſo ſhall not extend to binde any Currier to dreſſe any Leather, which hee doing his beſt, is not able to dreſſe within euery of the times aforeſaid, but ſhall extend to all ſuch leather, as he conueniently may dreſſe after the common rate of dreſſing. The Commiſſioners of Sewers in the County of Glamorgan, ſhall take order for ſauing the land from deſtruction by ſand ariſing out of the ſea.

The effect of the Statute of 23.H.8.

Where in the three and twentieth yeere of the reigne of the excellent prince of famous memory King Henry the eight, it was enacted and eſtabliſhed, that commiſſions of Sewers from time to time when need ſhould require ſhould be directed to ſuch ſubſtantial and indifferent perſons, as ſhould be named by the Lord Chancellor of England, the L. Treaſurer, the L. Priuy Seale, and the two chiefe Iuſtices, or three of them, whereof the Lord Chancellor to be one, authoriſing them, or ſix of them to ſuruey wals, ſtreames, ditches, bankes, gutters, ſewers, Guttees, cauſeyes, bridges, trenches, mils, mill dammes, floodgates, ponds, locks, ebbing weeres, and other lets, and nuiſances, by reaſon of the outragious courſe and rage of the Sea, in, and vpon mariſhes, and other low places, which good law doth not extend, nor is not taken to giue authority and power vnto the ſaid Commiſſioners of ſewers to reforme the great hurt, nuiſance, and loſſes that commeth and chaunceth to the Queenes Highneſſe and her ſubiects, by reaſon of ſand riſing out of the ſea, and driuen to land by ſtormes and winds, whereby much good ground lying on the Sea coaſts in ſundry places of this Realme, and eſpecially in the County of Glamorgan, is couered with ſuch ſand riſing out of the Sea, that there commeth no profit of the ſame, to the great loſſe of the Queenes highneſſe, and her louing ſubiects, and more is like to enſue, if ſpeedy remedy be not therein prouided.

May it therefore pleaſe the Queenes highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpiritual and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame. Bee it enacted, that as well the ſaid Act of Sewers, made in the three and twentieth yeere, as all Commiſſions of Sewers, hereafter to bee directed according to the tenour of the ſaid Act, may extend and giue authority, that the Commiſſioners therein named for the County of Glamorgan, or ſix of them, whereof three to be of the Quorum, ſhall by this act and the ſaid former act and Commiſſion to them directed, haue full power and authority from time to time, to make Lawes, Prouiſions, Ordinances, Iudgments, and Decrees within the ſaid County of Glamorgan, for the redreſſe and ſauing of the ſaid grounds from hurt and deſtruction by reaſon of the ſaid ſands, as they might or may doe by the ſaid former act and Commiſſion for the withſtanding and auoiding the outragious courſe and rage of the ſea, or other waters: any vſage or cuſtome to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Cap. I.

A Branch of a ſtatute made 1.M.2. touching the ſigning of Letters Patents, &c. with the Q. ſigne Manuel repealed, &c.

WHere in the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter, the ſecond day of Aprill, in the firſt yeere of the Reigne of our moſt dread and Gracious Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſty, and there continued and kept till the diſſolution of the ſame, being the fifth day of May then next following, one Act was made touching the articles of her Highneſſe moſt noble mariage in the which Act amongſt other things it was enacted, ordered, and eſtabliſhed by the authority of the ſaid Parliament, that all and ſingular gifts, grants, Letters Patents, exchanges, confirmations, leaſes, and other writings, which after the ſaid marriage, and during the ſame ſhould paſſe and be made of any benefices, offices, lands, reuenues, and fruits, or of any of them, ſhould be intituled and made in the names of our Soueraigne Lord the King, and of her moſt excellent highneſſe, whether his Maieſty ſhould bee preſent within the realmes and dominions of her highneſſe, or within any of them, or abſent. And that the ſame gifts, grants, letters patents, eſchanges, confirmations, leaſes, and other writings ſo ſet forth and made, ſhould bee ſealed and firmed with the ſigne Manuell of her Highneſſe, and the ſame ſo ſigned and ſealed with the great Seale of this realme, or with ſuch ſeale as hath beene accuſtomed, ſhould be by the authority of the ſaid Parliament deemed, adiudged, declared, and pronounced to bee as good, perfect, and of like force, ſtrength and effect in the law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, againſt our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady, the King and the Queenes Maieſties, and her highneſſe heires and ſucceſſors, as if her Maieſty had beene at the time of the making thereof, ſole and vnmarried, and that all gifts, grants, letters patents, eſchanges, confirmations, leaſes and other writings, which after the ſaid marriage, and during the time of the ſame, ſhould paſſe and be made of the ſaid benefices, offices, lands, reuenues and fruits, or of any of them, whereunto the ſigne Manuel of her highneſſe, ſhould not be ſet, made, or put, ſhall bee by the authority of the ſaid Parliament from time to time déemed, adiudged, accepted, taken, and decréed, to bee of no force, ne effect, but vtterly fruſtrate and void in the law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, the ſaid mariage or any law, vſage or cuſtome to the contrary in any any wiſe notwithſtanding, as by the ſaid act more at large doth appeare.

The inconueniences enſuing to the Q. and the ſubiects, by the ſaid Stat. of 1. M. 2.

Sithence the making of which ſtatute, and the ſolemnization of the ſaid mariage, the Quéenes moſt excellent Maieſty hath béene greatly moleſted, grieued, and troubled with often ſigning of letters patents, gifts, grants, eſchanges, leaſes, and other writings, concerning and touching benefices, offices, lands, reuenues, and fruits, made and granted by, and from our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King, and her highneſſe, to ſundry of their moſt louing ſubiects, to whom alſo it hath bin and is no ſmall charge to attend, vntill ſuch time as they may procure & obtaine the ſigne Manuel of her highneſſe, vnto their ſaid letters patents, gifts, grants, exchanges, confirmations, and leaſes, without which ſigne the ſame are vtterly void by force of the ſaid ſtatute, to the great danger loſſe, and vtter vndoing of diuers perſons that haue lately bought, purchaſed, or obtained of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord and Lady, the King and Quéenes maieſties, diuers lands, tenements, and other hereditaments, to their great coſts and charges.

A repeale of the before rehearſed branch of the St. of 1. M. 2.

For remedy whereof be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid branch or article touching or concerning only the ſigning of letters patents, gifts, grants, eſchanges, confirmations, leaſes, or of other writings, for any lands, benefices, offices, reuenues, fruits or other hereditaments, ſhalbe from henceforth cléerely repelled and made fruſtrate and void, to all intents and purpoſes.

A confirmation of former grãts or writings ſealed with the Q. ſigne Manuel.

And be it further enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that all and ſingular letters patents, touching or concerning any gift, grant, eſchange, confirmation, leaſe, or other writing, the which ſithence the ſaid marriage hath paſſed, and bee made of any benefices, offices, mannors, lands, tenements, reuenues, fruits, liberties or other hereditaments, or of any of them, in the names of our moſt dread Soueraigne Lord and Lady, the King and the Quéenes Maieſties (the warrant or writing, or warrants or writings whereof being ſigned with her highneſſe ſigne Manuel, in ſuch forme, order and degrée, as the ſame heretofore haue béene accuſtomed to be ſigned, when her highneſſe was ſole and vnmarried) ſhalbe by authority of this preſent Parliament, of the ſame like force, ſtrength, and effect in the law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if the ſame were or had béene ſigned by her highneſſe ſigne Manuel, and as if her Maieſty had béene at the making thereof ſole and vnmarried, and as they were before the making of the ſaid Act. The ſaid eſtatute, or any branch, or article therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cap. II.

Whoſoeuer ſhall weare ſilke in or vpon his Hat, Bonet, Girdle, Scabbard, Hoſe, Shooes or ſpurleather, ſhall be three moneths impriſoned, and forfeit x.li. except Maiors, Aldermen, &c. If any perſon knowing his ſeruant to offend, doe not put him forth of his ſeruice within fourteene dayes, or doe retaine him againe, he ſhall forfeit C.li. Rep. 1. Iac. 25.

Cap. III.

A confirmation of the ſtatute of 3. Ed. 1. 33. & 2. R. 2. 5. touching telling of newes. Iuſtices of Peace in euery ſhire, City, &c. ſhall haue authority to heare and determine the ſaid offences, and to put the ſaid two ſtatutes in execution. If any perſon ſhall bee conuicted or attainted for ſpeaking maliciouſly of his owne imagination, any falſe, ſeditious and ſlanderous newes, ſaying or tales of the King or Queene, then hee ſhall for his firſt offence bee ſet on the Pillory in ſome Market place neere where the words were ſpoken, and haue both his eares cut off, vnleſſe he pay to the Queene a hundred pound, within one moneth after iudgment giuen, and alſo ſhall be three moneths impriſoned. And if hee ſhall ſpeake any ſuch ſlanderous and ſeditious newes or tales of the ſpeaking or report of any other, then he ſhalbe ſet on the Pillory, and haue one of his eares cut off, vnleſſe hee pay an hundred markes to the Queenes vſe within one moneth after, and ſhalbe one moneth impriſoned. And if he ſhall do it by book, rime, ballad, letter or writing, he ſhall haue his right hand ſtricken off. And if any perſon being once conuict of any of the offences aforeſaid, doe afterward offend, he ſhall be impriſoned during his life, and forfeit all his goods and cattels: Exp. St. 4. & 5. P. & M. 9. CAP. IIII.

Puniſhment for bringing Ægyptians into this Realme, &c.

WHere in a Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the two and twentieth yeere of the reigne of our late ſoueraigne Lord King Henry the eight (for the auoiding and baniſhing out of this realme of certain outlandiſh people, calling themſelues Egyptians, vſing no craft nor feat of merchandiſes for to liue by, but going from place to place in great companies, vſing great ſubtile and crafty meanes to deceiue the Kings ſubiects, bearing them in hand, that they by palmiſtry could tell mens and womens fortune, and ſo many times by craft and ſubtilty deceiue the people of their money, and committed diuers great and hainous felonies and robberies, to the great hurt and deceit of the people.) It was amongſt other things then enacted, that from the time of the making of the ſaid Act, no ſuch perſons ſhould bee ſuffered to come within this the Kings Realme, vpon paine of forfeiture to the King all their goods and cattels, and then to bee commanded to auoyd the Realme within fifteene dayes next after the Commandement, vpon paine of impriſonment, and ſuch perſons calling themſelues Egyptians as then were within this Realme, ſhould depart within ſixteene dayes next after Proclamation of the ſaid Act, vpon paine of impriſonment and forfeiture of all their goods and cattels, with diuers other clauſes and articles conteined in the ſaid Act, as by the ſaid Act more at large it appeareth. For as much as diuers of the ſaid company, and ſuch other like perſons, not fearing the penalty of the ſaid Statute, haue enterpriſed to come ouer againe into this realme, vſing their old accuſtomed deuilliſh and naughty practiſes and deuiſes, with ſuch abominable liuing as is not in any Chriſtian Realme to bee permitted, named, or knowne, and be not duly puniſhed for the ſame, to the perillous and euill example of our Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and the Queenes Maieſties moſt louing ſubiects, and to the vtter and extreme vndoing of diuers and many of them as euidently doth appeare.

A rehearſall of the Statute of 22.H.8.10. prouided for the puniſhment of Egyptians.

For reformation whereof, bee it ordeined and enacted by the King and Queene our Soueraigne Lord and Lady, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons after the laſt day of January next comming, doe willingly tranſport, bring, or conuey into this realme of England or Wales, any ſuch perſons calling themſelues, or commonly called Egyptians, that then he or they ſo tranſporting, bringing or conueying in, any ſuch perſons contrary to the true meaning of this Act, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery time ſo offending, forty pounds of lawfull money of England.

The penalty for bringing of Egyptians into this realme.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any of the ſaid perſons called Egyptians, which ſhall bee tranſported and conueyed into this Realme of England or Wales, as is aforeſaid, doe continue and remaine within the ſame by the ſpace of one moneth, that then hee or they ſo offending ſhall by vertue of this Act, bee deemed and iudged a felon and felons, and ſhall therefore ſuffer paines of death, loſſe of lands and goods, as in caſes of felony, by the order of the Common law of this Realme, and ſhall vpon the triall of them, or any of them therein ſo tried in the County, and by the inhabitants of the County or place, where they or he ſhalbe apprehended or taken, and not per medietatem linguæ, and ſhall loſe the benefit and priuilege of ſanctuary and clergy.

It ſhalbe felony for Egyptians to remaine in England a moneth.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if the Egyptians or other perſons commonly calling themſelues Egyptians, and euery of them now being within this Realme of England or Wales, doe not depart out of the ſame within twenty dayes next after Proclamation of this preſent Act ſhall be made, that then hee or they which ſhall not depart within the ſaid time, according to the true meaning of this Act, ſhall forfeit and loſe all his and their goods and cattels, and that then it ſhalbe lawfull to all and euery the Kings and the Queenes ſubiects to ſeiſe the ſame: the one moity therof to be to the vſe of our ſoueraigne Lord and Lady the King and the Queene, and the other moity thereof to be to the vſe of him or them that ſhall ſo ſeiſe the ſame.

The penalty for the Egyptians that now be, to tarry in England.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the Egyptians and other perſons commonly called Egyptians, and euery of them now being within this realm of England or Wales, doe not depart out and from the ſame within forty daies next after the proclamation ſhalbe made of this Act, that then he or they which ſhal not depart, & auoid within the ſaid time of forty dayes, according to the true making of this act, ſhall be iudged and deemed according to the lawes of this realme of England, a felon and felons, and ſhall ſuffer therefore paines of death, loſſe of lands and goods, as in other caſes of felony, and ſhall be tried as is aforeſaid, and without hauing any benefit or priuilege of ſanctuary and Clergy.

The penalty for Egyptians not to depart within xl. daies.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon after the firſt day of January next comming, ſhall ſue for the obtaining of any licence, letter, or paſport, for any of the ſaid perſons called Egyptians, to abide or continue within this realm of England or Wales, contrary to the tenour of this Act, that then euery ſuch perſon ſo ſuing, ſhall forfeit and loſe for the ſame, forty pounds, of lawfull money of England, and that euery ſuch licence, letter, and paſport, ſhall bee by vertue of this Act, void to all intents and purpoſes, the one moity of all which ſummes of money to be forfeited as is beforeſaid, ſhalbe to the King and Queene our ſoueraigne Lord and Lady, and the other moity thereof to be to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, by action of debt, bil, plaint, or information, wherein any eſſoine, wager of law, nor protection ſhalbe admitted and allowed.

A prouiſo for Egyptians which leaue their naughty trade.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this preſent Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhal not extend, nor be hurtfull to any of the ſaid perſons commonly called Egyptians, which within the ſaid time of twenty dayes next after the ſaid Proclamation to be made, as is beforeſaid, ſhal leaue that naughty, idle, and vngodly life, and company, and be placed in the ſeruice of ſome honeſt & able inhabitant or inhabitants within this realme, or that ſhal honeſtly exerciſe himſelfe in ſome lawful worke or occupation, but that he or they ſo continuing in ſeruice, or other lawful worke or occupation, ſhal (during ſuch time as he or they ſhal ſo continue) be diſcharged of all paines and forfeitures contained in this Act.

To what perſons this Statute doth not extend.

Prouided alſo and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act ſhall not in any wiſe extend to any childe or children, being not aboue the age of thirteene yeeres, nor to any of the ſaid perſons being now in priſon, ſo that hee or they ſo being in priſon, doe depart out of this Realme within fourteene dayes next after his or their deliuery out of priſon, nor ſhall extend to charge any manner of perſon or perſons, as acceſſary to any offence or offences, conteined or ſpecified in this ſtatute. Cap. V.

No corne, &c. ſhalbe tranſported out of this realme without licence.

St.25.H.8.4.

Where as ſundry good Eſtatutes and Lawes hath beene made within this Realme in the time of the Queenes highneſſe moſt noble progenitors, that none ſhould tranſport, carry or conuey out of this realm into any place in the parties beyond the ſeas, any corne, butter, cheeſe or other victuall (except only for the victualling of the towne of Calice, Haines, and Guiſnes, and the marches of the ſame) vpon diuers great paines and forfeitures in the ſame contained: that notwithſtanding many and ſundry couetous and vnſatiable perſons, ſeeking their onely lucres, and gaines, haue, and daily doe carry, and conuey innumerable quantity of Corne, Cheeſe, Butter, and other victuall, as of wood out of this Realme, into the parties beyond the ſeas. By reaſon whereof the ſaid corne, victuall and wood are growen vnto a wonderfull dearth, and extreme prizes, to the great detriment of the Commonwealth of this your highneſſe realme, and your faithfull ſubiects of the ſame.

The penalties for tranſporting corne, butter. cheeſe, &c. out of this realme. St.5.El.5.

For remedy whereof, it may pleaſe your highneſſe that it may bee enacted, and bee it enacted by your Highneſſe, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that no manner of perſon or perſons, after the twentieth day of January next comming, ſhall carry and tranſport out of this realme by any Ship, Crayer, or other veſſell whatſoeuer, into any place in the parties, beyond the Seas, or into the Realme of Scotland, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, or other Corne, or graine, growing within this Realme, or any Malt made within the ſame, or any Beere, Butter, Cheeſe, Hering, or Wood (except onely to and for the victualling and furniture of the townes of Calice, Haines, and Guiſnes, and to the Towne of Barwicke and the Marches of the ſame) without ſufficient and lawfull authority ſo to doe, vpon the paines and penalties hereafter enſuing: that is to ſay, The owner and owners of the ſaid Ships and other veſſels, to forfeit the ſaid Ships, Crayers, and other veſſels, with all their apparels, to them, and euery of them belonging, wherein the ſaid Corne, Butter, Cheeſe, Hering, victuall, or wood ſhalbe ſo tranſported and carried, and the owners and owner of the ſaid Corne: butter, Cheeſe, Hering, and wood, to forfeit the double value of the ſame, ſo carried and conueyed: and the Maſter and Mariners of euery of the ſaid Ships, Crayers, and veſſels for euery ſuch offence, to forfeit all their goods, and to be impriſoned by the ſpace of one whole yeere without baile or mainpriſe.

The penalties for carrying of any corne, butter, &c to any ſhip to be tranſported.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, after the ſaid twentieth day of January, doe carry, and conuey away by Boat, Crayer, or other veſſell, or otherwiſe, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Mault, or other Corne or graine, or any Beere, Butter, Cheeſe, Hering, or Wood to any Ship or Veſſell being on the Seas, or within any Hauen, Creeke, or other place of the border of this Realme, to be tranſported, carried, and conueied into any place in the parties beyond the Seas, or into the Realme of Scotland, without ſufficient authority ſo to doe, that then euery owner of the ſaid victuals, corne, and other things aboueſaid ſo tranſported or carried, and the Owner and Owners of euery ſuch Boat, or Veſſell, and the Boatmen and Marriners of the ſame, ſhall loſe, forfeit, and ſuffer all ſuch forfeitures, paines, and penalties, as is aboue rehearſed: the one moity of all and euery which forfeiture or forfeitures to bee to the King and Queenes highneſſe, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by bill, information, action of debt; or otherwiſe in any of the King and Quéenes highneſſe Courts of Record, in which action, bill, or ſuit, the defendant ſhall not wage his law, nor haue any eſſoine or protection to him allowed.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, ẏ if any perſon or perſons ſhal obtain of the King & Quéenes Maieſties, their heires or ſucceſſors or any of them, any licence to carry and tranſport any corne, victuall, or wood, into any parties beyond the ſeas, that if he or they to whom any ſuch licence ſhalbe granted, or any other to whom ſuch perſon or perſons, hauing ſuch licence, ſhall giue, grant, or ſell his or their ſaid licence vnto, ſhal carry and conuey, or cauſe to be carried and conueyed any more corne, victuall, or wood, then ſhal be conteined in his or their ſaid licence, he ſhall forfeit the treble value of the ſaid corne, victuall or wood ſo carried and tranſported, without ſufficient authority, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for one whole yéere in the common gaole, where he ſhall be apprehended, there to remaine without baile or mainpriſe.

The penalty for tranſporting more corne, &c. then the party is licenced to do

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no manner of perſon or perſons, after the ſaid twentieth day of January, that ſhall obtaine, or haue any ſuch licence for tranſporting and carrying any Corne, Victuall or Wood, into any parties beyond the ſeas, ſhall ſhip, lade, and fraught the ſame, or any part thereof at ſundry places within this Realme, but at one place certaine, vpon paine of forfeiture of the ſaid Corne Victuall and Wood, and all his goods and cattels the one moity thereof to the King and Quéenes maieſties, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity thereof to him or them ẏ will ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhalbe to him or them allowed.

They which haue licences, ſhall lade all at one place.

And for the better execution of this Act, be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular Juſtices of peace, aſwell within the liberties as without, within their ſeuerall Authorities and Commiſſions, at any time within thrée yéeres next after ſuch offences committed, ſhall haue full power and authority to enquire as well by the oathes of twelue lawfull men, as alſo to heare and examine the Maſter, Maſters, and Mariners of the ſaid Ships, crayers and other veſſels, and all and euery other perſon and perſons, of all and ſingular the offendors againſt this preſent act, and to heare and determine the ſame offences, as they may and ought to heare and determine any other treſpaſſes or offences.

Juſtices of peace may heare and determine theſe offences

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that at all time and times hereafter, when the common price of corne within this realme is, that wheat ſhall not excéed the price of ſix ſhillings eight pence the quarter, and rye foure ſhillings the quarter, and barley thrée ſhillings the quarter, it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons to carry and tranſport ouer the ſea, to any place beyond the ſeas at their pleaſure of the ſaid kinds of corne, ſo that it be not to the King and Quéenes enemies.

No Country perſon ſhall ſell wares by retaile in any City, or towne corporate, but in open Faires.

WHere before this time the ancient Cities, Boroughes, Townes corporate, and Market townes within this Realme of England, haue béene very populous, and chiefly inhabited with Merchants, Artificers, and Handicrafts men, during which time the children in the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, townes corporat, and Market towns, were ciuilly brought vp, and inſtructed, and alſo in the ſaid Cities, boroughs, and townes corporate, kept in good order and obeiſance, and the inhabiters of the ſame wel ſet on worke, and kept from idleneſſe. By reaſon whereof the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, and townes corporate, did then proſper in riches and great wealth, and were as then not only able to ſerue and furniſh the King and Queenes Maieſties, and other their noble progenitors Kings of this Realme, as well with great numbers of good able perſons, and well furniſhed meet for the warres, as alſo then charged, and yet chargeable with great fee fermes, Quindemes, taxes, and diuers other paiments to the King and Queenes maieſties, which at this preſent they be not able to pay and beare, but to their vtter vndoing, being few in number to pay and beare the ſame, but alſo the ſame cities, boroughs and townes corporat, are like to come very ſhortly to vtter deſtruction, ruine, and decay, by reaſon whereof, the occupiers, linnin Drapers, wollen Drapers, Haberdaſhers, and Grocers, dwelling in the countries out of the ſaid Cities, boroughs, townes corporate, and market townes, doe not onely occupy the art and Miſtery of the ſaid ſciences, in the places where they dwell and inhabit, but alſo come vnto the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, townes corporate, and market townes, and there ſell their wares, and take away the reliefe of the inhabitants of the ſaid cities, boroughs, townes corporate, and market townes, to the great decay, and vtter vndoing of the inhabitants of the ſame, if ſpeedy reformation therein bee not had in time conuenient. For remedy wherof, and for the better amendment of the ſaid cities boroughs, townes corporat, and market towns, and to the end the ſame cities, boroughs, & townes corporate, may be the better able to pay the ſaid fee fermes, and alſo to beare the other ordinary charges within the ſame Cities, Boroughs, and Townes corporate, and to furniſh the King and Queens maieſties with numbers of able perſons, like as they heretofore haue done in times paſt, in times of warre.

No perſon dwelling in the countrey, ſhall ſell wares in any city or market towne by retaile, but in open faires.

Be it therfore enacted by our ſoueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queene, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That any perſon or perſons which doe now inhabit and dwell, or hereafter ſhall inhabit or dwell in the countrey any where, or county within this realme of England, out of any of the ſaid cities, boroughs, townes corporate, or market townes, from and after the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell next comming, ſhall not ſell or cauſe to bee ſold by retaile, any wollen cloth, linnin cloth, haberdaſh wares, grocery wares, mercery wares, at or within any of the ſaid cities, boroughs, townes corporate or market Townes, or within the ſuburbs or liberties of the ſaid cities, boroughs, townes corporate, and Market townes within the ſaid Realme of England (except it be in open faires) vpon paine to forfeit and loſe for euery time ſo offending the ſumme of vi.s.viii.d. and the whole wares ſo ſold proffered and offered to be ſold, contrary to the forme, intent, and effect of this preſent act, as aboue is ſaid, the one moity of all which forfeitures to be to the vſe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady, the King and Queenes Maieſties, and the other halfe to him or them that ſhal ſeiſe and ſue for the ſame in any of the King and Queenes Courts of Record, by bill, plaint, action of debt, information or otherwiſe, wherin no eſſoine, protection, or wager of law ſhalbe allowed.

Selling by whole ſale in groſſe, and not by retaile.

Prouided alway, that this act ſhall not in any wiſe extend, nor be hurtful to any perſon or perſons, that bring any of the ſaid woollen cloth, linnen cloth, haberdaſh, grocery, mercery ware, or wares to any of the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, Townes corporat, or maket townes to bee ſold, or cauſe to be ſold by whole ſale in groſſe, and not by retaile: but they and euery of them may lawfully ſell the ſame in as large and ample manner, forme and condition by whole ſale, in groſſe, & not by retaile, as they and euery of them might haue done at any time or times before the making of this act, any thing herein to the contrary notwitſtanding.

One dwelling in the countrey doth after become free of a City, Borough, &c.

Prouided alway, that this preſent act ſhall not extend to any perſon or perſons that now dwell or inhabit in the Countrey, or hereafter ſhall dwell or inhabit out of any of the ſaid Cities, boroughs, Townes corporat or market townes: but that they and euery of them at any time hereafter, when they or any of them ſhalbe free of any the guilds, & liberties of any of the ſaid cities, boroughes, townes corporate, or market townes, and dwell or inhabit within any of the ſame cities, boroughs, townes corporat, or market townes, that they and euery of them ſo being free, ſhall and may ſel, or cauſe to be ſold, any of the wares aforeſaid by retaile, in as ample and large manner as they and euery of them might haue done, being free of the ſaid Cities, boroughes, and townes aforeſaid, before the making of this Act: Any clauſe or article in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Any perſon may ſell cloth of his owne making.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall bee lawfull to all perſons, to ſell or cauſe to be ſold by retaile or otherwiſe, all manner of cloth, linnen or wollen of their owne making in euery City, Borough, Towne corporate, and Market Towne within the Realme, as freely and frankly as they might haue done before the making of this Act. Any thing in the ſame conteined to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Prouided alway, that this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not be preiudiciall or hurtfull to the liberties, and priuileges of the Vniuerſities of Cambridge and Oxford, or either of them. Any thing in this Act heretofore mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. VIII.

All Statutes againſt the See of Rome repealed.

Whereas ſince the twentieth yeere of King Henry the eight of famous memory, father vnto your Maieſty, our moſt naturall Soueraigne and gracious Lady and Queene, much falſe and erroneous doctrine hath beene taught, preached, and written, partly by diuers the naturall borne ſubiects of this Realme, and partly being brought in hither from ſundry other foreine countries hath beene ſowen and ſpread abroad within the ſame. By reaſon whereof as well the Spiritualty as the Temporalty of your highneſſe Realmes, and Dominions haue ſwerued from the obedience of the See Apoſtolike, and declined from the vnity of Chriſts Church, and ſo haue continued vntill ſuch time as your Maieſty being firſt raiſed vp by God, and ſet in the ſeat royal ouer vs, and then by his diuine and gracious prouidence knit in marriage with the moſt noble and vertuous Prince, the King our Soueraigne Lord your huſband, the Popes holineſſe and the See Apoſtolike ſent hither vnto your Maieſties (as vnto perſons vndefiled, and by Gods goodneſſe preſerued from the common infection aforeſaid) and to the whole Realme, the moſt reuerend father in God the Lord Cardinall Poole, Legate de latere, to call vs home againe into the right way, from whence we haue all this long while wandred and ſtrayed abroad: and wee after ſundry long and grieuous plagues and calamities, ſeeing by the goodneſſe of God our owne errors, haue knowledged the ſame vnto the ſaid moſt reuerend father, and by him haue bin, and are the rather at the contemplation of your Maieſties, receiued and embraced into the vnity and boſome of Chriſts Church, and vpon our humble ſubmiſſion and promiſe made for a declaration of our repentance, to repeale and abrogate ſuch acts and Statutes as had been made in Parliament ſince the ſaid xx. yeere of the ſaid K. Henry the eight, againſt the ſupremacy of the See Apoſtolike, as in our ſubmiſſion exhibited to the ſaid moſt reuerend father in God, by your Maieſties appeareth. The tenor whereof enſueth.

Much falſe doctrine hath bin preached and written ſince the xx. yeere of K. H. 8.

Card. Poole ſent from Rome to call the realm into the right way, frō whence it hath ſtraied.

We the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons aſſembled in this preſent Parliament, repreſenting the whole body of the Realme of England, and the dominions of the ſame, in the name of our ſelues particularly, and alſo of the ſaid body vniuerſally in this our ſupplication directed to your Maieſties with moſt humble ſuit, that it may by your graces interceſſion and meane be exhibited to the moſt reuerend father in God, the Lord Cardinall Poole Legate, ſent ſpecially hither from our moſt holy father the Pope Iuly the third, & the See Apoſtolike of Rome, doe declare our ſelues very ſory and repentant of the ſchiſme and diſobedience commited in this realme and dominions aforeſaid againſt the ſaid See Apoſtolike, either by making, agreeing, or executing any lawes, ordinances, or commandements againſt the ſupremacy of the ſaid See, or otherwiſe doing or ſpeaking, that might impugne the ſame: offering our ſelues, and promiſing by this our ſupplication, that for a token and knowledge of our ſaid repentance, wee be and ſhall be alwayes ready, vnder and with the authorities of your Maieſties, to the vttermoſt of our powers, to do that ſhall lye in vs for the abrogation and repealing of the ſaid laws and ordinances in this preſent Parliament, aſwell for our ſelues as for the whole body whom we repreſent: whereupon we moſt humbly deſire your Maieſties as perſonages vndefiled in offence of his body towards the ſaid See, which neuertheleſſe God by his prouidence hath made ſubiect to you, ſo to ſet forth this our moſt humble ſuit, that we may obtaine from the See Apoſtolike, by the ſaid moſt reuerend father, as well particularly and generally abſolution, releaſe, and diſcharge from all danger of ſuch cenſures and ſentences, as by the lawes of the Church we be fallen into: and that we may as children repentant, be receiued into the boſome and vnity of Chriſts Church, ſo as this noble Realme, with all the members thereof, may in this vnity and perfect obedience to the See Apoſtolike, and Popes for the time being, ſerue God and your Maieſties, to the furtherance and aduancement of his honour and glory. We are at the interceſſion of your maieſties by the authority of our holy father Pope Iuly the third, and of the See Apoſtolike, aſſoyled, diſcharged, and deliuered from excommunications, interdictions, and other cenſures eccleſiaſticall, which hath hanged ouer our heads for our ſaid defaults ſince the time of the ſaid ſchiſme mentioned in our ſupplication. The which time the ſaid Lord Legate, and wee doe all declare, recogniſe, and meane by this Act to be onely ſince the xx. yeere of the raigne of your moſt noble father King Henry the eight. It may now like your Maieſties, that for the accompliſhment of our promiſe made in the ſaid Supplication, that is, to repeale all lawes and ſtatutes made contrary to the ſaid ſupremacy and See Apoſtolike, during the ſaid ſchiſme, the which is to bee vnderſtood ſince the xx. yeere of the reigne of the ſaiy late King Henry the eighth, and ſo the ſaid Lord Legate doth accept and recogniſe the ſame.

The Supplication of the Parliament to the K. and Q. to be a meane to reduce them into the Catholike Church.

A repeale of all ſtatutes made againſt the ſupremacy and See Apoſtolike ſince the time of ſchiſme.

Where in the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxi. yeere of the reigne of the late King of moſt famous memory King Henry the eight, one act was then and there made againſt pluralities of benefices, for taking of fermes by ſpirituall men, and for non-reſidence, in the which act amongſt other things it was ordeined and enacted, that if any perſon or perſons, at any

The ſtatute of 21. H. 8. 13. made againſt pluralities of benefices taking of fermes by ſpirituall men, and non-reſidence time after the firſt day of Aprill in the yéere of our Lord God, a thouſand fiue hundred & thirty, contrary to the ſame Act, ſhould procure and obtaine at the Court of Rome, or elſewhere any licence or licences, vnion, tolleration, or diſpenſation, to receiue and take any more benefices with cure then was limitted and apointed by the ſame Act: or elſe at any time after the ſaid day ſhould put in execution any ſuch licence, toleration, or diſpenſation, before that time obteined contrary to the ſaid act, that then euery ſuch perſon or perſons ſo after the ſaid day, ſuing for himſelfe, or receiuing and taking ſuch benefice by force of ſuch licence or licences, vnion, toleration or diſpenſation, that is to ſay, the ſame perſon or perſons only and no other, ſhould for euery ſuch default, incur the danger, paine, and penalty of twenty pound ſtirling, and ſhould alſo loſe the whole profits of euery ſuch benefice or benefices, as he receiueth or taketh by force of any ſuch licence or licences, vnion, toleration or diſpenſation. And where alſo in the ſaid act it was ordeined and enacted, that if any perſon or perſons, did procure or obtaine at the Court of Rome, or elſewhere any maner of licence or diſpenſation to be non-reſident at their dignities, prebend, or benefices, contrary to the ſaid act, that then euery ſuch perſon or perſons putting in execution any ſuch diſpenſation or licence for himſelfe from the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, in the ſaid yéere of our Lord God, M.D.XXX. ſhould run and incurre in the penalty, damage, and paine of xx.li. ſterling for euery time ſo doing to be forfeited and recouered, as by the ſaid Act is declared: and yet ſuch licence or diſpenſation ſo procured, or to be put in execution to be void and of none effect, as by the ſame act more plainly it doth and may appeare.

A repeale of ſo much of the ſtat. of 21.H.8.13. as is aboue mentioned.

Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that as much onely of the ſaid Act, as concerneth the articles and clauſes aforeſaid, and all and euery the words and ſentences conteined in the ſaid act, concerning the ſaid articles & clauſes, and euery of them, ſhall from henceforth bee repealed, adnulled, reuoked, adnihilated, and vtterly made void for euer. Any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

23.H 8.9.

And where alſo at the ſeſſion of the ſame Parliament holden vpon prorogation in the xxiii. yéere of the raigne of the ſaid late K. Henry the eight, one act intituled, the Act that no perſon ſhall be cited out of the Dioceſſe where he or ſhe dwelleth, except in certaine caſes.

24.H.8.12.

And where alſo at the ſaid Parliament, in the Seſſion holden at Weſtminſter vpon prorogation the xxiiii. yéere of the raigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, one act was made that appeales in ſuch caſes as hath béene vſed to bee purſued to the Sée of Rome, ſhould not from henceforth be had nor vſed but within this Realme.

Not printed ſt. 25. H.8.20.

And where alſo at the ſaid Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxi. yéere of the raigne of the ſaid late K. 28.H.8.10.

And alſo one other act, made at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the xxviii. yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eighth, entituled, an act extinguiſhing the authority of the Biſhop of Rome.

28.H.8.16.

And one other act made in the ſame Parliament, entituled, an act for the releaſe of ſuch as then had obtained pretenced licences and diſpenſation from the See of Rome.

28.H.8.7.

And alſo all that part of the Act made in the ſaid eight and twentieth yeere of the ſaid King, intituled, an act for the eſtabliſhment of the Succeſſion of the imperiall Crowne of the Realme, that concerneth a prohibition to marry within the degrees expreſſed in the ſaid Act.

31.H.8.9.

And alſo one other Act made at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the one and thirtieth yeere of the raigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eighth, intituled, an Act authoriſing the K. highneſſe to make Biſhops by his Letters Patents.

32.H.8.38.

And one other Act made in the ſeſſion of the ſame Parliament, begun in the ſaid xxxi. yeere holden vpon prorogation the xxxii. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid King Henry the eight, intituled, an Act concerning precontracts of mariages, and touching degrees of conſanguinity.

35.H.8.3.

And one other Act made in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxxv. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, intituled an Act for the ratification of the Kings maieſties ſtile, ſhall henceforth be repealed, made fruſtrate, void and of none effect.

35.H.8.1.

And where alſo at the ſaid Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxxv. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the viii. one other Act was made, intituled an Act concerning the eſtabliſhment of the ſucceſſion of the ſaid King in the imperiall crowne of this Realme. In the which Act there is a forme of a corporall oath deuiſed and ſet forth, that euery Subiect of this Realme ſhould be bound to take, againſt the power, authority, and iuriſdiction of the See of Rome. Bee it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that ſo much of the ſaid Act as toucheth the ſaid oath, againſt the ſupremacy, and all oaths thereupon had, made, and giuen ſhalbe from henceforth vtterly void, repealed and of none effect.

37.H.8.17.

A repeale of the 11. St laſt before recited.

And where alſo one other Act was made in the xxxvii. yeere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, intituled, an act that Doctors of the ciuill law, being maried might exerciſe Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction. Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid act laſt before mentioned, and all and euery branch, article, ſentence, and matter conteined in the ſame, ſhall from henceforth be repealed, and vtterly made void, and of none effect.

A repeale of part of the ſtat. of 1.Ed.6.12. hereafter ſpecified.

And where one other act was made at the Parliament holden at Weſtm. in the firſt yeere of the raigne of King Ed. the ſixt, intituled, An act for the repeale of certaine ſtatutes, concerning treaſons, felonies &c. In the which act amongſt other things there is contained certain prouiſions paines, penalties & forfeitures, for and againſt ſuch as ſhould by open preachings, expreſſe words, ſayings, writing, printing, ouert deed, or act, affirme, or ſet forth that the King of this realme, for time being, is not or ought not to be ſupreme head in earth of the Churches of England and Ireland, ne of any of thẽ, or that the Biſhop of Rome, or any other perſon or perſons, other than the King of England for the time being, is or ought to be ſupreme head of the ſame Churches, or any of them, as in the ſame act laſt before rehearſed, and at large is contained and may appeare. Be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that theſe clauſes before rehearſed, & other of the ſaid act, concerning the ſupremacy, and all and euery branch, article, words and ſentence in the ſame, ſounding, or tending to the derogation of the ſupremacy of the Popes holineſſe, or the See of Rome, and all paines, penalties, and forfeitures made againſt them that ſhould by any means ſet forth or extoll the ſaid ſupremacy, ſhalbe frõ henceforth vtterly void and of none effect.

A repeale of all Stat. made againſt the ſupremacy of the Pope, or See Apoſtolike.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all clauſes, ſentences, and articles of euery other ſtatute, or act of Parliament made ſithence the ſaid xx. yeere of the reigne of K. Henry the eighth, againſt the ſupreme authority of the Popes holineſſe, or See Apoſtolike of Rome, or containing any other matter of the ſame effect only, that is repealed in any of the ſtatutes aforeſaid, ſhalbe alſo by authority hereof from henceforth vtterly void, fruſtrate and of none effect.

And where we your moſt humble ſubiects, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, haue exhibited to your Maieſties one other ſupplication in forme following.

A Supplication by the Parliament that theſe Articles may be confirmed.

We the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, repreſenting the whole body of this Realme, reduced and receiued by your Maieſties interceſſion to the vnity of Chriſts Church, and the obedience of the See Apoſtolike of Rome, and the Popes holineſſe gouerning the ſame, make moſt humble ſuit vnto your Maieſties, to be likewiſe meanes and interceſſors, that all occaſions of contention, hatred, grudge, ſuſpition, and trouble both outwardly and inwardly in mens conſciences, which might ariſe amongſt vs, by reaſon of diſobedience, may by authority of the Popes holineſſe, and by miniſtration of the ſame vnto vs, by the moſt reuerend Father in God, the Lord Cardinall Poole, by diſpenſation, toleration, or permiſſion, reſpectiuely as the caſe ſhall require, bee aboliſhed and taken away, and by authority ſufficient theſe articles following, and generally all others, when any occaſion ſhall ſo require may be prouided for and confirmed.

Eccleſiaſticall foundations made ſithence the Schiſme ſhall continue.

Firſt, that all Biſhopricks, Cathedral Churches, Hoſpitals, Colleges, Schooles, and other ſuch foundations now continuing, made by authority of Parliament, or otherwiſe eſtabliſhed according to the order of the lawes of this Realme, ſithence the ſchiſme, may be confirmed and continued for euer.

Marriages.

Item, that mariages made infra gradus prohibitos conſanguinitatis, affinitatis, cognationis ſpiritualis or which might be made void propter impedimentũ publicæ honeſtatis iuſtitiæ, or for any other cauſe prohibited by the canons only, may be confirmed and children borne of thoſe mariages declared legitimate, ſo as thoſe mariages were made according to the lawes of the Realme for the time being, and be not directly againſt the lawes of God, nor in ſuch caſe as the See Apoſtolik hath not vſed to diſpence withall.

Inſtitutions of Benefices and diſpenſations. Iudiciall proceſſes made vpon appeales.

That inſtitutions of benefices, and other promotions Eccleſiaſticall, and diſpenſations made according to the forme of the Act of Parliament may be likewiſe confirmed.

That all iudiciall proceſſes made before any Ordinaries of this Realme, or before any Delegats vpon any appeales, according to the order of the lawes of the Realme, may bee likewiſe ratified and confirmed.

The lands and goods of Biſhopricks, Monaſteries Chātries, &c. diſperſed, ſhall ſo continue.

And finally, where certain acts and ſtatutes haue bin made in the time of the late ſchiſme, concerning the lands and hereditaments of Archbiſhopricks and Biſhopricks, the ſuppreſſion and diſſolution of monaſteries, Abbeys, Priories, Chantries, Colleges, and all other the goods & cattels of religious houſes. Since the which time the right and dominion of certaine lands, & hereditaments, goods and cattels belonging to the ſame, be diſperſed abroad, and come to the hands and poſſeſſions of diuers and ſundry perſons, who by gift, purchaſe, exchange, and other means, according to the order of the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme, for the time being haue the ſame. For the auoiding of all ſcruples that might grow by any the occaſions aforeſaid, or by any other waies or meanes whatſoeuer: It may pleaſe your Maieſties to be interceſſors & mediators to the ſaid moſt reuerend Father Cardinall Poole, that all ſuch cauſes & quarrels as by pretence of the ſaid ſchiſme, or by any other occaſion or meane whatſoeuer, might bee moued by the Popes holineſſe, or See Apoſtolike, or by any other iuriſdiction Eccleſiaſtical, may be vtterly remoued and taken away, ſo as all perſons hauing ſufficient conueyance of the ſaid lands & hereditaments, goods and cattels, as is aforeſaid, by the common lawes, acts or ſtatutes of this realme, may without ſcruple of conſcience, enioy them without impeachment or trouble by pretence of any generall councell, Canons, or Eccleſiaſticall lawes, and clére from all dangers of the cenſures of the Church.

And conformably hereunto, the Biſhops and Clergy of the Prouince of Canterbury haue preſented to your Maieſties a ſupplication, in this tenour that followeth.

The Clergies petition that the lands and goods of the Clergy late diſperſed amongſt the Temporalty might ſo remaine.

The Clergy do preferre the publike peace before their priuate commodity.

The Clergies ſuit that Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction may be reſtored vnto them, and that all lawes which doe hinder it may be abrogated.

Reginaldus Cardinalis Polus Legatus.

We the ſaid Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament, aſſembled, rendring moſt humble thanks to your Maieſties, by whoſe interceſſion and meanes we haue obteined the ſaid diſpenſations of the Popes holineſſe by the ſaid moſt reuerend Father in God his Legate moſt humbly beſeech the ſame, that it may be ordeined as followeth.

And therefore be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all and ſingular articles and clauſes conteined in the ſaid diſpenſation as well touching the eſtabliſhment of Biſhopriks, and Cathedrall Churches, as alſo the confirmation of marriages in degrees prohibited by the Canons of the Church, the legitimation of children, and the ratification of proceſſe, and of ſentences in matters Eccleſiaſticall, touching the inualidity of them for want of iuriſdiction, and the inſtitutions and deſtitutions, of and in benefices and promotions Eccleſiaſticall, diſpenſations and graces, giuen by ſuch order as the publike Lawes of the Realme then approued, and all other things before conteined in the ſaid Letters of diſpenſations, ſhall remaine and be reputed and taken, to all intents and conſtructions in the Lawes of this Realme, lawfull, good and effectuall to be alleaged and pleaded in all Courts Eccleſiaſticall and Temporall, for good, and ſufficient matter, either for the plaintife or defendant, without any allegation, or obiection, to be made againſt the validity of them by pretence of any generall Councell, canon, or decree to the contrary made or to be made in that behalfe.

The Cardinals diſpenſation confirmed by Parliament. R&P. 1. El. 1.

And whereas diuers and ſundry late Monaſteries, Priories, Commandries, Nunneries, Deaneries, Prebends, Colleges, Hoſpitals, Houſes of Friers, Chantries, and other Religious and Eccleſiaſticall houſes and places, and the manors, granges, meſſuages, lands, tenements, rectories, tithes, penſions, portions, vicarages, Churches, Chappels, aduouſons, nominations, patronages, annuities, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, and other poſſeſſions and hereditaments to the ſaid late Monaſteries, Priories, Nunneries, Commandries, Deaneries, Chantries, Prebends, houſes of Friers, Colleges, Hoſpitals and other Religious and Eccleſiaſticall houſes and places, and ſundry Archbiſhopriks, and Biſhopriks within this Realme, late appertaining and belonging, came as well to the hands and poſſeſſions of the ſaid King of famous memory, Henry the eight, Father vnto your Maieſty, our ſaid Soueraigne Lady by diſſolution, gift, grant, ſurrender, attainder, or otherwiſe, as alſo to the hands and poſſeſſion of diuers and ſundry other perſons, and bodies politike and corporate, by ſundry meanes, conueyances, and aſſurances, according to the order of the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme.

Monaſteries & all their lands and hereditaments were giuen to King H. 8. by the Statutes made 27. H. 8. & 31. H. 8. 13.

And where alſo diuers manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments parcell of the poſſeſſions of Archbiſhopriks and Biſhopriks, and many and ſundry late Deaneries, Colleges, Chantries, Rectories, Prebends, Free chappels, Guilds, and Fraternities, Manors, houſes, granges, lands, tenements, rents, ſeruices, and other Eccleſiaſticall poſſeſſions and hereditaments, goods and cattels to the ſaid Archbiſhopriks, Biſhopriks, Deaneries, Colleges, Chantries, Free chappels, Rectories, Guilds, and Fraternities, late appertaining and belonging or appointing, to and for the finding of Prieſts, obites, lights, or other like purpoſe, came as well to the hands and poſſeſſions of the late noble King Edward the ſixth, brother vnto your Maieſty our Soueraigne Lady, by vertue of an Act of Parliament thereof made, or otherwiſe, as alſo to the hands and poſſeſſion of diuers and ſundry other perſons & bodies politike and corporate, by ſundry meanes, conueyances and aſſurances, according to the order of the Lawes of this Realme: a great number of which ſaid late Monaſteries, Priories, Nunneries, Commandries, Deaneries, Colleges, Hoſpitals, Prebends, Chantries, Free chappels, Guilds, and Fraternities, and the Manors, granges, meſſuages, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, tithes, penſions, portions, vicarages, Churches, Chappels, aduouſons, nominations, patronages, annuities, and hereditaments, goods and cattels, to the ſaid Monaſteries, Priories, Nunneries, Commandries, Deaneries, Colleges, Hoſpitals, Chantries, Free chappels, Guilds, Fraternities, and other Eccleſiaſticall houſes, Archbiſhopricks, and Biſhopricks, belonging as well for great ſums of money, as for other good and reaſonable cauſes and conſiderations, haue beene conueyed and aſſured to diuers the ſubiects and bodies politike of this Realme, aſwell by the ſaid King Henry the eighth, Chantries, Colleges, free Chappels, and their Lands were giuen to King Ed. 6. by the ſtat. of 1. E. 6. 14.

The Cardinals diſpenſation hath only remoued all trouble which by any Eccleſiaſticall decree might diſquiet the poſſeſſions of lands or goods.

The title of all lands is grounded vpon the Lawes of the Realme, and to be impleaded and tried only in the Kings Courts.

the ſaid King Edward the ſixth, and by your Highneſſe our Soueraigne Lady, and ioyntly by both your Maieſties, as alſo by diuers the owners of the ſaid eccleſiaſtical poſſeſſions, which ſaid conueyances, and aſſurances by their ſundry Letters Patents, and other writings, more plainly doe and may appeare. Foraſmuch as the ſaid moſt reuerend Father hath alſo by the ſaid diſpenſations, remoued and taken away all matter of impeachment, trouble and danger, which by occaſion of any generall councell, canon, or decrée Eccleſiaſticall might touch and diſquiet the poſſeſſions of ſuch goods moueable, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions and hereditaments as were of late belonging to any of the ſaid Archbiſhoprickes, Biſhoprickes, monaſteries, priories, nunneries, commandries, deaneries, colleges, chantries, prebends, rectories, hoſpitals, houſes of Friers, or other religious and Eccleſiaſticall houſes and places, of what nature, name, kind, or quality ſoeuer they be of. Yet for that the title of all lands, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments in this your Maieſties Realme and Dominions, is grounded in the lawes, ſtatutes and cuſtomes of the ſame, and by your high iuriſdiction, authority royall, and crowne Imperiall, and in your Courts only to be impleaded, ordered, tried, and iudged, and none otherwiſe, and vnderſtanding that the whole, full and moſt gracious intents, minde and determination of your moſt excellent Maieſties be, that all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, their heires, ſucceſſors and aſſignes, and euery of them, ſhall haue, kéepe, retaine and enioy all and euery their eſtates, rights, poſſeſſions and intereſts, that they and euery of them now hath, or hereafter ſhal haue, of and in all and euery the manors, granges, meſſuages, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, aduowſons, nominations, patronages, annuities, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, hundreds, wapentakes, liberties, franchiſes, and other the poſſeſſions and hereditaments of the ſaid monaſteries, abbeyes, priories, nunneries, commandries, deaneries, colleges, prebends, hoſpitals, houſes of Fryers, Chantries, Rectories, Vicarages, Churches, Chappels, Archbiſhoprickes, and Biſhoprickes, and other Religious or Eccleſiaſticall houſes and places, or of any of them within this Realme or the Dominions of the ſame by ſuch Lawes and Statutes as were in force before the firſt day or this preſent Parliament, and by other lawfull conueyance to them thereof made.

The Q. and all other ſhal enioy ſuch Scites of Monaſteries, &c. and their lands as they now haue or ſhall haue.

That it may be enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that aſwell your Maieſty Soueraigne Lady, your heires and ſucceſſors, as alſo all, and euery other perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, their heires, ſucceſſors, and aſſignes now hauing, or that hereafter ſhall haue, hold, or enioy any of the ſcites of the ſaid late monaſteries, and other the religious or Eccleſiaſticall houſes or places, and all the ſaid manors, granges, meſſuages, lands, tenements, tithes, penſions, portions, glebelands, aduowſons, nominations, patronages, annuities, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, hundreds, wapentakes, liberties, franchiſes, profits, commodities, and other the poſſeſſions and hereditaments of the ſaid late monaſteries, abbeies, priories, nunneries, commandries, deaneries, colleges, prebends, hoſpitals, houſes of Fryers, rectories, vicarages, chantries, Churches, Chappels, Archbiſhoprickes, Biſhoprickes, and other Religious and Eccleſiaſticall houſes and places, or any of them, of what name, nature, or kinde ſoeuer, they be, ſhall haue, hold, poſſeſſe, retaine, kéepe and enioy all and euery the ſaid ſcites, manors, granges, meſſuages, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, profits, commodities, and other hereditaments, according to ſuch intereſts and eſtates, as they and euery of them now haue or hold, or hereafter ſhall haue or hold, of and in the ſame, by the due order and courſe of the Lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme, which now be, or were ſtanding in force before the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, in manner and forme, as if they ſhould haue done, if this had neuer béene had ne made. This Act or any thing herein conteined to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Other mens titles ſaued.

Sauing to you our ſaid Soueraigne Lady, your heires and ſucceſſors, and euery of them, and to all and euery other perſon and perſons Subiects of this Realme, and bodies politike and corporate, and to their heires and ſucceſſors, and to the heires and ſucceſſors of all and euery of them (other than ſuch, whoſe right, title, or intereſt is bounded or taken away, vndone, or extinct by any Act of Parliament heretofore made or otherwiſe) all ſuch right, title, claime, poſſeſſion, intereſts, rents, annuities, commodities, commons, offices, fées, leaſes, liueries, liuings, penſions, portions, debts, duties and other profits, which they or any of them lawfully haue, or of right ought to haue, or might to haue had, in, of, or to any of the premiſſes, or in, of, or to any part or parcell thereof, in ſuch like manner, and forme and condition, to all intents, reſpects, conſtructions, and purpoſes as if this Act had neuer béene had ne made.

A confirmation of all ſtat. concerning the aſſurance of Abbey Lands, or Chantrie, &c. of K.H. 8. K. Ed. 6.

And that it may be further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that all and euery article, clauſe, ſentence, and prouiſo, conteined or ſpecified in any Act or Acts of Parliament, concerning or touching the aſſurance, or conueyance of any the ſaid Monaſteries, Priories, Nunneries, Commandries, Deaneries, Prebends, Colleges, Chantries, Hoſpitals, houſes of Fryers, Rectories, Vicarages, Churches, Chappels, Archbiſhoprickes, and Biſhoprickes, and other Religious and Eccleſiaſticall houſes and places, or any of them, or in any wiſe concerning any manors, lands, tenements, profits, commodities, hereditaments, or other the things before ſpecified to the ſaid King Henry the eight, or King Edward the ſixth, or either of them, or any other perſon or perſons, or body politike or corporate, and euery of them, and all, and euery writing, déed, and inſtrument, concerning the aſſurance of any the ſame, ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be in as good force, effect, and ſtrength, and ſhall be pleaded and taken aduantage of, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as the ſame ſhould, might or could haue béene by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme in caſe this preſent Act had neuer béene ne made.

A confirmation of aſſurances to King H. 8. Ed. 6. and all other perſons of Abbey Lands.

And that all feoffements, fines, ſurrenders, forfeitures, aſſurances, conueyances, eſtates, and intereſts, in any wiſe conueyed, had or made to our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord King Henry viij. or to our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, or either of them, or to any other perſons or perſons, bodies politike or corporat, or to any of them by déed or déeds, act or acts of Parliament, or otherwiſe, of any the ſcites, manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, profits, commodities, or hereditaments of any of the ſaid Archbiſhopricks, Biſhopricks, late Monaſteries, priories, nunneries, commandries, deaneries, houſes of Fryers, colleges, chanteries, hoſpitals, prebends, frée chappels, or of any manors, lands, tenements, reuerſions, ſeruices, tithes, penſions, portions, annuities, or of any other hereditaments, of, by or from any eccleſiaſticall or ſpirituall perſon or perſons, or by, or from any ſpirituall or eccleſiaſticall corporation or body politike, ſhal be as good & auaileable in the law, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as they were by the lawes & ſtatutes of this Realme ſtanding in force before the firſt day of this preſent Parliament. And that the ſame may and ſhall be pleaded, alleaged and taken aduantage of, in ſuch ſort, and to ſuch effect, as they ſhould, could or might haue béene by the lawes & ſtatutes of this Realme, ſtanding in force before the ſaid firſt day of this preſent Parliament: And that all, and euery clauſe and article of ſauing, conteined in all and euery the ſaid acts and ſtatutes, ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be in ſuch force, ſtrength and effect, as they were before the ſaid firſt day of this preſent Parliament. Any thing conteined in this preſent Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The penalty for moleſting any perſon for any Abbey Lands. This clauſe is not repealed. Anno 1. El. 1.

And that it may be in like manner enacted by authority aforeſaid, that whoſoeuer ſhall by any proceſſe, obteined out of any Eccleſiaſticall Court within this Realme, or without, or by pretence of any ſpirituall iuriſdiution, or otherwiſe, contrary to the Lawes of this Realme, inquiet or moleſt any perſon or perſous, or body politike, for any manors, lands, tenements, hereditaments, or things aboue ſpecified, contrary to the words, ſentences, and meaning of this Act, ſhall incur the danger of the Act of Præmunire, made in the xvi. yéere of King Richard the ſecond, and ſhall ſuffer and incur the forfeitures and paines, conteined in the ſame.

Suits for tithes of Abbey lands ſhall be lawfull.

Prouided alway, that it ſhall and may be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, body politike and corporate, to ſue in any competent, Eccleſiaſticall, or ſpirituall Court within this Realme, for tithes, rights, and duties, that they or any of them ſhall pretend to haue, of or out of any the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, and to haue full and perfect remedy for the ſame, in ſuch manner and forme, as they or any of them, might or ought to haue done, or had by the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme, before the making of this Act, and as though this Act had neuer béene had or made.

The title of ſupreme head of the Church neuer could be iuſtly attributed to any King or Gouernor.

And that it may be further prouided and enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, that albeit the title or ſtile of ſupremacie, or ſupreme head of the Church of England, and of Ireland, or either of them, neuer was, ne could be iuſtly or lawfully attributed or knowledged to any King or Soueraigne Gouernor of this Realme; nor in any wiſe could, or might rightfully, iuſtly, or lawfully by any King or Soueraigne Gouernor of this Realme, be claimed, challenged or vſed. Yet foraſmuch as the ſaid title and ſtile, ſithence the third day of Nouember, in the xxvi. yéere of the reigne of the ſaid King Henry the eight, hath béene vſed, and is mentioned and conteined in diuers and ſundry writs, Letters patents, Records, Exemplifications, Court rolles, charters, déeds, inſtruments, euidences, bookes and writings. It ſhall be lawfull aſwell to, and for your Maieſties and your Soueraigne Ladies heires and ſucceſſors, as to, and for euery other perſon and perſons, and bodies politike and corporate, at all time and times hereafter, to haue, retaine, and kéepe the ſaid writs, Letters patents, records, exemplification, court rolles, charters, déeds, inſtruments, euidences, bookes and writings, and them to ſhew, exhibit, vſe, alleage, and plead, in all times and places requiſit, or néedfull, without any danger, penalty, loſſe, forfeiture, trouble, vexation, or impeachment for the ſame, any thing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Writs Letters Patents and other writings with the Title of ſupreme head may be kept and pleaded.

35. H. 8. 3.

And where your Highneſſe Soueraigne Lady, ſince your comming to the Crowne of this Realme, of a good and Chriſtian conſcience, omitted to writ the ſaid ſtile of ſupremacie, ſpecified in one Act, made in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter by prorogation in the xxxv. yéere of the reigne of your late father King Henry the eight, aſwell in gifts, grants, letters patents, as in commiſſions, and other writings, and alſo other haue in their writings done the ſame, as well in your time as before. And foraſmuch as notwithſtanding any law made concerning the ſaid ſtile of ſupremacy, it was in the frée choice, liberty, and pleaſure of the King of this Realme, and of your Highneſſe, whether ye would expreſſe the ſame in the ſaid ſtile or not.

Writings wherein the Queenes ſtile of ſupreme head of the Church is omitted.

Bée it therefore declared and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all grants, letters patents, commiſſions, inditements, records and writings, made in your our Soueraigne Ladies name, or in the names of you our Soueraigne Lord and Lady, or any other, wherein the ſaid ſtile of ſupremacie is omitted, is, and ſhall be to all intents and purpoſes, as good and effectuall, as if the ſame had béene therein expreſſed, and may be deteined, kept, pleaded and alleaged without any danger, paine, penalty, or forfeiture to enſue to any perſon or perſons, or body politike, for, or concerning the omiſſion of the ſame ſtile, or any part thereof, in any ſuch writings, and that no perſon ne perſons ſhall be impeached, moleſted, or damnified, for, or by reaſon of any ſuch omiſſion.

28 H.8.16.

And where in an Act of Parliament made ſince the ſaid xx. yéere of King Henry the eight, all Buls, diſpenſations, and writings which were before that time obteined from the Sée of Rome, ſhould be void aboliſhed and extinguiſhed: with a clauſe neuertheleſſe that the matter of them, by vertue of Letters Patents from the King then being ſhould, and might be alleaged, pleaded, and allowed as if the ſame had not béene ſo aboliſhed and extinguiſhed. Foraſmuch as the ſaid Act is here before amongſt other repealed and made void.

What Bulles, diſpenſations & licences obteined from Rome may be put in execution.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all Buls, diſpenſations, and priuileges obteined before the ſaid twentieth yéere, or at any time ſithence, or which ſhal hereafter be obteined of the Sée of Rome, not conteining matter contrary or preiudiciall to the authority, dignity, or preheminence Royall, or Imperiall of the Realme, or to the Lawes of this Realme, now being in force, and not in this Parliament repealed, may be put in execution, vſed & alleaged in any Court within this Realme, or elſewhere, whether the ſame remaine yet whole, or can appeare to haue béene cancelled, in as auaileable and effectuall manner, to all intents, and purpoſes, as if the ſaid Act had neuer béene had or made. Any obiection by pretence of extinguiſhment, or cancelling of the ſaid Buls, diſpenſations, or priuileges, or of any other matter or cauſe by the pretence of the Lawes of this Realme, whatſoeuer in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And whereas by diſſolution of Monaſteries, and other Religious houſes, certeine pariſh Churches and Chappels, which were before exempt from the Iuriſdiction of the Archbiſhop & Biſhop of the Dioceſſe, and by ſpeciall exemption and priuilege from Rome, were vnder the gouernment and order of the Abbots, and Priors of thoſe Religious houſes, which ſaid Churches by colour of the ſaid exemptions, be now of ſpeciall grant from King Henry, and King Edward, vnder the rule and gouernment, and iuriſdiction of temporall and lay men, who can no more enioy that ſupremacie, our thoſe particular Churches, than the King might ouer the whole Realme.

Who ſhall haue the iuriſdiction of Churches & Chappels exempt from Biſhops, &c.

Be it therefore enacted, that all Archbiſhops and Biſhops in their Dioces, and all other Spirituall perſon and perſons, hauing Iuriſdiction, and their Miniſters and Officers, and no lay perſon or perſons, in euery Church and place, within the precinct of the ſame, being exempt, or not exempt, may fréely, and without impediment execute their ſpirituall Iuriſdiction in all points and articles, as though no ſuch exemption or grant had neuer béene made.

The priuileges of certaine perſons and places reſerued.

Prouided alway, and be it enacted, that this Act extend not to take away, or diminiſh the priuileges of the Vniuerſities of Cambridge and Oxford, ne the priuileges or prerogatiues granted heretofore to the Churches of Weſtminſter and Windſor, ne the Tower of London, ne preiudiciall to ſuch temporall Lords and poſſeſſioners in this Realme, as by ancient cuſtome haue enioyed probat of Teſtaments, of their tenants or other.

By the reconciliation of the Realme to Gods Church, deuotion is hoped for.

And foraſmuch as after this reconciliation, and vnity of this noble Realme, to the body of Chriſts Church, it is to be truſted that by the abundance of Gods mercy and grace, deuotion ſhall encreaſe and grow in the hearts of many the Subiects of this Realme, with deſire to giue and beſtow their worldly poſſeſſions, for the reſuſcitating of almes, prayer, and example of good life in this Realme, to the intent ſuch godly motions and purpoſes ſhould be aduanced.

Lands may be giuen to ſpirituall bodies politike or corporate.

Be it therefore enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that it ſhal be lawfull to ſuch as ſhall be [a] ſeaſed of any Manors, lands, tenements, parſonages, tithes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments whatſoeuer, in fée ſimple, in poſſeſſion, reuerſion or remainder, in their owne rights, not being Copihold, may therof make feoffements, grants, or any other aſſurances, or by his laſt Will and Teſtament in writing, may bequeath and giue in fée ſimple, all and euery the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, parſonages, tithes, penſions, portions, or other hereditaments, to any ſpirituall body politike, or corporate in this Realme or Dominions of the ſame, now erected or founded, or hereafter to be erected or founded, without any licence of mortmaine therein to be obteined: or any Writ of ad quod damnum to be ſued out for the ſame, the Acts de terris ad manum mortuam non ponendis, or any other Act or Statute heretofore had or made in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

[a] Dyer Cok.

Sauing to the Lords of the fée, all rents ſeruices due, or going out of any of the ſaid lands tenements, or hereditaments, ſo to be amortized, as is aforeſaid.

Prouided alway, that this clauſe of this Act, for giuing the liberty of, or for the amortizing of lands or tenements, ſhall continue for, and during the ſpace of twenty yéeres next, and immediately following, and no longer.

And foraſmuch as we your Maieſties humble and obedient Subiects, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, neither by the making or deliuering of either the ſupplications aforeſaid, nor by any clauſe, article or ſentence thereof, or of any other clauſe, article or ſentence of this or any other Statute, or any of the preambles of the ſame, made or agréed vpon in this Seſſions of this preſent Parliament, by any manner of interpretation, conſtruction, implication or otherwiſe intend to derogate, impaire or diminiſh any of the prerogatiues, liberties, franchiſes, preheminences or iuriſdictions of your Crowne Imperiall of this Realme, and other the Dominions to the ſame belonging: We doe moſt humbly beſeech your Maieſties, that it may be declared and ordeined, and be it enacted and declared by authority of this preſent Parliament, that neither the making, exhibiting or inſerting in this preſent Statute, or in the preambles of the ſame, of the ſupplications or promiſe aforeſaid or either of them, nor any other thing or things, words, ſentences, clauſes or articles in the preambles or body of the Acts aforeſaid, ſhall be conſtrued, vnderſtanded or expounded to derogate, diminiſh or take away any the liberties, priuileges, prerogatiues, preheminences, authorities, or iuriſdictions or any part or parcell thereof, which were in your Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, or did belong to your ſaid Imperiall Crowne the twentieth yeere of the raigne, of yours the Queenes Maieſties moſt noble Father, or any other your moſt noble Progenitors, before the ſaid twentieth yeere: and the Popes holyneſſe, and See Apoſtolike, to be reſtored, and to haue and enioy ſuch authority, preheminence, and iuriſdiction as his Holyneſſe vſed and exerciſed, or might lawfully haue vſed and exerciſed by authority of his Supremacie, the ſaid twentieth yeere of the raigne of the King your Father, within this your Realme of England, and other your Dominions, without diminution, or enlargement of the ſame and none other, and the Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdictions of the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and Ordinaries, to be in the ſame ſtate, for proces of ſuits, puniſhment of crimes, and execution of cenſures of the Church, with knowledge of cauſes belonging to the ſame, & as large in theſe points, as the ſaid iuriſdiction was the ſaid twentieth yeere.

Nothing done or moued in this Statute, ſhall be preiudiciall to the liberties of the Crowne.

The Pope and See Apoſtolike reſtored to the authority that they had.

The iuriſdiction of the Biſhops of this Realme.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that in and vpon euery ſuch gift and deuiſe, to be made to ſuch ſpirituall corporations, or perſons as is aforeſaid, the Donor, Feoffor, or Diuiſor thereof may reſerue to him, and to his heires for euer, a tenure in franke almoigne, or a tenure by diuine ſeruice, and to haue all remedies and actions, for and vpon the ſaid gifts or deuiſes, and tenures in like manner and forme, as was vſed before the eſtatute of Weſtminſter third (commonly called) Quia emptores terrarum. The ſaid eſtatute or any other law or cuſtome now being to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

What tenure ſhal be reſerued vpon gifts to be made to Spirituall Corporations.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that all and euery perſon and perſons, and bodies politike and corporate which now haue, or hereafter ſhall haue any eſtate of inheritance, freehold, terme, or intereſt, of, in or to any portion, penſion, tithes, glebelands, or other Eccleſiaſticall or Spirituall profit, which by this Act, and Letters of diſpenſation rehearſed in the ſame, be permitted and ſuffered to remaine and continue in lay mens poſſeſſions, ſhall and may haue like remedy for the recouery of the ſame, and euery part thereof as they and euery of them might haue had before the firſt day of this preſent Parliament: any thing in this Act conteined to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. St.1.El.1.

The remedy to recouer any penſion, tithes, Glebelands.

CAP. IX.

If any perſon ſhall pray, or deſire that God will ſhorten the Queenes dayes, or take her out of the way, or any ſuch mallicious prayer, amounting to the ſame effect, he, his Procurators, and Abettors, ſhall be adiudged Traitors. EXP.1.El.6. 23.El.2.

CAP. X.

It ſhall be high Treaſon to compaſſe the death of the King or the Queene, or to depriue either of them of the Stile or Kingly honour of this Realme: Or to affirme that any other than they, and the heires of her body ought to be King or Queene. CAP. XI.

Bringers in of counterfeit Coine into this Realme ſhall be puniſhed as Traitors.

Where diuers and ſundry coines of gold and ſiluer of other Realmes, not being of the proper coine of this Realme of England, and yet by the ſufferance and conſent of the King and Queene our Soueraigne Lord and Lady, be currant in payment within this Realme, many ill diſpoſed perſons for their owne corrupt lucre and aduantage, haue now of late brought into this Realme, from the parties of beyond the Sea, great quantity of forged and counterfeit money, like to the ſaid coine of other forreine Realmes, and haue vttered the ſame here, by merchandizing, and otherwiſe, to diuers of the Subiects of this Realme, to their great deceit, hurt and damage, becauſe the ſaid ill diſpoſed perſons haue perceiued and vnderſtanded, that there was not, nor yet is any ſufficient Law or Statute made or prouided for the condigne puniſhment of the Offendors in that behalfe.

Wherefore be it enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any perſon or perſons after the twentieth day of January next comming, ſhall bring from the parties of beyond the Sea into this Realme, or into any the Dominions of the ſame, any ſuch falſe and counterfeit coine of money, being currant within this Realme as is aforeſaid, knowing the ſame Coyne or Money to be falſe and counterfeit, to the intent to vtter, or make payment with the ſame within this Realme, or any the Dominions of the ſame, by Merchandizing or otherwiſe, that all and euery ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending as is aforeſaid, their Counſellors, Procurors, Aydors and Abbettors in that behalfe, ſhall be deemed and iudged to be Offendors in high Treaſon, and ſhall ſuffer after lawfull conuiction or atteinder thereof, ſuch paines of death, loſſe and forfeiture of lands, goods and cattels, as other Offendors ſhall doe, in caſes of high treaſon.

Realmes, and currant within this Realme.

The manner of indictment, triall, &c. of an offender, for impairing or forging of coyne.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery perſon and perſons, that ſhall at any time after the ſaid twentieth day of January, be accuſed or impeached of any of the offences conteined and prouided for in this eſtatute, or of any other offence or offences, concerning the impairing, counterfeiting or forging of any coyne currant within this Realme, ſhal and may be indicted, arraigned, tried, conuicted or atteinted by ſuch like euidence, and in ſuch manner and forme as hath béene vſed and accuſtomed within this Realme, at any time before the firſt yeere of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord, King Edward the ſixth: any ſtatute, cuſtome, law or vſage to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Cap. XII.

Where diſtreſſes taken ſhall be impounded.

No diſtreſſe ſhall be driuen forth of the hundred where it is taken, nor impounded in ſeuerall places. St. 52. H. 3. 4. 3. Edw. 1. 16. Cok. pla. fol. 43. Raſt. pla. fol. 164.

FOr the auoyding of grieuous vexations, exactions, troubles and diſorder in taking of diſtreſſes, & impounding of cattell. Be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that from and after the firſt day of Aprill next comming, no diſtreſſe of cattell ſhall be driuen out of the hundred, rape, wapentake or lathe, where ſuch diſtreſſes is, or ſhall be taken, except it be to a pound ouert within the ſame Shire, not aboue [a] thrée miles diſtant, from the place where the ſaid diſtreſſe is taken, and that no cattell, or other goods diſtrained or taken by way of diſtreſſe, for any manner of cauſe at on time ſhall be impounded in ſeuerall places, whereby the owner or owners of ſuch diſtreſſe ſhall be conſtrained to ſue ſeuerall repleuis for the deliuery of the ſaid diſtreſſe, ſo taken at one time, vpon peine euery perſon offending contrary to this Act, ſhall forfeit to the party grieued, for euery ſuch offence an hundred ſhillings, and treble damages.

How much may be taken for poundage.

And further be it enacted by authority aforeſaid, that after the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, no perſon or perſons ſhall take for kéeping in pound, impounding or poundage of any manner diſtreſſe, aboue the ſumme of foure pence for any one whole diſtreſſe, that ſhalbe ſo impounded: and where leſſe hath béene vſed, there to take leſſe, vpon the paine of fiue pound to be payed to the party grieued, ouer and beſides ſuch money as he ſhall take aboue the ſumme of foure pence, Any vſage or preſcription to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Sheriffe ſhall appoint foure Deputies to make repleuies.

And for the more ſpéedier deliuery of cattell, taken by way of diſtreſſe, it is further enacted by the ſaid authority, that euery Sheriffe of Shires, being no Cities nor Townes made Shires, ſhall at his firſt County day, or within two moneths next after he hath receiued his Patent of his office of Sheriffewike, ſhall depute, appoint and proclaime in the Shire Towne within his Bayliffewike, foure Deputies at the leaſt, dwelling not aboue twelue miles one diſtant from another, which ſaid Deputies ſo appointed and proclaimed, ſhall haue authority in the Sheriffes name to make repleuis and deliuerance of ſuch diſtreſſes, in ſuch manner and forme as the Sheriffe may and ought to doe: vpon paine that euery Sheriffe, for euery moneth, that hee ſhall lacke ſuch Deputy or Deputies, ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch offence fiue pounds, the one halfe of which forfeitures ſhall be to the King and Quéenes Highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors, the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, information or action of debt, in any the King and Quéenes Courts of Record, in which no eſſoine, protection nor wager of law ſhall be admitted.

Cap. XIII.

In what manner Iuſtices of Peace may baile perſons arreſted of felony or ſuſpition thereof, &c.

Stat. 3. H. 7. 3.

VVHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the third yéere of the reigne of the Noble Prince, King Henry the ſeuenth, it was among other things ordeined and enacted, that no priſoner arreſted for felony, ſhould be letten to baile or maineprize, by any one Juſtice of Peace, but by the whole Juſtices, or at leaſt by two of them, whereof one to bée of the Quorum: ſince the making of which Eſtatute, one Juſtice of Peace in the name of himſelfe and one other of the Juſtices his Companion, not making the ſaid Juſtice party nor priuy vnto the caſe, wherefore the Priſoner ſhould be bailed, hath often times by ſiniſter labour and meanes, ſet at large the greateſt and notableſt Offenders, ſuch as be not repliuiſable by the Lawes of this Realme, and yet the rather to hide their affections in that behalfe haue ſignified the cauſe of their apprehenſion to bee but onely for ſuſpition of felony, whereby the ſaid Offendors haue eſcaped vnpuniſhed, and doe daily, to the high diſpleaſure of almighty God, the great perill of the King and Queenes true Subiects, and encouragement of all Theeues and euill doers.

For reformation whereof, bee it ordeined and enacted by the King and Queenes Maieſties, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that from and after the firſt day of Aprill next comming, no Iuſtice or Iuſtices of Peace, ſhall let to baile or mainepriſe any ſuch perſon or perſons, which for any offence or offences, by them or any of them committed, be declared not to be repleuiſhed or bailed, or be forbidden to be repleued, or bailed by the eſtatute of Weſtminſter primer, made in the Parliament holden in the third yeere of the reigne of King Edward the firſt.

None ſhalbe let to baile, which be forbidden to be bailed, by the Statute of 3. Edw. 1. 15.

And furthermore, that any perſon or perſons arreſted for manſlaughter or felony, or ſuſpition of manſlaughter or felony, being bayleable by the law, ſhall not after the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, be let to baile or mainepriſe by any Iuſtices of Peace, if it be not in open Seſſions, except it be by two Iuſtices of Peace at the leaſt, whereof one to be of the Quorum, and the ſame Iuſtices to be preſent together, at the time of the ſaid bailement or mainpriſe, which bailement or mainpriſe they ſhall certifie in writing, ſubſcribed or ſigned with their owne hands, at the next generall gaole deliuery, to be holden within the County where the ſaid perſon or perſons ſhall be arreſted or ſuſpected.

The Iuſtices duty in bailement of a priſoner, in examination of him and others, and certifying thereof. St. 2. & 3. P. & M. 10.

And that the ſaid Iuſtices, or one of them being of the Quorum, when any ſuch priſoner is brought before them for any manſlaughter or felony, before any bailement or mainepriſe, ſhall take the examination of the ſaid priſoner, and information of them that brings him, of the fact and circumſtances thereof, and the ſame or as much thereof, as ſhall be materiall to proue the felony, ſhall put in writing before they make the ſame bailement, which ſaid examination together with the ſaid bailement, the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall certifie at the next generall gaole deliuery to be holden within the limits of their commiſſion.

The Coroners duty vpon an Inquiſition found before him.

And that euery Coroner, vpon any inquiſition before him found, whereby any perſon or perſons ſhall be indicted for murther, or manſlaughter, or [illegible] acceſſary or acceſſaries to the ſame, before the murther or manſlaughter committed, ſhall put in writing the effect of the euidence giuen to the Iury before him, being materiall, and as well the ſaid Iuſtices as the ſaid Coroner, ſhall haue authority by this Act to bind all ſuch by recogniſance or obligation, as doe declare any thing materiall, to proue the ſaid murther or manſlaughter, offences or felonies, or to be acceſſary or acceſſaries to the ſame, as is aforeſaid, to appeare at the next generall gaole deliuery to be holden within the County, City or Towne corporate where the triall thereof ſhall be, then and there to giue euidence againſt the party ſo indicted at the time of his triall, and ſhall certifie as well the ſame euidence, as ſuch bond and bounds in writing, as he ſhall take, together with the inquiſition or inditment before him taken and found, at or before the time of his ſaid triall thereof, to be had or made: and likewiſe, the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall certifie all and euery ſuch bond taken before them, in like manner as before is ſaid of bailements and examination. And in caſe any Iuſtice of peace, of Quorum, or Coroner, ſhall after the ſaid firſt day of Aprill, offend in any thing contrary to the true intent and meaning of this preſent Act; That then the Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery of the Shire, City, Towne or place, where ſuch offence ſhall happen to be committed, vpon due proofe thereof, by examination before them, ſhal for euery ſuch offence, ſet ſuch fine on euery of the ſame Iuſtices of Peace and Coroner, as the ſame Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery ſhall thinke meet, and eſtrete the ſame, as other fines and amerciaments aſſeſſed before Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery ought to be.

The penalty of any Iuſtices of Peace or Coroner omitting his duty.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that Iuſtices of Peace and Coroners within the Citie of London and the County of Middleſex, and in other Citis, Boroughes and Townes corporate within this Realme and Wales, ſhall wthin their ſeuerall iuriſdictions, haue authority to let to baile, felons and priſoners in ſuch manner and forme, as they haue beene heretofore accuſtomed, this Act, or any thing therein conteined, to the contrary notwithſtanding. And alſo ſhall take examinations and bonds, as is aforeſaid, vpon euery bailement by them or any of them to be made, and ſhall certifie euery ſuch bailements, bonds and examinations, by them or any of them, taken or made, at the next gaole deliuery to be holden within the Shire, City, Borough or Towne, where their ſeuerall iuriſdictions extendeth, vpon like peine and forfeiture, as is before limited in this preſent Act.

Iuſtices of Peace of London, Middleſex, &c.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no writs of Habeas corpus, or Certiorari, ſhall be hereafter granted to remoue any priſoner out of any gaole, or to remoue any recogniſance, except the ſame writs be ſigned with the proper hands of the Chiefe Iuſtice, or in his abſence, one of the Iuſtices of the Court, out of which the ſame writs ſhall be awarded or made, vpon paine that he that writeth any ſuch writs, not being ſigned, as is aforeſaid, to forfeit to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord the King and the Queene, for euery ſuch writ and writs fiue pounds.

Remouing of a priſoner, or Recogniſance.

Cap. XIIII.

In what order Ruſſell Sattens,&c.ſhall be made in Norwich.

WHere of late yeeres paſſed, Ruſſels, called Ruſſels Sattens, and Sattens reuerſes, haue beene practiſed to be made beyond the Seas of the Wools bred in the County of Norfolke, and by reaſon thereof ſo great quantity of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, haue beene brought into this Realme, ſold and worne as well in euery part of this Realme, as in the parts beyond the Seas, that thereby the myſteries of Worſteds making and weauing, whereby Merchants and inhabitants of the City of Norwich, haue heretofore beene well maintained and relieued, is now at this preſent almoſt wholly decayed and brought out of eſtimation, and very little worne, either within this Realme, or in any other forrein Realmes, to the great hinderance and decay of the ſaid City and Citizens of the ſame City. For remedy whereof, Thomas Marſham, Maior of the City of Norwich, Iohn Corbet Eſquire, Auſten Steward, Robert Leche, Robert Rugge, Iohn Ball, and Alexander Mather, Aldermen of the ſaid City, Thomas Whale, Thomas Pecke, Raph Marſham, Robert Henry, Iohn Sutton, Richard Tomſon, Citizens and Merchants of the ſaid City, at their great coſts and charges, as well in bringing of certaine ſtrangers from the parts beyond the Seas into the ſaid City, as alſo in making of Lombes, and all other prouiſion for the ſame, and alſo haue called vnto them eight perſons of the moſt diſcreet and worthy men of the myſtery of Worſted weauing, within the ſaid City, that is to ſay, Iohn Cooke, Iames Lin, Iohn Croſſe, Simon Petit, Iohn Marſhal, Roger Lecke, Edmund Barker, and Edmund Selers, being the number of one and twenty perſons, which haue not only made Ruſſels Sattens, and Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtians of Naples within the ſaid City of Norwich, of Norfolke wools, but alſo haue learned and taught other Citizens and inhabitants of the ſaid City to make the ſame, in ſuch good and perfect manner, that much better Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Naples, and ſuch like, and for eaſier prices, be now at this preſent wrought and made within the ſaid City, than heretofore hath beene, or now be made in any of the parts beyond the Seas, whereby the ſa[illegible]ity and inhabitants thereof may, and be in like againe to be relieued and brought to the old eſtate, to the great aduancement of the commodities of this Realme, and enriching the ſame, if ſome good and politike lawes and ordinances were made for the good continuance of the true making of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Naples, and ſuch like.

By what names Ruſſels ſattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtians of Naples made in Norwich ſhall be called.

In conſideration whereof, be it enacted by the aſſent of the King and Queenes Highneſſe, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, and Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Naples hereafter to be made only within the ſaid City, may from henceforth beare the name, and be called by the name of Norwich Sattens, and Norwich Fuſtians, and that the Maior and the afore mentioned Citizens of the ſame City, which before this time haue beene at the coſts and charges of the bringing of the ſaid ſtrangers into the ſame City, for the making of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Naples, and ſuch the afore mentioned eight perſons that they haue called vnto them, ſhall be a fellowſhip of themſelues, and ſhall yeerely the third day of February chooſe of their fellowes foure Wardens within the Guild hall of the ſaid City, or any other common and conuenient place in the ſame City, and the ſame Wardens ſo being choſen, ſhall ſtand and be Wardens of the ſame Fellowſhip during one whole yeere, next enſuing the ſaid election, and that the ſame Wardens, after the ſaid election, ſhall come before the Maior of the ſaid City for the time being, yeerely the Munday next after the ſaid third day of February, and before the ſaid Maior ſhall be ſworne diligently to view, ſearch and ſee all the Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Naples, then made or that ſhall be made within the ſaid City, during the ſaid yeere. And ſuch of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Naples, as ſhall appeare and be deemed by them to be lawfully, truly and workmanly wrought, ſhall ſeale with a ſeale of lead, bearing the armes of the City of Norwich; whereby it may be knowne to the Merchant or buyer of them, that the ſame be allowed and truly made.

There ſhall be a body Corporate and foure Wardens, to ſee & ſeale Ruſſell Sattens, &c.

And that alſo it may be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Wardens and fellowſhip ſhalbe a body corporate, and to be named and be enabled by this act to ſue, and be ſued, and to giue and to take by the name of Wardens and Fellowſhip of the myſtery of Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich making within the ſaid City of Norwich. And if any default at any time ſhall be found in any of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich, or in any of them by the ſaid Wardens, that the ſame default ſhall be reformed, and the offendor or offendors therein to be puniſhed according to ſuch rules and ordinances, as hereafter from time to time ſhall be made within the ſaid City, by the Maior of the ſaid City for the time being, and by the ſaid foure Wardens, and the Fellowſhip of the ſaid occupation or myſtery, or the greateſt number of the ſaid Fellowſhip, for, and concerning the ſame, and that the ſame defaults from time to time, as occaſion ſhall ſerue, ſhall be enquired of, and tried for the

The authority of the foure Wardens.

And that the ſaid foure Wardens ſo choſen and ſworne, ſhall haue full power and authority, to doe, execute, preſent and reforme all and ſingular thing and things, of, for, and concerning the ſaid myſtery, making, working and occupying of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich within the ſaid City, in ſuch manner and forme, as in or by the ſaid ordinances ſhalbe expreſſed and declared; and that all times hereafter, and from time to time it ſhal be lawfull to the Maior of the ſaid City for the time being, and to the before named fellowſhip and Wardens of the ſame myſtery, and the more part of them, and to their ſucceſſors, to make and ordeine from time to time rules, lawes and ordinances meet and neceſſary for the good order and gouernances of the ſaid myſtery, and for the true and well making of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich, and the ſame ordinances ſo made to be at all times obeyed by all the inhabitants of the ſaid City or Suburbs of the ſame, and to be put in due execution by the ſaid Maior and Wardens, and their ſucceſſors for the time being, in ſuch manner and forme, as by the ſaid ordinance ſhall be ordeined and declared.

Who may occupy the trade of making Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens Reuerſes, &c.

And that ſuch as now be, and that hereafter ſhalbe makers of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich and euery of them within the ſaid City, ſhall not from henceforth occupy the ſaid myſtery and making of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich, nor any of them, within the ſaid City by themſelues, or by any other, before he or they ſo occupying the ſaid myſtery within the ſaid City, be made free of the ſaid City, ⁊ admitted to be of the ſaid fellowſhip by the Maior of the ſaid City, and Wardens and fellowſhip of the ſaid myſtery for the time being. And that no perſon do occupy by himſelfe or any other for him out of the ſaid City, the ſaid myſtery of making of Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtians of Naples, or of any of them, before he or they ſo occupying the ſame, haue bin Prentice to the ſaid myſtery by the terme of ſeuen yeeres, or elſe admitted by the ſaid Maior ⁊ fellowſhip or the more part of them, vpon peine of forfeiture of the ſame Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich by them or any of them to be made contrary to the forme of this act.

The Maior and Wardens ſhall take nothing to their owne vſe for admittance.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Maior and Wardens for the time being, ſhall not take any ſum of money, or reward to their owne proper vſes, for the admitting of any perſon or perſons to occupy the ſaid myſtery, vpon peine of forfeiture of treble the value of the reward or ſumme of money ſo by them or any of them to be taken.

Prouided alſo, that it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid Wardens, and to euery of them for the time being, by all wayes and meanes, and at all lawfull times, diligently from time to time, to make ſearch by due and ordinary wayes for all manner of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich, that ſhall happen to be found by them defectiue, for lacke of good and true workmanſhip.

The preſentment, inquiry and triall of Ruſſell Sattens, &c. ſuſpected to be defectiue.

And that it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid Wardens, and euery of them for the time being, by vertue of this Act, to ſeiſe and take the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian, and bring and preſent the ſame clothes ſo ſeiſed and taken to the Maior of the ſaid City for the time being, and vnto his ſucceſſors, to the intent that twelue honeſt, lawfull and expert men of the ſaid myſtery and fellowſhip, being ſworne before the ſaid Maior, may by vertue of their oathes make inquiry, and preſent the manner of the ſaid defaults before the ſaid Maior for the time being, according to ſuch good and wholeſome ordinances and rules as ſhall be ordeined and made for the conſeruation and good continuance of the ſaid occupation and myſtery, and the true making and working of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtians of Norwich. And that all and euery perſon and perſons, that ſhall occupy, vſe and exerciſe the ſaid Myſtery, or making of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattents, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtians of Norwich, or any of them, contrary to the forme, tenour, plaine meaning and intent of this Act, and of the rules and ordinances, that at any time hereafter by authority of this act ſhall be ordeined and made for the continuance of the true and perfect making of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich, ſhal forfeit and loſe for euery time ſo offending, or making any Ruſſell Sattens, Sattens reuerſes and Fuſtian of Norwich, contrary to the meaning, tenor and effect of the ſaid act, rules and ordinances concerning the ſame, ſuch fines, amerciaments and paines as ſhall be adiudged, aſſeſſed and affered by twelue expert men of the ſaid fellowſhip vpon their oathes, the ſame twelue perſons to be ſworne before the ſaid Maior and Wardens, to enquire and make true verdict and preſentment of ſuch defaults, the one halfe of the which forfeiture to be to the Maior of the ſaid City for the time being, and his ſucceſſors, and the other moity to the ſaid Wardens, for the time being, and their ſucceſſors, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any Court of Record, in which action, bill, plaint or information, no wager of law, protection, iniunction or forrein plea, ſhall be allowed;

The penalty where the ſaid Sattens, &c. be found by verdict to be defectiue.

And in caſe it ſhall fortune hereafter, that any of the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Norwich, ſhall lacke of ſuch lengths and bredths, or of the true and enſuing making or ſorting of the yarne, as ſhall be appointed and ſet forth by the ſaid rules and ordinances, and the ſame ſo to be found defectiue by verdict of twelue men of the ſaid fellowſhip, before the ſaid Maior and Wardens, and their ſucceſſors: That then the ſaid Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtians of Naples, and euery of them ſo found defectiue, to be cut in two péeces, and to pay ſuch fine or fines, as ſhall be offered and aſſered by the ſaid twelue expert men, by vertue of their oathes, the one moity of which fine or fines, to be to the Maior of the ſaid City for the time being, and to his ſucceſſors, and the other moity to the Wardens of the ſaid fellowſhip for the time being, and to their ſucceſſors.

The forfeiture of a Warden that doth ſeale any Ruſſels Sattens, &c. being defectiue.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any Warden or Wardens for the time being, of the ſaid myſtery or occupation of making Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, and Fuſtian of Naples, ſhall at any time hereafter ſeale, or cauſe to be ſealed any Ruſſels Sattens, Sattens reuerſes, or Fuſtian of Naples, that ſhall not be well, ſufficient and truly wrought, and made according to the true intent and meaning of this preſent Act, he ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery péece ſo ſealed, being not well, ſufficient and truly wrought and made, the whole value of euery ſuch péece ſo ſealed, the one halfe of which forfeitures, to be the King and Quéenes Maieſties, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity thereof to be to ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame by bill, action or information, in any of the King and Quéenes Courts of Record, in which bill, action or information, no eſſoine, protection or wager of law ſhall be allowed.

CAP. XV.

What liberties the Lords Marchers in Wales ſhall haue.

27.H.8.26.

Humbly beſéechen your excellent Maieſties, your true and faithfull Subiects, the Lords Marchers, both Spirituall and Temporall, within your Highneſſe Dominion of Wales, That whereas in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the ſeuen and twentieth yéere of the reigne of King Henry the eight, Father vnto you our naturall Soueraigne Lady, amongſt other things one act was made and eſtabliſhed for Lawes and Iuſtice to be miniſtred in the ſaid Dominion of Wales, in like forme as it is in this Realme of England: In the which Act one article is, that, for that the Lords Marches before the Parliament had vſed to put their tenants within the Lordſhips Marchers, vnder common mainepriſe and ſurety of apparance, and haue had the forfeitures thereof, which for euer, from and after the Feaſt of All-Saints, then next enſuing, the ſaid Parliament ſhould vtterly ceaſe, and be determined.

By the Statute of 27.H.8. euery Lord Marcher Temporall in Wales, ſhall haue the moity of the forfeiture of his tenant.

It was enacted, that after the ſaid Feaſt of Al-Saints, euery Lay and Temporall perſon then being a Lord Marcher, ſhould haue the moity or halfe of euery forfeiture of all and euery common mainepriſe, recogniſance for the peace or apparance, forfeited by any of their tenants inhabiting within any of their Lordſhips Marchers, and they to be paid the ſame moity or halfe, by the hands of the Sheriffe of euery of the Counties where ſuch forfeiture ſhall be, if the Sheriffe can leuy the ſame, and the ſame Sheriffe to accompt to our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord the King, for the other halfe or moity, in ſuch Exchequer as they can be accomptant.

And further it was enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Lay and Temporall perſon or perſons, then being Lords Marchers, and hauing any Lordſhips Marchers or Lordſhips Royall, ſhould from and after the ſaid Feaſt of Al-Saints, haue all ſuch miſes and profits of their tenants, as they haue had or vſed to haue at the firſt entry into their lands in times paſt. And alſo ſhould haue, hold, and kéepe within the precinct of their ſaid Lordſhips, Courts Baron, Courts Léet, and Lawdayes, and all and euery thing to the ſaid Courts belonging, and alſo ſhould haue within the precinct of their ſaid Lordſhips or Lawday, Waife, Straife, Infangthefe, Outfangthefe, Treaſure Troue, Deodandes, Goods and Cattels of Felons, and of perſons condemned or outlawed of felony or murther, put in exigent for felony or murther, and alſo wréeke de mer, wharfage, and cuſtomes of ſtrangers, as they haue had in time paſt, and as though ſuch priuileges were granted vnto them by point of Charter, any thing in that Act to the contrary notwithſtanding, as in the ſaid Act of Parliament more at large it may appeare.

And foraſmuch as Biſhops, and other Eccleſiaſticall perſons being Lords Marchers, hauing the like liberties, caſualties, profits and commodities, within their Lordſhips Marchers and Lordſhips Royall, within the ſaid Dominion or Principality of Wales, were not prouided for by the expreſſe letter of the ſaid ſtatute, in like ſort as the Lay and Temporall Lords Marchers were, but rather of purpoſe, as it ſhould ſéeme forgotten and left out of the ſaid Act, againſt all reaſon and good equity: And foraſmuch alſo, as the heires and ſucceſſors of the Lay and Temporall Lords Marchers, then being, were not prouided for by the limitation and expreſſe words of the ſaid Act, as well as their anceſtors and predeceſſors were, as reaſon would they ſhould haue béene.

It may pleaſe your Maieſties of your moſt gracious fauours and benignity, at the humble ſuit and ſupplication of your ſaid faithfull Subiects, the Lords Marchers, that now are, in the ſaid Dominion of Wales, both Spirituall and Temporall, to grant that it may by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, be ordeined, eſtabliſhed and enacted, by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that as well your ſaid Spirituall and Eccleſiaſticall Subiects, Lords Marchers, now hauing Lordſhips Marchers, or Lordſhips Royall in Wales aforeſaid, and their ſucceſſors, and the ſucceſſors of euery of them, as alſo the heires and ſucceſſors of the Lords temporall Marchers that then were, or now be, and the heires or ſucceſſors of euery of them being, or which hereafter ſhall be Lords Marchers, within their Lordſhips Marchers, and Lordſhips Royall in the Dominion or Principality of Wales, ſhall haue and enioy to them, and to their heires and ſucceſſors, reſpectiuely and ſeuerally for euer, the moity and halfe of euery forfeiture, of all and euery common mainpriſe, recogniſance for the Peace, or apparance forfeited by any their tenants inhabiting within any of their Lordſhips Marchers, or Lordſhips Royall, and they to be paid the ſame moity or halfe, by the hands of the Sheriffe of the County, for the time being, after ſuch forme and ſort, as the ſaid Lay or Temporall Lords Marchers haue béene or ought to haue béene paid the ſame, by force of the ſaid Statute.

What forfeitures and benefits the Lords Marchers, both Spirituall and Temporall in Wales, ſhall haue of their tenants. Coke.pla.fol.550.

And further, ſhall haue all ſuch miſes and profits of their tenants, as the Lords Marchers, ſpirituall or temporall, reſpectiuely or ſeuerally had or vſed to haue at their firſt entry into their lands in times paſt, before the making of the ſaid act or ſtatute. And alſo ſhall haue, hold and kéepe within the precinct of their ſaid Lordſhips, all ſuch Courts Baron, Courts Léet, and lawdayes, and all and euery thing and things, to the ſame Courts belonging, and alſo ſhall haue within the precinct of their ſaid ſeuerall Lordſhips, or Lawdayes, all ſuch waiſe, ſtraiſe, infang-thefe, outfang-thefe, treaſure troue, deodands, goods and cattels of fellons, and of perſons condemned or outlawed of felony or murther, put in exigent for felony or murther, and alſo all ſuch wreck-de-mer, wharfage and cuſtomes of ſtrangers, as the Lords Marchers Spirituall and Temporall, reſpectiuely and ſeuerally had and vſed in times paſt, before the making of the ſaid ſtatute.

The miſes, profits, liberties and Franchiſes of Lords Marchers reſtored.

CAP. III.

Order for keeping of Milche kine, and rearing of Calues.

FOraſmuch as of late yeeres a great number of perſons within this Realme haue laid their lands, farmes, and paſtures, to feeding of Sheepe, Oxen, Runts, Schrubs, Steeres, and Heicfers, and ſuch other like cattell, hauing no regard or care to breed and reare vp young beaſts and cattell, whereby is growen great ſcarcity of cattell, and victuall neceſſary for the ſuſtenance of diuerſe ſorts of people within this Realme, and more is like to be, if ſpeedy remedy be not prouided.

By the St. of 7. Iac. 8. this St. ſhall extend to grounds hereafter to be encloſed.

It is therefore by the authority of this preſent Parliament enacted, That euery perſon, which from the feaſt of the Purification of our Lady next enſuing, ſhall keepe or feed aboue the number of ſix ſcore ſhere Sheepe for the moſt part of the yeere vpon his or her ſeuerall paſtures, lands, feedings or fermes, apt or meet for Milche kine, and wherein no other perſon hath at the making of this preſent Act, common for any cattell at any time of the yeere, ſhall by authority of this Act yeerely ſo long as he ſhall keepe or feed the ſaid number of ſix ſcore ſhere Sheepe, for euery threeſcore ſhere Sheepe ſo kept or fed, keepe one Milche Cow, and ſhall breed and reare vp yeerely for euery ſix ſcore Sheepe, ſo kept as is aforeſaid, one Calfe, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery moneth that any ſuch perſon, ſhall not for euery three ſcore ſhere Sheepe as is aforeſaid, keepe and feede one Milche Cow, twenty ſhillings for euery Cow ſo not kept. And for lake of rearing and breeding of one Calfe for euery ſix ſcore ſhere Sheepe, to forfeit likewiſe twenty ſhillings for euery Calfe ſo not reared and fed.

A cow ſhall be kept for 60. ſheepe, and a calfe reared for 120. ſheepe.

A milche cow ſhall be kept for x. beaſts fed, and for two kine a calfe reared.

And that euery perſon which after the foreſaid feaſt of the Purification of our Lady, vpon his or her ſeuerall paſtures as afore is ſaid, ſhall keepe or feed aboue the number of xx. Oxen, Runts, Schrubs, Steres, Heicfars, or Kine, ſhall by the authority of this Act, for euery ten beaſts of the ſaid ſorts ſo kept or fed, keepe and nouriſh one Milche Cow, and breed, reare and waine yeerely and keep for one whole yeere, one Calfe for euery two milche kine ſo charged to be kept vpon the ſeuerall paines and forfeitures afore rehearſed, except the ſaid Calfe or Calues ſhall chance to dy within the ſaid yeeres, without couin or fraud thereto added: the one halfe of which ſaid forfeitures, ſhall be to the vſe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord & Lady the King and Queenes Maieſties, the other halfe, to the vſe of the party, that within one yeere after the offence committed will ſue for the ſame in any of the King and Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, or before the Iuſtices of Peace, in the ſame Shire, where any ſuch cauſe of forfeiture ſhall be had, at the generall Seſſions (who by authority of this Act ſhall haue power to heare and determine the ſaid offences) by bill, information, preſentment, action of debt, or detinue, in which action or ſuit no eſſoine, protection, wager of law or licence to the contrary ſhall be allowed.

Sheep kept, or beaſts fed to be ſpent in the owners houſe.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act nor any clauſe thereof ſhall be extended to bind any perſon to keepe Milche kine, ne yet to breed or reare vp Calues, as afore is expreſſed for ſuch ſheepe or other beaſts, as the ſame perſon ſhall keepe and feed to the intent only to be ſpent in his or their houſe or houſes, without fraud or couin. This Act to endure only vnto the end of ſeuen yeeres next following the Feaſt of the Purification of our Lady aforeſaid, and from thence to the end of the Parliament then next following. 13. El. 25. made perpetuall.

CAP. VI.

Purueyors taking contrary to order ſhall be puniſhed.

FOr the auoyding of the great annoyance and hinderance, commonly done to the ſubiects of this Realme, by Purueyors and Takers of Beeues, Wethers, Lambs, Calues, all kinds of Graine, Butter, Cheeſe, Bacon all kinds of Pullaine, and to eſchew hereafter not only the great deceit miniſtred and done daily by the ſaid Purueyors and Takers, but alſo hereby to aduance the King and Queenes Maieſties better ſeruice in the premiſſes, with the contentation of all their highneſſe faithfull and moſt obedient ſubiects.

Great annoyances done by the Kings Purueyors.

Be it therfore enacted by our ſoueraigne Lord and Lady, and the aſſent of the Lords ſpiritual & temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, & by the authority of the ſame, that after the feaſt of the birth of our Lord next enſuing, euery ſuch Commiſſion as ſhall be made, granted, and directed, to any perſon or perſons, whatſoeuer, whereby the ſame perſon or perſons, or their Deputies, ſhall haue authority to take any Beeues, Wethers, Lambs, Calues, or any kind of Salt fiſh, or any kinde or kinds of Graine, or any Butter in barrels or other veſſels, Cheeſe, Bacon, Conies, Pigs, Geeſe, Capons, or Hens, that the ſame Commiſſion or Commiſſions, ſhall not extend or continue aboue the ſpace of ſix moneths at the furtheſt, next enſuing the date of any of the ſaid Commiſſions. And after the end of the ſaid ſix moneths, euery of the ſaid Commiſſions to be void and of no force nor effect, whatſoeuer words, matters, or ſentences, ſhall be contained or expreſſed in any of the ſame Commiſſions.

No commiſſion ſhall continue aboue ſix moneths.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that in all and euery ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions to be granted after the ſaid feaſt of the birth of our Lord, ſhalbe plainly aſwel contained & expreſſed ſuch County or Counties, as any of the ſaid Beeues, Wethers, Lambs Calues Hogs or Swine, or any kind of ſalt fiſh, or any kind or kinds of graine, butter, cheeſe, bacon, Conies, Pigs, Geeſe, Capons or Hens, or any of them, is to be leuied, purueyed, or taken in, by any of the perſon or perſons or their deputy or deputies, ſo authoriſed by the vertue of the ſaid cōmiſſion or commiſſions, as alſo the iuſt, true and full proportion & number of all & euery ſuch Beeues, Wethers, Lambs, Calues, Swine, any kind of ſalt fiſh, or any kind or kinds of graine, butter in barrels or other veſſels, cheeſe, bacon, conies, Pigs, Geeſe, Capons & Hens, or any of them, as the ſaid perſon or perſons, their deputy or deputies or any of them, ſhal be by force & vertue of ẏ ſaid cōmiſſion or cōmiſſiōs authoriſed to leuy, take or puruey within any of the ſaid county or counties

The County ſhalbe named where things ſhalbe taken.

The proportion and number of things taken.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that to euery ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions after the ſaid birth of our Lord to be made, granted, and directed, as is aforeſaid, ſhalbe annexed ſo many blancks in parchment, as there ſhalbe ſeuerall Counties expreſſed, named and contained within the ſaid Commiſſion or Commiſſions or any of them, in the which blancks ſhal be faire and legeably written all and euery ſuch Beeues, Wethers, Lambs, Calues, Swine, any kind of ſalt fiſh, or any kind or kinds of graine, Butter, Cheeſe, Bacon, Conies, Pigs, Geeſe, Capons, and Hens, with the true and ſeueral prices of the ſame, and euery of them as ſhalbe leuied, gathered and purueyed by any perſon or perſons, their deputy or deputies, or any of them, as ſhal be thereunto authoriſed by any ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions aforeſaid, within any particular Towne, Pariſh, or Hamlet, ſet, lying, and being, within any thoſe County or Counties, as ſhall be named, contained, and expreſſed, within the ſaid Commiſſion or Commiſſions, or any of them, whereunto ſhalbe ſubſcribed the name or ſigne manuel of all and euery ſuch high Conſtable or Conſtables, pety Conſtable or Conſtables, Headborow or Headborows, as ſhalbe by any precept to him or them directed, by any perſon or perſons, their deputy or deputies, or any of them, authoriſed thereunto by ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions to be granted as is aforeſaid, priuy or knowledging to the deliuery of the ſaid Beeues, Wethers, Lambs, Calues, any kind of ſalt fiſh, Bacon or any kinde or kindes of Graine, Butter, Cheeſe, Bacon, Conies, Pigs, Geeſe, Capons, and Hens, or any of them.

Blancks in parchment for euery County where any thing ſhalbe prouided.

The Conſtables names ſubſcribed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery perſon or perſons, the Deputy or Deputies, or any of them which ſhalbe by Commiſſion or Commiſſions, hereafter to be granted as is aforeſaid, authoriſed to leuy, takes or puruey any Beeues, Wethers, Lambs, Calues, The Purueyor ſhall make a docket of all things by him taken.

And foraſmuch as the good and neceſſary lawes heretofore made and prouided againſt the abuſes and euill doings of Purueyors, are not taken to extend to the vndertakers deputies, & ſeruants of any ſuch Purueyors, by whom therefore the people of this Realme be oftentimes very vncharitably and vnlawfully vſed and oppreſſed.

Statutes prouided for Purueyors, ſhall extend to their deputies.

Bee it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all and euery ſuch Lawes, Statutes, and Prouiſions, as heretofore haue been made & ordeined againſt Purueyors, & all and euery the pains, penalties, forfeiture & loſſe, contained, mentioned, or appointed, in any of the ſame Lawes or Statutes againſt Purueyors & Takers, or any of them, ſhal alſo be extended and executed vpon euery of their vndertakers, deputies, and ſeruants. And all other which by colour ſhall after the firſt day of Ianuary next comming, take any victuall, or any other thing, by vertue or force of any ſuch Commiſſion, from any the King and Queenes Maieſties ſubiects, contrary to the tenour and effect of any of the ſaid lawes or eſtatutes, in like manner and forme to all intents and purpoſes, as the ſame lawes and eſtatutes, or any of them, and the paines and forfeitures therin conteined, ſhould, might, or ought to be executed and extended againſt Purueyors and Takers themſelues, or any of them. And as ſtrongly and amply, as if the ſaid Undertakers, Deputies, and ſeruants were ſpecially and particularly recited and named in euery of the ſame Eſtatutes.

The Purueyors commiſſion ſhalbe written in Engliſh.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, for the better execution of this Act, and all other Acts concerning Purueyors, that all and euery Commiſſion and Commiſſions that from henceforth ſhalbe made and granted vnto any Purueyor or Purueyors, ſhall bee written and ſet forth from time to time in the Engliſh tongue, and not otherwiſe.

CAP. VII.

In what manner horſes ſhall be ſold in faires or markets.

The former miſuſe in ſale of ſtollen horſes.

FOraſmuch as ſtollen horſes, mares, and geldings, by theeues and their confederates, bee for the moſt part ſold, exchanged, giuen, or put away in houſes, ſtables, backſides, and other ſecret and priuy places, of markets and faires, and the toll alſo priuily paied for the ſame, whereby the true owners thereof, being not able to try the falſhood and couin betwixt the buyer and ſeller of ſuch horſe, mare, or gelding, is by the common lawes of this Realme without remedy.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the owner, gouernor, ruler, fermor, ſteward, bayliffe, or chiefe keeper of euery faire and market ouert within this Realme, and other the Queenes dominions, ſhall before the feaſt of Eaſter next, and ſo yeerely appoint and limit out a certaine and ſpeciall open place within the towne, place, field, or circuit, where horſes, mares, Geldings, and Colts, haue beene and ſhalbe vſed to be ſold in any Faire or market ouert, in which ſaid certaine and open place as is aforeſaid, there ſhalbe by the ſaid ruler or keeper of the ſaid faire or market, put in & appointed one ſufficient perſon or more, to take toll and keepe the ſame place, from ten of the clock before noone vntill ſun ſet of euery day of the foreſaid faire and market, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit for euery default forty ſhillings. And that euery toll gatherer, his deputy or deputies, ſhal during the time of euery the ſaid faires and markets, take their due and lawfull tols, for euery ſuch horſe, mare, gelding, or colt, at the ſaid open place to be appointed as is aforeſaid, and betwixt the houres of ten of the clocke in the morning, and the ſun ſet of the ſame day, if it be tendred, and not at any other time or place, and ſhall haue preſently before him or them at the taking of the ſame toll the parties to the bargaine, exchange, gift, contract or putting away of euery ſuch horſe, mare, gelding or Colt: and alſo the ſame horſe, mare, gelding, and colt, ſo ſold, exchanged, or put away, and ſhall then write or cauſe to bee written in a booke to be kept for that purpoſe, the names, ſurnames, and dwelling places of all the ſaid parties, and the colour with one ſpeciall marke at the leaſt of euery ſuch horſe, mare, gelding or colt, in paine to forfeit at and for euery default, contrary to the tenour hereof forty ſhillings.

A place ſhalbe appointed for a horſe faire, and alſo a Tolltaker

When, where, and of whom toll for horſes ſhalbe taken.

And the ſaid toll gatherer or keeper of the ſaid booke, ſhall within one day next after euery ſuch faire, or market, bring and deliuer his ſaid booke to the owner, gouernor, ruler, ſteward, bailiffe, or chiefe keeper of the ſaid faire or market, who ſhall then cauſe a note to bee made of the true number of all horſes, mares, geldings, and colts ſold at the ſaid market or faire, and ſhall there ſubſcribe his name or ſet his marke thereunto, vpon paine to him that ſhall make default therein to loſe and forfeit for euery default forty ſhillings, and alſo to anſwer the party grieued, by reaſon of the ſame his negligence in euery behalfe.

A note of all horſes ſold in a faire or market.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſale, gift, exchange or putting away after the laſt day of February now next comming in any faire or market ouert of any horſe mare, Gelding or Colt, that is or ſhall be theeuiſhly ſtollen, or feloniouſly taken away from any perſon or perſons, ſhall not alter, take away, nor exchange the property of any perſon or perſons to, or from any ſuch horſe, mare, Gelding or Colt, vnleſſe the ſame horſe, mare, Gelding or Colt, ſhalbe in the time of the ſaid faire or market, wherein the ſame ſhall be ſo ſold, giuen, exchanged, or put away, openly ridden, led, walked, driuen, or kept ſtanding, by the ſpace of one houre together at the leaſt, betwixt ten of the clocke in the morning, and the ſun ſetting, in the open place of the faire or market, wherin horſes are commonly vſed to be ſold, and not within any houſe, yard backſide, or other priuy or ſecret place, and vnleſſe all the parties to the bargaine, contract, gift, or exchange, preſent in the ſaid faire or market, ſhall alſo come together and bring the Horſe, mare, Gelding or Colt, ſo ſold, exchanged, giuen, or put away to the open place appointed for the toll taker, or for the booke keeper where no toll is due, and there enter or cauſe to be entered their names and dwelling places, in manner as is aforeſaid, with the colour or colours, and one ſpecial marke at the leaſt of euery the ſame horſes, mares, Geldings or Colts, in the toll takers booke, or in the keepers booke for that purpoſe, whereunto toll is due as is aforeſaid: and alſo pay him their toll, if they ought to pay any, & if not then the buyer to giue one peny for the entry of their names, and executing the other circumſtances afore rehearſed, to him that ſhall write the ſame in the ſaid booke.

The vſing of a ſtollen horſe in a faire, or &c before the owners property ſhall be taken away.

And if any horſe, mare, Gelding or Colt, that is, or ſhall bee theeuiſhly ſtollen, or taken away, ſhall after the ſaid laſt day of February next comming, be ſold, giuen, exchanged, or put away, in any faire or market, and not vſed in all points according to the tenor and intent of this eſtatute, that then the owner of euery ſuch horſe, mare, Gelding or Colt, ſhall and may by force of this Eſtatute, ſeaſe, or take againe the ſaid horſe, mare, Gelding or Colt, or haue an action of Detinue or Repliuin for the ſame, any ſale, gift, exchange or putting away of any ſuch horſe, mare, gelding or Colt, other than according to this Eſtatute in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The one halfe of all which forfeitures to be to the King and Queenes Maieſtie, her heires, and ſucceſſors, and the other to him or them that will ſue for the ſame before the Juſtices of peace, or in any of the King and Queenes maieſties ordinary Courts of record, by Bill, Plaint, action of debt, or information, in which ſuits no protection, eſſoine, or wager of law ſhalbe allowed.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Juſtices of peace of euery place & County, aſwell within liberties, as without, ſhall haue authority in their ſeſſions within the limits of their authority and commiſſion, to inquire, heare and determine all offences againſt this eſtatute as they may doe any other matter triable before them.

The Juſtices of peace ſhal heare and determine the offences aforeſaid.

Prouided alwayes, that in euery ſuch faire and market, where any toll is, nor ſhall be due, ne leuiable by reaſon of the freedome, liberty, or priuilege of the ſaid faire or market, the keeper or keepers of the booke touching the execution of this preſent Act, ſhall take nor exact but one peny vpon and for euery contract, for his labour in writing the entry, concerning the premiſſes in maner and forme as is before declared. St. 13. El. 12.

Cap. VIII.

Who ſhalbe charged towards the mending of high wayes.

FOr amending of high wayes, being now both very noiſome and tedious to trauel in, and dangerous to all paſſengers and carriages.

Bee it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Conſtables and Churchwardens of euery Pariſh within this Realme, ſhall yeerely vpon the Tueſday or Wedneſday in Eaſter weeke, call together a number of the Pariſhioners, and ſhall then elect & chuſe two honeſt perſons of the pariſh, to be ſurueyors and orderers for one yeere, of the works for amendment of the high waies in their pariſh, leading to any market towne, the which perſons ſhall haue authority by vertue hereof, to order & direct the perſons and carriages that ſhalbe appointed for thoſe works by their diſcretions, and the ſaid perſons ſo named, ſhall take vpon them the execution of their ſaid offices, vpon paine euery of them making default, to forfeit twenty ſhillings.

Surueyors ſhalbe appointed for the amendment of high wayes.

And the ſaid Conſtables and Churchwardens ſhall then alſo name and appoint foure dayes, for the amending of the ſaid waies, before the Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint John Baptiſt then next following. And ſhall openly in the Church the next Sunday after Eaſter, giue knowledge of the ſame foure dayes, and vpon the ſaid dayes the Pariſhioners ſhall endeuour themſelues to the amending of the ſaid wayes, and ſhalbe chargeable thereunto as followeth: that is to ſay, Euery perſon for euery plowland in tillage or paſture that he or ſhe ſhall occupy in the ſame Pariſh, and euery other perſon keeping there a draught or plow, ſhall finde and ſend at euery day and place to be appointed for the amending of the wayes in that Pariſh as is aforeſaid, one waine or cart, furniſhed after the cuſtome of the Countrey, with oxen, horſes, or other cattell, and all other neceſſaries meet to carry things conuenient for that purpoſe, and alſo two able men with the ſame, vpon paine of euery draught making default, ten ſhillings: and euery other houſholder, and alſo euery cotager and laborer of that Pariſh able to labour, and being no hired ſeruant by the yeere, ſhal by themſelues, or one ſufficient laborer for euery of them vpon euery of the ſaid foure dayes, worke and trauell in the amendment of the ſaid high wayes, vpon paine of euery perſon making default, to loſe for euery day xii. d. And if the carriages of the Pariſh, or any of them, ſhall not be thought needfull by the Surueiors to be occupied vpon any of the ſaid dayes, that then euery ſuch perſon that ſhould haue ſent any ſuch carriage, ſhall ſend to the ſaid worke for euery carriage ſo ſpared, two able men, there to labour for that day, vpon paine to loſe for euery man not ſo ſent to the ſaid worke, xii. d. And euery perſon and carriage aboueſaid, ſhall haue and bring with them ſuch ſhouels, ſpades, pyckes, mattocks, and other tooles and inſtruments, as they doe make their owne ditches and fences withall, and ſuch as be neceſſary for their ſaid worke. And all the ſaid perſons and carriages, ſhall doe and keep their work as they ſhal be appointed by the ſaid Superuiſors, or one of them, eight houres of euery of the ſaid dayes, vnleſſe they ſhalbe otherwiſe licenced by the ſaid Superuiſors or one of them. And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Steward and Stewards of euery leet or law-day, ſhall therein haue full power and authority to enquire by the oathes of the ſuters of all and euery the offences that ſhal be committed within the leet or law-day, againſt euery point & article of this eſtatute, and to aſſeſſe ſuch reaſonable fines and amerciaments for the ſame, as ſhall bee thought meet by the ſaid ſteward. And in default of ſuch inquiry or preſentment, the Juſtices of peace for euery place or county ſhall haue authority to enquire of the ſame the offẽces which ſhalbe committed within the limits of their commiſſion at euery their quarter Seſſions, and to aſſeſſe ſuch fines therefore, as they or two of them whereof one to bee of the Quorum, ſhall thinke meet. And the Steward of euery leet and law day ſhall make eſtreats indented of all the fines, forfeitures, and amerciaments, for the defaults preſented before him, and ſhall deliuer the one part thereof ſealed and ſigned by him to the Bailiffe or high Conſtable of euery hundred, rape, lath, or wapentake, wherein the defaults ſhalbe preſented, and the other part to the Conſtable and Churchwardens of the pariſh wherin the defaults was made, the ſame to be yeerly deliuered within ſix weekes after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, and the Clerke of the peace ſhall make the like eſtreats indented of the fines, forfeitures and amerciaments for the defaults preſented before the Juſtices of peace, and ſhal ſeale, ſubſcribe and deliuer the ſame in like ſort as is aforeſaid: the which eſtreats and euery of them ſhalbe a ſufficient warrant to the ſaid Bailiffe or chiefe Conſtable to leuy the ſaid amerciaments, fines, & forfeitures by way of diſtreſſe. And if no ſufficient diſtreſſe can be found by the ſaid Bailiffe or head-Conſtable, or if the ſaid offendor ſhall obſtinately refuſe to pay the ſaid amerciament, fine or forfeiture, and doe not pay the ſame within twenty dayes after a lawfull demand of the ſame by the ſaid officer, that then euery ſuch perſon to forfeit the double ſumme that hee ſhould before haue paid.

Foure dayes ſhalbe appointed for the amendment of high wayes. Alt. 5. El. 13.

Neceſſary tooles ſhalbe brought to be vſed about highwaies.

What officers may enquire of offences.

The penalty for refuſing to pay the forfeitures.

And bee it further enacted, that euery of the ſaid Bailiffes and head Conſtables, ſhall at leaſt once euery yéere, betwixt the firſt day of March and the laſt day of April, make a true account, & paiment of all ſuch ſums of mony (to the Conſtable and Churchwardens of euery pariſh wherein the offences were committed, or to two of them) as hee ſhall haue collected vpon any of the aforeſaid eſtreats, vpon paine to forfeit for euery time he ſhall not ſo doe, forty ſhillings.

The Conſtables account.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all fines, amerciaments & forfeitures which ſhalbe due for any offence againſt the purvey of this Eſtatute, ſhalbe to the Churchwardens of euery pariſh wherein the offences ſhalbe committed, to bee beſtowed of the high wayes in the ſaid pariſhes. And the ſaid Churchwardens ſhal haue authority to call the ſaid Bailiffe and head conſtable to account before the Iuſtices of peace, or two of them, whereof one to bee of the Quorum, by bill, information or otherwiſe. The which Iuſtices ſhall haue authority to take the ſaid account, and to commit the ſaid Bailiffe or head Conſtable to priſon, there to remaine vntil he ſhal pay all ſuch arrerages as ſhalbe adiudged by the ſaid Iuſtices: and euery of the ſaid Bailiffes, and head Conſtables vpon their accounts, ſhall haue allowed for euery pound he ſhall collect and pay, eight pence for his owne paines and twelue pence for the fées of the Clerke of the peace, or ſteward of the Léet for the eſtreats indented of euery ſeueral pariſh that they ſhall deliuer as is aforeſaid, and the ſucceſſors of euery Churchwardens ſhall haue the like action of account againſt their predeceſſors as is before appointed againſt the Bailiffes. CAP. IX.

All licences to keepe houſes for vnlawfull games ſhall be void.

MOſt humbly beſéecheth the Quéens moſt excellent highneſſe your louing and obedient ſubiects, the Commons in this your preſent Parliament aſſembled, that where by reaſon of diuers ſundry licences heretofore granted to diuers perſons, as well within the City of London, and the Suburbs of the ſame, as alſo in diuers other places within your Highneſſe Realme, for the hauing, maintaining, and kéeping of houſes, gardens, and places for bowling, tennice dicing, white and blacke, making and marring, and other vnlawfull games prohibited by the lawes and ſtatutes of this realme, diuers and many vnlawfull aſſemblies, conuenticles, ſeditions, and conſpiracies, haue, and béene daily ſecretly practiſed by idle and miſruled perſons, repairing to ſuch places, of the which, robberies, and many other miſdemenors haue enſued to the breach of your Highneſſe peace. For remedy whereof, it may pleaſe your highneſſe, that it may bee enacted by your Highneſſe, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that from and after the feaſt of the Birth of our Lord God next comming, euery licence, placard, or grant, made to any perſon or perſons, for the hauing, maintenance, or kéeping of any bowling allies, dicing houſes, or other vnlawfull games, prohibited by the lawes and Statutes of this [illegible]alme, ſhall be from the ſaid feaſt vtterly void, and of none effect. All licences to keep ſuch houſes ſhalbe void.

CAP. X.

Iuſtices of Peace ſhall examine perſons arreſted of felony, &c. and ſhall binde their accuſers to giue euidence againſt them.

WHere in the laſt Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, amongſt other things it was enacted, that ſuch Iuſtices of the Peace as haue authority to baile any priſoner brought before them for any manſlaughter or felony, before any bailement or mainpriſe ſhould take the examination of the ſaid priſoner, and information of them that bring him of the fact & circumſtances thereof, and the ſame or as much thereof as ſhall be materiall to proue the felony, ſhall put in writing before they make the ſame bailement, which ſaid examination, together with the ſaid bailment, the ſaid Iuſtices ſhould certifie at the next generall gaole deliuery, to be holden within the limits of their commiſſion, as by the ſame act more plainly is conteined and may appeare.

1.&2.P.&M.13.

And foraſmuch as the ſaid Act doth not extend to ſuch priſoners as ſhall be brought before any Iuſtice of Peace for manſlaughter or felony, and by ſuch Iuſtice ſhall be committed to ward for the ſuſpition of ſuch manſlaughter or felony, and not bailed, in which caſe examination of ſuch priſoner, and of ſuch as ſhall bring him, is as neceſſary or rather more than where ſuch priſoner ſhall be let to baile or mainpriſe. Be it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that from henceforth ſuch Iuſtices or Iuſtice before whom any perſon ſhall be brought for manſlaughter or felony, or for ſuſpition thereof, before he or they ſhall commit or ſend ſuch priſoner to ward, ſhall take the examination of ſuch priſoner, and information of thoſe that bring him of the fact and circumſtance thereof, and the ſame, or aſmuch thereof as ſhalbe materiall to proue the felony, ſhall put in writing within ii. daies after the ſaid examination, and the ſame ſhall certifie in ſuch manner and forme, and at ſuch time, as they ſhould and ought to do if ſuch priſoner ſo committed or ſent to ward had béene bailed or let to mainpriſe, vpon ſuch paine as in the ſaid former Act is limited and appointed for not taking, or not certifying ſuch examinations as in the ſaid former Act is expreſſed. And be it further enacted, that the ſaid Iuſtices ſhall haue authority by this Act to binde all ſuch by recogniſance or obligation, as doe declare any thing materiall to proue the ſaid manſlaughter or felony againſt ſuch priſoner as ſhall be ſo committed to ward, to appeare at the next generall gaols deliuery to be holden within the County, City, or towne corporate, where the triall of the ſaid manſlaughter or felony ſhal be, then and there to giue euidence againſt the party, and that the ſaid Iuſtices ſhal certifie the ſaid bands taken before them, in like manner as they ſhould and ought to certifie the bands mentioned in the ſaid former act, vpon the paine as in the ſaid former Act is mentioned for not certifying ſuch bands, as by the ſaid former Act is limited and appointed to be certified.

Binding of the accuſors to giue euidēce againſt the priſoner.

Cap. XI.

Who ſhall vſe the trade of Weauing.

Seuerall iniuries done by clothiers to weauers.

FOraſmuch as the Weauers of this Realme, haue as well at this preſent Parliament, as at diuers other times complained, that the rich and wealthy Clothiers do many wayes oppreſſe them, ſome by ſetting vp and kéeping in their houſes diuers Loomes, and kéeping and maintaining them by Iourneymen and perſons vnſkilfull, to the decay of a great number of Artificers which were brought vp in the ſaid Science of weauing, their families and houſhold, ſome by ingroſſing of Loomes into their hands and poſſeſſions, and letting them out at ſuch vnreaſonable rents, as the poore Artificers are not able to maintaine themſelues, much leſſe their wiues, families and children, ſome alſo by giuing much leſſe wages and hire for the weauing and workmanſhip of clothes than in times paſt they did, whereby they are inforced vtterly to forſake their art and occupation wherein they haue béene brought vp.

It is therefore for remedy of the premiſſes, and for the auoyding of a great number of inconueniences which may grow (if in time it be not foreſéene) ordeined, eſtabliſhed, and enacted, by authority of this preſent Parliament, that no perſon vſing the feat or myſtery of clothmaking, & dwelling out of a city, borough, market town or corporat town, ſhal from the feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell now next enſuing, kéep, retain or haue in his or their houſe or poſſeſſion, any more or aboue one wollē loome at one time, nor ſhal by any means directly or indirectly receiue or take any manner profit, gaine, or commodity, by letting or ſetting any Loome or any houſe wherin any Loome is or ſhalbe vſed and occupied, which ſhalbe together by him ſet or let vpon paine of forfeiture for euery wéek that any perſon ſhal doe contrary to the tenor and true meaning hereof xx.s.

No clothier ſhal keepe aboue one woollen loome.

No weauer ſhal haue aboue two woollen loomes

And be it further ordeined and enacted by like authority, That no woollen Weauer vſing or exerciſing the feat or myſtery of weauing, and dwelling out of City, Bo[illegible]gh, Market Towne or towne Corporat, ſhall after the ſaid Feaſt haue or kéepe at one time aboue the number of two wollen Loomes, or receiue any profit, gaine or commodity directly or indirectly, as is aforeſaid, by any more than two Loomes at one time, vpon pain to forfeit for euery wéeke that any perſon ſhall offend or doe to the contrary xx.s.

No weauer ſhal haue a tucking mill.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by like authority, That no perſon which ſhall after the ſaid Feaſt, vſe, exerciſe or occupy onely the feat or miſtery of a Weauer, and not Clothmaking, ſhall during the time that he ſhall vſe the feat or miſtery of a Weauer, kéepe or haue any Tucking mill, or ſhall vſe or exerciſe the feat or miſtery of a Tucker, Fuller or Dyer, vpon paine to forfeit for euery wéeke that he ſhall ſo doe xx.s.

No tucker or fuller ſhall haue aboue 1. loome.

And it is further ordeined & enacted by like authority, that no perſon which after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall vſe, exerciſe or occupy the feat or miſtery of a tucker or fuller, ſhall during the time that he ſhal ſo vſe the ſaid feat or miſtery, kéep or haue any loome in his houſe or poſſeſſion, or ſhal directly or indirectly take any profit or commodity by the ſame, vpon pain to forfeit for euery wéek xx.s.

In what places only woollen clothes may be wouen. 4. & 5. P. & M. 5.

And it is further ordeined and enacted by like authority, that no perſon whatſoeuer which heretofore hath not vſed or exerciſed the feat miſtery or art of ſuch Clothmaking, ſhall after the ſaid feaſt, make or weaue, or cauſe to be made or wouen, any kind of broad white wollen Clothes, but onely in a City, borough, towne corporat or market towne, or elſe in ſuch place or places where ſuch Clothes haue béene vſed to be commonly made, by the ſpace of ten yéers next before the making of this act, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery Cloth otherwiſe made. v.li.

A weauer ſhall haue but two prentices. Rep. 5. El. 4.

Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, being a weauer, or that doth or ſhal vſe the art or miſtery of a weauer or weauing, dwelling out of a city, borough, towne corporate or market towne, to haue in his & their ſeruice any more, or aboue the number of two apprentices at one time, vpon paine to forfeit for euery time that he ſhall offend or doe contrary to this branch or article the ſumme of x.li.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall not be lawfull to or for any perſon or perſons, to ſet vp the art or miſtery of weauing, after the ſaid feaſt of S. Michaell, vnleſſe the ſame perſon or perſons ſo ſetting vp the ſame art or miſtery of weauing, haue beene Apprentice to the ſame art or myſtery, or exerciſed the ſame by the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres at the leaſt vp paine of twenty pounds, to be forfeited to the King and Queenes Maieſties, her graces heires or ſucceſſors. The one moity of all which forfeitures ſhalbe to the King and Queenes highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors: and the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any Court of record, by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, or protection ſhalbe admitted or allowed for the defendant.

None ſhalbe a weauer but he which hath bin a prentice. 5.Ed.6.8.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this act nor any thing therin conteined ſhal in any wiſe extend or be preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons, that doth or ſhall dwell in the Counties of Yorke, Cumberland, Northumberland & Weſtmerland, but that they & euery of them ſhall & may haue & keep Loomes in their houſes, and doe & exerciſe all & euery thing and things, for or concerning ſpinning, weauing, Cloth working and Cloth making in the ſaid counties, as they or any of them might haue done or exerciſed lawfully before the making of this Eſtatute: any thing conteined in this Eſtatute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The inhabitants of certaine counties which ſhall not be preiudiced by this Act.

Cap. XII.

In what manner Clothes called Bridgewaters ſhalbe vſed, before they ſhalbe bought and ſold.

Where before this time, the boroughs and townes of Bridgewater, Taunton and Chard, in the County of Sōmerſet, haue bin well & ſubſtantially inhabited, occupied, maintained and vpholden, for the moſt part by reaſon of the making of wollen clothes, commonly called Bridgwater, Taunton & Chard Clothes, which in times paſt were much deſired, aſwell beyond the ſeas, as in this realme of England, and thereby the inhabitants & poore people of the ſaid Boroughs & townes, & of the Country thereabouts, were daily ſet on worke, & had ſufficient liuing by the ſame: and where alſo the ſaid townes in times paſt were of great force & ſtrength to ſerue the King and Queenes highneſſe progenitors & anceſtors Kings of this realme. Foraſmuch as of late diuers perſons inhabiting & dwelling in villages, hamlets, and ſmall townes of huſbandry in the ſaid County of Sōmerſet, which were neuer prentiſes or ſkilful in making of yͤ ſaid clothes, aſwell for their priuate wealths & commodities, as alſo becauſe they would bee out of due ſearch of their clothes to be made according to the ſtatute therefore prouided, not regarding the maintenance of the ſaid boroughs & towns, nor the common wealth of the handicrafts-men & other poore people which chiefly had their liuing & ſuſtenance by making of the ſaid Cloth, haue of late dayes exerciſed, vſed & occupied the myſteries of Clothmaking, weauing, fulling & ſheering within their houſes, and haue ſo deceiptfully made, wrought and ſtretched the ſaid Clothes, to the infamy and ſlander of clothmaking in ſuch ſort & manner, that not only the ſame ſorts of clothes are growen out of eſtimation, but alſo the ſaid townes are in great decay, ruine and depopulation.

For remedy whereof, be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that no perſon whatſoeuer inhabiting, or which ſhall hereafter inhabit within the ſaid county, ſhall after yͤ feaſt of the purification of our Lady next comming, commonly called Candlemas, put to ſale any kind of ſuch clothes as is aforeſaid, or clothes of like nature, making & ſort, made or to be made within the ſaid County, except ſuch Cloth be firſt viewed, ſearched and ſeene in one of the boroughes, or townes aforeſaid, whether the ſame be perfectly and truly made according to the ſtatute, and alſo that the ſame be ſealed with the ſeale of one of the ſaid boroughs or towns, in ſuch ſort, manner & forme, as in the ſtatute made in the fifth yeere of the raigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixt, intituled an act for the true making of wollen cloth, is for ſealing of clothes prouided and enacted, vpon paine that euery perſon offending or doing contrary to the true meaning of this act, ſhall forfeit the Cloth ſold, or the value thereof: the moity of all which forfeitures ſhall be to our ſoueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queenes Maieſties, the heires and ſucceſſors, of the Queenes Maieſty, and the other halfe to him or them that wil ſue for the ſame in any of the King and Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, her heires and ſucceſſors, wherein no eſſoine, protection or wager of Law ſhall be admitted or allowed. Cap. XIII.

The Inhabitants of Halifax may buy wooll and ſell the ſame againe.

Foraſmuch as the Pariſh of Halifax and other places thereunto adioyning, being planted in the great waſt and moores where the fertility of ground is not apt to bring forth any Corne nor good Graſſe, but in rare places, and by exceeding and great induſtry of the Inhabitants, And the ſame inhabitants altogether doe liue by clothmaking, and the great part of them neither getteth corne nor is able to kéepe a horſe to carry wools, nor yet to buy much wooll at once, but hath euer vſed onely to repaire to the towne of Halifax and ſome other nigh thereunto, and there to buy vpon the wooll driuer, ſome a ſtone, ſome two, and ſome thrée and foure, according to their ability, and to carry the ſame to their houſes, ſome thrée, foure, fiue and ſix miles off, vpon their heads and backes, and ſo to make and conuert the ſame either into yarne or Cloth, and to ſell the ſame, and ſo to buy more wooll of the wooll driuer, by means of which induſtry, the baren grounds in thoſe parts bee now much inhabited, and aboue fiue hundred houſholds there newly encreaſed within theſe forty yeeres paſt, which now are like to be vndone and driuen to beggery, by reaſon of the late Eſtatute made, that taketh away the wooll driuer, ſo that they cannot now haue their wooll by ſuch ſmall portions as they were wont to haue, and that alſo they are not able to kéepe any horſes whereupon to ride or fet their wools further from them in other places, vnleſſe ſome remedy may be prouided. For the remedy wherof, be it enacted by the King and Quéenes Maieſties, by the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament, and by the authority of the ſame, that from henceforth it ſhalbe lawful to any perſon or perſons inhabiting within the pariſh of Halifax, to buy any wooll or wools, at ſuch times as the Clothiers may buy the ſame, otherwiſe than by engroſſing and foreſtalling, ſo that the perſons ſo buying the ſame, doe carry or cauſe to be carried the ſaid wools ſo bought by them to the towne of Halifax, & there to ſell the ſame to ſuch poore folkes of that and other pariſhes adioining, as ſhall worke the ſame in cloth of yarne (to their knowledge) and not to the rich and wealthy clothier, nor to any other to ſell againe. And if either the ſaid wooldriuer ſhal ſell his ſaid wools at any other place forth of the ſaid towne of Halifax, or if any w^{ch} ſhal buy their wools at Halifax, ſhal ſel their wools that they bought again vnwrought in yarne or cloth, that then euery ſuch offendor to loſe and forfeit the double value of the wooll ſo ſold, or vttered, the one moity thereof to bee to the King and Quéenes Maieſties, her heires and ſucceſſors Kings of this Realme, and the other moity to him, or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings and Quéenes Maieſties Courts of record, or before the Iuſtices of peace in their ſeſſions, who by vertue hereof in their open ſeſſions ſhall haue authority vpon information, to heare and determine the ſame, and to make proceſſe againſt the offendors as in any other caſe to be determined before them.

The St. of 5. Ed. 6. 7. very preiudiciall to the inhabitants of Halifax.

The inhabitāts of Halifax may buy wooll & ſell it againe there.

The Iuſt. of P. may heare and determine theſe offences.

Cap. XIIII.

It ſhall be lawfull to the Deane and Chapter of Hereford, within eight yeeres next, to reedifie foure ſufficient Mils, viz. two Corne Mils, and two fulling Mils, vpon the riuer of Wie, in or neere vnto the place where foure old Mils did ſtand. PR.

Cap. XV.

Purueyors ſhall take no victuals within fiue miles of Cambridge and Oxford.

Cambridge & Oxford & fiue miles circuit haue bin free of Purueyors.

Humbly ſue to your Maieſties, the Societies, Colleges and Companies of your true and faithfull ſubiects, and daily Orators, the Schollers and Students of both your Maieſties Vniuerſities, Cambridge and Oxford, that where it hath béene accuſtomed time out of minde, that both the ſaid market townes of Cambridge and Oxford, wherein the ſaid two Vniuerſities be ſet, and the Circuit of fiue miles next adioyning, hath béene frée from any charge or moleſtation of any common Takers, or Purueyors for Victuall, whereby the ſaid markets were more plentifully ſerued with Victuall, and the poore eſtate of a great multitude of Schollers, hauing very bare and ſmall ſuſtentation thereby relieued: and now by the means that contrary to the ſame laudable cuſtome, diuers Purueyors and Takers haue of late exceſſiuely frequented the ſame Markets, and thereby giuen occaſion to make victuals both more ſcant and much dearer, to a notorious decay of Schollers, which alſo daily in this great dearth is like to encreaſe & be more lamentable, to the hinderance of Gods ſeruice, the diſhonor of the realme, the diſcomfort of all good and holy men louing learning and vertue.

Purueiors ſhall not take victual in Cambridge or Oxford, or within 5. miles thereof.

It may therefore pleaſe your Maieſties of your great pity, and abundant fauour and loue towards your ſaid two Vniuerſities, being the very two only nurſes of good learning in this realm, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, to enact, ordeine and eſtabliſh, that from henceforth no manner of purueyor, taker, badger, loader, or other Miniſter may or ſhall take, or bargaine for any kinde of victuall, or graine, in any of the ſaid markets, or towne of Cambridge and the City of Oxford, nor ſhall take or bargaine for any victuall within the compaſſe of fiue miles thereto adioyning, without the conſent, agréement, or good will of the owner or owners, neither ſhall attempt to carry, take away or bargaine for any manner of graine or other victuall, bought or prouided within the ſaid ſpace of fiue miles by any common Miniſter of any College, Hoſtell or Hal, to be ſpent within any of the ſaid Colleges, Hoſtels, or Hals, vpon paine of the forfeiture of the quadrupell value of any ſuch manner of graine or victuall, ſo taken or bargained for, in any of the ſaid markets, or within the ſaid ſpace of fiue miles (againſt the will of the owners) as is aboueſaid, or attempted to be taken, caried away or bargained for, being prouided as is aboueſaid, for to bee ſpent in any the Colleges, Hoſtels or Hals. And further ſhall ſuffer impriſonment for the ſpace of three moneths without baile or mainpriſe. And that the Chancellor or Vicechancellor, or his Commiſſary for the time being in either of the ſaid Vniuerſities, with two Iuſtices of peace of the County, wherein the ſaid Vniuerſities bee ſet, ſhall haue full power by authority of this Act, to enquire by the othes of twelue men, of and vpon the defaults and offences committed contrary to the tenour therof, and to ſee due puniſhment & reformation therof in forme aforeſaid from time to time: the one halfe of which foreſaid forfeitures to be to the common treaſure of either of the ſaid Vniuerſities, reſpectiuely to the fault committed againſt this their priuilege, the other halfe to the party that will ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or otherwiſe in any Court of Record, or before the foreſaid Chancellor, his Vicechancellor or Commiſſary for the time being, and two Iuſtices of peace as is before expreſſed.

Who may enquire of & puniſh the offences.

Prouided, that this Act ſhall not be put in execution at any time or times, whenſoeuer your Maieſties, or the heires or ſucceſſors of your Maieſty our ſoueraigne Lady, ſhall pleaſe to come to any of both the ſaid Vniuerſities or within ſeuen miles of either of them, but ſhall bee in ſuſpence during that time only and not longer.

This Act ſuſpended during the Q. preſence.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act or any thing therin conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe be preiudicial or hurtfull to the Maior, Bailiffes and Comminalty of the City of Oxford, nor to the Mayor and Comminalty of the towne of Cambridge, or to their ſucceſſors, for and concerning any of their liberties or priuileges, but that they and euery of them and their ſucceſſors, reſpectiuely may haue and vſe the ſame, in ſuch manner and forme, as they or any of them might or ought to haue done before the making of this Act: any thing in this Act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding. 13. CAP. XVI.

The office and duty of the eight ouerſeers of Watermen rowing betweene Graueſend and Windſor.

WHere as heretofore for lacke of good gouernment and due order, amongſt Wherimen and Watermen, exerciſing, vſing and occupying rowing vpon the riuer of Thames, there hath diuers and many miſfortunes and miſchances, happened and chanced of late yeeres paſt to a great number of the King and Queenes ſubiects, aſwell to the Nobility as to other the common people, that haue paſſed and repaſſed, and beene carried by water, by reaſon of the rude, ignorant, and vnſkilfull number of Watermen, which for the moſt part beene maſterleſſe men, and ſingle men of all kinds of occupations and faculties, which doe worke at their owne hands. And many boyes being of ſmall age, and of little ſkill, and being perſons out of the rule and obedience of any honeſt Maſter and gouernor, and doe for the moſt part of their time vſe dicing and carding and other vnlawfull games, to the great and euill example of other ſuch like, and againſt the common wealth of this Realme. And all which ſaid euill and ignorant perſons in the time of preſſing by Commiſſion, for the ſeruice of the King and Queenes moſt royall maieſties vpon the ſea, for that they haue no knowne place of abiding, doe for the moſt part abſent and conuey themſelues into the Countrey, and other ſecret places, practiſing there robberies and felonies, and other euill deteſtable facts, to the great annoiance of the Common wealth. And ſo after the ſaid commiſſion of preſſing ended, oft times the ſaid euil perſons do repaire again to their former trade of rowing, colouring their euill deeds, & alſo diuers of them being very ignorant, for lack of conuenient time of learning and exerciſe, in the which they might obtain ſufficient knowledge of their occupation, doe oftentimes preſume and enterpriſe to recoiue diuers of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queenes Maieſties louing ſubiects, into their botes and wheries, and doe carry and conuey their ſaid ſubiects, from place to place by water vpon the ſaid Riuer of Thames, wherby diuers perſons haue beene robbed and ſpoyled of their goods and alſo drowned.

Miſchances haue hapned to many by watermen & the cauſes thereof.

General abuſes committed by young, vnſkilfull & lewd watermen.

And for and by the occaſion aforeſaid, be daily put in feare and perill of their liues, the which is very lamentable and not to bee permitted or ſuffered in any Commonwealth. And by reaſon alſo that a great number, and the moſt part of the wheries and botes, now occupied and vſed, and of late time made for rowing vpon the ſaid riuer, beene made ſo little and ſmall in portion, and ſo ſtraight and narrow in the bottome, varying much from the old ſubſtantial ſort and ſure making of botes and wheries, which was vſed before the ſpace of twenty yeeres laſt paſt, in ſo much as the moſt part of the botes and wheries vſed at this day beene ſo ſhallow and tycle that thereby great perill and danger of drowning hath many times enſued and daily is like to enſue, vnleſſe ſome ſpeedy remedy be herein had and prouided.

For reformation whereof, be it enacted by the King and Queenes Maieſties, the Lords Spirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That there ſhall bee yeerely appointed, choſen and elected by the Mayor,

There ſhalbe 8. ouerſeers of watermen vpon the riuer of Thames.

and

& the Court of Aldermen of the City of London, for the time being, the number of eight perſons of the moſt wiſe, diſcréet and beſt ſort of Watermen, being houſholders, and occupying as Watermen, vpon the ſaid riuer betwéene Graueſend and Windſor, which election ſhall bee yéerely at the firſt court of Aldermen, to be holden within the ſaid City next after the firſt day of March, and the ſame eight perſons ſo elected ſhalbe named and called the Ouerſéers and rulers of all the Wherimen and Watermen, that from and after the ſaid firſt day of March ſhall vſe, occupy or exerciſe any rowing vpon the ſaid riuer of Thames, betwixt Graueſend and Windſor aforeſaid, which ſaid ouerſéers and rulers, ſhall kéepe and maintaine good order and obedience amongſt the ſaid Watermen, according to the true meaning of this preſent Act.

Two watermen ſhal not carry any but where 1. of them is allowed by the ouerſeers & two yeeres hath exerciſed, &c.

And alſo be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that after the feaſt of Penticoſt next comming, no perſon nor perſons, where two Watermen and not aboue the number of two ſhall row together in one bote or whery, in any place or places betwixt Graueſend & Windſor aforeſaid, ſhall preſume or enterpriſe to receiue or take any perſon or perſons into his or their bote or whery, to the intent to carry or conuey him or them therein, vnleſſe one of the ſame two Watermen haue béene for the moſt part exerciſed and vſed in rowing vpon the ſaid riuer of Thames, by the ſpace of two whole yéeres before that time. And that alſo one of the ſame two Watermen at the leaſt be duly admitted and allowed by the ſame eight ouerſéers and rulers, or the moſt part of them by writing vnder their knowne ſeale to be a ſufficient and able Waterman, vpon pain that euery perſon and perſons preſuming or offending contrary to the true meaning of this preſent act, ſhal by the ſaid eight ouerſéers or rulers be committed to priſon in one of the Counters of the City of London, there to remaine by the ſpace of one moneth or leſſe, as the offence ſhal require.

No ſingle man ſhalbe a waterman, &c.

And alſo be it further enacted that no perſon nor perſons being ſingle men not kéeping houſhold and not retained, ſhall from and after the ſaid feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, vſe or exerciſe to row betwéene Graueſend & Windſor aforeſaid, vnleſſe hee or they be prentice or prentiſes, or in ſeruice retained with a Maſter by the whole yéere at the leaſt vpon paine of like impriſonment.

Who ſhall haue authority to puniſh offendors.

And alſo bee it further enacted, that the Lord Mayor of London and the Aldermen of the ſame City, and the Juſtices of Peace within the Shires next adioyning to the ſaid riuer of Thames, euery of them within their ſeuerall iuriſdictions and authorities, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this preſent Act, vpon complaint made to them or any of them by the ſaid ouerſéers and rulers or two of them, or the Maſter or Maſters of any ſuch ſeruants, not onely to examine, heare and determine all complaints or offences to be done or committed by any ſuch perſon or perſons that ſhall offend contrary to the true meaning of this preſent Act, and to ſet at large all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, as ſhall fortune to be impriſoned by the ſaid ouerſéers, and Rulers according to this Act, if iuſt cauſe ſhall appeare vnto them ſo to doe: but alſo by their good diſcretions and wiſdome to puniſh, correct and reforme the ſaid Ouerſéers and rulers, and euery of them that ſhall vniuſtly or without good cauſe or ground, puniſh any perſon or perſon, by colour of this preſent Act or any thing therein contained.

The length, breadth & goodneſſe of botes.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, from henceforth doe or ſhall make any whery or bote, to the intent commonly to vſe rowing and carrying people vpon the ſaid Riuer of Thames, which ſhall not bee two and twenty foot and a halfe in length, and foure foot and a halfe broad in the midſhip, or which ſhall not be ſubſtantially and well able and ſufficient to carry two perſons on one ſide tight, according to the old quantity ſcantling, thickneſſe of borde, goodneſſe and good proportion heretofore had and vſed, that then the ſame bote or botes ſo being made contrary to the proportion and ſort before expreſſed, ſhalbe taken as forfeit, and ſhalbe forfeit, the one halfe thereof to the King and Quéenes maieſties, our ſaid ſoueraigne Lord and Ladies vſe, and to the vſe of the heires and ſucceſſors of the Quéenes maieſty: and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the King and Quéenes Maieſties Courts of Record, by action of detinue, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, wherin no wager of Law, eſſoine, protection or iniunction ſhall be allowed for the defendant.

The puniſhmēt of watermen withdrawing themſelues in the time of preſſing.

And be it further enacted, that if any perſon or perſons, which from & after the ſaid feaſt, ſhall vſe & exerciſe the occupation of rowing betwixt Graueſend and Windſor aforeſaid, which in the time of the execution of any commiſſion of preſſing, that ſhall be had for the ſeruice of the King & Quéenes Maieſties, and the heires and ſucceſſors of the Quéenes maieſty, in their affaires ſhall willingly, voluntarily and obſtinately withdraw, hide or conuey him or themſelues, in the ſame time of preſſing, into ſecret places and out corners, and after when ſuch time of preſſing is ouerpaſſed ſhall returne and come againe to the ſaid riuer of Thames, to row betwixt Graueſend and Windſor aforeſaid, and that duly proued by two indifferent witneſſes, before the ſaid Maior and Court of Aldermen, or Juſtices of the peace and two of the ſaid rulers, that then he or they ſo doing and offending ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of two wéeks, and be baniſhed any more to row from thenceforth vpon the ſaid riuer of Thames, by the ſpace of one whole yéere and a day then next following.

The ouerſeers ſhall direct the watermen, and regiſter their names.

And be it further enacted, that it ſhall be lawfull to the ſaid eight rulers for the time being, and their ſucceſſors from time to time to conuent and call before them at ſome conuenient place, by them to bee appointed, all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, which from and after the ſaid feaſt of Pentecoſt, ſhall occupy and vſe the ſaid trade and occupation of rowing betwixt Graueſend and Windſor aforeſaid, and ſhall enter and regiſter the name and names of them, and euery of them that ſhall bee by them allowed or admitted for Watermen to row betwixt Graueſend and Windſor aforeſaid, in a Booke to be made for the ſame intent and purpoſe, and to take ſuch further order and direction therein, with euery the ſaid parties by the authority of this preſent Act, as it ſhall ſeeme meet and neceſſary by the diſcretion of the ſaid Ouerſeers & Rulers for the time being. And alſo that the ſaid Ouerſeers & Rulers ſhall and may by the authority of this Act, ouerſee, view and ſuruey, at all and euery time and times hereafter, all manner botes and wheries, that ſhall from and after the ſaid feaſt be made, before the ſaid bote or botes whery or wheries be lanched out of the yard or ground wherein the ſame bote or botes, whery or wheries, ſhal fortune to be made, into the ſaid riuer of Thames, to the intent that they and euery of them may be made and prepared in ſuch manner and forme, and according to the goodneſſe, proportion and quantity in this preſent Act before limited and expreſſed.

Ouerſeers ſhall view the botes before they be lanched forth.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, which at any time hereafter ſhall be elected or choſen to bee a Ruler or Ouerſeer, as before is expreſſed, do happen negligently to vſe and exerciſe his or their roome or place, or that wil obſtinatly refuſe to take vpon him or them, the roome or roomes, place or places of any the ſaid Ouerſeers or Rulers, that then all and euery ſuch offendor or offendors, ſhall loſe and forfeit the ſumme of fiue pound of lawfull money of England: the one halfe whereof ſhall be to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queenes Maieſties vſe, and to the vſe of the heires and ſucceſſors of the Queenes Maieſty, and the other halfe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the King and Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, by action of debt, or by any other the wayes or meanes aboue ſpecified, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, protection or iniunction ſhall be admitted or allowed for the defendant or defendants.

The penalty of Ouerſeers refuſing their place, or being negligent therein.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Maior and Court of Aldermen of the ſaid City of London for the time being, ſhall from time to time at their diſcretions, limit, ſet and aſſeſſe the price and prices, and ſummes of money that euery perſon or perſons ſo authoriſed to row as is aforeſaid, betwixt Graueſend and Windſor aforeſaid, ſhall take for his or their labour or fare from place to place particularly, betwixt Graueſend & Windſor aforeſaid, and the ſame prices and aſſeſſements to bee ſet, ſhall bring or cauſe to bee brought to the priuy Councell of our ſoueraigne Lord and Lady, the King and Queene, to bee viewed and ſeene by ſome of the ſaid priuy Councell, and after that the ſaid aſſeſſements and prices, ſhall bee ſigned and ſubſcribed with the hands of two of the ſaid priuy Councell at the leaſt, & the ſaid Maior and Court of Aldermen for the time being, ſhall cauſe the ſaid prices and aſſeſſements to bee written and ſet vp in Tables in the Guildhall in the City of London, Weſtminſter Hall and elſewhere, where the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen ſhall thinke conuenient. And euery perſon and perſons that ſhal take for his or their fare or labour aboue the prices that ſhalbe aſſeſſed, viewed, written and ſet vp in forme aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch offence, forty ſhillings, and alſo ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by one halfe yeere, the one moity of the ſaid forfeiture to be to the king and Queenes Maieſties, their heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity thereof to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the King and Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, by action of debt or by any other the waies or meanes aboue ſpecified, wherein no wager of Law, eſſoine, protection or iniunction ſhall be admitted or allowed for the defendant or defendants.

Aſſeſſemẽt what fares watermen ſhall take for rowing betweene Graueſend and Windſor. 6. H. 8. 7.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon nor perſons occupying or vſing any Weſterne barge, ſhall retaine, take or recieue into his or their ſeruice, any ſingle perſon not keeping houſe or houſhold, but onely ſuch as ſhall be reteined with him or them by the whole yeere, and no houſholder, but ſuch as he or they will and ſhal anſwer for, for his or their good behauiour, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery ſuch offence forty ſhillings, the one moity thereof to bee to the King and Queenes Maieſties, her heires & ſucceſſors, and the other moity thereof to him or them that wil ſue for the ſame in any of the King & Queenes courts of record, by action of debt or by any other the waies or means aboue ſpecified, wherein no wager of law, eſſoine, protection, or iniunction ſhalbe admitted or allowed for the defendant or defendants. CAP. XVIII.

Commiſſions of peace and gaole deliuery may be awarded into townes corporate, not being Counties.

WHere the King and Quéenes moſt excellent highneſſe and their noble progenitors Kings of this realme, haue heretofore granted their ſeuerall Commiſſions directed as well vnto the Mayors, Recorders, and other graue men, and inhabitants of certaine ancient and famous cities and townes corporate within their realme of England, not being Counties in themſelues, as alſo vnto diuers other worſhipfull and learned men dwelling out of the ſame cities & townes corporate, as well for the kéeping of their peace, good ordering of their people, and executing of their lawes and ſtatutes, within the ſame cities and townes corporate, as alſo for the deliuery of their Maieſties priſoners remaining in the gaoles there, & after the granting of ſuch commiſſions, their Maieſties haue granted diuers other like commiſſions vnto certain worſhipful & learned men of the Shires, Laths, Rapes, Ridings, and Wapentakes, of this realme of England, for the confirmation of their peace, and alſo deliuering of their priſoners remaining in their gaoles within the ſame ſhires, laths, rapes, ridings, & wapentaks, which commiſſions ſo bearing a later date, haue béene a Superſedias and cléere diſcharge vnto all and ſingular the ſaid former commiſſions granted vnto the ſaid cities and and townes corporat, not being Counties in themſelues, ſo that the ſaid Maior and other graue & chiefeſt officers of euery ſuch city and towne corporat haue béene charged to ſue for the renuing againe of ſuch commiſſions, both for the peace & gaole deliuery, to the great expences, coſts, and charges of the ſaid Maior and other the inhabitants of ſuch cities and townes corporat, and to the great protracting and delay of Iuſtice there in the meane time. For reformation whereof, and for the better aduancement of Iuſtice in the premiſſes.

A Commiſſion of the peace and gaole deliuery ſhall not be a Superſedias to a former like Cōmiſſion granted to a City or towne corporat.

Be it therefore enacted by the King and Quéenes maieſties, the Lords ſpirituall & temporall and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all and ſingular Commiſſion and commiſſions granted or to be granted to any ſuch city or towne corporat, not being as is aforeſaid, a county in it ſelfe, for the kéeping of their peace & deliuery of the priſoners remaining in the gaoles of any ſuch city or towne corporate not being a County in it ſelfe, ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be good and auaileable and effectual in the law to all intents conſtructions & purpoſes, the granting of any like commiſſion of peace or gaole deliuery to any commiſſioner or commiſſioners for the cōſeruation of the peace, or deliuery of the priſoners remaining in the gaole of any ſhire, lath, rape, riding or wapentake within this realm of England, bearing date after the ſaid cōmiſſion or cōmiſſions, granted as is aforeſaid, to any ſuch city or towne corporat, not being as is aforeſaid a County in it ſelfe, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XX.

The inlargement of the Duchy of Lancaſter.

The decay of the reuenues of the Duchy of Lancaſter.

FOraſmuch as the King and Quéene our ſoueraign Lord and Lady conſidering and regarding the eſtate of the Duchy of Lancaſter, being one of the moſt famous, princelieſt and ſtatelieſt péeces of our ſaid ſoueraigne Lady the Quéenes ancient inheritance, doe perceiue & conſider that the poſſeſſions and yéerely reuenues of the ſaid Duchy, are and haue béene of late greatly diminiſhed, aſwell by reaſon of ſundry gifts, grants, and ſales made by the late Kings of famous memory, Henry the eight, and Edward the ſixth, late Kings of England, father and brother to our ſaid ſoueraigne Lady the Quéenes highneſſe, as alſo by reaſon of ſundry exchanges made with diuers their louing ſubiects of ſundry manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, & hereditaments lately belonging to the ſame Duchy, and the manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, & hereditaments being receiued in recōpence of the ſaid exchanges, be not annexed to the ſaid Duchy, but bin in the order ſuruey, & gouernance of other Courts & places ſo by their highneſſe taken & receiued in exchange.

And foraſmuch alſo, as their Maieſties doe mind and intend to preſerue, aduance, maintaine, and continue the ancient and honourable eſtate of the ſaid Duchy, our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady therefore bee pleaſed and contented that it bee enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by their Maieſties, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all honours, caſtels, Lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, poſſeſſions, and hereditaments, within this Realme of England, which at any time ſince the eight and twentieth day of January in the firſt yéere of the reigne of our ſaid late ſoueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, were parcell of the poſſeſſion of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, or which were vnited & annexed to the ſaid Duchy by authority of Parliament, Letters patents or otherwiſe. And which at any time ſince the ſaid eight and twentieth day of January haue beene giuen, granted, alienated, bargained, ſold, exchanged, or otherwiſe ſeuered from the ſaid Duchy by our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, or by our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queene that now is, or by our Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queenes Maieſties that now be, to or with any perſon or perſons, and which ſaid honors, caſtels, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, ſince ſuch gifts, grants, alienations, bargaine, ſales, exchanges, or ſeuerance thereof ſo made as is aforeſaid, beene comen, or returned againe to the hands of our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, or to the hands of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queene, or to the hands of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady, the King and Queene, or to the hands of her Maieſty her heires and ſucceſſors, in poſſeſſion, reuerſion, remainder, or otherwiſe, by atteinder, eſcheate, forfeiture, purchaſe, remainder or otherwiſe: And which now be or remaine in the hands of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queenes Maieſties, of any eſtate of inheritance, ſhall from the time the ſame came and reuerted againe, to the hands of our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, or to the hands of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queene, or the hands of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queene, by authority and force of this Act, be vnited and annexed for euer vnto the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, and ſhall be adiudged, deemed and taken for euer, for, and as parcels and members of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, and that all ſuch and thoſe of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, which be lying within the County Palatine of Lancaſter, ſhall be of the ſame nature, quality, kinde and condition, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as others the ancient poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy, lying and being within the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, be and ought to be, and all thoſe and ſuch of the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, & hereditaments, which be lying out of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, ſhalbe of the ſame nature, quality, kinde and condition, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as other ancient poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy lying and being out of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, be and ought to be, and ſhall be in the letting, ſetting, order, rule, ſuruey, receit and gouernance of the Chancellor, Councell, and Officers of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter for the time being for euermore, in like and the ſame manner and forme, to all intents and purpoſes, as others the ſaid ancient poſſeſſions belonging to the ſaid Duchy, beene, haue beene, or owen to be.

Duchy lands ſeuered from the Crowne, and ſithence reunited, ſhall be againe parcell of the Duchy. St. 37. H. 8. 16.

And that all the ſaid honors, caſtles, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, vnited, and annexed to the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, by authority and force of this Act, and all and ſingular gifts, grants, leaſes, Letters patents, and writings thereof, or of any parcell thereof hereafter to be made by the King and Queenes Highneſſe, or by the heires and ſucceſſors of her Maieſty, ſhall for euermore paſſe and be made vnder ſuch of the ſeales of the ſaid Duchy, as other the ancient poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy, haue vſed to paſſe and be made, and not vnder any other Seale or otherwiſe, and with the like and the ſame liuery of ſeiſon, atturnements, ceremonies, orders, and circumſtances in the Law, and in the ſame manner and forme, as other the ancient poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy, and the Letters Patents, Charters, and Writings thereof heretofore of ancient made, haue vſed, and ought to be made and paſſed, and not otherwiſe, nor in any other manner and forme: Any Law, eſtatute, vſage, or cuſtome to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The new annexed lands ſhall paſſe vnder the ſeale of the Duchy, and with the ſame ceremonies.

And be it further enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſaid, that our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queene that now be, and the heires and ſucceſſors of her Maieſty, may from time to time hereafter at their liberties and pleaſures, by their Graces Letters Patents, to be ſealed with the great Seale of England, vnite, annexe, limit, aſſigne and appoint any other their honors, caſtles, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, lying and being within this their ſaid Realme of England, vnto their ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, for the further augmentation, honour, and eſtate of the ſaid Duchy at their willes and pleaſures.

Other lands may be annexed to the Duchy of Lancaſter.

And that all and euery ſuch annexing, limitting, aſſignement, and appointment made or to be made by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queene, or by the heires or ſucceſſors of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queene, of any their honors, caſtels, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, vnto the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, by any their ſaid Letters Patents, vnder the great Seale of England, ſhall be as good and auaileable as if it were done by authority of Parliament.

And that all ſuch honors, caſtles, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments lying and being within the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, which ſhall happen to be vnited and annexed to the ſaid Duchy by force of any ſuch Letters patents, ſhall from the Teſte of the ſaid Letters patents, be within the order, ſuruey, rule, gouernance, iuriſdiction, letting, and ſetting of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter for the time being, as other the poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy, lying and being within the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, haue vſed and owen to be.

Lands to be annexed lying within the County Palatine.

And that all other honors, caſtles, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments lying and being out of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, which ſhall happen to be vnited, and Lands to be annexed to the Duchy lying out of the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

A ſauing of the right of others.

annexed to the ſaid Duchy by force of any ſuch Letters Patents, ſhal be from the Teſte of the ſaid Letters Patents within the order, ſuruey, rule, gouernance, iuriſdiction, letting and ſetting of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, as others the poſſeſſions of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, lying and being out of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, haue vſed and owen to be. Sauing to all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, their heires, ſucceſſors and aſſignes, and to the heires, ſucceſſors and aſſignes of euery of them, all ſuch right, title, intereſt, entries, conditions, occupations, poſſeſſion, leaſe and leaſes, fées, annuities, offices, ſeruices, commons, profits, commodities, eaſements, actions, ſuits, demands, thing and things whatſoeuer, which they or any of them ſhould, might, or ought to haue had into or out of any the premiſſes before the making of this Act, in like and in the ſame manner, forme, and condition to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if this Act had neuer béene had or made: any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Certaine lands excepted which are not to be annexed to the Duchy of Lancaſter.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this Act, or any thing or things therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to enable or giue any liberty to our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Quéene, nor to the heires and ſucceſſors of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, to vnite and annexe to the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, by their Letters Patents, any honors, caſtles, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, being any part or parcell of the ancient inheritance of the Crowne, or of the Principality of Wales, or of the Duchy of Cornewall, or of the Earledome of Cheſter, or any their honors, caſtles, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, ſet, lying, or being within the Counties of Cheſter and Flint, or either of them, nor to giue, annex, or aſſigne to the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, any honors, caſtles, lordſhips, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, excéeding and amounting in the whole, aboue the yéerely value of two thouſand pounds, any clauſe, article, or thing in this Act rehearſed, conteined, or ſpecified to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

ANNO QVARTO ET QVINTO PHILIPPI ET MARIÆ.

ACTS made at a Parliament begun and holden at VVeſtminſter, the one and twentieth day of Ianuary, in the fourth and fifth yeare of the reigne of our Soueraigne Lord and Lady, PHILIP and MARY, by the grace of God, King and Queene of England, Spaine, France, both the Scicilies, Ieruſalem, and Ireland, Defendors of the Faith, Arch-Dukes of Auſtria, Dukes of Burgundy, Millaine, and Brabant, Counties of Haſpurge, Flanders, and Tyroll. And there continued and kept vntill the ſeuenth day of March then next following, were enacted as followeth.

CAP. I.

Confirmation of all Letters Patents, &c. made by the K. and Q. or by the Queene ſince the ſeuenth of Iuly. 1. M. or to be made ſeuen yeeres after, &c.

Where ſithence the ſeuenth day of Iuly, in the firſt yéere of the Quéenes Maieſties reigne diuers and ſundry honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, and other herditaments, haue béene conueyed and aſſured to her Highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors, by or from diuers and ſundry perſons, and bodies politike, as well for the diſcharge and ſatiſfaction of great debts and ſummes of money, as for other good conſiderations. For the perfit aſſurance, confirmation and further ſurety whereof.

A confirmation of all aſſurances of lands made to the King and Queene, or Queene only.

Be it enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the King and Queenes Maieſties, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that all Feoffements, Fines, Surrenders, Aſſurances, Conueyances and Eſtates in any wiſe conueyed, had, or made, to or for our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady, the King and Queenes Maieſties, or to or for our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queene, by or from any ſuch perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporate, of any ſuch honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, or other hereditaments, for any debt, ſumme or ſummes of money, or other conſideration, whatſoeuer, ſhall ſtand remaine and be good and auaileable in the law to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, according to the true meaning, intent and purport of the ſame.

Other perſons rights ſaued.

Sauing to all and euery perſon and perſons, and to their heires, bodies politike, and corporate, and to their ſucceſſors, and to euery of them, (other than ſuch perſon or perſons, and their heires and wiues, and euery of them, bodies politike, and corporate, and their ſucceſſors, and euery of them, of or from whom the King and Queenes Highneſſe, or the Queenes Highneſſe onely hath obteined or purchaſed the ſaid premiſſes, or any parcell thereof, by exchange, gift, bargaine, fine, feoffement, recouery, deed inrolled or otherwiſe) all ſuch right, title, intereſt, vſe, poſſeſſion, rents, reuerſions, remainders, offices, fees, commons, profits, and commodities whatſoeuer, which they or any of them haue, might or ought to haue had, of, in or to the premiſſes, or any part thereof, in as large and ample manner, forme and condition to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as if this Act had neuer beene had ne made. This preſent Act or any thing therein conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And where as well our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady, as our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queenes highneſſe, ſithence the ſaid ſeuenth day of Iuly in the firſt yeere of her Maieſties reigne, as well for diuers and great ſums of money, as alſo for diuers and ſundry other conſiderations, haue, and hath bargained, ſold, giuen or granted by their or her graces ſundry Letters Patents, Indentures or other writings, ſealed vnder the great ſeale of England, and the ſeale of the Duchy of Lancaſter, as well to bodies politike and corporate, as to diuers and ſundry other their louing and obedient Subiects, diuers and ſundry honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, and other hereditaments in fee ſimple, fee taile, or for terme of life, liues, or yeeres, as in the ſame ſeuerall Letters patents, Indentures, and other writings, is mentioned and declared. And to the intent the ſame Letters patents, indentures, and other writings, ſhould be of good, auaileable, and perfit force and effect, to all and euery her Highneſſe louing Subiects, according to the true meaning and effect of the ſame.

A confirmation of the Letters Patents of the King & Queene made, or during ſeuen yeeres to be made.

Our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queene, are contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament. And therefore by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady, the King and Queenes Maieſties, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, be it enacted and eſtabliſhed, that as well all and ſingular Letters patents, Indentures or other writings ſealed vnder the great ſeale of England, or vnder the ſeale of the Duchy of Lancaſter, and heretofore made or granted by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady, the King and Queene, or by our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queene, for any ſummes of money, or for and vpon other conſiderations, as all other Letters Patents hereafter to be made by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady, for any ſum or ſums of money during the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres next enſuing the making of this Act, to any body politike or corporate, or to any other perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, of any honors, caſtles, manors, lordſhips, granges, meaſes, lands, tenements, meadowes, paſtures, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, woods, aduowſons, nominations, patronages, annuities, rights, intereſts, entrees, conditions, leets, courts, liberties, priuileges, franchiſes, or of any other hereditaments with their appurtenances, or of any part or parcell of them, ſealed with or vnder the great ſeale of England, or vnder the ſeale of the Duchy of Lancaſter, of whatſoeuer kind, nature or quality they or any of them be or ſhall be reputed, knowen, or taken with their appurtenances, or any part or parcell of them, ſhall be good, perfit and effectuall in the law, and ſhall ſtand, be taken, reputed, deemed, and adiudged good, perfit, ſure, auaileable, and effectuall in the Law, as well againſt the King and Queenes Maieſties, as againſt the Queene her heires and ſucceſſors, according to the tenor of the ſaid Letters Patents, the ſame to be expounded, conſtrued, deemed, and adiudged moſt beneficiall for the Patentees, and Grantees of the ſame, according vnto the words and purport of euery the ſaid Letters Patents, without any confirmation, licence, or toleration of the Queene, her heires or ſucceſſors: any miſnaming, miſrecitall, or non recitall of any the ſame honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes or any parcell thereof: or any lacke of finding of offices, or inquiſitions of and in the premiſſes, whereby the title of the Queenes Highneſſe therein ought to haue beene found before the making of the ſame Letters Patents or other writings: or any miſrecitall, or non recitall of leaſes thereof before made, as well of record as not of record: or any lacke of the certainty, miſcaſting, rating, or ſetting forth of the yeerely values and rates of the premiſſes, or of the yeerely rents reſerued of and for the premiſſes or any parcell thereof, mentioned or conteined in any the ſaid Letters patents, or other writings: or for that the premiſſes be, or any part thereof is valued to a more or leſſe value in the ſaid Letters Patents or Writings, than the ſaid manors, lands, tenements, and other the premiſſes, than were or ſhall be in yeerely value: or any miſnaming of the Townes, Hamlets, Pariſhes, or Counties, where the ſame honors, caſtles, manors, lands, tenements, rents, hereditaments, and other the premiſſes, and euery parcell thereof, or any parcell thereof lien or beene: or any lacke of the true naming of the lands tenements, or hereditaments, or of the natures, kinds, ſorts or quantities of the ſaid poſſeſſions or hereditaments, or any parcell thereof: or any lacke of the true naming of the corporation: or any lack of atturnement, liuery, or ſeiſon: or any miſnaming of any the late tenants or fermors of the ſame ſo ſold or giuen notwithſtanding.

Defectes in theſe Letters patents ſalued.

Patents of offices.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act nor any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to make any Letters Patents of any office or offices, to be of any other effect, force, or ſtrength, than the ſame Letters Patents were or ſhould haue beene before the making of this Act.

What ſhall be paid by the Patentee for the ouerplus of lands ſold by the K. and Q.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and ſingular ſuch Patentees, Grantees, and Donees, and euery of them, which at any time heretofore ſithence the ſeuenth day of July haue obteined and gotten of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queene, or of any of them, or at any time hereafter during the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres, ſhall obteine and get of our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queene that now be, or of any of them, by way of exchange, or for any ſumme or ſummes of money, any Letters Patents of any Monaſteries, Abbathies, Priories, Nunneries; or other Eccleſiaſticall poſſeſſions, or of any parcell of them, or any other manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments whatſoeuer, which at the date and making of any the ſame Letters Patents ſo made, ſithence the ſeuenth day of July, or hereafter to be made during the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres, as is aforeſaid, were or ſhall be of better and more yeerely value to the King and Queenes Highneſſe, or to any of them, in yeerely rent and ferme than was, is, or ſhall be conteined, mentioned or ſpecified in any ſuch Letters patents, or in the particulars or rate thereof made or to be made by any Auditor or Auditors, Surueyor or Surueyors, or other Officer, that then euery ſuch Patentee, Grantee and Donee, their heires, executors or aſſignes, and euery of them, within one yeere next after, office and other due proofe, order, and decree thereof made and had, or to be made and had within the ſpace and terme of ten yeeres next after this preſent Parliament in the Court of the Eſchequer, ſhall content and pay unto the Queenes Maieſty her heires and ſucceſſors, for the ſame ouerplus and more value of the ſame Monaſteries, Abbathies, Priories, Nunneries, manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, with their appurtenances ſo ſold, giuen, granted, or exchanged as is aforeſaid, after the rate of twenty yeeres purchaſe, and according to the yeerely value and rate as the ſame manors, lands, tenements, and other hereditaments whatſoeuer, were at the time of the making of any ſuch Letters Patents ſo made, or to be made in manner and forme aforeſaid. Any thing conteined in any ſuch Letters patents to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Twenty yeeres purchaſe.

Leaſes made whereupon the old rent is not reſerued.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act or any prouiſion therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to confirme, ratifie, or make good any leaſe or leaſes, made or to be made by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queene, or by any of them for the terme of life, liues, or for yeeres, whereupon the old and accuſtomed rents or more, be not, or hereafter ſhall not be reſerued, and yeerely payable during the time and terme of euery ſuch leaſe: Nor that this preſent Act ſhall in any wiſe extend to reuiue or make good any Letters Patents made of any office or offices to any Comptroller, Cuſtomer, Alneger, Searcher, ne to any Letters Patents of the grant of any other office or offices heretofore granted or made by the King and Queenes Maieſty, or any of them, which now be, or at any time heretofore haue beene adnihilated, determined or made void by iudgement, by authoritie of Parliament, or by decree: nor to any patent to be made to any perſon or perſons for terme of yeeres, or during the minority of any heire of any manors, lands or tenements, whereof any trauerſe hereafter ſhall be tendred within three moneths after any office found and certified into any of the Kings Courts of Record, ne to make good any Letters patents made by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady or any of them, or any office or offices to be of any other effect, force or ſtrength, than the ſame Letters Patents were or ſhould haue beene before the making of this Act.

Patents whereunto this Statute doth not extend.

Patents of lands concealed.
21.Iac.2.

Letters patents made to the maſter of the Sauoy.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act or any thing therein conteined, ſhall not extend to any Letters patents, which at any time heretofore ſithence the beginning of the Queenes Maieſties reigne haue beene made or hereafter ſhall be made by the King and Queenes Highneſſe, or by the Queenes Maieſty only, to any perſon or perſons of any manors, lands, tenements, rents, reuerſions, ſeruices, or other hereditaments, by force of any information, ſuit, or ſuggeſtion, made, or to be made to her Highneſſe, that the ſame manors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, ſo conteined in any ſuch Letters Patents, were concealed lands: nor to any Letters patents heretofore made by our ſaid Soueraigne Lord and Lady the King and Queenes Maieſties, or any of them, to Ralfe Iackſon, Clerk, now Maſter of the Hoſpitall of the Sauoy in the Pariſh of Saint Clements Dacorum, without the Barres of the new Temple London, and to his Brethren, being perpetuall Chaplains of the ſame Hoſpitall, and to their ſucceſſors, but that the ſame letters Patents and euery of them ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be in the ſame force, ſtrength and effect, as they were before the making of this Act, any thing in this Act mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And where the Manor of Southwell in the County of Nottingham, and alſo the Scite and Precinct of the College of Southwell in the ſame County, together with diuers other lands, tenements, and hereditaments to the ſaid late College lately belonging or appertaining, were conueyed and aſſured by indenture, fine or otherwiſe, by or from Iohn Beaumount Eſquire vnto our late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, and to his heires and ſucceſſors, for the diſcharge and ſatiſfaction of diuers great ſums of money, wherein the ſame Iohn Beaumount was indebted to the ſaid late King. Be it enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid conueyance and aſſurance ſhalbe perfect, good, ſufficient and auaileable againſt the ſaid Beaumount and his heires, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, according to the purport, tenor, and true meaning of the ſame conueyances and aſſurances. Sauing to all and euery perſon or perſons, and bodies politike and corporate, their heires and ſucceſſors and euery of them (other than the ſaid Iohn Beaumount, his wife, and his heires, and all other claiming any eſtate or intereſt by or from them or any of them ſithence the ſame conueyance and aſſurance) all ſuch right, title, intereſt, poſſeſſion, eſtate, leaſes, rents, ſeruices, commons, and all other profits and commodities whatſoeuer, as they or any of them, ſhould, or might haue had if this Act had neuer beene had ne made. Any thing therein conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A confirmation of the aſſurance of the manor of Southwell.

CAP. II.

So much of euery Statute heretofore made as doeth concerne onely the finding or keeping of horſe, or armour, and euery penalty and forfeiture touching only the ſame, ſhall be repealed, what number, rate, and proportion of horſes, armour, and weapons each perſon is bound, and chargeable to keepe in any reſpect, or for any cauſe. REP.1.Iac.25.

CAP. III.

The penalty for a Souldier departing from his Captaine without his licence, and for not appearing at Muſters, &c.

Where heretofore commandement hath beene giuen by the King and Queenes Maieſties, and other the Progenitors of the Queenes Maieſty, Kings of this Realme, to diuers and ſundry perſons, to muſter their Maieſties people and Subiects of this their Realme of England, and to leuy a number of them for the ſeruice of their Maieſties and of this Realme, in their warres, ſuch as were moſt able and likelieſt to ſerue well in the ſame, which ſeruice hath beene greatly hindered, as well for that a great number hath abſented them from the ſaid muſters, which ought to haue come to the ſame, as alſo for that many of the moſt able, and likely men for that ſeruice, haue beene through friendſhip or reward, releaſed, forborne, and diſcharged of the ſaid ſeruice, and ſome other not being able or meet taken, appointed, and choſen thereunto, and yet the ſame diſability and vnaptneſſe notwithſtanding, the ſame vnable and vnmeet perſons vpon ſummes of money, or other kinde of rewards, or exactions by them paid to ſome ſuch as had the order of the ſaid muſters, haue beene alſo releaſed and diſcharged of the ſaid ſeruice, to the great impoueriſhment of the Subiects, and chiefly to the great perill and danger of this noble Realme, in the hinderance of the true and neceſſary ſeruice thereof.

Seueral cauſes of hinderance of due ſeruice in warre.

For remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King and Queene our Soueraigne Lord and Lady, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons, that ſhall bee commanded at any time hereafter, generally or ſpecially, to muſter afore any ſuch as ſhall haue authority or commandement for the ſame, by or from the King and Queenes Maieſties, or by the heires or ſucceſſors of the Queenes Maieſty, or by any Lieutenant, Warden, or other perſon or perſons authoriſed for the ſame, doe willingly abſent him or themſelues from the ſame muſters, hauing no true and reaſonable excuſe of ſickneſſe, or other lawfull impediment: or at their apparance at ſuch muſters, doe not bring with them ſuch their beſt furniture or array, and armor, as he or they ſhall then haue for his or their owne perſon in a readineſſe, ſhall for euery ſuch default and offence, haue and ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of ten dayes without baile or mainpriſe, by the commandement of ſuch as ſhall haue authority as is aforeſaid, to take the ſame Muſters, vnleſſe he or they ſo offending as is aforeſaid, doe agree to or with the ſaid Commiſſioners, or two of them, to pay to the vſe of the King and Queene our Soueraigne Lord and Lady, or of the heires and ſucceſſors of the ſame our Soueraigne Lady, for euery ſuch offence, forty ſhillings for a fine: which ſaid fine after agreement for the payment of the ſame as is aforeſaid, ſhall be certified and eſtreated into the Court of the Eſchequer at Weſtminſter, by ſuch as ſhall haue power to take the ſaid muſters as is aforeſaid, or by two of them, vnder their ſeales or the ſeales of two of them within the ſpace of two moneths next after ſuch agreement, to pay the ſaid fine had or made, and the ſame fine ſo eſtreated to be leuied in ſuch forme as fines aſſeſſed by the Iuſtices of aſſiſe, or of Gaole deliuery, in their circuits are vſed to be leuied.

The penalty of muſter Maſters taking reward to diſcharge them.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons which at any time or times hereafter ſhall be commanded or appointed by the King and Queene our Soueraigne Lord and Lady, or by the heires and ſucceſſors of the ſame our Soueraigne Lady, by their commiſſion, letters, or otherwiſe authoriſed, to leuy, muſter, or make any men to ſerue in their warres, or otherwiſe for the defence of this Realme, doe by any meane exact, leuy, receiue or take, or cauſe to be taken any ſumme or ſummes of mony, or other reward or thing whatſoeuer, of any perſon or perſons, for ſeruice in the warres, or that ſhall be appointed, named or muſtred to ſerue in any ſuch ſeruice, or for the ſparing, releaſing or diſcharging of ſuch perſon or perſons from the ſaid ſeruice, that then euery ſuch perſon that ſo ſhall offend in exacting, receiuing or taking by any wayes or meanes any ſumme or ſummes of money, or other reward, or thing whatſoeuer as is aforeſaid, ſhall for ſuch offence forfeit ten times ſo much as he ſhall ſo receiue, exact, or take.

The penalty of a Captaine, licencing his ſouldier to depart, or not paying his wages.

Who ſhall haue the forfeiture.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Captaine, pety Captaine, or other hauing charge of men for ſeruice in warre, ſhall for any aduantage, lucre or gaine by him to be taken or receiued, diſcharge or licence any of the Souldiers, or men appointed to ſerue in the warres, vnder his rule or order, to depart from the ſame ſeruice, or ſhall not pay vnto his ſouldiers, and to euery of them their full and whole wages, conduct and coat money, within ten dayes next after that ſuch Captaine, pety Captaine, or other hauing charge of men, as is aforeſaid, ſhal haue receiued the ſame: that then the party ſo offending in giuing any ſuch licence or diſcharge, as is aforeſaid, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery ſuch offence, ten times the value of the thing ſo taken or receiued, and ſhall alſo pay to euery ſouldier from whom he ſhall ſo withhold any the ſaid wages, conduct, or coat money, treble the ſumme ſo withholden: the one moity of all which forfeitures, other than ſuch as before by this Act is limited or giuen to the ſouldier or ſouldiers, as is aforeſaid, for their wages, coat or conduct money withdrawen, ſhall be to the King and the Queenes Maieſties, and the heires and ſucceſſors of the Queenes Maieſty, and the other moity thereof to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by action of debt, bill, plaint, information or otherwiſe, in any Court of Record, in which action or ſuit no eſſoine, protection or wager of law ſhall be allowed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all Iuſtices of Aſſiſes in their circuits, and all Iuſtices of Peace within the limits of their commiſſion, in their aſſiſes and ſeſſions, and Stewards of Leets, Law-dayes, and liberties at their Leets and Law-dayes, ſhall and may from time to time enquire, heare and determine euery of the ſaid offences, committed or done contrary to this Act, within the precincts of their commiſſion, Leet, or liberty: and if any perſon or perſons ſhall be before the ſaid Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, Iuſtices of Peace, or any of them, preſented or indicted of any the offences aforeſaid, that then the ſaid Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, or Iuſtices of peace, before whom ſuch indictment or preſentment ſhall be taken or had, ſhall and may by the authority of this act, award ſuch proceſſe againſt euery ſuch perſon or perſons indicted, as vpon indictmēts of treſpaſſe is vſed and accuſtomed to be made, and if any ſuch perſon or perſons ſo indicted doe appeare before the ſaid Iuſtices, and confeſſe the ſame, or plead to the ſame indictments, and after by verdict of twelue men ſhall be of any the ſaid offences conteined in ſuch indictment or indictments conuicted, that then the ſaid Iuſtices before whom any ſuch conuiction ſhall be ſo had, ſhall and may award ſuch perſon or perſons ſo conuicted vnto priſon, there to remaine without baile or mainepriſe, vntill ſuch time as he or they haue payed, or ſatiſfied the moity of the forfeiture aforeſaid, vnto the King and Queenes Maieſties vſe, and the other moity thereof vnto him or them that ſhall come before the ſaid Iuſtices, and giue euidence againſt the party to be conuicted at the time of the ſaid conuiction, and by whoſe euidence he ſhall be of the ſaid offence conuicted. And if any ſuch conuiction ſhall be had without any euidence openly giuen by any perſon or perſons, that then the party conuicted as is aforeſaid, ſhall remaine in priſon, as is aforeſaid, vntill he haue ſatiſfied the whole forfeiture to the King and Queenes Maieſties vſe.

Offences committed during the time of ſeruice.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any the offences aforeſaid, touching Captaines, pety Captaines, or other hauing charge of men, ſhall be committed during the time that any army or number of men being vnder a Lieutenant, ſhall be aſſembled and continue together, or by any Captaine, pety Captaine, or other hauing charge of men that ſhall ſerue vnder any Lord Warden or other Chieftaine, that then vpon complaint thereof, the Lord Lieutenant or the Lord Warden, or other Chieftaine, during the time of any his or their commiſſion ſhall and may heare, order and determine the ſame offences, by his or their diſcretions.

Seruice in reſpect of tenure of land.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, nor any thing therein conteined, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to take away or diſcharge any tenant or fermor of his ſeruice or couenant, toward his Lord for the finding of horſe, armour, or weapon, or for doing of ſeruice by himſelfe, or by any other, which by the tenure of his land otherwiſe is bounden to do before the making of this Act, but that he ſhall yeeld, doe, and pay the ſame in as ample manner and forme as though this Act had neuer beene had or made.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any ſuch Captaine, pety Captaine, or other hauing charge of men, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be at any time hereafter conuicted or ordered by vertue of this Act, for any of his offences aforeſaid, that then the ſame Captaine, pety Captaine, or other hauing charge of men, as is aforeſaid, ſo conuicted, ſhall not otherwiſe or eftſoones be vexed, troubled, ſued, or conuicted for the ſame offence, whereof he ſhall be ſo before conuicted or ordered.

He that is once conuicted ſhall not be againe troubled.

And where one branch or article conteined in the Statute made in the ſecond and third yeere of the reigne of the late King Edward the ſixth, entituled, an Act touching the true ſeruice of Captaines and Souldiers, whereby the departure of any Souldier, ſeruing, as in the ſaid Act is expreſſed, without licence of the Lieutenant, or other Officer or Officers named in the ſaid Act, or in their abſence, of their Deputies, was made felony, is of no force, ſtrength, ne effect, at this preſent, by reaſon of the Act of repeale of certeine treaſons, felonies, and Præmunire made in the firſt Seſſion of the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the firſt yeere of the Queenes Maieſties reigne. Be it for good and reaſonable conſiderations enacted and eſtabliſhed by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid branch or article, and euery ſentence and matter therein conteined, be from henceforth wholly reuiued and recontinued, and be & remaine in full ſtrength and effect, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, the ſaid Act of repeale notwithſtanding. And that all and euery other article, clauſe, prouiſo, and matter conteined in the ſame Act, ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be in their full force, ſtrength, and effect. Any thing in this Act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A reuiuer of the Stat. of 2. & 3. Ed.6.2.

1. M. 1.

And yet neuertheleſſe where in the ſaid Act it is prouided, that no perſon or perſons, ſhould be charged for the taking or receiuing of any gift or reward of any of his or their tenants or friends towards the reliefe, ayd or helpe of the ſame perſons being commanded to ſerue in warres, or otherwiſe to finde men on horſebacke or on foot, within this Realme or without, nor for the gift, reward, ayd, or helpe reſerued, or couenanted, to be payed or giuen to any perſon appointed to ſerue in warres, or to finde horſe or men, to ſerue by reaſon of any grant, couenant, reſeruation, cuſtome or tenure, any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding, as by the ſaid Act and prouiſo more plainly it doth and may appeare. Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that no perſon or perſons ſhall or may by colour of the ſaid prouiſo, or of any words or matter therein conteined, exact or demand, or leuy any ſumme or ſummes of money, horſe, armour, or any other thing, other than ſhall be imployed forthwith in the preſent ſeruice of thoſe warres, of the King and Queenes Maieſties, her heires or ſucceſſors, for which it is leuied, the which ſum or ſums of money, horſe, armour, or other thing, or as much thereof as ſhall not be ſpent, loſt, or conſumed in the ſaid ſeruice, ſhall be rendred and reſtored to ſuch perſon or perſons, as payed or deliuered the ſame, vpon the penalties and forfeitures, conteined in the ſaid Act.

What reliefe of friends or tenants may be taken toward ſeruice in war.

Prouided alwayes; that no perſon or perſons; inhabiting within any City, Borough, or Towne corporate, being a County of it ſelfe, or in which any Iuſtices of Peace be, or hereafter ſhall be, by Charter, ſhall be compellable by vertue of this Act, to make his or their appearance with ſuch furniture as is aforeſaid, at any Muſter hereafter to be had or taken, out of the Suburbs, precinct, or liberties of the ſame City, Borough or Towne, nor before any perſon or perſons authoriſed by commiſſion or otherwiſe, as is aforeſaid, vnleſſe the Maior, or other head officer of ſuch City, Borough, or Towne, and one other diſcreet inhabitant of the ſame at the leaſt be ioyned in the ſame commiſſion, or other authority as is aforeſaid, with the ſame other perſon or perſons ſo authoriſed, any thing before mentioned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Inhabitants in Cities, Boroughes, or Townes corporate ſhalbe muſtered only within the ſame.

CAP. IIII.

Acceſſories in pety Treaſon, Felony; Murder ſhall not haue their Clergie.

FOr the due puniſhment of ſuch as command, counſell, or hire any perſon or perſons, to commit, perpetrate, or doe any pety treaſon, wilfull murder, or any of the offences in this preſent Act mentioned, Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all and euery perſon and perſons that after the firſt day of March next comming, ſhall maliciouſly command, hire, or counſell any perſon or perſons, to commit or do any petie treaſon, wilfull murder, or to do any [a]robbery in any dwelling houſe or houſes, or to commit or doe any robbery in or neere any high way in the Realme of England, or in any other the Queenes Dominions, or to commit or do any robbery in any place within the marches of England againſt Scotland, or wilfully to burne any dwelling houſe, or any part thereof, or any Barne then hauing corne or graine in the ſame, that then euery ſuch Offendor or Offendors, and euery of them being outlawed thereof, or being thereof arraigned and found guilty by the order of the law, or being otherwiſe lawfully attainted or conuicted of the ſame offence, or be being arraigned therof, do ſtand mute of malice or froward mind, or doe challenge peremptorie aboue the number of twenty perſons, or will not anſwer directly to ſuch offence, ſhall not haue the benefit of his or their Clergie.

Triall of a Lord by his Peeres.

Provided alwayes, and be it enacted, that every Lord and Lords of the Parliament, and Peere and Peeres of the Realme, having place and voice in the Parliament, upon every inditement for any of the offences aforeſaid, ſhall be tried by their Peeres, as hath beene accuſtomed by the Lawes of this Realme.

CAP. V.

How woollen clothes ſhall be made in length, bredth, and weight, and how the Offendors therein ſhall be puniſhed.

5. & 6. Ed. 6. 6.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the fifth and ſixth yeere of the reigne of our late Soveraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, there was by great deliberation and advice, one good Act made for the true & perfect making of woollen cloth within this Realme, ſithence the making whereof divers Clothiers found themſelves agrieved, alleaging that it is unpoſſible for them to obſerve the ſame Act in all points, and have in this preſent Parliament prayed ſome mitigation thereof: It is therefore at their ſpeciall inſtance and requeſt ordered, eſtabliſhed, enacted, and provided, in manner and forme following.

Long Worceſters.

Inprimis, that every white cloth, and clothes commonly called long Worceſters, and all like Clothes of like making mentioned in the ſaid Act, which by the ſame was limited to weigh lxxxiiij. pounds, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, and fully dryed, ſhall weigh threeſcore and fifteene pounds at the leaſt.

White clothes of Glouceſt. Wiltſ. Somerſ.

Item, every white cloth which ſhall be made in the Counties of Wiltſhire, Glouceſter, and Somerſet, or any of them, or elſe where of like making being appointed by the ſaid Act to weigh lxiiij. pounds, ſhall weigh being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, & fully dryed lxj. pounds at the leaſt.

The weight of broad clothes.

Item, that every broad cloth made in the Shires of Kent and Suſſex, or at the Towne of Reding, or any of them, or elſewhere of like making mentioned in the ſaid Act, which by the ſame was limited to weigh xc. pounds at the leaſt, ſhall weigh being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, and fully dried lxxxvj. pounds at the leaſt.

Courſe ſhort cloth.

Item, that every courſe ſhort cloth made in the Shires of Suffolke, Norffolke & Eſſex, or any of them, or elſewhere of like ſort: and every courſe cloth to be made within the Shire of Kent, not exceeding the price of ſix pounds, all which by the ſaid Act are appointed to conteine ſeven quarters of a yard at the leaſt in bredth, ſhall conteine and be at the water, being throw wet, ſix quarters and a halfe within the liſt throw and by all the whole cloth.

Handywarpe.

Item, every yard of cloth commonly called handiwarpe, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, and fully dryed, ſhall conteine the bredth ſpecified in the ſaid Act, and ſhall weigh two pounds and a halfe at the leaſt.

Liſtes of Handywarps.

And foraſmuch as many perſons do counterfeit the making of Cokſall, Bocking, and Braintree clothes commonly called Handywarpes, adding thereunto ſuch like liſts as the Makers of ſuch clothes doe, to the great deceipt of the King and Queenes Maieſties Subiects. Be it therefore enacted that no perſon or perſons from the firſt day of May next comming, ſhall adde unto any cloth or clothes, any ſuch like liſt or liſts, except the warpe thereof be ſpun upon the rocke or diſtaffe, upon paine of forfeiture of the ſame cloth or clothes, or the very value thereof. Provided alwayes, that the Clothmakers within the City of Worceſter may make ſuch liſts as they have done heretofore.

Broad cloth made in the Weſtriding in Yorkſhire.

Item, that no perſon or perſons inhabiting within the Weſtriding in the County of Yorke, ſhall make or cauſe to be made any broad cloth or clothes, called pewkes, tawnies, violets, or greenes, except the wooll thereof before it be converted into yarne, be firſt dyed, litted, and coloured with the colour blew, of the value of ij. d. a pound, upon paine of forfeiture of every ſuch coloured cloth, or the value thereof, whereof the wooll ſhall not be firſt dyed, litted, and coloured with the colour blew of ij. d. a pound, as is aforeſaid.

Ordinary kerſie.

Sorting Kerſie.

14. El. 10.

3. Iac. 16.

Item, that every ordinary Kerſie mentioned in the ſaid act, ſhall conteine in length in the water betwixt xvj. and xvij. yards, yard and inch, and being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, dreſſed, and fully dried ſhall weigh xix. pounds the peece at the leaſt. And every Kerſie called ſorting Kerſie, mentioned in the ſaid Act, being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, dreſſed, and fully dried, ready to be ſhewed, ſhall weigh xxij. pounds at the leaſt.

Devonſh. kerſie.

Item, that every Devonſhire Kerſie, called Doſſon, the which is appointed by the ſame Statute to weigh being dry xiiij. pounds at the leaſt, ſhall weigh being well ſcoured, thicked, milled, and fully dryed, after the rate of every yard one pound at the leaſt.

Welſh lynings.

5. Ed. 6. 6.

Item, that one article mentioned in the ſaid Statute concerning Welſh Cottons, touching the length and weight, ſhall be cleerely void, and every gode of Welſh lyning ſhall conteine and be three quarters of a yard in breadth in the water, and ſhall weigh one pound and a halfe quarter, and every yard of Cotton being fully wrought and cottoned, ſhall weigh one pound at the leaſt.

None that buyeth to ſel againe ſhall worke any Welſh lyning.

8. El. 7.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon or perſons, which ſhall buy to ſell againe by way of retaile or otherwiſe, any of the ſaid Welſh lynings, ſhall dreſſe or worke, or cauſe to be dreſſed or wrought within his or their dwelling houſe or houſes, or in any other place by himſelfe, or his ſeruant or ſeruants, any of the ſaid Welſh lynings, but ſhall put the ſame to ſome ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be of the art or ſcience of Shermen, Cottoners, or Friſers, to be by them wrought and dreſſed, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery Welſh Cotton or lyning, friſed or cottoned to the contrary vj.s. viij. d.

Item, that all and euery Cotton or Cottons called Mancheſter, Lanckeſhire, and Cheſhire Cottons, and all clothes called Mancheſter Rugs, or Mancheſter Friſes, may be diuided into two halfe, peeces, and ſhall conteine and be after the rate of ſuch bredth and weight, as in the ſaid Act is limited and appointed to a whole peece of euery of the ſeuerall peeces of Cottons and Rugges aforeſaid, any thing in the ſaid former Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Cottons, Rugs and Friſes may be diuided into two peeces.

And if any cloth or Kerſie of the ſeuerall kinds of makings, mentioned in the ſaid former Act, or this Statute, doe exceed the ſeuerall lengths mentioned in the ſame, that then euery yard ſo exceeding, ſhall weigh after ſuch rate as euery yard of ſuch cloth or Kerſies conteining the ſaid ſeuerall lengths, ſhall or ought to weigh, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery yard not weighing after ſuch rate, v.s.

Forfeiture for defaults in lengths and meaſures.

And if any ſuch cloth or Kerſies ſhall lacke of ſuch weight, as by the ſaid Statute or this Act it ought and is appointed to haue, then the maker thereof, or other perſon in whoſe hands or poſſeſſion the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall forfeit for euery pound lacking aboue foure pounds, v.s. and alſo for euery pound exceeding not aboue foure pounds, ij.s. in manner and forme as in the ſaid former Act is appointed.

Item, one Article mentioned in the ſaid Statute, wherein the Aulneger is prohibited to ſet his ſeale to any cloth or Kerſie which ſhall proue purſie, baudy, ſqually, in, or by warpe or woofe, or elſe ſhall happen to be euill burled, or waſted in the Mill, or otherwiſe to be full of holes, Milbrackes, or to be holeiy, ſhall be void and of none effect.

The Aulnegers ſeale.
5.Ed.6.6.

Item, it is enacted, that if at any time after the firſt day of May any cloth or Kerſie, through the default or negligence of the Karders, Spinners, Weauers, or any of them, ſhall, or doe proue either, purſey, cockeley, baudy, ſqually, or rowy, by warpe or woofe, or elſe ſhall happen to be euill burled, or waſted in the Mill, or elſe through the default or negligence of the Mill-man, or otherwiſe to be full of holes, milbrackes, or to be holely, that then the maker of euery ſuch cloth or Kerſie ſo being defectiue or faulty, as is aforeſaid, ſhall fix vnto euery end of the ſaid cloth or Kerſie ſo being defectiue and faulty, and offered to be ſold, one ſeale of lead, in the which ſeale ſhall be ingraued this word (faulty) vpon paine of forfeiture of ſuch cloth or Kerſie, or the value thereof ſo offered to be ſold, whereunto ſuch ſeale ſhall not be ſet.

How faulty cloth ſhall be vſed.

Item, the article mentioned in the ſaid former Act of returning of defectiue clothes, Kerſies, Friſes, or Cottons, being tranſported ouer the Seas by the Merchants, ſhall be vtterly void. But neuertheleſſe be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if it ſhall fortune herafter any Merchant or Merchants, to tranſport any cloth or clothes, Kerſies, Friſes, or Cottons, whereunto the ſeale with this word (faulty) was not annexed at the time of the ſale thereof by the Clothier, and the ſame Clothes, Kerſies, Friſes, or Cottons, ſo tranſported, or any of them to be found faulty or defectiue, and the ſame Merchant or Merchants thereof, within two yeeres after ſuch ſale, to bring a certificate, ſealed with the ſeale of any Towne, or Company in the parties beyond the Seas, or ſigned by a Notary there, after the accuſtomed manner, teſtifying and declaring thereby the loſſe and damage which the Merchants ſhall haue ſuſteined by ſuch defectiue and faulty cloth or clothes ſo tranſported, that then the Clothier or Clothiers, or other perſon of whom the cloth or clothes was bought, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall within ſix weekes next after requeſt made by the ſaid Merchant, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſignes, well and truly ſatiſfie, content, and pay to ſuch Merchant, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, or Aſſignes, all and euery ſuch ſumme and ſummes of money as ſhall ſo be mentioned, expreſſed and declared in the ſaid certificat, vpon paine of forfeiture to the party grieued for euery non payment vpon ſuch requeſt, double the value of ſuch ſumme or ſummes mentioned in the ſaid certificat.

No defectiue cloth ſhalbe returned, but the Merchant ſhall be recompenced vpon a Certificat brought.
RhP.43.El.10.

Prouided alwayes, that ſuch Merchant ſhall not in any wiſe haue by vertue of this Act, any recompence for lacke of length, bredth, or weight, of or for any cloth, whereunto the ſeale of any City, Borough, or Towne corporate ſhall be fixed.

Cloth wanting length, &c. whereunto the ſeale of a City &c. ſhall be affixed.

Item if any perſon ſhall by himſelfe, or by any other perſon by him procured, counterfeit, ſet to, or take away from any Cloth, Kerſie, Friſe, Rug or Cotton, any ſeale appointed to be fixed to any Cloth, Kerſie, Friſe, Rug, or Cotton, either by this Act, or by the ſaid former eſtatute, that then euery ſuch perſon ſo offending, ſhall incur and haue like penalties, forfeitures, and puniſhments as in the ſaid former Act is appointed and limited for the like offence.

Counterfeiting ſetting to, or taking away of any ſeale.

And for the better execution, as well of this preſent Act, as of the ſaid former eſtatute, and to the intent that all kinde of Kerſies, Cottons, Friſes, Rugs, and other woollen Cloth, made in any Towne ſhall be the better knowen, it is further enacted, that the ſeale of euery Borough or Towne corporate, appointed or to be appointed for the ſealing of any ſuch kinde of Cloth, ſhall be fixed to all and euery ſuch kind of cloth, being well and ſubſtantially made within ſuch City, Boꝛough oꝛ Towne coꝛpoꝛate, which cloth ſo ſealed with the ſeale of any City, Boꝛough, oꝛ Towne coꝛpoꝛate, ſhall not be ſearched, tried, oꝛ veiwed by any Searcher oꝛ Sealer of any other City, Boꝛough, oꝛ Towne coꝛpoꝛate, by vertue of his ſaid office: any thing in this Act, oꝛ in the ſaid foꝛmer eſtatute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Towne ſeale ſhall be ſet to clothes.

Clothes made out of Townes coꝛpoꝛate ſhalbe ſealed in the next Towne coꝛpoꝛate, &c.

Item be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that euery perſon and perſons, not dwelling and inhabiting within any City, Boꝛough, oꝛ coꝛpoꝛate Towne, and making any of the clothes, oꝛ Kerſies afoꝛeſaid, may lawfully bꝛing the ſame to the next City, Boꝛough, oꝛ coꝛpoꝛate Towne, where any ſuch kind of clothes oꝛ Kerſies be oꝛ ſhall be commonly made, there to be ſealed in manner and foꝛme as is befoꝛe expꝛeſſed.

The foꝛfeiture where a Sealer ſetteth his ſeale to cloth wanting length.

Item, if any Searcher oꝛ Sealer appointed, oꝛ to be appointed by vertue of this pꝛeſent Act, oꝛ of the ſaid foꝛmer Statute, ſhal ſet the Seale of any City, Boꝛough, oꝛ Towne coꝛpoꝛate, to any cloth, which ſhall not conteine ſuch length, weight, and bꝛedth as in the ſaid foꝛmer Statute, oꝛ in this pꝛeſent Act is appointed, that then the Maioꝛ and Comminalty, oꝛ Bayliffe and Comminalty, oꝛ other coꝛpoꝛation of the Towneſhip, by whatſoeuer name oꝛ names it oꝛ they ſhall be incoꝛpoꝛated, where ſuch cloth, Kerſie, Friſe, Cotton, oꝛ Rug ſhall be ſo ſealed, ſhall foꝛfeit and loſe the whole value of the cloth ſo ſealed.

The Searchers and Sealers may enter into any mans houſe to ſearch. St.21.Iac.28.

It is alſo enacted by the authoꝛity of this pꝛeſent Parliament, that the ſaid Searchers oꝛ Sealers, and euery one of them, ſhall haue full power and authoꝛity by vertue of this Act, in the day tune to enter into all and euery houſe and houſes of euery perſon oꝛ perſons, where he oꝛ they ſhall thinke meet ſo ſearch, and to try all and euery kind of clothes, Kerſies, Friſes, and Rugs, as they ſhall finde defectiue, either in length, bꝛedth, oꝛ weight, and the ſame ſo try by water and weight, and alſo to ſearch and ſeiſe as foꝛfeit all and euery cloth and clothes made of other colours, than in the ſaid foꝛmer Act is appointed, Friers gray, Crane colour, purple, and old medley colours, moſt commonly vſed to be made befoꝛe twenty yeeres laſt paſt, only excepted.

The penalty foꝛ denying of ſearching oꝛ ſealing.

And if any manner of perſon oꝛ perſons, at any time after the firſt day of May next comming, ſhall deny, withſtand, oꝛ withhold any cloth oꝛ clothes, kerſies, friſes, rugs, oꝛ any of them from the ſaid Sealers oꝛ Searchers, oꝛ any of them, oꝛ will not ſuffer them to enter into their ſhops, warehouſes, houſes oꝛ places where their clothes, Kerſies, Friſes, oꝛ Rugs ſhall be, the ſame to be ſearched and tried as is afoꝛeſaid, that then euery ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons ſo denying oꝛ withſtanding, foꝛ euery ſuch withſtanding, withholding oꝛ deniall, to foꝛfeit and loſe ten pounds.

No ſearching in common Markets oꝛ Faires.

Be it likewiſe further enacted, that it ſhall not be lawfull foꝛ any of the ſaid Searchers, oꝛ Sealers, oꝛ any other perſon, to ſearch any manner of woollen Cloth oꝛ Kerſie, whereunto the Seale of a City, Boꝛough, oꝛ Towne coꝛpoꝛate ſhall be fixed within the common cloth market of London, commonly called Blackewell hall, oꝛ in any common cloth Faire, oꝛ cloth Market of any other City, Boꝛough, oꝛ Towne coꝛpoꝛate, in and during the time of the Faire oꝛ Market: any Act oꝛ Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A confirmation of the Stat. of 5.& 6.Ed.6.6.

Be it further enacted, that all and euery article, clauſe, and ſentence in the ſaid foꝛmer Statute made in the fifth and ſixth yeeres of the reigne of our ſaid late Soueraigne Loꝛd, King Edward the ſixth, being not repugnant oꝛ contrary to any article, clauſe, oꝛ ſentence conteined in this pꝛeſent Act, ſhall ſtand in full foꝛce and effect.

Penalties in the foꝛmer Act altered in this.

Pꝛouided alwayes, that no perſon oꝛ perſons ſhall incur the danger, penalty, oꝛ foꝛfeiture limited and appointed foꝛ any offence in the ſaid foꝛmer Act, the which is already mittigated oꝛ otherwiſe appointed by this pꝛeſent Act.

Euery cloth marked with M.

And be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that euery Clothier ſhall cauſe euery cloth which he ſhall put to ſale, from and after the Feaſt of the Natiuity of S. Iohn Baptiſt next comming, to be marked with the letter M. crowned, wꝛought in the cloth, vpon paine to foꝛfeit xx.s. foꝛ euery cloth, being ſold oꝛ put to ſale by any ſuch Clothier after the ſaid Feaſt not marked with the ſaid letter M. as is afoꝛeſaid.

No coloured cloth ſhalbe put to ſale but theſe within named. REP.21.Iac.28.

And moꝛeouer be it enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that no perſon oꝛ perſons after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuity of S. Iohn Baptiſt ſhall ſet, oꝛ put to ſale, within the Realme of England, any coloured cloth of any other colour oꝛ colours, than are hereafter in this Act mentioned, that is to ſay, ſcarlet, red, crimſon, moꝛrey, violet, pewke, bꝛowne blew, blacke, greene, yellow, blew, oꝛinge tawny, ruſſet, marble, gray, ſad new colour, Azney, watchet, ſheeps colour, Lyon colour, motley, yꝛon gray, fryers gray, crane colour, purple, and old medley colour, moſt commonly vſed to be made aboue and befoꝛe xx. yeeres laſt paſt.

Item, whereas diuers ancient Cities, Boꝛoughes, and Townes coꝛpoꝛate within this Realme of England, haue beene in times paſt well and ſubſtantially inhabited, occupied, maintained, and vpholden as well by reaſon of making of bꝛoad woollen Clothes, and Kerſies, as alſo by diuers other artificers, inhabiting then in the ſaid townes, at which time alſo the Villages and huſband Townes flouriſhed, and huſbandꝛy and tillage was well mainteined, to the great benefit of the Realme, and all the people therein: foꝛaſmuch as diuers yeeres paſt, ſuch perſons as doe vſe the feat oꝛ myſtery of cloth making, not contented to liue as artificers, and with the trade wherein they haue beene bꝛought vp, doe daily plant themſelues in Villages and Townes, being no Cities, ties, Boroughs, nor corporate Townes, and there occupying the ſeat and place of a huſbandman, doe not only ingroſſe diuers fermes and paſtures into their hands, diſpleaſing the huſbandman, and decaying the ploughes and tillage, but alſo draw with them out of Cities, Boroughes, and Townes corporate, all ſorts of Artificers, whereby not onely diuers ancient Cities, Boroughes, and Townes corporate are vtterly decayed, deſtroyed, and depopulated, but alſo huſbandry and tillage very much decayed, to the great hurt, damage, and preiudice of this Realme, and the people therein, if ſpeedy remedy be not foreſeene. And foraſmuch alſo as the Weauers and Workemen of Clothiers when they haue beene traded vp in the trade of cloth making and weauing three or foure yeeres, doe forſake their Maſters, and doe become Clothiers and Occupiers for themſelues, without ſtocke, ſkill, or knowledge, to the great ſlander of the true cloth making, beſides a great number of inconueniences which doe grow to the common wealth of this Realme thereby, as daily experience teacheth.

None ſhal make cloth to ſell but in a City, Borough, and where it hath beene vſed to be made.

REP. 21.Iac.28.

Be it therefore ordeined and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that from and after the firſt day of May next comming, no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, ſhall vſe or exerciſe the feat or myſtery of making, weauing, or rowing of woollen cloth, long or ſhort, or Kerſies, pinned whites, or plaine ſtreits, to the intent to put the ſame to ſale, but only in a market towne where cloth hath commonly beene vſed to be made by the ſpace of ten yeeres laſt paſt, or in a City, Borough, or Towne corporate, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery ſuch woollen cloth or Kerſie, made, wouen, or rowed out of ſuch City, Borough, Towne corporat, or market Towne, v.li.

Who only may weaue cloth to be ſold.

a Coke li.6.f.19.

And it is further enacted, that from and after the firſt day of May no perſon whatſoeuer, [a]ſhal weaue or make, or put to weauing or making any woollen clothes, or kerſies laſt rehearſed to be ſold, vnleſſe ſuch perſon ſhall haue beene Apprentice to the occupation of making, weauing, and rowing of cloth, or kerſies, or haue beene exerciſed therein by the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres before, vpon paine of forfeiture of ſuch cloth, or the value thereof.

Who ſhall haue the forfeitures.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery paines, penalties, and forfeitures to be due by force of this Statute, or of the ſaid former Act, being not otherwiſe appointed, ſhall be diuided equally into two parts, whereof the one ſhall be to the Queenes Highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other vnto him that will ſeiſe (in caſes where ſeiſure is limited or appointed) or elſe to him or them that will ſue for the ſame paines, penalties, and forfeitures, or any of them, by action, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, in any Court of Record, wherein no eſſoine, protection, wager of law, or iniunction ſhall be admitted, allowed, or obeyed.

Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall be lawfull to any perſon, now vſing or exerciſing the feat or myſtery of making, weauing, or rowing of cloth or Kerſie, to inhabit and dwell where he now doth, and there to vſe the making, weauing, or rowing of cloth or Kerſie as he hath done heretofore: Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Who may make Cloth out of a market Towne.

Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euery perſon or perſons, which now doe, or hereafter ſhall inhabite or dwell in any of the Shires of Northwales, or Southwales, Cheſhire, Lancaſhire, Weſtmerland, Cumberland, Northumberland, Biſhopricke of Durham, Cornewall, Suffolke, Kent, the towne of Goddelmine in the County of Surrey, or Yorkeſhire, being not within twelue miles of the City of Yorke, or in any the Townes or villages neere adioyning to the water of Strond in the County of Glouceſter, where clothes hath beene vſually made by the ſpace of twenty yeeres laſt paſt, and hauing beene prentice to the occupation of cloth making, or exerciſed in the ſame by the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres, to ſet vp, vſe, and exerciſe the feat or myſtery of making, weauing, or rowing of cloth out of a City, Borough, or market Towne, as heretofore they might haue done, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Vſing the making of cloth at the time of the Statute.

Prouided alſo, that it ſhall be lawfull to any perſon, now vſing or exerciſing, or that hath vſed or exerciſed the feat or myſtery of cloth making, the ſame to continue, vſe, and exerciſe, although he hath not beene thereunto apprentice, or haue exerciſed the ſame by the ſpace of ſeuen yeeres, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The coloured clothes which any perſon had at the time of this Statute might be ſold.

Prouided alwayes, and be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, to ſell and put to ſale by retaile or otherwiſe, all and euery ſuch coloured cloth and clothes as he or they now haue, as freely as he or they may lawfully ſell any clothes of the colours in this preſent Act allowed to be ſold, vntill the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next enſuing. This Act or the ſaid former Statute, in any wiſe notwithſtanding. St.27.El.17.

CAP. VII.

A Tales de Circumſtantibus ſhall be granted vpon requeſt in a ſuit commenced vpon any penall Statutes.

By the ſtat. of 35.H.8.6. A Tales de circumſtantibus may be granted in any triall betweene partie and partie.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter the fourteenth day of Ianuary in the fiue and thirtieth yeere of the reigne of the noble and victorious Prince King Henry the eight, late King of England, amongſt other things it was enacted and eſtabliſhed, for the ſpeedy triall of Iſſues ioyned betweene party and party, in any of the Kings Courts of Record holden at Weſtminſter, to be tried by the verdict of twelue men, before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, or Niſi prius, that in euery writ of Habeas corpora or Diſtingas with a Niſi prius, deliuered of the Record to the Sheriffe or other Miniſter or Miniſters to whom the making of the returne ſhall appertaine, where a full Iury ſhall not appeare before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe or Niſi prius, or elſewhere after apparance of a full Iury, by challenge of any of the parties, the Iury is like to remaine vntaken for default of the Iurors, that then the ſame Iuſtices vpon requeſt made by the parties plaintife or demandant, ſhall haue authority by vertue of the ſaid Act, to command the Sheriffe or other Miniſter or Miniſters to whom the making of the ſaid returne ſhall appertaine, to name and appoint as often as need ſhall require, ſo many of ſuch other able perſons of the ſaid County, then preſent at the ſaid Aſſiſes or Niſi prius, as ſhall make vp a full Iury, which perſons ſo to be named, and empannelled by ſuch Shiriffe or other Miniſter or Miniſters, ſhalbe added to the former pannell, and their names annexed to the ſame, as by the ſaid Act more at large appeareth, which Statute was made to endure till the end of the next Parliament, and after was and is from time to time continued, and doth now remaine, ſtand, and be in effect, which Act doth not extend to any Iury empannelled, to trie and iſſue ioyned betweene the King and the party, or betweene ſuch as purſue any matter for the King and themſelues.

2.Ed.6.32.

A Tales de circumſtantibus may be granted in a ſuit commenced vpon a penall ſtatute.

Be it therefore enacted, ordeined, and eſtabliſhed by the Kings and Queenes Maieſties, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from and after the firſt day of Iune next comming, the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe and Niſi prius, before whom any triall ſhall be made, by vertue of any Writ of Habeas corpora, or Diſtingas, with a Niſi prius, where a full Iury ſhall not appeare, or after apparance of a full Iury, by challenge the Iury is like to remaine vntaken, for default of Iurors, ſhall haue authority by vertue of this act, vpon requeſt made for the King and Queene, her heires or ſucceſſors, by any authoriſed thereunto, or aſſigned by the Iuſtices of the Court before whom the ſaid enqueſt ſhall be taken, or vpon requeſt to be made by the party that followeth as well for the King and Queene, her heires and ſucceſſors, as for himſelfe vpon any penall Statute, or his or their Atturney, to command the Sheriffe, or other Miniſter or Miniſters, to whom the making of the ſaid returne ſhall appertaine, to name and appoint, as often as need ſhall require, ſo many of ſuch other able perſons of the ſaid County, then preſent at the ſaid Aſſiſes, or Niſi prius, and to adde and annexe the names to the former pannell, as ſhall make vp a full Iury of twelue men for the triall of euery ſuch Iſſue.

And that all and euery clauſe, ſentence, article, and prouiſo compriſed in the ſaid former Act, ſhall be taken, enterpreted, and expounded, to giue the like and the ſame aduantage and commodity to the Kings and Queenes Maieſties, her heires and ſucceſſors, and all ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall purſue any action, bill, plaint or information for the King and Queenes Maieſties, her heires and ſucceſſors, onely, or for them and the party, as the party plaintife in any other action ſhould or might haue by vertue of the ſaid Act, in ſuch forme and condition, to all intents and purpoſes, as if ſuch actions or ſuits for the King, had beene ſpecially and particularly mentioned and declared in the ſaid Act.

CAP. VIII.

Puniſhment of ſuch as take away Maydens, &c. within ſixteene yeeres of age, &c.

WHere Maidens and women children of Noble men, Gentlemen, and others, as well ſuch as be Heires apparant to their Anceſtors, as others, hauing left vnto them by their Father, or other Anceſtor and friends, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or other great ſubſtances in goods and cattels moueable, for, and to the intent to aduance them in marriage, ſomewhat like according to their degrees, and as might be moſt for their ſurety and comfort, as well for themſelues, as of all other their friends or kinſfolkes, be oftentimes vnwares to their ſaid friends or kinſfolkes by flattery, trifeling gifts, and faire promiſes of many vnthriftie and light perſonages, and thereto by the intreatie of perſons of lewd demeanour and others that for rewardes buy and ſell the ſaid maidens and Children ſecretly allured and wonne to contract Matrimony with the ſaid vnthriſty and light perſonages, and thereupon either with ſleight or force, oftentimes be taken and conueyed away from their ſaid parents, friends, or kinſefolkes, to the high diſpleaſure of Almighty God, diſparagement of the ſaid children, and the extreame continuall heauineſſe of all their friends: which vngodly dealing, for lacke of wholeſome lawes to the redreſſe therof, remaineth a great, familiar, and common miſchiefe in this our common wealth.

None ſhall conuey away a maid vnder ſixteene yeeres of age without her parents aſſent.

For remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King and Quéenes Maieſties, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, to take or conuey away, or cauſe to be taken or conueyed away any maid or woman childe vnmaried, being within the age of ſixtéene yeares, out of, or from the poſſeſſion, cuſtody or gouernance, and againſt the will of the father of ſuch maid or woman childe, or of ſuch perſon or perſons to whom the father of ſuch maide or woman childe, by his laſt Will and Teſtament, or by any other Act in his life time hath, or ſhall appoint, aſſigne, bequeath, giue or grant the order, keeping, education, or gouernance of ſuch maide or woman childe, except ſuch taking and conueying away, as ſhall be had, made or done, by or for ſuch perſon or perſons, as without fraude or couin, be or then ſhall be the maſter or miſtreſſe of ſuch maid or woman childe, or the gardein in ſoccage, or gardein in chiualry, of or to ſuch maid or woman childe.

The penalty for taking a maide vnder xvi. yeeres of age.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons aboue the age of fourtéene yéeres, ſhall from and after the firſt day of Aprill next comming, vnlawfully take or conuey, or cauſe to be taken or conueyed any maid or woman childe vnmaried being within the age of ſixtéene yéeres, out of, or from the poſſeſſion, and againſt the will of the father or mother of ſuch childe, or out, or from the poſſeſſion, and againſt the will of ſuch perſon or perſons, as then ſhall happen to haue by any lawfull waies or meanes, the order, kéeping, education, or gouernance of any ſuch maiden or woman childe, that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons (ſo offending) being thereof lawfully attainted and conuicted by the order and due courſe of the Lawes of this Realme (other than ſuch of whom ſuch perſon taken away ſhall hold any Landes or Tenements by Knights ſeruice) ſhall haue and ſuffer impriſonment of his and their bodies by the ſpace of two whole yéeres without baile or maineprize, or els ſhall pay ſuch fine for his or their ſaid offence, as ſhall be aſſeſſed by the Councell of the Quéenes Highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors in the Starre Chamber at Weſtminſter.

The penalty for taking away, deflowring, or contracting Matrimony with a woman vnder xvi yeeres of age.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons after the ſaid day, ſhall ſo take away, or cauſe to be taken away, as is aforeſaid, and deflower any ſuch maid or woman childe, as is aforeſaid, or ſhall againſt the will, or vnknowing of, or to the father of any ſuch maid or woman childe, if the father be in life, or againſt the will or vnknowing of, or to the mother of any ſuch maid or woman child (hauing the cuſtody or gouernance of ſuch child, if the father be dead) by ſecret letters, meſſages, or other wiſe, contract matrimony with any ſuch maiden or woman childe, except ſuch contracts of matrimony as ſhall be made by the conſent of ſuch perſon or perſons as by the title of Wardſhip ſhall then haue, or be intituled to haue the mariage of ſuch maid or woman childe, that then euery ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending, being thereof lawfully conuicted, as is aforeſaid, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of his or their bodies by the ſpace of fiue yéeres, without baile or maineprize, or elſe ſhall pay ſuch fine for his or their ſaid offence as ſhall be aſſeſſed by the ſaid Councell in the ſaid Starre Chamber. The one moity of all which fines ſhall be to the King and Quéenes Maieſties, her heires and ſucceſſors, the other moitie to the parties grieued.

Who may heare and determine the offences aforeſayd.

And be it further enacted by the ſaid authority, that the King and Quéenes Highneſſe honorable Councell of the Starre Chamber by bill of complaint or information, and Iuſtices of Aſſiſe by inquiſition or indictment, ſhall haue authority by vertue of this Act, to heare and determine the ſaid offences, vpon euery which indictment and inquiſitions ſuch proceſſe ſhalbe awarded and lie, as vpon an indictment of treſpaſſe at the Common law.

The forfeiture of a woman conſenting to an vnlawfull contract.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any woman childe or mayden, being aboue the age of twelue yéeres, and vnder the age of ſixtéene yéeres, doe at any time conſent or agrée to ſuch perſon that ſo ſhall make any contract of matrimony, contrary to the forme and effect of this Statute, that then the next of the kin of the ſame woman childe, or maid, to whom the inheritance ſhould deſcend, returne, or come after the deceaſe of the ſame woman child and maid, ſhall from the time of ſuch aſſent and agréement, haue, hold, and enioy all ſuch lands, tenements, and hereditaments, as the ſame woman child and maiden had in poſſeſſion, reuerſion or remainder, at the time of ſuch aſſent and agréement, during the life of ſuch perſon that ſhall ſo contract matrimony. And after the deceaſe of ſuch perſon ſo contracting matrimony, that then the ſaid lands, tenements, and hereditaments, ſhall deſcend, reuert, remaine and come to ſuch perſon or perſons as they ſhould haue done in caſe this Act had neuer bin had ne made, other then to him onely that ſo ſhall contract matrimony.

Order for Orphanes.

Provided alwaies, and bée it enacted, that this Act nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to take away or diminiſh any Liberty, Cuſtome, or Authority touching or concerning any Orphane, or Orphanes, which now bée or hereafter ſhall bée, within the Citie of London, or any other Citie, Borough or Towne where Orphanes are commonly vſed to bée provided for, eyther by Grant, or by Cuſtome, but that the Lord Maior of the ſaid Citie of London, and the Aldermen of the ſame for the time being, and all and every other head Officer or Officers of any other Citie, Borough, or Towne, where ſuch Orphanes be provided for, ſhall and may have and take like rule, order, kéeping and charge of ſuch Orphane and Orphanes, and of all their Lands, Tenements, goods, and Cattells, as heretofore they, or any of them lawfully had or vſed, or lawfully might have had and vſed, if this Act had not béene made.

CAP. I

All ancient Iuriſdictions reſtored to the Crowne. A repeale of diuers ſtatutes and reuiuor of others, and all Forraine power aboliſhed

MOſt humbly beſeech your moſt excellent Maieſty, your faithfull and obedient Subiects, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this your preſent Parliament aſſembled, that where in time of the reigne of your moſt dear father of worthy memory K. Henry the eighth, diuers good Lawes and Statutes were made and eſtabliſhed, as well for the vtter extinguiſhment and putting away of all vſurped and forraine powers and authorities out of this your Realme, and other your Highneſs Dominions and Countries, as alſo for the reſtoring and vniting to the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, the ancient iuriſdictions, authorities, ſuperiorities, and preheminencies to the ſame of right belonging and appertaining, by reaſon whereof, we your moſt humble and obedient Subiects, from the fiue and twentieth yéere of the reigne of your ſaid deare father, were continually kept in good order, and were diſburdened of diuers great and intolerable charges and exactions, before that time vnlawfully taken, and exacted by ſuch forrain power and authority as before that was vſurped, vntil ſuch time as all the ſaid good Lawes and Statutes, by one Act of Parliament made in the firſt and ſecond yéeres of the reignes of the late K. Philip and Q. Mary, your Highneſſe ſiſter, intituled, An Act repealing all Statutes, Articles, and prouiſions made againſt the See Apoſtolike of Rome, ſince the twentieth yéere of King Henry the eighth, and alſo for the eſtabliſhment of all Spirituall and Eccleſiaſticall poſſeſſions and hereditaments conueyed to the Laity, were all cléerely repealed and made voyd, as by the ſame Act of repeale more at large doth and may appeare. By reaſon of which Act of repeale, your ſaid humble Subiects were eftſoones, brought vnder an vſurped forraine power and authority, and yet doe remaine in that bondage, to the intolerable charges of your louing Subiects, if ſome redreſſe (by authority of this your High Court of Parliament, with the aſſent of your Highneſſe) be not had and prouided.

Great exactions were taken by forrain power before the xxv. yeare of K. H. 8 of the inhabitants of this Realme.

1. & 2. P. & M. 8.

May it therefore pleaſe your Highneſſe, for the repreſſing of the ſaid vſurped forraine power, and the reſtoring of the Rites, iuriſdictions and preheminencies appertaining to the Imperiall Crowne of this your Realme, that it may be enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That the ſaid Act made in the ſaid firſt and ſecond yéeres of the reignes of the ſaid late King Philip and Quéene Mary, and all and euery branches, clauſes and articles therein contained (other than ſuch branches, clauſes, and ſentences, as hereafter ſhall bée excepted) may from the laſt day of this Seſſion of Parliament, by authority of this preſent Parliament, be repealed, and ſhall from thenceforth be vtterly void and of none effect.

A repeale of the Stat. of the 1, & 2. P. & M. 8.

A reuiuer of the Statutes hereafter ſpecified, viz.

And that alſo for the reuiuing of diuers of the ſaid good lawes and ſtatutes made in the time of your ſaid deare Father, it may alſo pleaſe your Highneſſe. That one Act and Statute made in the thrée and twentieth yeare of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, intituled, An Act that no perſon ſhall be cited out of the Dioces where he or ſhée dwelleth, except in certaine caſes. 23.H.8.9.

24.H.8.12. And one other Act made in the foure and twentieth yéere of the reign of the ſayd late King, intituled, An Act that appeales in ſuch caſes as hath béen vſed to be purſued to the Sée of Rome, ſhal not be from henceforth had ne vſed, but within this Realme.

25.H.8.not printed. And one other Act made the fiue and twentieth yéere of the ſaid late King concerning reſtraint of payment of Annates, and firſt Fruits, of Archbiſhopricks and Biſhopricks to the Sée of Rome.

25.H.8.19. And one other Act in the ſayd fiue and twentieth yéere, intituled, An Act concerning the ſubmiſſion of the Clergie to the Kings Maieſty.

And alſo one Act made in the fiue and twentieth yéere, intituled, An Act reſtraining the payment of Annates, or firſt Fruites to the Biſhop of Rome, and of the electing and conſecrating of Archbiſhops and Biſhops, within this Realme.

25.H.8.21. And one other Act made in the ſayd fiue and twentieth yéere, intituled, An Act concerning the exoneration of the Kings ſubiects from exactions & impoſitions heretofore payd to ẏ See of Rome, and for hauing licences and diſpenſations within this Realm without ſuing further for the ſame.

And one other Act made in the ſix and twentieth yéere of the ſaid late King, intituled, An Act for nomination and conſecration of Suffragans within this Realme. 26.H.8.14.

28.H.8.16. And alſo one other Act made in the eight and twentieth yéere of the reign of the ſaid late King, intituled, An Act for the releaſe of ſuch as haue obteined pretended licences & diſpenſations from the See of Rome, and all and euery branches, words, and ſentences in the ſaid ſeuerall Acts and ſtatutes contained by authority of this preſent Parliament, from and at all times after the laſt day of this Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be reuiued, and ſhall ſtand & be in full force and ſtrength, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes. And that the branches, ſentences, and words of the ſaid ſeuerall Acts, and euery of them, from thenceforth ſhall and may be iudged, déemed, and taken to extend to your Highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, as fully and largely as euer the ſame Acts or any of them did extend to the ſaid late King Henry the eight, your Highneſſe Father.

The ſentences and branches in the foreſaid Statutes ſhall extend to the Queene.

And that it may alſo pleaſe your Highnes, that it may be enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that ſo much of one Act or Statute made in the two and thirtieth yéere of the reigne of your ſaid deare father King Henry the eight, intituled, An Act concerning precontracts of mariages, and touching degrées of conſanguinity, as in the time of the late King Edward the ſixt, your Highneſſe moſt deare brother, by one other Act or ſtatute was not repealed. 32.H.8.38. 2.Ed 6.23.

37.H.8.17. And alſo one Act made in the ſeuen and thirtieth yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, intituled, An Act that Doctors of the Ciuill law being maried, may exerciſe Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction, and all and euery branches, and articles in the ſaid two Acts, laſt mentioned, and not repealed in the time of the ſaid late King Edward the ſixt, may from henceforth likewiſe ſtand and be reuiued, and remaine in their full force and ſtrength, to all intents and purpoſes: any thing contained in the ſaid Act of repeale before mentioned, or any other matter or cauſe to the contrary notwithſtanding.

What Stat. repealed by the ſtat of 1.& 2.P.& M.8. ſhall continue repealed.

And that it may alſo pleaſe your Highneſſe, that it may be further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all other Lawes and Statutes, and the branches and clauſes of any Act or Statute repealed, and made voyd by the ſaid Act of repeale, made in the time of the ſaid late King Philip and Quéen Mary, and not in this preſent Act ſpecially mentioned and reuiued, ſhall ſtand, remain, and be repealed, and voyd, in ſuch like manner and forme, as they were before the making of this Act: any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A reuiuer of the Statute of 1.Ed.6.1.

And that it may alſo pleaſe your Highneſſe, that it may be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that one Act and Statute made in the firſt yéere of the reigne of the late King Edward the ſixt your Maieſties moſt deare Brother, intituled, An Act againſt ſuch perſons as ſhall vnreuerently ſpeake againſt the Sacrament of the body and bloud of Chriſt, commonly called the Sacrament of the Altar, and for the receiuing thereof vnder both kinds, and all and euery branches, clauſes, and ſentences therein contained, ſhall and may likewiſe from the laſt day of this Seſſion of Parliament, bée reuiued, and from thenceforth ſhall and may ſtand, remaine, and bee in full force, ſtrength, and effect, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, in ſuch like manner and forme, as the ſame was at any time in the firſt yéere of the reigne of the ſaid late King Edward the ſixt, any Law, Statute, or other matter to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A repeale of the Statute of 1.& 2.P.& M.6. 5.R.2.5. 2.H.4.15. 2.H.5.7.

And that alſo it may pleaſe your Highneſſe, that it may be further eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that one Act and Statute made in the firſt and ſecond yeares of the late King Philip and Quéene Mary, intituled, An Act for the reuiuing of thrée Statutes, made for the puniſhment of hereſies, and alſo the ſaid thrée Statutes mentioned in the ſaid Act, and by the ſame Act reuiued, and all and euery branches, articles, clauſes and ſentences, conteined in the ſaid ſeuerall Acts and Statutes, and euery of them, ſhal be from the laſt day of this Seſſion of Parliament, déemed and remaine vtterly repealed, voyd and of none effect, to all intents and purpoſes: any thing in the ſaid ſeuerall Acts, or any of them contained, or any other matter or cauſe to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And to the intent that all vſurped and forraine power and authority, Spirituall and Temporall, may for euer be cléerely extinguiſhed, and neuer to be vſed or obeyed within this Realme, or any other your Maieſties Dominions, or Countries: may it pleaſe your Highnes, that it may be further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no forraine Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State or Potentate, Spirituall or Temporall ſhall at any time after the laſt day of this Seſſion of Parliament, vſe, enioy or exerciſe, any manner of power, iuriſdiction, ſuperiority, authority, preheminence, or priuiledge, Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall within this Realme, or within any other your Maieſties Dominions or Countries that now bee, or hereafter ſhall bée, but from thenceforth the ſame ſhall bée cléerely aboliſhed out of this Realme, and all other your Highneſſe Dominions for euer: any ſtatute, ordinance, cuſtome, conſtitutions, or any other matter or cauſe whatſoeuer to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The aboliſhing of forraine authority.

And that alſo it may likewiſe pleaſe your Highneſſe, that it may be eſtabliſhed and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that ſuch iuriſdictions, priuiledges, ſuperiorities, and preheminencies Spirituall and Eccleſiaſticall, as by any Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall power or authority, hath heretofore bin, or may lawfully be exerciſed or vſed, for the viſitation of the Eccleſiaſtical ſtate & perſons, and for reformation, order, and correction of the ſame, and of all manner errors, hereſies, ſchiſmes, abuſes, offences, contempts, and enormities, ſhall for euer, by authoritie of this preſent Parliament, be vnited and annexed to the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme.

Cok. pla. fo. 463, 487.

And that your Highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, Kings or Queenes of this Realme, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, by Letters Patents vnder the great Seale of England, to aſſigne, name, & authorize, when and as often as your Highnes, your heires or ſucceſſors ſhall thinke méete and conuenient, and for ſuch and ſo long time as ſhall pleaſe your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, ſuch perſon or perſons being naturall borne Subiects to your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, as your Maieſty, your heires or ſucceſſors ſhall think méet, to exerciſe, vſe, occupie, and execute, vnder your Highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, all manner of iuriſdictions, priuiledges, and preheminencies, in any wiſe touching or concerning any Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction within theſe your Realmes of England and Ireland, or any other your Highneſſe Dominions and Countries, And to viſit, reforme, redreſſe, order, correct, and amend all ſuch errors, hereſies, ſchiſmes, abuſes, offences, contempts, and enormities whatſoeuer, which by any manner Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall power, authority or iuriſdiction, can or may lawfully be reformed, ordered, redreſſed, corrected, reſtrained or amended, to the pleaſure of Almighty God, the increaſe of vertue, and the conſeruation of the peace and vnity of this Realme: and that ſuch perſon or perſons ſo to be named, aſſigned, authorized and appointed by your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, after the ſaid Letters Patents to him or them made and deliuered, as is aforeſaid, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, and of the ſaid Letters Patents, vnder your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, to exerciſe, vſe, and execute all the premiſes, according to the tenour and effect of the ſaid Letters Patents: any matter or cauſe to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction annexed to the Crowne.

The Queene may aſſigne Commiſſioners to exerciſe Eccleſiaſticall iuriſdiction.

And for the better obſeruation and maintenance of this Act, may it pleaſe your Highneſſe that it may be further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Archbiſhop, Biſhop, and all and euery other Eccleſiaſticall perſon, and other Eccleſiaſticall officer and miniſter, of what eſtate, dignity, preheminence, or degrée ſoeuer he or they be, or ſhall be, and all and euery Temporall Iudge, Iuſticer, Maior, and other Lay or Temporall officer and miniſter, and euery other perſon hauing your Highneſſe fées or wages, within this Realme, or any your Highneſſe Dominions, ſhall make, take, and receiue a corporall oath vpon the Euangeliſt, before ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall pleaſe your Highneſ, your heires or ſucceſſors, vnder the great Seale of England, to aſſigne and name, to accept and take the ſame according to the tenour and effect hereafter following: that is to ſay,

Who are compellable to take the oath. Eccleſiaſticall perſons and officers. Iudge. Iuſtice. Maior. Temporall officer. Hee that hath the Qu. fee.

I A.B. do vtterly teſtifie and declare in my conſcience, that the Queenes Highneſſe is the only Supreme Gouernour of this Realme, and of all other her Highneſſe Dominious and Countries, aſwell in all Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical things or cauſes, as Temporall, and that no forrain Prince, Perſon, Prelate, State or Potentate, hath or ought to haue any iuriſdiction, power, ſuperiority, preheminẽce, or authority, Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual within this Realme, and therefore I do vtterly renounce and forſake all forraine iuriſdictions, powers, ſuperiorities, and authorities, and do promiſe that from henceforth I ſhall beare faith & true allegiance to the Queens Highneſſe, her heires and lawfull ſucceſſors, and to my power ſhall aſſiſt and defend all iuriſdictions, priuiledges, preheminences, and authorities, granted or belonging to the Queenes Highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors, or vnited and annexed to the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, ſo help me God, and by the contents of this Booke.

The oath for the Qu. ſupremacy.

5. El. 1.

The penaltie for refuſing the oath.

And that it may be alſo enacted, that if any ſuch Archbiſhop, Biſhop, or other Eccleſiaſticall Officer or Miniſter, or any of the ſaid Temporall Iudges, Iuſticiaries, or other Lay Officer or Miniſter ſhall peremptorily or obſtinately refuſe to take or receiue the ſaid oath, that then he ſo refuſing, ſhall forfeit and loſe onely during his life, all and euery Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall promotion, Benefice and Office, and euery Temporall and Lay promotion and Office, which hee hath ſolely at the time of ſuch refuſall made : and that the whole title, intereſt, and Incumbency, in euery ſuch promotion, Benefice and other office, as againſt ſuch perſon onely ſo refuſing, during his life, ſhall cleerely ceaſe and bee voyde, as though the party ſo refuſing were dead.

And that alſo all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, ſo refuſing to take the ſaid oath, ſhall immediatly after ſuch refuſall, be from thenceforth during his life, diſabled to retaine or exerciſe any Office, or other promotion, which he at the time of ſuch refuſall hath ioyntly, or in common with any other perſon or perſons.

And that all and euery perſon and perſons, that at any time hereafter ſhall bée preferred, promoted or collated to any Archbiſhoprick or Biſhoprick, or to any other Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall Benefice, promotion, dignity, or Office, or Miniſtery, or that ſhall bée by your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, preferred or promoted to any Temporall or Lay Office, Miniſtery or ſeruice within this Realme, or in any your Highneſſe Dominions, before he or they ſhall take vpon him or them to receiue, vſe, exerciſe, ſupply, or occupy any ſuch Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, promotion, dignity, Office, Miniſtery or ſeruice, ſhall likewiſe make, take and receiue the ſaid corporall oath before mentioned, vpon the Euangeliſt, before ſuch perſons as haue or ſhall haue authority to admit any ſuch perſon to any ſuch Office, Miniſtery or ſeruice, or elſe before ſuch perſon or perſons, as by your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, by commiſſion vnder the great Seale of England, ſhall be named, aſſigned, or appointed to miniſter the ſaid oath.

And that it may likewiſe be further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any ſuch perſon or perſons, as at any time hereafter ſhall be promoted, preferred, or collated to any ſuch promotion Spirituall, or Eccleſiaſticall Benefice, Office or Miniſtery, or that by your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall be promoted or preferred to any Temporall or Lay Office, Miniſtery or ſeruice, ſhall and do peremptorily and obſtinatly refuſe to take the ſame oath ſo to him to be offered, that then he or they ſo refuſing, ſhall preſently be iudged diſabled in the law, to receiue, take or haue the ſame promotion Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall, or the ſame Temporall Office, Miniſtery or ſeruice within this Realme, or any other your Highneſſe Dominions, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes.

He that ſueth Liuery, or Ouſtre le maine.

He that doth homage to the Queene.

He that ſhall be receiued into the Queenes ſeruice.

And that it may be further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery perſon and perſons Temporall, ſuing Liuery, or Ouſtre le maine, out of the hands of your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, before his or their Liuery, or ouſtre le maine, ſued forth and allowed: and euery Temporall perſon or perſons doing any homage to your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, or that ſhall be receiued into ſeruice with your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall make, take and receiue the ſaid corporall oath before mentioned, before the Lord Chancellor of England, or the Lord Keeper of the great Seale for the time being, or before ſuch perſon or perſons, as by your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors ſhall be named and appointed to accept or receiue the ſame.

He that taketh Orders.

He that taketh degrees in any Vniuerſity.

And that alſo all and euery perſon and perſons taking Orders, and all and euery other perſon and perſons which ſhall be promoted or preferred to any degrée of learning, in any Vniuerſity within this your Realme or Dominions, before hée ſhall receiue or take any ſuch Orders, or bée preferred to any ſuch degrée of learning, ſhall make, take, and receiue the ſaid oath by this Act ſet forth and declared, as is aforeſaid, before his or their Ordinary, Commiſſary, Chancellor or Vice Chancellor, or their ſufficient Deputies in the ſaid Vniuerſity.

He that hath eſtate of inheritance in a Temporall Office, firſt refuſeth, and then taketh the oath.

Prouided alwaies, and that it may bée further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon hauing any eſtate of inheritance, in any Temporall Office or Offices, ſhall hereafter obſtinately and peremptorily refuſe to accept and take the ſaid oath, as is aforeſaid, and after at any time during his life ſhall willingly require to take and receiue the ſaid oath, and ſo doe take and accept the ſame oath before any perſon or perſons, that ſhall haue lawfull authority to miniſter the ſame: that then euery ſuch perſon immediately after he hath ſo receiued the ſame oath, ſhall be veſted, iudged and déemed in like eſtate and poſſeſſion of the ſaid Office, as he was before the ſaid refuſall, and ſhall and may vſe and exerciſe the ſaid Office, in ſuch manner and forme as hée ſhould or might haue done before ſuch refuſall: any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And for the more ſure obſeruation of this Act, and the vtter extinguiſhment of all forraine and vſurped power and authority, may it pleaſe your Highneſſe, that it may bee further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons, dwelling or inhabiting within this your Realme, or in any other your Highneſſe Realmes, or Dominons, of what Eſtate, Dignitie or degree ſoeuer hee or they bee, after the end of thirty dayes next after the determination of this Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, ſhall by writing, printing, teaching, preaching, expreſſe words, deede, or Act, aduiſedly, malitiouſly, and directly affirme, hold, ſtand with, ſet forth, maintaine or defend the authority, preeminence, power or iuriſdiction Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall, of any forrein Prince, Prelate, Perſon, State or Potentate whatſoeuer, heretofore claimed, vſed or vſurped within this Realme, or any Dominion or Countrey, being within or vnder the power, Dominion or obeyſance of your Highneſſe; or ſhall aduiſedly, malitiouſly and directly put in vre, or execute any thing for the extolling, aduancement, ſetting forth, maintenance or defence of any ſuch pretended or vſurped iuriſdiction, power, preeminence or authoritie, or any part thereof: that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons, ſo doing and offending, their abbettours, aydours, procurers and counſailours, being thereof lawfully conuicted and attainted, according to the true order and courſe of the Common lawes of this Realme, for his or their firſt offence, ſhall forfeit and loſe vnto your Highneſſe, your heires and ſucceſſors, all his and their goods and cattels, as well reall as perſonall.

The penalty of the maintenance of forrein authoritie.

And if any ſuch perſon ſo conuicted or attainted, ſhall not haue, or be worth of his proper goods and cattels to the value of twenty pound, at the time of ſuch his conuiction or attainder: that then euery ſuch perſon ſo conuicted and attainted, ouer and beſides the forfeiture of all his ſaid goods and cattels, ſhall haue and ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole yeere, without bayle or mainepriſe.

The forfeiture for the firſt offence.

And that alſo all and euery the Benefices, Prebends and other Eccleſiaſticall promotions and dignities whatſoeuer, of euery Spirituall perſon ſo offending, and being attainted, ſhall immediatly after ſuch attaindour be vtterly void to all intents and purpoſes, as though the Incumbent thereof were dead: and that the Patron and Donour of euery ſuch Benefice, Prebend, Spirituall promotion and dignity, ſhall and may lawfully preſent vnto the ſame, or giue the ſame, in ſuch maner and forme, as if the ſaid Incumbent were dead. And if any ſuch offender or offenders, after ſuch conuiction or attainder, doe eftſoones commit or doe the ſaid offences, or any of them, in manner and forme aforeſaid, and be thereof duely conuicted and attainted, as is aforeſaid: that then euery ſuch offender and offenders, ſhall for the ſame ſecond offence, incurre into the dangers, penalties and forfeitures, ordained & prouided by the ſtatute of Prouiſion, and Premunire, made in the ſixteenth yeere of the reigne of King Richard the ſecond.

Forfeiture for the ſecond offence.

And if any ſuch offender or offenders, at any time after the ſaid ſecond conuiction and attainder, doe the third time commit and doe the ſaid offences, or any of them, in manner and forme aforeſaid, and bee thereof duely conuicted and attainted as is aforeſaid: that then euery ſuch offence or offences, ſhall be deemed and adiudged high treaſon, and that the offender and offenders therein, being thereof lawfully conuicted and attainted, according to the Lawes of this Realme, ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and other penalties, forfeitures and loſſes, as in caſes of high treaſon by the Lawes of this Realme.

The penalty of the third offence.

And alſo that it may likewiſe pleaſe your Highneſſe, that it may be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no manner of perſon or perſons, ſhall be moleſted or impeached for any the offences aforeſaid, committed or perpetrated onely by preaching, teaching or words, vnleſſe he or they bee thereof lawfully indicted, within the ſpace of one whole yeere next after his or their offences ſo committed. And in caſe any perſon or perſons, ſhall fortune to be impriſoned for any of the ſaid offences committed by preaching, teaching or words only, and bee not thereof indicted within the ſpace of one halfe yeere, next after his or their ſuch offence ſo committed and done: that then the ſaid perſon ſo impriſoned, ſhall bee ſet at liberty, and bee no longer detained in priſon for any ſuch cauſe or offence.

Within what time an offender ſhall be impeached.

Prouided alwaies, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to repeale any clauſe, matter or ſentence contained or ſpecified in the ſaid Act of Repeale, made in the ſaid firſt and ſecond yeeres of the reignes of the ſaid late King Philip and Queene Mary, as doth in any wiſe touch or concerne any matter or cauſe of Premunire, or that doth make or ordaine any matter or cauſe to bee within the caſe of Premunire, but that the ſame for ſo much onely as toucheth or concerneth any caſe or matter of Premunire, ſhall ſtand and remaine in ſuch force and effect, as the ſame was before the making of this Act: any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

All things touching the Premunire in the ſtatute 1. & 2. P. & M. 8. do continue in force.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend, or be preiudiciall to any perſon or perſons for any offence or offences committed or done, or hereafter to be committed or done, contrary to the tenor and effect of any Act or Statute now reuiued by this Act, before the end of thirty dayes next after the end of the Seſſion of this preſent Parliament: any thing in this Act contained, or any other matter or cauſe to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

Offences committed againſt Statutes reuiued.

And if it happen that any Peere of this Realme, ſhall fortune to be indicted of, and for any offence that is reuiued or made Premunire, or treaſon by this Act, that then hee ſo being indicted, ſhall haue his triall by his Peeres, in ſuch like manner and forme as in other caſes of treaſon hath beene vſed.

Triall of Peeres.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted as is aforeſaid, that no maner of order, Act or determination for

No matter of Religion, &c. made by this Parliament ſhall be adiudged error, hereſy or ſchiſme.

for any matter of Religion or cauſe Eccleſiaſticall, had or made by the authority of this preſent Parliament, ſhall be accepted, déemed, interpreted or adiudged at any time hereafter, to be any errour, hereſie, ſchiſme or ſchiſmaticall opinion: any order, decrée, ſentence, conſtitution or law, whatſoeuer the ſame bée to the contrary notwithſtanding.

What things the Commiſſioners may adiudge to bee hereſie.

The Scripture. Foure generall Councels.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that ſuch perſon or perſons to whom your Highneſſe, your heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall hereafter by Letters Patents, vnder the great Seale of England, giue authority to haue or execute any iuriſdiction, power or authority Spirituall, or to viſite, reforme, order or correct any errours, hereſies, ſchiſmes, abuſes or enormities by vertue of this act, ſhall not in any wiſe haue authority or power to order, determine or adiudge any matter or cauſe to be hereſie, but only ſuch as heretofore haue been determined, ordered or adiudged to be hereſie, by the authority of the Canonicall Scriptures, or by the firſt foure generall Councels, or any of them, or by any other generall Councel, wherein the ſame was declared hereſie, by the expreſſe and plaine words of the ſaid Canonicall Scriptures, or ſuch as hereafter ſhall be ordered, iudged or determined to be hereſie, by the high Court of Parliament of this Realme, with the aſſent of the Clergie in their Conuocation: Any thing in this Act conteined to the contrary notwithſtanding.

None ſhall be indicted or arraigned but by witneſſes.

And bée it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, ſhall be hereafter indicted or arraigned for any of the offences made, ordained, reuiued or adiudged by this Act, vnleſſe there be two ſufficient witneſſes or more, to teſtifie and declare the ſaid offences, whereof he ſhall be indicted or arraigned. And that the ſaid witneſſes, or ſo many of them as ſhall be liuing and within this Realme at the time of arraignement of ſuch perſon ſo indicted, ſhall be brought forth in perſon face to face, before the party ſo arraigned, and there ſhall teſtifie and declare what they can ſay againſt the party ſo arraigned, if he require the ſame.

A Prouiſo for them that giue reliefe to offendors.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, ſhall hereafter happen to giue any releefe, ayd or comfort, or in any wiſe be ayding, helping or comforting to the perſon or perſons of any that ſhall hereafter happen to be an offendor in any matter or caſe of Premunire or treaſon, reuiued or made by this Act: that then ſuch reliefe, ayd or comfort giuen, ſhall not be iudged or taken to be any offence, vnleſſe there be two ſufficient witneſſes at the leaſt, that can and will openly teſtifie and declare, that the perſon or perſons that ſo giue ſuch reliefe, ayd or comfort, had notice and knowledge of ſuch offence committed and done by the ſaid offendour, at the time of ſuch reliefe, ayd or comfort ſo to him giuen or miniſtred: any thing in this Act contained or any other matter or cauſe to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And where one pretenced ſentence hath heretofore béene giuen in the Conſiſtory in Paules, before certaine Iudges, De legate, by the authority Legantine of the late Cardinall Poole, by reaſon of a forreine vſurped power and authority, againſt Richard Chetwood Eſquire, and Agnes his wife, by the name of Agnes Woodhull, at the ſuite of Charles Tyrrell Gentleman, in a cauſe of Matrimony ſolemnized betwéene the ſaid Richard and Agnes, as by the ſame pretenced ſentence more plainely doth appeare, from which ſentence the ſaid Richard and Agnes haue appealed to the Court of Rome, which appeale doth there remaine, and yet is not determined.

Chetwoods Appeale to the Court of Rome

May it therefore pleaſe your Highneſſe, that it may be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if ſentence in the ſaid appeale, ſhall happen to be giuen at the ſaid Court of Rome, for and in the behalfe of the ſaid Richard and Agnes, for the reuerſing of the ſaid pretenced ſentence, before the end of thréeſcore daies next after the end of this Seſſion of this preſent Parliament: that then the ſame ſhall be iudged and taken to be good and effectuall in the law, and ſhall, and may be vſed, pleaded, and allowed in any court or place within this Realme: any thing in this Act, or in any other Act or Statute contained to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

And if no ſentence ſhall be giuen at the court of Rome in the ſaid appeale, for the reuerſing of the ſaid pretenced ſentence, before the end of the ſaid thréeſcore daies, that then it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Richard and Agnes, and either of them, at any time hereafter to commence, take, ſue, and proſecute their ſaid appeale from the ſaid pretenced ſentence, and for the reuerſing of the ſaid pretenced ſentence within this Realme, in ſuch like manner and forme as was vſed to bée purſued, or might haue béene purſued within this Realme, at any time ſince the xxiiij. yeare of the reigne of the ſaid late King Henry the eight, vpon ſentences giuen in the court or courts of any Archbiſhop within this Realme.

And that ſuch appeale as ſo hereafter ſhall be taken or purſued by the ſaid Richard Chetwood and Agnes, or either of them, and the ſentence that herein or thereupon ſhall hereafter be giuen, ſhall be iudged to be good and effectuall in the Law, to all intents and purpoſes: any Law, Cuſtome, Vſage, Canon, Conſtitution, or any other matter or cauſe to the contrary notwithſtanding.

An appeale betweene Robert Harcourt and Anthony Fydel-

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that where there is the like appeale now depending in the ſaid Court of Rome, betweene one Robert Harcourt, Merchant of the Staple, and Elizabeth Harcourt, otherwiſe called Elizabeth Robins, of the one party, and

Anthony Fydell, Merchant ſtranger, on the other party, that the ſaid Robert, Elizabeth and Anthony, and euery of them, ſhall and may for the proſecuting and trying of their ſaid appeale, haue and enioy the like remedie, benefite and aduantage, in like manner and forme, as the ſayd Richard and Agnes, or any of them, hath, may, or ought to haue and enioy: this Act or any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. St. 23. El. 1.

CAP. II.

There ſhall be vniformity of Prayer and adminiſtration of Sacraments.

WHere at the death of our late Soueraigne Lord, King Edward the ſixt, there remained one vniforme order of common Seruice and Prayer, and of the adminiſtration of Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, which was ſet forth in one booke entituled, The Booke of Common-prayer, and adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, authorized by Act of Parliament, holden in the fift and ſixt yeeres of our ſaid late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixt, entituled, an Act for the vniformity of Common-prayer, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments: the which was repealed and taken away by Act of Parliament in the firſt yeere of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lady Queene Mary, to the great decay of the due honour of God, and diſcomfort to the profeſſors of the truth of Chriſts Religion.

St. 5. & 6. Ed. 6. 1.
St. 1. M. 2.

Bee it therefore enacted, by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſayd Eſtatute of repeale, and euery thing therein contained, onely concerning the ſayd Booke, and the Seruice, adminiſtration of the Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies, contained or appointed in or by the ſayd Booke, ſhall be voyd and of none effect, from and after the Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming: And that the ſaid Booke, with the order of Seruice, and of the adminiſtration of Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies, with the alteration and additions therein added and appointed by this Eſtatute, ſhall ſtand, and be from and after the ſaid Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt, in full force and effect, according to the tenour and effect of this Eſtatute: any thing in the aforeſaid Eſtatute of repeale to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A repeale of the Statute of 1. M. 2. and the Booke of Common Prayer ſhall be of effect.

And further bee it enacted by the Queenes Highneſſe, with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and ſinguler Miniſters in any Cathedrall or pariſh Church, or other place within this Realme of England, Wales, and the Marches of the ſame, or other the Queenes Dominions, ſhall from and after the Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, be bounden to ſay and vſe the Mattens, Euenſong, Celebration of the Lords Supper, and adminiſtration of each of the Sacraments, and all the Common and open Prayer, in ſuch order and forme as is mentioned in the ſayd Booke ſo authorized by Parliament, in the ſayd fift and ſixt yeares of the reigne of King Edward the ſixt, with one alteration or addition of certaine Leſſons, to be vſed on euery Sunday in the yeare, and the forme of the Letany altered and corrected, and two ſentences onely added in the deliuery of the Sacrament to the Communicants, and none other, or otherwiſe.

The Booke of Cōmon Prayer ſhall be vſed. 8. El 1.

The alteration of the Booke ſet forth 5. & 6. Ed. 6. 1.

And that if any manner of Parſon, Vicar, or other whatſoeuer Miniſter, that ought or ſhould ſing or ſay Common Prayer, mentioned in the ſayd Booke, or miniſter the Sacraments, from and after the Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Ioha Baptiſt next comming, refuſe to vſe the ſayd Common Prayers, or to miniſter the Sacraments in ſuch Cathedrall or Pariſh Church, or other places as hee ſhould vſe to miniſter the ſame, in ſuch order and forme as they bee mentioned and ſet forth in the ſayd Booke, or ſhall wilfully or obſtinately, ſtanding in the ſame, vſe any other Rite, Ceremony, Order, Forme, or manner of celebrating the Lords Supper, openly or priuily, or Mattens, Euenſong, adminiſtration of the Sacraments or other open Prayers than is mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid Booke (Open Prayer in and throughout this Act, is meant that Prayer which is for other to come vnto, or hear, eitherin common Churches, or priuate Chappels, or Oratories, commonly called the Seruice of the Church) or ſhall preach, declare, or ſpeake any thing in the derogation or deprauing of the ſayd Booke, or any thing therein contained, or of any part thereof, and ſhall bee thereof lawfully conuicted, according to the lawes of this Realme, by verdict of twelue men, or by his owne confeſſion, or by the notorious euidence of the fact, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the Queenes Highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors, for his firſt offence, the profit of all his Spirituall benefices or promotions, comming or ariſing in one whole yeare next after his conuiction. And alſo that the perſon ſo conuicted, ſhall for the ſame offence, ſuffer impriſonment for the ſpace of ſix months, without bayle or mainepriſe.

The forfeiture of thoſe which vſe any other ſeruice than the Booke of Common Prayer.

The penalty for deprauing the Booke of Cōmon Prayer a Dyer fol 234,235.

And it is ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, after the ſaid Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, ſhal in any Enterludes, Playes, Songs, Rymes, or by other open words, declare or ſpeak any thing in the derogation, depraving or deſpiſing of the ſame Booke, or of any thing therein contained, or any part thereof, or ſhall by open fact, deede, or by open threatnings, compell or cauſe, or otherwiſe procure or maintaine any Parſon, Vicar, or other Miniſter in any Cathedrall or Pariſh Church, or in Chappell, or in any other place, to ſing or ſay any Common or open Prayer, or to miniſter any Sacrament, otherwiſe, or in any other manner and forme than is mentioned in the ſaid Book, or that by any of the ſaid meanes ſhall vnlawfully interrupt, or let any Parſon, Vicar, or other Miniſter in any Cathedrall or Pariſh Church, Chappell, or any other place, to ſing or ſay Common and open Prayer, or to miniſter the Sacraments, or any of them, in ſuch maner and forme, as is mentioned in the ſaid Books: that then euery ſuch perſon being thereof lawfully conuicted, in forme aboueſaid, ſhall forfeit to the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, her heires and ſucceſſors, for the firſt offence, a a hundred markes.

The forfeiture of foure hundred markes for the ſecond offence.

And if any perſon or perſons being once conuict of any ſuch offence, eftſoones offend againſt any of the laſt recited offences, and ſhall in forme aforeſaid, bee thereof lawfully conuict: That then the ſame perſon ſo offending and conuict, ſhall for the ſecond offence forfeite to the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, her heires and ſucceſſors, foure hundreth markes.

The forfeiture for the third offence.

And if any perſon, after he in forme aforeſaid, ſhall haue been twice conuict of any offence concerning any of the laſt recited offences, ſhall offend the third time, and be thereof in forme aboueſaid lawfully conuict: That then euery perſon ſo offending and conuict, ſhall for his third offence forfeit to our Soueraigne Lady the Queene, all his goods and cattels, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment during his life.

The penalty if the party conuicted do not pay his forfeiture within the time limited.

And if any perſon or perſons, that for his firſt offence concerning the premiſes, ſhallbe conuict in forme aforeſaid, do not pay the ſumme to be paid by vertue of his conuiction, in ſuch maner and forme as the ſame ought to be paid, within ſixe weekes next after his conuiction: That then euery perſon ſo conuict, and ſo not paying the ſame, ſhall for the ſame firſt offence, in ſtead of the ſaid ſumme, ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of ſix moneths, without baile or mainpriſe.

And if any perſon or perſons, that for his ſecond offence concerning the premiſes, ſhalbe conuict in forme aforeſaid, doe not pay the ſaid ſumme to be payd by vertue of his conuiction and this eſtatute, in ſuch manner and forme as the ſame ought to be paid, within ſix weekes next after his ſaid ſecond conuiction: that then euery perſon ſo conuicted, and not ſo paying the ſame, ſhall for the ſame ſecond offence, in the ſtead of the ſaid ſumme, ſuffer impriſonment during twelue moneths, without baile or mainepriſe.

Euery perſon ſhall reſort to the Church vpon the holy-dayes.

The forfeiture for not comming to Church. 23. El. 1.

And that from and after the ſaid Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, all and euery perſon and perſons, inhabiting within this Realme, or any other the Queenes Maieſties Dominions, ſhall diligently and faithfully, hauing no lawfull or reſonable excuſe to be abſent, endeauour themſelues to reſort to their Pariſh Church or Chappell accuſtomed, or vpon reaſonable let thereof, to ſome vſuall place where Common Prayer and ſuch ſeruice of God ſhall be vſed, in ſuch time of let vpon euery Sunday, and other dayes ordained and vſed to bee kept as holy dayes, and then and there to abide orderly and ſoberly, during the time of the Common Prayer. Preachings, or other ſeruice of God, there to be vſed and miniſtred, vpon paine of puniſhment by the cenſures of the Church, and alſo vpon paine that euery perſon ſo offending, ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch offence twelue pence, to be leuied by the Church-wardens of the Pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be done, to the vſe of the poore of the ſame Pariſh, of the goods, lands and tenements of ſuch offendor by way of diſtreſſe.

And for due execution hereof, the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſty, the Lords Temporall, and all the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, doe in Gods name earneſtly require and charge all the Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and other Ordinaries, that they ſhall endeauour themſelues to the vttermoſt of their knowledges, that the due and true execution hereof, may be had throughout their Dioceſſe and Charges, as they will anſwere before God, for ſuch euils and plagues wherewith Almighty God may iuſtly puniſh his people for neglecting this good and wholeſome law.

And for their authority in this behalfe, be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and ſingular the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, and all other their Officers exerciſing Eccleſiaſticall Iuriſdiction, as well in place exempt, as not exempt, within their Dioceſſe, ſhall haue full power and authority by this Act, to reforme, correct and puniſh by cenſures of the Church, all and ſingular perſons which ſhall offend within any their iuriſdictions or Dioceſſe, after the ſaid Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, againſt this Act and Satute: any other Law, Statute, Priuiledge, Liberty or Prouiſion, heretofore made, had or ſuffered to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Ordinarie may puniſh offenders by the cenſures of the Church.

And it is ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that all and euery Iuſtices of Oyer and Determiner, or Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, ſhall haue full power and authority in euery of their open and generall Seſſions, to enquire, heare and determine, all and all manner of offences, that ſhall bee committed or done contrary to any article contained in this preſent Act within the limites of the Commiſſion to them directed, and to make Proceſſe for the execution of the ſame, as they may doe againſt any perſon being indicted before them of treſpaſſe, or lawfully conuicted thereof.

Which Iuſtices may puniſh theſe offences.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and euery Archbiſhop and Biſhop, ſhall or may at all time and times, at his liberty and pleaſure, ioyne and aſſociate himſelfe by vertue of this Act, to the ſayd Iuſtices of Oyer and Determiner, or to the ſaid Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, at euery of the ſaid open and generall Seſſions to be holden in any place within his Dioceſſe, for and to the enquirie, hearing and determining of the offences aforeſaid.

A Biſhop may ioyne with the Iuſtices to enquire of offenders.

Prouided alſo, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Bookes concerning the ſayd Seruices, ſhall at the coſts and charges of the Pariſhioners of euery Pariſh and Cathedrall Church, be attained and gotten before the ſaid Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next following, and that all ſuch Pariſhes and Cathedrall Churches, or other places, where the ſayd Bookes ſhall be attained and gotten before the ſayd Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt, ſhall within three weekes next after the ſayd Bookes ſo attained and gotten, vſe the ſaid ſeruice, and put the ſame in vre, according to this Act.

At whoſe charges the Bookes of Common Prayer ſhall bee gotten.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, That no perſon or perſons ſhall bee at any time hereafter impeached, or otherwiſe moleſted, of, or for any of the offences aboue mentioned, hereafter to bee committed or done contrary to this Act, vnleſſe hee or they, ſo offending bee thereof indicted, at the next generall Seſſions to be holden before any ſuch Iuſtices of Oyer and Determiner, or Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, next after any offence committed or done contrary to the tenour of this Act.

Within what time offenders ſhall be impeached.

Prouided alwaies, and bee it ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular Lords of the Parliament, for the third offence aboue mentioned, ſhall bee tryed by their Peeres.

Triall of Peeres.

Prouided alſo, and bee it ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Maior of London, and all other Mayors, Bayliffes, and other head Officers, of all and ſingular Cities, Boroughes, and Townes corporate, within this Realme, Wales, and the Marches of the ſame, to the which Iuſtices of Aſſiſe doe not commonly repaire, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, to enquire, heare, and determine the offences aboueſaid, and euery of them, yeerely within fifteen dayes after the Feaſt of Eaſter, and Saint Michael the Archangell, in like manner and forme as Iuſtices of Aſſiſe and Oyer and Determiner may doe.

Chiefe Officers of Cities and Boroughs ſhall inquire of offendors.

Prouided alwaies, and be it ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and ſingular Archbiſhops and Biſhop, and euery of their Chancellors, Commiſſaries, Archdeacons and other Ordinaries, hauing any peculiar Eccleſiaſticall Iuriſdiction, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, as well to inquire in their viſitation, Synods and elſewhere within their Iuriſdiction at any other time and place, to take accuſations and informations, of all and euery the things aboue mentioned, done, committed or perpetrated, within the limits of their Iuriſdictions and authority, and to puniſh the ſame by admonition, excommunication, ſequeſtration or depriuation, and other cenſures and proceſſe, in like forme as heretofore hath beene vſed in like caſes, by the Queenes Eccleſiaſticall lawes.

The ordinaries Iuriſdiction in theſe caſes.

Prouided alwaies, and bee it enacted, That whatſoeuer perſon offending in the premiſes, ſhall for their offences, firſt receiue puniſhment of the Ordinary, hauing a teſtimoniall thereof vnder the ſaid Ordinaries Seale, ſhal not for the ſame offence eftſoones be conuicted before the Iuſtices. And likewiſe receiuing for the ſaid firſt offence puniſhment by the Iuſtices, he ſhall not for the ſame offence eftſoones receiue puniſhment of the Ordinary: any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

None ſhall be puniſhed aboue once for one offence.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, that ſuch ornaments of the Church, and of the Miniſters

Cap. III.

The recogniſing the Queene to the Crowne.

Queen Elizabeth is and ought to be our lawfull Queene.

AS there is nothing vnder God (moſt dread Soueraign Lady) whereof wee your moſt humble, faithfull, and obedient Subiects, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, haue, may, or ought to haue more cauſe to reioyce, than in this onely, that it hath pleaſed God of his mercifull prouidence and goodneſſe, towards vs and this our Realme, not onely to prouide, but alſo to preſerue and keepe for vs, and our wealths your Royall Maieſty, our moſt rightful and lawfull Soueraigne Liege Lady, and Queene, moſt happily to reigne ouer vs, for the which we do giue and yeeld vnto hym from the bottomes of our hearts, our humble thankes, lauds, and prayſes: Euen ſo there is nothing that wee your ſaid Subiects for our parties can, may, or ought towards your Highneſſe, more firmely, entirely, and aſſuredly in the purity of our hearts thinke, or with our mouthes declare and confeſſe to bee true, Than that your Maieſty our ſaid Soueraigne Lady is, and in very deed, and of moſt mere right ought to be by the Lawes of GOD, and the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, our moſt rightfull and lawfull Soueraigne Liege, Lady, and Queene: and that your Highneſſe is rightly, and lineally, and lawfully deſcended, and come of the blood Royall of this Realme of England, in and to whoſe Princely perſon, and the heires of your body lawfully to bee begotten after you, without all doubt, ambiguity, ſcruple, or queſtion, the Imperiall and Royall eſtate, place, Crowne, and dignity of this Realme, with all Honours, Stiles, Titles, Dignities, Regalities, Iuriſdictions, and Preheminencies to the ſame now belonging and appertaining, are and ſhall be moſt fully, rightfully, really, and entirely inueſted, and incorporated, vnited, and annexed, as rightfully, and lawfully, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as the ſame were in the late King Henry the eighth, or in the late King Edward the ſixt, your highneſſe Brother, or in the late Queene Mary your Highneſſe Siſter, at any time ſince the Act of Parliament, made in the xxxv. yeere of the reigne of your ſaid moſt noble Father, King Henry the eighth, intituled, An Act concerning the eſtabliſhment of the Kings Maieſties ſucceſſion in the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme.

35. H. 8. 1.

Queene Elizabeths title to the Crowne of England, recogniſed by Parliament.

For which cauſes, wee your ſaid moſt louing, faithfull, and obedient Subiects, repreſenting the three eſtates of your Realme of England, as thereunto conſtrained by the law of GOD and man, except wee ſhould ouermuch forget our duties to your Highneſſe, and to the heires of your body lawfully begotten, can no leſſe doe, but moſt humbly beſeech your Highneſſe, that by the authority of this preſent Parliament, it may bee enacted, eſtabliſhed, and declared, That wee doe recogniſe, acknowledge, and confeſſe the ſame your eſtate, right, title, and ſucceſſion, as is aforeſaid, to be in and to your Highneſſe, and the heires of your body to bee begotten, throughoutly, and in the whole, and in euery part thereof, in ſuch manner and forme as before is mentioned, declared, or confeſſed: and thereunto moſt humbly and faithfully wee do ſubmit our ſelues, our heires and poſterities for euer.

And further doe make our moſt hearty and humble petition vnto your Highneſſe, that it may pleaſe the ſame, not onely to accept this our ſaid recognition, but alſo our faithfull promiſes, that we, according to our duties, ſhall and will ſtand to, aſſiſt and defend your royall Maieſtie, and the heires of your body to be begotten, being Kings and Queenes of this Realme, and your ſaid rights, and titles in and to the ſaid Imperiall eſtate, place, Crowne and dignity in all things thereto belonging, at all times to the vttermoſt of our poſſible powers, and therein to ſpend our bodies, lands, and goods, againſt all perſons whatſoeuer, that any thing ſhall attempt to the contrary.

And that it may be enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that as well this our declaration, confeſſion and recognition; as alſo the limitation and declaration of the ſucceſſion of the imperiall Crowne of this Realme, mentioned and contained in the ſayd act made in the ſayd fiue & thirtieth yeare of the reigne of your ſayd moſt noble Father, ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be the law of this Realme for euer.

The limitation of the Crowne, contained in the Act of 35. H. 8. ſhall be the law for euer.

And that all ſentences, iudgements, and decrees, had, made, declared, ſet forth, publiſhed, and promulged, and alſo as much of euery clauſe, article, branch, matter or thing contained and expreſſed in any act or acts of Parliament, as be in any thing repugnant, contrary, or derogatorie to this our ſayd confeſſion, declaration, and recognition: or to any part or parcell thereof, or contrary to the ſayd limitation of the ſucceſſion of the Imperiall Crowne, eſtabliſhed and made by the ſayd act, in the ſayd xxxv. yeare of the reigne of the ſayd late King Henry the eighth, (by whatſoeuer power or authority the ſame been, or haue been had or made, ſhalbe vtterly fruſtrate, void, and of none effect: and alſo ſhall and may be cancelled, defaced, and put in perpetuall obliuion at your highneſſe will and pleaſure, as if the ſame had neuer beene had, made, declared, ſet forth, publiſhed, or promulged.

Cap. IIII.

Reſtitution of Firſt fruits and Tenthes, &c. to the Crowne.

In their moſt humble wiſe beſeech your moſt excellent Maieſtie, your faithfull and humble Subiects the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons of this your Realme in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that where in the Parliament of your moſt noble Father of famous memory, King Henry the eighth, holden at Weſtminſter vpon prorogation the third day of Nouember, in the ſixe and twentieth yeare of his proſperous reigne, it was enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed by the authority of the ſame Parliament amongſt other things, that his highneſſe, his heires and ſucceſſors, Kings of this Realme, ſhould haue and enioy from time to time endure for euer, of euery perſon and perſons, which at any time after the firſt day of Ianuary then next enſuing ſhould be nominated, elected, prefected, preſented, collated, or by any other meanes appointed to haue any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, Abbacie, Moneſtery, Priorie, Colledge, Hoſpitall, Archdeaconry, Deanery, Prouoſtſhip, Prebend, Parſonage, Vicarage, Chauntry, Free Chappell, or other Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion ſpirituall, within this Realme or elſewhere within any of the Kings Dominions, of what name, nature, or quality ſoeuer they were, or to whoſe foundation patronage, or gift ſoeuer they did belong, the firſt fruits, Reuenues and profits, for one yeare of euery ſuch Archbiſhopricke, Biſhoprick, Abbacy, Monaſtery, Priory, Colledge, Hoſpitall, Archdeaconry, Deanry, Prouoſtſhip, Prebend, Parſonage, Vicarage, Chauntry, Free Chappell, or other Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion ſpirituall aforenamed, whereunto any ſuch perſon or perſons ſhould after the ſayd firſt day of Ianuary be nominated, elected, prefected, preſented, collated, or by any other meanes appointed. And that euery ſuch perſon and perſons, before any actuall or reall poſſeſſion, or medling with the profits of any ſuch Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, Abbacy, Monaſtery, Colledge, Hoſpitall, Deanerie, Prouoſtſhip, Prebend, Parſonage, Vicarage, Chauntry, Free Chappell, Priory, or other Dignity, Benefice, Office, or Promotion Spirituall, ſhould ſatiſfie, content, and pay, or compound, or agree to pay to the Kings vſe, at reaſonable dayes, vpon good ſureties, the ſayd firſt fruits and profits for one yeare.

A rehearſall of the Stat. of 26. H. 8. cap. touching firſt fruits & tenthes giuen to the King.

The firſt fruits.

And it was further enacted by authority aforeſayd, that the firſt fruits of Benefices, before that time accuſtomed to be payd to the Biſhop of Norwich within his dioceſſe, and to the Archdeacon of Richmond within his Archdeaconry, or any other perſon or perſons within this realme, or any other the Kings dominions, ſhould from the ſayd firſt day of Ianuary, ceaſe & be extinct, and no longer be payd but onely to the Kings highneſſe, his heires, and ſucceſſors, in ſuch forme, as is before mentioned.

And further it was enacted by authority aforeſayd that the Kings Maieſty, his heires and ſucceſſors, for more augmentation and maintenance of the royal eſtate of this Imperiall Crowne, ſhould yearely haue, take, enioy and receiue, vnited and knit to his imperial crowne for euer, one yearely rent or penſion, amounting to the value of the tenth part of the reuenus, rents, fermes, tithes, offerings, emoluments, and of all other profits, as well called ſpirituall as temporall, appertayning or belonging; or that from thenceforth ſhould belong to any Archbiſhopricke, Biſhopricke, Abbacy, Monaſtery, Priory, Archdeaconry, Deanery, Hoſpitall, Colledge, houſe collegiate, Prebend, Cathedrall church, Collegiate church, Couentuall church, Parſonage, Vicarage, Chauntry, Free chappell, or other Benefice or promotion Spiritual, of what name, nature, or quality ſoeuer they were within any doiceſſe of this Realme, or in Wales, the ſayd Penſion or Annuall rent to be yeerely payd for euer, to the ſayd late King, his heires and ſucceſſors, at the feaſt of the Natiuity of our Lord GOD, and the firſt payment thereof to beginne at the feaſt of the Natiuity of our Lord GOD, which ſhould bee in the yeare of our Lord God, a thouſand fiue hundred, thirtie and fiue, and to be payd yeerely by ſuch as ſhould be appointed to haue the collection thereof, before the firſt day of Aprill next following, after the ſaid feaſt of the Natiuity of our Lord God, as in the ſayd act more plainely it doth appeare.

Anno 26.H.8. 27. And where alſo one other act was made and eſtabliſhed in the ſayd Parliament, the ſayd xxvi. yeere, that no farmour of ſpirituall perſons, ſhould be compelled or charged to pay for their leaſſours firſt fruits, or yeerely penſion for the tenth granted vnto the Kings highneſſe, notwithſtanding any couenant, contract, bond, or other thing made to the contrary, as by the ſame acte more plainely appeareth.

27.H.8.cap.8. And where alſo at one other Seſſion of the ſame Parliament, holden by prorogation at Weſtminſter, in the xxvii. yeare of the reigne of your ſayd Father, one other act was made and eſtabliſhed, that the Kings ſpirituall ſubiects, ſhould be deducted and allowed of the tenth of their Spirituall promotions, for that firſt yeare for which they ſhould pay the firſt fruits, as in the ſayd acte alſo more at large appeareth.

28.H.8.11. And where alſo in one other Parliament of the ſayd late King, holden at Weſtminſter, in the xxviii. yeare of his reigne, amongſt other things it was enacted and ordained, that the yeare in which the firſt fruits of euery Benefice and Spirituall promotion ſhould be payd, ſhould begin and bee accounted immediately after the auoydance thereof. And that the tithes, commodities, reuenues, caſualties, and profits thereof (Chantries onely except) in the time of vacation, ſhould belong and afferre to the next Incumbent, towards the paiment of the firſt fruits, as by the ſame act more at large appeareth.

32.H.8.22. And where alſo in one other Parliament holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter, in the xxxii. yeare of the raigne of the ſayd late King, one act was made and eſtabliſhed, that Biſhops vpon their accounts of, & for the ſayd yearely tenth, ſhould be diſcharged by their oaths of payment of ſuch ſum or ſummes of money, of the ſayd annuall rent, or tenth, as they could not lawfully leuy: and alſo an order appointed how the King ſhould bee anſwered of the tenth of any Benefice and Spirituall promotion, omitted in the originall or former certificate of Benefices, and Spirituall promotions, made in the Exchequer, as by the ſame acte laſt mentioned more at large appeareth.

32.H.8.45. And where alſo in the ſame Seſſion of Parliament holden in the ſayd xxxii. yeare of the reigne of your highneſſe ſayd noble Father, and by authority of the ſame Parliament, one Court was erected, eſtabliſhed, and made for the better anſwering of the ſayd firſt fruits and tenths vnto the King, called the court of firſt fruits and tenthes, as in the ſame act of erection thereof more fully appeareth.

32.H.8.47. And where alſo in the ſame Seſſion and Parliament one other act was made, whereby the Biſhop of Norwiche for the time being (being before that diſcharged from the collection of the tenth within his dioceſſe) ſhould be charged and chargeable for euer, for, and with the collection of the ſame tenth within his dioceſſe, and make payment thereof, as other Biſhops ſhould or ought to doe within their dioceſſe, as by the ſame act more plainely appeareth.

34.H.8.2. And where alſo one other Parliament of the ſayd late King, holden at Weſtminſter vpon prorogation, in the xxxiiii. yeare of his reigne, one act was eſtabliſhed and made concerning Collectors and Receiuers, to make payment of their receipts within three monethes next after the ſame ſhould be due, and payd to the Kings vſe, vnder certaine penalties therein expreſſed, as by the ſame acte more at large appeareth.

34.H.8.17. And where alſo in the ſame Seſſion and Parliament it was enacted and eſtabliſhed, that the new erected Biſhops, of Cheſter, Glouceſter, Peterborough, Briſtoll, Oxford, and their ſucceſſors for euer, ſhould pay their tenthes reſerued vpon their Letters Patents or their ſeuerall erections, onely in the ſayd Court of the firſt fruits and tenthes for euer, as by the ſame act more at large appeareth.

37.H.8.21. And where alſo in the Parliament of the ſayd late King holden at Weſtminſter in the xxxvii. yeare of his reigne, one act entituled, An act for the vnion of Churches not exceeding the value of ſixe pound, was eſtabliſhed and made, wherein is contained a ſauing to the King of the firſt fruits and tenthes of all Churches and Chappels not exceeding the value of ſixe pound, that then were or from thenceforth ſhould be vnited and conſolidate in one, as in the ſame act and ſauing more largely appeareth.

2.Edw.6.10. And where alſo in the Parliament of your highneſſe deareſt Brother of worthy memory King Edward the ſixth, holden at Weſtminiſter vpon prorogation, in the ſecond yeare of his reign, one act was made, that by the certificate of the Biſhop of any dioceſſe within this Realme, or any of the dominions of the ſame, of recuſance or non payment of any tenth of any Benefice or Spirituall promotion, the Incumbent ſhould leeſe but that Benefice or promotion onely, as by the ſame act more plainely appeareth.

7.Edw.6.4. And where alſo in one other Parliament of the ſayd late King Edward, holden at Weſtminſter, in the ſeuenth yeare of his raigne, one acte was made and eſtabliſhed, declaring how and in what ſort the vnder Collectors of the tenth in euery Dioceſſe, appointed by the Biſhoppe, ſhould bee bound to diſcharge the Biſhopps of that collection, and a longer day giuen for the payment of the tenth: and how the King ſhould be anſwered of the tenth for the time of vacation of euery Benefice and Spirituall promotion, and that the Patents of the collection of tenth, ſhould be good onely during the Incumbency of the grauntors, as in the ſame act more at large is contained.

And where alſo in the ſecond Seſſion of Parliament of our late Soueraigne Lady Queene Mary, your Maieſties deareſt Siſter, holden at Weſtminſter in the firſt yeare of her raigne, one acte was made and eſtabliſhed, whereby full power an authority was giuen and appointed vnto her highneſſe, at her will and pleaſure, to alter, change, vnite, tranſport, diſſolue, or determine, as well the ſayd Court of firſt fruits and tenthes, as the Court of Augmentations of the reuenues of the Kings Crowne, and other Courts therein expreſſed, and to reduce the ſame Courts or any of them, into one, two, or more Court or Courts, or to vnite and annexe the ſayd Courts or any two or more of them, together, or to any other of her Maieſties Courts of Record, as to her it ſhould be thought moſt conuenient and beſt, for the better, ſure, and more ſpeedy anſwering of her yearely reuenues, caſualties, and profits, then anſwerable in the ſayde Courts, or any of them, as in the ſame Acte more at large is expreſſed: by vigour and authority of which Acte, the ſayd late Queene by her Graces foure ſeuerall Letters Patents, whereof two beare date the three and twentieth day of January, in the firſt yeare of her reigne, and the other two the foure and twentieth of January in the ſame yeare, did not onely diſſolue, determine, and extinguiſh the ſayd Courts, commonly called and entituled, The Court of Augmentations and reuenues of the Kings Crowne, and the Court of the firſt fruits and tenths, & the iuriſdiction and authority thereof: but alſo did vnite, tranſpoſe, and annexe the ſayd Courts of Augmentations, and reuenues of the Kings Crowne, and of the firſt fruits and tenths ſo diſſolued, to the ſayd Court of the Exchequer, there to be and continue as a member and parcell of the ſame Court of the Exchequer: & did appoint all and ſingular the reuenues, caſualties, profits, and hereditaments then anſwerable in the ſayd Courts, to the order, rule, ſuruey, and gouernance of the ſayd Court of the Exchequer, there to be anſwered & accomted for euer, in ſuch order, manner, and forme, as in the ſayd Letters Patents, and in two Scedules vnto the ſayd Letters Patents annexed, is mentioned and declared, as by the tenour and purport of the ſayd Letters Patents and Scedules, ſigned with her highneſſe hand, more plainly may appeare.

1. Marie 10.

Queene Mary diſſolued the Courts of firſt fruites & augmentations, & annexed them to the Exchequer.

By reaſon of all which ſayd premiſſes, not onely the ſayd perpetuall reuenues of the firſt fruits and tenthes, granted by the ſayd Act in the ſixe and twentieth yeare of the reigne of your highneſſe moſt noble Father, in augmentation and maintenance of the Crowne of this Realme, but alſo the tenthes and yearely rents reſerued nomine decime, by any Letters Patents, of your ſayd noble father, ſithence the ſayd ſixe and twentieth yeare of his reigne, and of your ſayd deareſt Brother and Siſter, or of any of them, made to any Biſhop and his ſucceſſors, or to any Cathedrall Church, Deane and Chapter, Colledge, or any other Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall perſon or perſons, or corporations, and their Succeſſors for euer: And alſo all and euery the rents, reuenues, iſſues, and profits, of all and ſinguler Rectories, Parſonages, and Benefices impropriate, glebelands, tithes, oblations, penſions, portions, and other profits, and emoluments Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall to the ſame belonging, being in the hands and poſſeſſion of your ſayd deareſt Siſter, at the ſayd foure and twentieth day of January, were ordered, anſwerable, and accounted for in the ſayd Court of the Exchequer, and were therein well and iuſtly anſwered and payd vnto her highneſſe vſe and behoofe, like as the ſame had beene vnto the ſayd two noble Kings, her ſayd Father and Brother, by the ſpace of twenty yeares without greefe or contradiction of the Prelates and Clergie of the Realme, to the great ayd, reliefe, and ſupportation of the ineſtimable charges of the Crowne of this Realm, which dayly ſince the time of the making of the ſayd firſt Act, haue encreaſed and growne more and more.

Which thing although the ſayd late Queene might and did manifeſtly feele and perceiue to be moſt true: yet ſhe vpon certaine zealouſe and inconuenient reſpects, not ſufficiently, nor politikely enough weighing that matter, nor hauing due conſideration and regard to the maintenance, and vpholding and good continuance of the eſtate of the Imperiall Crowne of this realme in ſucceſſion, which rather needed an augmentation, than any diminution, procured and willed an Act of Parliament, to be made and prouided in the ſecond and third yeares of the reigne of king Philip her late Huſband and her, That all payments of the ſayd firſt fruits, ſhould from thenceforth ceaſe and be clearely extinct, and determined for euer, And that as well all the ſayd benefices and Spirituall promotions, as the poſſeſſors, owners, and Incumbents thereof, and their ſucceſſors ſhould from & after the eighth day of Auguſt, in the ſayd ſecond and third yeares, and ſo from thence forth at all times for euer, be clearely exonerate acquitted, and diſcharged, againſt the ſayd late king Philip and Queene Mary, her Heires and ſucceſſors, of, and from the payment and payments of all and euery the ſayd firſt fruits, in as ample & large manner and forme, as they were before the making of the ſayd Act, of the firſt and originall grant thereof, in the ſayd ſixe and twentieth yeare of the reigne of the ſayd late king your noble Father, & as though the ſame had neuer beene had ne made.

Q. Maries zealous but not politike reſpect.

By the Stat. made 2. and 3. P. & M. 4. the payment of firſt fruits & tenthes ceaſed.

And further, that neither the ſayd perpetuall Penſion, annuall Rent, or Tenth graunted by the ſayd firſt Act of the ſixe and twentieth yeare of the ſayd noble King Henry: nor alſo the ſaid ſeuerall annuall rents, or tenthes, reſerued nomine decime, by and vpon the ſayd ſeuerall Letters Patents of the ſayd late King and Quéene, made to Spirituall perſons and corporations as is aforeſayd, or any of them, from and after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell then laſt paſt, ſhould any more be payd or payable vnto the ſayd late King Philip and Quéene Mary, her heires or ſucceſſors, but that as well all the ſayd Archbiſhoprickes, Biſhoprickes, and other Benefices, Dignities, Deanes and Chapters, Colledges, Corporations, and Spirituall promotions aforeſayd, as alſo the poſſeſſors, owners, proprietaries, and Incumbents of the ſame, and their ſucceſſors, from and after the ſayd feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, ſhould be clearely exonerate, acquitted and diſcharged of, and from the payment thereof, againſt them, and the heires and ſucceſſors of the ſame late Quéene for euer.

And furthermore, that the ſayd late King Philip and Quéene Marie, her heires, or ſucceſſors, from and after the ſayd feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, ſhould not receiue, perceiue, take, and enioy any the Iſſues, Reuenues, Profits, or Commodities of the ſayd Rectories, Parſonages, Benefices, Glebe lands, Tythes, Oblations, Penſions, Portions, and other profits and emoluments Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall aforeſayd, or of any of them, or of the reuerſion or reuerſions of them, or any of them: but in and by the ſayd acte, the ſame late King and Quéene, clearely gaue ouer, renounced, and relinquiſhed as well the ſayd Rectories, Parſonages, Benefices, Glebe lands, Tythes, Oblations, Penſions, Portions, and other profits and emoluments Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall aforeſayd, and euery of them, and the reuerſion and reuerſions of them, and euery of them, and all their right, title, vſe, intereſt, and demand of, in, or to the ſame, from them and the heires and ſucceſſors of the ſayd late Queene for euer: as alſo the ſaid perpetuall Penſion, Annuall rent, & Tenth, & alſo the ſaid yearely rents, reſerued nomine decime, vpon the ſayd ſeuerall Letters Patents, and all their right, title, and intereſt, which they or either of them, or the heires or ſucceſſors of the ſayd late Quéene, had or might haue had, in or to the ſame.

The ſame yearly Penſion, Tenthes, yearely Rents, Parſonages, Emoluments, and profits, to be perceiued, taken, receiued, counted, employed, vſed, and diſpoſed by the late reuerend Father in G O D Reginald Poole, late Cardinall and Legate, and ſuch other perſons as hee ſhould name and appoint, and ſuch other as béene ſpecially limitted in the ſayd act, to and for certaine vſes, purpoſes, and intents mentioned in the ſame act, with diuers prouiſions, and a ſauing in the ſame expreſſed and contained, as by the ſame more at large appeareth.

The ſtatute.

Wée your ſayd humble and obedient Subiects, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, calling to our remembrance the huge, innumerable, and ineſtimable charges of the Royall eſtate, and Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, and how the ſame is left vnto your Maieſtie, at this your firſt entry thereunto, greatly diminiſhed, as well by reaſon of the ſayd acte made in the ſayd ſecond and third yeere of the reigne of the ſayd King Philip and Quéene Mary, as otherwiſe, doe conceiue at the bottome of our hearts great ſorrowe and heauineſſe, as Subiects carefull for their naturall and liege Soueraigne Lady, vpon whome dependeth the ſuretie, worldly ioy, and wealth of vs all, and béeing no leſſe affected towards your Maieſties royall perſon, and the preſeruation and maintenaunce of the ſame, and of the eſtate and ſucceſſion of your Maieſties ſayd Crowne, than were the firſt Grauntors of the ſayd Firſt fruites and Tenthes towards your highneſſe moſt noble Father, and his ſayd royall eſtate, at the time of their ſayd graunt to him thereof made, doe account of very right and good congruence no leſſe than our moſt bounden duty, to moue your Highneſſe, and therewith moſt humbly to beſéech the ſame, that the great diſheriſon and decay committed and done to the Crowne, & eſtate Royall of this your Realme, and the ſucceſſion thereof by reaſon of the ſayd acte made in the ſayd ſecond and third yeares of the reigne of the ſayd King Philip and Quéene Marie, may at this Parliament bee reformed and auoyded, and that with your Highneſſe fauour and royall aſſent it may bée enacted, ordeyned, eſtabliſhed, and prouided by authorite of this Parliament, in manner and forme hereafter enſuing.

A repeale of the St. An. 2. & 3. P. & M. 4.

The firſt fruits reuiued.

That is to ſay, that the ſayd acte made in the ſecond and third yeares of the reigne of the ſayd late King Philip and Quéene Marie, and all articles, clauſes, and ſentences therein contained, ſhall bée from and after the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, vtterly and clearely repealed, made voyd, and of no force ne effect: and all authorities and liberties granted, limitted and appointed in and by the ſayd act to the ſayd late Cardinall Poole, or made, or deriued, by force, ſtrength, or colour of the ſame Act, by or from the ſayd late Cardinall, to any other perſons, bodies polit like or coroporate, to ceaſſe and be vtterly voyd & determined: & that the ſayd firſt fruits, and all payments thereof, from & after the ſayd firſt day of this Parliament, ſhall bée reuiued, & haue their béeing and continuance againe, and bée déemed and adiudged to all intents, conſtructions, & purpoſes, in the Quéenes highneſſe moſt royall perſon, her heires & ſucceſſors, and vnited and annexed to the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, of and in ſuch like, and the ſame eſtate, intereſt, title, quantity, ſort, degrée, and condition, and in as ample and beneficiall manner and forme, as the ſame was or were in the perſon and poſſeſſion of the ſaid late Q.

Mary, at and before the ſayd viij. day of Auguſt, in the ſayd Act of extinguiſhment mentioned and expreſſed: the ſame Act of extinguiſhment, or any Letters Patents, or any other matter or thing had, done, or ſuffered by the ſaid late Quéene, to the contrary therof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And alſo that as well ſo much of the ſayd perpetuall and annuall tenth, & Penſion granted by the ſayd Act made in the ſayd xxvi. yere of the reign of the ſaid late King Henry the eighth, as alſo ſo much of the ſayd yearly rents reſerued vpon the ſaid ſeueral Letters patents nomine decime, and alſo ſo many of the ſayd rectories, parſonages, and benefices impropriate, glebe lands, tithes, oblations, penſions, portions, and other profits and emoluments Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall aforeſayd, and reuerſion and reuerſions thereof: and all rents, emoluments, and profits incident to the ſame, as were in the hands and poſſeſſion of the ſayd late Quéene Mary, at and before the ſayd viii. day of Auguſt, ſhal from the ſayd feaſt of S. Michael the Archangel laſt paſt, be veſted, adiudged, and déemed, actually and really in the ſeiſin and poſſeſſion of our ſayd Soueraigne Lady Quéene Elizabeth, her heires, and ſucceſſors, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, of and in ſuch like and the ſame eſtate, intereſt, order, degree, quality, ſort, and condition, and as fully, wholly, largely, and beneficially, as the ſame were in the ſeiſin and poſſeſſion of the ſayd late Quéene Mary, at and before the ſame eight day of Auguſt. And that as well the ſayd firſt fruits and tenthes, and the order thereof, as alſo the ſayd annuall rents reſerued nomine decime, and the ſayd rectories, parſonages, benefices, glebe lands, tithes, oblations, penſion, portions, and other profits and emoluments, eccleſiaſticall and ſpirituall aforeſayd, and euery of them, and the reuerſion and reuerſions of them, and of all rents and profits vnto the ſame, or any of them incident or belonging, ſhall be within the order, ſuruey, rule, and gouernance of the ſayd court of the Exchequer, in euery degree, ſort, and condition, as they were (at and) before the ſayd eight day of Auguſt: the ſayd Act made in the ſayd ſecond and third yeares, or any other matter or thing to the contrary thereof, notwithſtanding.

The tenths reuiued And x. reſerued vpon pat. & portions eccleſiaſticall.

And that ſo much of all and euery the ſayd Acts and Statutes firſt recited, or of any other Act or Statute, touching or concerning the order, leuying true anſwering and payment or qualification of the ſayd firſt fruits and tenthes, and of the ſayd Rectories, Parſonages, and benefices impropriate, and of the rents, reuenues, emoluments, & profits thereof, and of all other the premiſſes, and alſo the charge, diſcharge, or alteration of them, or any of them, or any matter or thing in any wiſe ſounding or tending thereunto, which were ſtanding and being in force, effect, & vnrepealed at and before the ſayd eight day of Auguſt (except onely the ſayd Acts of the erections of the Courts of Augmentations and firſt Fruites and Tenthes) ſhal, be remaine, and continue in their full and perfect ſtrengthes and forces, and be obſerued & put in due execution, according to the tenours and purports of the ſame, and euery of them.

The before rehearſed St. reuiued.

St. 27. H. 27.
St. 32. H. 45.

An that the Quéenes Maieſtie, her heires, and ſucceſſors, by authority of this preſent Parliament, ſhall from the ſayd firſt day of this preſent Parliament, haue, hold, poſſeſſe, and enioy for euer the Aduowſons, Gifts and Patronages, of all Vicarages, belonging or incident to any of the ſayd Rectories, and Parſonages impropriate, in the ſame ſort, quality, condition, & degrée, to all intents & purpoſes, as the ſame were in the perſon and poſſeſſion of the ſayd late Quéene Mary, at and before the ſayd eighth day of Auguſt: any thing or Act done by the ſame late Cardinal, or any grant or grants by Letters Patents made by the ſayd late Q. Mary, of the ſaid Aduowſons, and Patronages, or any of them, to any Eccleſiaſticall or Spirituall perſon or perſons, or any Spirituall corporation, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Quéene ſhall haue the aduowſon of vicarages belonging to rectories, &c.

Sauing to all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, and their Heires, Executors, Succeſſors, and Aſſignes, and euery of them (other than ſuch perſons to bee mentioned and named in any Letters Patents, made by the ſayd Quéene Mary, the ſayd eight day, of Auguſt, or at any time ſithence, or clayming onely by or vnder the authority, and ſtrength of the ſame Act or Letters Patents or any of them) all ſuch right, title, intereſt, eſtate, offices, leaſes, grants, annuities, penſions, fées, corrodies, rents, and other yearely profits and commodities, as they or any of them ought or ſhould haue had, perceiued, or inioyed, of, in, or by reaſon of any the Parſonages, Rectories, or of any other the premiſſes, in caſe the ſayd former act now repealed, and this preſent act of repeale had neuer béene had ne made: any thing in the ſame acts, or either of them contained or ſounding to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A ſauing of the right of others.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that from & after the ſayd feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel laſt paſt, and ſo from thenceforth from time to time, the ſayd penſions, annuities, rents, corrodies, fées, and other yearely payments, ſhall be payd and payable onely by our ſayd Soueraigne Lady, her heires and ſucceſſors, at the receit of the Exchequer, or in ſuch other places as the Quéenes maieſtie her heires, and ſucceſſors ſhall appoint, to all and euery perſon and perſons, that ought to haue and enioy the ſame, in ſuch ſort, order and forme as the ſame ſhould or ought to haue been payd and payable in caſe the ſayd Act now repealed had neuer béene had ne made: any thing therein, or elſe in this act contained to the contrary thereof, in any wiſe not withſtanding.

How penſions &c. ſhalbe payd.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſayd, that all and ſingular Incumbents, Proprie-

They that were in arrerages for Rents ſhall pay the ſame to the Queen.

taries, Tenants, Farmors, Leſſees and occupiers of the premiſſes or any part thereof, their Heires, Executors and Aſſignes, which the ſaid firſt day of this preſent Parliament, were behinde or in any arrerages of and with the rents, farmes, tenths or other reuenues, profits or duties, by them or any of them due and payable, for or by reaſon of the premiſſes or any of them, ſhall and may be by the authority of this Act, ſeuerally chargeable, accomptable and anſwerable to the Quéenes Maieſtie, her Heires and Succeſſors, in and at the ſaid Court of the Exchequer, of and for the ſame arrerages and duties, as other accomptants be and ſhal be in the ſame Court: any thing in the ſaid Act, now repealed in this Act, or any other matter or cauſe to the contrarie thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Vicarages not exceeding x. li. ſhall pay no firſt fruits.

Parſonages not exceeding tenne markes ſhall pay no firſt fruits.

And yet neuertheleſſe the Quéenes moſt excellent Maieſtie, at the humble requeſt of her ſaid Subiects, of her aboundant grace and bountifulneſſe, is pleaſed and contented that it be enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that all and ſinguler Vicarages, not excéeding the yearely value of tenne pounds, after the rate and value vpon the Records and Bookes of the rates and values for the firſt fruits & tenthes now remaining in the Exchequer, or that ſhall hereafter come and remaine in the ſame Court, and alſo all and ſinguler parſonages, not exceeding the yearely value of tenne markes, after the like rate and valuation, and the incumbents thereof and every of them, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors and Sureties and euery of them, from the ſayd Feaſt of S. Michael the Archangell laſt paſt, ſhall be free and clearely diſcharged, and acquited for euer, againſt the Quéenes Maieſtie, her Heires and Succeſſors, of and from the ſaid firſt fruits: any thing in the ſayd Act of firſt fruits and tenthes made in the ſaid ſixe & twentieth yeare of the raigne of the ſayd late King Henry the eighth, or in this Act of repeale, or any other Act or Actes before recited to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The charge of the incumbent which liueth halfe a yeare after the auoidance.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, That if any Incumbent of any ſuch promotion Spirituall as is aforeſayd, charged or chargeable to the payment of the ſayd firſt fruits, happen to liue to the end of one halfe yeare next after the laſt auoydance of the ſame promotion Spirituall, ſo as he hath receiued, or without fraud or couin might lawfully haue receiued or enioyed the rents or profits of that halfe yeare, and before the end of the other halfe yere, then next following ſhall happen to die or be lawfully euicted, remoued or put from the ſayd promotion Spirituall, by iudgement in any action at the Common Law, without fraud or couin: that then euery ſuch Incumbent, his Heires, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Sureties, ſhall be charged and chargeable but onely with the fourth part of the firſt fruites due to be payed for ſuch his promotion, and with no more of the ſayd firſt fruits: any thing in this Act contained or any bond or writing to be made for the payment of the ſayd firſt fruits, or any other matter or cauſe to the contrary notwithſtanding.

His charge which liueth a whole yeare, &c.

And if it ſhall happen any ſuch Incumbent to liue by the ſpace of one whole yeare next after the laſt auoidance of the ſame promotion Spirituall, & after, before the end of one halfe yeare then next following, ſhal fortune to die, or to be lawfully euicted, remoued or put from the ſaid promotion Spirituall, by iudgement in any action at the Common Law, without fraud or couin: that then euery ſuch Incumbent, his Heires, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Sureties, ſhall be charged & chargeable but onely with the moity and one halfe of the firſt furites due to be payd for ſuch his promotion Spirituall, and with no more of the ſame firſt fruits: any thing in this Act conteyned or any bond or writing obligatory to be made for the payment of the ſame firſt fruits, or any other matter or cauſe to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The charge of him which liueth a yeere & a halfe, &c.

And if it ſhall happen any ſuch Incumbent to liue to the end of one whole yeare and a halfe, next after the laſt auoidance of ſuch promotion Spirituall, and after, and before the end of ſixe monethes then next following ſhall fortune to die, or be lawfully euicted, remoued or put from the ſayd promotion Spirituall, by iugement in any action at the Common Law, without fraud or couin: that then euery ſuch Incumbent, his Heires, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Sureties ſhall be charged and chargeable but onely with thrée parts of the firſt fruits of the ſame promotion Spirituall, in foure parts to be diuided, and with no more: any thing in this Act conteyned, or any bond or writing obligatory had or made for the payment of the ſayd firſt fruits, or any other matter or cauſe to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The charge of him which liueth two whole yeares after, &c.

And if it ſhall happen any ſuch Incumbent to liue to the end of two whole yeares, next after the laſt auoidance of the ſame his promotion Spirituall, and not to be lawfully euicted, remoued or put from the ſame promotion Spirituall as is aforeſayd, that then euery ſuch Incumbent, his Heires, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Sureties, ſhall content and pay to our ſayd Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, her Heires and Succeſſors, the whole firſt fruits due to be payed for the ſame promotion Spirituall, according to the Eſtatute aforeſayd.

Grants made to the vniuerſities or the colledges in them & to Eaton & Winchester colledge.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted, that all grants, immunities and liberties, giuen to the Uniuerſities of Cambridge & Oxford, or to any Colledge or Hall in either of the ſayd Uniuerſities, and to the Colledges of Eaton and Wincheſter, & vnto euery or any of them, by our late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eighth, or any other the Quéenes Highnes progenitors or predeceſſors, or by Act of Parliament, for or touching the releaſe or diſcharge of the ſayd firſt fruits and tenthes or any part thereof, ſhall be alwayes and remaine in their full ſtrength and vertue: and that all ſuch lawfull conueyances & aſſurances in the Law, as were had or made before the making of this Act, to either of the ſaid Vniuerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or to any Colledge or Hall within any of them, by what name or names ſoeuer they or any of them be incorporated or named, of any of the ſaid Parſonages or Benefices impropriat, or of any part of the ſame, or of any Patronages for the maintenance of ſtudents, or learning. ſhall be as good and effectuall in the Law, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, as though this Act had neuer beene made.

The Chappel of S. George in Windſor.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Deane and Canons of the free Chappel of S. George the Martyre, within the Caſtle of Windſor, and all the poſſeſſions and hereditaments of the ſame free Chappell, Deanry and Canons, by whatſoeuer name or names they be incorporated or knowne, ſhall bee exonerated, and ſhall ſtand for euer diſcharged of the tenthes and firſt fruits before mentioned: any thing in this Act, or any other Act or Statute before mentioned to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Leaſſes for 21. yeares or 3. liues.

Grants of offices wont to be granted.

Prouided alſo and be it enacted, that all Leaſſes made before the xx. day of December laſt paſt, for xxi. yeares, or three liues at the moſt, by any perſon or perſons, bodies Politike or Corporate, being lawfully ſeiſed of or in any of the ſaid Parſonages impropriate, or of or in any other the premiſſes wont commonly to be let or ſet to ferme, then being out of Leaſſe, or whereof there was not at the time of the making of the ſaid Leaſſe or Leaſſes, any former Leaſſe to endure aboue one yeare then to come at the moſt: and vpon which new Leaſſe or Leaſſes, the old yearly rent accuſtomaly wont to be payd for the ſame, by the ſpace of xx. yeares laſt before the making of ſuch Leaſſe or Leaſſes, or more yearly rent is reſerued & payable during the ſaid terme: and all other lawfull grants, by them or any of them heretofore made of any office or offices, in old time wont commonly to be granted: and all gifts and grants of any Parſonage or Parſonages impropriate, heretofore belonging to the Archdeaconrie of Welles, in the County of Somerſet, or to the Incumbent of the ſame office or dignity, or to the Incumbent of the ſame lately giuen and reſtored, ſhall be as good and effectuall in the Law, as though this Act or any thing therein contained had not beene had or made.

The Archd. of Welles charged with payment of firſt fruits.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Archdeaconry, and all Rectories and Spirituall promotions, giuen, aſſigned, limited or appointed to the ſame, and all and euery Incumbents and Incumbent, which hereafter ſhall be preſented, collated, preferred and admitted vnto the ſaid Archdeaconry, and the Rectories and ſpirituall promotions thereunto limitted and appointed, or appertaining and belonging, ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be charged and chargeable with the payment of the firſt fruits & tenthes for the ſame to the Queenes highnes, her heires and ſucceſſors, in ſuch like manner and forme as other Spirituall promotions, and the Incumbents of the ſame, be and ſhall be charged and chargeable by this Act, or by any other Act or Statute before ſpecified.

The benefices &c. which were within the order of the Duchie Court, ſhall ſo continue.

Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that ſo many of the ſaid Rectories, Parſonages and Benefices impropriate, glebe lands, tithes, oblations, pentions, portions and other profits and emoluments Eccleſiaſticall and Spirituall, and euery of them, and the reuerſion and reuerſions of them, and all rents and profits vnto the ſame or any of them incident or belonging, as were at and before the ſaid viii. day of Auguſt, in the hands and poſſeſſions of the ſaid late Queene Mary, and within the ſuruey, rule and order of the Court of the Duchie of Lancaſter, ſhall be againe within the order, ſuruey, rule & gouernement of the ſaid Court, in ſuch and the ſame maner and forme, to all intents & purpoſes as they were at and before the ſaid viii. day of Auguſt, in the ſaid ſecond and third yeares of the reigne of the ſaid late King and Queene: any thing in this Act, or in the ſaid Act of the ſame late King and Queene, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

They which be preſented to a benefice ſhall compound for their firſt fruits before the feaſt of S. I. Baptiſt.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority of this Parliament, that no perſon or perſons preſented, inſtituted or inducted, at any time ſithence the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, or that ſhall be preſented, inſtituted or inducted on this ſide the feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt next comming, to any the ſaid Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical promotions, chargeable to or with the payment of the firſt fruits or one yeares profits of ſuch promotion, ſhall incur any penalty or forfeiture, by entring into any of the ſaid Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall promotions, or by taking the profits thereof, for the non payment or not compounding of or for the firſt fruits thereof, ſo that he or any other for him, ſhall or doe compound for the ſame firſt fruits according to the true meaning of the Statute, before the Feaſt of the Natiuitie of S. Iohn Baptiſt: any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The reuenues of Hoſpitalles and Scholes.

Prouided alſo, that this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to charge any Hoſpitall founded and vſed, and the poſſeſſions thereof employed to & for the reliefe of poore people, or any Schole or Scholes, or the poſſeſſions or reuenues of them or any of them, with the payment of any tenthes or firſt fruits: any thing in this Act before mentioned to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. V.

CAP XI.

When and where merchandizes ſhall be landed, and cuſtomes for ſweete Wines payd.

Moſt humbly ſhewing, beſéechen your Highneſſe, your Lords & Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, that where the ſummes of money, paid in the name of cuſtomes, ſubſidies of wares and merchandizes, tranſported out and brought into this your Highneſſe Realme of England, by any Merchant Stranger or Denizen, is an ancient reuenue annexed and vnited to your Imperiall Crowne, and hath in the time of King Edward the third, and other your moſt noble Progenitors, amounted to great and notable ſummes of mony, till of late years many gréedy and couetous perſons, reſpecting more their priuate gaine and commodity, than their duty and allegiance, or the common profit of the Realme, haue and doe daily as well by conueying the ſame their wares and merchandizes out of Creekes and places where no cuſtomer is reſident, as alſo by or through the negligence or corruption of the Cuſtomer, Searcher or other officer, where they be reſident, as by diuers other fraudulent, vndue and ſubtill practices and deuiſes, conuey their goods & merchandizes, as well brought from the parts beyond the Sea, as tranſported out of this your Realme of England, without payment or agreeing for the payment of the cuſtomes and ſubſidies therefore due, whereby the yearely reuenue aforeſaid is very much empayred and diminiſhed, to the great loſſe and damage of your Highneſſe, and to the great burden and charge of your louing ſubiects, who by occaſion thereof haue of late yeares beene more charged with ſubſidies and payment for the ſupplyment of the ſaid loſſe and damage, than elſe we ſhould haue beene.

Seuerall cauſes of the diminiſhing of the Queenes cuſtomes.

That it may therefore be enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That it ſhall not bee lawfull to or for any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer from and after the firſt day of September next comming, to lade or put, or cauſe to be laden or put, off or from any Wharfe, Key, or other place on the Land, into any Ship, Veſſell, Crayer, Lighter or Bottom, any goods, wares or merchandizes whatſoeuer (Fiſh taken by your Highneſſe Subiects only excepted) to be tranſported into any place of the parts beyond the Sea, or into the Realme of Scotland, or to take vp, diſcharge, and lay on land, or cauſe or procure to be taken vp, or diſcharged out of any Lighter, Ship, Crayer, Veſſell or Bottome, being not in a lecke or wracke, and laid on Land, any goods, wares, or merchandizes whatſoeuer (Fiſh taken by any of your Highneſſe Subiects, and Salt onely excepted) to be brought from any the parts beyond the Sea, or the Realm of Scotland, by way of merchandizes, but onely in the day light, that is to ſay, from the firſt of March vntill the laſt of September, betwixt the Sunne riſing and the Sunne ſetting, and from the laſt of September vntill the firſt of March, betweene the houres of ſeuen in the morning and foure at the after noone, and in and vpon ſome ſuch open place, Key or Wharfe. places, Keyes or Wharfes, as your Highnes, your Heires or Succeſſors, ſhall on this ſide the ſaid firſt day of September therfore aſſigne and appoint by vertue of your Highneſſe Commiſſion or Commiſſions, within your Graces Ports of London, Southampton, Briſtow, Weſtcheſter, Newcaſtell & the ſuburbs of the ſame, and euery of them and in ſome open place, Key, Wharfe, places, Keyes or Wharfes, in all other Ports, Creekes, Hauens or Rodes (Hull onely excepted) where a Cuſtomer, Comptroller and Searcher of ſuch Ports, Hauens, Creekes or Rodes, and euery of them, or the ſeruants of any of them, haue by the ſpace of tenne yeares laſt paſt beene accuſtomably reſident, or hereafter ſhall be reſident, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch goods, wares or merchandizes ſo laden & diſcharged contrary to the true meaning of this Act, or the value thereof.

No goods ſhall be laden or diſcharged but in the day light and in open place.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no maner of perſon or perſons after the ſaid day, ſhall receiue or take into any Ship, Crayer or other Veſſell, any goods, wares or merchandizes (except before excepted) to be tranſported into any place beyond the Sea, or into the Realme of Scotland, by way of merchandize: nor ſhall diſcharge and lay on land out of any Ship, Crayer or other Veſſell, any goods, wares or merchandize (except before excepted) being brought from any place beyond the Sea, or out of the Realme of Scotland, by way of merchandize, in any other place or places, or at any other houres or times, than is before limited and appointed. vpon paine that the owner and owners, maſter & maſters, or other perſon or perſons which ſhall take charge or guiding of any ſuch Ship, Crayer or Veſſell, or of the Merchants goods during and for that voyage, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch offence C. li. of lawfull money of England.

At what times and places onely the Maſter of a ſhip ſhall receiue or diſcharge his loading.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that no Maſter, Shipper, or Purſer, or other perſon or perſons taking charge of the voyage, or of the Merchants goods, ſhall after the ſaid day receiue or take into any Ship, Crayer or other Veſſell, any goods, wares or Merchandize (except before excepted) to be carried or tranſported into any of the parts beyond the Sea, or into the Realme of Scotland, before he ſhall haue ſignified to the Cuſtomer of the Port where he ladeth, and other officers there, in the open Cuſtome houſe, if any ſuch be there, or elſe, where the ſaid Officers, their deputies or ſeruants, or any of them, be or ſhall be vſually reſident, that he entendeth to lade, and to what place he entendeth to paſſe, nor ſhall after his or their full lading depart out of the Port, Creekes or Streame where he ſhall ſo lade, before he doe in like maner ſignifie vnto the Cuſtomer & other Officers as is aforeſaid, of his lading, and what Merchants and other perſons ſhall haue lading with him, or in his Ship, Crayer, Veſſell or Bottome: and further truly doe anſwer to ſuch queſtions as ſhall be miniſtred to him or them by the Cuſtomer or other Officer, concerning ſuch wares and merchandizes as he ſhall haue laden, being examined vpon his or their oath, or otherwiſe in the open Cuſtome houſe, or otherwiſe as is aforeſaid, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch default, not truely aduertiſing nor anſwering, as is aforeſaid, a hundred pound.

A ſhipper ſhal giue notice to the cuſtomer of his departure.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no Owner, Maſter, Purſer or other perſon, taking charge of any Ship, Crayer, Veſſell or Bottome, wherein any goods, wares or merchandizes (except before excepted) ſhall be laden and brought from any the parts beyond the

No maſter of a ſhip ſhall diſcharge the ſame before he hath certified the Cuſtomer.

Sea, or the Realme of Scotland, ſhall after the ſaid day, diſcharge into any Lighter or bottome, and lay on land, or procure, cauſe or willingly ſuffer to be diſcharged into any Lighter or bottome, and to be laid on land out of ſuch Ship, Crayer, Veſſell or bottom, any goods, wares or merchandize whatſoeuer, before ſuch Owner, Maſter, Purſer or other perſon or perſons, taking charge of the Ship, Crayer, Bottome or veſſell, or the Merchants goods for that voyage, ſhall haue ſignified and declared to the Cuſtomer or other Officer of the Port, Hauen or Creeke, where hee arriueth, the names of euery of the Merchants or Lader, and ſhall haue truely anſwered to ſuch queſtions and interrogatories, touching or concerning ſuch goods, wares or Merchandize, as ſhall be then laden in any ſuch Ship, Veſſell or bottome, as ſhall bee to him miniſtred by ſuch Cuſtomer or other Officer, openly in the Cuſtome houſe, or in ſuch other places as is aforeſaid, vpon his or their oath if neede ſo require, vpon paine that euery Maſter, Purſer, or other perſon or perſons, taking charge of ſuch Ship, Crayer or other Veſſell for that voyage, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery ſuch default, not truely aduertiſing nor anſwering as is aforeſaid, an hundreth pound.

No man ſhall enter goods in the cuſtomers booke but in the Owners name.
Stat. 3 H.7.7.
1.H.8.5.
2.&3.E.6.22.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that from and after the ſaid day, no perſon Denizen ne Stranger, doe take vpon him to enter or doe, or cauſe to be entred into the Bookes of any Cuſtomer, or other Officer, or Officers of any Port or Hauen within this Realme, or his or their Deputie or Deputies, Seruant or Seruants, any maner goods, wares or merchandize whatſoeuer, comming or brought into your Highneſſe Realme, from any the parts beyond the Sea, or from the Realme of Scotland, or going or to be tranſported out of the ſame your Highneſſe Realme, into any the parts beyond the Sea, or into the Realme of Scotland, in the name or names of any other perſon or perſons, then the very true Owner or Owners of the ſame goods, wares or merchandizes, being not ſold, bargained or contracted for, to or with any perſon or perſons, before ſuch entre, or before the arriuall of ſuch goods, wares or merchandize, in the parts beyond the Sea, vpon paine of forfeiture of the value of the goods ſo entred.

The penalty of an officer of the Cuſtome houſe concealing an offence 3.H.6.3.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any Warfenger, Crane Keeper, Searcher, Lighterman, Weighter, or other Officer, pertaining to the ſubſidy, cuſtome or Cuſtome houſe, doe at any time after the ſaid day, conſent or know any offence or thing to be committed or done contrary to the true meaning of this Act or any article therein contained, and doe not within one moneth next after knowledge thereof had, diſcloſe the ſame to the chiefe Cuſtomer or other officer of the Port, where or within whoſe office or charge any ſuch offence ſhall bee committed or done, or elſe to the Lord Treaſuror, Chancellor, vnder Treaſuror, or one of the Barons of the Exchequer or the Atturney generall for the time being, ſhall for euery ſuch concealement, or not diſcloſing ſuch offence as is aforeſaid, forfeit and loſe a C. li. of good and lawfull money of England.

Where a Cuſtomer ſhall haue a deputy in an other place.

And where of late yeares there hath beene much greater quantity of ſweete Wines brought into this Realme, than in time paſt hath been accuſtomed, which been alſo brought from the ſame place where the Wine commonly called Malmeſey is brought, & is of the ſame nature of Grape, and neuertheleſſe, either by negligence, ignorance, or corruption of the Officers, there hath not beene ſuch cuſtome and ſubſidy receiued for the ſame, to the vſe of your Highneſſe, and your Progenitors, as is due, and ought of very right to bee payed for ſuch ſweet Wines, comming through the Straights, commonly called the Straights of Marrocke, otherwiſe, Mallegaye, to the great loſſe and hinderance of your Highneſſe, and the burthen of vs your louing Subiects.

For the auoyding of all ambiguities and doubts, and to the intent the Officers may more certainly know what they ought to receiue for ſuch kinde and nature of merchandize: bée it enacted and declared by this preſent Act, and by the authority aforeſaid, that like Cuſtome and Subſidy is of very right to bée paid, and ſhall from henceforth be paid for ſuch ſwéet Wines as is aforeſaid, as is and hath béene accuſtomed to bée payd for Malmeſies: any negligence, nonpayment, vſage, or cuſtome to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. Sauing to all and euery Lord Marcher, and other perſon and perſons whatſoeuer, body politike and corporate, all and euery ſuch right, title, and intereſt, as they or any of them haue, and of right ought to haue, in the paiment or hauing of any franchiſe, liberty, cuſtome, and ſubſidy, or any of them: any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Such cuſtom ſhalbe paid for ſwéet wines as had wont to be paid for malmeſies.

Prouided alwayes, and bée it enacted, that it ſhall bée lawfull to ſhip, lade, and tranſport into the Ports beyond the Sea, all manner of corne and graine, out of the Counties of Norfolke, and Suffolke, and either of them, at ſuch places as heretofore hath béene accuſtomed, and betwéene the houres in this Act appointed, when the ſame corne and graine ſhall not excéed the ſeuerall prices mentioned in the Statute made in the fift and ſixt yeare of our late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixt, entituled, An Act againſt Regrators, Foreſtallers and Engroſſers, the Cuſtomes and Subſidies therefore due, being well and truely payd: any thing in this Act, or any other Act or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

When corne may be tranſported out of Norfolke & Suffolke.

Stat.3.Car.4.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, be not preiudiciall or hurtfull to the Iſle of Angleſey, the Shires of Caernaruon and Flint in Northwales: but that the inhabitants thereof, and euery of them, may receiue, lade, and diſcharge, according to their old ancient vſes, cuſtomes, or liberties granted to them, or any of their predeceſſors, by the late King of famous memorie King Henry the eighth, or any other his progenitors: ſo that they, and euery of them pay the Cuſtomes and Subſidies that ſhall bée due, and diſcharge and lode within the times and houres before mentioned: any thing in this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. St.31.El.5.

A prouiſo for the inhabitants of Angleſey, Flint, and Caernaruon.

CAP. XII.

The penalty for ſtretching or impairing Linnen cloth.

WHere certaine euill diſpoſed and deceitfull perſons, vſing to buy and ingroſſe into their hands great ſtore of Linnen cloth, doe vſe to caſt the pieces of Cloth ouer a beame or piece of timber, made for their purpoſe, and doe by ſundry deuices racke, ſtretch, and draw the ſame both of length and breadth, and that done, doe then with battledores, pieces of timber and wood, and other things, ſore beat the ſame, euer caſting thereupon certaine deceitfull liquors mingled with chalke and other like things, whereby the ſaid cloth is not only made to ſéeme much finer and thicker to the eye, than it is indéed, but alſo the thréedes thereof bée ſo looſed and made weake, that after thrée or foure waſhings, it will ſcarcely hold together, to the great deceit, hinderance, and loſſe of the Subiects of this Realme: Be it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any perſon or perſons, ſhall hereafter willingly vſe, or cauſe to bée vſed the aforeſaid deceits, or any other act or acts, meane or meanes, to, in, or with any kind of linnen cloth, whereby the ſame ſhall be deceitfull or worſe, to and for the good vſe thereof, that then the ſaid cloth ſhall be forfeited, and the offendor therein to be puniſhed by one moneths impriſonment at the leaſt, and ſhall pay ſuch fine as ſhall bée aſſeſſed, for his or their offence or offences, by the Iuſtices, before whom he or they ſhall be condemned, according to the tenour of this Act.

The inconueniences enſuing the deceitfull vſing of linnen cloth.

The penalty for ſtretching or impairing of linnen cloth.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery the Iuſtices of Oyer and Determiner, and Iuſtices of Aſſiſes in all their Seſſions, and all Iuſtices of Peace in euery Countie and place of this Realme, or thrée of them at the leaſt, whereof one to be of the Quorum, ſhall haue full power and authority to enquire, heare, and determine the offences aforeſaid, in their Seſſions, by information, inditement, or vpon the trauerſe of any preſentment or inditement, found before the ſaid Iuſtices or any of them.

Which Iuſtices may heare & determine the offences aforeſaid.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, ſhall at the next Seſſions of the Peace (after the ſaid Seaſure to be kept within the Shire or place where the Seaſure was made, or before two Iuſtices of Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum) make due information of the offence, & of the Seaſure of the ſaid cloth, or elſe ſhall procure the offenders to be thereof indicted at the ſaid next Seſſions after the ſaid Seaſure, & ſhall alſo be bound before the ſaid Iuſtices by recogniſance or obligation, to the vſe of the Quéens Maieſty, her heirs and ſucceſſors, in ſuch forme as the ſaid Iuſtices, or any of them, ſhall thinke méete for the greatneſſe of the matter, and to purſue the ſame matter with effect, and to giue euidence, as of right appertaineth, and alſo to pay and giue the moity of all that he or they ſhall ſo recouer and receiue, to the Sheriffe, or other accomptant, to the vſe of the Quéenes Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors: and the one halfe of all the forfeitures and fines, of and for the premiſſes to be vnto the Quéenes Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to him or them that ſhall make information,

In what ſort he that ſeiſeth an offendors cloth, ſhall purſue his ſute againſt him.

tion, or procure inditements of and for the premiſſes, and ſhall follow the ſame with effect.

Certificate of the eſtreat into the Eſchequer.

And further bee it ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Iuſtices before whom any ſuch offence ſhall be tried, ſhall certifie the ſame by their eſtreat into the Exchequer, at the leaſt yearly at Michaelmas, as they be bound to do other their eſtreats, & vpon that certificate, the Barons of the Exchequer to haue full power and authority to make proces for ſo much thereof as by this ſtatute ſhall appertaine to the Queenes Maieſty, in like manner and forme as they onely doe for any other fines and amerciaments ſo certified before them.

CAP. XIII.

The Statute of 5.R.2.3, & 4.H.7.10. prohibiting the bringing in, or carrying forth merchandizes, but in Engliſh ſhips, repealed.

St.5.R.2.3.6. R.2.8. 4.H.7. 10. 5.&.6.Ed. 6.18.

WHere by diuers Statutes made in the time of the Queenes Maieſties moſt noble Progenitors, it hath beene enacted and prouided, that no perſon borne within the Realme of England, or being of the legiance of the Prince of the ſaid Realme, or any the Dominions of the ſame, ſhould ſhip any manner of merchandize, either out of the Realme, or into the ſame, but only in a Ship or Bottome whereof the ſaid Prince, or ſome other of their ſubiects were Owners, Poſſeſſioners, Proprietaries, and Maſters, and the Mariners of the ſame veſſell for the more part, to be alſo their ſubiects, vpon diuers paines and penalties, as in the ſaid Statutes more plainely appeareth. Since the making of which ſaid Statutes, other forraine Princes finding themſelues agrieued with the ſaid ſeuerall Acts, as thinking that the ſame were made to the hurt and preiudice of their Countrey and Nauie, haue made like penall lawes againſt ſuch as ſhould ſhip out of their Countries in any other veſſels than of their ſeuerall Countries and Dominions: by reaſon whereof there hath not onely growne great diſpleaſure betwixt the forraine Princes and the Kings of this Realme, but alſo the Merchants haue beene ſore grieued and endamaged.

A repeale of the ſtatutes of 5.R.2.3.& 4.H.7.10.

For reformation whereof, and for increaſe of continuance of amity, be it enacted, that the ſeuerall Acts made in the fift yeare of King Richard the ſecond, the third Chapter, and in the fourth yeare of the late King of famous memory, King Henry the ſeuenth, intituled, Of Wine and Tholouſe Woad, ſhall be from henceforth clearely voyd and of none effect. And neuertheleſſe for auoyding of great deceit practiſed, and now a dayes vſed by ſundry ſubiects borne within this Realme of England, and Dominions of the ſame, which enter in the Cuſtomers bookes, wares and merchandize of Aliens borne, in their owne name, whereby the Queenes Maieſty is defrauded in her Cuſtomes and Subſidies, to the great decay of the ancient reuenues of the Crowne: Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all and euery perſon and perſons, being owner or owners of any goods wares, or merchandizes, which after the firſt day of Ianuary next enſuing the Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, ſhall in time of peace, and when there is no reſtraint made of Engliſh ſhips, embarke, ſhip, lade, or diſcharge by way of merchandize, any wares, or merchandize (Maſtes, Raffe, Pitch, Tarre, and Corne onely excepted) out of, or into any Ship, Barke, Hoye, Veſſell, or Bottome, whereof our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queene, her heires or ſucceſſors, or ſome of her or their ſubiects of this Realme, or the Dominions of the ſame, bee not poſſeſſioners and proprietaries, and the Maſters vnder God, and the Mariners of the ſame ſhip or ſhippes, for the moſt part, bee not ſubiects of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady, her heires and ſucceſſors, ſhall anſwer, yeeld, and pay to the vſe of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queene, her heires and ſucceſſors, ſuch Cuſtome and Subſidy, for ſuch Wares and Merchandizes ſo ſhipped, laden, or diſcharged, as is aforeſaid, rate and rate like, as ſtrangers & aliens borne out of the obeyſance of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſty doe, and ought to pay for wares and merchandizes of like nature and kind.

The penalty where any merchandize ſhall be ſhipped or diſcharged but in Engliſh ſhips. Stat. 14. R.2.6.

There ſhalbe no croſſing of the ſea with any Hoy or Plate of an Engliſh ſubiect. 5.El.5.13.El. 15.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Hoy, or Plate, whereof any Engliſh ſubiect or ſubiects, is, bee, or ſhall bee owner or owners, at any time after the firſt day of Ianuary aforeſaid, from any Port, Creeke, or place of this ſaid Realme of England, or any of the Dominions of the ſame, ſhall trauerſe or croſſe the Seas, in, to, or for any of the Ports beyond the Seas, with any wares, goods, or merchandize, vpon paine that the ſaid Owner or Owners ſhall forfeit and loſe the ſame Hoy or Plate, with all and euery the munition, tackling, and other neceſſaries pertaining thereunto: whereof the one moity to be to the vſe and behoofe of the Queenes ſaid Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to the perſon or perſons which will ſue for the ſame, by Bill, Plaint, Action, or Information, in any her highneſſe Courts at Weſtminſter: in which caſe no wager of law, protection or eſſoine ſhalbe admitted.

In what caſe Merchants may vſe ſtrangers ſhips.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that it ſhall be lawfull to the Merchants, commonly called Merchants aduenturers, and Merchants of the Staple, and euery of them, at their ſeuerall Fleets, or ſhippings of Cloth and Wooll, and euery of them, from and out of the riuer of Thames, onely being made twice in one yeare at the moſt, to embarke, ſhip, and lade any goods, wares and merchandize in, or to any ſhip, Veſſell, or Bottome, belonging or appertaining to any ſtranger or alien borne, ſo long and at ſuch time as there be not ſhips, veſſels, or bottoms belonging ing to the Quéenes highneſſe, her heires or ſucceſſors, or any of her ſubiects, in the ſayd River of Thames, ſufficient in number, and apt and méete for the ſure and ſafe conueiance of the wares and marchandiſe into the parts of Flanders, Holland, Zeland, or Brabant, or any of them, without paying any greater or more cuſtome and ſubſidie, than Engliſhmen doe, and ought to pay: any thing in this act to the contrary notwithſtanding. This act to continue and ſtand in force for the ſpace of fiue yeares onely next immediatly follow this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and from thence to the end of the Parliament then next following.

Prouided, that foraſmuch as the Merchants of the Citie of Briſtowe, haue ſuſtained of late great loſſes at the ſea by the enemies, by reaſon of taking of all their beſt ſhips, with much ſubſtance, ſo that they be not of ability to prouide ſufficient ſhips and veſſels of their owne within the time limitted in this preſent act: that they for lacke of their owne ſhippes, or any other veſſels of the Quéenes dominions, within forty miles of the City of Briſtowe, may load and embarke their owne wares and marchandiſes in ſtrangers Bottomes, without paying any other cuſtome, than for wares and marchandiſes laden in Engliſh Bottomes: this act or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

In what caſe merchants of Briſtow may vſe ſtrangers ſhips.

Cap. XIIII.

What perſons of Bocking, Weſtbardfold, Cockeſhall, and Dedham, may vſe the making of Cloth or Kerſey, as they might haue done before the ſtatute of 4. and 5. Phil. and Mar. 5.

WHereas by a certaine Act of Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the twentieth day of January in the fourth and fifth yeares of the raignes of the late King Philip and Quéen Mary, and there continued till the ſeuenth day of March, in the ſayd fourth and fifth yeares of the reignes of the ſayd late King and Quéene, amongſt other things it was enacted, that from & after the firſt day of May then next following, no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, ſhall vſe or exerciſe the feate or myſterie of making, weauing, or rowing of Woollen clothes, long or ſhort, or Kerſies, pinned Whites, or plaine Streights, to the intent to put the ſame to ſale, but onely in a Market towne where Cloth hath continually béene vſed to be made by the ſpace of ten yeares then laſt paſt, or in a City, Borough, or Towne corporate, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery ſuch woollen Cloth or Kerſey made, wouen, or rowed, out of ſuch City, Borough, Towne corporate, or market towne, fiue pounds.

By the Stat. 4. & 5 P. & M. 5 no cloth ſhalbe made to ſell, but in a market towne, &c.

And where alſo it is prouided in the ſayd act, that it ſhall be lawfull to any perſon, then vſing or exerciſing the feat or myſtery of making, weauing, or rowing of cloth or kerſey, to inhabit or dwell where he then did dwell, and there to vſe the making, weauig, or rowing of Cloth or Kerſie, as he hath heretofore: any thing in the ſayd act, notwithſtanding.

And where it is further prouided by the ſayd act, that it ſhall bee lawfull to all and euery perſon or perſons, which then did, or after that time ſhould inhabite or dwell in any of the Shires of North Wales, or South Wales, Cheſhire, or Lancaſhire, Weſtmerland, Cumberland, Northumberland, Biſhopricke of Durham, Cornewall, Suffolke, Kent, the towne of Goddelmine in the County of Surrey, or Yorkeſhire, being not within twelue miles of the City of Yorke, or in any of the townes or villages neare adioyning to the water of Strowde, in the County of Gloceſter, where Clothes haue béene vſually made by the ſpace of twenty yeares then laſt paſt, and hauing béene apprentice to the occupation of cloth making, or vſed the ſame by the ſpace of ſeuen yeares, to ſet vp, vſe, and exerciſe the feat or myſtery of making, weauing, or rowing of woollen cloth, out of a city, borough, or market towne, as before that time they might haue done: any thing in the ſayd act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The inhabitants of what places may make cloth out of a market towne.

And foraſmuch as the townes or villages of Bocking, Weſtbarfold, Dedham, and Cockſhall in the County of Eſſex, be faire large townes, and as well planted for cloth making, as the ſayd towne of Godelmine, or better, and few townes in this realme better planted for that purpoſe, and haue bin inhabited of a long time with Clothmakers, which haue made, and dayly do make good and true cloth, to the great commonweale of the countrey there, and nothing preiudiciall to, or for the commonwealth of this realme: be it therefore ordained and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, which now doe inhabite or dwell, or hereafter ſhall dwell in the ſayd townes or villages of Bocking, Weſtbarfold, Cockſhall and Dedham, or in any of them, now vſing or exerciſing, or that hereafter ſhall vſe or exerciſe the feate or myſterie of making, weauing, or rowing of cloth, or kerſie, by the ſpace of ſeuen yeares at the leaſt, or haue bin prentice therto by the ſayd ſpace of ſeuen yéeres, to inhabite and dwell in the ſaid townes or villages of Bocking, Weſtbardfold, Cockſhall, and Dedham, & in euery or any of them, & to vſe the making, weauing, or rowing of cloth or kerſie, as before this time they might haue done, if the ſayd act had neuer bin made: any thing in the ſaid act to the contrary thereof made, or any other act, ſtatute, or law heretofore made, or hereafter to be made to the contrary hereof in any wiſe, notwithſtanding. 27. E. 23.

The inhabitants of Bocking, Weſtbarfold, Cockſhall & Dedham may make cloth.

CAP. XV.

No Timber ſhall be felled to make coales or fuell for making of Iron.

FOr the auoyding of deſtruction and waſting of Timber, be it enacted by our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authoritie of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons hereafter ſhall conuert or imploy, or cauſe to be conuerted or imployed to coale, or other fuell, for the making of Iron, any Timber tree or Timber trees, of Oke, Beech, or Aſh, or of any part thereof, of the breadth of one foote ſquare at the ſtub, and growing within fourteene miles of the ſea, or of any part of the riuers of Thames, Seuerne, Wye, Humber, Dee, Tine, Teeſe, Trent, or any other riuer, creeke, or ſtreame, by the which cariage is commonly vſed by boate, or other veſſell, to any part of the Sea, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery ſuch tree, or any part thereof, ſo imployed or conuerted to coale, or other fuell, for the making of Iron as is aforeſayd, forty ſhillings of lawfull money of England: the one halfe of all which forfeitures to be to our ſoueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie, and her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame by originall writ, bill, plaint, or information, wherein no eſſoine, protection, iniunction, or wager of law ſhall be admitted or allowed.

What timber-trees & growing in which places ſhall not be conuerted to fuell for the making of Iron.

Prouided alwayes, that this act ſhall not extend to the County of Suſſex, nor to the Weild of Kent, nor to any the Pariſhes of Charlewood, Newdigate, and Lighe, in the Weild of the County of Surrey: This act to begin and take effect from and after the Feaſt of the Natiuity of S. Iohn Baptiſt next comming, after this Seſſion of Parliament. Stat, 23. Eliz. 5. 27. Eliz. 19.

To what ſhires or places this Statute ſhall not extend.

CAP. XVII.

The penalty for taking of the Spawne or Frie of any Fiſh, or Salmons, or Trowts, not ſeſaonable, &c.

FOr the preſeruation hereafter of ſpawne, frie, and young breed of Eeles, Salmons, Pikes, and of all other fiſh, which heretofore hath beene much deſtroyed in riuers and ſtreames, ſalt and freſh within this Realme, in ſo much that in diuers places they feede ſwine and dogges with the frie and ſpawne of fiſh, and otherwiſe (lamentable and horrible to be reported) deſtroy the ſame, to the great hinderance and decay of the Common wealth: Be it therefore enacted by the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſty, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, or condition ſoeuer he or they be, from and after the firſt day of Iune next comming, with any manner of Net, Weele, Butt, Taining, Kepper, Lime, Crele, Raw, Fagnet, Trolnet, Trimenet, Trimbote, Salthote, Webliſter, Seur, Lammet, or with any deuiſe or engine made of haire, wooll, line, or canuas, or ſhall vſe any heling net, or Trimle boate, or by any other deuiſe, engine, cawtell, wayes or meanes whatſoeuer, heretofore made or deuiſed, or hereafter to be made or deuiſed ſhall take and kill any young brood, ſpawne, or frie of Eeles, Salmon, Pike, or Pickerell, or of any other fiſh, in any floudgate, pipe at the taile of a Mill, Weare, or in any ſtraites, ſtreames, brookes, riuers, ſalt or freſh within this Realme of England, Wales, Barwicke, or the Marches thereof, nor ſhall from and after the firſt day of Iune next comming, by any of the wayes and meanes aforeſayd, or otherwiſe, in any riuer or place aboue ſpecified, take or kill any Salmons, or Trowtes, not being in ſeaſon, being kepper Salmons, or kepper Trowtes, ſhedder Salmons or ſhedder Trowts.

No perſon ſhall take the ſpawne or frie of fiſh.

None ſhall take any Salmons or Trouts not in ſeaſon.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſayd, that no perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degree, or condition he or they ſhall be of, from and after the ſayd firſt day of Iune, by any of the meanes aforeſayd, in any of the riuers or places aboue named, ſhall take and kill any Pike or Pickerell, not being in length ten inches fiſh, or more, nor any Salmon not being in length ſixteen inches fiſh, and more, nor any Trowt not being in length eight inches or more, nor any Barbell not being in length twelue inches or more.

Of what length fiſhes muſt be that ſhalbe take & killed.

And to the intent, the ſayd young frie, brood, or ſpawne may be preſerued according to the true meaning hereof, be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that no manner of perſon or perſons, from and after the firſt day of Iune next comming, ſhall fiſh or take fiſh with any manner of Tramell, Kepe, Wore, Hiuie, Crele, or by any other engine, deuice, wayes or meanes whatſoeuer, in any riuer, or other places aboue mentiond, but onely with net or Tramell, whereof euery meſhe or maſke ſhall be two inches and a halfe broad, angling excepted.

Of what meſhe each net ſhalbe.

Prouided neuertheleſſe, and bée it enacted by authority aforeſayd, that in all ſuch places where Smelts, Loches, Minneis, Bulheads, Gudgions, or Eeles haue béene vſed to bée taken and killed, that in all ſuch places, it ſhall be lawfull onely for the taking of Smelts, Loches, Minneis, Gudgions and Eeles, to vſe ſuch nets, leyes, and other engines, deuices, wayes and meanes as heretofore haue béene vſed for the taking of the ſame: ſo that ſuch perſon or perſons vſing or occupying ſuch nets, or other engines, as is laſt afore mentioned, doe not take, kill, or deſtroy any other fiſh with the ſayd nets or engines, contrary to the tenor and forme aboue in this ſtatute contained.

What nets or other deuices may be vſed for the taking of ſmal fiſh.

And bée it further enacted, that if any perſon or perſons, after the aboueſayd day limitted in this preſent acte, offend in any of the points before reheaſed, contrary to the tenour, forme, and purpoſe of any part of the ſame: that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſo offending, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery time of his or their offence, the ſumme of twenty ſhillings, and the fiſh ſo taken contrary to the tenor hereof, and alſo the vnlawfull nets, engines, deuices and inſtruments whatſoeuer they be, wherewith or whereby ſuch offence ſhall fortune to bee made, committed, or done.

The penalty of the offender.

And to the intent that a perfect execution may bee had of this preſent acte, bee it further ordained by authority aforeſayde, that the Lord Admirall of England, and the Maior of the City of London for the time being, and all and euery other perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate, which by graunt or other lawfull wayes or meanes, lawfully haue, or ought to haue any conſeruation or preſeruation of any Riuers, Streames, or Water, or puniſhments and corrections of offences committed in any of them, ſhall haue full power and authoritie by vertue of this act, to enquire of all the offences to bée committed and done contrary to the effect and true meaning of this acte, within his or their ſuch lawfull rule, gouernement, iuriſdiction and conſeruacy, by the oathes of twelue men or more, and to heare and determine all and euery the ſame offences committed within his or their ſuch iuriſdiction, conſeruacie, rule and gouernement.

Which perſons ſhall haue authoritie inquire of, & determine the offences aforeſayd, & who ſhall haue the forfeitures.

And that all ſuch paines and forfeitures, as ſhall riſe or grow by the reaſon of any ſuch conuiction for any the offences aforeſayd, ſhall be to the vſe of euery of the ſayd perſon and perſons, being no bodie politike or corporate nor head of any body politike or corporate, before whom ſuch conuiction, as is aforeſayd, ſhall bee had, and to the vſe of euery ſuch body politike and corporate, as heretofore haue lawfully had any fines, forfeitures, and amerciaments for any offence vnlawfully committed or done, in any ſuch their iuriſdiction, or conſeruacies, vpon conuiction had before the head of any ſuch body politike or corporate.

And that alſo the Lord of euery Léet within this Realme of England and Wales, or the dominions of the ſame, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to enquire of all the offences contrary to the purport, tenor, and forme of this eſtatute, within the precinct of their ſayd Léete: ſuch inquirie to be had, in manner and forme, and after ſuch ſort as common amerciaments, or other things inquirable in their Court Léete, haue béene lawfully vſed and accuſtomed to bee had and made. And that vpon euery ſuch preſentment had in any Court or Léete, by the oath of twelue men or more, as is aforeſayd, of any offence or offences, made contrarie to the tenor of this eſtatute: that then all ſuch forfeiture aboue in this eſtatute limitted and appointed for ſuch offence, ſhall be vnto the Lord of the ſayd Léete for the time being, to his owne vſe for euer, and ſhall be leuied in ſuch manner & forme, as amerciament for affraies committed within the precinct of ſuch Léete haue bin vſed and accuſtomed to be leuied.

And if any Léete after the ſayd firſt day of Iune, bée kept within this Realme of England or Wales, or the dominions thereof, and the Steward of the ſayd Leet for the time being, or other for him, doe not charge the Iury ſworn in ſuch Léet, to inquire of all the offences done within the precinct of the ſayd Léete contrary to the tenor and forme of this eſtatute: that then the Steward of the ſayd Leet, to loſe and forfeit forty ſhillings, the one moity of which forfeitures ſhall be to the Quéenes Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to him that will ſue for the ſame. And if any Iury ſworne in any Léet, and being charged to enquire of the offences committed within the precinct of that Léet, doe wilfully and willingly conceale and make default in preſentment, or doe not preſent the offence and offenders: that then it ſhall be lawfull to the Steward, or Baily of the Léet or his or their deputy for the time being, to impannell one other Iury within the ſayd Léet, and to inquire of ſuch concealement, default, or non preſentment, & that vpon ſuch concealement, default, or non preſentment found and preſented, euery of the ſayd Iurours which ſo did conceale, make default, or not preſent, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery ſuch offence xx.s. to the Lord of the ſayd Léet, the ſame to be leuied in manner and forme as is aboueſayd, for the other offences limitted and expreſſed

The forfeiture of the ſteward of a Leet that doth not giue this ſtatute in charge.

The forf. of a Iury in a Leet that doth conceale any offence.

And it is further enacted by authoritie aforeſayde, That if the offences aboue mentioned touching or taking, killing, or deſtroying of Fiſh, or Frie and Spawne, bée not preſented at the Léet where they ſhal be committed, within one yeare next after the offence committed, that the Iuſtices of Peace in their Seſſions, Iuſtices of Oyer and Determiner, and Iuſtices of Aſſiſe in their ſeuerall Circuites, ſhall haue full power and authoritie to enquire thereof, and to heare and determine all the offences committed contrary to the tenor of the eſtatute.

Who may puniſh the ſayd offences if they be not preſented in the Leet.

A ſauing of the liberties of all perſons hauing right to enquire of and puniſh the ſaid offences.

Sauing alwayes to all and euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and corporate and euery of them, all ſuch right, title, intereſt, claime, priuiledge, and conſeruation, and enquirie, and puniſhment of and for the offences aforeſayd, as they or any of them lawfully haue enioy, or of right ought to haue and enioy, by any manner of meanes in this act to the contrary notwithſtanding. This act to indure to the end of the next Parliment.

To what perſons of waters this ſtatute doth not extend.

Prouided alwayes, that this acte, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend unto the fiſhing of the riuer or water of Twéede, nor to any riuer or water whereof the Quéenes Maieſtie is anſwered of any yearely rent or profit, nor to the owners, farmors and occupiers of the riuers of Uske, or Wye, in the County of Monmouth, for any fiſh hereafter to be taken in any the the riuers or waters before mentioned and expreſſed: but that it ſhall be lawfull at all ſeaſonable time & times hereafter, for ſuch as haue or ſhall haue any maner of intereſt therein, to take and fiſh the ſaid riuers & waters, in ſuch manner & forme as heretofore hath béene vſed & accuſtomed, not vſing any net or engine, to the intent willingly to take kill, and deſtroy the ſpawne, brood, or frie, bréeding any kind of fiſh within the ſayd ſeuerall riuers or waters: this acte or any thing therein mentioned or contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. 3. And be it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that the Lord Chancellor or Kéeper of the great Seale of England for the time being, ſhall and may at all times hereafter by vertue of this Act, without further warrant, make and direct Commiſſion or Commiſſions, vnder the great Seale of England, to any perſon or perſons, giuing them, or ſome of them thereby authority to tender and miniſter the Oath aforeſayd, to ſuch perſon or perſons, as by the aforeſayd Commiſſion or Commiſſions the ſayd Commiſſioners ſhall be authoriſed to tender the ſame Oath vnto.

The penalty for the firſt refuſall of the Oath.

And be it alſo further enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any perſon or perſons, appointed or compellable by this Act, or by the ſayd Act made in the ſaid firſt yere, to take the ſayd Oath: or if any perſon or perſons to whom the ſayd Oath by any ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions ſhall be limitted and appointed to be tendred, as is aforeſayd, doe or ſhall at the time of the ſayd Oath ſo tendred, refuſe to take or pronounce the ſayd Oath, in maner and forme aforeſayd, that then the party ſo refuſing, and being thereof lawfully indicted or preſented, within one yeare next after any ſuch refuſall, and conuicted or attainted at any time after, according to the lawes of this Realme, ſhall ſuffer and incurre the dangers, penalties, paines and forfeitures, ordained and prouided by the Statute of prouiſion and Præmunire aforeſayd, made in the xvi. yeare of the reigne of King Richard the ſecond.

And furthermore, be it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, hauing authority to tender the Oath aforeſayd, ſhall within forty dayes next after ſuch refuſal or refuſals of the ſayd Oath, if the Terme be then open, and if not, then at the firſt day of the full Terme next following the ſayd forty dayes, make true certificate vnder his or their ſeale or ſeales, of the names, places & degrées of the perſon or perſons ſo refuſing the ſame Oath before the Quéen her heirs or ſucceſſors, in her or their Court commonly called the Kings bench, vpon paine that euery of the ſayd perſons, hauing ſuch authority to tender the ſayd Oath, making default of ſuch certificat, ſhall for euery ſuch default forfeit an hundred pound to the Quéens highneſſe, her heires or ſucceſſors. And that the Sheriffe of the County, where the ſayd Court commonly called the Kings Bench ſhal for the time be holden, ſhall or may by vertue of this Act, impannell a Iury of the ſame County, to enquire of and vpon euery ſuch refuſall and refuſals: Which Iury ſhall or may vpon euery ſuch Certificate, and other euidence to them in that behalfe to be giuen, by vertue of this Act, procéed to indict the perſon and perſons ſo offending, in ſuch ſort and degrée, to all intents and purpoſes, as the ſame Iury may doe of any offence or offences againſt the Quéenes Maieſties peace, perpetrated, committed, or done, within the ſame County, of and for the which the ſame Iury is ſo impannelled.

Certificate of refuſall into the Kings Bench.

Indictment of the offendor.

And for ſtronger defence and maintenance of this Act, it is further ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed by the authority aforeſayd, that if any ſuch offendor or offendors, as is aforeſayd, of the firſt part or branch of this Eſtatute, that is to ſay, by Writing, Cyphering, Printing, Preaching, or Teaching, Déede, or Act, aduiſedly and wittingly, hold or ſtand with, to extoll, ſet forth, maintaine, or defend the Authority, Iuriſdiction, or Power of the Biſhop of Rome, or of his Sée, heretofore claimed, vſed, or vſurped within this Realme, or in any Dominion or Countrey, being of, within or vnder the Quéenes power or obeyſance: Or by any ſpéech, open déede or act, aduiſedly and wittingly attribute any ſuch manner of iuriſdiction, authority or preheminence to the ſaid Sée of Rome, or to any Biſhop of the ſame Sée for the time being, within this Realme, or in any the Quéenes Dominions or Countries, or bée to any ſuch offendor or offendors abbetting, procuring, or counſelling, or ayding, aſſiſting or comforting, vpon purpoſe, and to the intent to ſet forth, further, and extoll the ſaid vſurped power, authority or iuriſdiction. After ſuch conuiction and attainder, as is aforeſaid, doe eftſoones commit or doe the ſaid offences, or any of them, in maner and forme aforeſaid, and be thereof duely conuicted and attainted, as is aforeſaid.

It ſhall be treaſon the ſecond time to maintaine the authority of the Biſhop or Sée of Rome, or to refuſe the Oath.

And alſo that if any the perſons aboue named and appointed by this Act to take the oath aforeſaid, doe after the ſpace of thrée moneths next after the firſt tendour thereof, the ſecond time refuſe to take and pronounce, or doe not take or pronounce the ſame, in forme aforeſaid to be tendered: that then euery ſuch offendor or offendors, for the ſame ſecond offence and offences, ſhall forfeit, loſe, and ſuffer ſuch like and the ſame paines, forfeitures, iudgement and execution, as is vſed in caſes of high treaſon.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act nor any thing therein contained, nor any attaindour to bée had by force and vertue of this Act, ſhall not extend to make any corruption of bloud, the diſheriting of any heire, forfeiture of dower, nor to the preiudice of the right or title of any perſon or perſons, other than the right or title of the offendor or offendors during his, her, or their naturall liues onely.

No corruption of bloud or forfeiture of dower for any attaindor by this Act.

And that it ſhall and may be lawfull to euery perſon and perſons, to whom the right or intereſt of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, after the death of any ſuch offendor or offendors, ſhould or might haue appertained, if no ſuch attainder had béene, to enter into the ſame, without any Ouſter le maine to be ſued, in ſuch ſort as he or they might haue done if this Act had neuer béene had ne made.

Prouided alſo, that the Oath expreſſed in the ſaid Act, made in the ſaid firſt yeare ſhall be taken and expounded in ſuch forme as is ſet forth in an Admonition annexed to the Quéenes Maieſties Iniunctions, publiſhed in the firſt yeare of her Maieſties reigne: That is to ſay, to confeſſe and acknowledge in her Maieſty, her heires, and ſucceſſors, none other authority than that was chalenged and lately vſed by the noble King Henry the eighth, and King Edward the ſixt, as in the ſaid Admonition more plainly may appeare.

How the oath expreſſed anno 1. Eli. ſhall be expounded.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act ſhall be openly read and publiſhed, and declared at euery Quarter Seſſions by the Clerke of the Peace, and at euery Léet and lawday by the Steward of the Court, and once in euery Terme, in the open Hall of euery houſe and houſes of Court and Chauncery, at the times, and by the perſons thereunto to bée limitted and appointed by the Lord Chauncellor or Kéeper of the great Seale for the time being.

In what courts and places this Act ſhall be publiſhed.

And bee it further enacted that euery perſon which hereafter ſhall bee elected or appointed a Knight, Citizen, or Burgeſſe, or Baron, for any of the fiue ports, for any Parliament or Parliaments hereafter to be holden: ſhall from henceforth, before he ſhall enter into the Parliament houſe, or haue any voyce there, openly receiue and pronounce the ſaid Oath before the Lord Steward for the time being, or his deputy or deputies for that time to be appointed. And that hée which ſhall enter into the Parliament houſe without taking the ſaid Oath, ſhall bée déemed no Knight, Citizen, Burgeſſe, nor Baron for that Parliament, nor ſhall haue any voyce: but ſhall bee to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if he had neuer bin returned nor elected Knight, Citizen, Burgeſſe, or Baron for that Parliament, and ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines and penalties, as if he had preſumed to ſit in the ſame without election, returne, or authority.

Euery Knight, Citizen and Burgeſſe of the Parliament ſhall take the ſaid Oath.

Prouided alway, that foraſmuch as the Queenes Maieſty is otherwiſe ſufficiently aſſured of the Faith and loyalty of the Temporall Lords of her high Court of Parliament: Therefore this Act nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to compell any Temporall perſon, of or aboue the degree of a Baron of this Realme, to take or pronounce the Oath aboueſaid, nor to incurre any penalty limited by this Act, for not taking, or refuſing the ſame: any thing in this Act to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

None of or aboue the degree of a Baron ſhall be compelled to take the ſaid Oath.

Prouided, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that charitable giuing of reaſonable almes to any of the offendour or offendours aboue ſpecified, without fraud or couin, ſhall not be taken or interpreted to be any ſuch abetment, procuring, counſelling, ayding, aſſiſting, or comforting, as thereby the giuer of ſuch almes ſhall incurre any paine, penalty, or forfeiture appointed in this Act.

Charitable giuing of almes to offendors ſhall be no cauſe of forfeiture.

Prouided alſo, and bee it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any Peere of this Realme ſhall hereafter offend, contrary to this Act, or any braunch or Article thereof, that, in that and all ſuch caſe and caſes, they ſhall bee tried by their Peeres, in ſuch manner and forme as in other caſes of Treaſons they haue vſed to be tried, and by none other meanes.

Peeres offending ſhall be tried by their Peeres.

Who only ſhal be compelled to take the oath vpon the ſecond tender.

Prouided alſo further, and be it enacted, that no perſon ſhall be compelled by vertue of this Act to take the Oath aboue mentioned, at or vpon the ſecond time of offering the ſame, according to the forme appointed by this Statute, except the ſame perſon hath bin, is, or ſhall be an Eccleſiaſticall perſon, that had, hath, or ſhall haue, in the time of one of the reignes of the Queens Maieſties moſt noble father, brother, or ſiſter, or in the time of the reigne of the Queens Maieſty, her heires or ſucceſſors, charge, cure, or office in the Church: Or ſuch perſon or perſons as had, hath, or hereafter ſhall haue any office or miniſtery in any Eccleſiaſticall Court of this Realme, vnder any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, in any the times or reignes aforeſaid: Or ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall wilfully refuſe to obſerue the orders and rites for diuine Seruice, that be authoriſed to be vſed and obſerued in the Church of England, after that he or they ſhall be publiquely by the Ordinary or ſome of his Officers for Eccleſiaſticall cauſes admoniſhed to keep and obſerue the ſame: Or ſuch as ſhall openly and aduiſedly depraue by words, writings, or any other open fact, any of the rites and ceremonies, at any time vſed, and authoriſed to be vſed in the Church of England: Or that ſhall ſay or heare the priuate Maſſe prohibited by the lawes of this Realme, and that all ſuch perſons ſhall be compellable to take the Oath vpon the ſecond tender or offer of the ſame, and incurre the penalties for not takingof the ſaid Oath, and none other.

It is not lawfull to ſlay one attainted in Præmunire,

And for as much as it is doubtfull, whether by the lawes of this Realme there be any puniſhment for ſuch as kill or ſlay any perſon or perſons attainted in or vpon a Præmunire: Be it therefore enacted by authority aforeſaid, that it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, to ſlay or kill any perſon or perſons in any manner attainted, or hereafter to be attainted, of, in, or vpon any Præmunire, by pretence, reaſon, or authority of any iudgement giuen or hereafter to be giuen in or vpon the ſame, or by pretence, reaſon, or force of any word or words, thing or things contained or ſpecified in any Statute or law of prouiſion and Præmunire, or in any of them: Any Law, or Statute, or opinion, or expoſition of any Law, or Statute, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Puniſhments inflicted by former lawes.

Sauing alwaies the due execution of all and euery perſon and perſons attainted, or to be attainted, for any offence whereupon iudgement of death now is, or ought to be, or hereafter may lawfully be giuen, by reaſon of this Statute, or otherwiſe: And ſauing alwayes all and euery ſuch paines of death, or other hurt or puniſhment, as heretofore might without danger of law be done vpon any perſon or perſons that ſhall ſend or bring into this Realme, or any other the Queenes Dominions, or within the ſame, ſhall execute any ſummons, ſentence, excommunication, or other proceſſe, againſt any perſon or perſons, from the Biſhop of Rome for the time being, or by or from the See of Rome, or the authority or iuriſdiction of the ſame See.

Vpon what proofe only any perſon may be indicted.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall hereafter be endicted for aſſiſting, ayding, maintaining, comforting, or abetting of any perſon or perſons for any the ſaid offences, in extolling, ſetting forth, or defending of the vſurped power and authority of the Biſhop of Rome, vnleſſe he or they be thereof lawfully accuſed by ſuch good and ſufficient teſtimony or proofe, as by the Iury by whom he ſhall ſo be indicted, ſhall be thought good, lawfull, and ſufficient, to proue him or them guilty of the ſaid offences. Stat. 23. El. 1.

Cap. II.

The Statute of 4. H. 7. 19. 7. H. 8. 1. and 27. H. 8. 22. ordained for the keeping in repaire of Townes, and houſes of husbandry, and maintaining of tillage, ſhall bee put in execution. The Stat. of 5. & 6. Ed. 6. 5. and 2. & 3. P. & M. 2. prouided for the reedifying of houſes of husbandry, and the increaſe of tillage, ſhall be repealed. Such lands, or ſo much in quantity, as in any Towne, Village, Hamlet, Lordſhip, place knowne, or Pariſh, as hath beene put in tillage and eared in any one yeare, and ſo kept foure yeare, ſithence the feaſt of S. George the Martyr, Anno 20. H. 8. ſhall be eared and kept in tillage according to the nature of the ſoile, and cuſtome of the countrey by the occupier thereof, vpon paine that euery offendor ſhall forfeit x. s. an acre yearely to the next in remainder or reuerſion for the terme of life, liues, or in taile: for the which he may diſtraine, or haue A. B. P. or I. And in his default by the ſpace of one yeare, then he in the reuerſion or remainder in fee ſimple ſhall haue the ſame remedy. And in his default the immediat Lord of the fee. And in his default the Q. or the Q. and Informer. But this Act ſhall not extend to any land conuerted from tillage into paſture for the onely keeping of his own horſes. draught, oxen, kine, or other cattell for the only victuals to be ſpent in his own houſe, ſo that he hath not other ſufficient paſture within fiue miles, nor to any Parke, Warren of Conies, &c. vt ſupra 5. Ed. 6. 5. Cap. III.

A reuiuer of the Stat. of 22. H. 8. 12. and 3. & 4. Ed. 6. 16. touching relieuing poore & impotent perſons, and puniſhment of Vagabonds. The poore & impotent perſons of euery Pariſh ſhall be relieued of that which euery perſon will of their charity giue weekely. And the ſame reliefe ſhalbe gathered in euery Pariſh by Collectors aſſigned, and weekely diſtributed to the poore, for none of them ſhall openly goe or ſit begging. And if any pariſhioner ſhall obſtinately refuſe to pay reaſonbly towards the reliefe of the ſaid poore, or ſhall diſcourage others: Then the Iuſt. of P. at the Q. Seſſions may taxe him to a reaſonable weekely ſumme, which if he refuſe to pay, they may commit him to priſon. And if any pariſh haue in it more impotent poore perſons than they are able to relieue, then the Iuſtices of Peace of the County may licence ſo many of them as they ſhall thinke good, to begge in one, or more hundreds of the ſame County. And if any poore begge in any other place than he is licenced, he ſhall be puniſhed as a Vagabond, according to the Stat. of 22. Hen. 8. EXP. St. 14. Eliz. 5.

CAP. IIII.

A repeale of ſo much of former Stat. as concerne the hiring, keeping, departing, working, wages, or order of ſeruants, labourers, &c. And a declaration who ſhall be compellable to ſerue in handicrafts, and who in husbandry, and their ſeuerall duties, &c.

ALthough there remaine and ſtand in force preſently a great number of Acts and Stat. concerning the retaining, departing, wages, & orders of apprentices, ſeruants and labourers, as well in husbandry, as in diuers other arts, myſteries, and occupations: yet partly for the imperfection and contrariety that is found and doth appeare in ſundry of the ſaid lawes, and for the variety and number of them, and chiefly for that the wages and allowances limited & rated in many of the ſaid ſtatutes, are in diuers places too ſmall, and not anſwerable to this time, reſpecting the aduancement of prices of all things belonging to the ſaid ſeruants and labourers, the ſaid lawes cannot conueniently without the great griefe and burden of the poore labourer and hired man, be put in good and due execution. And as the ſaid ſeuerall Acts and Statutes were at the time of the making of them, thought to be very good and beneficiall for the common wealth of this Realme (as diuers of them yet are) So if the ſubſtance of as many of the ſaid lawes as are meet to be continued, ſhall be digeſted and reduced into one ſole law and ſtatute, and in the ſame an vniforme order preſcribed and limitted, concerning the wages and other orders for apprentices, ſeruants, and labourers, there is good hope that it will come to paſſe, that the ſame law (being duely executed) ſhould baniſh idleneſſe, aduance husbandry, & yeeld vnto the hired perſon, both in the time of ſcarcity, and in the time of plenty, a conuenient proportion of wages.

The ſubſtance of many former Statutes reduced into this one.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that as much of all the ſtatutes heretofore made, and euery branch of them, as touch or concerne the hiring, keeping, departing, working, wages, or order of ſeruants, workemen, artificers, apprentices, and labourers, or any of them, and the penalties and forfeitures concerning the ſame, ſhall be from and after the laſt day of September next enſuing, repealed and vtterly voyd and of none effect, and that all the ſaid Statutes, and euery branch thereof, or any matter contained in them, and not repealed by this Statute, ſhall remaine and be in full force and effect: Any thing in this Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A repeale of ſo much of all former Stat. as doe concerne the keeping, departing, etc. of ſeruants, etc.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no manner of perſon or perſons, after the aforeſaid laſt day of September now next enſuing, ſhall retaine, hire, or take into ſeruice, or cauſe to be retained or hired, or taken into ſeruice, nor any perſon ſhall be retained, hired, or taken into ſeruice, by any means or colour, to work for any leſſe time or terme than for one whole yeare, in any of the Sciences, Crafts, Myſteries, or Arts, of Clothyers, Wollen Cloth Weauers, Tuckers, Fullers, Clothworkers, Shermen, Dyers, Hoſiers, Taylors, Shoomakers, Tanners, Pewterers, Bakers, Brewers, Glouers, Cutlers, Smiths, Farrors, Curriers, Sadlers, Spurriers, Turners, Cappers, Hatmakers, or Feltmakers, Bowyers, Fletchers, Arrow-head makers, Butchers, Cookes, or Millers.

No perſon ſhall retaine a ſeruant in theſe ſciences vnder one whole yeare.

And be it further enacted, That euery perſon being vnmarried, and euery other perſon being vnder the age of xxx. yeares, that after the Feaſt of Eaſter next ſhall marry, & hauing been brought vp in any of the ſaid Arts, Crafts, or Sciences, or that hath vſed or exerciſed any of them by the ſpace of three yeares, or more, and not hauing lands, tenements, rents, or hereditaments, copihold, or freehold, of one eſtate of inheritance, or for terme of any life or liues, of cleare yearely value of xl. s. nor being worth of his owne goods the cleare value of x. pound, and ſo allowed by two Iuſt. of the Peace, of the County where he hath moſt commonly inhabited by the ſpace of one whole yeare, and vnder their hands and ſeales, or by the Maior or other head officer of the City, Borough, or town corporate, where ſuch perſon hath moſt commonly dwelt by the ſpace of one whole year, & two Aldermen, or two other diſcreet Burgeſſes of the ſame City, Borough, or towne corporate, if there be no Aldermen, vnder their hands & ſeales, nor being retained with any perſon in husbandry, or in any of the afore ſaid arts & ſciences, according to this ſtatute, nor lawfully retained in other art or ſcience, nor being lawfully retained in houſhold, or in any office, with any noble man, gentleman, or others, according to the lawes of this Realme, nor haue a conuenient farme, or other holding in tillage, whereupon he may imploy his labour: ſhall (during the time that he or they ſhall ſo be vnmaried, or vnder the ſaid of xxx. yeares, vpon requeſt made by any perſon vſing the art or myſtery wherein the ſaid perſon ſo required hath beene exerciſed, as is aforeſaid) be retained, and ſhall not refuſe to ſerue according to the tenour of this Statute, vpon the paine and penalty hereafter mentioned.

What ſort of perſons are compellable to ſerue in any of the crafts aforeſaid.

No perſon ſhall put away his ſeruant, nor any ſeruant ſhall depart from his Maſter before the end of his time.

The cauſe of the ſeruants putting away or departing to be determined by a Iuſtice of Peace, Maior, Balliſe, &c.

And be it further enacted, that no perſon which ſhall retaine any ſeruant, ſhall put away his or her ſaid ſeruant, and that no perſon retained according to this Statute, ſhall depart from his Maſter, Miſtreſſe, or Dame, before the end of his or her terme, vpon the paine hereafter mentioned, vnleſſe it be for ſome reaſonble and ſufficient cauſe or matter, to be allowed before two Iuſtices of Peace, or one at the leaſt, within the ſaid County, or before the Maior or other chiefe officer of the City, Borough, or Towne corporate, wherein the ſaid Maſter, Miſtreſſe, or Dame inhabiteth, to whom any of the parties grieued ſhall complaine. Which ſaid Iuſtices or Iuſtice, Maior or chiefe officer, ſhall haue and take vpon them or him, the hearing and ordering of the matter, betwixt the ſaid Maſter, Miſtreſſe, or Dame, and ſeruant, according to the equity of the cauſe.

No ſeruant ſhall depart or be put away, but vpon a quarters warning.

And that no ſuch Maſter, Miſtreſſe or Dame, ſhall put away any ſuch ſeruant at the end of his terme, or that any ſuch ſeruant ſhall depart from his ſaid Maſter, Miſtreſſe, or Dame, at the end of his terme, without one quarter warning giuen before the end of his ſaid tearme, either by the ſaid Maſter, Miſtreſſe or Dame, or ſeruant, the one to the other, vpon the paine hereafter enſuing.

What ſort of perſons are compellable to ſerue by the yeare in husbandry.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery perſon betwéene the age of xii. yeares and the age of lx. yeares, not being lawfully retained, nor apprentice with any Fiſherman or Mariner haunting the ſeas, nor being in ſeruice with any Kydder or carier of any corne, graine or meale, for prouiſion of the City of London, nor with any husbandman in husbandry, nor in any City, Towne corporate, or market Towne, in any of the Arts or Sciences limited or appointed by this eſtatute to haue or take apprentices, nor being retained by the yeare, or halfe the yeare at the leaſt, for the digging, ſéeking, finding, getting, melting, fining, working, trying, making of any Siluer, Tinne, Lead, Iron, Copper, ſtone, ſea cole, ſtone cole, Moore cole, or cherke cole, nor being occupied in or about the making of any glaſſe, nor being a gentleman borne, nor being a Student or Scholler in any of the Vniuerſities, or in any Schole, nor hauing lands, tenements, rents, or hereditaments, for tearme of life, or of one eſtate of inheritance, of the cléere yearely value of forty ſhillings, nor being worth in goods and cattels to the value of ten pound, nor hauing a father or mother then liuing, or other anceſtor whoſe heire apparant he is, then hauing lands, tenements, or hereditaments, of the yearely value of ten pound, or aboue, or goods or cattels of the value of forty pound, nor being a neceſſary or conuenient officer or ſeruant lawfully retained as is aforeſaid, nor hauing a conuenient farme or holding, whereupon he may or ſhall imploy his labour, nor being otherwiſe lawfully retained, according to the true meaning of this Statute: ſhall after the foreſaid laſt day of September now next enſuing, by vertue of this Eſtatute be compelled to be retained to ſerue in husbandry by the yeare, with any perſon that kéepeth husbandry, and will require any ſuch perſon ſo to ſerue, within the ſame Shire where he ſhall be ſo required.

The forf. for putting away his ſeruant within his terme, or at the end of his terme without warning.

And be it further enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any perſon after he hath retained any ſeruant, ſhall put away the ſame ſeruant before the end of his terme, vnleſſe it be for ſome reaſonable and ſufficient cauſe, to be allowed as is aforeſaid: or if any ſuch Maſter, Miſtreſſe or Dame, ſhall put away any ſuch ſeruant at the end of his terme, without one quarters warning giuen before the ſaid end, as is aboue remembred, that then euery ſuch Maſter, Miſtreſſe or Dame ſo offending, vnleſſe he or they be able to proue by two ſufficient witneſſes ſuch reaſonable and ſufficient cauſe of putting away of their ſeruant or ſeruants, during their terme, or a quarters warning giuen afore the end of the ſaid terme, as is aforeſaid, before the Iuſtices of Oyer and Terminer, Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, Iuſtices of Peace in the quarter Seſſions, or before the Maior or other head officer of any City, Borough or Towne Corporate, and two Aldermen, or two other diſcréete Burgeſſes of the ſame City, Borough or Towne Corporate, if there be no Aldermen, or before the Lord Preſident and Councell eſtabliſhed in the Marches of Wales, or before the Lord Preſident and Councell for the time being eſtabliſhed in the North parts, ſhall forfeit the ſumme of xl.s.

The puniſhment of a ſeruant which performeth not his duty in ſeruice or departure.

And if any ſeruant, retained according to the forme of this Eſtatute, depart from his Maſter, Miſtreſſe or Dames ſeruice before the end of his terme, vnleſſe it be for ſome reaſonable and ſufficient cauſe, to be allowed as is aforeſaid: Or if any ſeruant at the end of his terme depart from his ſaid Maſter, Miſtreſſe or Dames ſeruice, without one quarters warning giuen before the end of his ſaid terme, in forme aforeſaid, and before two lawfull witneſſes: Or if any perſon or perſons compellable and bounden to be retainors, and to ſerue in Husbandry, or in any other the Arts, Sciences, or Myſteries aboue remembred, by the yeare or otherwiſe, doe (vpon requeſt made) refuſe to ſerue for the wages that ſhall bée limited, rated and appointed, according to the forme of this Statute: or promiſe or couenant to ſerue, and doe not ſerue, according to the tenour of the ſame: that then euery ſuch ſeruant, ſo departing away, and euery perſon ſo refuſing to ſerue for ſuch wages, vpon complaint thereof made by the Maſter, Miſtreſſe, or Dame of the ſaid Seruant, or by the party to or with whom the ſaid refuſall is made, made or promiſe not kept, to two Juſtices of Peace of the County, or to the Maior or other head officer of the City, Borough, towne corporate, and two Aldermen, or two other diſcreete Burgeſſes of the ſame City, Borough, or Towne corporate, if there be no Aldermen where the ſaid Maſter, Miſtreſſe, or Dame, or the ſaid party to or with whom the ſaid refuſall is made and promiſe not kept, dwelleth, or to either of the ſaid Lords Preſidents and Councell of Wales and the North, the ſaid Juſtices, Lords Preſidents and Councell, and alſo the ſaid Maiors or other head officers, and other perſons of Cities, Boroughs, or Townes corporate, or any of them as is aforeſaid, ſhall haue power by force of this ſtatute, to heare and examine the matter, and finding the ſaid ſeruant or the ſaid party ſo refuſing, faulty in the premiſſes, vpon ſuch proofes and good matter as to their diſcretions ſhall be thought ſufficient, to commit him or them to ward, there to remaine without baile or mainepriſe, vntill the ſaid ſeruant or party ſo offending ſhalbe bound to the party to whom the offence ſhalbe made, to ſerue and continue with him for the wages that then ſhall be limitted and appointed, according to the tenour and forme of this eſtatute, and to be diſcharged vpon his deliuery, without paying any fee to the Gaoler where he or they ſhalbe ſo impriſoned.

None may depart forth of the City, Towne, Pariſh &c. without a teſtimoniall.

And be it likewiſe enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that none of the ſaid retained perſons in huſbandry, or in any the arts or ſciences aboue remembred, after the time of his retainour expired, ſhall depart forth of one City, Towne, or Pariſh, to another, nor out of the Lath, Rape, Wapentake, or Hundred, nor out of the County or Shire, where he laſt ſerued, to ſerue in any other City, Towne corporate, Lath, Rape, Wapentake, Hundred, Shire or County, vnleſſe he haue a teſtimoniall vnder the Seale of the ſaid City or Towne corporate, or of the Conſtable or Conſtables, or other head officer or officers, and of two other honeſt houſeholders, of the City, Towne, or Pariſh where he laſt ſerued, declaring his lawfull departure, and the name of the ſhire and place where he dwelled laſt before his departure, according to the forme hereafter expreſſed in this Act. Which certificate or teſtimoniall ſhall be written and deliuered vnto the ſaid ſeruant, and alſo regiſtred by the Parſon, Vicar, or Curate of the Pariſh, where ſuch Maſter, Miſtreſſe or Dame doth or ſhall dwell, taking for the doing thereof two pence and not aboue. And the forme thereof ſhall be as followeth.

The forme of the teſtimoniall.

> Memorandum that A.B. ſeruant to C.D. of E. huſbandman, or Taylor, &c. in the ſaid county, is licenced to depart from his ſaid Maſter, and is at his liberty to ſerue elſewhere, according to the Statute in that caſe made and prouided. In witneſſe whereof, &c. Dated, the day, moneth, yeare, and place. &c. of the making thereof.

No ſeruant ſhall be retained without ſhewing his teſtimoniall.

The Maſter ſhall pay v. li. which retaineth a ſeruant without a teſtimoniall.

Counterfeit teſtimoniall.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons that ſhall depart out of ſeruice, ſhall be retained or accepted into any other ſeruice, without ſhewing, before his retainor ſuch teſtimoniall as is aboue remembred, to the chiefe officer of the towne corporate and in euery other towne and place, to the Conſtable, Curat, Churchwarden, or other head officer of the ſame, where he ſhall be retained to ſerue, vpon the paine that euery ſuch ſeruant ſo departing without ſuch certificat or teſtimoniall, ſhall be impriſoned, vntill he procure a teſtimoniall or certificat, the which if he cannot doe within the ſpace of xxi. dayes next after the firſt day of his impriſonment, then the ſaid perſon to be whipped and vſed as a vagabond, according to the lawes in ſuch caſes prouided. And that euery perſon retaining any ſuch ſeruant, without ſhewing ſuch teſtimoniall or certificat, as is aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch offence fiue pounds. And if any ſuch perſon ſhall be taken with any counterfeit or forged teſtimoniall, then to be whipped as a vagabond.

How long labourers ſhall continue at their worke.

And be it further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, that all artificers and labourers, being hired for wages, by the day or weeke, ſhall betwixt the middes of the moneths of March and September, be and continue at their work, at or before fiue of the clocke in the morning, and continue at worke, and not depart, vntill betwixt ſeuen and eight of the clocke at night (except it be in the time of breakefaſt, dinner, or drinking, the which times at the moſt ſhall not exceede aboue two houres and a halfe in the day, that is to ſay, at euery drinking one halfe houre, for his dinner one houre, and for his ſleepe when he is allowed to ſleepe, the which is from the middeſt of May to the middeſt of Auguſt, halfe an houre at the moſt, and at euery breakfaſt one halfe houre. And all the ſaid artificers and labourers, betweene the middeſt of September and the middeſt of March, ſhall be and continue at their worke from the ſpring of the day in the morning, vntill the night of the ſame day, except it be in time afore appointed for breakefaſt and dinner, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit i.d. for euery houres abſence, to be deducted & defaulked out of his wages that ſhall ſo offend.

No artificer or labourer ſhall depart before his worke be finiſhed.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery artificer and labourer, that ſhall be lawfully retained in or for the building or repairing of any Church, Houſe, Ship, Mill, or euery other peece of worke taken in great, in taske, or in groſſe, or that ſhall hereafter take vpon him to make or finiſh any ſuch thing or worke, ſhall continue and not depart from the ſame, vnleſſe it bee for not paying of his wages or hire agreed on, or otherwiſe lawfully taken or appointed to ſerue the Queenes Maieſty, her Heires or Succeſſors, or for other lawfull cauſe, or without licence of the Maſter or owner of the worke, or of him that hath the charge thereof, before the finiſhing of the ſaid worke, vpon paine of impriſonment by one moneth without baile or mainepriſe, and the forfeiture of the ſumme of fiue pounds to the party from whom he ſhall ſo depart, for the which the ſaid party may haue his action of debt againſt him that ſhall ſo depart, in any of the Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, ouer and beſides ſuch ordinary coſts and damages, as may or ought to be recouered by the Common Lawes, for or concerning any ſuch offence. In which action, no protection, wager of Law, or Eſſoigne, ſhall be admitted.

And that no Artificer or Labourer retained in any ſeruice, to worke with the Queenes Maieſty, or any other perſon, depart not from her ſaid Maieſty, or from the ſaid other perſon, vntill ſuch time as the worke be finiſhed, if the perſon ſo retaining the Artificer or Labourer ſo long will haue him, and pay him his wages or other duties, vpon paine of impriſonment of euery perſon ſo departing, by the ſpace of one moneth.

The wages of ſeruants, labourers, Artificers ſhall be aſſeſſed by the Iuſtices of P. Sheriffe, &c. 39.El.12. 1.Iac.6.

Alt.39.El.12. 1.Iac.6.

Proclamations ſhall be made of the rates of the wages of ſeruants, &c.

And for the declaration and limitation what wages Seruants, Labourers, and Artificers, either by the yeare, or day, or otherwiſe ſhall haue and receiue: Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Iuſtices of peace of euery Shire, Riding, and Liberty, within the limits of their ſeuerall Commiſſions, or the more part of them, being then reſiant within the ſame, and the Sheriffe of that County, if he conueniently may, and euery Maior, Bailiffe, or other head officer, within any City, or Towne Corporate, wherein is any Iuſtice of Peace within the limits of the ſaid City or Towne Corporate, and of the ſaid Corporation, ſhall before the tenth day of Iune next comming, and afterward ſhall yearely at euery generall Seſſions firſt to be holden and kept after Eaſter, or at ſome time conuenient, within ſixe weekes next following euery of the ſaid Feaſts of Eaſter, aſſemble themſelues together, and they (ſo aſſembled) calling vnto them ſuch diſcreet and graue perſons of the ſaid County, or of the ſaid City or Towne Corporate, as they ſhall thinke meete, and conferring together, reſpecting the plenty or ſcarcity of the time, and other circumſtances neceſſarily to be conſidered, ſhall haue authority by vertue hereof, within the limits and precincts of their ſeuerall Commiſſions, to limit, rate, and appoint the wages, aſwell of ſuch and ſo many of the ſaid Artificers, handicrafts men, Husbandmen, or any other Labourer, ſeruant, or workeman, whoſe wages in time paſt hath beene by any Law or Statute rated and appointed, as alſo the wages of all other Labourers, Artificers, Workemen, or Apprentices of husbandry, which haue not beene rated, as they the ſame Iuſtices, Maiors, or head Officers within their ſeuerall Commiſſions or Liberties, ſhall thinke meete by their diſcretions to be rated, limited, or appointed by the yeare, or by the day, weeke, moneth, or otherwiſe, with meat and drinke, or without meat and drinke, and what wages euery workeman or Labourer ſhall take by the great, for mowing, reaping, or threſhing, of Corne and graine, and for mowing or making of Hay, or for Ditching, Paning, Rayling, or Hedging by the Rod, Pearch, Lugge, Yarde, Pole, Rope, or Foot, and for any other kind of reaſonable labour or ſeruice, and ſhall yearely before the twelfth day of Iuly, next after the ſaid aſſeſſement and rates ſo appointed and made, certifie the ſame, ingroſſed in Parchment, with the conſiderations and cauſes thereof, vnder their hands and ſeales, into the Queenes moſt honourable Court of Chancery, whereupon it ſhall be lawfull to the Lord Chancellor of England, or Lord Keeper of the great Seale for the time being, vpon declaration thereof, to the Queenes Maieſty, her heires or Succeſſors, or to the Lords and others of the priuy Councell, for the time being, attendant vpon their perſons, to cauſe to be printed and ſent downe before the firſt day of September, next after the ſaid Certificate, into euery County, to the Sheriffe and Iuſtices of Peace there, and to the ſaid Maior, Bailiffe, and head Officers, tenne or twelue Proclamations or more, containing in euery of them the ſeuerall rates appointed by the ſaid Iuſtices and other head Officers, as is aforeſaid, with commandement by the ſaid Proclamations, to all perſons in the name of the Queenes Maieſty, her heires or Succeſſors, ſtraightly to obſerue the ſame, and to all Iuſtices, Sheriffes, and other Officers, to ſee the ſame duely and ſeuerally obſerued, vpon the danger of the puniſhment and forfeitures limited and appointed by this Eſtatute. Vpon receipt whereof, the ſaid Sheriffes, Iuſtices of Peace, and the Maior and head Officer in euery City, or Towne Corporate, ſhall cauſe the ſame Proclamation to be entred of Record, by the Clerke of the Peace, or by the Clerke of the City or Towne Corporate. And the ſaid Sheriffes, Iuſtices, and other the ſaid Maior, and head Officers, ſhall forthwith in open Markets, vpon the Market dayes before Michaelmas then enſuing, cauſe the ſame Proclamation to be proclaimed in euery City or Market Towne within the limits of their Commiſſion, and the ſame Proclamation to bee fixed in ſome conuenient place of the ſaid City and Towne, or in ſuch of the moſt occupied Market Townes, as to the ſaid Sheriffes, Iuſtices of Peaces, and to the ſaid Maior and head Officer ſhall bee thought meete.

Continuance or alteration of the rates of wages at the Iuſtices diſcretion.

And if the ſaid Sheriffes, Iuſtices of Peace, or the Maior and head Officers, ſhall at their ſaid generall Seſſions, or at any time after, within ſixe weekes then following, vpon their aſſembly and conference together, thinke it conuenient to retaine & keepe for the yeare then to come, the rates and proportions of wages that they certified the yeare before, or to change or reforme them, or ſome part of them: then they ſhall before the ſaid twelfth day of Iuly, yearely certifie into the ſayd Court of Chancery their reſolutions and determinations therein, to the intent that Proclamations may accordingly bée renued and ſent downe. And if it ſhall happen that there bée no néede of any reformation or alteration of the rates of the ſayd wages, but that the former ſhall be thought méete to be continued: then the Proclamations for the yéere paſt, ſhall remaine in force vntill new Proclamations vpon new rates concerning the ſayd wages, ſhall bée ſent downe according to the forme of this Eſtatute.

The fine of the Iuſtices, Maiors Bailiffes, &c which be abſent at the taxing of ſeruants wages.

And bée it further enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that if all the ſaid Iuſtices of Peace, reſiant within the Counties where they are or ſhall be Iuſtices of Peace, Maiors, and head Officers, doe not before the tenth day of Iune next comming, and afterward yearely appeare and aſſemble at the ſaid generall Seſſions, or within ſix wéeks next after the ſayd generall Seſſions, and limit and rate the wages of the ſaid Seruants and Labourers, or ſhall not conſider whether the former rates made, be méete to be continued, or to be altered and reformed in manner and forme aforeſaid, or be negligent or remiſſe in the Certificat thereof, in forme aboue written, that then euery Iuſtice of Peace of the County, and euery Maior and head Officer of the Citie or Towne Corporate, in whom any ſuch default or negligence ſhall be found, being within the ſaid County, City, or Towne Corporate, at the time of the ſaid next aſſembly, or at the time of the ſaid Seſſions or at the times of the ſaid Seſſions, or at the times of the ſaid rates of wages to be ſet, within ſix wéekes next after euery ſuch Seſſions, and not viſited with any ſuch ſickneſſe as hée could not trauell thither without perill and danger of his life, or not hauing any other lawfull and good excuſe to bee allowed by the Iuſtices then aſſembled for the rating and taxing of wages, as is aforeſaid, or by the more part of them, vpon a corporall oath and Affidauit to bée taken and made openly before the ſaid Iuſtices vpon the holy Euangeliſts by ſome credibl perſon, aſſeſſed and taxed in the Booke of Subſidy of that County, to the cléere value of fiue pounds at the leaſt, or by ſuch other perſon as the moſt part of ſuch Iuſtices ſhall allow and accept to take ſuch oath, ſhall for ſuch default or negligence forfeit vnto the Quéenes Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors ten pounds of lawful money of England.

The puniſhment of him which giueth more wages than is taxed by the Iuſtices &c.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that if any perſon, after the ſaid Proclamation ſhall bee ſo ſent down and publiſhed, ſhall by any ſecret wayes or meanes, directly or indirectly, retaine or kéep any ſeruant, workman, or labourer, or ſhall giue any more or greater wages, or other commodity contrary to the true meaning and purport of this Eſtatute, or contrary to the rates or wages that ſhall bée aſſeſſed or appointed in the ſaid Proclamations: that then euery perſon that ſhall ſo offend, and be thereof lawfully conuicted before any the Iuſtices, or other head Officers aboue remembred, or either of the ſaid Preſidents and Councels, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of tenne daies, without baile or maineprize, and ſhall loſe and forfeit fiue pounds of lawfull money of England.

The puniſhment of the ſeruant, labourer, &c. which taketh more wages than is taxed.

And that euery perſon that ſhall be ſo retained and take wages, contrary to this Eſtatute, or any branch thereof, or of the ſaid Proclamation, and ſhall bée thereof conuicted before the Iuſtices aforeſaid, or any two of them, or before the Maior, or other head Officers aforeſayd, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one and twenty dayes, without baile or maineprize.

Euery retaining contrary to this ſtat. ſhall be voyd.

And that euery retainer, promiſe, gift, or payment of wages, or other thing whatſoeuer, contrary to the true meaning of this Eſtatute, and euery writing and bond to bée made for that purpoſe ſhall be vtterly voyd and of none effect.

The puniſhment of the ſeruant which maketh aſſault vpon his Maſter, Miſtris, Ouerſeer.

And be it enacted by the authorite aforeſayd, that if any ſeruant, workeman or labourer, ſhall wilfully, or maliciouſly, make any aſſault or affray, vpon his Maſter, Miſtreſſe, or Dame, or vpon any other that ſhall at the time of ſuch aſſault or affray, haue the charge or ouerſight of any ſuch ſeruant, workman, or labourer, or of the worke wherein the ſeruant, workeman, or labourer is appointed or hyred to worke, and being thereof conuicted before any two of the Iuſtices, Mayor, or other head Officer aforeſayd, where the ſayd offence is committed, or before eyther of the ſayd Lords Preſidents and Councell before remembred, by confeſſion of the ſayd ſeruant, workman, or labourer, or by the teſtimony, witneſſe and oath of two honeſt men: that then euery ſuch offendor ſhall ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole yéere, or leſſe, by the diſcretion of two Iuſtices of Peace, if it bée without a Towne Corporate, and if it bée within any Towne Corporate, then by the diſcretion of the Mayor or head Officer of the ſame Town Corporate, with two others of the diſcréeteſt perſons of the ſame Corporation, at the leaſt. And if the offence ſhall require further puniſhment, then to receiue ſuch other open puniſhment, ſo as it extend not to life or limme, as the Iuſtices of Peace in open Seſſions, or as the more part of them, or the ſayd Mayor, or head Officer, and ſix or foure at the leaſt of the diſcréeteſt perſons of the ſame Corporation before whom the offence ſhall be examined, ſhall thinke conuenient for the quality of the ſayd offence ſo done or committed.

Artificers compellable to worke in hay time & haueſt.

Prouided alwaies, and bée it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that in the time of Hay or Corne harueſt, the Iuſtices of Peace, and euery of them, and alſo the Conſtable or other head Officer of euery Towneſhippe, vpon requeſt, and for the avoyding of the loſſe of any Corne, Graine, or Hay, ſhall and may cauſe all ſuch Artificers and perſons as be méete to labour, by the diſcretions of the ſayd Iuſtices or Conſtables or other head Officers, or by any of them, to ſerue by the day, for the mowing, reaping, ſhearing, getting, or inning of Corne, Graine, and Hay, according to the ſkill and quality of the perſon, and that none of the ſaid perſons ſhall refuſe ſo to doe, vpon paine to ſuffer impriſonment in the ſtockes, by the ſpace of two dayes and one night. And the Conſtable of the Towne, or other head Officer of the ſame, where the ſayd refuſall ſhall be made, vpon complaint to him made, ſhall haue authority by vertue hereof, to ſet the ſayd offendor in the ſtockes for the time aforeſayd, and ſhall puniſh him accordingly, vpon paine to loſe and forfeit for not doing thereof the ſumme of forty ſhillings.

A prouiſo for ſome which do goe into other Shires for worke in hay time and harueſt.

Prouided alſo that all perſons of the Counties where they haue accuſtomed to goe into other Shires for harueſt worke, and hauing at that time no harueſt worke ſufficient in the ſame Towne nor County, where hee or they dwelt in the winter then laſt paſt, bringing with him or them a teſtimoniall vnder the hand and ſeale of one Iuſtice of the Peace of the Shire or other head Officer of the Towne or place that he or they come from, teſtifying the ſame, for the which hee ſhall pay not aboue one peny (other than ſuch perſons as ſhall bee retained in ſeruice according to the forme of this eſtatute) may repaire and reſort in harueſt of Hay or Corne, from the Countries wherein their dwelling places are, into any other place or County, for the only mowing, reaping, and getting of Hay, Corne, or Graine, and for the onely working of harueſt workes, as they might haue done before the making of this Eſtatute: Any thing herein contained to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

Women compellable to ſerue which be aboue twelue, & vnder forty yere old vnmarried and forth of ſeruice.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that two Iuſtices of Peace, the Mayor or other head Officer of any City, Borough, or Towne Corporate, and two Aldermen, or two other diſcreet Burgeſſes of the ſame City, Borough or Towne Corporate, if there bee no Aldermen, ſhall and may by vertue hereof, appoint any ſuch woman as is of the age of twelue yeres, and vnder the age of forty years, and vnmarried, and forth of ſeruice, as they ſhall thinke meet to ſerue, to be retained or ſerue by the yeare, or by the weeke or day, for ſuch wages, and in ſuch reaſonable ſort and manner as they ſhall thinke meet. And if any ſuch woman ſhall refuſe ſo to ſerue, then it ſhall be lawfull for the ſayd Iuſtices of Peace, Mayor, or head Officers, to commit ſuch woman to ward, vntill ſhee ſhall bee bounden to ſerue, as is aforeſayd.

Huſbandmen may take apprentices

And for the better aduancement of Huſbandry and Tillage, and to the intent that ſuch as are fit to be made apprentices to Huſbandry, may be bounden thereunto: Be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, That euery perſon being an houſholder, and hauing and vſing halfe a plough land at the leaſt in tillage, may haue and receiue to an apprentice any perſon aboue the age of tenne yeares and vnder the age of eighteene yeeres, to ſerue in Huſbandry, vntill his age of xxi. yeares at the leaſt, or vntill the age of xxiiij. yeares, as the parties can agree, and the ſayd retainour and taking of an apprentice, to be made and done by Indenture.

Euery houſholder dwelling in any Towne corporate may take an apprentice for ſeuen years.

And be it further enacted, That euery perſon being an houſholder, and xxiiij. yeares old at the leaſt, dwelling or inhabiting, or which ſhall dwell and inhabite in any City or Towne Corporate, and vſing and exerciſing any Art, Myſtery, or manuall Occupation there, ſhal and may after the Feaſt of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next comming, during the time that he ſhall ſo dwell or inhabit in any ſuch City or Towne Corporate, and vſe and exerciſe any ſuch Art, Myſtery, or manuall Occupation, haue and retaine the ſonne of any Freeman, not occupying Huſbandry, nor being a labourer, and inhabiting in the ſame, or in any other City or Towne that now is, or hereafter ſhall bee, and continue incorporate, to ſerue and bee bound as an apprentice, after the cuſtome and order of the City of London, for ſeauen yeeres at the leaſt, ſo as the terme and yeares of ſuch apprentice doe not expire or determine, afore ſuch apprentice ſhall bee of the age of xxiiij. yeares at the leaſt.

Merchants, &c. may take no prentices, but ſuch whoſe Parents may diſpend xl. ſhillings of freehold.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted, That it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon dwelling in any City or Towne corporate, vſing or exerciſing any of the Myſteries or Crafts of a Marchant, traffiquing by Traffique or Trade into any the parts beyond the Sea, Mercer, Draper, Goldſmith, Ironmonger, Imbroyderer, or Clothier, that doth, or ſhall put cloth to making and ſale, to take any apprentice or ſeruant to bee inſtructed or taught in any of the Arts, Occupations, Crafts, or Myſteries which they or any of them doe vſe or exerciſe, except ſuch ſeruant or apprentice be his ſonne, or elſe that the father or mother, of ſuch apprentice or ſeruant ſhall haue at the time of taking ſuch apprentice or ſeruant, Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, of the cleere yearly value of fortie ſhillings of one eſtate of inheritance, or free hold, at the leaſt, to bee certifyed vnder the hands and Seales of three Iuſtices of the Peace, of the Shire or Shires, where the ſayd Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, doe or ſhall lye, to the Mayor, Bayliffe or other head Officers of that City or Towne corporate, and to bee inrolled among the records there.

Whom they may haue for their prentices which dwell in market Townes not corporat.

And be it further enacted, that from and after the ſayd Feaſt of Saint Iohn the Baptiſt next, it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon being an houſholder, and [a] foure and twenty yeares old at the leaſt, and not occupying Huſbandry, nor being a labourer dwelling or inhabiting, or that ſhall hereafter dwell or inhabite in any Towne, not being incorporate, that now is, or hereafter ſhall be a Market Towne, ſo long as the ſame ſhall be weekly vſed and kept as a Market Towne, and vſing or exerciſing any Art, Myſtery, or manuall occupation, during the time of his abode there, and ſo vſing and exerciſing ſuch Art, Myſtery, or manuell occupation, as aforeſayd, to haue in like manner to apprentice or apprentices, the childe or children of any other Artificer, or Artificers, not occupying huſbandrie, nor being a labourer, which now doe, or hereafter ſhall inhabite or dwell in the ſame, or any other ſuch Market Towne within the ſame Shire, to ſerue as an apprentice or apprentices, as is aforeſaid, to any ſuch Art, Myſterie, or manuell occupation, as hath béene vſually exerciſed in any ſuch market towne, where ſuch apprentice ſhall bee bound in manner and forme aboueſayd.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon, dwelling or inhabiting in any ſuch market towne, vſing or exerciſing the feate, myſtery, or art of a merchant, trafiquing or trading into the parts beyond the Seas, Mercer, Draper, Goldſmith, Ironmonger, Imbroderer, or Clothier that doth or ſhall put Cloth to making and ſale, to take any apprentice, or in any wiſe to teach and inſtruct any perſon, in the arts, Sciences, or myſteries laſt before recited, after the feaſt of Saint Iohn Baptiſt aforeſayd, except ſuch ſeruant or apprentice ſhall be his ſonne, or elſe that the father or mother of ſuch apprentice ſhall haue Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, at the time of taking ſuch apprentice, of the cleare yearely value of thrée pounds, of one eſtate of inheritance, or fréehold, at the leaſt, to bee certified vnder the hands and ſeales of thrée Iuſtices of the Peace, of the Shire or Shires where the ſayd Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, doe or ſhall lye, to the head Officers, or head Officer of ſuch market Towne where ſuch apprentice or ſeruant ſhall be taken, there to bee enrolled by ſuch head Officers alwayes to remaine of Record.

What apprentices Merchants, &c. dwelling in a market towne not corporate may take.

And be it further enacted, that from and after the ſayd Feaſt it ſhall be lawfull to any perſon, vſing or exerciſing the Art or occupation of a Smith, Whéelewright, Ploughwright, Millwright, Carpenter, Rough maſon, Plaſterer, Sawyer, Lime burner, Brickmaker, Bricklayer, Tyler, Slater, Helier, Tylemaker, Linnen weauer, Turner, Cowper, Miller, Earthen potters, Wollen weauer, Weauing huſwifes or houſhold cloth onely and none other cloth, Fuller, otherwiſe called Tucker or Walker, burner of Ore and Woad aſhes, Thatcher, or Shingler, whereſoeuer he or they ſhall dwell or inhabite, to haue or receiue the ſonne of any perſon, as apprentice in manner and forme aforeſayd, to be taught and inſtructed in theſe occupations onely, and in none other, albeit the father or mother of any ſuch apprentice haue not any lands, tenements, or hereditaments.

Theſe Artificers may take prentices whoſe parents may diſpend no land.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that after the firſt day of May, next comming, it ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, other than ſuch as now doe lawfully vſe or exerciſe any Art, Myſterie, or manuell Occupation, to ſet vp, occupy, vſe, or exerciſe any craft, myſtery, or occupation, now vſed or occupyed within the Realme of England or Wales, except he ſhall haue bin brought vp therein ſeuen yeares at the leaſt as apprentice in manner and forme aboueſaid, nor to ſet any perſon on worke in ſuch Myſtery, Art or Occupation, being not a workman at this day, except he ſhall haue béene apprentice, as is aforeſayd, or elſe hauing ſerued as an apprentice as is aforeſayd, ſhall or will become a Iourneyman or hired by the yere, vpon paine that euery perſon willingly offending or doing the contrary, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery default forty ſhillings, for euery moneth.

None may vſe any manuall occuation except he hath bin prentice to to the ſame. Sta.31.El.5.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that no perſon or perſons, vſing or exerciſing the art or myſtery of a Wollen cloth weauer, other than ſuch as be inhabiting within the Counties of Cumberland, Weſtmerland, Lancaſter, and Wales, weauing Frizes, Cottons, or Huſwifes cloth onely, making and weauing Wollen cloth, commonly ſold, or to be ſold by any Clothman or Clothier: ſhall take and haue any apprentice, or ſhall teach or in any wiſe inſtruct any perſon or perſons in the Science, Art, or Occupation of Weauing aforeſaid, in any Village, Towne, or place, (Cities, Townes Corporate, and Market Townes onely except) vnleſſe ſuch perſon be his ſonne, or elſe that the father or mother of ſuch apprentice or ſeruant, ſhall at the time of the taking of ſuch perſon or perſons to be an apprentice or ſeruant, or to be inſtructed, haue Lands and Tenements, or other Hereditaments, to the cleare yearely value of thrée pounds at the leaſt, of an eſtate of inheritance or fréehold, to bée certified vnder the hands and Seales of thrée Iuſtices of the Peace of the Shire or Shires where the ſayd Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments doe or ſhall lye. The effect of the Indenture to be regiſtred within thrée moneths, in the pariſh where ſuch maſter ſhall dwell, and to pay for ſuch regiſtring, foure pence, vpon paine of forfeiture of twentie ſhillings, for euery moneth that any perſon ſhall otherwiſe take any apprentice, or ſet any ſuch perſon on worke contrary to the meaning of this article.

What ſort of perſons wollen weauers may take to be apprentices.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that all and euery perſon and perſons, that ſhall haue thrée apprentices in any of the ſayd crafts, myſteries, or occupations of a clothmaker, Fuller, Shereman, Weauer, Taylor, or Shoomaker, ſhall retaine and keepe one Iourneyman, and for euery other apprentice aboue the number of the ſayd thrée apprentices, one other Iourneyman, vpon paine for euery default ten pounds.

He which hath three prentices muſt keepe one Iourneyman.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to preiudice or hinder any liberties heretofore granted by any act of Parliament, to or for the company and Occupation of Worſted makers and Worſted Weauers within the Citie of Norwich, and elſewhere within the County of Norfolke: Which liberties be in force, vntill the beginning of this preſent Parliament: any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The puniſhment of him which refuſeth to be an Apprentice.

And be it further enacted, That if any perſon ſhall be required by any houſeholder, hauing and vſing halfe a plough land at the leaſt in tillage, to be an Apprentice, and to ſerue in Husbandry, or in any other kind of Art, Myſtery, or Science before expreſſed, and ſhall refuſe ſo to doe: That then, vpon complaint of ſuch houſekeeper made to one Iuſtice of the Peace of the Countie where the ſayd refuſall is or ſhall be made, or of ſuch houſeholder inhabiting in any City, Towne corporate, or Market Towne, to the Maior, Bailiffes, or head officer of the ſayd City, Towne corporate, or Market Towne, if any ſuch refuſall ſhall there be, they ſhall haue full power and authority, by vertue hereof, to ſend for the ſame perſon ſo refuſing. And if the ſayd Iuſtice, or the ſayd Maior or head officer ſhall thinke the ſaid perſon meet and conuenient to ſerue as an Apprentice in that Art, Labour, Science, or Myſtery, wherein hee ſhall be ſo then required to ſerue: that then the ſayd Iuſtice or the ſayd Maior or head Officer, ſhall haue power and authority, by vertue hereof, if the ſayd perſon refuſe to be bound as an Apprentice, to commit him vnto ward, there to remaine, vntill hee bee contented and will bee bounden to ſerue as an Apprentice ſhould ſerue, according to the true intent and meaning of this preſent Act. And if any ſuch Maſter ſhall miſuſe or euill entreat his Apprentice, or that the ſayd Apprentice ſhall haue any iuſt cauſe to complaine, or the Apprentice doe not his dutie to his Maſter: then the ſayd Maſter or Apprentice being grieued, and hauing cauſe to complaine, ſhall repaire vnto one Iuſtice of Peace within the ſayd County, or to the Maior or other head Officer of the City, Towne corporate, Market Towne, or other place, where the ſayd Maſter dwelleth, who ſhall by his wiſedome and diſcretion take ſuch order and direction betweene the ſayd Maſter and his Apprentice, as the equity of the cauſe ſhall require. And if for want of good conformity in the ſayd Maſter, the ſayd Iuſtice of Peace, or the ſayd Maior or head Officer, cannot compound and agree the matter betweene him and his Apprentice: then the ſayd Iuſtice, or the ſayd Maior or other head Officer, ſhall take Bond of the ſayd Maſter, to appeare at the next Seſſions then to be holden in the ſayd County, or within the ſayd City, Town corporate, or Market town, to be before the Iuſtices of the ſayd County, or the Maior, or head officer of the ſayd Towne corporate, or Market Towne, if the ſayd Maſter dwell within any ſuch; & vpon his appearence and hearing of the matter before the ſayd Iuſtices, or the ſayd Maior, or other head officer, if it bee thought meet vnto them, to diſcharge the ſaid Apprentice of his apprenticehood, that then the ſayd Iuſtices, or foure of them at the leaſt, whereof one to be of the Quorum, or the ſayd Maior or o- head officer, with the conſent of three other of his brethren, or men of beſt reputation within the ſayd City, Towne corporate, or Market towne, ſhall haue power by authority hereof, in writing vnder their hands and ſeales, to pronounce and declare, that they haue diſcharged the ſayd Apprentice of his apprenticehood, and the cauſe thereof, and the ſayd Writing ſo being made and enrolled by the Clerke of the Peace or Towne-Clerke amongſt the Records that he keepeth, ſhal be a ſufficient diſcharge for the ſayd Apprentice, againſt his Maſter, his executors, and adminiſtrators: the Indenture of the ſayd apprenticehood, or any Lawe or Cuſtome to the contrary notwithſtanding. And if the default ſhall be found to bee in the Apprentice, then the ſayd Iuſtices, or the ſayd Maior, or other head officer, with the aſſiſtants aforeſaid, ſhall cauſe ſuch due correction and puniſhment to be miniſtred vnto him, as by their wiſedome and diſcretions ſhall bee thought meet.

The remedie for the Prentice which is miſuſed by his Maſter, & for the Maſter when the Prentice doth not his duty.

Where an Apprentice may be diſcharged of his prenticehood.

None ſhall be bound to bee prentices but thoſe which be vnder xxi. yeares of age.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That no perſon ſhall by force or colour of this Eſtatute bee bounden to enter into any Apprenticeſhip, other than ſuch as be vnder the age of xxi. yeares.

Aſſembly of the Iuſtices twice in the yeere for the due execution of this ſtat.

And to the end that this Eſtatute may from time to time bee carefully and diligently put in good execution, according to the tenor and true meaning thereof: Bee it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the Iuſtices of Peace of euery County diuiding themſelues into ſeuerall Limits, and likewiſe euery Maior and head officer of any Citie or Towne corporate, ſhall yearely betweene the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, and the Natiuity of our Lord, and betweene the Feaſt of the Annunciation of our Lady, and the Feaſt of the Natiuity of Saint Iohn Baptiſt, by all ſuch wayes and meanes, as to their wiſedomes ſhall bee thought moſt meet, make a ſpeciall and diligent inquiry of the Branches and Articles of this Eſtatute, and of the good execution of the ſame, and where they ſhall finde any defaults, to ſee the ſame ſeuerely corrected and puniſhed, without fauour, affection, malice, or diſpleaſure.

The Iuſtices allowance for their paines.

And in conſideration of the paines and trauaile that the ſayd Iuſtices of Peace, and the ſayd Maior and head officer, ſhall take and ſuſtaine in and about the execution of this Eſtatute, it is further ordained and enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, That euery Iuſtice of Peace, Maior, or head officer, for euery day that he ſhall ſit in and about the execution of this Eſtatute, ſhall haue allowed vnto him fiue ſhillings, to be allowed and payd vnto him, or vnto the ſayd Maior or head Officer, of the fines and forfeitures of the paines and penalties that ſhall be forfeited, and due vnto the Queenes Maieſtie, her Heires or Succeſſors, by force of this Eſtatute in ſuch manner and forme as the ſayd Iuſtices haue beene heretofore commonly payd for their comming and charges at the quarter Seſſions. ſo that the ſitting of the ſayd Iuſtices or Maior, or head Officer, be not at any one time aboue three dayes, and for the matters contained in this Eſtatute.

And be it enacted by authority aforeſayd that the one halfe of all forfeitures and penalties, expreſſed and mentioned in this Statute, other than ſuch as are expreſſely otherwiſe appointed, ſhall bee to our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie, her Heires and Succeſſors, and the other moity to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of the Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, or before any of the Iuſtices of Over and Terminer, or before any other Iuſtices, or Preſident and Councell before remembred, by action of debt, information, bill of complaint or otherwiſe: in which Actions or Suites, no Protections, Wager of Law, or Eſſoigne ſhall be allowed: and that the ſayd Iuſtices or two of them, whereof one to bee of the Quorum and the ſayd Preſidents and Councell as is aforeſayd, and the ſayd Maiors or other head Officers of Cities or Townes Corporate, ſhall haue full power and authority to heare and determine all and euery offence and offences that ſhall be committed or done againſt this Eſtatute, or againſt any branch thereof, aſwell vpon inditement to be taken before them in the Seſſions of the Peace, as vpon Information, Action of debt, or Bill of complaint, to be ſued or exhibited by an perſon: and ſhall and may by vertue hereof, make proceſſe againſt the defendant, and award execution, as in any other caſe they lawfully may by any the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, & ſhall yearely in Michaelmas Terme certifie by Eſtreat the fines & forfeitures of euery the offences contained in this Eſtatute, that ſhall be found before them, into the Court of the Exchequer, in like ſort and forme as they be bound to certifie the eſtreates for other offences and forfeitures to be loſt before them: Any thing in this ſtatute contained to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

Who ſhal haue the forfeitures mentioned in this ſtatute.

Iuſtices of P. Maior, &c. may heare & determine all offences committed againſt this ſtatute. 31. El. 5.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act or any thing therein contained or mentioned, ſhall not be preiudiciall or hurtfull to the Cities of London and Norwich, or to the lawfull liberties, vſages, cuſtomes, or priuiledges of the ſame Cities, for or concerning the hauing or taking of any Apprentice or Apprentices: but that the Citizens and free men of the ſame Cities, ſhall and may take, haue, and retaine Apprentices there in ſuch manner and forme as they might lawfully haue done before the making of this Statute: This Act or any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A prouiſo for the Cities of London and Norwich.

And be it alſo further enacted that all Indentures, couenants, promiſes and bargaines, of or for the hauing, taking, or keeping of any Apprentice, otherwiſe hereafter to bee made or taken, than is by this Statute limitted, ordained, and appointed, ſhall be clearely voyd in the Law to all intents and purpoſes, and that euery perſon, that ſhall from henceforth take, or newly retaine any Apprentice, contrary to the tenor and true meaning of this Act, ſhall forfeit and loſe for euery apprentice ſo by him taken, the ſumme of ten pounds.

The forf. of him that taketh a prentice otherwiſe thã is limited by this ſtatute.

And becauſe there hath beene, and is ſome queſtion and ſcruple moued, whether any perſon, being within the age of one and twenty yeares, and bounden to ſerue as an Apprentice, in any other place, than in the ſayd City of London, ſhould be bounden, accepted and taken as an Apprentice.

For the reſolution of the ſayd ſcruple and doubt: Bee it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that all and euery ſuch perſon or perſons, that at any time or times, from henceforth ſhall be bounden by Indenture, to ſerue as an apprentice, in any Art, Science, Occupation or labour, according to the tenour of this Eſtatute, and in manner and forme aforeſayd: albeit the ſame apprentice, or any of them ſhall bee within the age of one and twenty yeares, at the time of the making of their ſeuerall Indentures, ſhall be bounden to ſerue for the yeres in their ſeuerall Indentures contained, as amply and largely to euery intent, as if the ſame apprentice were of full age at the time of the making of ſuch Indentures: any law, vſage, or cuſtome to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Hee that is bound prentice within the age of xxi. yeares is cõpellable to ſerue.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, That the inhabitants now dwelling or inhabiting, or that hereafter ſhall dwell, or inhabite within the Towne of Godalming, within the County of Surrey, within the limits of the watch of the ſayd Towne, may vſe and exerciſe ſuch Arts, myſteries, and occupations, and take and vſe apprentices and ſeruants, in ſuch manner and forme, as the inhabitants within Market townes by this Statute may lawfully doe.

A prouiſo for the inhabitants of Godalming in Surrey.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſayde, that all manner amerciaments, fines, iſſues, and forfeitures, which ſhall riſe, grow, or come by reaſon of any offences or defaults mentioned in this act, or any branch thereof, within any City or Towne corporate, ſhall be leuied, gathered and receiued, by ſuch perſon or perſons of the ſame City or Towne corporate, as ſhall be appointed by the Maior, or other head Officers, mentioned in this ſayd act, to the vſe and maintenance of the ſame City or Towne corporate, in ſuch caſe and condition,

Who ſhall haue the forf. in Cities and Townes Corporate.

as any manner other amerciaments, fines, iſſues or forfeitures, haue bin vſed to bee leuied & imployed within the ſame City or Towne corporate, by reaſon of any grant or charter from the Quéenes Maieſtie that now is, or of any her Graces noble Progenitors, made and granted to the ſame Citie, Borough, or towne corporate, any thing or clauſe before mentioned and expreſſed in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Retainings & couenants made before this ſtatute.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any lawfull retainings or couenants had or made before the making of this act, but that all and euery the parties to ſuch retainings or couenants, ſhal and may haue the ſame and like aduantages of ſuch retainings and couenants, and of the ſtatutes heretofore in that behalfe prouided, as if this Act had neuer béene had or made: Any clauſe of repeale or other matter whatſoeuer in this act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A remedy for thoſe ſeruants which depart from their maſters, & doe flee into other Shires.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that if any ſeruant or apprentice of Huſbandry, or of any Art, Science or Occupation aforeſayd, vnlawfully depart or flée into any other Shire, that it ſhall be lawfull to the ſayd Iuſtices of Peace, & to the ſayd Maiors, Bailiffes, & other head Officers of Cities and Townes corporate, for the time being Iuſtices of Peace there, to make and grant writs of Capias, ſo many and ſuch as ſhall be néedfull to be directed to the Sheriffes of the Counties, or to other head Officers of the places, whither ſuch ſeruants or apprentices ſhall ſo depart or flée, to take their bodies returnable before them, at what time ſhall pleaſe them, ſo that if they come by ſuch proceſſe, that they be put in priſon till they ſhall find ſufficient ſurety, well and honeſtly to ſerue their Maſters, Miſtreſſes or Dames, from whom they ſo departed or fled, according to the order of the Law.

High Conſtables may keep Stat. Seſſions.

Prouided alwaies, that it ſhall be lawfull to the high Conſtables of Hundreds in euery Shire, to hold, kéepe, and continue petie Seſſions, otherwiſe called ſtatute Seſſions, within the limits of their authorities, in all Shires wherein ſuch Seſſions haue béene vſed to be kept, in ſuch manner and forme as heretofore hath béene vſed and accuſtomed, ſo as nothing be by them done therein contrary or repugnant to this preſent Act.

FOr the better mainetenance & encreaſe of the Nauie of this Realme of England: be it enacted by the Quéenes moſt excellent Maieſtie, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall & Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority aforeſayde, That from the firſt day of Aprill Anno Domini M. D. lxiiii. and ſo from thence forth, It ſhall be lawfull to all and euery of the Subiects of our Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, her heires and ſucceſſors, at his and their will & pleaſure, to carry and tranſport out of this Realme, in the Ships or other Veſſels of any of the Subiects aforeſayd, all & euery kinds of Herring & other Sea fiſh, to be taken vpon the Seas by any of the Subiects aforeſayd (any Act of Parliament, or law to the contrary notwithſtanding) & that all and euery perſon and perſons, which ſhall by vertue of this Act tranſport or carry any Herrings, or other Sea fiſh from or out of any Port or Harbour of this Realme, to any place out of the Dominions of the Quéenes Maieſtie, her heires or ſucceſſors, ſhall be frée from payment of any Cuſtome, Subſidy or Pondage money for the ſame fiſh ſo carried or tranſported, during the ſpace of foure whole yeares, beginning at the ſayd firſt day of Aprill, M. D. lxiiii. and ſo further during her Maieſties pleaſure.

None ſhall ſet price of, make reſtraint, or demand tolle of ſea fiſh brought into this Realme.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that from the firſt day of May next comming, It ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons in any Port, Citie, Towne, Market, or other place, within this Realme, to ſet price, make any reſtraint, or take or demand tolle or taxe of any Sea fiſh to be brought into this Realme, or any part thereof, being taken by any of the Subiects aforeſayd, in the Ships or other veſſels of the ſame ſubiects, vpon paine to euery perſon offending contrary to the meaning hereof, to forfeit the value of the fiſh ſo reſtrained, prized, tolled or taxed: Any liberty, cuſtome, grant, priuiledge or other matter whatſoeuer to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A prouiſo for the Maior, &c. of Kingſton vpon Hull.

33. H. 8. 33.

Prouided alwayes, that this preſent Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall be preiudiciall or hurtfull to the Maior and Burgeſſes of the Kings towne vpon Hull, or their ſucceſſors, Maiors and Burgeſſes of the ſame Towne, or to any other Officer, or Miniſter of the ſame Towne at any time hereafter: but that they and euery of them may receiue, haue, and take all and euery ſuch tolle, cuſtomes, and ſummes of money, of all and euery ſuch perſon & perſons, as is limitted, appointed, and ſet forth by them to be taken, in an act of Parliament made in the thrée and thirtieth yeare of the raigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eighth. And that neither the ſayd Maior and Burgeſſes of Kingſton vpon Hull, nor any inhabitant there, or any of them, ſhall take any aduantage of the article of this eſtatute, for the carriage of any Herrings or ſalted fiſh to any the parts beyond the Sea: Any thing in this preſent Act mentioned, contained, ſpecified or declared, in any wiſe to the contrary nontwithſtanding.

Be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no Purueyour or other perſon whatſoeuer, ſhal from the ſaid firſt day of May, by vertue of any Commiſſion or otherwiſe, take any herring or Sea fiſh from any of the ſubiects afore mentioned, that ſhall take the ſame in the ſhips or other veſſels of the ſaid ſubiects, as it is aboueſaid otherwiſe than by agreement of the owners or ſellers of the ſame fiſh, vpon paine for euery Purueyour and other perſon whatſoeuer offending contrary to the tenour of this Act, to forfeit the double value of the Herrings or fiſh ſo to be taken. And it ſhalbe lawfull for any perſon, being owner or ſeller of any ſuch ſea fiſh ſo taken, as is aforeſaid, to withſtand any perſon that will (by any colour of purueying or otherwiſe) demand any ſuch fiſh, or the tolle of any ſuch fiſh, without the good will of the owner or ſeller, as aforeſaid.

No Purueyour ſhall take any Sea fiſh of any that ſhall take the ſame in any ſubiects ſhip.

Prouided, that the fiſh called Compoſition fiſh, heretofore granted to the Queenes Maieſty by the ſubiects of this Realme, trauailing into Iſeland, ſhalbe taken by her Maieſties Officers and Purueyours in ſuch ſort as the ſame hath beene lawfully vſed to be taken before the making of this Act: and ſauing to the Queens Maieſty, her heires & ſucceſſors, and to all other perſons, ſuch fiſhes as be knowne & vſed to be called Regall fiſhes, whereunto her Maieſty, or the ſaid other perſons, haue, or ſhall haue right or intereſt, for ſuch recompence as heretofore hath bin accuſtomed.

A prouiſo for Compoſition fiſh.

Regall fiſhes.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid that from the firſt day of Aprill, which ſhall be in the yeare of our Lord God, M.D.lxiiii. It ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons to buy of any ſtranger borne out of the Queenes Maieſties obeyſance or out of any ſtrangers Bottome, any Herring, being not ſufficiently ſalted, packed and casked, vpon paine to euery perſon and perſons ſo buying, to forfeit the Herrings ſo by him or them to bee bought, or the value thereof.

No herring ſhall bee brought forth of a ſtrangers Bottome, which is not ſalted, packed and casked ſufficiently.

Prouided alwayes, that this branch of this Act ſhall not extend to any Herrings to be bought, which by reaſon of ſhipwracke ſhall be brought into this Realme, but that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euery perſon and perſons, to buy all ſuch Herrings ſo brought in by ſhipwracke, as aforeſaid, as he or they lawfully might haue done before the making of this Act: Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe not withſtanding.

A prouiſo for herrings brought into this Realme by ſhipwrack.

Be it alſo further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that from the Feaſt of Saint Iohn Baptiſt next enſuing, It ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, to cauſe to be laden and caried in any Bottome or Bottomes, whereof any ſtranger or ſtrangers borne then be owners, ſhipmaſters, or part owners, any kinde of fiſh, victuall, wares or things, of what kinde or nature ſoeuer the ſame ſhall bee, from one Port or Creeke of this Realme, to another Port or Creeke of the ſame Realme, vpon paine to euery one that ſhall offend contrary to the true meaning of this braunch of this preſent Acte, to forfeit all the goods ſo laden or carried or the value thereof.

No wares may be carried from one Port in this Realme to another in a ſtrangers ſhip.

And that from henceforth all Engliſh hoyes and Plats may croſſe the Seas, as far as Cane in Normandy, and Eaſtward as farre as Norwey: The Statute made in the firſt yeare of the Queenes Maieſties reigne, to the contrary hereof not withſtanding.

5.R.2.3.

Be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that from henceforth it ſhall bee lawfull to all and euery owner and owners of ſhips or veſſels, and to euery houſholder, vſing and exerciſing the trade of the Seas by fiſhing or otherwiſe, and to euery Gunner or Gunners, commonly called Canoners, and to euery Shippe-wright, to take and keepe one or more Apprentice or Apprentices, to be brought vp in the ſaid trade or trades: euery of the ſame Apprentice or Apprentices, to be to them bound for tenne yeares or vnder. And euery Apprentice ſo taken, being aboue ſeuen yeares of age, ſhall bee by the ſame coucnants bound, ordered and vſed to all intents, according to the cuſtome of the City of London, ſo that the ſame couenant or bond of Apprenticeſhippe bee made by writing indented, and inrolled in the Towne where the ſame Apprentice ſhall bee then inhabiting, if it bee a Towne Corporate: and if the Towne be not incorporate, then to be enrolled in the next Towne incorporate to the habitation of euery ſuch Apprentice. And that the officers of euery ſuch Towne corporate, ſhall take for euery ſuch enrollement not aboue twelue pence: Any Law, Statute or other matter whatſoeuer to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

Owners of ſhip, Fiſhers on the Sea, Gunners and Shipwrights may take Apprentices.

A Repeale of part of the ſtatute of 5.& 6. Ed 6.14 made againſt Regrators,&c.

And be it further enacted, that ſo much of the Statute made in the fift and ſixth yeares of the late King Edward the ſixth, intituled: An Act againſt Regrators, Foreſtallers and Ingroſſers: And ſo much of all other eſtatutes againſt all Regrators, Foreſtallers and Ingroſſers, as doth and may concerne the buying of Sea fiſh vnſalted, or Mudde fiſh, or any Wine, Oyle or Salt, to be taken and brought in any Engliſh ſubiects Ships, Crayers, or other veſſell, vnto any Port, Creeke or place of this Realme: ſhall from henceforth to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, be vtterly repealed and voyd, for ſo much of the ſaid Oyles, Wine, Sea fiſh, Mudde fiſh, & Salt, as any buyer or buyers, vpon the Sea, by way of Foreſtalling or Regrating, ſhall and doe bring and diſcharge in any Port or Hauen within this Realme. And for increaſe of prouiſion of fiſh by the more vſuall and common eating thereof.

Euery wedneſday ſhalbe fiſh day. Exp. St.27 El 11. St.3. Car.4.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that from the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, in the yeare of our Lord God M.D.lxiiii. euery Wedneſday in euery weeke throughout the whole yeare, which heretofore hath not by the lawes or cuſtomes of this Realme beene vſed and obſerued as a fiſh day, and which ſhall not happen to fall in Chriſtmas weeke or Eaſter weeke, ſhall be hereafter obſerued and kept as the Saturdaies in euery weeke be or ought to be. And that no maner of perſon ſhall eate any fleſh on the ſame day, otherwiſe than ought to be vpon the common Saturday.

All fiſh dayes ſhall be obſerued.
Forfeiture of three pound, or three moneths cloſe impriſonment, for eating of fleſh vpon daies prohibited. Alt.35.El.7.
Forfeiture of the houſholder where fleſh is eaten.
How the forfeiture ſhalbe beſtowed.
A prouiſo for them which haue licences to eate fleſh.
How much euery perſon ſhall pay for his licence.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, for the benefit and commodities of this Realme, to grow as well in maintenance of the Nauie, as in ſparing and increaſe of fleſh victuall of this Realme: that from and after the Feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, It ſhall not be lawfull to any perſon or perſons within this Realme, to eate any fleſh vpon any dayes now vſually oſerued as fiſh dayes, or vpon any Wedneſday now newly limited to be obſerued as fiſh day, vpon paine that euery perſon ſo offending herein, ſhall forfeit three pound for euery time he or they ſhall offend, or elſe ſuffer three moneths cloſe impriſonment without baile or mainepriſe.

And euery perſon or perſons within whoſe houſe any ſuch offence ſhall be done, and being priuy or knowing thereof, and not effectually puniſhing or diſcloſing the ſame to ſome publike Officer, hauing authority to publiſh the ſame, for euery ſuch offence to forfeit forty ſhillings. All which forfeitures for not abſtaining from meats, ſhall be diuided into three equall parts: That is, one part to the vſe of the Queenes Maieſty, her heires or ſucceſſors, the other part to the Informer, the third to the common vſe of the Pariſh, where the offence is or ſhall be committed, and to be leuied by the Church-wardens, after any conuiction in that behalfe.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted, that this Act, nor any thing herein contained, concerning eating of fleſh, ſhall in any wiſe extend to any perſon or perſons, that ſhall hereafter haue any ſpeciall licence vpon cauſes to be contained in the ſame licence, and to be granted according to the Lawes of this Realme in ſuch caſes prouided.

All and euery which ſaid licence and licences, ſhalbe voyd to all intents, vnleſſe the ſame containe the conditions hereafter mentioned: That is to ſay, euery licence made to any perſon or perſons being of the degree of a Lord of Parliament, or of their wiues, ſhalbe vpon condition, that euery ſuch perſon ſo to be licenced, ſhall pay to the poore mens boxe within the Pariſh where they ſhall dwell or remaine, in the Feaſt of the Purification of the bleſſed Virgin Mary, or within ſix dayes after the ſame Feaſt, ſixe and twenty ſhillings and eight pence. The ſame to be paid within one moneth next after the ſame Feaſt, vpon paine of forfeiture of euery ſuch licence. And euery licence to any perſon of the degree of a Knight, or a Knights wife, ſhalbe vpon condition, that euery ſuch perſon ſo licenced, ſhall pay yearely thirteene ſhillings and foure pence, to the vſe aforeſaid, and in forme afore mentioned. And euery licence to any perſon or perſons being vnder the degrees aboueſaid, ſhalbe vpon condition, that euery ſuch perſon ſo licenced, ſhall pay yearely ſixe ſhillings and eight pence to the ſaid vſe, and in forme afore mentioned.

Prouided alwayes, that no licence ſhall extend to the eating of any Beefe at any time of the yeare, nor to the eating of any Veale in any yeare, from the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell, vnto the firſt day of May.

Licences in times of ſickeneſſe.

Prouided alſo that all perſons which by reaſon of notorious ſickneſſe, ſhalbe enforced for recouery of health to eat fleſh for the time of their ſickeneſſe, ſhalbe ſufficiently licenced by the Biſhop of the Dioceſſe, or by the Parſon, Vicar or Curate of the Pariſh where ſuch perſon ſhalbe ſicke, or of one of the next Pariſh adioyning, if the ſaid Parſon, Vicar or Curat of his or their own Pariſh be wilfull, or if there be no Curat within the ſame Pariſh. Which licence ſhall be made in writing ſigned with the hand of the Biſhop of the Dioceſſe, or of the Parſon, Vicar or Curate, and not endure longer than the time of the ſickenes. And that if the ſicknes ſhall continue aboue the ſpace of eight daies after ſuch licence granted, then the licence ſhall be regiſtred in the church booke, with the knowledge of one of the Churchwardens, & the party licenced ſhall giue to the Curat foure pence for ẏ entry thereof, & that licence to endure no longer but only for ẏ time of his, her or their ſicknes.

And if any licence by any Parſon, Vicar or Curate, be granted to any perſon or perſons, other than ſuch as euidently appeare to haue neede thereof, by reaſon of their ſickeneſſe: not only euery ſuch licence ſhall be voyd, but alſo euery ſuch Parſon, Vicar or Curate, ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch licence otherwiſe granted, fiue markes.

Prouided alſo, & be it enacted, that all licences heretofore granted to any ſubiect of this Realm, by any of the late Kings, or by the late Queene Mary, or by the Queenes Maieſty now being, or by any Archbiſhop of this Realme, hauing authority ſo to doe, ſhall be of as good force in law for the Wedneſday now limited, and other accuſtomed fiſh dayes, as they were before the making this Act, for the ſaid other accuſtomed fiſh dayes; ſo as the parties licenced, do hereafter obſerue all ſuch conditions as be limited in this eſtatute, to ſuch as ſhall hereafter obtaine any licences.

The licences granted to any perſons before the making of this act ſhall extend to the wedneſdaies.

And ſuch perſons alſo as heretofore were or ought to be licenced by reaſon of age, or other impediment or cauſe, by order of the Eccleſiaſticall lawes, ſhall inioy the ſame priuiledge and accuſtomed licences: Any thing in this Act to the contrary hereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Licences by the law Eccleſiaſticall.

And be it enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that no forfeiture of ſhip, crayer or other veſſell, or of any apparell of the ſame, nor any other penalty or forfeiture, ſhalbe extended or grow againſt any owner or owners of any ſhip, crayer or other veſſell, for the tranſporting or carrying of any Wheat or other corne, or things prohibited by the eſtatute made in the Parliament holden the firſt and ſecond yeares of King Philip and Queene Mary, vnleſſe the ſame owner or owners ſhalbe witting, knowing, aiding or conſenting to the prohibited tranſporting or carrying: The ſaid eſtatute or any thing therein mentioned to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

1. & 2. P. & M. 5. In what onely caſe the owner of a ſhip ſhall forfeit it for tranſporting of corn.

And be it further enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that all and euery perſon and perſons, which be or ſhall be by the lawes and eſtatutes of this Realme, or otherwiſe authoriſed to ſell Wines by retayle, in the ſeuerall Counties and places where they be or ſhall be ſo authoriſed: ſhall and may from henceforth ſell the ſaid Wines by pint, quart, pottell, gallon or otherwiſe at ſuch price or prices, and in ſuch forme as ſhall be limited by the Queenes Maieſties proclamation in that County or place, made with the aſſent of ſuch Lords and other perſons, as by the ſtatute made in the xxviii. yeare of the reigne of King Henry the eight, were authoriſed to ſet price vpon Wines in groſſe, without any paine or forfeiture for the ſame: Any law, vſage, or eſtatute heretofore made or had to the contrary hereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Exp. St. 1. Iac. 25. Stat. 21. Iac. 28. Stat. 3. Car. 4. Wines ſhalbe ſold at ſuch prices as ſhall be limited by the Queenes proclamation. 28. H. 8.

And be it further enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that from and after the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel next comming, it ſhall be lawfull to all and euery perſon and perſons, being ſubiects of the Queenes Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors, onely out of ſuch Ports or Creekes, as by the Queenes Maieſties proclamation hereafter ſhall be publiſhed and appointed and not elſewhere, to load, carry or tranſport any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Mault, Peaſe or Beanes, into any parts beyond the Seas, to ſell as a merchandize, in Ships, Crayers or other veſſels, whereof any Engliſh borne ſubiect then ſhall be the onely owners, ſo that the price of the ſaid Corne or Graine ſo carried or tranſported, exceed not the prices hereafter following, at the times, Hauens, and places, where and when the ſame corne or graine ſhalbe ſhipped or laden: viz. The quarter of Wheat at ten ſhillings, the quarter of Rye, Peaſe or Beanes, at eight ſhillings, the quarter of Barley or Mault at ſixe ſhillings eight pence, of currant mony of England: Any law, vſage or eſtatute heretofore made to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

When and vpon what prices and conditions each perſon may tranſport corne. Act. 1. Iac. 25. 21. Iac. 28. 3. Car. 4.

And where doubt hath heretofore beene, whether the ſtatute in the eighteenth yeare of the reigne of King Henry the ſixt, heretofore made againſt Souldiers retained, which depart from their Captaines without licence, did or ought to extend vnto Mariners and Gunners ſeruing on the Seas, taking wages of the King or Queene of this Realme: Be it expreſſed, ordained, enacted and declared by authority of this preſent Parliament, that the ſaid eſtatute made in the ſaid eighteenth yeare of the reigne of King Henry the ſixt, in all paines, forfeitures & other things did, doth, and hereafter ſhall extend, as well to all and euery Mariner and Gunner, hauing taken or ſhall hereafter take preſt or wages to ſerue the Queenes Maieſty, her heires or ſucceſſors, to all intents and purpoſes, as the ſame did or doth vnto any ſouldier: Any diuerſities of opinion, doubt, matter, or thing to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Statute of 18. H. 6. 19. ordained againſt ſouldiers, ſhall extend to Mariners and Gunners.

And where an eſtatute concerning ſowing of Flaxe and Hempe, was made and prouided in the Parliament holden the three and twentieth yeare of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eight, to be vniuerſall through euery County of this Realme, for the better prouiſion of Nets, for helpe and furtherance of fiſhing, and for eſchewing of idleneſſe.

Be it ordained and enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that in euery ſuch County of this Realme, or part of ſuch County, where by the Queenes Maieſties Proclamation it ſhall hereafter be publiſhed, the ſaid eſtatute to be commodious or profitable for the Common wealth: The ſaid eſtatute, and euery clauſe, article and prouiſion therein contained, be and ſhall be reuiued, and ſtand in full force and ſtrength to be executed and performed, from the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming, in all things other than in the proportion of a Roode or fourth part of an Acre, and in the paine of three ſhillings and foure pence, by the ſaid eſtatute limited. In place whereof, be it ordained and enacted by the authority

In what caſes & places the Statute of 24. H. 8. 4. prouided for the ſowing of of Hemps and Flaxe ſhall be reuiued. Rep. 35. El. 7.

aforeſaid, that in euery caſe and degrée where by the ſaid former eſtatute, one Rode or fourth part of an Acre is limited to be ſowne with Linſéede, otherwiſe flaxe ſéede, or hempe ſéede, from the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangell next comming: In ſtead and lieu of the ſaid Rode or fourth part of an Acre, one whole Acre or leſſe, as by proclamation in forme aforeſaid ſhall be limited, ſhalbe ſowne with Linſéed, otherwiſe flaxe ſéed or hempe ſéed, vpon paine of forfeiture of fiue pounds for euery ſuch default or offence.

which Magiſtrates ſhall inquire of, heare and determine the offences aforeſaid. 28.H.8.15.

And further be it ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery ſuch of the offences before mentioned, as hereafter ſhall be done on the maine Sea, or coaſts of the Sea, being no part of the body of any County of this Realme, & without the precinct, iuriſdiction and liberties of the Cinque Ports, and out of any Hauen or Pére: ſhalbe tried and determined before the Lord Admirall of England, or his Lieutenant, Deputy or Deputies, and other Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, according to the forme of the ſaid eſtatute of Anno xxviij. Henrici viij. for cauſes of Piracie. And if the ſame ſhall be done on the maine Sea, or coaſts of the Sea, within the iuriſdiction or liberty of the Cinque Ports, and out of any Hauen or Port, then the ſame to be tried and determined before the ſaid Lord Warden of the ſaid Cinque Ports, or his Lieutenant or Judge, or before Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, according to the true forme of the ſaid eſtatute of Anno xxviij. Henrici viij, for cauſes of Piracie. And for all and ſingular ſuch other of the offences before mentioned, as ſhall be done in the Land, or within any Hauen or Pére, all Juſtices of Peace in their Seſſions, and Maiors, Sheriffes and Bailiffes, and other head Officers, in Cities and Townes Corporate, in their Seſſions or other Courts, within the limits of their Commiſſions or authorities, ſhall haue full power and authority to enquire of the offendors of this Act, as well by the othes of twelue men, as otherwiſe by information, and thereupon to heare and determine the ſame.

And if any perſon or perſons ſhalbe preſented before the ſaid Judges, Juſtices or officers, within the limits of their authorities, or any information giuen to them of any offendor of this Act, that then they ſhall haue full power and authority vpon any ſuch preſentment or information, to make proceſſe againſt the offendors of this Act, like as is commonly vſed vpon inditements of treſpaſſe. And if any be preſented, and afterward be conuicted, by confeſſion or otherwiſe, that then euery ſuch perſon ſhall ſuffer no leſſe forfeiture or puniſhment than herein is before limited: All which forfeitures to be leuied in manner and forme following. That is to ſay, ſuch forfeitures concerning eating of fleſh, as are before limited, to certaine vſes, to be to the ſame vſes in that behalfe before expreſſed: and all ſuch forfeitures as according to the tenor of this Act ſhalbe determinable before the ſaid Judges, Juſtices, or other Officers of the Admiralties aforeſaid, or before Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, in that behalfe, ſhall be to the vſe of the Lord Admirall of England, or Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, where ſuch offence ſhall be preſented, or whereas the iuriſdiction of the cauſe ſhall appertaine.

who ſhal haue the benefit of all the forfeitures aforeſaid.

And all ſuch forfeitures, as according to the tenour of this Act ſhall be determinable before Maiors, Sheriffes, Bailiffes or other head Officers of Cities or Townes corporate, ſhall be to the common vſe of the Corporation of the ſaid City or Towne Corporate, where ſuch offences ſhall be preſented, or where as the iuriſdiction of the cauſe ſhall appertaine.

And all ſuch forfeitures, as according to the tenour of this Act ſhall be determinable before the Juſtices of the Peace, ſhall be to the vſe of the Quéenes Maieſty, her heires & ſucceſſors. And if any perſon ſhall be conuict, by confeſſion, or otherwiſe vpon any information made by any perſon or perſons, againſt any offendor or offendors of this Act, in any cauſe (ſaue for the eating of fleſh firſt before ſpecially limited) that then euery ſuch perſon ſo conuict vpon any information, ſhall loſe ſuch forfeiture as is before limited, the one halfe to ſuch as ſhall make the information, and the other halfe to thoſe which vpon preſentment without ſpeciall information are before limited to haue the whole forfeiture.

what Proceſſe ſhall be awarded againſt offenders.

And that for the leuying of euery forfeiture growing by this eſtatute, as well the ſaid Lord Admirall of England, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, their Lieutenants and Judges, as the ſaid Juſtices, Maiors, Sheriffes, Bailiffes, and other head Officers within the limits of their Commiſſions or authorities, haue and ſhall haue full power and authority to make ſuch proceſſe, as they ſhall thinke góod by their diſcretions.

Within what time an information ſhall be made after the offence committed.

Prouided alwayes, that none information at the ſute of any perſon concerning this Act, ſhall be of any effect to put any perſon to anſwer or loſſe of forfeiture, except the ſaid information be commenced within halfe a yéere next after the offence done contrary to this Act, nor that any information or preſentment for the Quéenes Maieſty, her heires or ſucceſſors, or for the Admirall, Warden of the Cinque Ports, Maiors or other Officers aforeſaid, be of any effect, to put any perſon to any anſwer or loſſe of any forfeiture by vertue of this Act, except the ſaid information or preſentment bée within one yeare next after the offence done and committed contrary to the this Act.

what diet each perſon muſt haue vpō his table on the Wedneſday. which ſhall haue licence to eate fleſh.

Prouided and be it likewiſe enacted that it ſhall be lawfull to any perſon or perſons, to haue at his or their table, vpon euery Wedneſday, being ordered by this eſtatute to bee obſerued as a fiſh-day, one onely vſuall competent diſh of fleſh, of one kinde and no moe, ſo that he, ſhee or they haue alſo ſerued to the ſame table and meaſe at the ſame meale, three full competent vſuall diſhes of Sea-fiſh, of ſundry kinds, either freſh or ſalt, and that without fraud or couine, and ſo ſhall alſo order, that the ſame fiſh be meete and ſeaſonable, and that it ſhall be eaten or ſpent in like manner, as vpon Fridayes or Saturdayes in like caſe are vſed.

And alſo ſuch perſons as haue, or hereafter ſhall haue, vpon good and iuſt conſideration, any lawfull licence to eate fleſh vpon any fiſh day (except ſuch perſons, as for ſickeneſſe ſhall for the time be licenced by the Biſhop of the Dioceſſe, or by their Curates, or ſhall be licenced by reaſon of age, or other impediment allowed heretofore by the Eccleſiaſticall lawes of this Realme) ſhalbe bound by force of this Statute, to haue for euery one diſh of fleſh ſerued to be eaten at their table, one vſuall diſh of Sea-fiſh, freſh or ſalt, to be likewiſe ſerued at the ſame table, and to bee eaten or ſpent without fraud or couine, as the like kind is, or ſhall be vſually eaten or ſpent on Saturdayes.

And that theſe two articles and clauſes next aboue, ſhalbe taken and interpreted from time to time, in the fauour of expence of Sea fiſh, and that the offendour or offendours, herein, ſhall bee puniſhed in like manner, as is ordered by this eſtatute, for puniſhment of ſuch as ſhall eat fleſh vpon Fridayes, Saturdayes, or other fiſh dayes.

And becauſe no manner of perſon ſhall miſiudge of the intent of this eſtatute, limiting orders to eate fiſh, and to forbeare eating of fleſh, but that the ſame is purpoſely intended and meant politikely for the increaſe of Fiſhermen and Mariners, and repairing of Port Townes and Nauigation, and not for any ſuperſtition to be maintained in the choiſe of meats.

The intent of this Statute touching eating of fiſh and forbearing of fleſh.

Be it enacted, that whoſoeuer ſhall by preaching, teaching, writing or open ſpeech notifie that any eating of fiſh, or forbearing of fleſh mentioned in this ſtatute, is of any neceſſity for the ſauing of the ſoule of man, or that it is the ſeruice of God, otherwiſe than as other politique lawes are and be: that then ſuch perſon ſhalbe puniſhed, as ſpreaders of falſe newes are and ought to be.

Spreaders of falſe newes.

Be it enacted in the fauour of Fiſhermen and Mariners, haunting the Sea as Fiſhermen or Mariners, that none of them ſhall hereafter at any time be compelled againſt his or their will, to ſerue as any ſouldiers vpon the Land or vpon the Sea, otherwiſe than as a Mariner, except it ſhalbe to ſerue vnder any Captaine of ſome ſhip or veſſell for landing, to doe ſome ſpeciall exploit, which Mariners haue vſed to doe, or vnder any other perſon hauing authority to withſtand any inuaſion of enemies, or to ſubdue any rebellion within the Realme, and alſo except all ſuch perſons as by tenure, lawfull cuſtome or couenant, be or ſhall be otherwiſe bound to ſerue.

Fiſhermen & Mariners ſhall not be compelled to ſerue as ſouldiers, but in ſome caſes.

Prouided alwayes, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to take away or diminiſh any Liberty, Priuiledge Franches, forfeiture, or amerciament, fines, iſſues, wreckes of the Sea, or any other lawfull inheritance, or free hold, from any perſon or perſons, bodies politike or corporate, their heires or ſucceſſors, for or touching any lawfull liberty, authority, or iuriſdiction Admirall, or for conſeruation of any water, that they or any of them now haue lawfully, or hereafter ſhall haue: Any thing in the ſame to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A ſauing of the Liberties of all perſons.

Prouided alwaies, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no Fiſhermen vſing or haunting the Sea, ſhalbe taken by the Queenes Maieſties Commiſſion, to ſerue her Highneſſe as a Mariner on the Sea: but that the ſaid Commiſſion be firſt brought by her Highneſſe Taker or Takers, to two Iuſtices of Peace, next adioyning and inhabiting to the ſaid Sea coaſts, Townes, or other places, where the ſaid Mariners are ſo to be taken, to the intent the ſaid Iuſtices may chooſe out, and cauſe to be returned ſuch ſufficient number of able men, as in the ſaid Commiſſion ſhall be contained to ſerue her Maieſtie, as is aforeſaid.

In what caſes a Fiſherman ſhall be taken by Commiſſion to ſerue on the Sea as a Mariner.

Sauing alwayes to the Cinque Ports, and alſo to the Towne of great Yarmouth, all ſuch lawfull liberties as they iuſtly haue before the making of this Act, touching the free Faire kept at Yarmouth, other than in buying of ſtrangers and taking of toll, as the ſame be before prohibited.

The liberties of the fiue Ports & great Yarmouth in ſome caſes reſerued.

Prouided alwaies, that any thing in this Act contained, ſhall not be hurtfull or preiudiciall to any authority, ſtyle, preheminence, dignity or iuriſdiction, belonging to the office of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports.

The authority of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports.

Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons being ſtrangers borne, to bring yearely in any Ship, Bottome or Veſſell, whereof any ſtranger or ſtrangers borne, is or ſhalbe owner or owners, into the Hauens, Ports and Townes of the Iſle of Man, or into any of them, any of the Wines made in any of the Dominions or Countries belonging to the Crowne of France, and in the ſame Ports and Townes, or any of them, to diſcharge the ſaid Wines ſo to be brought, ſo that there be not brought and diſcharged by the ſame ſtrangers, in ſuch any ſtrangers Ships, Bottomes or Veſſels, in any one yeare, in, or at the ſaid Hauens, Ports and Townes, or any of them, aboue one hundred Tonnes at the moſt: This Act or any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof, notwithſtanding.

What Wine may be brougt in ſtrangers ſhips into the Iſle of Man.

Prouided alſo, that it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for any perſon or perſons being ſtrangers borne, to bring yearely in any Ship, Veſſell or Bottome, whereof any ſtranger or ſtrangers borne, Wine brought in ſtrangers ſhippes into Chepſtow.

borne, is or ſhall be owner or owners, into the Hauen, Port, and Towne of Chepſtowe, in the County of Monmouth, any Wines made in any of the ſaid Dominions or Countries belonging to the ſaid Crown of France, ouer and beſides all Rochell Wines heretofore in this Act allowed to be brought, and in the ſame Port and Town to diſcharge the ſaid Wines, ſo that there be not brought and diſcharged by the ſame ſtrangers, in any ſuch ſtrangers Ships, Bottomes, or Veſſels, in any one yeare, in, or at the ſaid Hauen, Port, and Towne, aboue one hundred Tonnes at the moſt: This Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

What wine may bee brought in ſtrangers ſhips into Wales and Newport.

Prouided alſo, that it ſhall and may be lawfull to and for any perſon or perſons, being ſtrangers borne to bring yearely in any Ship, Veſſell, or Bottome, whereof any ſtranger or ſtrangers borne, is or ſhalbe owner or owners, into the Hauens, Ports, and Townes of Cardiffe, Carnervon, Beawmarris, and other Hauens, Ports, and Towns of South Wales and North Wales, or any of them, and into the Hauen, Port, and Towne of Newport in the ſaid County of Monmoth, any of the ſaid Wines made in any of the ſaid Dominions or Countries belonging to the ſaid Crowne of France, ouer and beſides all Rochell Wines heretofore in this Act allowed to be brought, and in and at the ſame Ports and Townes, or any of them, to diſcharge the ſaid Wines ſo to be brought, ſo that there be not brought and diſcharged by the ſame ſtrangers, in any ſuch ſtrangers Ships, Bottomes, or Veſſels, in any one yeare, in or at the ſaid Hauens, Ports, and Townes, or any of them, aboue one hundred Tonnes at the moſt: This Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

A ſauing of al the Queenes duties.

Sauing vnto the Queenes Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors, all ſuch duties and things which her Highneſſe, her heires, and ſucceſſors, ought to haue and inioy, be anſwered and paid, for the ſaid three hundred Tonnes of Wines, mentioned in the ſaid three laſt Prouiſoes, to be brought and diſcharged, as in the ſame three Prouiſoes beene mentioned and declared: Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

The Lord Admirall &c. ſhall haue no greater authority than he had before.

Prouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any thing or things therein contained, ſhall not in any maner of wiſe extend to giue vnto the Lord Admirall of England for the time being, or to any his Viceadmirals, Iudge or Iudges of the Admiralty, his or their deputy or deputies, or to any other the Officers or Miniſters of the Admiralty, or to any others hauing or claiming any Admirall power, iuriſdiction or authority within this Realme and Wales, or any other the Queenes Dominions: any other power, right iuriſdiction, preheminence, or authority, then he, or they, or any of them lawfully haue, hath, or had, or ought to haue and inioy before the making of this Act, other than for ſuch of the offences ſpecified in this Act, as hereafter ſhall be done vpon the maine Sea, within the iuriſdiction of the Admiralty: This Act or any article, branch, clauſe, prouiſion, or thing therein contained to the contrary thereof, notwithſtanding.

This Act ſhall continue and endure vntill the end of tenne whole yeares, to be accounted from the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God M.D.lxiii. and from thence to the end of the next Parliament then following the end of the ſaid ten yeares. Cap. VI.

Whoſoeuer ſhall ſell or deliuer to any perſon (hauing not in poſſeſſion lands or fees, to the cleere yearely value of 3000. li.) any forraine wares not firſt growne, or firſt wrought within the Queenes dominions, appertaining to the clothing or adorning of the body, for which wares or the workmanſhip thereof, the ſeller ſhall not haue receiued the whole money, or ſatisfaction in hand, or within eight and twenty dayes after the making or deliuery thereof, The ſeller, maker, &c. ſhall be without all remedy by order of any law, cuſtome, or decree, to recouer any recompence for ſuch wares, or the workmanſhip, whatſoeuer aſſurance he ſhall haue by bond, ſurety, promiſe, or pawne of the party, or any other: And all aſſurances and bonds in that caſe ſhall be voide. EXP. 38. Ed. 3. 5. 7. Iac. 12.

Cap. VII.

No perſon ſhall bring into this Realme to be ſold, girdles, rapiers, daggers, &c. ready wrought and made beyond Seas.

Where as heretofore the Artificers of this Realme of England (as well within the City of London, as within other Cities, Townes, and Boroughs of the ſame Realme) that is to wit, Girdlers, Cutlers, Sadlers, Glouers, Poyntmakers, and ſuch like handicrafts men, haue been in their ſaid faculties greatly wrought and greatly ſet on worke, as well for the ſuſtentation of themſelues, their wiues and families, as for a good education of a great part of youth of this Realme in good art and laudible exerciſe: beſides the manifold benefits, that by meanes or by reaſon of their knowledges, inuentions, and continuall trauell daily and vniuerſally came to the whole eſtate of the common wealth of this ſaid Realme:

Yet notwithſtanding, ſo now it is, that by reaſon of the abundance of forraine wares brought into this Realme from the parts of beyond the Seas, the ſaid Artificers are not onely leſſe occupied, and thereby vtterly impoueriſhed, the youth not trained in the ſaid Sciences and exerciſes, and thereby the ſaid faculties and the exquiſite knowledges thereof like in ſhort time within this Realme to decay: but alſo diuers Cities and Townes within this Realme of England much thereby impaired, the whole Realme greatly endamaged, and other Countries notably enriched, and the people thereof well ſet on worke, to their commodities and liuings, in the Arts and Sciences aforeſaid, and to the great diſcouragement of the ſkilfull workemen of this Realme, being in very déed nothing inferiour to any ſtranger in the faculties aforeſaid.

The ſeuerall inconueniences of bringing wares ready wrought into England,

For reformation whereof: Be it enacted by our Soueraigne Lady the Quéenes Highneſſe, and by the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, from or after the feaſt of the Natiuity of S. Iohn Baptiſt now next enſuing, ſhall bring or cauſe to be brought into this Realme of England, from the parts of beyond the Seas, any Girdles, Harneſſe for Girdles, Rapiers, Daggers, Kniues, Hylts, Pummels, Lockets, Chapes, Dagger blades, Handles, Scabbards, and Sheathes for Kniues, Saddels, Horſe harneſſe, Stirops, Bittes, Gloues, Poynts, Leather Laces, or Pinnes, being ready made or wrought in any parts of beyond the Seas, to be ſold, bartred or exchanged within this Realme of England or Wales, vpon paine to forfeit all ſuch wares ſo to be brought contrary to the true meaning of this Act, in whoſe hands ſoeuer they or any of them ſhalbe found, or the very value thereof: The one halfe of the forfeiture to be to our Soueraigne Lady the Quéenes highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity thereof to him or them that will ſeiſe the ſame, or ſue therefore in any Court of Record of the Quéenes maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors, by action of debt, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, where no wager of law, eſſoyne or protection, ſhall be to him or them allowed. This Act to continue and endure to the end of the next Parliament. 3.Car.4. contin. vntill the end of the firſt Seſsion of the next Parliament.

None ſhall bring into this Realme the wares within mentioned ready wrought. 3.Ed.4.4. 1.Ri.3.12. St.27.El.11.

Cap. IX.

What puniſhments ſhall be inflicted vpon perſons who commit wilfull periury.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the xxxii. yeare of the reigne of the late King of famous memory, King Henry the eighth, amongſt other things it was ordained, enacted, and eſtabliſhed, That no perſon or perſons of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſoeuer he or they were, ſhould from thenceforth vnlawfully ſuborne any witneſſe or witneſſes, by letters, rewards, promiſes, or by any other ſiniſter labour or meanes, for to maintaine any matter or cauſe, or to the diſturbance or hinderance of Juſtice, or to the procurement or occaſion of any manner of periury, by falſe verdict, or otherwiſe, in any of the Kings Courts of Chancery, the Starre Chamber, the White Hall, or elſewhere within any the Kings Dominions of England, or Wales, or the Marches of the ſame, where any perſon or perſons haue, or from thenceforth ſhould haue authority, by vertue of the Kings Commiſſion, Patent, or Writ, to hold plea of Land, or to examine, heare, or determine any title of Lands, or any matter or witneſſes concerning the title, right, or intereſt of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery ſuch offence x. li. the one moity thereof to be to the King, and the other to the party that would ſue for the ſame, as by the ſame Eſtatute, amongſt diuers other things, more plainely it doth appeare.

A rehearſall of the Statute of 32.H.8.9. made againſt the ſubornation of witneſſes.

Sithence the making whereof, for that the ſaid penalty is ſo ſmall towards the offendors in that behalfe, the ſaid offence of ſubornation and ſiniſter procurement of falſe witneſſe hath neuertheleſſe greatly encreaſed and augmented, and by reaſon of the wilfull periury committed by the ſame ſuborned witneſſes, diuers and ſundry of the Quéenes Maieſties ſubiects haue ſuſtained diſheriſon and great impoueriſhment, as well of their lands and tenements, as alſo of their goods and cattels.

Be it therefore enacted by our Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons, which at any time after the tenth day of Aprill next comming, ſhall vnlawfully & corruptly procure any witneſſe or witneſſes by letters, rewards, promiſes, or by any other ſiniſter and vnlawfull labor or means whatſoeuer, to commit any wilfull and corrupt periury, in any matter or cauſe whatſoeuer, now depending, or which hereafter ſhall depend in ſuite and variance, by any writ, action, bill, complaint or information, in any wiſe touching or concerning any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any goods, cattels, debts, or damages in any of the courts before mentioned, or in any of the Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, or in any leete, view of franke pledge, or lawday, auncient demeane Court, Hundred Court, Court Baron, or in the Court or Courts of the Stannarie in the Counties of Deuon, and Cornewall, or ſhall likewiſe vnlawfully and corruptly procure or ſuborne any witneſſe or witneſſes, which ſhall from and after the ſaid tenth day of Aprill bee ſworne to teſtifie In perpetuam rei memoriam, that then euery ſuch offendor or offendors, ſhall for his, hers, or their ſaid offence, being thereof lawfully conuicted or attainted, loſe and forfeite the ſumme of forty pounds.

And if it happen any ſuch offendor or offendors, ſo being conuicted or attainted, as aforeſaid, not to haue any goods or cattels, lands or tenements, to the value of forty pound, that then euery ſuch perſon ſo beeing conuict or attainted of any the offences aforeſayd, ſhall for his or their ſayd offence, ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one halfe yeare, without baile or maineprize, and to ſtand vpon the pillory by the ſpace of one whole houre, in ſome Market towne next adioyning to the place, where the offence was committed, in open Market there, or in the Market towne it ſelfe, where the offence was committed.

And that no perſon or perſons being ſo conuicted or attainted, to bee from thenceforth receiued as a witneſſe to be depoſed and ſworn in any Court of Record within any of the Queenes Highneſſe Dominions of England, Wales, or the Marches of the ſame, vntill ſuch times as the iudgement giuen againſt the ſayd perſon or perſons ſhall be reuerſed by attaint or otherwiſe, and that vpon euery ſuch reuerſall, the parties grieued, to recouer his or their damages, againſt all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons as did procure the ſayd iudgement ſo reuerſed to be firſt giuen againſt them or any of them, by action or actions, to be ſued vpon his or their caſe or caſes, according to the courſe of the common lawes of this Realme.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that if any perſon or perſons after the ſaid tenth day of Aprill next comming, either by the ſubornation, vnlawfull procurement, ſiniſter perſwaſion or meanes of any others, or by their owne act, conſent or agreement, wilfully and corruptly commit any manner of wilfull periurie, by his or their depoſition in any of the Courts before mentioned, or being examined ad perpetuam rei memoriam, that then euery perſon and perſons ſo offending, and being thereof duely conuict or attainted by the lawes of this Realme, ſhall for his or their ſaid offence, loſe and forfeit twenty pounds, and to haue impriſonment by the ſpace of ſix moneths without baile or maineprize, and the oath of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo offending, from thenceforth not to be receiued in any Court of Record within this Realme of England or Wales, or the Marches of the ſame, vntill ſuch time as the iudgement giuen againſt the ſaid perſon or perſons ſhall bee reuerſed by attaint or otherwiſe. And that vpon euery ſuch reuerſall, the parties grieued to recouer his or their damages, againſt all and euery ſuch perſon and perſons as did procure the ſaid iudgement ſo reuerſed, to be giuen againſt them or any of them, by action or actions to be ſued vpon his or their caſe or caſes, according to the courſe of the common lawes of this Realme.

The penalty of him that doth commit wilfull periury.
Coke pla.fol. 164, 165. 362.

And if it happen the ſaid offendor or offendors ſo offending, not to haue any goods or cattels to the value of twenty pounds: that then he or they to be ſet on the pillory in ſome Market-place within the Shire, City, or Borough, where the ſaid offence ſhall be committed, by the Sheriffe or his miniſters, if it ſhall fortune to be without any City or Towne corporate: And if it happen to be within any ſuch City or Towne corporate, then by the ſaid head officer or officers of ſuch City or Towne corporate, or by his or their miniſters, and there to haue both his eares nailed, and from thence forth to be diſcredited and diſabled for euer to be ſworne in any of the Courts of Record aforeſaid, vntill ſuch time as the iudgement ſhall be reuerſed, and thereupon to recouer his damages in manner and forme before mentioned.

Who ſhall haue the forfeitures and by what meanes.

The one moity of all which ſummes of money, goods, and cattels, to bee forfeited in manner and forme aforeſaid, to be to the Queen our Soueraigne Lady, her heirs and ſucceſſors: and the other moity to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be grieued, hindred, or moleſted, by reaſon of any the offence or offences before mentioned, that will ſue for the ſame by action of Debt, Bil, Plaint, Information, or otherwiſe, in any of the Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, in the which no Wager of Law, Eſſoyne, Protection, or Iniunction, to be allowed.

Who ſhal haue authority to heare and determine the offences aforeſayd.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That as well the Iudge and Iudges of euery ſuch of the ſaid Courts where any ſuch ſuite is or ſhall be, and whereupon any ſuch periury is or ſhall happen to be committed, as alſo the Iuſtices of Aſſiſes and Goale deliuery in their ſeuerall Circuits, and the Iuſtices of the Peace in euery County within this Realme, or in Wales, at their quarter Seſſions, both within the liberties and without, ſhall haue full power and authority, by vertue hereof, to enquire of all and euery the defaults and offences perpetrated, committed, or done contrary to this Act, by Inquiſition, Preſentment, Bil, or Information, before them exhibited, or otherwiſe, lawfully to heare and determine the ſame, and thereupon to giue iudgement, award proces, & execution of the ſame, according to the courſe of the lawes of this Realme.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Juſtices of Aſſiſe of every circuit within this Realme, and elſe-where within the Queenes Dominions, ſhall in every County within their circuits, two times in the yeare, that is to ſay, in the time of their ſittings, make open Proclamation of this Eſtatute, or of the effect thereof, to the intent no perſon or perſons ſhall be ignorant or miſcognizant of the penalties therein contained.

This Stat. ſhall be proclaimed at all Aſſiſes.

Provided alſo that this Act nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall Court or Courts within this Realme of Englang or Wales, or the marches of the ſame: But that all and every ſuch offendor or offendors as ſhall offend in forme aforeſaid, ſhall and may be puniſhed by ſuch uſuall and ordinary lawes as heretofore hath been, and yet is uſed and frequented in the ſayd Eccleſiaſticall Courts: any thing in this preſent Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

This Act ſhal not extend to any Court Eccleſiaſtical.

Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that if any perſon or perſons, upon whom any proceſſe out of any of the Courts of Record within this Realme or Wales, ſhall be ſerved to teſtifie or depoſe, concerning any cauſe or matter depending in any of the ſame Courts, and having tendred unto him or them, according to his or their countenance or calling, ſuch reſonable ſummes of money for his or their coſtes and charges, as having regard to the diſtance of the places, is neceſſary to be allowed in that behalfe, doe not appeare according to the tenour of the ſaid proceſſe, having not a lawful and reaſonable let or impediment to the contrary: that then the party making default, to loſe and forfeit for every ſuch offence, x. li. and to yeeld ſuch further recompence to the party grieved, as by the diſcretion of the Judge of the Court, out of the which the ſayd proceſſe ſhall be awarded, according to the loſſe and hinderance that the party which procured the ſayd proceſſe, ſhall ſuſtaine by reaſon of the non-appearance of the ſaid witneſſe or witneſſes, the ſayd ſeverall ſummes to be recovered by the party ſo grieved againſt the offendor or offendors, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any of the Queenes Maieſties Courts of Record, in which no wager of law, eſſoyne, or protection to be allowed.

Proceſſe ſerved upon witneſſes to teſtifie.

Provided alwayes that this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend in any wiſe to reſtraine the power or authority given by act of Parliament, made in the time of King Henry the ſeventh, to the Lord Chancellor of England, and others of the Kings Councell, for the time being, to examine and puniſh riots, routs, hainous periuries, and other offences and miſdemeanors: which Lord Chancellor and other ſithence the making of the ſayd Act, have moſt commonly uſed to heare and determine ſuch matters in the Court of Weſtminſter, commonly called the Starre chamber, nor to reſtraine the power or authority of the Lord Preſident and Councell in the marches of Wales, or of the Lord Preſident and Councell in the North, nor of any other Iudge, having abſolute power to puniſh periury before the making of this Eſtatute: But that they and every of them ſhall and may proceed in the puniſhment of all offences heretofore puniſhable, in ſuch wiſe as they might have done, and uſed to doe before the making of this Act, to all purpoſes, ſo that they ſet not upon the offendor or offendors leſſe puniſhment than is conteyned in this Act. Cap. X.

Servants imbeſiling their Maſters goods of the value of xl. ſhillings or above, ſhall be puniſhed as felons.

Where in the Parliament holden at London the third day of November, in the xxi. yeare of the reigne of the late King of moſt famous and worthy memory King Henry the eighth, and from thence adiourned to Weſtminſter, and there holden and continued by divers prorogations unto the diſſolution thereof: it was ordayned and enacted among other things, that all and ſingular ſervants to whom any Caſkets, Jewels, mony, goods or cattels, by his or their Maſter or Maſters, ſhould from thenceforth be delivered to keep, that if any ſuch ſervant or ſervants withdraw him or them from their ſayd Maſters or Miſtreſſes, and goe away with the ſayd Caſkets, Jewels, money, goods or cattels, or any part thereof, to the intent to ſteale the ſame, and defraud his or their ſaid Maſters and Miſtreſſes thereof, contrary to the truſt and confidence to him or them put, by his or their ſaid Maſters and Miſtreſſes: or els being in ſervice of his ſaid Maſters or Miſtreſſes, without the aſſent or commandement of his Maſters or Miſtreſſes, imbeſell the ſame Caſkets, Jewels, money, goods or cattels, or any part thereof, or otherwiſe convert the ſame to his owne uſe, with like purpoſe to ſteale it, that if the ſayd Caſkets, Jewels, money, goods or cattels, that any ſuch ſervant ſhall go away with, or which he ſhall imbeſell, with purpoſe to ſteale it, as is aforeſaid, be of the value of forty ſhillings or above: That then the ſame falſe, fraudulent, and untrue act and demeanour, ſhould from thenceforth be deemed and adiudged felony, and that he or they ſo offending, ſhould bee puniſhed as other felons for felony committed, by the courſe of the common Law, as by the ſayd Act amongſt other things therein contained more at large it doth and may appeare.

21.H.8.7.

Which ſaid Act, in the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the firſt day of October, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of the late Queene Mary, and there continued to the xxi. day of the ſame moneth, that is to ſay, in the firſt Seſſion of the ſame Parliament, by the generall words of one Act then and there made, entituled, An Act repealing certaine treaſons, felonies, and Præmunire, was from thenceforth vtterly repealed and made voyd.

1. Ma. 1.

Reuiuer of the St. of 21. H. 8. 7 whereby it is made felony for a ſeruant to imbezil his maſters goods, to the value of xl.s or aboue.

And foraſmuch as ſithence the repeale of the ſame, the ſaid Act is thought neceſſary for the Common wealth of this Realme: Be it therfore enacted by our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſty, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid Act made in the xxi. yeare, and euery clauſe, article, branch, ſentence, and prouiſion therein contained, be from henceforth reuiued, and put in due execution, according to the intent and meaning thereof, and from thenceforth ſhall ſtand good, endure, and continue for euer. Cap. XI.

The clipping, &c. of Coynes for gaines ſake, ſhall be high Treaſon.

St.3.H.5.6.

1. Ma. 1.

Whereas the offences of clipping, rounding, waſhing, and fyling of money or coynes of this Realme, was declared by an Act of Parliament in the time of King Henry the fifth, to be Treaſon to the King and the Realme, and according to the ſaid Act, the ſame offences were and did continue Treaſon, vntill the firſt yeare of the reigne of Queene Mary: at which time, the paines and penalties due for the ſaid offences, were abrogated and taken away, by the generall Act of repeale then made. By reaſon whereof, diuers falſe and euill diſpoſed perſons, perceiuing themſelues to be looſe and free from the ſeuerity and danger of the ſaid law and penalty, haue beene of late the more hardie and bold, to attempt and practiſe, for wicked lucre and gaines ſake, to diminiſh, impaire, and falſifie the moneyes and coynes currant within this Realme, and the dominions of the ſame, by ſuch clipping, waſhing, rounding, and fyling thereof, (not onely) to the great diſhonour of the Queenes Maieſty our Soueraigne Lady that now is, by whoſe great goodneſſe the new moneyes or coynes of the ſame are now reduced to as much fineneſſe as euer hath beene in any time of her noble progenitors (but alſo) to the great loſſe and damage of the good Subiects of this Realme, and more is like to bee hereafter, if the ſame be not ſpeedily met withall.

The preiudices redounding to the Qu. and the Realme by clipping, waſhing, &c. of money.

For remedy whereof, be it enacted, declared, and eſtabliſhed, by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that from and after the firſt day of May next comming, clypping, waſhing, rounding, or fyling, for wicked lucre, or gaines ſake, of any the proper moneyes or coynes of this Realme, or the dominions thereof, or of the moneyes or coynes of any other Realme, allowed and ſuffered to be currant within this Realme, or the dominions thereof at this preſent, or that hereafter at any time ſhalbe the lawfull moneyes or coynes of this Realme or of the dominions thereof, or of any other Realme, and by proclamation allowed and ſuffered to be currant here, by the Queenes Maieſty, her heires or ſucceſſors: ſhalbe taken, deemed, and adiudged by vertue of this Act, to bee Treaſon, and the offendors therein, their counſellors, conſentors, and ayders, ſhall be from and after the ſame firſt day of May, taken, deemed, and adiudged as offendors in Treaſon, and being thereof lawfully conuicted or attainted, according to the due order and courſe of the lawes of this Realme, ſhall ſuffer paines of death, and loſe and forfeit all his and their goods and cattels, and ſhall alſo loſe and forfeit all his and their lands and tenements, during his and their naturall life or liues onely.

The clipping, waſhing, rounding or filing of currant money, ſhall be adiudged Treaſon.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all & euery perſon and perſons, which haue any lawfull grant to haue and inioy the forfeiture of lands, tenements, goods or cattels of offenders, and men attainted in high Treaſon, within any Manor, lordſhip, towne, pariſh, hundred, or other precinct within this Realme of England or Wales: ſhal and may at all times hereafter haue like liberty, to take, ſeiſe, and inioy all ſuch forfeitures of lands, tenements, goods, and cattels, as ſhall come or grow within their liberties, by force of the attaindor of any perſon or perſons, for, and vpon any offence or offences made Treaſon by this Act, as they or any of them ſhould, ought, or might haue, by vertue of any good and lawfull grant to them or any of them heretofore had or made.

They which haue forfeitures of lands or goods by grant ſhall in this caſe inioy them.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, nor any attaindor or attaindors, of any perſon or perſons, for any offence or offences made treaſon by this Act, ſhal in any wiſe extend, or be iudged, interpreted or expounded, to make any corruption of bloud, to any the heire or heires of any ſuch offendor or offendors, or to make the wife of any ſuch offendor to loſe or forfeit her dower, of, or in any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or her title, action, or intereſt in the ſame: Any thing in this Act contained, or any attaindor or attaindors hereafter to be had for any offence or offences made Treaſon by this Act, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

These offences make no corruption of bloud, or forfeiture of dower.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any of the Lords of the Parliament, or Peere of this Realme for the time being, ſhall fortune at any time hereafter to be indicted of any offence made Treaſon by this Act: that then they and euery of them ſhall haue his or their tryall by their Peeres, as hath beene vſed heretofore in caſes of high Treaſon. 18.El.1.

Tryall of a Peere by Peeres.

CAP. XII.

None ſhall be Badgers of Corne, nor Drouers of Cattell, without licence.

WHere in the Seſſion of Parliament holden vpon prorogation at Weſtminſter the xxiij. day of January, in the fift yéere of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord King Edward the ſixth, amongſt other things it was enacted, that whatſoeuer perſon or perſons, after the firſt day of May then next enſuing, ſhould ingroſſe or get into his or their hands, by buying, contracting, or promiſe taking (other than by demiſe, grant, or leaſe, of land or tythes) any Corne growing in the fields, or any other Corne or Graine, Butter, Chéeſe, Fiſh or other dead victuals whatſoeuer, within the Realme of England, to the intent to ſell the ſame againe, ſhall bee accepted, reputed and taken an vnlawfull Engroſſor or Engroſſors: with a prouiſo, and ordinance contained in the ſame Acte, that it ſhould bee lawfull to euery perſon or perſons, being a common Badger, Kydder, Lader, or Carrier, which ſhall bee licenced, aſſigned, and allowed thereunto by thrée Iuſtices of the Peace of the County where the ſayd Badger, Lader, Kidder, or Carrier ſhall dwell, which ſhall ſell or deliuer in open faire or market, or to any other victualler, or to any other perſon or perſons, for the prouiſion of his or their houſe or houſes, all ſuch Corne, Butter, or Chéeſe, as any ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall buy or cauſe to be bought, and that within the moneth next after, he or they ſhall ſo buy any ſuch Corne, Graine, Butter, or Chéeſe, ſo that the ſame ſhall be bought without foreſtalling: ſhall not be in any wiſe déemed, adiudged, or taken, any offence contrary to the ſayd Act.

Who ſhall be accounted an Ingroſſer by the St. of 5. & 6. of Ed. 6. 14.

A prouiſo for a Badger, Carrier, &c. licenced.

And where alſo it is prouided and enacted by the ſame Act of Parliament, that it ſhall be lawfull to all and euery perſon and perſons, knowne for a common Drouer or Drouers, being lycenced, authorized, and allowed in writing by thrée Iuſtices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, of the County or Counties where the ſame Drouer or Drouers ſhall bee moſt abiding and dwelling, to buy Cattell in ſuch Shires or Counties, where Drouers haue béene wont in times paſt accuſtomarily to buy Cattell, at their frée liberty and pleaſure, and to ſell the ſame againe. And that it ſhall be lawfull to euery perſon and perſous which ſhall bee aſſigned and allowed by thrée Iuſtices of the Peace of the County where he ſhall dwell, to buy (otherwiſe than by foreſtalling) Corne, Graine, or Cattell to be tranſported or carried by water from any Port or place within this Realme or Wales, vnto any other Port or place within the ſayd Realme or Dominions, as in the ſayd Act amongſt other things doth appeare.

A prouiſo for a Drouer of cattell, or for buying of corne to be tranſported from one Port to another.

Since the making of which Act, ſuch a great number of perſons, ſéeking onely to liue eaſily, and to leaue their honeſt labour, haue and doe dayly ſéeke to be allowed and licenced to the ſaid offices or doings, being moſt vnfit and vnméete for thoſe purpoſes, and alſo very hurtfull to the Common wealth of this Realme, as well by the inhaunſing of prices of Corne and Graine, and other the ſaid victuals, as alſo by the diminiſhing of the number of good and neceſſary husbandmen, which ſayd number of Drouers of Cattell, and Badgers, Laders, Kidders, and Carriers of Corne and Graine, are many times without good orders, and due conſideration, aſſigned and allowed thereunto, to the great preiudice of the Common wealth.

The inconueniences enſuing the number of Douers of cattel, and Badgers &c. of corne & other victuals.

In conſideration whereof, be it enacted by the Quéene our Soueraigne Lady, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That no Drouer of Cattel, Badger, Lader, Kidder, Carrier, buyer or tranſporter of Corne or Graine, Butter and Chéeſe, be from and after the Feaſt of Eaſter next after the firſt day of this preſent Parliament, licenced, admitted, aſſigned, or allowed to thoſe offices or doings, or to any of them, but only in the generall and open quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be holden in the Shire, where ſuch perſon or perſons ſo to be admitted, aſſigned, or allowed, doth or ſhall dwell, and hath or ſhall haue dwelled there by the ſpace of thrée yeares next before the Teſte of his ſayd licence. And that no perſon or perſons after the firſt day of May next comming, be admitted to the ſayd offices or doings, or to any of them, but ſuch only as be or haue béene married men, and ſhall be at the time of ſuch licence to be granted, houſholders, and not houſhold ſeruants, nor reteiners to any perſon or perſons, and of the age of xxx. yéeres at the leaſt. And that all licences being made and granted, as is aboueſayd, ſhall haue continuance, and be good only for one yeare next after the date thereof, and for no more nor longer time.

To what kind of perſons, & at what place only licence ſhalbe granted to be Badgers, Drouers, &c.

Which ſaid licences and euery of them, ſhall beare date of the day and place where the ſayd Seſſions ſhall be holden, and ſhall be ſigned and ſealed with the proper hands and Seales of thrée of the ſayd Iuſtices of the Peace, being preſent at the ſame Seſſions, at the leaſt, whereof one to be of the Quorum, vpon paine that euery perſon or perſons that ſhall take any licence contrary to this ordinance, to loſe and forfeit to our Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, her heires and ſucceſſors, fiue pounds ſterling. And that all licences made and granted, or hereafter to be made and granted otherwiſe than is before expreſſed, ſhall from and after the ſayd firſt day of May next comming, be voyd and of none effect.

The date of the licences, & the Iuſtices hands & ſeals.

And further be it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that the Iuſtices of the Peace, in the ſayd generall and open Seſſions, ſhall or may by their diſcretions, take band and ſurety from time to time by recogniſance, of ſuch as ſhall be admitted or allowed hereafter a common drouer of cattel, Badger, Lader, Kidder, Carrier or buyer of Corne, Graine, Butter or Cheeſe, that they nor any of them ſhall by colour of his or their licence, foreſtall or ingroſſe, or otherwiſe practiſe or doe any act or thing contrary to the tenour and true meaning, or in defrauding the ſaid former Eſtatute, or of any matter or thing therein contained. All which licences, and euery of them, and the ſaid Recogniſances, ſhall be made and written by the Clerke of the Peace of euery County where ſuch licence ſhall be granted, or by his lawfull deputy, and by none other perſon or perſons. And euery perſon that ſhall haue any ſuch licence, ſhall pay to the Clerke of the Peace, or his deputy for making thereof, twelue pence at the moſt, and for euery Recogniſance in forme aboueſaid to be made and knowledged, eight pence at the moſt, and for regiſtring of the ſame licence and Recogniſance, foure pence at the moſt. For which ſaid fee, the ſaid Clerke or his deputy, ſhall haue and keepe one regiſter Booke, and therein ſhall regiſter and write all the names, ſurnames, and dwelling places of ſuch as ſhall be licenced as aforeſaid, with a briefe declaration of euery of the ſaid licence, and of the day, time, and place where ſuch a licence or licences ſhall be granted. Which Booke or Regiſter, the ſaid Clerke of the Peace or his deputy, ſhall haue and bring to euery Seſſions, to the intent that it may appeare what number of licences be and ſhall be from time to time granted, whereby the better conſideration may be had thereof.

Bonds with ſureties ſhall be taken of drouers, carriers, &c. not to infringe this Act.

None ſhall buy corne to ſell againe without ſpeciall licence.

Who ſhall haue the forfeitures.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons, ſhall or may by authority of any ſuch licence aboue mentioned, buy any Corne or Graine out of open Faire or Market to ſell againe, vnleſſe ſuch perſon and perſons ſhall be thereunto licenced, and ſhall haue ſpeciall and expreſſe words contained in ſuch licence or licences, that he or they may ſo doe, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch time that any ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall doe to the contrary fiue pounds. The moity of all which forfeitures afore rehearſed ſhall be to the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Queenes Courts of Record, by bill, plaint, action of debt, or information, in the which bill, plaint, action or information, no wager of Law, eſſoine or protection ſhall be admitted.

Juſt. of P. in their Seſſ. ſhall inquire of & determine theſe offences.

Be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the Juſtices of Peace in euery County within this Realme or Wales, at the quarter Seſſions, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, to enquire, heare and determine all and euery the defaults and offences perpetrated, committed or done contrary to this Act, within the County where any ſuch Seſſions ſhall be kept, by inquiſition, preſentment, bill or information, before them exhibited, and by examination of two lawfull witneſſes, or by any of the ſame wayes or meanes, by the diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtices, and to make proceſſe thereupon, as though they were indicted before them by inquiſition, or by verdict of twelue men or more. And vpon the conuiction of the offendor, by information or ſuit of any other than the Queene, to make extracts of the moity of the forfeitures to be leuied to the Queenes vſe, as they vſe to doe of other fines and amerciaments growne in the Seſſions of Peace, and to award execution of the other moity for the complainant or informer againſt the offendor by Fieri facias or Capias, as the Queenes Juſtices at Weſtminſter may doe and vſe to doe. And if any ſuch conuiction or attainder ſhall hereafter happen to be at the Queenes ſuit onely, that then the whole forfeitures to be extracted and leuied to the Queenes vſe onely.

A City &c. may appoint purueyors for their prouiſion.

Prouided alwaies, that this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to the preiudice of the liberty of any City or Towne Corporate, but that they and euery of them ſhall and may lawfully aſſigne and licence Purueyors for the prouiſion of the ſame City or Towne Corporate, in ſuch manner and forme as they might lawfully haue done before the making of this Act.

To the Inhabitants of which Counties this Act doth not extend.

Prouided further, that this Act nor any thing therein contained, ſhall be in any wiſe hurtfull or preiudiciall vnto any the inhabitants within the Counties of Weſtmerland, Cumberland, Lancaſter, Cheſter and Yorke, or any of them, but that they may doe as heretofore they haue lawfully vſed to doe: any thing in this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. 13. El. 25.

CAP. XIII.

The Statute of 2. & 3. P. & M. 8, touching amending of high wayes, continued: and the authorities of Superuiſor of high wayes enlarged.

The Statute of 2 & 3 P. & M. 8 touching repayring of high wayes continued.

WHere in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the ſecond and third yeares of the reignes of the late Princes, King Philip and Queene Mary, amongſt other good Acts then had and made, one neceſſary Statute was prouided and eſtabliſhed for the amendement and reparation of the high wayes within this Realme, which Act was made to endure and continue for ſeuen yeares, and after the expiration of the ſaid ſeuen yeares, till the end of the Parliament then next enſuing, as by the ſame Statute more plainely appeared: Which ſeuen yeares, foraſmuch as they be now expired and ended, and the ſaid Act is very beneficiall, and moſt neceſſary to be continued, for the eaſe and common weale of the people of this Land: Be it therefore enacted by the Queenes excellent Maieſty, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority thereof, that the ſaid Act made in the ſaid ſecond and third yeares of the reigne of King Philip and Queene Mary, touching and concerning the reparation and amendement of the high wayes, and every article and branch of the ſame, ſhall from henceforth be, ſtand, and continue in full force, effect, and ſtrength, for and during the terme of twenty yeares next following, from and after the beginning of this preſent Parliament, and after the expiration of the ſaid twenty yeares, to the end of the Parliament then next after the end of the ſaid twenty yeares to be holden and kept.

And foraſmuch as the ſaid Statute made in the ſecond and third yeares of King Philip and Queene Mary, in divers parts of this Realme, ſerveth not to ſo good purpoſe and effect as it may be made, for that ſuch ſubſtance and matter as is moſt fit and convenient for the reparations of the ſaid wayes, cannot be lawfully had, fetched and taken out of the ſeverall grounds and ſoyle thereunto nigh or adioyning, being no great loſſe or detriment to the owners of the ſame ſeverall grounds and ſoyle; whereby the amendment of the ſaid wayes is little encreaſed, or elſe of very ſmall and ſlender continuance, to the great and continuall charge and trouble of the poore people inhabiting thereabouts.

The Superviſors may take rubbiſh in other mens grounds for the mending of wayes.

For reformation whereof, and that the reparations of the ſaid high wayes may hereafter in good and due maner well and ſufficiently be made: Be it further by the authority of this preſent Parliament enacted, that from henceforth it ſhall and may be lawfull to all and every Superviſor and Superviſors and orderers of the workes for the time being, for the amendment of the ſaid high wayes thereunto elected and appointed, according to the Statute made in the ſecond and third yeares of King Philip and Queene Mary, for the better reparation and amendment of the waies within their ſeverall Pariſhes and limits where they ſhall be ſo made Superviſors (if it ſhall be ſo to them thought neceſſary) to take or carry away of the rubbiſh or ſmalleſt broken ſtones of any quarrie or quarries lying and being within the pariſh where they ſhall be Superviſors, without licence, controlement or impeachment of the owner or owners, ſo much as by their diſcretions ſhall be deemed and adiudged neceſſary for the amendment of the ſaid wayes. And that for default of any quarry or quarries not being within their ſaid pariſh or limits, or in default of rubbiſh to be found in any ſuch quarry or quarries: It ſhall and may be lawfull to every ſuch Superviſor or Superviſors for the uſe aforeſaid, in the ſeverall grounds of any perſon or perſons being within the Pariſh and limits where they ſhall be Superviſors, and nigh adioyning to the ſaid high wayes wherein ſuch reparations ſhall be thought neceſſary to be made, and wherein gravell, ſand or ſinder, is likely to be found, to dig or cauſe to be digged, for gravell, ſand or ſinder, and alſo to gather ſtones lying upon any lands or grounds within the Pariſh, and meete to be uſed for the ſaid ſervice and purpoſe, and thereof to take and carry away ſo much as by the diſcretion of the ſaid Superviſors ſhall be thought neceſſary to be imployed in the amendement of the ſaid high wayes:

What rubbiſh Superviſors may not dig, nor in what places.

Provided alwayes, that it ſhall not be lawfull to any ſuch Superviſor or Superviſors by vertue of this Act, to cauſe any rubbiſh to be digged out of any quarry or quarries, but only ſhall extend to ſuch rubbiſh as ſhall be found there ready digged by the owner or owners of the ſaid quarry or quarries, or otherwiſe by his or their licence and commandement, nor ſhall not extend or give authority to any Superviſor or Superviſors, to dig or cauſe to be digged any gravell, ſand or ſinder, in the houſe, garden, orchard or medow, of any perſon or perſons, nor that it ſhall be lawfull by this Act to any ſuch Superviſor or Superviſors, to cauſe any more pittes to be digged for gravell in any ſeverall and incloſed ground, than one onely, and that the ſame pit or hole ſo digged for gravell as is aforeſaid, ſhall not by any way be in breadth or length above tenne yards over at the moſt. And that every ſuch Superviſor as ſhall cauſe any ſuch pit to be made and digged, for gravell, ſand or ſinder as is abovesaid, ſhal within one moneth next after ſuch digging or pit made, cauſe the ſame to be filled and ſtopped up with earth, at the coſts and charges of the Pariſhioners, upon paine to forfeit to the owner or owners of the ſoile wherein any ſuch pit ſhall be made and digged, for every default five markes, to be recovered by action of debt, as in other like caſes of debt hath beene accuſtomed.

A Superviſor ſhall cauſe a pit digged for gravell &c. to be ſtopped up againe.

And foraſmuch as the high wayes in ſundry places of this Realme be full of continuall ſprings and water courſes, by continuall increaſe and ſinking whereof into the ground, the ſaid wayes are not only very deepe and dangerous, but alſo for the moſt part impoſſible to be amended and repaired in any good and ſufficient manner, without ſome further remedy provided for the ſame:

Turning of a water courſe into anothers ground.

Be it therefore by the authority aforeſayd enacted, that from hence forth every ſuch Superviſor and Superviſors, as is aforeſaid, ſhall by force of this Act, within the Pariſh or limits where he or they ſhall bee Superviſors, have full power and authority to turne any ſuch water courſe or ſpring of water, being in any of the ſayd high wayes, into any ditch or ditches of the ſeverall ground or ſoyle of any perſon or perſons whatſoever next adioyning to the ſayd waies, in ſuch maner and forme as by the diſcretions of the ſayd Superviſors ſhall be thought meeteſt and moſt convenient.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the heyes, fences, dikes or hedges, next next adioyning on either ſide to any high or common carying way, ſhall from time to time be diched, ſcowred, repayred and kept low, and all trees and buſhes growing in the high wayes, cut downe by the owner or owners of the ground or ſoyle which ſhall be incloſed with the ſaid haies, fences, dikes or hedges aforeſaid, whereby the ſaid wayes may be open, and the people haue more ready and eaſy paſſage in the ſame. And whereas in the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid ſecond and third yeares of the reignes of the ſaid King Philip and Queene Mary, there are but foure dayes yearely appointed for the reparations and amendment of the ſaid high wayes: Be it further by this preſent Parliament enacted, that from henceforth there ſhall be yearely ſixe dayes, during the time and force of this Statute, obſerued, vſed and imployed, in reparation and amendment of the ſaid high wayes, in like manner and forme as the ſaid foure dayes were limited and appointed to be obſerued and kept, by the ſaid Statute made in the ſecond and third yeares of King Philip and Queene Mary.

Sixe dayes appointed for the amending of high waies.

The Superuiſor ſhall preſent euery offence to the next Iuſtice.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that from henceforth all and euery ſuch Superuiſor or Superuiſors for the time being, within one moneth next after default or offence made, done or committed, by any perſon or perſons, contrary to the prouiſion, purport and true meaning of the ſaid Statute, made in the ſecond and third yeares of King Philip and Queene Mary, or contrary to the prouiſion, purport and true meaning of this preſent Act, ſhall preſent euery ſuch default or offence, to the next Iuſtice of Peace for the time being, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch default and offence, in ſuch ſort not by them preſented, forty ſhillings. And that euery ſuch Iuſtice of Peace, to whom any ſuch default or offence ſhall be preſented as is aforeſaid, ſhall certifie the ſame preſentment ſo to him made, at the next generall Seſſions within the ſaid County then next after to be holden, vpon paine to forfeit for not certifying of euery ſuch preſentment, of euery ſuch default or offence as is aforeſaid, fiue pound. And that the Iuſtices of Peace of euery County, where the ſaid defaults or offences ſhall be committed, ſhall immediately haue authority to inquire of any ſuch default or offence committed within the limits of their Commiſſion, at euery their quarter Seſſions, and to aſſeſſe ſuch fines for the ſame, as they or two of them, whereof the one to be of the Quorum, ſhall thinke meete.

Certificat of euery offence preſented at the next Seſſions.

Euery Iu. of P. may preſent defaults vpon his own knowledge.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that euery Iuſtice of Peace, ſhall haue authority by this Statute, vpon his owne proper knowledge, in the open generall Seſſions, to make preſentment of any high way not well and ſufficiently repaired and amended, or of any other default or offence committed and done within the County and limits of his Commiſſion, contrary to the prouiſion and intent of this Statute, or the ſaid Statute made in the ſecond and third yeares of King Philip and Queene Mary. And that euery ſuch preſentment, made by any ſuch Iuſtice of Peace, vpon his owne knowledge as is aforeſaid, ſhall be as good and of the ſame force, ſtrength and effect in the Law, as if the ſame had beene preſented, found and adiudged by the oath of twelue men. And that for euery ſuch default ſo preſented, as is aforeſaid, the Iuſtices of the Peace of the ſaid County ſhall immediately, at the ſaid generall Seſſion, haue authority to aſſeſſe ſuch Fines, as to them, or two of them, whereof the one to bee of the Quorum, ſhall be thought meete: Sauing euery perſon and perſons that ſhall be touched by any ſuch preſentment to haue his or their lawfull Trauers to the ſame preſentment, as they might haue vpon any Indictment of Treſpas, or forcible Entry, by the Lawes of this Realme, before the making of this Statute.

Aſſeſſing of fines for defaults.

Trauerſe to a preſentment.

Eſtreating & leuying of the fines and amerciaments.

And that all ſuch fines, forfeitures and amerciaments, to be aſſeſſed by the ſaid Iuſtices of the Peace at their generall Seſſions in any the caſes aforeſaid, ſhall be eſtreated by the Clerke of the Peace of the ſaid County, and ſhall be leuied in ſuch maner and forme, and imployed to ſuch vſes and intents, as in the ſaid Statute made in the ſecond and third yeares of King Philip and Queene Mary, is limited and appointed. This Act to continue for twenty yeares next after the beginning of this preſent Parliament, and from thence vntill the end of the Parliament then next after to be holden. 29. Cap. XIIII.

The ſeuerall penalties for forging of deedes the firſt or ſecond time, &c.

The mildneſſe of the law hath increaſed the forging of deeds.

FOraſmuch as the wicked, pernicious, and dangerous practice of making, forging, and publiſhing of falſe and vntrue charters, euidences, deedes and writings, hath of late time beene very much more practiſed, vſed and put in vre in all parts of this Realme, than in times paſſed, not onely to the high diſpleaſure of GOD, but alſo to the great iniury, wrong, hurt, damage, diſheriſon and vtter vndoing of diuers the Queenes Maieſties Subiects of this Realme, and to the great ſubuerſion of Iuſtice and truth, which ſeemeth to haue growne and happened chiefly by reaſon that the paines and puniſhments limited for ſuch great and notable offences, by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme, before this time haue beene, and yet are ſo ſmall, milde and eaſie, that ſuch euill people haue not beene nor yet are afraid to enterpriſe the practiſing and doing of ſuch offences:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſty, with the aſſent of the Lords

Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, after the firſt day of Iune, now next comming, vpon his or their owne head and imagination, or by falſe conſpiracy and fraud with others, ſhall wittingly, ſubtilly and falſely forge or make, or ſubtilly cauſe or wittingly aſſent to be forged or made, any falſe Deede, Charter or writing ſealed, Court roll, or the Will of any perſon or perſons in writing, to the intent that the ſtate of Freehold or inheritance of any perſon or perſons, of, in or to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, Freehold, or Copihold, or the right, title or intereſt of any perſon or perſons, of, in or to the ſame, or any of them, ſhall or may be moleſted, troubled, defeated, recouered [b] or charged: or after the ſaid firſt day of Iune, ſhall pronounce, publiſh or ſhew forth in euidence, any ſuch falſe and forged Deede, Charter, Writing, Court roll or Will, as true, knowing the ſame to be falſe and forged, as is aforeſaid, to the intent aboue remembred, and ſhall be thereof conuicted either vpon action or actions of forger of falſe Deeds, to be founded vpon this Statute at the ſuit of the party grieued or otherwiſe according to the order and due courſe of the Lawes of this Realme, or vpon bill or information to bee exhibited into the Court of the Starre Chamber, according to the order and vſe of that Court: ſhall pay vnto the party grieued, his double coſts and damages, to be found or aſſeſſed in that Court where ſuch conuiction ſhall be, and alſo ſhall be ſet vpon the Pillory, in ſome open Market towne or other open place, & there to haue both his eares cut off, and alſo his noſthrils to be ſlit and cut, and ſeared with an hot Iron, ſo as they may remaine for a perpetuall note or marke of his falſhead, and ſhall forfeit to the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, her Heires and Succeſſors, the whole iſſues and profits of his Lands and Tenements during his life, and alſo ſhall ſuffer and haue perpetuall impriſonment during his life. The ſaid damages and coſts to be recouered at the ſuit of the party grieued, as is aforeſaid, to be firſt payed and leuied of the goods and cattels of the offendor, and of the iſſues and profits of the ſaid Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, of ſuch party conuicted, or of one or both of them: The ſaid title of our ſaid Soueraigne Lady the Queene, her Heires or Succeſſors to the ſame notwithſtanding.

The penalty for forging or publiſhing of a falſe deede whereby an others freehold ſhall be troubled.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, after the ſaid firſt day of Iune, vpon his or their owne head or imagination, or by falſe conſpiration or fraud had with any other, ſhall wittingly, ſubtilly, and falſely forge or make, or wittingly, ſubtilly and falſely cauſe or aſſent to be made and forged, any falſe Charter, Deede or writing, to the intent that any perſon or perſons, ſhall or may haue or claime any eſtate or intereſt, for terme of yeares, of, in or to any Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, not being Copihold, or any annuity in Fee ſimple, Fee taile or for terme of life, liues or yeares, or after the ſaid day, ſhall as is aforeſaid, forge, make, or cauſe, or aſſent to be made or forged, any obligation, or bill obligatorie, or any acquittance, releaſe, or other diſcharge of any debt, accompt, action, ſuit, demaund, or other thing perſonall: or if any perſon or perſons, after the ſaid firſt day of Iune, ſhall pronounce, publiſh, or giue in euidence any ſuch falſe or forged Charter, Deede, Writing, Obligation, bill Obligatorie, Acquittance, releaſe or diſcharge, as true, knowing the ſame to be falſe and forged, and ſhall be thereof conuicted, by any the wayes or meanes aforeſaid: that then he ſhall pay vnto the party grieued his double coſts and damages, to bee found and aſſeſſed in ſuch Court, where the ſaid conuiction ſhall bee had, and ſhall be alſo ſet vpon the Pillory in ſome open Market Towne, or other open place, and there to haue one of his eares cut off, and alſo ſhall haue and ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole yeare, without baile or mainpriſe.

Forging of a deed whereby a leaſe or annuity may be claimed.

Forging of an obligation, acquittance, releaſe or &c.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the party and parties grieued, by reaſon of any the offences aforeſaid, ſhall and may at his and their pleaſure, haue and ſue his action of forger of falſe Deedes, vpon this Statute, againſt any the offendors in the ſame, by originall Writ out of the Queenes Highneſſe Court of Chauncery, and ſhall and may haue like proceſſe vpon the ſame, as in caſes of Treſpas at the Common Law: or may at his pleaſure take his ſuit againſt any ſuch offendors, in any the premiſſes, by bill before the Queenes Highneſſe, her Heires and Succeſſors, in her Court commonly called the Kings Bench, or in the Court of the Exchequer, in which ſuits, no eſſoine, iniunction or protection ſhall be allowed for the party defendant.

The ſeuerall remedies of the party grieued againſt the offendor.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if the party defendant ſhall be conuicted for any the offences aforeſaid, according to the order and forme aboue limited, and ſhall haue receiued thereupon puniſhment corporall, according to this Act: that then he ſhall not eftſoones be impeached for the ſame offence.

He that is once puniſhed for an offence ſhall not after be impeached for the ſame.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that although the party or parties plaintiffe, in any ſuch action or bill to be ſued, as is aforeſaid, ſhall after verdict paſſed againſt the defendant or defendants, happen to releaſe or diſcharge the iudgement or execution vpon the ſame, or otherwiſe ſuffer the ſame to be diſcontinued: that yet neuertheleſſe the ſame releaſe, diſcharge, or diſcontinuance, ſhall extend onely to diſcharge ſuch coſts and damages, as the ſame plaintiffes ſhould haue had againſt the defendant, and that the Iudges, before whom the ſaid action

The plaintiffes releaſe ſhal diſcharge only his owne remedy.

oꝛ ſuit ſhall be taken, ſhall and may proceed to iudgement, of, and vpon the reſidue of the ſaid penalties and foꝛfeitures, and to commaund execution vpon the ſame, the ſaid releaſe, diſcontinuance oꝛ other charge, had, made, done oꝛ ſuffered by the party plaintiffe, in any wiſe notwithſtanding. This Act, oꝛ any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The puniſhment foꝛ the ſecond offence is felony.

And be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that if any perſon oꝛ perſons, being hereafter conuicted oꝛ condemned of any the offences afoꝛeſaid, by any the wayes oꝛ meanes aboue limitted, ſhall after any ſuch his oꝛ their conuiction oꝛ condemnation eftſoones commit oꝛ perpetrate any of the ſaid offences in foꝛme afoꝛeſaid: that then euery ſuch ſecond offence oꝛ offences, ſhall be adiudged felony, and the parties being thereof conuicted oꝛ attainted, accoꝛding to the lawes of this Realme, ſhall ſuffer ſuch paines of death, loſſe and foꝛfeiture of their goods, cattels, lands and tenements, as in caſes of felony, by the common lawes of this Realme ought to be loſt oꝛ foꝛfeited, without hauing any aduantage oꝛ benefit of Clergy oꝛ Sanctuary. Sauing to euery perſon and perſons, bodies politike and coꝛpoꝛate, their heires and ſucceſſoꝛs, other then the ſaid offendoꝛs and ſuch as claime to their vſes, all ſuch rights, titles, intereſts, poſſeſſions, liberties of diſtreſſes, leaſes, rents, reuerſions, offices, and other pꝛofits, and aduantages, which they, oꝛ any of them ſhall haue at the time of ſuch conuiction oꝛ attaindoꝛs, of, in, oꝛ to any the lands, tenements, oꝛ hereditaments of any ſuch perſon, ſo as is afoꝛeſaid, conuicted oꝛ attainted, oꝛ at any time befoꝛe, in as large and ample maner, to all intents and purpoſes, as if this Act had neuer béene had ne made.

There ſhall be no foꝛf. of dower oꝛ coꝛruption of blood foꝛ this felony.

Pꝛouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that any ſuch conuiction oꝛ attaindoꝛ of felonie, as is afoꝛeſaid, oꝛ any foꝛfeiture by reaſon of the ſame, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to take away the Dower of the wife of any ſuch perſon attainted, noꝛ to the coꝛruption of blood, oꝛ diſheriſon of any the heire oꝛ heires of any ſuch perſon oꝛ perſons ſo attainted: this Act, oꝛ any thing therein contained, oꝛ any other Statute, Law, vſage, cuſtome, oꝛ thing heretofoꝛe vſed to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Officials oꝛ Regiſters putting a ſeale to a will.

Pꝛouided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that this Act, oꝛ any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to charge any Oꝛdinary, oꝛ any their Commiſſaries, Officials, Regiſters, oꝛ any other their officers oꝛ miniſters, with any the offences afoꝛeſaid, foꝛ putting their Seale of office to any Will, to be exhibited vnto them, not knowing the ſame to be falſe oꝛ foꝛged, oꝛ foꝛ making of the ſaid Will oꝛ pꝛobat of the ſame: this Act oꝛ any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

which Iuſt. may heare & determine theſe offences.

And be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, That all and euery Iuſtices of Oyer and Determiner, and Iuſtices [d] of Aſſiſe in their Circuits, and euery of them, ſhall haue full power and authoꝛity in euery of their open and generall Seſſions, to inquire, heare, and determine, of all and euery the offences afoꝛeſaid, committed oꝛ done within the limits of their Commiſſion, and to make proceſſe foꝛ the execution of the ſame, as they may doe againſt any perſon, being indicted befoꝛe them of Treſpaſſe, oꝛ lawfully conuicted thereof.

d Ca.

A repeale of all other St. made againſt foꝛgery 1. H. 5. 3.

And be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, that all other Statutes heretofoꝛe made and pꝛouided foꝛ foꝛgery of falſe déeds, charters, muniments, oꝛ writings, and all and euery penalty appointed by the ſame, ſhall from and after the ſaid firſt day of Iune, be voyde and of none effect in the law: Any ſuch ſtatute oꝛ thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

To what perſons this St. ſhall not extend.

Pꝛouided alwayes, that this Act, oꝛ any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend, oꝛ be hurtfull in any wiſe to any Pꝛoctoꝛ, Aduocate, oꝛ Regiſter of any Eccleſiaſticall Court within this Realme, foꝛ the writing, ſetting foꝛth, oꝛ pleading of any pꝛoxie made accoꝛding to the Eccleſiaſticall lawes, oꝛ cuſtomes heretofoꝛe vſed and allowed by the Eccleſiaſticall Courts of this Realme, foꝛ the appearance of any perſon oꝛ perſons, being cited to appeare in any of the ſaid Courts Eccleſiaſticall, noꝛ to any Archdeacon, oꝛ officiall, foꝛ putting their authentique Seale to the ſaid pꝛoxies oꝛ pꝛoxie, neither yet to any Iudge Eccleſiaſticall foꝛ admitting of the ſame: But that they, and euery of them may hereafter doe in all points, concerning the ſame, as they and euery of them might lawfully haue done, befoꝛe the making of this Act: Any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Foꝛging of deedes befoꝛe this St. oꝛ pꝛeſently after

Pꝛouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſaid, That if any perſon oꝛ perſons whatſoeuer, that hath of his oꝛ their owne head, oꝛ by falſe conſpiracy and fraud with any other, wittingly, ſubtelly and falſely, foꝛged oꝛ made, oꝛ ſhall befoꝛe the ſaid firſt day of Iune, foꝛge and make any falſe Déede, Charter oꝛ Writing ſealed, oꝛ the Will of any perſon in writing, oꝛ any Court roll, to the intent that the ſtate of Fréehold oꝛ inheritance, oꝛ the right, title, oꝛ intereſt of inheritance, oꝛ Fréehold of any perſon oꝛ perſons, of, in, oꝛ to any Manoꝛs, Lands, Tenements oꝛ Hereditaments, being Fréehold oꝛ Copy hold, oꝛ that by any ſuch foꝛged Déed, Charter, Court roll oꝛ Writing, befoꝛe the ſaid firſt day of Iune, ſhall oꝛ may be moleſted, troubled oꝛ defeated of any the ſaid Eſtates of any Lands, Tenements oꝛ Hereditaments, being Fréehold oꝛ Copihold: oꝛ if any perſon oꝛ perſons haue heretofoꝛe publiſhed oꝛ ſhewed foꝛth in euidence, oꝛ befoꝛe the ſaid firſt day, ſhall publiſh oꝛ ſhew in euidence, foꝛ the pꝛoofe of any title, any falſe and foꝛged Déede, Charter, Writing, Will oꝛ Court roll, as true, knowing the ſame to be falſe and forged as is aforeſaid, to the intent aboueremembred, and ſhall be thereof attainted or conuicted, according to the order of the Lawes of this Realme, either in an action of forger of falſe faits, or in an action vpon the caſe, at the ſuit of the party grieued, his heires, executors or aſſignes: that then the party ſo conuicted, ſhall pay and yéeld damages and coſts of ſuit to the plaintiffe, as ſhall be aſſeſſed according to the order of the Lawes of this Realme, in any ſuch like action or ſuit, and ſhall ſuffer impriſonment, and pay fine and ranſome at the pleaſure of the Quéenes Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors.

And if any perſon or perſons, ſhall after the ſaid firſt day of June, plead, publiſh or ſhew forth in euidence or otherwiſe, for the proofe of any tytle, any falſe and forged Déede, Charter, Writing, Will or Courtroll (heretofore falſly made and forged, or to be falſly made and forged before the ſaid firſt day of June) as true, knowing the ſame to be falſe and forged, to the intent to haue or claime thereby any eſtate of Inheritance, Fréehold or leaſe of yeares, in or to any Mannors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any annuity, rent or profit, forth of any Mannors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or to the intent to alter, defeate, moleſt, trouble, charge or recouer the eſtate of Inheritance, Fréehold, or for yeares of any perſon, in any Mannors, Lands, Tenements, Rents or Hereditaments: That then euery perſon and perſons that ſhall ſo offend, and ſhall be thereof conuicted in forme firſt aboue remembred, ſhall pay vnto the party grieued, double coſts and damages, and ſhall haue impriſonment, loſſe of eares, ſlitting and ſearing of noſe, and forfeiture of lands, in the ſame manner and forme as aboue is limited for any perſon that ſhall offend by forging or publiſhing of any falſe deede or writing, as is aforeſaid, after the aforeſaid firſt day of June.

The penalty for pleading or publiſhing a forged deeds mede before this Stat. or ſhortly after.

Prouided alwaies, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid; that this Act, nor any paine, forfeiture, or thing therein contained, ſhall extend to any Attourney, Lawyer or Counſellour, that ſhall for his Clyent plead, ſhew forth, or giue in euidence any falſe & forged déed, or Charter, Will, Courtroll, or other writing, for true or góod, being not party or priuy to the forging of the ſame, for the pleading, ſhewing forth, or giuing in euidence of the ſame: Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A Lawyer or Atturny pleading a forged deede.

Prouided alwaies, and bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any perſon or perſons, that ſhall pleade or ſhew forth any deede or writing exemplified vnder the great Seale of England, or vnder the Seale of any other autentique Court of this Realme: nor ſhall extend to any Judge or Juſtice, or other perſon, that ſhall cauſe any Seale of any Court to be ſet to any ſuch deed, Charter, or writing inrolled, not knowing the ſame to be falſe or forged: Any thing in this Act to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

CAP. XV.

Penalty for publiſhing any falſe and phantaſticall prophecie vpon armes, fields, badges, &c.

FOraſmuch as ſithence the expiration and ending of the Statute made in the time of King Edward the ſixt, intituled, An Act againſt fond and phantaſticall prophecies, diuers euill diſpoſed perſons enclined to the ſtirring and mouing of factions, ſeditions and rebellions within this Realme, haue béene the more bold to attempt the like practice in faining, imagining, inuenting, and puliſhing of ſuch fond and phantaſticall prophecies, as well concerning the Quéenes Maieſtie, as diuers honourable perſonages, gentlemen and others of this Realme, as was vſed and practiſed before the making of the ſaid Statute, to the great diſquiet, trouble, and perill of the Quéenes Maieſty, and of this her Realme. For remedy whereof,

St.33.H.8.14. St.3.Ed.6.15.

Bee it ordained and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any perſon or perſons, after the firſt day of May next comming, doe aduiſedly, and directly aduance, publiſh, and ſet forth by writing, printing, ſinging, or any other ſpéech or déede, to any perſon or perſons, any fond, phantaſticall, or falſe prophecie, vpon or by the occaſion of any armes, fieldes, beaſts, badges, or ſuch other like things accuſtomed in armes, cogniſances, or ſignets, or vpon, or by reaſon of any time, yeare or day, name, bloudſhed or warre, to the intent thereby to make any rebellion, inſurrection, diſſention, loſſe of life, or other diſturbance within this Realme, and other the Quéenes Dominions: that then euery ſuch perſon, being thereof lawfully conuicted, according to the due courſe of the Lawes of this Realme, for euery ſuch offence, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of his body, by the ſpace of one yeare, without baile or maineprize, and ſhall forfeit for euery ſuch offence the ſumme of tenne pounds.

The penalty for publiſhing of any phantaſtical prophecy vpon armes &c to make inſurrection &c.

And if any ſuch offendor doe after ſuch conuiction eftſoones offend in any of the premiſſes, and be thereof lawfully conuicted as is aforeſaid, that then euery ſuch offendor ſhall for his ſecond offence and conuiction, as is aforeſaid, ſuffer impriſonment of his body without baile or maineprize during his life, and ſhall forfeit all his goods and cattels reals and perſonals. The moities of euery which forfeitures, ſhall be to the Quéenes Highnes her heires any ſucceſſors, and the other moities thereof, to him that ſhall or will ſue for the ſame in any of the Quéenes Courts of

The penalty for the ſecond offence.

Record, by action, bill, plaint, or information, in which caſe no eſſoyne, wager of law, or protection ſhall be allowed or admitted.

Which Juſtices may heare and determine the offences aforeſaid.

And bée it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery Juſtice of Aſſiſe, Juſtice of Oyer and Determiner, Juſtice of Peace, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue hereof, to enquire, heare, and determine all and euery offence or offences aboueſaid, committed or done within the limits of their Commiſſion, contrary to the tenour and meaning of this Act.

Within what time an offender muſt bee accuſed.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that no perſon or perſons ſhall at any time hereafter be impeached of any offence hereafter to be committed or done, contrary to this Act, vnleſſe he be therefore impeached or accuſed within ſixe moneths next enſuing any ſuch offence, by him or them committed or done.

Cap. XVII.

The Statute of 25. H. 8. 6. whereby the committing of Buggery with mankinde or beaſt, is made felony, reuiued.

25. H. 8. 6.

WHere in the Parliament begun at London, the third day of Nouember, in the one and twentieth yeare of the late King of moſt famous memory, King Henry the eighth, and after by prorogation holden at Weſtminſter, in the fiue and twentieth yeare of the reigne of the ſaid late King, there was one Act and Statute made, intituled: An Act for the puniſhment of the vice of Buggery, whereby the ſaid deteſtable vice was made Felony, as in the ſaid Statute more at large it doth and may appeare. Foraſmuch as the ſaid Statute concerning the puniſhment of the ſaid crime and offence of Buggery, ſtandeth at this preſent repealed and void by vertue of the Statute of Repeale, made in the firſt yeare of the reigne of the late Quéene Mary: Sithen which Repeale ſo had and made, diuers euill diſpoſed perſons, haue béene the more bold to commit the ſaid moſt horrible and deteſtable vice of Buggery aforeſaid, to the high diſpleaſure of Almighty God:

The Stat. of 25. H. 8. 6. made againſt the vice of Buggery, reuiued.

Bée it enacted, ordained, and eſtabliſhed by the Quéene our Soueraigne Lady, and by the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſaid Statute before mentioned, made in the fiue and twentieth yeare of the ſaid late King Henry the eighth, for the puniſhment of the ſaid deteſtable vice of Buggery, and euery branch, clauſe, article, and ſentence therein contained, ſhall from and after the firſt day of June next comming, bée reuiued, and from thenceforth ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be in full force, ſtrength and effect for euer, in ſuch maner, forme, and condition, as the ſame Statute was at the day of the death of the ſaid late King Henry the eighth, the ſaid Statute of Repeale made in the ſaid firſt yeare of the ſaid late Quéene Mary, or any words generall or ſpeciall therein contained, or any other Act or Acts, thing or things to the contrary notwithſtanding. Stat. 2. & 3. Ed. 6. 29. Coke pla. fol. 351.

Cap. XVIII.

The Authority of the Lord Keeper, and the Lord Chancellour is, euer was, and ought to be one.

WHere ſome queſtion hath of late riſen, whether like place, authority, preheminence, iuriſdiction and power doth belong, and of right ought to belong to the Office of the Lord Kéeper of the great Seale of England for the time being, as of right doth and ought to belong to the Office of the Lord Chancellor of England for the time being, or not.

The authority of the Lord Keeper of the great Seale, and of the L. Chancellor is all one.

For declaration thereof, and in auoyding ſuch queſtion hereafter: Bée it enacted and declared by the Quéene our Soueraigne Lady, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the Common law of this Realme is, and alwayes was, and ought to be taken, that the Kéeper of the great Seale of England for the time being, hath alwayes had, vſed and executed, and of right ought to haue, vſe and execute, and from henceforth may haue, perceiue, take, vſe and execute, as of right belonging to the office of the Kéeper of the great Seale of England for the time being, the ſame and like place, authority, preheminence, iuriſdiction, execution of lawes, and all other cuſtomes, commodities and aduantages, as the Lord Chancellor of England for the time being, lawfully vſed, had, and ought to haue, vſe, and execute, as of right belonging to the Office of the Lord Chancellor of England for the time being, to all intents, conſtructions and purpoſes, and as if the ſame Kéeper of the great Seale for the time, were Lord Chancellor of England.

Cap. XIX.

In the Statute of 1. Ed.6.5. touching carrying of horſes out of this Realme, this branch ſhall be repealed, viz. (for their onely occupation in their iourneyes, and not to the intent to ſell.)

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of the late King Edward the ſixth, brother to our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſty that now is, amongſt diuers other Statutes, there was one Act and Statute made againſt the carrying and conueying of any Horſes, Geldings, or Mares out of this Realme: In which Act amongſt other things, there is one Prouiſo or Branch contained in theſe words hereafter following. That is to ſay: Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall be lawfull to euery of the Kings ſubiects, that ſhall paſſe ouer beyond the Sea, to ſhip and carry with them Horſes, or Geldings, for their onely occupation in their iourneyes, and not to the intent to ſell the ſame beyond the Sea, & that intent to be iudged by oath of him or them that ſo will carry ouer any Horſe, or Gelding, which oath ſhall be taken before the Cuſtomers or Searcher, or their deputies, of euery ſuch Port where the ſame Horſe, or Gelding, ſhall be ſhipped, before the ſhipping thereof, as by the ſame Act and Prouiſo it doth and may appeare. And although the ſame Act and Statute, in all parts thereof (except the ſayd Prouiſo) is very beneficiall and profitable for this Realme: Yet neuertheleſſe, by colour of the ſayd Prouiſo & Branch contained in the ſayd Statute, many euill diſpoſed perſons, of a couetous and greedy deſire, doe dayly tranſport out of this Realme very great numbers of Horſes and Geldings, and doe exchange and ſell the ſame in the parts beyond the Seas, for their owne priuate lucre and gaine. And becauſe the triall of ſuch offences is by force of the ſayd Prouiſo and Branch mentioned in the ſayd Statute, no otherwiſe to be tried or iudged, but onely by the oath of the offendor himſelfe: therefore the offendors therein doe eſcape vnpuniſhed, and thereby many perſons are greatly encouraged dayly to commit the like offences, contrary to the true meaning and intent of the ſayd Statute.

1. Ed.6.5.

For redreſſe thereof: Be it enacted by the Queenes Maieſtie, with the aſſent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all the ſayd Prouiſo and Branch before rehearſed and mentioned, and contained within the ſayd Act and Statute, and euery Article and Sentence contained within the ſayd Prouiſo, ſhall from henceforth be repealed, mere voyd, and of none effect: and that all the reſidue of the ſayd Act and Statute ſhall ſtand, remaine, and be in full force and ſtrength: Any thing herein ſpecified to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A repeale of a prouiſo conteined in the Statute of 1. E. 6. 5. touching the tranſporting of horſes.

Cap. XX.

How Vagabonds, calling themſelues Egyptians, ſhall be puniſhed.

Whereas ſithence the Act made in the firſt and ſecond yeares of the late King Philip and Queene Mary, for the puniſhment of that falſe and ſubtile company of Vagabonds, calling themſelues Egyptians, there is a ſcruple and doubt riſen, whether ſuch perſons as being borne within this Realme of England, or other the Queenes highneſſe Dominions, and are or ſhall become of the fellowſhip or company of the ſayd Vagabonds, by transforming or diſguiſing themſelues in their apparell, or in a certaine counterfeit ſpeech or behauiour, are puniſhable by the ſayd act in like manner as others of that ſort are, being ſtrangers borne, and tranſported into this Realme of England.

Therefore for the auoyding of all doubts and ambiguities in that behalfe, & to the intent that all ſuch ſturdy & falſe vagabonds of that ſort, liuing onely vpon the ſpoile of the ſimple people, may be condignly met withall and puniſhed: Be it enacted by the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that the ſayd Statute made in the firſt and ſecond yeares of the ſayd late King and Queene, concerning thoſe vagabonds calling themſelues Egyptians, ſhall continue, remaine, and be in full force, ſtrength and effect.

The Stat. of 1. & 2. P. & M. 4. concerning Egyptians, ſhall continue in force.

And yet moreouer, bee it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that all and euery perſon and perſons, which from and after the firſt day of May now next enſuing, ſhall bee ſeene or found within this Realme of England or Wales, in any company or fellowſhippe of vagabonds, commonly called, or calling themſelues Egyptians, or counterfeiting, transforming, or diſguiſing themſelues by their apparell, ſpeech, or other behauiour, like vnto ſuch vagabonds, commonly called, or calling themſelues Egyptians, and ſo ſhall or doe continue and remaine in the ſame, either at one time, or at ſeuerall times, by the ſpace of one moneth, that then the ſayd perſon or perſons, ſhall by vertue of this Act, bee deemed and iudged a fellon

It ſhall be felony for Egyptians or others counterfeiting themſelues like to them, to remaine a moneth in this realme.

and felons, and ſhall therefore ſuffer paines of death, loſſe of lands and goods, as in caſes of felony by the order of the Common lawes of this Realme, and ſhall vpon the triall of them, or any of them therein, be tried in the County, and by the inhabitants of the County or place where they or he ſhall be apprehended or taken, and not per medietatem linguæ, and ſhall loſe the priuiledge and benefit of Sanctuary and Clergy.

To what perſons this act ſhall not extend.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that this act ſhall not in any wiſe extend to any childe or children being within the age of fourtéene yéeres, nor to any of the ſayd perſons being in priſon the laſt day of this preſent Parliament, ſo that he or they ſo being in priſon, doe within fourtéene dayes next after his or their deliuery out of priſon, either depart out of this Realme of England and Wales, or put him or themſelues to ſome honeſt ſeruice, or exerciſe ſome lawfull worke, trade or occupation, and vtterly forſake the ſayd idle and falſe trade, conuerſation and behauiour of the ſayd counterfeit and diſguiſed vagabonds, commonly called, or calling themſelues Egyptians.

None borne in the realme compellable to depart thence.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that the ſayd act made in the firſt and ſecond yeares of the ſayd late King and Quéene, ſhall not extend to compell any perſon or perſons borne within any the Quéenes Maieſties Dominions, to depart out of this Realme of England or Wales, but onely to conſtraine and binde them and euery of them, to leaue their ſayd naughty, idle, and vngodly life and company, and to place themſelues in ſome honeſt ſeruice, or to exerciſe themſelues at home with their parents, or elſewhere honeſtly in ſome lawfull worke, trade, or occupation: Any thing mentioned in this ſayd former act to the contrary hereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXI.

How perſons for vnlawfull Fiſhing, Hunting in a Parke, And taking of Hawkes, or Hawkes egges out of anothers ground, ſhall be puniſhed.

WHere as well the Quéenes Maieſtie, and her moſt noble Progenitors, as alſo the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and diuers other perſons of great Dominions, Lordſhips, Mannors, and Poſſeſſions within this Realme, haue of ancient and long time had, and many of them now of late, to their great coſts and charges, for the neceſſary and better prouiſion, and maintenance of their houſholds, haue erected and made in and vpon their ſeuerall demeanes, grounds, and poſſeſſions, as well Pooles, Stagnes, Stewes, Motes, Pits, or Ponds, for the onely increaſe of Fiſh, & haue ſtored the ſame with Pickerell, Breme, Tench, Carpe, and diuers other good kinds of Fiſh, for the neceſſary encreaſe of victuals, & for the better maintenance and prouiſion of their houſes as is aforeſayd, and alſo haue emparked, enuironed, and incloſed many parcels of their ſaid demeanes, ſoyles, grounds, and poſſeſſions for the bréeding, cheriſhing, and encreaſe, as well of Redde, as Fallow Déere within their ſeuerall Parkes and Incloſures, for the cauſes afore declared, & alſo haue bréeding within their Woods and Grounds, diuers Eyries of Hawkes of ſundry kinds, to their great pleaſure & commodity. Yet neuertheleſſe, the ſayd ſeuerall waters, grounds, parkes, and incloſures ſo being had, erected, and made, and alſo being ſo ſtored and repleniſhed, haue béene from time to time by euill diſpoſed perſons, of a very euill, wilfull, and inſolent diſpoſition, and of malice and diſpleaſure, not onely by night time broken & entred into, but alſo the heads or dammes of the ſayd Ponds, Pooles, Stagnes, Motes, Stewes, or ſeuerall waters, haue béene maliciouſly, wilfully, and vnlawfully cut out, and the pales, fences, and incloſures of the ſayd Parkes and grounds broken, caſt downe, and ſet open, and the Fiſh, Déere, & Hawkes, within the ſame, taken, deſtroyed, carried away, and ſtollen, not onely to the great loſſe & damage of the owners thereof, and to the ſmall encouragement of other good ſubiects, minding the carefull prouiſion of ſuch neceſſary victuals, but alſo to the manifeſt emboldening of many like wilfull malefactors and malicious offendors, whereby many riots, manſlaughters, miſchiefes, and other inconueniences haue beene daily perpetrated, and like to be committed and done, if circumſpect remedy be not hereunto prouided.

The penalty for deſtroying of any poole, pond, &c. or for the taking of any fiſh. 31.H.8.2.

Be it therefore enacted by the Quéenes Maieſtie, the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons of this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that if any perſon or perſons after the feaſt of Pentecoſt next comming, ſhall at any time by day or by night, vnlawfully without authority, breake, cut downe, cut out, or deſtroy any head or heads, damme or dammes, of any ponds, pooles, motes, ſtagnes, ſtewes, or ſeuerall pits, wherein fiſh are, or ſhall happen to be put in or ſtored withall by the owners or poſſeſſioners thereof, or do or ſhall wrongfully fiſh in any of the ſayd ſeuerall ponds, pooles, motes, ſtagnes, ſtewes, or pits, to the intent to deſtroy, kill, take, or ſteale away any of the ſame fiſh, againſt the will, mind, or pleaſure of the owners, or poſſeſſioners of the ſame, not hauing any lawfull title or authority ſo to doe, & thereof be lawfully conuicted, at the ſuit of our Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, her heires or ſucceſſors, or the party grieued, ſhall ſuffer impriſonment of his or their bodies by the ſpace of thrée moneths, and ſhall yeeld and pay to the party grieued, his treble damages, and after the ſayd three monethes expired, ſhall find ſufficient Sureties for his or their good Abearing againſt the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, her heires and ſucceſſors, and all her liege people for the ſpace of ſeuen yeares after, or elſe ſhall remaine and continue ſtill in priſon without baile or mainepriſe, vntill ſuch time as he or they ſo offending, can and ſhall find ſuch ſufficient ſureties, during the ſayd time & ſpace of ſeuen yeares, as is aforeſayd.

And bee it alſo enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that if any perſon or perſons, after the ſaid feaſt of Pentecoſt, next comming, at any time by night or by day, in maner aforeſayd, wrongfully or vnlawfully breake or enter into any parke impaled, or any other ſeuerall ground cloſed with wall, pale, or hedge, and vſed for the keeping, breeding, and cheriſhing of Deere, and ſo wrongfully hunt, driue or chaſe out, or take, kill, or ſlea any Deere within any ſuch empaled Parke, or cloſed ground, with wall, pale, or other incloſure and vſed for Deere, as is aforeſayd, or doe or ſhall take away any Hauke or Haukes, or the egges of any of them, by any wayes or meanes vnlawfully, out of any of the Woods or ground of any perſon or perſons, (not hauing lawfull authority or licence ſo to doe) and thereof bee lawfully conuicted at the ſuit of our Soueraigne Lady the Queene, or the party grieued, as is aforeſayd: ſhall likewiſe ſuffer impriſonment of his or their bodies by the ſpace of three moneths, and ſhall yeeld and pay to the party grieued his treble damages. And after the ſayd three monethes expired, ſhall find ſufficient ſureties for his or their good abearing, for the ſpace of ſeuen yeares after, againſt the Queenes Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors, and all her liege people, as is aforeſayd, or elſe ſhall remaine & continue ſtill in priſon, without baile or mainepriſe, vntill ſuch time as he or they ſo offending, can and ſhall find ſuch ſufficient ſureties during the ſayd time of ſeuen yeares, as is afore rehearſed.

The penalty for breaking of a Parke, & hunting of Deere.
3.Ia.13.1.Ia.27
Coke pla.f.361

The penalty for taking of Hawkes or Hawkes egges out of anothers ground.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, extend not to any Parke, or incloſed ground hereafter to be made and vſed for Deere, without the Grant or Licence of our Soueraigne Lady the Queene, her Heires, Succeſſors, or Progenitors.

A Parke incloſed by the Licence of the Queen, or &c.

Prouided alwayes, and be it enacted by authority aforeſayd, that it ſhall be lawfull for the partie grieued to ſue and take his further remedy againſt all and euery ſuch offendor and offendors, for his loſſe and damages, and to recouer the treble value of the ſame in this behalfe, as well before Iuſtices of Oyer and Determiner, Iuſtices of Aſſiſes in their Circuites, and Iuſtices of the Peace, as elſe where, in any other the Queenes Courts of Record, and that vpon the true ſatiſfaction of the ſayd treble damages to the party grieued, or vpon the confeſſion and knowledge thereof by the ſame party, before the ſayd Iuſtices in open Seſſions to be holden within the County where the offence was committed: it ſhall be at the liberty of the ſame party grieued, to whom the ſayd offence was committed, to releaſe at his pleaſure the ſayd ſuretiſhip of good abearing, at any time within the ſayd ſeuen yeares or before: Any thing in this preſent Act before ſpecified or expreſſed to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

The remedy of the party grieued, & before whom.

The party grieued may releaſe the ſuretiſhip of good abearing.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that the Iuſtices of Oyer and Determiner, Iuſtices of Aſſiſe in their Circuits, and Iuſtices of the Peace and Gaole deliuery, in their Seſſions, ſhall by vertue hereof, haue power and authority to enquire, heare, and determine all and ſingular the offences aforeſayd, and to make and award Proceſſe thereupon, as well vpon inditements taken before them, as by bill of complaint, information, or any other action, in which ſuit or action, no eſſoine, wager of law, nor protection ſhall be allowed.

Which Iuſtices may heare and determin the offences aforeſaid.

And bee it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that if any perſon or perſons, at any time hereafter ſhall fortune to bee bound before any of the Iuſtices before mentioned, to the Queene, her Heires or Succeſſors, for his or their good abearing for ſeuen yeares, according to the tenour of this Act, and the ſame party or parties ſo bound, ſhall afterwards within the ſayd ſeuen yeares, come before the Iuſtices of the Peace of the ſayd County, where the ſayd offence was committed, or ſome of them, in open Seſſions, and there in the ſayd open Seſſions confeſſe and acknowledge his or their ſayd offence or offences, and bee ſory therefore, & ſatiſfie the party or parties grieued, according to the tenor of this act: That then the ſame Iuſtices before whom the confeſſion ſhall be ſo made, ſhall and may haue power and authority by vertue of this Act, in the ſame open Seſſion, or in any other open Seſſions afterward to be holden before the ſayd Iuſtices in the ſayd County, within the ſayd terme of ſeuen yeares, if it ſhall ſeeme good to their diſcretions, to diſcharge the ſayd Recogniſance and bond ſo taken, and alſo the ſaid party and parties ſo bound: This Act or any thing therein conteined to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

In what caſe the Iuſtices of Peace may releaſe the offendor of the good abearing.

CAP. XXII.

Forfeiture of him who ſhall tranſport any ſkinnes of Stagge, Hinde, Bucke, Doe, &c. or the leather made of them. And for what purpoſes they be made and bought within this realme.

To what purpoſes onely pelts may be made, and to what intent any may buy the ſkin of a ſtagge, bucke, &c.

FOr reformation of many griefes, lamentably declared this preſent Parliament, by diuers Artificers of this Realme, working Leather: it may pleaſe your royall Maieſty, that it may be enacted and eſtabliſhed with the aſſent of this high Court of Parliament, That it ſhall not be lawfull to or for any manner of perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, from and after the firſt day of May next comming, to make any Pelts, that is to ſay, to pull, ſheare, clip, or take away the Wooll of any Sheepeſkin, or Lambeſkin, or to buy any ſkin of any Stag, Hinde, Bucke, Doe, Goat, Fawn, or Kidde, or the pelts or ſkinnes of any of them, vnleſſe ſuch perſon or perſons ſo making any pelts, or buying ſuch ſkinnes, as is aforeſayd, doe make or cauſe to be made thereof tawed or lawfully tanned leather, or parchment, or otherwiſe conuert the ſame into ſemits, pannels, or other their owne neceſſary vſes, vpon paine that euery perſon ſo making pelts, or buying any of the ſkinnes, or pelts aforeſayd, contrary to the meaning of this act, ſhall forfeit and loſe the value of all ſuch pelts or ſkins ſo made and bought, and two ſhillings ſixe pence for euery ſkin or pelt ſo bought, or pelt ſo made as is aforeſayd.

The penalty for tranſporting of ſheepſkins, lambes ſkins, &c. REP.8.EL.14.

And be it further enacted, that it ſhall not be lawfull to or for any perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, from and after the feaſt aforeſayd, to ſhip or conuey, or cauſe or procure to be ſhipped or conueyed, in or to any ſhip, boate, or veſſell, in or vpon the Sea, or in or vpon any hauen, riuer, creeke, or place within this Realme of England & Wales, or either of them, any maner of Sheepeſkins, Woolfels, Shorelings, Morelings, or the ſkins of any Stagge, Hinde, Bucke, Doe, Goat, Fawne, or Kidde, or the pelts or ſkinnes of any of them, or the leather made of them or any of them, to the intent to tranſport or carry the ſame into any the parts beyond the Seas, there to be vttered, bartered, or ſold by way of marchandiſe or otherwiſe, vpon paine of forfeiture of all ſuch ſkinnes or pelts bought, laden, ſhipped, or tranſported, contrary to the tenor and true meaning of this Act, or the value of them, and alſo two ſhillings ſixe pence of lawfull money of England, for euery Fell Shoreling, Moreling, Pelt, or Skin aforeſayd, bought, laden, ſhipped, or tranſported, contrary to the tenor & true meaning of this preſent act. The moity of all which forfeitures, ſhall be to our Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by action, bill, plaint, information, or otherwiſe, in any of the Queenes Maieſties Courts: In which action, no eſſoine, protection, or iniunction ſhall be admitted or allowed.

Wares that may be lawfully tranſported by any marchant.

Prouided alwayes, that it ſhall and may be lawfull to the Marchants of the Staple, the Marchants of Newcaſtle vpon Tine, Hartlepoole, and Barwicke, their ſeruants, factors, & attourneyes, and euery of them, to carry & tranſport all ſuch lawfull wares as heretofore they haue been accuſtomed and lawfully might: Any thing in this act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXIII.

The order of awarding and returning the Writ of Excommunicato capiendo: what is to bee done vpon the parties appearance, and what if he cannot be found: and the cauſe of awarding this Writ.

The cauſe of the not executing of the Writ of Excōmunicato Capiendo.

FOraſmuch as diuers perſons offending in many great crimes & offences appertaining merely to the iuriſdiction and determination of the Eccleſiaſtical Courts & Iudges of this Realm, are many times vnpuniſhed for lacke and want of the good & due execution of the Writ de Excommunicato Capiendo, directed to the Sherife of any County, for the taking and apprehending of ſuch offendors. The great abuſe whereof, as it ſhould ſeeme, hath growen for that the ſayd Writ is not returnable in any Court that might haue the iudgement of the well executing and ſeruing of the ſayd Writ, according to the contents thereof, but hitherto, haue beene left onely to the diſcretion of the Sherifes and their deputies, by whoſe negligences and defaults, for the moſt part, the ſayd Writ is not executed vpon the offendor as it ought to be.

By reaſon thereof, ſuch offendors bee greatly encouraged to continue their ſinfull and criminous life, much to the diſpleaſure of Almighty GOD, and to the great contempt of the Eccleſiaſticall Laws of this Realme.

Awarding & returning of Excommunicato Capiendo.

Wherefore, for the redreſſe thereof: be it enacted by the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſty with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, that from and after the firſt day of May next comming, euery Writ of Excommunicato capiendo, that ſhalbe granted & awarded out of the high Court of Chancery, againſt any perſon or perſons within the realme of England, ſhalbe made the time of the Terme, & returnable before the Queenes highnes, her heires and ſucceſſors, in the Court commonly called the Kings Bench, in the Terme next after the Teſte of the ſame Writ, and that the ſame Writ ſhall be made to containe at the leaſt twenty dayes betwéene the Teſte and the returne thereof: And after the ſame Writ ſhall be ſo made and ſealed, that then the ſaid Writ ſhall be forthwith brought into the ſaid Court of the Kings Bench, & there in the preſence of the Juſtices ſhall be opened and deliuered of Record to the Sheriffe or other officer, to whom the ſeruing and execution thereof ſhall appertaine, or to his or their deputy or deputies. And if afterwards it ſhall or may appeare to the Juſtices of the ſame Court for the time being, that the ſame writ ſo deliuered of record, be not duely returned before them at the day of the returne thereof, or that any other default or negligence hath béen vſed or had in the not well ſeruing and executing of the ſaid writ: that then the Juſtices of the ſaid Court, ſhall and may by authority of this Act aſſeſſe ſuch amerciament vpon the ſaid Sheriffe or other officer, in whom ſuch default ſhall appeare, as to the diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtices ſhall be thought méet and conuenient, which amerciament ſo aſſeſſed ſhall be eſtreated into the Court of Eſchequer, as other amerciaments hath béene vſed.

The Sheriffe ſhall be amerced for not returning of the writ.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Sheriffe or other officer, to whom ſuch writ of Excommunicato capiendo, or other proceſſe by vertue of this Act, ſhall be directed, ſhall not in any wiſe be compelled to bring the body of ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall be named in the ſaid Writ or Proceſſe, into the ſaid Court of the Kings Bench, at the day of the returne thereof: but ſhall onely returne the ſame Writ and Proceſſe thither, with declaration briefly how and in what manner hee hath ſerued and executed the ſame, to the intent that thereupon the ſaid Juſtices may then further therein procéed, according to the tenour and effect of this preſent Act.

What ſhall be done with the body of the excommunicate.

And if the ſaid Sheriffe or other officer to whom the execution of the ſaid Writ ſhall ſo appertaine, doe or ſhall returne that the party or parties named in the ſaid Writ cannot bee found within his Bailywike: that then the ſaid Juſtices of the Kings Bench for the time being, vpon euery ſuch returne ſhall award one writ of Capias againſt the ſaid perſon or perſons named in the ſaid writ of Excommunicato capiendo, returnable in the ſame Court in the Terme time, two moneths at the leaſt next after the Teſte thereof, with a Proclamation to be contained within the ſayd writ of Capias, that the Sheriffe or other officers, to whom the ſaid writ ſhall be directed, in the full County Court, or elſe at the generall Aſſiſes and Gaole deliuery to be holden within the ſaid County, or at a quarter Seſſions to be holden before the Juſtices of the Peace within the ſame County, ſhall make open Proclamation ten dayes at the leaſt before the returne, that the party or parties named in the ſaid writ ſhall within ſix dayes next after ſuch Proclamation, yéeld his or their body or bodies to the Gaole and priſon of the ſaid Sheriffe, or other ſuch officer, there to remaine as a priſoner, according to the tenour and effect of the firſt writ of Excommunicato capiendo, vpon paine of forfeyture of ten pound. And thereupon after ſuch Proclamation had, and the ſayd ſixe dayes paſt and expired, then the ſaid Sheriffe, or other officer to whom ſuch writ of Capias ſhall be directed, ſhall make returne of the ſame writ of Capias into the ſaid Court of the Kings Bench, of all that hee hath done in the execution thereof, and whether the party named in the ſaid writ haue yéelded his body to priſon or not.

If the Sheriffe returne Non eſt inuentus.

Capias 1.

And if vpon the returne of the ſaid Sheriffe, it ſhall appeare, that the party or parties named in the ſaid writ of Capias, or any of them, haue not yeelded their bodies to the Gaole and priſon of the ſaid Sheriffe or other officer according to the effect of the ſame Proclamation: that then euery ſuch perſon that ſo ſhall make default, ſhall for euery ſuch default forfeyt to the Quéenes highneſſe, her heyres and ſucceſſors, ten pounds, which ſhall likewiſe be extreated by the ſaid Juſtices, into the ſaid Court of Eſchequer, in ſuch maner and forme as fines and amerciaments there taxed and aſſeſſed, are vſed to be.

Ten pound forfeyt for not appearance vpon the firſt Capias.

And thereupon the ſaid Juſtices of the Kings Bench ſhall alſo award forth one other writ of Capias againſt the ſaid perſon or perſons that ſo ſhall be returned to haue made default with ſuch like Proclamation as was contayned in the firſt Capias, and a paine of twenty pounds, to bee mentioned in the ſaid ſecond writ and Proclamation. And the Sheriffe or other Officer to whom the ſaid ſecond writ of Capias ſhall be ſo directed, ſhall ſerue and execute the ſame ſecond writ, in ſuch like manner and forme as before is expreſſed for the ſeruing and executing of the ſayd firſt Writ of Capias. And if the Sheriffe or other officer ſhall returne vpon the ſaid ſecond Capias, that he hath made the Proclamation according to the tenour and effect of the ſame writ, and that the party hath not yéelded his body to priſon, according to the tenour of the ſaid Proclamation: that then the ſaid party that ſo ſhall make default, ſhall for ſuch his contempt and default, forfeyt to the Quéens highneſſe, her heyres and ſucceſſors, the ſumme of twenty pound, which ſaid ſumme of twenty pound, the ſaid Juſtices of the Kings Bench for the time being ſhall likewiſe cauſe to be eſtreated into the ſaid Court of Exchequer, in maner and forme aforeſaid.

2. Capias.

Twenty pound forf. vpon the ſecond Capias.

And then the ſaid Juſtices ſhall likewiſe award forth one other Writ of Capias againſt the ſaid party, with ſuch like Proclamation and paine of forfeyture, as was contayned in the ſaid ſecond Writ of Capias: And the Sheriffe or other Officer to whom the ſaid third writ of Capias

3. Capias.

ſhall ſo be directed, ſhall ſerue and execute the ſaid third Writ of Capias, in ſuch like manner and foꝛme, as befoꝛe in this Act is expꝛeſſed and declared, foꝛ the ſeruing and executing of the ſayd firſt and ſecond Writs of Capias. And if the Sheriffe oꝛ other officer to whom the execution of the ſayd third Writ ſhall appertaine, doe make returne of the ſayd third Writ of Capias, that the party vpon ſuch Pꝛoclamation hath not yéelded his body to pꝛiſon, accoꝛding to the tenoꝛ thereof: that then euery ſuch party, foꝛ euery ſuch contempt and default, ſhall likewiſe foꝛfeit to the Quéenes Maieſty her heires and ſucceſſoꝛs, other xx. li. which ſumme of xx. li. ſhall likewiſe be eſtreated into the ſayd Court of the Exchequer, in maner and foꝛme afoꝛeſayd: and thereupon the ſayd Iuſtices of the Kings Bench ſhall likewiſe award foꝛth one Writ of Capias againſt the ſayd party, with like Pꝛoclamation, and like paine of foꝛfeiture of xx. li. And that alſo the ſayd Iuſtices ſhall haue authoꝛity by this Act, infinitely to award ſuch pꝛoceſſe of Capias, with ſuch like Pꝛoclamation and paine of foꝛfeiture of xx. li. as is befoꝛe limited, againſt the ſayd party that ſo ſhall make default, in yéelding of his body to the pꝛiſon of the Sheriffe, vntill ſuch time as by returne of ſome of the ſayd Writs befoꝛe the ſayd Iuſtices, it ſhall and may appeare, that the ſayd party hath yeelded himſelfe to the cuſtody of the ſayd Sheriffe oꝛ other officer, accoꝛding to the tenour of the ſayd Pꝛoclamation, and that the party vpon euery default and contempt by him made, againſt the Pꝛoclamation of any of the ſayd Writs ſo infinitely to be awarded againſt him, ſhall incurre like paine and foꝛfeiture of xx. li. which ſhall likewiſe bee eſtreated in manner and foꝛme afoꝛeſayd.

xx. li. foꝛfeit vpon the 3 Capias.

Awarding of Capias infinitely, and xx. li. foꝛfeit vpon euery of them.

The offendoꝛ yeelding his body ſhall be committed to pꝛiſon.

And be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſayd, That when any perſon oꝛ perſons ſhall yéeld his oꝛ their body oꝛ bodies to the hands of the Sheriffe oꝛ other officer, vpon any of the ſayd Writs of Capias: that then the ſame party oꝛ parties that ſhall ſo yeeld themſelues, ſhall remaine in the pꝛiſon and cuſtody of the ſayd Sheriffe oꝛ other officer, without baile, bailem, oꝛ mainepꝛiſe, in ſuch like manner and foꝛme, to all intents and purpoſes, as he oꝛ they ſhould oꝛ ought to haue done, if he oꝛ they had béene appꝛehended and taken vpon the ſayd Writ of Excommunicato capiendo.

The foꝛfeiture of a Sheriffe foꝛ a falſe returne.

And be it further enacted by the authoꝛity afoꝛeſayd, That if any Sheriffe oꝛ other officer, by whom the ſayd Writ of Capias, oꝛ any of them, ſhall be returned as is afoꝛeſayd, do make an vntrue returne vpon any of the ſayd Writs, that the party named in the ſaid Writ hath not yéelded his body, vpon the ſayd Pꝛoclamations, oꝛ any of them, where indéed the party did yéeld himſelfe accoꝛding to the effect of the ſame: That then euery ſuch Sheriffe oꝛ other officer, foꝛ euery ſuch falſe and vntrue returne, ſhall foꝛfeit to the party grieued and dammified by the ſayd returne, the ſumme of xl. li. Foꝛ the which ſumme of xl. li. the ſayd party grieued ſhall haue his recouery and due remedy by action of debt, bill, plaint, oꝛ infoꝛmation, in any of the Quéenes Courts of Recoꝛd, in which action, bill, plaint oꝛ infoꝛmation, no eſſoyne, pꝛotection, oꝛ wager of law ſhall bee admitted oꝛ allowed foꝛ the party defendant.

The Biſhops authoꝛity to receiue ſubmiſſion & deliuer the excommunicate.

Sauing and reſeruing to all Archbiſhops, and Biſhops, and all others hauing authoꝛity to certifie any perſon excommunicated, and like authoꝛity to accept and receiue the ſubmiſſion and ſatiſfaction of the ſayd perſon ſo excommunicatad, in manner and foꝛme heretofoꝛe vſed, and him to abſolue and releaſe, and the ſame to ſignifie, as heretofoꝛe it hath béene accuſtomed, to the Quéenes Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſoꝛs, into the high Court of Chancery, and thereupon to haue ſuch Writs, foꝛ the deliuerance of the ſayd perſon ſo abſolued and releaſed from the Sheriffes cuſtody oꝛ pꝛiſon, as heretofoꝛe they oꝛ any of them had, oꝛ of right ought oꝛ might haue had: Any thing in this pꝛeſent Statute ſpecified oꝛ contained to the contrary hereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Pꝛoceſſe out of liberties where the Queens writ runneth not.

Pꝛouided alwaies, that in Wales, the Counties Palatines of Lancaſter, Cheſter, Durham, and Ely, and in the Cinque Poꝛts, being iuriſdictions and places exempt, where the Quéenes Maieſties Writ doth not runne, and pꝛoceſſe of Capias from thence not returnable into the ſayd Court of the Kings Bench, after any Significauit being of recoꝛd in the ſayd Court of Chancery, the tenour of ſuch Significauit by Mittimus ſhall bee ſent to ſuch of the head officers, of the ſayd Country of Wales, Counties Palatines and places exempt, within whoſe offices, charge, oꝛ iuriſdiction the offendoꝛs ſhall bee reſiant, that is ſo ſay, to the Chancelloꝛ oꝛ Chamberlaine foꝛ the ſayd County Palatine of Lancaſter and Cheſter, and foꝛ the Cinque Poꝛts to the Loꝛd Warden of the ſame, and foꝛ Wales and Ely, and the County Palatine of Durham, to the chiefe Iuſtice oꝛ Iuſtices there. And thereupon euery of the ſayd Iuſtices and officers to whom ſuch tenour of Significauit with Mittimus, ſhall be directed and deliuered, ſhall by vertue of this Statute haue power and authoꝛity to make like pꝛoceſſe to the inferiour officer and officers, to whom the execution of pꝛoceſſe there doth appertaine, returnable befoꝛe the Iuſtices there at their next Seſſion oꝛ Courts, two moneths at the leaſt after the Teſte of euery ſuch pꝛoceſſe. So alwaies as in euery degrée they ſhall pꝛocéede in their Seſſions and Courts againſt the offendoꝛs, as the Iuſtices of the ſayd Court of Kings Bench, are limitted by the tenour of this Act, in Terme times to doe and execute.

Pꝛouided alſo, and be it enacted, that any perſon at the time of any pꝛoceſſe of Capias, afoꝛe mentioned, awarded, being in pꝛiſon, oꝛ out of this Realme in the partes beyond the Sea, oꝛ within age, or of non ſanæ memoriæ, or woman couert, ſhall not incurre any of the paines or forfeitures afore mentioned, which ſhall grow by any returne or default happening, during ſuch time of nonage, impriſonment, being beyond the Sea, or non ſanæ memoriæ. And that by vertue of this eſtatute, the partie grieued may plead euery ſuch cauſe or matter in barre, of and vpon the diſtreſſe or other proceſſe that ſhall bee made for leuying of any of the ſayd paines or forfeytures.

Certaine perſons diſcharged of the penalty aforeſaid.

And that if the offendor againſt whom any ſuch Writ of Excommunicato capiendo ſhall bee awarded, ſhall not in the ſame Writ of Excommunicato capiendo haue a ſufficient and lawfull addition, according to the forme of the eſtatute of primo of Henry the fifth, in caſes of certain ſuites, whereupon proceſſe of exigent are to be awarded. Or if in the Significauit it be not contained, that the excommunication doth procéed vpon ſome cauſe or contempt of ſome originall matter of hereſie, or refuſing to haue his or their child baptiſed, or to receiue the holy Communion as it is now commonly vſed to be receiued in the Church of England, or to come to diuine ſeruice, now commonly vſed in the ſayd Church of England, or error in matters of religion or doctrine now receiued & allowed in the ſayd Church of England, incontinencie, vſury, ſimony, periurie in the Eccleſiaſticall Court, or Idolatry: That then all and euery paines and forfeitures limitted againſt ſuch perſons excommunicate by this eſtatute by reaſon of ſuch writ of Excommunicato capiendo, wanting ſufficient addition, or of ſuch Significauit wanting all the cauſes afore mentioned, ſhall be vtterly voyd in law, and by way of plea to be allowed to the party grieued.

Addition according to the ſtat of Anno 1. H.5.

Cauſes of excommunication.

And if the addition ſhall be with a nuper of the place: Then in euery ſuch caſe, at the awarding of the firſt Capias with Proclamation according to the forme afore mentioned, one writ of Proclamation (without any paine expreſſed) ſhall be awarded into the County where the offender ſhal be moſt commonly reſiant at the time of the awarding of the ſayd firſt Capias with paine, in the ſame writ of Proclamation, to be returnable the day of the returne of the ſaid firſt Capias, with paine, and Proclamation thereupon at ſome one ſuch time and Court, as is preſcribed for the Proclamation vpon the ſayd firſt Capias, with paine. And if ſuch Proclamation be not made in the County where the offendor ſhall be moſt commonly reſiant, in ſuch caſes of additions of nuper: That then ſuch offendor ſhall ſuſtaine no paine or forfeiture by vertue of this eſtatute, for not yéelding his or her bodie, according to the tenour afore mentioned: Any thing before ſpecified and to the contrary hereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Addition with a Nuper.

Cap. XXIIII.

The Statute of 23.H.8.2. touching the making & repairing of Gaoles ſhall be reuiued, and continue ten yeares. And the I. of Peace in the Counties of Pembroke, Glamorgan, Cardigan, Radnor, and Mountgomerie in Wales, ſhall haue power to doe and execute all things concerning the new making of Gaoles, as the Iuſtices and other perſons mentioned in the ſaid Statute. Cap. XXV.

In certaine caſes, a Tales de Circumſtantibus may be granted in the 12. Shires in Wales and in the County Palatine of Cheſter, &c. by the Iuſt. at their great Seſsions.

Where in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter in the xxxv. yeare of the reigne of our Soueraigne Lord King Henry the eighth, father to our moſt deare Soueraign Lady the Quéenes Maieſtie that now is, one wholeſome and profitable Act and Eſtatute, amongſt other, was then eſtabliſhed and enacted, intituled by the name of an Act concerning the apparance of Iurors in Niſi prius, where amongſt other things in the Act, it was eſtabliſhed, That where a full Iury returned betwixt party and party, did not appeare before the Iuſtices of Aſſiſe, or Niſi prius, or elſe after apparance of a full Iury by challenge of any of the parties, the Iury was like to remaine vntaken for default of Iurors, that the ſame Iuſtices, vpon requeſt made by the party plaintiffe or demandant, ſhould haue authority by vertue of the ſame Act, to command the Sherife, or other Miniſter or Miniſters, to whom the making of the ſayd returne ſhould appertaine, to name & appoint, as often as néed ſhould require, ſo many of ſuch other able perſons of the ſayd County, then preſent at the ſaid Aſſiſe, or Niſi prius, as ſhould make vp a full Iury: which perſons ſo to be named & impannelled by ſuch Sherif, or other Miniſter or Miniſters, ſhould be added to the former pannell, and their names annexed to the ſame, and further, as in the ſame Act more plainely may appeare. Which ſaid beneficiall act doth not extend vnto the xii. Shires of Wales, nor to the County Palatine of Cheſter, nor to the County Palatine of Lancaſter, nor to the County Palatine of Durham, by reaſon whereof many Iuries remaine vntaken betwixt the parties, what for lacke of apparance of Iurors, and ſome becauſe of challenges, to the great hinderance of Iuſtice, and great expences and charges to the parties.

A rehearſall of the Statute of 35.H.8.6. touching filling vp a Iury de Circumſtantibus.

For reformation whereof, be it enacted by the Quéene our Soueraigne Lady, with the aſſent of the Lords ſpirituall and temporall, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and Tales de Circūmſtantibus ſhall be grantable in the 12. Shires of Wales, Cheſhire, Lancaſhire, and Durham.

and by the authority of the ſame, That in euery of the Shires of Wales, that is to ſay, Penbroke, Carmarthen, Cardigan, Brecknock, Radnor, Glamorgan, Momtgomery, Denbigh, Flint, Merioneth, Angleſey, Carneruan, and in the County Palatine of Cheſter, and in the ſaid County Palatine of Durham, and in the ſayd County Palatine of Lancaſter, where a full Iury ſhall not appeare before the Iuſtices of the great Seſſion, in any of the ſayd Shires or Counties Palatines, or their deputies there, or els after appearance of a full Iury, by challenge of any of the parties, the Iury is like to remaine vntaken for default of Iurors: that then the ſame Iuſtices, in euery of the ſayd Shires & Counties Palatines, for the time being, or their deputie or deputies, vpon requeſt made by the party plaintiffe or demaundant, ſhall haue full authority by vertue of this Act, to command the Sheriffe, or other Miniſter or Miniſters, to whom the making of the ſayd returne ſhall appertaine, to name and appoint as often as néed ſhall require, ſo many of ſuch other able perſons of the ſayd Counties, then preſent at the ſayd great Seſſion, as ſhall make vp a full Iury: which perſons ſo to bee named and impanelled by ſuch Sheriffe, or other Miniſter or Miniſters, ſhall be added to the former Panell, and their names annexed to the ſame. And that euery of the parties ſhall or may haue his or their Challenge to the Iurors ſo named, added, and annexed to the ſayd former Panel, by the ſaid Sheriffe or other Miniſter or Miniſters, in ſuch wiſe as if they had béene impanelled vpon the Venire facias, awarded to try the ſayd Iſſue. And that the ſayd Iuſtices, and euery of them, and their deputy or deputies, ſhall and may procéede to the tryall of euery ſuch Iſſue with thoſe perſons that were before impanelled and returned, and with thoſe newly added and annexed to the ſayd former Panell, by vertue of this Act, in ſuch wiſe, as they might or ought to haue done, if all the ſayd Iurors had béene returned vpon the Writ of Venire facias, awarded to try the ſayd Iſſue. And that all and euery ſuch tryall had, ſhall be as góod and effectuall in the Law, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes, as if ſuch tryall had béene had and tryed by xii. of the Iurors impannelled and returned vpon the Writ of Venire facias, awarded to try ſuch Iſſue. And in caſe ſuch perſons as the ſaid Sheriffe, Miniſter or Miniſters, ſhall name and appoint, as is aforeſayd, or any of them, after they ſhall be called, be preſent, and do not appeare, or after his or their appearance, doe wilfully withdraw him or themſelues from the preſence of the Court: that then ſuch Iuſtices, or their deputies, ſhall and may ſet ſuch fine vpon euery ſuch Iuror making default, or wilfully withdrawing himſelfe, as aforeſaid as they ſhall thinke góod by their diſcretions, the ſayd fine to bee leuied in ſuch manner and forme, as Iſſues forfeited and loſt by Iurors for default of their appearance, as is prouided by the Law and Cuſtome of the ſayd Countries of Wales, and Counties Palatines aforeſaid, where ſuch Iſſues are forfeited.

Coke pla.

Challenge to the Iurors newly named.

A Iuror newly impanelled, doth withdraw himſelfe.

The firſt Iurors making default, ſhall loſe their iſſues.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, That where any Iury that ſhall be returned by the Sheriffe, or other Miniſter or Miniſters, ſhall be made full, by the commandement of the ſaid Iuſtices, or their Deputies, by vertue of this preſent Act, that yet neuertheleſſe ſuch perſons as were returned in the ſaid Panell, by the Sheriffe, or other miniſter or miniſters, to trye any ſuch Iſſue, that ſhall not appeare, but make default, ſhall loſe the Iſſues vpon them returned, in ſuch wiſe, as though the ſame Iurie had remained for default of Iurors.

Vpon a reaſonable excuſe, Iurors ſhall be diſcharged of iſſues.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted, that vpon a reaſonable excuſe, for the default of appearance of any Iuror or Iurors, ſufficiently proued before the Iuſtices of the great Seſſions, or their deputies in the countreyes and counties Palatines aforeſaid, at the day of their appearance, by the oaths of two lawfull and honeſt witneſſes, that the ſame Iuſtices ſhall haue authority by their diſcretions to diſcharge euery ſuch Iuror of euery ſuch forfeiture of Iſſues vpon him returned, and that the ſaid Sheriffe or Sheriffes, or other miniſter or miniſters, hauing commandement by the ſaid Iuſtices to omit the returning of ſuch iſſues, as is aforeſaid, vpon ſuch Iuror or Iurors, ſhall be therein diſcharged of the penalties aforeſaid, for the non returning of the ſaid Iſſues, and that yet notwithſtanding the ſaid returne to be góod and effectuall in the Law: Any Law, Vſage, Ordinance, or Cuſtome to the contrary notwithſtanding.

If the Iuſtices come not, the Iury ſhall be diſcharged of their iſſues.

Prouided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid Iuſtices, or their deputies, afore whom any ſuch Iury ſhould appeare in the Shires or Counties Palatines where ſuch Iſſue is to be tryed, doe not come at the day and place appointed: that then euery one of the ſame Iurors ſhall bee diſcharged for forfeiting of any Iſſues vpon him returned in the ſame Writ. And the Sheriffe, or other miniſter or miniſters, ſhalbe likewiſe diſcharged of the penalties of this Eſtatute, for the non returning of ſuch Iſſues, as are before limited in this Act: Any Article or Sentence herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Sheriffes forfeiture for returning of iſſues vpon a Iuror not warned.

And alſo be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if vpon any ſuch Writ of Habeas corpora, or Diſtringas, Iſſues be returned vpon any Hundredors, Iuror or Iurors, by the Sheriffe or other miniſter or miniſters, to whom the execution of the ſame Writ or Writs ſhall appertaine, whereas the ſame Hundredors and Iurors ſhall not be lawfully ſummoned, warned, or diſtrained in that behalfe: that then euery ſuch Sheriffe, or other miniſter or miniſters aforeſaid, ſhall loſe for euery ſuch offence ſo committed, double ſo much as the ſaid Iſſues returned vpon ſuch Hundredors or Iurors not lawfully ſummoned, warned, or diſtrained, ſhall amount vnto: the moity of all which forfeitures conteyned in this preſent Act, other than the iſſues to be returned vpon the Iurors, as is aforeſaid, ſhall be to the Queene our Soueraigne Lady, her heyres and ſucceſſors, and the other halfe to him that will ſue for the ſame, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in the Queene her Graces great Court, within the ſaid County where ſuch forfeiture ſhall happen to be, before the ſaid Iuſtices, his or their deputy or deputies, in which no wager of law, eſſoyne or protection ſhall be allowed ne admitted. Sauing to all manner of perſons and bodies politike and corporate, their heyres and ſucceſſors, hauing lawfull right, title and intereſt to haue ſuch iſſues to be before any ſuch Iuſtices or their deputies, at any time or times hereafter loſt and forfeyted, all ſuch right, title and intereſt, as they or any of them ſhould or ought to haue had to ſuch iſſues to be loſt and forfeyted, as though this Act had neuer beene had or made.

Who ſhal haue the forfettures, and by what meanes they ſhal be recouered.

Prouided alſo, that this Act nor any thing therein contayned, ſhall not extend to any City or Towne corporate, or to any Sheriffe, Miniſter or Miniſters in the ſame, for the returne of any Inqueſt or panell, to be made and returned of perſons inhabiting in the ſaid cities or townes corporate, but that they and euery of them ſhall and may returne ſuch perſons in euery ſuch Inqueſt or panell as before this time they might and haue beene accuſtomed to do, and as if this Act had neuer beene had or made, ſo that the ſame Sheriffe, Miniſter or Miniſters returne vpon ſuch perſons as ſhall be impanelled, ſuch reaſonable iſſues as they ought to returne: Any thing in the ſame conteyned to the contrary notwithſtanding. 2.Ed.6.32.

Returning of Enqueſts in cities and townes corporat.

Cap. XXVI.

Indentures of bargaine of manors, lands &c. inrolled ſixe moneths after the date of them in the Courts of the Counties of Lancaſter, Cheſter, and Biſhopricke of Durham ſhall be good in law.

FRom the feaſt of Eaſter next, all inrolments of ſuch writings indented (viz. as be mentioned 27.H.8.16.) of any bargaine and ſale after the ſaid feaſt of Eaſter, to be made of any mannors, lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, ſet, lying or being in the Counties of Lancaſter, Cheſter, and Biſhopricke of Durham, being made and inrolled within ſixe moneths next after the date of any ſuch writings indented in the Queenes Court of Chancery at Lancaſter, or before the Queenes Iuſtice or Iuſtices of Aſſiſes at Lancaſter aforeſaid, concerning any mannors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments within the ſaid County of Lancaſter, or in the Queenes Court of the Exchequer at Cheſter, or before the Queenes Iuſtice or Iuſtices of Aſſiſes at Cheſter aforeſaid, concerning any manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments within the ſaid County of Cheſter, Or in the Court of Chancery at Dureſme, or before the Iuſtice or Iuſtices of Aſſiſes at Dureſme aforeſaid, concerning any manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments, within the ſaid County of the Biſhopricke of Dureſme, ſhall be accepted, deemed, reputed and taken to be as good and availeable in law, to all intents, as if the ſame writings indented had beene made and inrolled in any of the Queenes Courts at Weſtminſter: Any thing in the ſaid former Act &c. notwithſtanding.

Inrolments in Lancaſter, Cheſter, Durham.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act ſhall not extend to any manors, lands, tenements or hereditaments lying within any City, Borough, or Towne corporate within any of the ſayd Counties, wherein the Mayors, Recorders, Bayliffes, or other officer or officers haue authority, and haue lawfully vſed to inroll any Euidences, Deeds, or other writings within their precinct or limits: Any thing in this Statute contayned to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXVIII.

By whoſe order the Bible, and Booke of Common Prayer ſhall be tranſlated into the Welſh tongue.

The Bible & booke of Common prayer tranſlated into the Welſh tongue.

THe Biſhops of Hereford, Saint Dauies, Aſaph, Bangor, and Landaph, and their ſucceſſors, ſhall take ſuch order amongſt themſelues for the ſoules health of the flockes committed to their charge within Wales, that the whole Bible conteining the new Teſtament and the old, with the Booke of Common prayer, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments, as is now vſed within the Realme in Engliſh, to be truely and exactly tranſlated into the Brittiſh or Welſh tongue, and that the ſame ſo tranſlated, being by them viewed, peruſed, and allowed, be imprinted to ſuch number at the leaſt, that one of either ſort may bee had for euery Cathedrall, Collegiat, and Pariſh Church, and Chappell of eaſe, in ſuch places, and countries of euery of the ſayd Dioceſſes where that tongue is commonly ſpoken or vſed, before the firſt day of March, Anno Domini, 1566. And that from that day forth, the whole Diuine Seruice ſhall be vſed and ſayd by the Curats and Miniſters throughout all the ſayd Dioceſſes where the Welſh tongue is commonly vſed, in the ſayd Brittiſh or Welſh tongue in ſuch manner and forme as is now vſed in the Engliſh tongue, and differing nothing in any order or forme from the Engliſh booke: for the which bookes ſo imprinted, the pariſhioners of euerie of the ſayd Pariſhes ſhall pay the one halfe or moity, and the Parſon and Vicar of euery of the ſayd Pariſhes (where both be) or elſe the one of them, where there is but one, ſhall pay the other halfe or moity, the prices of which bookes ſhall bee appointed and rated by the ſayd Biſhops & their ſucceſſors, or by three of them at the leaſt. The which things if the ſayd Biſhops or their ſucceſſors neglect to doe, then euery one of them ſhall forfeit to the Quéenes Maieſty, her heires and ſucceſſors the ſumme of xl.li. to be leuied of their goods and cattels.

A Bible and book of Common prayer in Engliſh ſhall be in euery Church in Wales.

And one booke conteining the Bible, and one other booke of Common Prayer in the Engliſh tongue, ſhall be brought and had in euery Church throughout Wales, in which the Bible and Booke of Common Prayer in Welſh is to be had by force of this Act (if there be none already before the firſt day of March, one thouſand fiue hundred ſixty ſixe) and the ſame bookes to remaine in ſuch conuenient places, within thy ſayd Churches, that ſuch as vnderſtand them may reſort at all conuenient times to read and peruſe the ſame. And alſo ſuch as doe not vnderſtand the ſayd language, may by conferring both tongues together, the ſooner attaine to the knowledge of the Engliſh tongue. Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. I.

All Acts made by any perſon ſince 1. El. for the conſecrating, inueſting, &c. of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, ſhall be good.

A queſtion whether the making of Biſhops were duly and orderly done.

FOr as much as diuers queſtions by ouer much boldneſſe of ſpéech and talke, amongſt many of the common ſort of people, being vnlearned, hath lately growne vpon the making and conſecrating of Archbiſhops and Biſhops within this Realme, whether the ſame were and be duely and orderly done according to the law or not, which is much tending to the ſlander of all the ſtate of the Clergy, being one of the greateſt ſtates of this Realme. Therefore, for the auoyding of ſuch ſlanderous ſpéech, and to the intent that euery man that is willing to know the truth, may plainely vnderſtand that the ſame euill ſpéech and talke is not grounded vpon any iuſt matter or cauſe: It is thought conuenient hereby partly to touch ſuch authorities, as doe allow and approue the making and conſecrating of the ſame Archbiſhops and Biſhops to be duely and orderly done, according to the lawes of this Realme, and thereupon further to prouide for the more ſurety thereof, as hereafter ſhall be expreſſed.

26.H.8.1. Firſt, it is very well knowne to all degrées of this Realme, that the late King of moſt famous memory, King Henry the eighth, as well by all the Clergy then of this Realme, in their ſeuerall conuocations, as alſo by all the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and Commons aſſembled in diuers of his Parliaments, was iuſtly and rightfully recogniſed and knowledged to haue the ſupreme power, iuriſdiction, order, rule and authority, ouer all the ſtate Eccleſiaſticall of the ſame, and the ſame power, iuriſdiction, and authority did vſe accordingly: 25.H.8.20. And that alſo the ſaid late King in the fiue and twentieth yeare of his reigne, did by authority of Parliament, amongſt other things, ſet forth a certaine order of the maner and forme how Archbiſhops and Biſhops within this Realme, and other his Dominions, ſhould be elected and made, as by the ſame more plainely appeareth: And that alſo the late King of worthy memory, King Edward the ſixth, did lawfully ſuccéed the ſaid late King Henry his father, in the imperiall Crown of this Realm, and did iuſtly poſſeſſe and enioy all the ſame power, iuriſdiction, and authority before mentioned, as a thing to him deſcended with the ſame imperial Crowne, and ſo vſed the ſame during his life: And that alſo the ſaid late King Edward the ſixth, in his time, by authority of Parliament, cauſed a godly and vertuous booke, intituled: The Booke of Common prayer, and adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other rites and ceremonies in the Church of England, to be made and ſet forth, not only for one vniforme order of Seruice, Common prayer, and the adminiſtration of Sacraments 5.& 6.Ed.6.1. to be vſed within this Realme, and other his Dominions: but alſo did adde and put to the ſame booke, a very good and godly order, of the maner and forme how Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſts, Deacons, and Miniſters ſhould from time to time be conſecrated, made and ordered, within this Realme, and other his Dominions, as by the ſame more plainely will and may appeare. And although in the time of the late Quéene Mary, as well the ſayd Act and Statute made in the fiue 1.& 2.P.& M.8. and twentieth year of the reigne of the ſayd late King Henry the eighth, as alſo the ſeuerall Acts and Statutes made in the ſecond, third, fourth, fifth, and ſixth yeares of the reigne of the ſaid late King Edward, for the authorizing and allowing of the ſaid booke of Common prayer, and other the premiſſes, amongſt diuers other Acts and Statutes, touching the ſayd ſupreme authority, were repealed: Yet neuertheleſſe, at the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the firſt yéere of 1.El.1 the reigne of our Soueraigne Lady the Quéens Maieſty that now is, by one other Act and Statute there made, all ſuch iuriſdictions, priuiledges, ſuperiorities, and preheminences Spirituall and Eccleſiaſticall, as by any Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall power or authority, hath heretofore béene, or may lawfuly bee vſed ouer the Eccleſiaſticall eſtate of this Realme, and the order, reformation, and correction of the ſame, is fully and abſolutely, by the authority of the ſame

Parliament, vnited and annexed to the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme. And by the ſame act and ſtatute, there is alſo giuen to the Queenes Highneſſe, her heires and ſucceſſors, Kings or Queenes of this Realme, full power and authority by Letters Patents, vnder the great Seale of England, from time to time, to aſſigne, name, and authorize ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhe or they ſhall thinke meet and conuenient, to exerciſe, vſe, occupy, and execute vnder her Highneſſe, all manner of iuriſdictions, priuiledges, preheminences, and authorities, in any wiſe, touching or concerning any Spirituall or Eccleſiaſticall power or iuriſdiction within this Realme, or any other her Highneſſe Dominions or Countries. And alſo by the ſame Act and Statute, the ſayd Act made in the xxv. yeare of the reigne of the ſayd late King Henry the eighth, for the order and forme of the electing and making of the ſayd Archbiſhops and Biſhops, together with diuers other Statutes, touching the iuriſdiction ouer the ſtate Eccleſiaſticall, is reuiued, and made in full force and effect, as by the ſame Act and Statute, plainely appeareth. And that alſo by another Act and Statute made in the ſayd Parliament, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our ſayd Soueraigne Lady, entituled, An Act for the vniformity of Common Prayer, and ſeruice in the Church, and adminiſtration of Sacraments, the ſayd booke of Common Prayer, and the adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other the ſayd orders, rites and ceremonies before mentioned, and all things therein contained, with certaine additions therein newly added and appointed by the ſaid eſtatute, is fully ſtabliſhed and authorized, to be vſed in all places within this Realme, and all other the Queenes Maieſties Dominions and Countries, as by the ſame Act, amongſt other things, more plainely appeareth. Whereupon, our ſayd Soueraigne Lady, the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſty, being moſt iuſtly and lawfully inueſted in the Imperiall Crowne of this Realme, with all authorities, preheminences and dignities thereunto appertaining: And thereby hauing in her Maieſties order and diſpoſition, all the ſayd iuriſdictions, power, and authorities, ouer the ſtate Eccleſiaſticall and Temporall, aſwell in caſes Eccleſiaſticall as Temporall, within this Realme, and other her Maieſties Dominions and Countries, hath by her Supreme authorities, at diuers times ſithence the beginning of her Maieſties reigne, cauſed diuers and ſundry graue and well learned men, to be duly elected, made and conſecrated Archbiſhops and Biſhops, of diuers Archbiſhoprickes and Biſhoprickes within this Realme, and other her Maieſties Dominions and Countries, according to ſuch order and forme, and with ſuch Ceremonies, in and about their conſecrations, as were allowed and ſet forth by the ſaid Acts, ſtatutes, and orders annexed to to the ſaid booke of Common Prayer before mentioned. And further, for the auoiding of all ambiguities and queſtions that might be obiected againſt the lawfull confirmations, inueſting, and conſecrations of the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops, her Highneſſe in her Letters Patents, vnder the great Seale of England, directed to any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, or others, for the confirming, inueſting, and conſecrating of any perſon, elected to the office or dignity of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, hath not only vſed ſuch words and ſentences as were accuſtomed to be vſed by the ſaid late K. Henry, and K. Edward, her Maieſties father and brother, in their like L. Patents, made for ſuch cauſes: but alſo hath vſed and put in her Maieſties ſaid Letters Patents, diuers other generall words and ſentences, whereby her Highneſſe by her Supreme power and authority, hath diſpenſed with all cauſes, or doubts, of any imperfection or diſability, that can or may in any wiſe be obiected againſt the ſame, as by her Maieſties ſaid Letters Patents, remaining of Record, more plainly will appeare. So that to all thoſe that will well conſider of the effect and true intent of the ſaid Lawes and Statutes, and of the ſupreme and abſolute authority of the Queenes Highneſſe, and which ſhe by her Maieſties ſayd Letters Patents, hath vſed and put in vre, in and about the making and conſecrating of the ſaid Archbiſhops and Biſhops: it is and may be very euident and apparant, that no cauſe of ſcruple, ambiguity, or doubt, can or may iuſtly be obiected againſt the ſaid elections, confirmations, or conſecrations, or any other materiall thing, meet to be vſed or had in or about the ſame: but that euery thing requiſite and materiall for that purpoſe, hath beene made and done, as preciſely and with as great a care and diligence, or rather more, as euer the like was done before her Maieſties time, as the Records of her Maieſties ſaid father and brothers time, and alſo of her owne time, will more plainly teſtifie and declare.

1. El. 2.

The Q. by her ſupreme authority cauſed diuers perſons to be elected & conſecrated Archbiſhops and Biſhops.

The Qu. diſpenſation of all doubts of imperfections or diſability of electing of Biſhops.

Wherefore, for the plaine declaration of all the premiſſes and to the intent that the ſame may the better be knowne to euery of the Queenes Maieſties Subiects, whereby ſuch euill ſpeech, as heretofore hath been vſed againſt the high ſtate of Prelacy, may hereafter ceaſe: Be it now declared and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, That the ſaid Act and ſtatute made in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our ſayd Soueraigne Lady the Queenes Maieſty, whereby the ſayd booke of Common prayer, and the adminiſtration of Sacraments, with other rites and ceremonies, is authorized and allowed to be vſed, ſhall ſtand and remaine good and perfect to all reſpects and purpoſes: And that ſuch order and forme for the conſecrating of Archbiſhops and Biſhops, & for the making of Prieſts, Deacons, & Miniſters, as was ſet forth in the time of the ſaid late King Edward the ſixth and added to the ſayd booke of Common Prayer, and authorized by Parliament in the fifth and ſixth yeare of the ſayd late King, ſhall ſtand and be in full force and effect, and ſhall from henceforth be vſed and obſerued in all places within this Realme, and other the Queenes Maieſties Dominions and Countries.

A confirmation of the ſtat. of 1. El. 2. touching the booke of Common prayer, and adminiſtration of the Sacraments.

A confirmation of the ſtat. of 5. & 6. Ed. 6. 1. touching the forme of conſecrating Archbiſhops &c.

And that all Acts and things heretofore had, made, or done by any perſon or perſons, in or about any conſecration, confirmation, or inueſting of any perſon or perſons, elected to the office or dignitie of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop within this Realme, or within any other the Quéenes Maieſties Dominions or Countries, by vertue of the Quéenes Maieſties Letters Patents or Commiſſion, ſithence the beginning of her Maieſties reigne, be & ſhall be by authority of this preſent Parliament, declared, iudged, & déemed, at & from euery of the ſeuerall times of the doing thereof, good and perfect to all reſpects and purpoſes: Any matter or thing that can or may be obiected to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

All acts done by any perſon about conſecration or inueſting any perſon elected to be Biſhop by vertue of the Q. letters patents ſithence the beginning of her reigne, ſhal be good.

And that all perſons that haue béene or ſhall be made, ordered, or conſecrate, Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſts, Miniſters of Gods holy Word, & Sacraments, or Deacons, after the forme and order preſcribed in the ſayd order & forme how Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſts, Deacons, & Miniſters ſhould be conſecrated, made, and ordered, be in very déede and alſo by authority hereof, declared and enacted, to be, and ſhall be Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Prieſts, Miniſters, and Deacons, and rightly made, ordered, and conſecrated: Any ſtatute, law, canon or other thing to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

All perſons made & to be made Biſhops, Prieſts Miniſters, &c. according to the ſtat of 5. & 6. E. 6. 1 bee rightly made St. 39 El 8.

Prouided alwayes, and neuertheleſſe be it enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that no perſon or perſons ſhall at any time hereafter, be impeached or moleſted, in body, lands, liuings, or goods by occaſion or meane of any [a] Certificat by any Archbiſhop or Biſhop heretofore made, or before the laſt day of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament to be made, by vertue of any Act made in the firſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, touching or concerning the refuſall of the oath, declared and ſet forth by Act of Parliament, in the firſt yeare of the reigne of our ſayd Soueraigne Lady Quéene Elizabeth: Any thing in this Act, or any other Act or Statute heretofore made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

[a] Dyer fo. 234.

And that all tenders of the ſayd oath, made by any Archbiſhop or Biſhop aforeſayd, or before the laſt day of this preſent Seſſion, to be made by authority of any Act eſtabliſhed in the firſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, and all refuſals of the ſame oath ſo tendered, or before the laſt day of this preſent Seſſion, to be tendered by any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, by authority of any Act eſtabliſhed in the firſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament: ſhall be voyde and of none effect or validitie in the Law.

No perſon ſhall be impeached by any Certificate of and Biſhop heretofore made touching the oath of Supremacie made 1. El. 1.

Cap. II.

The defendant ſhal recouer coſts and damages, where the plaintiſe doth delay or diſcontinue his ſuite, or is non-ſuite, &c.

Where diuers perſons of their malicious mindes, & without any iuſt cauſe do many times cauſe and procure others of the Quéenes Maieſties louing Subiects, to be very much moleſted and troubled, by attachments & arreſts, made of their bodies, aſwell by proceſſe of Latitat, alias, and Pluries capias, ſued out of the Court commonly called the Kings Bench, as alſo by plaint, bill, or other ſuit, in the Court commonly called the Marſhalſey, and within the Citie of London, and other Cities, Townes Corporate, and places where any liberty or priuiledge is to hold pleas of debt, treſpaſſe, and other perſonall actions and ſuites: And when the parties that be arreſted or attached, are brought forth to anſwer to ſuch actions and ſuites, as ſhould bee obiected againſt them, then many times there is no declaration or matter layd againſt the parties ſo arreſted or attached, whereunto they may make any anſwer: And ſo the party arreſted, is very maliciouſly put to great charges and expences, without any iuſt or reaſonable cauſe. And yet neuertheleſſe, hitherto, by order of the Law, the party ſo grieued and vexed, could neuer haue any coſts or damages, to him to be iudged or awarded for the ſayd vniuſt vexation and trouble.

The inconuenience of purſuing of ſuits vpon malice without iuſt cauſes.

For remedy whereof, be it enacted and ordained, by the authority of this preſent Parliament, That when and as often as any perſon or perſons, after the firſt day of Ianuary next comming, ſhall ſue forth, or by any meane, cauſe or procure to be ſued forth of the ſayd Court, commonly called the Kings Bench, any of the Writs or Proces before mentioned, againſt any perſon or perſons, which vpon the ſame Writ or Writs ſhall happen to be arreſted, or which ſhall appeare vpon the returne of any the ſayd Writs or Proces, and ſhall put in his or their bayle or bayles, to anſwer ſuch ſuit as ſhall be obiected againſt him, according to the common order of the Court: that then, in euery ſuch caſe, if the party or parties, at whoſe ſuit, meanes, or procurement, the ſame Writ, Writs, or Proces was obtained or ſued forth, doe not within thrée dayes next after ſuch bayle had and taken, put into the ſame Court his or their declaration againſt the ſame party or parties, againſt whom ſuch Writs or Proces hath béene or ſhall be ſued: or if after declaration had and put into the ſame Court, the plaintiſe in ſuch caſe ſhall not proſecute the ſame with effect, but ſhall willingly and apparantly to the ſame Court, ſuffer his or their ſayd ſuit to be delayed, or ſhall after declaration ſo had, ſuffer the ſame ſuit to be diſcontinued, or otherwiſe, ſhall be nonſuit in the ſame: That then, in euery ſuch caſe, the Iudges of the ſayd Court for the time being, ſhall by their diſcretions, from time to time, as they ſhall ſée or Coſts, damages & charges ſhall be awarded where the plaintiſe doth delay his ſuit, doth diſcontinue or is nonſuit in the Kings bench, 23. H. 8. 15. 4 Iac. 3.

perceiue any ſuch default to be in the party or parties, at whoſe ſuit, meanes, or procurement, ſuch writs or proceſſe was ſued forth, award and iudge to euery ſuch perſon and perſons ſo arreſted, vexed, moleſted, or troubled by ſuch writs, or ſuit, his and their coſts, damages, and charges, by any meanes ſuſtained by occaſion of any ſuch writs, proceſſe, arreſts, or ſuites, taken, ſued, or had againſt him, to be payd by ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſo doth, or ſhall cauſe or procure any ſuch writs, or proceſſe to be ſued forth, as is aforeſaid.

A remedy if the plaintiffe doe delay, diſcontinue or is nonſuit in the Marſhalſey or any City or Towne corporate.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that if any perſon or perſons, ſhall after the ſaid firſt day of Januarie, cauſe or procure any other perſon or perſons, to be attached or arreſted to anſwer to any bill, plaint, action, or ſuit, in the ſaid Court of the Marſhalſey, or in any Court within the ſaid Citie of London, or in any Citie, Borough, Towne corporate, or other place or places, where any libertie or priuiledge is vſed to hold plea, in any action or actions perſonall, and doe not, in all Courts, hauing their continuance De die in diem, within three dayes next after ſuch time as the partie defendant or defendants ſhall be bayled, or otherwiſe appeare in Court, by force of any arreſt or attachment had and returned, and in all other Courts at the next Seſſion or Court to be holden, after ſuch arreſts or attachments, and appearance of the partie defendant, or defendants whereas the ſaid partie defendant or defendants, ſhall bee compelled, or ought to appeare (vnleſſe a further day ſhall bee eſpecially giuen by the diſcretion of the Court, from whence any precept, proceſſe or attachment, ſhall be awarded) put, and exhibit his bill or declaration againſt ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſo by his ſuit and meanes, ſhall bee attached or arreſted into ſuch Court, where the party by ſuch attachment or arreſt is compelled or ought to appeare: or if any ſuch perſon or perſons, at whoſe ſuit or meanes any ſuch attachment or arreſt of any perſon or perſons, ſhall be ſo had and made, after his declaration, bill or plaint exhibited, doe not from thenceforth proſecute the ſame his ſuit with effect, or ſhall ſuffer the ſame to be diſcontinued, or ſhall after be non-ſuit in the ſame, or willingly & apparently to the ſame Court, ſhall for vexation of the defendant in ſuch ſuit, delay the ſame ſuit: That then in euery ſuch caſe, the Judge or Judges of euery ſuch Court, before whom any perſon or perſons ſhall ſo be ſued, moleſted or troubled, by occaſion or meane of any ſuch attachment or arreſt, or by ſuch ſuit or ſuits, ſhall forthwith by his or their diſcretion, from time to time, as hee or they ſhall ſee or perceiue any ſuch default or delay in the partie that cauſed or procured any ſuch attachment or arreſt to be had, award and iudge to euerie ſuch perſon or perſons, which after the ſaid firſt day of January ſhall ſo be attached, arreſted, moleſted, vexed, or troubled, his coſts, damages, and charges, by any meanes ſuſtained by occaſion of any ſuch attachment, arreſt, or ſuit, ſo had and taken againſt him, to be paid by ſuch perſon or perſons, that ſo doth, or ſhall cauſe or procure any ſuch attachment or arreſt to be ſo had or made.

The penalty for arreſting of any perſon at the ſuit of another not knowing thereof. 2 Coke pl. fo. 160. Raſt. pl. fo. 598.

And if any perſon or perſons, at any time after the ſaid firſt day of January, ſhall by any way or meane, maliciouſly, or for vexation and trouble, cauſe or procure any other perſon or perſons, to bee arreſted or attached, to anſwer in any the Courts or places aforeſaid, at the ſuit, or in the name of any perſon or perſons, where indeed there is no ſuch perſon or perſons knowne, or without the aſſent, conſent, or agreement of ſuch perſon or perſons, at whoſe ſuit, or in whoſe name ſuch arreſt or attachment is or ſhall be ſo had and procured: that then euery ſuch perſon and perſons, that ſo ſhall cauſe, or procure any ſuch arreſt or attachment of any other perſon or perſons to be had or made for vexation or trouble, as is aforeſaid, and ſhall thereof be conuicted, or lawfully accuſed by inditement, preſentment, or by the teſtimonie of two ſufficient witneſſes or mo, or other due proofe, ſhall for euery ſuch offence by him or them committed, done, or procured, haue, and ſuffer impriſonment of his or their body or bodies by the ſpace of ſix moneths, without baile or mainepriſe: And before he or they ſhall be deliuered out of priſon, ſhall pay to the party or parties ſo arreſted or attached by his or their meanes or procurement, treble the coſts, charges, damages, and expences, that hee or they ſhall be put vnto, by reaſon or occaſion of ſuch arreſt or attachment ſo had, and ſhall alſo forfeit and pay vnto ſuch perſon or perſons in whoſe name, or at whoſe ſuit he or they ſhall ſo procure ſuch arreſt or attachment to be had or made, if then there ſhall be any ſuch perſon knowne, the ſumme of ten pounds, for euery ſuch offence.

A remedy to recouer the coſts and damages awarded. Raſt. pl. fo. 598.

And be it further enacted by the authoritie aforeſaid, that euery perſon and perſons to whom any coſts, charges, damages, forfeiture or paiment of any ſumme or ſummes of money, by authority of this Act ſhall be awarded, iudged, or forfeited: ſhall and may at all times hereafter haue his or their remedie for the recouery thereof, by action of debt, bill, or plaint, in any Court of Record, againſt ſuch perſon or perſons, their heires, executors, or adminiſtrators, as ſhould or ought to pay the ſame by vertue or force of this Act, in which action, bill, or plaint, no eſſoigne, protection, or wager of Law ſhall bee admitted or allowed to any the defendant, or defendants in the ſame.

CAP.

CAP. III.

Penaltie for conueying of any ſheepe aliue out of this Realme.

FOr ſundry good cauſes and conſiderations moued in this high Court of Parliament, be it enacted by the authority of the ſame, That no manner of perſon or perſons, of what eſtate, degrée, or condition ſoeuer he or they be, ſhall after the laſt day of February, next enſuing, bring, deliuer, ſend, receiue, or take, or procure to be brought, deliuered, ſent, or receiued, into any Ship or Bottome, any Rams, Shéepe, or Lambes, or any manner of other kind of ſhéepe being aliue, to be carried and conueyed out of this Realme of England, Wales, or Ireland, or out of any of the Quéenes Highneſſe Dominions, vpon the paine that euery ſuch perſon or perſons, their ayders, abettors, procurers, and comforters, ſhall for his or their firſt offence or offences, ſo done contrary to the true meaning of this Eſtatute, forfeit and loſe all his goods for euer: whereof, the one moity ſhall be to the Quéenes Maieſtie, her Heires and Succeſſors, the other moity to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, wherein on eſſoine, protection, nor wager of Law for the defendant ſhall be admitted or allowed.

The penalty for deliuering or receiuing into any Ship any Sheep being aliue to be caried forth of the Realme.

And further, euery ſuch offendor or offendors ſhal ſuffer impriſonment by the ſpace of one whole yeare, without baile and maineprize: and at the yeares end, ſhall in ſome open Market Towne, in the fulneſſe of the Market, on the Market day, haue his left hand cut off, and that to be nailed vp, in the openeſt place of ſuch Market. And that euery perſon or perſons eftſoones offending againſt this ſtatute ſhall be adiudging a felon, and ſhall ſuffer death, as in caſes of felony.

The ſecond offence felony.

Prouided alwayes, that this Act ſhall not extend to any corruption of bloud, or bee preiudiciall or hurtfull to any woman, claiming dower by or from any ſuch offendor or offendors: Any thing in this Act to the contrary, notwithſtanding.

No corruption of bloud or forfeiture of Dower.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſayd, that the Iuſtices of Oyer and Terminer, Iuſtices of Gaole deliuery, and Iuſtices of Peace, in euery County and Shire within this Realme of England & Wales, & other the Quéenes Maieſties Dominions, ſhall haue full power and authority by vertue of this Act, to enquire of euery offendor & offendors, contrary to the forme and effect of this Act, and to heare & determine euery offence & offences, committed, perpetrated, and done contrary to the forme and effect of the ſame, according to the courſe of the Laws of this Realme. 3.H.6.2.

Which Iuſtices may heare and determine the offences aforeſaid.

CAP. IIII.

He that taketh away priuily from the perſon of another money or goods, not knowing thereof, ſhall not haue his Clergy, &c.

WHere a certaine kind of euill diſpoſed perſons, commonly called Cutpurſes, or Pickpurſes, but indéed by the Laws of this Land very felons and théeues, doe confeder together, making among themſelues, as it were, a brotherhood or fraternity of an Art or Myſtery, to liue idly by the ſecret ſpoile of the good and true Subiects of this Realme. Aud aſwell at Sermons and preachings of the Word of God, and in places & time of doing ſeruice and common Prayer in Churches, Chappels, Cloſets, and Oratories: And not only there, but alſo in the Princes Palace, houſe, yea and preſence, & at the places and Courts of Iuſtice, and at the times of Miniſtration of the Laws in the ſame, and in Faires, Markets and other aſſemblies of people: Yea, and at the time of doing of execution, of ſuch as béene attainted of any murder, felony, or other criminall cauſe, ordained chiefely for terror and example of euill doers, doe without reſpect or regard of any time, place, or perſon, or of any feare or dread of God, or any Law, or puniſhment, vnder the cloake of honeſtie, by their outward apparell, countenance, and behauiour, ſubtilly, priuily, craftily, and feloniouſly, take the goods of diuers good and honeſt ſubiects, from their perſons, by cutting and picking their Purſes, and other felonious ſleights and deuiſes, to the vtter vndoing and impouerishment of many.

The impudent boldnes of Cutpurſes & Pickpurſes.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, that no perſon or perſons, which hereafter ſhall happen to be indicted or appealed for felonious taking of any money, goods or cattels, from the perſon of any other, priuily without his knowledge, in any place whatſoeuer, and thereupon found guilty by verdict of twelue men, or ſhall confeſſe the ſame vpon his or their arraignement, or will not [a] anſwer directly to the ſame, according to the Laws of this Realme, or ſhall ſtand wilfully or of malice, or obſtinately mute, or challenge peremtorie aboue the number of twenty, or ſhall be vpon ſuch indictment or appeale outlawed, ſhall from henceforth bee admitted to haue the benefit of his or their Clergy, but vtterly be excluded thereof, and ſhall ſuffer death, in ſuch manner and forme, as they ſhould if they were no Clarkes.

He that doth feloniouſly take money, &c. priuily from the perſon of another ſhall not haue his Clergie.

And alſo whereas diuers perſons doe oft times commit and doe diuers and ſundrie deteſtable murders, heinous robberies and felonies, and other capitall offences, for the which Clergy is not allowable by the lawes and ſtatutes of this Realme, and after the ſame offences, ſo done,

No Kentiſh nor Suffolke Clothes ſhall be tranſported vnwrought: and for euery nine Clothes vnwrought tranſported by licence, one Cloth ſhall be wrought of like ſort, length, breadth, and goodneſſe.

FOr the better employment and reliefe of great multitudes of the Queenes ſubiects, vſing the Art and labour of Clothworking, it may pleaſe the Queenes moſt excellent Maieſty, at the moſt humble ſuits of her ſayd ſubiects, that it be enacted.

For nine cloths tranſported by licence one ſhal bee ready wrought. 7.Ed.4.3. 3.H.7.11. 27.H.8.13. 33.H.8.19.

And be it enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, that from henceforth, for euery nine Clothes vnwrought, hereafter to be ſhipped or carried into any the parts beyond the Seas, contrary to the forme of any Statute heretofore made, and now remaining in ſtrength, by force of any licence hereafter to be granted, the party that ſhall ſhip and carry ouer the ſame, ſhall ſhip and carry ouer alſo one like woollen Cloth, of like ſort, length, breadth, and goodneſſe, ready wrought and dreſſed, that is to ſay, rowed, barbed, firſt courſed and ſhorne from the one end to the other, ſo that euery tenth Cloth paſſing ouer the Seas, in forme aforeſayd, may & ſhall be dreſſed within this Realme, before the ſame ſhall be ſhipped or tranſported ouer, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch nine Clothes ſo to be ſhipped or tranſported, contrary to the meaning of this act, ten pounds.

The tenth cloth ſhall be none of the licence.

Prouided alway, that euery ſuch tenth Cloth, ſo to be tranſported ready wrought, ſhall not bee accompted any of the Clothes, permitted to be tranſported by force of ſuch licence, but that ſuch perſon as ſhall haue ſuch licence, may tranſport, according to ſuch licence, the full number of Clothes vnwrought, mentioned in the ſame licence, ouer and aboue the number of ſuch tenth Clothes, which they ſhall be compelled to ſhip and carry ouer by force of this Statute.

And be it further enacted by authority aforeſaid, that from the laſt day of February now next comming, no perſon ſhall ſhip or carry into the parts beyond the Seas, contrary to the forme of any ſtatute heretofore made now remaining in force, any Cloth commonly called Kentiſh Cloth, or Suffolke Cloth, made, or to be made in the Counties of Kent or Suffolke, vnwrought and vndreſſed within this Realme, that is to ſay, not rowed, barbed, firſt courſed, and ſhorne, vpon paine to forfeit for euery ſuch Cloth, commonly called Kentiſh or Suffolke Cloth, made, or to be made in either of the ſayd Counties, ſo to be ſhipped or tranſported contrary to the forme of this Statute, forty ſhillings.

Kentiſh or Suffolke cloth ſhall not be tranſported vnwrought by any licence.

And that no licence for tranſporting of any Cloth or Clothes ſhall be conſtrued or expounded, to extend to any ſuch Kentiſh or Suffolke Cloth, made, or to bée made, in either of the ſaid Counties, to be from henceforth tranſported.

And that all the forfeitures appointed by this Statute, for tranſporting of Clothes, ſhall bée the one halfe to the Quéenes Maieſtie, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to the Maſter and Wardens of the ſaid Company of Clothworkers, to the reliefe of the poore of the ſaid Company, to be recouered in any Court of Record, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, wherein no Eſſoigne, Protection, nor Wager of Law, for the defendant ſhall be admitted & allowed.

Who ſhall haue the forf. and by what meanes.

CAP. VII.

Who may vſe the Trade or occupation of Drapers in Shrewesbury, or the Liberties thereof, &c.

FOraſmuch as in the Towne of Shrewsbury in the County of Salop, there hath béene, time out of minde of man, and yet is a Company, Fraternity, or Guilde of the art and myſtery of Drapers, which ſaid Company, Fraternity, or Guilde, hath béene by a great time lawfully incorporated, and made a body politike: which ſaid Corporation and Fraternity, hath by reaſon of a certaine trade and occupation of buying and ſelling of Welſh Cloth and lining, commonly called Cottons, Frizes, and Plaines, which they haue had, and vſed amongſt them, béene able not onely to liue thereby, but alſo haue at their common coſts prouided houſes and other neceſſaries for poore people within the ſayd Towne of Shrewsbury, whom alſo with further reliefe they doe wéekely helpe and maintaine. And by the ſame their trade aforeſaid, haue vſed moſt commonly to ſet on worke, aboue ſixe hundred perſons, of the art or ſcience of Sheremen, or Frizers, within the ſayd Towne of Shrewsbury, whereby as well they, as their poore wiues and families, are wholly maintained and kept. To the impeachment and hinderance of which ſaid trade, diuers Artificers, and other perſons within the ſayd Towne of Shrewsbury, not being of the ſayd Company or myſtery, nor brought vp in the vſe of the ſayd trade, haue of late with great diſorder, vpon a méere couetous deſire, and minde, intromitted with, and occupied the ſaid trade of buying of Welſh cloth or lining, hauing no knowledge, experience, or ſkill in the ſame. By reaſon whereof, the ſaid ignorant and vnſkilfull perſons, haue and doe buy commonly and apply ſuch Welſh cloth and lining as is defectiue, and not truely made, according to the good Lawes and Statutes of this Realme in that behalfe prouided. By meanes whereof, the ſaid trade is greatly decayed and diſcredited, to the great loſſe and hinderance of ſuch poore ſheremen and Frizers, as were wont to be ſet on worke thereby, and of all others that were wont to be maintained, and relieued by the ſaid trade, as well in making as working of the ſaid Frizes, Cottons, and Plaines, and to the great deceit damage and hinderance of all the Quéenes Maieſties Subiects, that buy and prouide the ſame, and to the ſlander and diſcredit of the ſaid commodities in forraine parts, where, by the occaſion aforeſaid, they are growne out of eſtimation and credite.

A Fraternity of the myſtery of Drapers in Shrewsbury

What benefit the ſame company haue receiued and done to others by buying and ſelling of Welſh cloth & Lining.

The inconueniences that vnskilfull perſons do deale in a trade whereof they are ignorant.

And where moreouer in the Parliament holden at Weſtminſter, in the fourth and fifth yeares of the reigne of our late Soueraigne Lord and Lady, King Philip and Quéene Mary, vpon good and deliberate aduice, amongſt other things, it was enacted, that no perſon or perſons which ſhould buy to ſell againe, by way of retayle or otherwiſe, any of the ſaid Welſh linings, ſhould dreſſe or worke, or cauſe to be dreſſed and wrought, within his or their dwelling houſe or houſes, or in any other place by himſelfe, or his ſeruant, any of the ſaid Welſh linings, but ſhould put the ſame to ſome ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhould be of the Art or Science, of Sheremen, Cottoners, or Frizers, to be by them wrought and dreſſed, vpon paine of forfeiture for euery Welſh Cloth or Lining, frized or cottoned to the contrary, ſixe ſhillings and eight pence, as in the ſame Act doth appeare. Sithence which time, diuers perſons for the defrauding of the ſaid Statute, haue cauſed others to buy the ſaid Frizes, Cottons, & Plaines, and then to take the workemanſhip thereof vnto themſelues, of ſuch buyers: vſing the like fraud, by buying and turning worke ouer vnto the ſame perſons, of whom they receiue worke, to the manifeſt defrauding of the good intent and meaning of the ſaid Statute.

The good intent of the ſtat. of 4. & 5. P. & M. 5.

By what fraudulent meanes the good intent of the ſaid ſtat. is defeated.

For remedy whereof, and for the benefite and reliefe of the poore men, that be Sheremen and Frizers: Be it enacted by the authoritie of this preſent Parliament, That from & after the Feaſt of Eaſter next enſuing, no maner perſon or perſons whatſoeuer, inhabiting and dwelling within

No perſon inhabiting in Shrewsbury, ſhall occupy the trade of buying of Welſh Cottons, &c. vnleſſe he be free thereof.

REP. 14. El. 12.

the ſaid Towne of Shrewsbury, or the liberties and franchiſes of the ſame Towne, other than ſuch as haue, or ſhall haue ſerued as Apprentices in the ſaid Occupation and Science of Drapers, or be, or ſhall be frée of the ſaid Science or Myſterie, ſhall occupie, vſe, exerciſe, or frequent the ſaid Trade, Art, Myſterie or Science of buying of the ſaid Welſh Cloth or Lining, Cottons, Frizes and Plaines, nor haue any factor or doer for him or them in the ſame, nor by any colour, engine or fraud, be any occupier of the ſaid Frizes, Cottons and Plaines, vpon paine that euery perſon and perſons, inhabiting as is aforeſaid, and occupying, vſing or exerciſing the ſaid trade, occupation, or ſcience of buying of Welſh Cloth and Lining, and not authoriſed by this preſent Act, ſhall loſe and forfeit for euery piéce of the ſame Clothes ſo bought, ſixe ſhillings and eight pence.

He that occupieth the trade of buying of Frizes, Cottons, &c. ſhall not exerciſe to Frize or Cotton.

And ouer that, be it further enacted, That no perſon dwelling and inhabiting, as is aforeſaid, and vſing and occupying the ſaid trade of buying of Frizes, Cottons or Plaines, ſhall vſe or exerciſe the faculty of frizing or cottoning, vpon paine to incurre ſuch like forfeitures for euery offence, as is aboue mentioned. The moitie of all ſuch paines and forfeitures aboue mentioned, ſhall be to our Soueraigne Lady the Quéene, her heires and ſucceſſors, and the other moity to ſuch perſon and perſons, as will ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, by action, bill or plaint, of debt, wherein no protection, eſſoyne, iniunction or wager of Law ſhall bee allowed and admitted.

A prouiſo for them that occupied before the trade of buying of Welſh Cloth.

Prouided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that this preſent Act, or any thing, ſentence or matter therein contained, ſhall not extend, or bee in any wiſe preiudiciall or hurtfull to any ſuch perſon or perſons, as haue heretofore vſed, occupied or frequented the ſaid Trade, Art, Myſtery or Science of buying or ſelling of Welſh Clothes or Linings aforeſaid, but that euerie ſuch perſon and perſons, which hath or haue vſed the ſaid Trade or Science, as is aforeſaid, ſhall and may haue and enioy the like benefit, commodity and aduantage, as well in buying and ſelling the ſaid Welſh Clothes and Linings, as otherwiſe, in as large, frée and ample manner and forme, as if this Act had neuer béene made.

Occupiers of the trade of buying and ſelling Welſh Cloth, ſhall pay to their Sheremen ready money.

And further, to the intent the ſaid poore Sheremen, Frizers, and Cottoners, may bee the better relieued and maintained, bee it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that all and euery perſon and perſons, occupying and vſing, or which hereafter at any time ſhall occupie or vſe the ſaid Trade, Science or Art of buying and ſelling of Welſh Cloth and Linings aforeſaid, and ſhall from the Feaſt of Eaſter next enſuing, deliuer any Welſh Cloth or Linings aforeſaid, to be cottoned, frized, dreſſed or wrought, to any Shereman, Cottoner or Frizer, ſhall deliuer, content and pay to the ſaid Shereman, Cottoner or Frizer, ready and preſent money for all his ſaid worke, without any colour, fraud or engine whatſoeuer, and ſhall not deliuer any ware or other thing whatſoeuer in contentation or ſatisfaction of his ſaid worke, or any part thereof, vpon paine that euery perſon offending in this behalfe, ſhall forthwith loſe all ſuch liberties, fréedomes and priuiledges, which he hath or ſhall haue, as one of the ſaid company, fraternitie or guilde of the ſaid Art and Myſtery of Drapers: and alſo ſhall for euer after be vtterly diſabled and excluded to vſe, occupie, or enioy, by himſelfe, or by any other for him or to his vſe, the ſaid Trade, Art, Myſterie, or Science of buying or ſelling of Welſh Clothes or Linings, this Act, or any other matter or thing whatſoeuer to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.
